Our Alumnus Chapters

At the recent Fourth District Convention banquet the writer was called upon to talk on the subject of "Our Alumnus Chapters" and at the request of Brother Smythe a few of the ideas presented in that talk are given here.

The present plan upon which Alumnus Chapters are conducted seems to be mainly social. Of course the social side must be emphasized for as has been said by the secretary of one Alumnus Chapter, "you can't get a tired business man out to a dry business meeting". But I believe that the Alumnus Chapter can work along other lines also.

It seems to me that there were two ideas responsible for the Constitutional provision for Alumnus Chapters; one was to keep up the interest of the Alumnus in his fraternity and the other was to use the Alumnus for the good of the fraternity. Both of these are essential to the best interest of the fraternity but it looks as two more great possibilities for good in the operation of an Alumnus Chapter have been neglected or overlooked. I believe the Alumnus chapter can be used to a large extent for the good of the Alumnus himself and for the good of the community in which he lives.

Of course in getting the Alumnus out to the meetings of the Alumnus chapter is doing him good. He meets the older and younger Alumni and generally has a pretty good time but the type of meeting is usually the same; a luncheon or dinner, some speeches and possibly a brief business meeting and it is over until the next affair of a similar nature.

I believe that an occasional meeting of a purely social nature would be helpful. If there is an active chapter in the town with the Alumnus chapter the chapter house would be an excellent place to hold this meeting. Light refreshments could be served if desired and the meeting turned into a general visit. If there doesn't happen to be an active chapter in the town, possibly some good brother could be prevailed upon to open his home to the brothers. Once in awhile the chapter could hold a meeting and have the sister Pis present. This might be good for our manners if nothing else.

Again the meeting now and then might be thrown open for the general discussion of the live problems of the day. As representative college men of the country we must be interested in these questions and have some ideas concerning them and it would certainly help us to talk them over and get another man's view of them. As citizens the members of the Alumnus chapter should be vitally interested in the good of the community and community problems could be discussed at some meeting with profit to all.

With regard to what the Alumnus chapter can do to help the general fraternity. If there is an active chapter in the same city with the Alumnus Chapter the latter can be made into a powerful force to lead that active chapter in the right way. Each Alumnus living in the town should make it a point to visit the active chapter once or twice, oftener if possible, during each school term. He could meet all the boys, see how things are going, and if he did nothing else his visit would make the active members know that they belong to a real fraternity and that the older men of the community were interested in their welfare and progress. Also if Alumnus happens to visit a town where we have an active chapter he should, if at all possible, visit that active chapter. It will do him good and make him feel a whole lot younger and at the same time make the youngsters feel that the old times are still interested in them regardless of the old boys' original chapter.

Then I believe our fraternity regulations should require that each Alumnus Chapter appoint a visiting committee to visit every active chapter in the neighborhood of that Alumnus chapter. This visiting committee to visit the active chapter at least twice during the school year, oftener if possible, and make it a point to find out what the young fellows are thinking about, how they live, and what the Alumnus chapter can do to help the active chapter. If they see anything wrong they should say so at the same time pointing out the remedy.

As a general thing this committee would be able to find out and stop anything tending to hurt the chapter or the fraternity before it got well started.

In the case that the Alumnus chapter is not in the same town with the active chapter with our present distribution of chapters, it will be at no great distance and the visiting committee could function just the same. It could make at least two visits during the school year, stopping for a couple of days or so at the chapter house.

This visiting committee could work hand in hand with the District Princes and timing their visits so as to be with the active chapter at a different time than he, so work together that it would be impossible for the chapter to go very far wrong before some Alumnus would be there to help get things straightened out and on the right road again. Also the scheme would tend to keep the active chapter on edge and eager to show those visiting Alumni what a real chapter looked like.

I would like to see some Alumnus chapter try out these ideas and see how they would work in practice. I firmly believe that they would be successful in bringing the active and Alumnus members in much closer relationship and greatly help in keeping that elusive Alumni interest.

T. S. DUNN, Alpha Kappa.

Founders' Day Banquet in London

IN spite of the distance separating us from our nearest chapter, the first of the 1921 Founders' Day banquets was a splendid success. Due to the difference in time we claim the honor of holding the first Founders' Day banquet of 1921.

The banquet was held at the Trocadero Restaurant, Piccadilly Circus, London, England, at 8 p. m. on March 1, and the following members of the Fraternity were present: George F. Thomas, Beta Zeta; Charles W. Williams, Alpha Pi; Donavon M. Richardson, Beta Delta; J. Fred Pingree, Alpha Tau; Andrew T. Jacobsen, Alpha Tau; George T. Patrick, Alpha Tau; Clayton B. Turner, Alpha Tau, and C. Douglas Barnes, Alpha Tau. This includes all the Pi's in England, which is quite a record to be proud of.

The banquet was unique in many respects. It was the first Pi Kappa Alpha banquet ever held in England, a fact that we hope will be remembered and have the effect to have more as the years go on, or as long as there are members enough in England to do so. Another splendid feature which speaks well for the English is that there was enough to eat.

The usual after dinner speeches were omitted but in place of them a discussion of interesting events that happen when one is away from home, and other questions that proved of interest to us.

It was decided that inasmuch as all present planned to be in England twelve months hence, another banquet would be held to which all Pi Kaps who expect to be in England are cordially invited.

If there was ever a place that the true fraternal spirit prevailed, it was at this banquet, and our wish for the constantly growing number of chapters at home is that they may each have this spirit of brotherly love and mutual helpfulness, that will bring to pass more quickly our ambition, that of being the best fraternity in the good old U. S. A. The constant co-operation of the active and alumni chapters will be the means of doing this and realizing our ambition. Our parting wish, may success always be the path of Pi Kappa Alpha.

J. FRED PINGREE, Alpha Tau.

A Poem

IN the Island Kingdom,
Far from home and kin,
A few loyal II's did gather
At a Piccadilly inn.
The stage was set as usual,
The day was March the first,
To hold forth at a banquet,
To quench our II Kap thirst.
Not a thirst for whiskey,
Neither one for wine,
But for that good old spirit
That's found at gathering time.
And though so few in number,
In fact, there were but eight,
Pi Kappa Alpha spirit
Through us did permeate.
The place was Trocadero's,
The best that we could find,
And round the festive table
Sat men of all one mind,
Wishing to all our chapters
In good old U. S. A.
Success and all progression,
For what? Why, II K. A.

Third District Convention

RALEIGH, MARCH 28, 1921.

ELEGATES from the active chapters and several alumni of District No. 3 assembled at 11 a.m. Monday, March 28, 1921, in the City Y. M. C. A., at Raleigh, North Carolina, for the first District Convention held in that territory.

The District Princeps, John H. Boushall, called the convention to order and presided during the business session. C. B. Park, Jr., Alpha-Epsilon, acted as secretary.

Col. John D. Langston, Alpha-Alpha, led the opening prayer. Nat Pearson, Alpha-Epsilon, made the address of welcome, to which W. I. Knox, Beta, made a pleasing response.

Matters of local and national concern were discussed. Committees were appointed to inspect the Chapter Books, and on Chapter Houses, Alumnus Chapters, Extension, Chapter and District Princeps Reports, Convention Resolutions, Next Convention, and Convention Banquet.

Recommendations were made to be placed before the next National Convention of plans for establishment of Fraternity Houses in New York City and Washington.

The Convention Banquet was a delightful affair, at the Carolina Country Club, the night of March 28. It was largely attended by members of the North Carolina Chapters, and Alumni from nearby cities. The Menu and toasts card was very elaborate with the Fraternity Emblem in gold on cover.

Following the banquet, Alpha-Epsilon Chapter entertained the visiting Brothers with a dance at the Carolina Country Club, which was one of the most brilliant social events of the Easter season. The decorations of the club were of Fraternity colors, and included the Pi Kappa Alpha emblem in electric lights. There were many visiting girls and students of various colleges in attendance.

The reports of the chapters as read by delegates were of great interest and benefit to all.

Among the visiting Alumni were Col. Langston, of Goldsboro, N. C., R. M. Gantt, Durham, N. C., and L. D. Nichols, of Charlotte.

The following telegram was read:

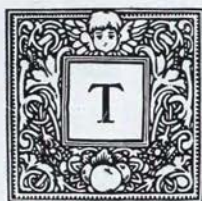

"Atlanta, Ga., March 28, 1921.

"Please extend my hearty greetings and good wishes to Convention assembled.

ROBERT A. SMYTHE.

The District Convention was a decided success and of much benefit to all the Chapters.

Fourth District Convention, Atlanta, Ga., February 10 and 11, 1921

THE Convention was called to order at the home of Beta-Kappa by District Princeps E. D. Willingham, Psi, at 10 a. m., and opened by prayer by Dr. J. W. Caldwell, Jr., D. D., Iota.

E. R. Denmark, Beta-Kappa, made the address of welcome, and J. Velma Keen, Alpha-Eta, responded.

A Committee on Credentials was appointed, who, after examination of the credentials of the delegates, reported following Delegates : Delta, W. P. Snuggs, W. C. Green; Upsilon, C. G. Ollinger, R. M. Ollinger; Psi, R. B. Malone, W. C. Futral; Alpha-Delta, W. H. Herndon, Hooper W. Russell; Alpha-Eta, J. Velma Keen, G. W. Spencer; Alpha-Pi, L. P. McLane, Max O. King; Beta-Kappa, E. R. Denmark, W. T. Turner.

W. T. Turner, Beta-Kappa, was appointed Secretary of the Convention.

The following committees were then appointed:—Examination of Chapter Minute Books, Chapter Record Books, Chapter Th. C. Books; Chapter Houses, Alumnus Chapters, Extension, District Princeps and Chapters Reports; Convention Resolutions; Next District Convention, Convention Banquet.

Letters addressed to the Convention by Brothers C. H. Baker, Jr., Psi, Upsilon and Alpha-Eta, and F. Allison Bell, Alpha-Pi, expressing their regret at their absence, were read. Brother Baker submitted a blue print of a standard Chapter desk, which was approved by the Convention to be submitted to the next National Convention.

The Reports read by delegates showing the workings of their Chapters, the surroundings, the plans, etc., were of deep interest and brought forth much discussion of benefit to all.

Reports were also read from Alumnus Alpha-Alpha Chapter, Jacksonville, by G. W. Spencer; Alumnus Nu Chapter, Birmingham, by L. P. McLane; Alumnus Alpha-Gamma Chapter, Atlanta, by Brother Willingham.

District Princeps Willingham read an interesting report.

The report of the Committee of Chapter Houses is of interest as follows:

"Of the seven chapters in district 4, Alpha Delta and Upsilon own houses; Alpha Eta and Alpha Pi have under way plans for building; Psi, Alpha Pi and Beta Kappa are renting their home, and Delta rents a room in which it holds meetings.

The committee suggests that all chapters start campaigns among alumni to raise money for house funds. and recommends the system adopted by Alpha Delta.

The committee disapproves of Alumni members residing at houses; individual cases to be left to the Supreme council.

The committee suggests to each chapter that they keep in very close touch with all Alumni by some sort of regular publication, giving them all information as to the chapter house, and conditions existing.

The committee suggests that papers be drawn up, in the district princeps office, giving several means of raising money, and that these papers be circulated throughout the district.

Regarding the report of District Princeps Willingham, the Committee said:

Brother Willingham as District Princeps has faithfully carried out his duties in every way. He has visited every chapter in the fourth district during the past few months, and has offered many helpful suggestions for the betterment of the individual chapters. He has spared no time or energy in keeping up with the affairs of the Fraternity, and keeping alive the interest of the active members as well as the Alumni throughout the district. He has criticised when criticism was necessary, and has given encouragement wherever he could. He has instituted a card index system in his office, keeping the names of all active members and all the alumni in the district. In this way Brother Willingham can keep in touch with all II's, and know exactly where they are and what they are doing.

The committee heartily approved of the work and interest that brother Willingham has shown and done since he was appointed as District Princeps of District Number 4.

Much discussion was given to extension and several colleges in the District will be carefully examined with a view of their consideration for chapters.

The reports of the other Committees were carefully discussed and all present felt much information was obtained therefrom which would be of value and help in their Chapter life.

The following telegram was greeted with much applause:

New York, N. Y., February 10, 1921.

"Extend best wishes for successful convention and joyable gathering. J. Lorton Francis."

The Convention ordered the following reply sent:

"Fourth District appreciates your greetings. Regrets your absence. Send regards."

Grand Treasurer Smythe attended the last session and made a short talk.

The Banquet Thursday night, February 10, was a delightful affair. The menu and toasts were:

Fruit Cocktail

Celery

Queen Olives

Mock Turtle Soup

Half Broiled Chicken au Cresson

French Peas, Long Branch Potatoes

Lettuce, Russian Dressing

Rev. Dr. C. B. Wilmer, Gamma, spoke most interestingly on the importance of the Alumni meetings and the plan adopted in Atlanta of making these meetings of moment and value by discussions of leading topics of the day.

The supper-dance given by Alpha-Delta in honor of the delegates was a brilliant success. The East Lake Country Club was decorated in Fraternity colors, and some three hundred members of the college set were entertained.

Resolutions of thanks to Alpha-Delta and Beta-Kappa Chapters in appreciation of their hospitality were adopted by the Convention.

Sixth District Convention

The Sixth District Convention was called to order at 11 a.m. on Friday, April 15, 1921, in the chapter house of Alpha Gamma Chapter on University Lake, Baton Rouge, La. John R. Perez, Grand Princeps, explained the aim and objects of district conventions and turned the chair over to A. L. Hogan, District Princeps. C. R. Brown was elected secretary of the convention and assumed the duties of his office.

The following delegates were present, representing the chapters given after their names:

T. Q. Foote, Eta.
J. W. Elizardi, Eta.
A. L. Shipman, Alpha-Iota.
P. E. Smith, Alpha-Iota.
C. R. Brown, Alpha-Gamma.
P. L. Miller, Alpha-Gamma.
C. L. Crowell, Alpha-Zeta.
H. C. Dickson, Alpha-Zeta.
J. M. Barnett, Alumnus Alpha-Rho.
F. T. Scott, Alumnus Alpha-Psi.
George Hammett, Alumnus Eta.

Prayer was offered by James M. Barnett and the address of welcome given by C. J. Ellender of Alpha Gamma and responded to by C. L. Crowell of Alpha Zeta.

Frank T. Scott of Alumnus Alpha-Psi, then delivered a most interesting talk on alumni chapters, and in particular gave a history of the organization of Alumnus Alpha-Psi at Jackson, Miss.

The District Princeps then appointed the following committees: Committee of inspection of minute books and record books, Foote and Shipman; committee on credentials, Brown and Miller; committee on inspection of Th.C. books, Foote and Shipman; committee on chapter houses, Crowell and Miller; committee on alumni chapters, Scott and Barnett; committee on next district convention, Smith and Elizardi; committee on convention banquet, Brown and Miller.

Chapter records were read, the District Princeps also reading his report.

The second business session was held on Friday, April 15th, at 1 p.m., at which the Grand Princeps told of the growth of the fraternity during the past few years. A general discussion was had as to the appointment of alumni secretaries throughout the district.

The third business session was held on Saturday morning, April 16, at 9:30 a.m., at which the committees reported and a number of resolutions were adopted, of which the following were the most important:

A resolution commending the Grand Officers of the fraternity for their splendid work during the past.

A resolution recommending the development of the alumni secretary movement.

A resolution commending the fraternity for its attitude of support toward the Interfraternity Conference.

A resolution recommending the establishment of alumni chapters throughout the district, wherever sufficient alumni were present to justify such chapters.

A general discussion was had regarding the proper presentation of the ritual during initiations and it was recommended that chapters pass resolutions that the ritual be memorized and the initiates be compelled to stand examination on the constitution of the fraternity, etc.

The social program prepared by the members of Alpha Gamma Chapter and Alumnus Alpha Rho Chapter was as follows: Friday night, a dance at the Community Club; Saturday afternoon a Tea Dansant at the Country Club; Saturday night, a banquet at the Istrouma Hotel. The Grand Princes presided at the banquet and toasts were responded to by representatives of the chapters present and others.

The convention was a distinct success and will doubtless materially benefit District No. 6 and the fraternity as a whole.

A. L. HOGAN, District Princeps.

MARQUETTE HOTEL, ST. LOUIS, MO.

S this was the first district convention the writer has ever attended it was with some feeling of anxiety that this convention was attempted. Our program covering two days was more or less full, although there was not much time for pleasure, we were able to mix a little pleasure in with work. The program was:

FRIDAY, MARCH 4.

Arrival of delegates and informal entertainment by St. Louis members.

Headquarters are at the Marquette Hotel, Eighteenth street and Washington avenue, five blocks north of Union Station. Arrangements will be made to meet delegates who notify the District Princes of the time of their arrival.

SATURDAY, MARCH 5.

9:30 a.m.—Registration of delegates, Marquette Hotel balcony.

10:00 a.m.—Opening session. Address of Welcome, Edgar H. Schwarzenbach, Beta-Lambda, Alumnus Alpha-Nu. Response for visiting delegates, Merton L. Otto, Alpha-Omega. Business session.

1:00 p.m.—Adjournment.

1:30 p.m.—Luncheon at Marquette Hotel Cafeteria.

2:30 p.m.—Second business session.

5:30 p.m.—Adjournment.

SATURDAY EVENING.

6:00 p.m.—Informal dinner, Marquette Hotel balcony. Toastmaster, Henry N. Eversole, Grand Chancellor, Alpha-Nu, Alumnus Alpha-Nu. Brief remarks by various speakers. Music by Clarence Leimkuehler, Beta-Lambda.

9:00 p.m.—Informal dance, Glen Echo Country Club, Lucas and Hunt road, south of Natural Bridge road, Normandy. Automobiles will be provided. Kirkwood-Ferguson cars run to Normandy on twenty-minute space, the last one returning to the city leaving Normandy at 12:50 a.m. It is an hour's ride downtown. Music by Simon's Orchestra.

SUNDAY, MARCH 6.

10:00 a.m.—Third business session.

2:00 p.m.—Automobile ride of St. Louis and St. Louis county. Reception at Treecourt Farm.

All II K. A.'s are welcome and are urged to attend all business and social sessions. A limited number of friends may be accommodated at the dance.

Our first business session began at 10 a.m. Saturday. We were very much pleased to have with us delegates from every active and alumnus chapter in this district.

These delegates were: Brothers Leonard and Pence from Alpha Kappa, Brothers Brackett and Olsen from Alpha Nu; Brothers Otto and Wingfield from Alpha Omega; Brothers Chandler and Ferguson from Beta Gamma; Brothers English and McDonnell from Beta Eta; Brothers Blake, Shupp and Dakin from Beta Lambda; Brother Titus from Alumnus Alpha Delta; Brother Barnes from Alumnus Alpha Theta; Brother Sheehan and Baumhoff from Alumnus Alpha Nu. Besides these delegates there were quite a few visitors from Beta Lambda, and alumni from Alumnus Alpha Nu, in all about fifty good and loyal II K. A.'s present.

An address of welcome was made by George Stemler from Beta Lambda, Alumnus Alpha Nu. The response being made by Brother Otto of Alpha Omega.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, March 5, 1921.

Pi Kappa Alpha District Convention, care Frank R. Eversole, Marquette Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri:

"Hearty greetings and very best wishes for a successful Convention."

ROBERT A. SMYTHE.

To this the convention replied as follows:

Robert A. Smythe, 331 Trust Co. of Georgia Building, Atlanta, Georgia:

"Your telegram received. Seventh District in Convention assembled. Express gratitude for your loyal and unselfish devotion to the Fraternity."

We then took up our business session which progressed along very nicely. Among the most interesting features of this morning session being a monthly bulletin to be distributed to each chapter in this district giving notes of interest and entertainments held by the different chapters. The first business session adjourned at 1 o'clock and all assembled in the cafeteria of the hotel for luncheon.

Between the adjournment of our first business session and afternoon session at 2:30 the delegates and visiting brothers became well acquainted and enjoyed a most delightful social intercourse.

Our second business session was taken up with the examination of the different chapter record books and reports of different committees appointed at the morning session. A very interesting feature of the session being a District Roster which will be gotten out by the 15th of April of this year, which is to be revised every six months.

The second business session adjourned promptly at 5:30 as we were to have an informal dinner at the hotel at 6 o'clock, with the following menu and toasts:

MENU

Music was furnished by Brothers Leimkuehler and Dakin, Beta Lambda. There were about fifty brothers present at the dinner. Dinner was adjourned about 8 o'clock and we all met at the Glen Echo Country Club about 9 o'clock for our dance. There were about 70 couples present.

We all arrived home in the early hours of Sunday morning to return later to the hotel for our third business session at 10:30 a.m.

Much to our surprise and gratification there were about fifty present, including every delegate.

The time of our third business session was taken up for the completion of all unfinished business of the two previous sessions. The Seventh District voted unanimously to invite the national convention following the New York convention, to St. Louis. We adjourned at 1 o'clock for luncheon.

Although there was a heavy rain pouring down we carried out the last item of our program, an automobile ride through St. Louis and St. Louis county to Brother Baumhoff's home, known as the Treecourt Farm. There an informal reception was held. This being the end of our business sessions and entertainments our adieus were made and all returned to their respective homes and hotels.

Although this was our first district convention we all feel that we are much closer bound together now and are a unit of our whole fraternity and we hope to make this district one of the strongest and best organized in the Fraternity.

FRANK R. EVERSOLE.

Ninth District Convention

(Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico)

Dallas, Tex., April 2, 1921.

T 9 a. m., April 2nd, the first District Convention in District Nine of Pi Kappa was called to order in the Directors' Room of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce by acting District Princeps C. M. Montgomery. Speeches of welcome were made by Brother Ford and responded to by the District Princeps in behalf of the delegates.

Rev. E. E. White, Alpha-Omicron, 1914, and at present a graduate student in the School of Theology of Southern Methodist University opened the convention with prayer, after which credentials were filed by delegates from the five active and from one alumnus chapters as follows: Alpha-Omicron, H. L. Egger; Beta-Delta, George B. Martin; Beta-Zeta, T. J. Waggoner, Jr.; Beta-Mu, H. Bascom Thomas, Jr.; Beta-Omicron, James H. Benton; Alumnus Theta, E. R. Moss, Alpha-Eta.

Twenty-five IIs from all over the country were present and entered the discussions with zest and enthusiasm. Brother Benton was elected secretary of the convention and did splendid work. The following brothers registered with him during the course of the day and at the luncheon: E. E. White, John B. Cowan, L. L. Douglas, C. M. Montgomery, C. C. Tucker, H. B. Thomas who were first members of Alpha-Omicron; R. V. Ford, Robert S. Shuttles, V. J. Grisham, J. M. Gamble, Dannie H. Dale, Joe N. Leavell, Harry M. Crawford, Paige Gallihar, J. R. Bradfield, Sam M. Hilburn of Beta Zeta; James Strictland, Beta Omicron; W. R. Baddor, Beta Mu; Dr. W. M. Anderson, Theta, former Grand Chaplain and Grand Historian; A. C. Bigger, Rho; Jno. F. Dunn, Beta 1896; Ralph Crosby, Beta Eta and Alumnus Theta; E. A. Wood, Beta-Theta.

Brothers Barrow, Strickland and Martin were appointed to inspect the Record books of the chapters and reported at the afternoon session. After a report by each of the delegates concerning the activity of his College and Chapter, the house was thrown open for a discussion of things of District and National importance such as the shortened name for the Fraternity, number of delegates at District conventions, new Active and Alumnus chapters, a new Pledge Ceremony, Instruction of Pledges, Alumni lists, and others as interesting.

A memorial to the men in the District who gave their lives to their country was incorporated in the minutes of the convention. The meeting in the afternoon closed with the selection of Norman, Oklahoma as the next meeting place for the District Convention.

The following telegram was received from Brother Smythe:

“Accept hearty greetings and best wishes for a successful meeting.”

And the convention sent him this message in reply:

“The Ninth District Convention of Pi Kappa Alpha in Convention assembled greets you today most heartily. Many thanks for your good wishes, and suggestions. The Convention by unanimous vote expresses deep regret that you cannot be present, and wishes you health, prosperity and every good wish.”

At 1 p. m. a most enjoyable luncheon was served at the University Club of Dallas and words of greeting and good fellowship were heard from Alumni: A. C. Bigger, W. M. Anderson, Jno. F. Dunn and E. E. White. Brother Benton with his beautiful voice delighted all present. He is an artist of exceptional ability and charmed all who heard him, including absolutely all of the ladies at the reception at 8.30 p. m. in the English Room of the Adolphus Hotel.

After the second business session the Beta-Zeta men had cars waiting for all the delegates and gave them a most enjoyable ride around the city of Dallas, then out to the Chapter House on the campus of Southern Methodist University where dinner was served.

The reception given at the Adolphus Hotel at eighty-three was enjoyed by all of the fellows and their young lady friends. Refreshments and a musical program added to the pleasure of the occasion for all.

The Ninth District Convention As Viewed By An Alumnus

THE first convention of the Ninth District met Saturday, April 2nd, at Dallas, Texas. The executive sessions were held in the Director's Room of the Chamber of Commerce Building. The meeting was called to order at 9:30 a. m. by Brother C. M. Montgomery of Austin, Texas, District Princeps. Delegates present were Brothers J. H. Benton, Beta-Omicron; H. L. Egger, Alpha-Omicron; G. B. Martin, Beta-Delta; Bascom Thomas, Beta-Mu; T. J. Wagoner, Beta-Zeta, and E. R. Moss, Alumnus-Theta.

The convention opened with prayer by Bro. Montgomery. The address of welcome was made by Bro. J. B. Cowan of Alumnus-Theta and the response by Bro. Montgomery. Bro. J. H. Benton was elected secretary of the Convention. The business of the session was then taken up. By a unanimous vote a telegram was ordered sent to Brother Robert A. Smythe expressing deep regret that he could not attend the meeting and conveying the heartiest greetings and good wishes for his health and prosperity.

A committee was appointed to inspect the chapter books of the various chapters represented and to report to the Convention at a later session. Discussions of general interest were then in order and various problems were brought up and thrashed out. The question of requiring each Chapter to have a degree team who will be required to memorize the entire ritual, was discussed and finally adopted inasfar as the jurisdiction of the Convention extended. It was voted to recommend to the National Convention that each Chapter be required to have such a team.

After a discussion a resolution was adopted asking each Chapter in this district to submit to the District Princes an extensive list of questions and answers or other system of instruction suitable for the instruction of pledges before initiation. The District Princes is to go over the material submitted by each Chapter and formulate a uniform system of instruction for the use of each chapter in this district. The National Convention will be asked to adopt such a system of instruction for pledges, also.

After a general discussion of various problems of the different chapters in this district the Convention adjourned at 12:30.

At 1 o'clock a luncheon was held at the University Club, some thirty men being present. Among these were several old-timers like Dr. Wm. M. Anderson, Theta, J. F. Dunn, Beta, and a number of others, including W. C. Gillespie, Beta-Alpha, former Grand Historian. Impromptu speeches were had and the time thoroughly enjoyed.

The Convention assembled again at 2:30 p. m. and heard the reports of the delegates on conditions and plans of the different chapters. Brother Martin of Beta-Delta told of the plans to storm the New York National Convention with Beta-Delta's band of redskins from the New Mexico deserts. The scheme certainly sounded great and if a few more chapters had the everlasting "pep" and enthusiasm of our New Mexico brothers the New York Convention would be the greatest fraternity convention success ever held in America.

A great deal of interest was aroused by the discussion of the possibilities for expansion in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. The different colleges were taken up singly and the situation at each was gone over thoroughly with the result that with the exception of a very few, they were not considered the proper locations for additional chapters. It was pleasing to note the quick pointing out of any objectionable features of any college under discussion and the oft-repeated injunction that "None but the BEST is good enough for Pi Kappa Alpha."

The report of the committee on inspection of chapter records was read and adopted without change. Other matters of importance were taken up and the delegates sat until 5:30 p. m. in session, foregoing a planned automobile trip, over the city, that they might finish up important matters. At 5:30 the Convention adjourned after selecting Norman, Oklahoma, with Beta-Omicron Chapter as the next meeting place. A large number of Alumni and active men were in attendance at both sessions and took considerable part in all discussions.

After adjournment the delegates were taken to the Beta-Zeta chapter house for dinner. At night a reception was held in honor of the visiting brothers. One of the most pleasing features of this was the playing and singing of Brother J. H. Benton of Beta-Omicron. Brother Benton certainly gained a place in the hearts of all those that heard him, possibly those of the ladies in particular.

Among the visiting Brothers were Russell Barrow, Beta-Mu; W. J. Strickland, Beta-Omicron; A. C. Bigger, Rho.; Ralph Crisby Alpha-Eta; J. B. Cowan, Alumnus Theta; Gordon Logan, Beta-Zeta, and a large number of others.

A Letter

Dear Old $\Pi K A$,

It is only fair and Pi Kay-like to remind you that Tuesday, March First, was your birthday. We don't want you to forget it. To us to celebrate your birthday is something more than extraordinary. You are not old, you are not growing old. You are taking on new life as the years go by. Remember when you first began to live and hardly able to walk and you lost several of your organs? With you "those were not the happy days" but your happy days are only partly here and mostly coming. You are setting us a glorious example. How much life would mean to us if at the age of fifty-three we could look forward to greater life still instead of looking back on "those happy days"! Old $\Pi K A$, you have been like the good man by the side of the road, your garnet and gold banner has waved far and wide spreading the tidings of brotherly love and friendship. We are grateful; so on this day we wish you a happy birthday and may your life as it grows younger and younger spread more joy and love thruout the world.

J. W. BAUER, Alpha-Lambda.

Founders' Day in Kentucky

ON Tuesday, March 1, the three Kentucky Chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha, Kappa from Transylvania College, Omega from the University of Kentucky, and Alpha-Lambda from Georgetown College, celebrated the fifty-third birthday of the fraternity with a Founders' Day banquet at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington. Representatives from the active chapters and a large representation of alumni enjoyed an evening of hearty good-fellowship.

Dean Robert K. Massie, of the Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington, ex-Grand Chaplain, responded to the toast "Pi Kappa Alpha—53 Years" and inspired all with a feeling of the privilege of being members of a great national fraternity. Following Dean Massie, a representative from each of the chapters spoke, telling of the activities of his chapter. John Barclay represented Kappa, Carl P. Lipe, Omega, and Chilton R. Bush, Alpha-Lambda. Following these toasts several of the alumni were called on for brief speeches.

During the evening the Pi Kappa Alpha song book was brought into play, and "The Dream Girl of Pi K. A." and "How'd You Like to Be a Pi K. A." were featured by Brothers Chandler and Van Winkle from Kappa, and Brother Brooks from Omega.

The chapters were fortunate in having present at this banquet three former grand officers, R. K. Massie from Alpha, John U. Field from Kappa, and Cronley Elliott from Omega.

Fraternities and Mothers' Clubs

O many mothers the door to fraternity life, opens, like the grave—ever inward—and they view the entrance with alarm, uncertainty, and suspicion.

The organizing of Mother's Clubs, with its resultant education to mothers, of enlightenment, understanding—and comradeship—changes this feeling to one of certainty, confidence, and safety, because of their newly acquired knowledge of its helpfulness and inspiration to true ideals and clean-cut manhood.

The advent of Mother's Clubs in the University of California, as an adjunct of fraternity chapters marks a new era of development. The first organization of the kind was formed in 1912—as the result of the acquisition of a new house and its attendant needs of furnishings. A few other fraternities followed this course as material needs developed, until now their value has increased and their advantages both recognized and desired.

The University Mother's Club, primarily the mothers of University of California students, first saw light in 1916 and was one of the splendid forces of use and comfort back of the army of nearly five thousand men that went out from their Alma Mater. It is still in existence and doing wonderfully fine work with its loan fund or in furnishings, lunch-room and mending bureau; besides having its social advantage to mothers. It is said to be the only college club of its kind in the United States.

Naturally, though men regard their fraternity house as their home during college life, many of them also think of it somewhat in the nature of a club and are apt to exercise far less care in keeping order than they would in their own home. Almost imperceptably but none the less steadily, furnishings show wear and tear—mostly tear—and where is the chapter house whose morale can stand the strain of ripped pillows, torn sheets, worn couch covers, and banged-up cushions? A few necessary stitches not only makes a vast difference in comfort but a considerable saving of money and strengthening of determination and general tone of the chapter.

While the chief importance of the Mother's Clubs has been along domestic lines, the results lie far deeper than the button-sewing, sock-darning, and mending, because it necessarily has also a spiritual and psychological value. And this value, though largely dependent on physical comfort, is the one we must think of and must be sub-consciously impressed through warm-hearted interest and approval and by refraining from either deserved or undeserved criticisms.

At this point a word of caution: it should be borne in mind that these clubs are distinctly adjuncts of the chapter and their laws, meeting, working, buying or entertainment plans, should invariably be made subject to the approval of the officers of the chapter or a committee from the chapter appointed for consultation. Responsibility for the well-being of the fraternity, judgment as to what constitutes best fraternity interests, material comforts needed, means of discipline, in fact, every single thing that in any way concerns fraternity life, must be left entirely to the men themselves or that which might be of the greatest mutual benefit will result in dissension and failure.

Another phase of organization might well be taken into consideration. If a personal opinion may be pardoned, the membership should not be limited to the mothers alone. The greatest force and influence on youth is youth. During the war there was magnificent and endless sacrifice and work by the "mothers of men" and a spirit of universal motherhood developed of which the world never before dreamed. But what of the sisters, wives and sweethearts whose hearts followed their own unceasingly and young energy and strength led to efficiency through every avenue where youth and young womanhood were needed? Their part in fraternity association is just as important as that of mothers for the reason that where recipients of helpfulness and interest are young, there is one big thing lacking unless those who view life from the same point have a part in their lives too. Mother-hearts and mother-interests must be as broad as humanity or they lose some of their power—and they must recognize graciously the value of youthful companionship.

The idea that a woman's organization connected with a fraternity "improves the moral tone" should have no foundation in fact. The fraternity standard provides the "moral tone" and is its own inspiration for clean manhood. Moreover, the deliberation and judgment used in the selection of men decides as far as possible this question. And each man is impressed with the fact that if he does not make the most determined effort to live up to the ideals he has vowed to uphold, has not a full realization of his responsibilities as regards conduct, does not know he is as valuable and important a part of the whole as every other man, does not hold the honor of his chapter sacred, he is a hindrance and is pulling down the structure built by those before him with such infinite care and ambition.

Fraternities rise in proportion as each individual in them develops; and a chapter of men, aggressive, initiative, keenly alive in interest, energetic alike in scholarship and activities, assures and holds its own high moral tone and solves its own problems.

For many reasons the acceptance of woman's interest and help in fraternity life is a step in the right direction. Many practical plans are being worked out along both domestic and social lines, which if held strictly in their own grove and handled with the necessary tact and diplomacy can not but be productive of much good.

Mothers especially, should grasp with keenest enthusiasm the opportunity for which they have so long waited, to keep in touch with the college life of their sons. Cook, sew, mend, talk, chum, anything and any way to know the joy of being a part of their young manhood—to learn what fraternity life means and the inspiration it gives and to watch them solve their problems. Above all, keep the faith with them and in them, believing them as they are, upright, manly men, worthy the generation they represent and loyal to the end to their homes, their loved ones, and their fraternity.

MOTHER CAMPER, Alpha Sigma.

A Farewell From Alpha Chapter, Georgetown College

(From the Chapter Letter, This Issue)

WITH this letter Alpha Lambda bids a loving and regretful farewell to her sister chapters. The trustees of Georgetown College have gone on record as opposed to fraternities, and so, with the turning in of our charter we cease to function as an active chapter and from this time on will be associated with our brothers of the other chapters only as alumni.

It is with heavy hearts that this last letter is indited, but as a "silent" chapter Alpha Lambda will always follow the progress and achievements of Pi Kappa Alpha with the same interest which we have shown as an active part of the glorious fraternity of which we are members.

So with crepe adorning the frame that once held our charter, with our house deserted except at bed time, and with that general spirit of sadness and regret that pervades the heavy hearts of the brothers, we must close this—our last chapter letter to the fraternity at large.

May we ever remain in the hearts of our sister chapters as those who tried hard, struggled long, and died fighting—we feel that we can say that we have ever borne our shields.

"Sans tache et sans reproche".

Fraternities Excluded From Georgetown College, Kentucky

ON March 9 the Board of Trustees of Georgetown College, with only two dissenting votes and despite the vehement opposition of Judge James Garnett, former Attorney General of Kentucky, passed the following resolution:

"That the Board of Trustees of Georgetown College go on record as opposed to Secret Greek Letter Fraternities in Georgetown College, and that no more men be either initiated or pledged; the final disposition of the present Fraternities to be left to the Executive Committee of the Board and the Faculty".

Georgetown is the Baptist College of Kentucky—and fraternities had to go.

The very fact that Georgetown is Baptist and Kentucky Baptist, Southern Baptist, left no hope for the perpetuation of fraternities in Georgetown College. For fraternities are antagonistic to denominational ideals, Baptist ideals, Southern Baptist ideals, Kentucky Baptist ideals, the Baptists say.

Now, the ideals, the principles, of Baptists in Kentucky and in the South are not essentially different from the ideals and principles of the ordinary man or woman. Baptist principles and ideals are differentiated from the ideals and principles of other people principally in their application. The orthodox Baptist is a firm person, "steadfast in the faith", "once in grace always in grace". His ideals are established, and he interprets civilization in terms of his principals. He will brook no heresy. If he contributes financially to the support of an educational institution, in addition to paying taxes for higher education by the state, his money must be used in accordance with Baptist principles, to teach beneficent living, as he interprets beneficent living. That is the Baptist attitude in Kentucky and the South generally.

Specifically has this attitude been assumed toward Georgetown College, named as the standard Baptist College for both men and women in Kentucky. Some illustrations will explain. Georgetown, for instance, has been criticized by some Baptists for accepting a gift of some hundred thousand dollars from the General Education Board of New York (the Rockefeller Foundation). The basis of the argument against accepting this gift is that the General Education Board desires to become and is fast becoming an "educational trust". "Brother Jones" of the "Licking Ford Baptist Church," and a large number of his fellow Baptists feel this way about the matter. Also, "Brother Jones" and others of his denomination believe that the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association is "antagonistic to Baptist ideals." And they do not hesitate to affirm their beliefs in the columns of the Western Recorder, the weekly denominational journal of Kentucky Baptists. Georgetown and other Southern Baptist colleges should withdraw from the S. I. A. A., they urge, and form a Southern Baptist Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The emphasis in education in Baptist schools, if there is to be any emphasis, must be on Baptist ideals, they say. For instance, during the session of 1919-20 an instructor in French in Georgetown College was Mademoiselle Dmalle Feuillerat, a native of Rennes, France, and the daughter of Dr. Albert Feuillerat, exchange professor of English at Yale University from the University of Rennes. But she was a Catholic and the college administration was reminded of this fact by some of its Baptist constituents. And so, with the fraternity problem the educational experts at Georgetown College had to accede to the demands of "Brother Jones" and a large number of his fellow Baptists in Kentucky, who believe that fraternities are "antagonistic to Baptist ideals."

One of the cardinal principles of the Baptists is democracy, and fraternities were alleged to be "undemocratic." Now, fraternities may be undemocratic in some institutions but they were not undemocratic in Georgetown. Not a single member of Alpha Lambda Chapter nor the chapter as a body ever committed any single overt act or assumed any snobbish attitude which would tend to create the impression that fraternities were undemocratic. The same is true of the other fraternity chapter here, so far as we know. Fraternities at Georgetown, were naturally exclusive, as are practically all fraternities, but one cannot call that undemocratic, especially when certain faculty regulations force the exclusive to be even more exclusive. In a student body of 164 men—not including the co-eds—there were two fraternity chapters—Pi Kappa Alpha and Kappa Alpha. When Alpha Lambda Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha was founded in 1907 there were only 80 male students eligible to fraternities. The enrollment since that date has gradually increased to 237 male students in 1918-19, 170 in 1919-20, and 164 in 1920-21. In a student body as large as the foregoing figures indicate there were permitted only two fraternities. Moreover, each chapter has had to limit the number of its members. At one time they were permitted to initiate only three men a year (irrespective of a man's academic standing), and for a while each chapter was limited to eleven active men, and at one time this limit was reduced to ten. Only last year was the limit removed. The fact that Alpha Lambda has a roster of only 85 men (alumni and active men) after fourteen years of existence—an average of six men a year—is proof that we have been limited. Approximately the same figures apply to the Kappa Alpha Order. Assuredly, if fraternities were "undemocratic," it was not they who drew the social line; they did not set themselves up as groups of the socially elite.

And while the limit was being changed at intervals by faculty regulations and the enrollment was increasing, the modern young man was becoming more social, wanted to get more out of college life. Certainly, more fraternities were needed in Georgetown College.

Some of the students came to the realization of this fact and in 1919 a group of splendid young men, leaders in the student body, every one of whom was excellent material for any chapter, organized into a group, rented a house, elected officers, initiated and pledged men and requested the permission of the faculty to petition a national fraternity for a charter. This was immediately after the signing of the armistice and no action was taken by the faculty, though all of this group, except those who graduated in June, returned to college in September of the following year. But at the beginning of the next collegiate session, two or three "reformers," with Bolshevik ideas, returned from military service to complete their education at Georgetown. They conceived the idea of forcing the faculty to abolish the two fraternity chapters and refuse the petition of the new group. They secured the signature of a great many non-frat men to their petition. These non-frat men, dissatisfied with conditions, signed as a matter of course, but afterward every one of them who was offered a bid affiliated himself with one of the fraternities or the new group when the limit had been lifted. Gradually during the year the sentiment on the campus crystallized into a demand for an open door policy for fraternities, and the administration, unwilling to admit more fraternities when there was opposition among the constituents to those already in existence, submitted the matter to the trustees. Exactly one year after the matter had been submitted to the trustees, they adopted the resolution we have quoted, and their decision was accepted philosophically by fraternity men. There is no arguing with Baptists!

The trustees apparently had no other course because of the attitude of the constituency. The constituency of the College believed fraternities were undemocratic and received their information from the score of ministerial students who attend Georgetown College and go out of the institution every Sunday and during summer vacation to preach, through a few malcontent non-fraternity men, and through a few uninformed professors and trustees who never belonged to a fraternity here or elsewhere. There used to be a time at Georgetown College when the few ministerial students who came here "made" the fraternities and the athletic teams. In fact, half of the charter members of Alpha Lambda were ministerial students and one ministerial student is a member of the active chapter now. But as the ratio of non-fraternity men (limited by the faculty regulations) has decreased in proportion to the growing enrollment, the type of ministerial students who came to Georgetown was lowered, socially speaking. They were not men who cared to belong to a fraternity, in the first place, but they "liked to be asked", as Dean Clark quotes the freshman in the March issue of Banta's Exchange. The same is true of the non-frat "reformers", who are now discredited in the view of the administration. As for the few professors and trustees who influenced anti-fraternity feeling, they were either alumni of some other Southern Baptist college which did not have fraternities or were Georgetown alumni before fraternities ever came here, or they were very badly misinformed concerning fraternity ideals and practices and the fraternity situation at Georgetown.

Another anti-fraternity bugaboo of the constituency feeling that a Baptist College should not tolerate on its campus an organization which was affiliated with organizations in other colleges and whose absolute control was—and probably the most influential of the two—was the not vested in the college administration. In view of the fact that two national honorary fraternities have been established at Georgetown College recently, this view seems inconsistent. But one cannot convince those “steadfast” Baptists, even yet!

Possibly the educational experts who conduct Georgetown College would not have acceded to the opinions of the anti-fraternity constituents but would have proved by experiment that any open door policy to fraternities would be desirable had not circumstances made their acquiescence necessary. In the first place, the College has never been supported by the denomination as it should have been. When President Adams came to Georgetown in 1913 the total enrollment was less than two hundred, and two other Baptist colleges were co-ordinate Georgetown. Now Georgetown has an enrollment of 375 students and is the standard Baptist college for both men and women in the state, the other two Baptist colleges offering only two years of collegiate work. Georgetown has as high an academic standing as any college in the South, and its baccalaureate degree is accepted at face value in every graduate school in the nation. It has more instructors and more higher paid instructors than any college in the state. But it has not been supported by the denomination as it should have been. In fact, it was on its last legs financially when the Baptists of Kentucky eighteen months ago subscribed $700,000 for five years to its support. The exigencies of the war had practically exhausted its resources, and the $700,000 subscribed in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign will hardly more than pay its present indebtedness; it must have additional endowment soon if it is to hold its high place among American colleges. Here was where "Brother Jones" won his victory over the educational experts.

Beginning with the next collegiate session "clubs" will replace the fraternities here, and there will probably be more clubs than there are fraternities now. The clubs will live in the fraternity houses and in other houses on the campus and will be organized locally just as fraternities are. Each club may be exclusive if it likes and may perpetuate itself as a fraternity chapter does, its only advantage being that it will not have to conform to any national fraternity regulations that might be disagreeable. Their disadvantages are legion, but the Baptists are satisfied because the "undemocracy" will have been eliminated and there will be no national organization to claim the students' loyalty. The anti-fraternity element of the Baptist denomination in Kentucky is certainly satisfied and the Baptists generally, many of whom are the parents of Pi Kaps at Georgetown, will be satisfied. But the writer is one Baptist who will obtain a great deal of satisfaction by telling some of these fathers and mothers how much Pi Kappa Alpha has done for these sons.

C. F. POLLARD.

Hints for the House

HAT may sound like advice to newly-weds, and indeed the problems which they meet are much the same as confront every "Greek" house. When twenty or thirty fellows undertake to live together under the same roof, it means adjustment, compromise, and a whole lot of individual sacrifice. Every fellow has an innate feeling that he is a law unto himself and until he learns to practice consideration for the wishes of the rest of the "bunch", and that he is just a complement of the whole, there is bound to be friction in the house. a sporty, wild, night life. Kindly and fraternal advice from older Brothers will usually show the offender that is not the sort of thing he should be doing, and in extreme cases extreme measures should be used. But it is the little things which often cause the most trouble. How we love the "bird" who rises with the sun and warbles away to break our slumber; and the "dumb-bell" who puts "Margie" on the Victor when we're trying to work the old eye-shade! The Brother who is always borrowing soap, the one addicted to the use of pomade and patent-leathers, the inevitable "wise-cracker", and the polished ladies' man, are familiar figures in any and every fraternity house. While these little eccentricities are entirely legitimate, still, many of them are objectionable and the offender must moderate his actions or have it taken out of him in some appropriate manner by his Brothers. The way a man handles his knife and fork or the way he ties his tie are no objects for violent dispute, but every fellow in the house is there to observe and learn and to give advice. "Kidding" is the best way, probably to cure a man of objectionable peculiarities but when it is otherwise than good natured someone's feelings are liable to be hurt. In the great merging of different influences into a representative product, it should be remembered that every man has his own and perhaps sensitive nature. Because a Brother is not continually joining in the rough-house is no indication that he is none the less a good fellow.

Fraternity life is the great humanizer and social ameliorator of college. We want to make a man a Brother because we feel that he will be better for contact with us, and, more selfishly, we will be better men for contact with him. Fraternity days should be some of the most profitable of a man's life and failure to make them such is a failure of every Brother in the Fraternity.

What's In a Name

HERE may not be much in a name, but in a nickname there may be a great deal. A correct nickname is just as essential as a correct name. Everyone knows that our name is Pi Kappa Alpha but everyone does not know our nickname, not even ourselves, and we most certainly want a nickname.

Then let's adopt a good nickname and by our deeds and actions sanctify it so that it will mean Pi Kappa Alpha with all her enobling qualities and will always be respected.

I am in favor of "Pika" as a name by which we will be known because it is easy to say and at the same time it includes the three Greek letters that we are designated by. It has also been adopted by some chapters to some extent and can easily be adopted by the others and uniformity will result. A house divided against itself cannot stand.

Let's all get together on this and be united so that a Pi Kappa Alpha man will be a Pika in Atlanta, Georgia and in Seattle, Washington, or in Hong Kong, China, for that matter.

J. FRED PINGREE,
295 Edge Lane, Liverpool, Eng.

The replies in the March issue of the Shield and Diamond to your editorial "What's in a name" have been very interesting and indeed quite to the point. We are all thinking along these lines and to us older men the subject is indeed timely and in place. Since the scope of activity if our Fraternity has broadened into the sphere of today it is well that we consider new and stronger ties that will bind us together and if necessary be willing to sacrifice some other older things even to the point of discarding them. It seems to me an opportune time to select, if possible, a more distinctive name and highly desirable—we have been too long associated in name with another Fraternity having its beginning about with ours and under similar environment and place. I would offer a suggestion to the brethren that we adopt the first two letters or the first and last letters in our name and rearrange them so as to read Kappa Pi or Alpha Pi. This lends itself nicely to Pin Badge or Button construction as some rough sketches submitted with this will show. It seems that either of the above names would be snappy and something the active men especially would be glad to see. Should an entirely new name be more desirable—I would suggest that the Roman idea in “elementum” might be assigned to the Greek with profit to the brethren—This would give us Kappa Lambda Mu or any diminution by elimination—and also fully meet the snappy conditions so desirable in name—fully meeting decorative Badge purposes too.

With due respect to the brethren both ancient and modern I respectfully submit these suggestions.

Fraternally,

WM. D. ADAMS,
5137 Garfield Ave., Pi, 1892.

Dear Brothers:

Regarding the abbreviation for Pi Kappa Alpha now being discussed through the Shield & Diamond, I must say that I am heartily in favor of the “nickname” of “Pike.” Due to the great number of Greek letter fraternities it is absolutely impossible to find an abbreviation alone that is not in use or will not be confusing. The only thing left then is to coin a word suitable. Usage is what endears a nickname. Which one of us liked the nickname that was first bestowed upon us personally by our college pals? Later the same nickname became endeared to us and who is there that would not rather be known affectionately by his college mates as "Red", "Tubby", "Dearie", "Slats", "Cracker", or any of the many others that are far more euphonious, but frequently bestowed. No rookie in the Navy ever went into raptures over the homely designation "A Gob," but later when the spirit of navy life was instilled into him he took pride in it. To the navy the name "Gob" is a compliment and one in which they take pride.

I am in favor of a designation that is individual and distinctive, "Pi Kap" is already in use by another fraternity "II" is too all inclusive and not distinctive while "Pike" is both distinctive and original. Let us use it.

E. R. Moss, Alpha-Eta.

From the time of Chapter installation, it has been a custom among the members of other fraternities, the student body at large, and the towns-people, to allude to the members of Alpha Kappa as—The Pi K A's, or the Pi K A boys; an allusion, which, it seems to me, is very complimentary.

Considered in the right light, it appears that there is a mark of distinction in the title of—The Pi K A's not to be realized in such names as The Pikes,, The Pi Kays, The Pi's, or the Pi Kaps.

Too, the three initials of the three Greek letters in the title of our Fraternity are included in the title of—The Pi K A's, and, again, in a way (probably due to the long established custom of using it at Alpha Kappa) the name of The Pi K A's is more easily spoken than many of the other names suggested thus far.

I feel sure, that should we at some future period, legislate on a universal name for the members of Pi Kappa Alpha, and adopt a name other than that of The Pi K A's, we would still continue to be spoken of, not only among other Fraternities, but also among the members of Pi Kappa Alpha herself as The Pi K A's.

It is with pleasure, therefore, that I submit this article in the name of Alpha Kappa for your consideration.

VIRGIL L. WHITWORTH.

We, of Alpha-Omicron, think this is a wise and also a necessary step. The Fraternities here at Southwestern all have a nationally adopted "nickname" such as: "Sigs", "Phis", and K A's. We have always been known as Π K A's". But then this is our national name and it is not universally used to designate the various chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha. The Greek emblem " Π " seems to me to be the proper national "nickname" because we use it on our recognition pins and also on our pledge pins, so why not adopt it and use it nationally, to designate P. K. A's everywhere?

J. C. HALLOWAY.

The subject of a national abbreviation has of late become one of the most popular topics of fireside conversation and incidentally one upon which wide and varied opinions are expressed. A careful survey of the situation has caused me to come to the following, interesting conclusions and upon each of which I shall comment, separately.

First: The abbreviation Pi Kap is found to be the most popular in the 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, and 12th districts.

Second: The abbreviations Pike, Peke and Pi are the favorites in districts 1, 2, and 5.

Third: The abbreviations P. K. A. and Pi are mostly used in districts number 3, 4 and 6.

Now you ask the reasons for the abbreviations being used in those districts as they are. I would explain as follows. The abbreviation Pi Kap is the most natural one to use and the one that might be easiest understood without explanation to those who hear it. It has the same self explanatory aid that is found in such abbreviations as, Phi Gam, Sig Alph, Phi Delt, Betas and others and is for this reason that the newer chapters in districts 7, 8, 9, and 12 have so naturally adopted it. Another fact is that the chapters in these districts have little or no difficulty with the reasons ascribed to the other districts.

The chapters in the 1st, 2nd, and 5th districts are both old and new but all are in that section of the country where Delta Kappa Epsilon is strong and where they forever hear the nickname Deke. I think that the psychological effect of this well known abbreviation has been the chief reason for chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha using Peke and Pike, Pi being only secondary. It is a natural tendency to copy after something well known. Let us hope, however, that Pi Kappa Alpha can be original and adopt a name that will have no copy marks upon it.

In the 3rd, 4th and 6th districts there are several chapters of Pi Kappa Phi and for this reason both fraternities hesitate to use the abbreviation Pi Kap. There are few D. K. E. chapters and naturally P. K. A. and Pi have become the choice abbreviations for Pi Kappa Alpha.

Now with the facts, as I see them, at hand, which abbreviation shall we decide upon as our national nickname?

I think it should be Pi Kap and I also believe that if a vote of all the chapters was to be taken that the large majority would be in favor of this abbreviation. It is short, it is easily understood, it is complete and it is original. The only drawback is the fact that there is another fraternity, the Pi Kappa Phi, which might use the same abbreviation. This would however, be very easily overcome if Pi Kappa as a whole would adopt the nickname Pi Kap. There are only six schools in which there are both Pi Kappa Alpha and Pi Kappa Phi chapters and a simple announcement in the schools publications, to the effect that Pi Kap was the national abbreviation of Pi Kappa Alpha would forever settle the question there and in a short time no one would be more apt to think that Pi Kap meant Pi Kappa Phi than the average person would think that Sig Alph meant Sigma Alpha Mu.

Let us all get together then, and decide to adopt Pi Kap as the national abbreviation for Pi Kappa Alpha.

V. F. WASIELEWSKI,

Why Did You Choose Pi Kappa Alpha?

(The following article was written by Joseph Shaw, '24, as an answer to the question, "Why did you choose Pi Kappa Alpha?" put to the initiates of Alpha Sigma Chapter.)

ONE of the greatest and most precious things on earth is real, deep, life friendship. The college fraternity—where men have things in common—friendships, knowledge, ideals—is the best place not only to make and receive this sincere friendship, but also to give it as well as one may. We all have different natures, but irrespective of our differences, we all—providing we have a bit of self respect—enjoy and try to be in company with men who are educated and refined and who are gentlemen in the full sense of those three words.

I take it that all fraternity men are gentlemen, but there is something more than that that exists in Pi Kappa Alpha. There is that undefinable spirit that prompts us all to be of service to one another here, and that college spirit that was clearly shown at the Informal before the Big Game; but over and above all this is that esteemed, deep-rooted, brotherly feeling in the Pi Kappa Alpha that Don Gilles brought out and made so apparent that night as we were all squatted in front of the fire after the Pajamerino Rally, listening to Don's musical voice as he related "Dangerous Dan McGraw" and other poems. I saw the flickering firelight play around the walls of the dimly lighted room, and enjoyed the apples, and—but what's the use! I am no author, no writer. I cannot describe that feeling—that spirit; but by the Lord Harry I sure felt that right then and there I was a Pi Kapp.

The Fraternity Agreement at Pennsylvania

THE interfraternity agreement at the University of Pennsylvania is interesting because of its structure, its enforcement, its success, and the brotherly spirit which it fosters among the various Greek letter societies of the institution founded by Ben Franklin. But to study any instrument like this agreement it is necessary first to study the conditions attendant upon such an agreement.

At Pennsylvania there are undergraduate and professional fraternities. Of the general undergraduate fraternities there are national and local fraternities. Nearly every general national fraternity with one or two exceptions maintains a chapter on the campus. Thus the need for some sort of an agreement among the various fraternities. Aside from the fact that such an agreement is conducive to the proper interfraternity spirit, several other features of this compact are well worth reviewing.

At the University of Pennsylvania during the past year it is estimated that approximately 11,000 students were in attendance. In a crowd of these proportions it is very easy for a freshman to get lost or at least to become badly confused. This is the situation that he is up against when he matriculates. Again from the fraternity's standpoint, it is indeed a hard matter to single out all the good frat timber within a few hours after matriculation. The interfraternity agreement relieves this by declaring that there shall be no rushing "prior to 12 Noon of the first Monday of the second term". The first Monday of the second term is usually the first Monday in February. Since college opens about October 1st, there is a four months interval between the time of matriculation and rushing. This is a feature which fits in very nicely to conditions here at the University. For four months the Freshmen are not approached in any manner whatsoever in regards to joining a fraternity. During this interval the word "fraternity" never even escapes from the lips of an upperclassman. As a result the Freshmen are not bothered in this respect and can study without hindrance. The thought that they must first pass their mid-year examinations in order to be eligible to join a fraternity, also spurs the new men on to greater efforts.

In the meanwhile, the fraternities are not sleeping. Each house is busy compiling lists of freshmen for their rushing lists. These lists are weeded out, and discussions are held. All necessary information concerning the rushee is obtained together with letters of his moral character when possible. Then by the time of rushing season, each fraternity has a large rushing list.

Another important feature of this Greek Letter compact is that it expressly states that "rushing shall be restricted to the campus and Chapter Houses". In a city as large as Philadelphia and with so many attractions, this clause is needed. Were this left out, it would be a case of the more wealthy houses stealing a march on those houses of more moderate circumstances by entertaining their freshmen in the ball rooms of the largest hotels and similar places. This clause also tends to put a democratic touch to the agreement and gives rushing season more of a college flavor, something which would not exist were rushing permitted in all parts of the state. Another clause which strikes at any monopoly that any one fraternity might seek to exert over their rushees is that which specifies that "no more than one invitation to a smoker, meal or University activity shall be issued in advance." Invitations may not be mailed previous to 6 p. m. of the Sunday preceding the opening of the rushing season". All attempts to "date up" the freshmen for weeks in advance are frustrated by this clause. It is beneficial to the freshmen for it permits him to visit quite a few houses and thereby enables him to pick the fraternity that he is most suited for.

Although the agreement does not state definitely the period of rushing season, for the past few years it has been three weeks. During this period no fraternity may extend any bid to a freshman expressed or implied. Rushing season ends on the third Sunday. If elected, the freshman is invited around for an interview, to take place some time between 1 p. m. Monday, and 1 p. m. of the Wednesday following.

“Who’s Who and the Fraternity”

At the Convention of District No. 4 in Atlanta, during February, there was passed a resolution to the effect that the convention go on record as being concerned with the matter of members of the Fraternity, who have the distinction to be given a place in the American “Who’s Who”, including in this write-up their membership in Pi Kappa Alpha.

Anyone who has seen this volume, which may be found in any library, will recognize the fact that the above is an important item, which, unfortunately, many of our good brothers who have their names in this book, have not seen fit to include. To the writer’s certain knowledge, at least one other national fraternity has carried out an active campaign among its members who have attained distinction, to call to their attention the importance of including their college fraternity in their list of honors. To be a college fraternity man is a distinctive honor which any man can be proud of. Some of the most prominent men in the United States have seen fit to mention their fraternal connections in “Who’s Who”, and it is unbelievable that if this matter is brought to the attention of our Alumni, they will not be only too ready to mention Pi Kappa Alpha in their write up. This can best be done thru the Sheeld and Diamond.

American Model Playground Laid Out in Czecho-Slovakia

Note—Dr. Joseph Kirk Folsom is an initiate of Alpha Psi Chapter.

IN Bratislavia, Czecho-Slovakia, a new American model playground for children has just been established by Mrs. Jessie Newcomb Folsom, representing the American Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Folsom is the wife of Dr. Joseph Kirk Folsom (Rutgers, 1913), who took his degree at Columbia in 1917 and was later on the faculty at the Univeristy of Pittsburgh. He is now spending a year in reconstruction work in Czecho-Slovakia where he is the educational director of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Folsom comes from Newark, N. J., where his father is the pastor of the Clinton Avenue Presbyterian church.

The first workers came in at the request of Dr. Alice Masarykova, daughter of the president, to make a survey of Prague. The first act of the Y. W. C. A. in Slovakia was to establish a children's modern playground of the type common in American cities. This it did with the joint support of the Y. M. C. A. and the city government of Bratislava, Mrs. Folsom being in charge of the undertaking. This is the second playground of its kind in the republic, the first being at Prague.

Unlike the Prague playground, which is spacious and located in a somewhat elevated park, the one in Bratislavia is condensed in a small space in the midst of a congested factory district. It is equipped with modern steel apparatus, a shelter house and a wading pool. It serves the children of three languages—Slovak, German and Magyar.

Bratislava is on the Danube, about thirty-five miles east of Vienna. It is known to the Germans as Pressburg and the Magyars as Pozsony. For a few weeks after the independence it was called Wilsonoye Mosto in honor of President Wilson. It was given to Czecho-Slovakia as a result of the peace treaty because necessary to the integrity of Slovakia, which without Bratislava would have no economic center nor military safety. Thus naturally it is still the bone of contention on the part of Hungary and a center of racial feeling, although the German and Magyar populations are given equal rights and liberties with the Czecho-Slovaks.

In the midst of the "bad blood" the playground will do its bit toward mixing and democratizing the unfriendly elements. At the official opening, when the mayor of Bratislava and the Administrative Minister of Slovakia accepted the playground in the name of the government, groups of children of the three nations were asked to sing songs in their respective languages. This did not a little to increase good feeling among the people.

The playground was not established as a relief measure but to demonstrate the American idea of organized, supervised play—which is largely lacking in Europe.

Mrs. Folsom is now at work preparing the ground for the establishment of Y. W. C. A. work for the girls of Bratislava, many of whom are office employes living in crowded quarters many miles from their homes. The greatest difficulty in this work is to secure a building or even a small part of one. The law here allows people only one room per person for dwelling purposes and the poorer people of the city are living on the average of about two per room.

In both the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. the American workers are gradually withdrawing and turning their work over into the hands of Czecho-Slovak directors.—The New York World, Feb. 6, 1921.

In Memoriam

MARTIN CLARK WHITE

Kappa Chapter

On February 24, Brother Martin Clark White, died from pneumonia in the Middlesex Hospital at New Brunswick, New Jersey. He died very suddenly on the day after he was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Brother White was a graduate of Transylvania College with the A. B. degree, in the class of 1915. While in college there he was initiated into Kappa Chapter of The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He was a man who was very prominent in college life, being president of his freshman class and a member of the basketball team in 1913. He was also the business manager of the college annual, The Crimson, in his senior year. His position on the campus is shown by the fact that he was a member of Boar's Head Chapter of Sigma Upsilon Literary Fraternity, and of Book and Bones, honorary senior society.

After graduation Brother White went to Paris, Kentucky, where he became principal of the high school, and then he went to New York. During the war he served as a lieutenant in the army. After the war he was connected with a number of financial institutions in New York but longed to return to teaching so when offered a post in Rutgers Preparatory School as professor of Latin and history last fall, he eagerly accepted. He was also master of Alpha House at the preparatory school, and assisted last fall in coaching the football and basketball teams.

Brother White not only was a loyal Pi, and a true supporter of the best interests of his chapter and the fraternity at large during his college days, but also since his graduation he has kept up his interest in his fraternity. Not only has he been a loyal alumnus of Kappa Chapter, but he has also taken an active interest in Alpha-Psi Chapter while located at Rutgers College.

Bro. White was a member of the American Legion.

The interment was at his old home in Centralia, Mo.

In Memoriam

MARTIN CLARK WHITE

Kappa

WHEREAS, in the death of Brother Martin Clark White, the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity has lost a valuable member, and

WHEREAS, Kappa Chapter has lost a man who during his college days was an active supporter of its interests, and since his graduation has been a loyal alumnus,

Be It Therefore Resolved, that we, the members of Kappa Chapter of The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, do hereby express our feeling of loss in the death of Brother White, and extend to his widow and father our heartfelt sympathy, and

Be It Further Resolved, that these resolutions be entered in the chapter minutes, and that copies be sent to the bereaved wife and father, and that a copy be sent to The SHIELD AND DIAMOND for publication.

By the committee,

FOSTER P. MITCHELL,
CARL H. FORTUNE,
Kappa Chapter.

WHEREAS, It has been the will of the Almighty to take from us our beloved brother, Martin Clark White, of Kappa Chapter, therefore be it

Resolved, That this chapter express its deepest sympathy to his family and friends in their great loss; and be it further

Resolved, That the badge of the fraternity be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family and be published in THE TARGUM and spread on the minutes of the fraternity.

For the Alpha Psi Chapter,

DOUGLAS C. McCULLY,
CHARLES L. MESSER, JR.

EDITORIAL

It is with deep regret that we note the passing of Alpha Lambda Chapter at Georgetown College.

Alpha Lambda Chapter

No comment will be made here on the action of the Board of Trustees of the institution in forbidding the future initiation of men and referring the disposition of the chapters as they now stand to the Executive Committee. Elsewhere in this issue will be found an article by one who is evidently well acquainted with the facts of the case and who writes with a sharp and unsparing pen.

While we can neither accept nor reject his conclusions, because we have not studied the case, it can be said, at least, that another illustration has been furnished of the ignorance and prejudice that still exists in many quarters towards the American College fraternity. Attention is called to the efforts of the Interfraternity Conference to correct and dispel this ignorance and prejudice and members of Pi Kappa Alpha are urged to assist the conference in this most important undertaking.

Much of this issue is taken up with the accounts of various district organizations. No attempt will be made to summarize the more important recommendations of the convention, and therefore the articles on the conventions should be carefully studied.

District Conventions

But it should be pointed out that the district convention, quite in innovation with Pi Kappa Alpha, is productive of at least three results, which more than justify the time and money expended.

First: The district convention is the only means of welding the district into a compact, efficient, unit of fraternal organization. A "district" spirit is aroused, a lesser allegiance, not detaching from, but strengthening, the loyalty due to the fraternity as a whole. A careful, accurate survey of the district can be made, and locations for new active and alumni chapters considered.

Second: Brotherhood, unfortunately, exists in the abstract only until personal acquaintance causes it to bloom with the added sweetness of good-fellowship and friendship. So by bringing together large numbers of alumni and members of active chapters, the fraternal ties are strengthened and made more effective.

Third: A medium is created by which the national organization can be studied and discussed and diverse opinions from different sections can be welded into concrete ideas for consideration later on at the national convention.

The Grand Historian has suggested that the minutes of our chapter are too often dull, dry, recitals of routine matters instead of living, interesting records of the Chapter's life and history.

Chapter Minutes

For instance it would not be out of place to mention athletic honors won by the members, degrees conferred, prizes won, etc. Too often, the preparations for a dance or other chapter function will receive copious mention in the minutes for some time preceding the event, but as far as the event itself is concerned, someone who might read the minutes of the chapter long afterwards, would find no record of whether the laborious preparations had met with success or failure or whether even, the function ever took place.

The cooperation of the chapter officers is asked in this matter, and it may be possible to include in the chapter order of business, some heading that might suggest and secure the inclusion of such items.

Attention is called to the unusually large number of chapter letters from alumni chapters.

Alumni Chapters

While we have increased materially the number of our alumni chapters the most important fact is that their activity has increased even more materially.

An alumni chapter that exists only in name is a poor substitute for none at all; but such a chapter that not only functions, but lives enough to write about it, is indeed a most desirable acquisition to any fraternity.

These letters will be found at the end of the Chapter Letter Department and a perusal of them will indicate not only the value of such chapters to Pi Kappa Alpha but also the fun and good fellowship that the alumnus can derive therefrom. These letters, are indeed, the strongest inducement we can hold out for the further formation of such chapters.

It has been suggested that full opportunity for discussion has been given to the question of a nationally known and recognized abbreviation, and that the matter should be decided by vote of the members of the fraternity.

The Abbreviation

A plan is now being considered by which the sentiment of all Pi Kappa Alphas can be taken on this important question.

CHAPTER LETTERS

Chapter Letters must be mailed to General Office by 1st of October, December, February, April and June. (Section 29, National By-Laws.) Chapters are advised to Register these Letters, preventing loss in mail.

ALPHA

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

The Easter dances have past. Baseball is here. Final examination seems far in the future.

The inter-fraternity basket ball games excited a great deal of interest. After a number of hard games, Alpha Chapter came out victorious winning the championship. Nickels, Gammon, Henry and Graham Preston, Sharer and Jenkins played in the various games and showed unusually good form.

"Skeete" Attebury, Jim Donlon, and Cary Wilkins have been elected to Lambda Pi, an interfraternity academic fraternity, and they furnished considerable amusement to the crowd of spectators at the public part of the initiation, which is held at one of the baseball games. Attebury deserves special mention as a comedian. "Bo-Peep" Jones was elected to Skull and Keys another interfraternity academic organization.

Watkins has played short-stop in several of the Varsity games and he has held down this difficult position very creditably.

Parish and Craig are out for Varsity track and we are expecting them both to make the team. Jim Donlon is heaving the shot and discus a considerable distance for the First Year track team.

In a booklet published recently by the University containing the names of her most prominent alumni, we find several of the alumni members of Alpha chapter. We take pride in announcing these in the Alumni Notes.

Alpha Chapter extends hearty greetings and best wishes to her sisters.

W. R. DOVE.

BETA

DAVIDSON COLLEGE

Beta takes great pleasure in introducing the new brothers to the fraternity at large.

Stuart S. Pattillo, Fordyce, Ark.

Kenneth T. McCrary, Woodbury, Tenn.

On the twenty-sixth of February, the new men gave a dinner for the chapter and it proved a big success. Old II spirit was much in evidence and has gripped the new men.

The upperclassmen are guiding the new men into different lines of college activities and every one is making himself known on the campus. Beta faces a bright and hopeful future. Plans are being formulated for the greater advancement of the Chapter and some of the immediate effects are already being felt. One of the aims of the Chapter this year is to win the Belk Fraternity Cup. We have a splendid chance and every member is bringing up his grades in order to help in this scholastic victory on the campus.

Beta is working hard in campus activities this spring. We have five men out for track, Carr, McLeod, McCrary, Hillhouse and Pattillo. Pattillo is showing up especially good in sprints and although this is his first year we believe he will cinch a place on the team. Gaither is out working for the coming tennis tournament and all who know "Cicero" know him to be a wicked player. McCaskill, as business manager of the 1921 "Quips and Cranks", is journeying regularly to Charlotte getting into shape, and Knox, as assistant business manager, has been visiting the neighboring towns for advertisements. Carr and McLeod are on the Glee Club and are enjoying the trips, while McLeod is on the heart breaking quartette.

Junior Speaking, on March fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh, proved the crowning event of the year. It opened with a basketball game with the Winston-Salem "Y". Three II's were on the "Y" team, Martin (Captain), Patton and Ferrell. We enjoyed their visit very much and hope they will soon pay us a more extended visit. Old Beta was host to many of the fair sex during speaking. On the afternoon of the fifth, the Glee Club entertained, and that evening the dramatic club presented several plays which were followed by the Junior reception. The Junior reception was substituted this year for the customary general fraternity reception. Speaking closed Monday evening with a dance in Charlotte. Among the visiting brothers present for Speaking were C. H. Barringer, Jr., J. E. McQueen, F. N. McKeller, V. G. Pleasants, Jr., (Alpha-Epsilon) and L. D. Nuchols (Alpha-Epsilon).

At a recent chapter meeting Gaither and Knox were elected as delegates to the district convention in Raleigh on the twenty-eighth. Covington and McLeod are also going. McLeod has just returned from a short visit to Alpha-Alpha, having attended the initiation banquet, and he reports a big trip and is full of praise for the Trinity bunch.

On the twenty-fourth of March, we were to have opened our baseball season by playing New York University here, but the game was called off on account of rain. We regretted that the New York team was unable to come to the hill as there were three II's and one pledge on the squad.

We regret to report the loss of Grantham and Drake, who have been called home. We miss them very much.

With best wishes to all the sister chapters.

A. M. HILLHOUSE.

GAMMA

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Since our last letter we have initiated Carraway, who was then announced as a pledge. We therefore take great pleasuer in introducing to the Fraternity at large James Vernon Carraway, who was initiated into the bonds on the night of February 5. Carraways home is at Kempsville, Va., near Norfolk.

The chief thing of interest on the campus at this time is the baseball team. We think we have the best team this year that has represented the college in years; and have already begun to boast that we have the best team in the state. We shall have an opportunity very shortly to prove whether or not our boast is correct. Our trip starts in about a week, and on that trip we meet all of the strongest teams of the state. So far we have played four games and have split even, beating Newport News Shipyard and University of Richmond, but bowing to Holy Cross and New York University. Both of our victors, however, knew that they had been playing ball when the 9th inning was over. Gamma is represented on the team by Lowe and Chandler, and Dietz and Hastings are on the squad.

On the Saturday before Easter we played New York University in Norfolk. It gave us great pleasure to meet the II's on the team, the captain, manager and shortstop. Hastings had prepared a supper out at his home for the New York II's. We were greatly distressed when they told us that they would have to catch an early train back to New York and would be unable to attend. We trust that the next time they come south they will not have to leave so hurriedly. It always gives us great pleasure to entertain and to know our visiting brothers. On our northern baseball trip we play University of Pennsylvania and New York University again. We hope that our representatives on the team will have the pleasure of meeting the members of Beta Pi and seeing more of the brothers of Alpha Upsilon.

William and Mary enjoyed a holiday from the Thursday before Easter until the Tuesday following. All of the boys went to their own homes or went home with some of the brothers. They have now all returned, and report a fine time during their vacation.

The Easter dances take place on the 7th and 8th of April. They are purported to be the best ever. A first class orchestra has already been engaged and everything is being put in readiness.

Since our last letter Davis, Massey and West have left college. We were very sorry to lose these men, but they heard the calling of business, and we wish them the best of luck in their every undertaking. We have with us this semester Stuart Sorg, an affiliate from Alpha. We are very glad that he saw fit to come to William and Mary. He is making us a good man and we are glad he came.

At the election of officers for the second term the following men were elected:

O. S. Lowe, S. M. C.

A. B. Belanger, I. M. C.

L. H. Gilliland, T. H. C.

The following were appointed by the S. M. C.

C. C. Robinson, S. C.

J. E. Tompkins, M. C.

F. F. Chandler, M. S.

With best wishes to the fraternity at large, and congratulations to our baby chapters.

F. F. CHANDLER.

DELTA

BIRMINGHAM SOUTHERN COLLEGE

Delta wishes to announce the initiation of the following:

Brevy Paul Hutto, Ariton, Alabama.

Joseph William Wheeler, Trussville, Alabama.

Hutto is a sophomore of good standing and Wheeler is a freshman, a member of the pitching corps who bids fair to bring honor to his fraternity and college by his work on the diamond.

The following officers were elected for the second half of the year:

C. C. Russel, S. M. C.

A. B. Davidson, I. M. C.

W. W. Locke, Th. C.

The following were appointed:

W. P. Snugs, S. C.

P. M. Norton, M. C.

G. Myer, M. S.

Delta is well represented in college life. A. Miller, Griffin, Green, P. M. Norton and Richardson made letters in basketball. A. Miller, Wheeler, Griffin, Green, P. M. Norton, Stansell and Richardson are working for places on the baseball squad. We are planning to take most of the honors on field day, April 16, in the Pan-Hellenic events. We are especially proud of Davidson, who by his gift of oratory aided in the victory of the debaters over Millsaps College on March 25. Brascomb is doing good work as editor-in-chief of the college annual with Locke as one of his assistants. We are glad to have Russel back with us from Upsilon.

Snuggs was unfortunate in having his leg fractured in an accident. We hope to have him with us again soon.

On March 1, Delta had a down-town smoker in honor of the founding of the fraternity. Bro. Wolford of the alumni was with us and gave a very interesting talk.

Delta extends best wishes to her sister chapters.

ZETA

UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

Since our last chapter letter, Zeta has initiated and wishes to announce to the fraternity at large, the following newly made brothers:

Adlia Woodworth Cullis, 516 5th St., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Charles Hale Torreyson, 479 LaClede St., Memphis, Tenn.

Don Hurt Powell, 43 N. Cleveland St., Memphis, Tenn.

Chesney Hughes Lyon, 117 16th Ave., North, Nashville, Tenn.

Lawrence Vernon Bishop, 603 W. Church Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

Vernon Cate Eads, 1931 Yale Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

Roy Edkar Bell, 1305 W. Clinch Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

Earl Francisco, Maryville, Tenn.

Since the new term began

Douglas McCall, 501 N. 10th St., Opelika, Ala.,

Chas. A. Bell, 1305 W. Clinch Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.,

Joe Cobble, Madisonville, Tenn. has been pledged.

With this addition, and the prospect of losing only one brother by graduation this year, Zeta should be able to continue the enviable record she has gained in practically every phase of college endeavor.

On March the fourth, other things happened besides the inauguration of a president. The annual U. T. Carnival was staged on that date. This event, along with the circus given later in the spring, affords an opportunity of expression to the many and varied talents represented in both sororities and fraternities.

In the afternoon, a very creditable parade of decorated cars and floats attracted much favorable comment in the business district up-town. More than the usual amount of interest and thought was shown in the stunts and other features of the evening program. The Carnival Ball this year was given in the newly acquired quarters of the Business Men's Club up town and proved quite a success. The splendid way in which the whole affair succeeded was due in no small part the efficient management of W. J. Wadlington, Jr., General Manager. Other II K A's on the staff were:

W. J. Wadlington, member dance commtitee.

D. H. Powell, Assistant State Manager.

M. Davenport, Manager Fraternity Stunts.

March 16 will long stand out as a prominent day in the history of the rapidly developing University of Tennessee. The new Shields-Watkins athletic field was practically graded, but needed a great deal of leveling and ditching to put it in shape for track and baseball. Through the All Students Club, it was voted to give one day to completing the field. The Administration Council gave a holiday on the 16th for that purpose. Blue prints and all retails were worked out by the students of the Engineering College beforehand, while the Ag men had done most of the preliminary plowing of dirt that had to be moved. The field was thus set for the important day and the weather man proved favorable. By eight o'clock there were seven or eight hundred men in working clothes and cheerful spirits, including the Deans and Faculty. A car load of picks and shovels, eight motor trucks, seven teams and scrapers, four tractors and a steam roller were all loaned by friendly contractors in town. Due to the splendid organization effected under the direction of Major Raborg, the work was done very efficiently, though the laborers were more or less congested. The dirt flew until eleven o'clock, when two trucks brought up provisions that the Co-eds had been preparing for our dinner. There were followed by two-hundred girls, all in white, who served dinner on the new concrete bleachers. About one hour was taken for lunch and then everyone went back to work with a will—the girls serving as "water boys" in the afternoon. By five o'clock the entire field had been leveled, drained, a complete quarter of a mile track filled with cinders and rolled and a baseball diamond made ready for the game on Saturday. With a little touching up, Tennessee can boast of as fine an athletic field as can be found in the South and expects to see some S. I. A. A. meets here in a few years. The most important feature of this Campus Day was the splendid exhibition of school spirit. No coercion of any kind was used, yet practically everyone turned out and worked for Old U. of T.

Out of 24 members of II K A, 23 were out in full force. The missing member didn't come around the House for a week afterwards, for he got word that we were keeping the bath tub full of water for him.

For the first time in history, U. T. has a decent place for track practice and the completion of our new cinder path has added a great deal of interest to this sport. Our first meet will be at Lexington, Ky., early in April.

On the same day the Student Body was building an athletic field, the State Legislature voted the University a half mill tax, which will mean approximately a million dollars a year for our building program.

Since our last letter, we have lost brother C. C. Johnson, who has gone to finish his agricultural work at Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa. While we regret to see Johnson leave, we can heartily recommend him to the brothers of Alpha Phi as a loyal II K A and wish him every success in his new affiliations. Zeta is looking forward with pleasure to the remainder of the spring term and wishes for all sister chapters the same degree of the team will be with us next year, we have great of II K A.

ETA

TULANE UNIVERSITY

On February 19 six men were initiated into the bonds. They were:

R. Lynn Colomb, New Orleans, La.

Gordon Baquie, New Orleans, La.

Harry A. Ward, New Orleans, La.

Henry C. Pitot, New Orleans, La.

Charles H. Morton, Bernice, La.

Charles H. Campbell, Liverpool, England.

The Chapter's scholastic record this year has been very good. Our record of six initiates from eight pledges is as good as the best in Tulane. We are all working hard to keep the marks up as we are anxious to get the Scholastic Cup for 1921.

Just a few weeks ago, the inter-fraternity basketball season came to a close. Eta's quintet, composed of Foote, Baquie, Farley, Attaway and J. Elizardi, played a fine, fast game of ball. They succeeded in defeating the Phi Kappa Sig's to the tune of 25 to 6, but were later beaten in a hard fought game by the Kappa Alpha's. As most of the team will be with us next year, we have great hopes of winning the cup in 1922.

The mention of inter-fraternity games brings to mind the fact that Eta is now busily preparing for inter-fraternity tennis. Quite a few of the brothers are old hands at the game, and we expect to show up well in the contest.

On March 19 Eta entertained at an informal tea dance from 4 to 7. The party was a wonderful success and no one could keep still when the band began to play. The alumni turned out in full force and showed that they were as young as the youngest freshman.

The next entertainment on our program is a formal dance to be given at the Country Club on April 29. Indications point to a successful affair.

The active and alumni chapters are still co-operating and giving monthly dinners. These dinners have been a great success in the fact that they have been the meeting place for the alumni to meet the younger men.

At the meeting in the beginning of March, Eta elected the following officers for the second semester: T. Q. Foote, S. M. C.; Frank Elizardi, I. M. C.; J. Elizardi, Th. C.; Harry A. Ward, S. C.; Charles Campbell, M. S.; Charles Morton, M. C., and Lynn Colomb, alumni secretary.

Eta's men are taking part with the leaders in the university life. Baquie and J. Elizardi are playing with the freshman and sophomore basketball teams, respectively. Pledge Currier is continuing his good work in debating and bids fair to be among the first debaters for the Olive and Blue. Morton, Campbell and Colomb have been elected to the Freshman Honorary Society of the White Elephants. Foote, as a member of the Student Council and the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, is well to the front, as usual. The chapter is also showing up well in athletics, and we expect to have two or three men out for track.

Best wishes to fellow II's.

CHARLES H. CAMPBELL.

THETA

SOUTHWESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY.

Theta takes pleasure in introducing to her sister chapters the following initiates:

William Thomas Person, Holly Springs, Miss.

John Eaves Flint, Batesville, Miss.

In celebration of Founders' Day, March 1, Theta held a banquet and smoker at the Woman's Club. The rooms were appropriately decorated in streamers and pennants and the fraternity colors. This was quite a success, everyone reporting an excellent time.

The result of the report made by the faculty with regard to the average scholarships of each organization on the campus for the first semester was very gratifying to us. Pi Kappa Alpha led all other male organizations, being beaten only by the two co-ed clubs. With a good start for this semester we intend leading all organizations on the campus.

Not only does Theta play an important part in scholastic records, but she is also holding her own in athletics. In baseball we have Person on the pitching staff, Flint at first base and Roberts in the outfield.

Due to much bad weather baseball practice has been progressing slowly but it is hoped that with the coming days of real spring Southwestern will develop a fast and winning team. Our first game will be played with Union University of Jackson, Tenn., on April 1.

Coach Kenney intends holding a track meet some time in May and there are quite a number of men out now pounding the cinder path and getting in trim. Regen and Ryan are showing up well in this practice.

Roberts and Walker, our delegates to District Convention No. 3, held at Raleigh, N. C., on Easter Monday, reported a most beneficial meeting and a very pleasant time. They enjoyed stopping at Alpha Delta of Georgia Tech and Zeta of University of Tennessee.

Theta sends best wishes to all sister chapters.

LOUIS S. SCRUGGS.

IOTA

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY COLLEGE

Since our last letter went to the printers many things of interest have occurred in the life of the college and the chapter.

The basketball season closed with Hampden-Sidney occupying second place in the E. V. I. A. A. In the award of monograms Captain Brittain and Smith both won the coveted letters. Our last game was won from Randolph-Macon on this floor. In it Brittain made his last appearance on a Hampden-Sidney quintet. For four years he has been the mainstay of our teams, and it was with oft-expressed regret that the followers of basketball referred to his exodus. To say his absence will be sorely felt expresses but feebly the sentiment of his many friends. His popularity has been attested by his teammates in his three successive captaincies of the team.

Dr. J. O. Reavis conducted a series of most delightful services for the students from March 3 to 6. He greatly endeared himself to the boys and we felt he left all too soon.

On March 28th the field agents of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church launched the million dollar educational campaign for Virginia with an appeal to the student body. We now number but 120 men. So far we have pledged over $6,200 and a few absent students have not been interviewed. Our enthusiasm is at white heat. The college officers and faculty members have carried our contribution over the $10,000 mark and the end is not yet. Success is assured the undertaking and with Hampden-Sidney getting the lion's share, the future of the old institution is ever brightening.

The intermediate celebration on February 25-26 brought to us welcomed guests of both sexes. It was our pleasure to entertain the following alumni: D. T. Wool, K. R. Saunders, "Billy" Ridgwell, Henry Preston, H. R. Crockett and Joe Pleasants. In early March T. T. Atkinson and R. Lee Chambliss likewise paid us visits, but of them we saw all too little. They promise us a return visit in the near future to which we are looking forward with keen anticipation.

Our campaign for debt eradication is succeeding. A full report on it will be announced later.

Leece, we are sorry to say, has left us for fair Tazewell. We will miss him no little.

To our baby chapter Iota extends a hearty greeting.

THOS. E. GILMER.

KAPPA

TRANSYLVANIA UNIVERSITY

Kappa chapter wishes to introduce her new initiates:

Harlie L. Smith, Kansas City, Mo.

Willard T. Carter, Kansas City, Mo.

Graydon Bower, Lexington, Ky.

Bennett Roach, Lawrenceburg, Ky.

And her two new pledges:

Burt V. Halbert, West Point, Miss.

Edwin Van Pelt, Louisville, Ky.

We have returned from spring vacation, and everyone is getting back to hard work, and looking forward to the end of college. Baseball has begun and although Kappa is not as well represented as she has been in some years past, she is well up in front with four men sure of their letters, and three of them pitchers. The first game of the season is here on April 7, against Louisville.

Saturday, April 2, we gave a tea dance from 4 to 7 for high school students only. We have our eyes on some good men for next year.

Considerable interest is being shown in our Sunday night "feeds." Since there is no Sunday evening meal at the college commons, a committee arranges the meal at Neal Hall, and all the chapter gathers for a get-together meeting and eats. Several times some men from Omega Chapter have been with us.

Brother Cornn brought us through basketball season with good success. Out of six letters awarded, II's received three. Chandler (captain), Cleveland and Dutt. Smith, Carter and Bower stayed by the job through the season as scrubs.

Kappa sends hearty greetings to her sister chapters.

FOSTER P. MITCHELL.

OMICRON

RICHMOND COLLEGE

After having a very pleasant Easter vacation, we are all glad to get back to school and are getting set for the spring term.

We take pleasure in introducing to the fraternity at large the following initiates.

James Stuart Durham, Howertons, Va.

Junius Weisiger Ellett, Pocahontas, Va.

Robert Ernest Lewis, 176 Victoria Ave., Hampton, Va.

Marsh Howard McCall, Tazewell, Va.

Frederick William Nolde, 1 N. 29th St., Richmond, Va.

We are glad to announce that we have pledged Professor Horace Edwin Hayden, Jr., B. A., M. A., who is connected with the Department of Biology. This is his second year as an instructor at Richmond College and during that time he has incurred the favor of both the administration and the student body. He will be initiated within the next few days.

Baseball and track are in full swing now. Blankingship is holding down the catcher's position. This is his fourth year on the team. Hite, Nolde and McCall are out for track. Hite has showed some good stuff and will, in all probability, make his letter.

In the literary sphere Omicron is well represented. Hite has been elected business manager of the Messenger, the college monthly publication. C. W. Newton is now secretary of the Philologian Literary Society and Exchange Editor of the Messenger.

Hite was recently installed as president of the Y. M. C. A., succeeding Blankingship.

We were glad to have visits from some of our alumni during the last few weeks. Among those who came to see us were Brothers Washington, McGee, Beale, Mann, Gresham, Henry and Dick Taylor, Coleman, and Jimmy Duval.

Let us all make the last lap of the scholastic year the best for Pi Kappa Alpha.

Omicron extends best wishes to all sister chapters.

M. H. McCALL.

PI

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY

Pi takes pleasure in announcing to the fraternity at large the following initiates:

T. C. Green, Brownwood, Texas.

L. G. Norvell, Newburn, Tenn.

As a result of the recent triennial elections the following brothers were elected officers for the third term:

H. Enloe, Jr., S. M. C.

R. M. Sedwick, I. M. C.

C. H. Miller, Th. C.

C. M. Lewis, S. C.

E. H. Wiggins, M. C.

S. E. Baylor, M. S.

The second great ordeal of the year came to an end with the last examination on the morning of March 31. The professors for some reason best known to themselves, were all in a particularly vindictive mood when their questions were prepared and it yet remains to be seen how many of us have been tried and found wanting. Most of the boys, however, have been faithfully raising the light bills during the last two weeks and look forward with optimism to the "returns". Last year the Phi Gams beat our average by a couple of points, but we expect to come back to the front at the end of the present term.

Pi is very glad to announce that an option on one of the most desirable houses in town has been secured and the campaign to raise the money necessary for the first payment is in full swing. The lack of a house during the past two years has been a great handicap to the chapter and since many of the other fraternities are purchasing houses of their own it has become absolutely imperative that Pi do likewise if she is to compete with them.

Since the last letter Miller has been initiated into the "13" Club and Enloe and Allen have become members of Kappa Beta Phi. Enloe has also been elected to the Cotillion Club. MacLean was a charter member of the newly organized Engineering Society, while Baylor represents the chapter in Chi Gamma Theta, chemical fraternity. Wiggins is our representative on the swimming team, and Cover, Lewis and Sedwick are all fighting for places on the freshman baseball team.

Pi has been unusually fortunate in having visits from so many Brothers in the past two months. R. Taylor Coleman, District Princeps, honored us with a surprise visit last month. He reported that all the chapters in District No. 2 were in a flourishing condition.

A. B. Bowman, Jr., '18, dropped in unexpectedly in February on his way back to Johnson City from a business trip to Washington. He was present at the regular weekly meeting and gave us some good advice.

G. Graham Sale was a very welcome visitor a few days ago when he came to Lexington on business. He was the first of our alumni to give a substantial subscription to the new house fund and is taking a great interest in the welfare of the chapter.

W. V. Birchfield, our chapter house fund trustee, and K. C. Patty, both from Roanoke, were in town March 6 to inspect the house under consideration and to arrange for the terms of purchase. Both heartily agreed that it was an opportunity for Pi which could not be allowed to pass.

Tucker Harrison has just arrived in town for the Easter festivities. This will make the fortieth W. and L. dance he has attended since his graduation in—well, some time before Taft stepped out of the White House.

The initial game of our schedule in baseball was played March 31, with Penn State. Beta-Alpha has the distinction of having five men with the squad and it gave us great pleasure to welcome them all. Our only regrets are that they could not have been in town longer and that we were not in a better position to entertain them. Here's hoping they will be able to come back next spring when we will be in our house.

To all her sister chapters, Pi sends greetings.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

The activities of Pi Kappa Alpha in this part of the world since the last issue of the SHIELD AND DIAMOND have been both numerous and important. Our examinations ended on March 23 and were immediately followed by the Easter recess. During this period the district convention of District No. 3 took place in Raleigh, the home of Alpha Epsilon, and also of Brother John Boushall of Tau, the District Princeps who presided at the convention. Tau was represented officially by Brown and Cooper. Besides these Everett, Hunt and Williams of the active chapter were there and Alumnus Paul Brown of Chadburn. The convention was quite inspiring and the hospitality of Alpha Epsilon was worthy of the name of "Southern". Alpha Epsilon's annual Easter Monday dance was given at the Country Club and was quite up to standard, which means the best of the season.

These Raleigh festivities were followed at once by the annual Carolina Easter dances, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. In these Williams took an important part as leader of the Junior Prom. We were delighted to have as visitors for this occasion our own alumni, Boushall, Hale, Tom Pace and Paul Brown; alumni of Alpha Alpha Martin and Bill Pace; Peoples, Pierson and McNair of Alpha Epsilon; and Covington, Knox and Gaither of Beta.

An account of so many festivities may sound as if work is a secondary matter, but Patrick completed his work for graduation at the end of the quarter and will not return until commencement. Sledge is president of the senior law class. Hunt, Williams and Cooper have recently become members of the Thirteen, and Maupin and Williams of the Cabin. Hunt and Williams covered themselves with glory on a recent tour of the eastern part of the state with the Glee Club. Fischel and Maupin are both showing up promisingly on the track team.

We regret the loss of Penton, who is out for the rest of the term on account of illness in his family. He expects to be with us again next year, however.

Regards and best wishes for all sister chapters.

H. S. EVERETT.

UPSILON CHAPTER

UPSILON

ALABAMA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE

With Auburn changing her three terms for the two semester system next year we can say without boast that our last second term exams are through and done with. On the whole, the chapter came out very well in the exams; at any rate, the same old crew still remains.

February 22 of this year marked a new era or turning point for Auburn. On that date Dr. Spright Dowell was inaugurated president, succeeding Dr. Charles Coleman Thach, now president emeritus. A portrait in bronze of Dr. Thach is to be presented to the college by the class of '21. It is the work of Brother Spratling.

At the District No. 4 convention held in Atlanta, Upsilon was represented by Rodney and Charles Ollinger. They reported a most successful meeting and a mighty enjoyable trip. The hospitality of Beta Kappa and Alpha Delta chapters was greatly appreciated.

Auburn's baseball season opened most successfully a week ago when we defeated the University of Cincinnati 10 to 1. Charlie Ollinger was the sensation of the game, pitching a two-hit game and knocking a home run and a three-bagger.

The track team is getting in fine shape. The chapter is represented on by Crane, Farmer and Diseker. Feny Crane shows some real speed and we're expecting big results from him.

At the mid-term elections the chapter officers were re-elected without exception and are as follows:

C. G. Ollinger, S. M. C.
R. M. Ollinger, I. M. C.
J. H. Jackson, Th. C.
F. P. Page, S. C.
W. P. Spratling, M. S.
W. S. Belcher, M. C.

The accompanying picture of the chapter is as it appears in the Glomerata for '21.

With best wishes to our sister chapters,

WM. P. SPRATLING.

PSI

NORTH GEORGIA AGRICULTURE COLLEGE

Psi was greatly enthused over the district convention held in Atlanta. A little later, on March 7, we had our annual celebration of our twenty-first anniversary, which was greatly enjoyed by all. Among those present were several alumni, Garland Peyton, Professor J. C. Barnes, and Professor Shultz. After the banquet we all enjoyed talks by each of these and the great success we have had this year was discussed, which left us all in the highest of spirits.

We are very proud of the record Psi made this year, and that she is completely out of debt after paying off a debt carried over from last year. This has been pretty hard on us as our chapter is not very large, but we feel much stronger after our success.

We are represented on the baseball team this season by Pledge H. T. Hollis, who made a very brilliant record on the football team as well.

We are always enthused over the planning of our spring dance which is always a great feature in the spring term, and we expect to make this the greatest of all.

Psi takes great pleasure in announcing the pledging of W. Edward Bishop, Athens, Ga.

Psi extends her best regards to each sister chapter.

W. B. HAWKINS, JR.

OMEGA

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

The real Pi Kappa Alpha spirit and enthusiasm has been shown throughout the whole year at the University of Kentucky and the II's have worked to a foremost position in all school activities.

While all the schools represented in the S. I. A. A. were looking forward to Georgia winning the championship of the south in basketball, the University of Kentucky blossomed forth and brought back to their home in the Blue Grass the cup, winning the championship by a score of 20 to 19. Omega is represented on the squad by one of our freshmen, W. F. Selle. Along with the university's squad may be discussed Omega's squad in the Pan-Hellenic contests. We had this year for the first time since the war a sure enough team, although we did not win the championship we did give some of the contestants a good scare by entering the semi-finals and would have entered the finals but for one of our best men's knee giving away and we lost by two points. However, we are not discouraged and expect to show better next year. During this semester Omega will figure quite prominently in athletics. Hugh Williams will be a varsity baseball man; Boyd, a consistent track man, is making his second letter, and R. A. Sanders, Riley, Bourland and Stevens are making a good showing on the track.

Since our last letter we have initiated and here introduce, Brothers—

Robert Leighton Sanders, Covington, Ky.

William Lee Amis, Barboursville, Ky.

John Clement Riley, Jr., Henderson, Ky.

And also wish to announce the pledging of:

John B. Stevens, Sturgis, Ky.

Stevens comes to us from Transylvania University, where he was active in athletics and where he established a record for himself during his first year.

We are more fortunate than are some of our sister chapters in that we are within a radius of twenty-five miles of two other chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha, and in celebrating Founders' Day, Omega was joined by Kappa and Alpha-Lambda. A banquet was held in the Red Room of the Phoenix Hotel and a goodly number of the alumni of the three chapters were there as well as the members of the active chapters. And on the night of March 12 we held in honor of Kappa and Alpha-Lambda chapters a smoker in our new chapter house. Here alumni figured prominently again as well as the guests of honor.

Omega's chapter officers for this semester are:

Berl Boyd, S. M. C.

Harry L. Petrey, I. M. C.

Willian I. Moore, S. C.

Carl Lipe, Th. C.

M. Thomas Brooks, M. S.

Louis P. Gould, M. C.

We extend to the brothers all over the land our best wishes for success and prosperity as well as to all our sister chapters.

M. THOMAS BROOKS.

ALPHA ALPHA

TRINITY COLLEGE

Alpha Alpha announces the initiation of the following men:

Henry Archer Crute, Winston-Salem, N. C.

William Brower Hadley, Mount Airy, N. C.

John Balle Harris, Albemarle, N. C.

James Robert Simpson, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Jule Christian Spach, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Following the initiation in March a banquet was held, and in attendance there were twenty-four men, including the retiring District Princeps, J. H. Boushall; the incoming District Princeps, W. L. Ferrell, Jr., and a charter member of the chapter, Colonel John D. Langston, of Goldsboro. Brother Robert M. Gantt, former District Princeps of this district, acted as toastmaster.

The District Convention held in Raleigh on Easter Monday was in the eyes of our delegates a marked success. Such gatherings of our men give us new ideas and revive spirit, and make us realize more the greatness of the fraternity of which we are members. One chapter can greatly help another, and such things as one chapter ruining another has been heard of. But the four chapters in the "Old North State" are close together, three of them being within a radius of twenty-five miles, and every one is just as far from the cellar as is possible.

The contract for the Southgate Memorial Building has been let, and construction will be completed by the opening of school next fall. With the incoming of a co-ordinate college, fraternities can occupy the old Alspaugh Hall as they did in pre-war days.

Baseball season has opened, but we are not prophets enough to tell how the season will end. There are some mighty good teams in the state, and we are not so confident of winning the state championship this year. Neal is at his old job on second, and Simpson has worked in the box for one game. "Ted" Sullivan, of Buffalo, witnessed the Trinity-Wake Forest game, and rated Neal as the most likely-looking man on the field.

Alpha Alpha welcomes the incoming of our new District Princeps, W. L. Farrell, Jr. At the same time, during Brother Boushall's short term of service, we became attached to him, and regret that he is unable to pilot us further. There is no alumnus of Alpha Alpha who has more spirit for the fraternity than Brother Farrell. We do not "guess" he will accomplish great things in his new capacity—we know he will.

We were glad to have with us either for short visits or for the meetings the following brothers: S. H. Lee, George M. Ivey, Col. John D. Langston, John H. Boushall, W. L. Ferrell, Jr., L. K. Martin, W. O. Edwards and H. W. Kendall; Williams, Maupin, Hunt and Cooper of Tau; Pate and Wray of Alpha-Epsilon; and Knox, Gaither and McLeod of Beta.

The following officers have been elected and appointed for this semester:

Julian D. Lewis, S. M. C.
Thomas G. Neal, I. M. C.
John B. Harris, Th. C.
Wm. B. Hadley, S. C.
T. B. Ashby, Jr., M. S.
Jas. R. Simpson, M. C.

With every good wish for sister chapters,

JULIAN D. LEWIS.

ALPHA-GAMMA

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Alpha-Gamma has two new brothers to introduce:

A. F. McDade, Jr., Taylortown, La.
R. W. Atkins, Arcadia, La.

We take great pleasuse in introducing these new brothers to the fraternity at large and are sure they will prove good and worthy brothers.

Louisiana has just completed a very successful season in basketball, winning eighteen out of twenty-two games. Atkins is one of the stars of the team and is one of the best guards seen here in recent years. The track team is now in training and prospects are bright for us to win the S. I. A. A. meet this year. The team seems to be the best we have ever had at L. S. U., which means that we have some team. Our schedule is one of the hardest ever mapped out for a Tiger team. Beginning on April 16 we have a meet every week for six consecutive weeks. The season opens with Rice Institute at Houston; the following week the team goes to Starkville to meet Mississippi A. and M. We intend to erase the defeat handed us by them last year. Our other meets are with Auburn, Tulane, Sewanee and finally the S. A. A. U. meet will be held in Baton Rouge on May 20 and 21.

Alpha Gamma is looking forward to the District Convention for District No. 6, which will be held in Baton Rouge on April 15 and 16. We are working in co-operation with the alumni chapter recently organized in Baton Rouge and expect to make the visitors enjoy their stay in our city. We hope to have a number of our alumni back for the convention and dance. Any II's who may be in this part of the country on April 15 and 16 are urged to come to Baton Rouge for the convention.

Huckaby has just returned to school, having been to Shreveport to be operated on for appendicitis. We are all delighted to have him back with us.

Chandler was one of the L. S. U. debating team which defeated the University of Florida here on April 1.

In closing, Alpha Gamma sends her best wishes to her sister chapters for the successful completion of this year.

R. G. CHANDLER.

ALPHA DELTA

GEORGIA SCHOOL OF TECHNOLOGY

Alpha Delta began the new term with new ideas and new hopes; it takes an examination or two to teach a fellow a lesson sometimes, we all know that. Each and every one of the fellows began his work as it should be, that is, putting first things first.

The S. I. A. A. championship tournament in basketball was held in Atlanta during February. Tech made such a good showing that we consider the season a success, although we had lost most of the games up to that time. The team made a great comeback and held out through the semi-finals, losing this game to the University of Georgia, who in turn lost to the University of Kentucky, now the champions.

On March 5 Tech's annual cross country run was held. This run is one of the big events of the year at Tech and is watched with interest by other colleges. Every freshman is required to enter. Upper class men may do so if they wish. The race was won by F. E. Cotton, who covered the three miles in 19 minutes and 22 seconds. Three medals are given to the first three and the next ninety-four received home-made cakes donated by the faculty members. Each man counts one point starting from the last man, thus making the winner count about 300 points, these going to any organization which he desires. The II's came out eighth this year.

Baseball is in full swing and the official season opened with two games against the University of Cincinnati. Dan O'Leary, pitcher, and Ed Liddell, catcher, showed great work in the first game. With the whole team playing fine ball, Cincinnati lost, the score being 18 to 0. Tech also won the second game by a score of 17 to 6. Brothers Edmonson and Wydman were big men on the Cincinnati team and Alpha Delta was very glad to have them with her during their stay.

The Pan-Hellenic basketball games are now being played. The II's held out until the semi-finals, losing to Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The Fourth District Convention held in Atlanta February 10 and 11 was a great success and a great deal was accomplished. On the 11th Alpha Delta gave her annual dance and Tech has never seen a better one. Every one had the best kind of time.

Once every month the alumni of Atlanta hold a meeting. They have extended an invitation to the men of our chapter and of the Emory chapter to meet with them. A great deal of benefit is derived from these meetings both from the "eats" and the instructive talks by our older brothers. At the last meeting Dr. A. B. Wilmer of Gamma chapter gave us a very interesting talk.

A movement is on foot in college to start a comic magazine, The Tornado, and it is hoped that the first issue will appear in a short time. Alpha Delta is almost sure of two or three places on the staff, although it has not been announced as yet.

Alpha Delta wishes to announce the initiation of two men of whom she is proud:

Terrell Higden Yon, Tallahassee, Fla.

Edwin Carey Liddell, Atlanta, Ga.

Alpha Delta extends her best wishes to the sister chapters for a most enjoyable and successful term.

P. H. REGENOLD.

ALPHA EPSILON

NORTH CAROLINA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND ENGINEERING

As we near the end of this college year it is very gratifying to look back and see the success that has attended our efforts.

It has always been a custom for us to give our annual dance on Easter Monday night. This year we gave a dance which we think surpassed any which we have given heretofore. To add to the attractiveness of the occasion we secured the Carolina Country Club which we had beautifully decorated with our fraternity colors, garnet and old gold. There were lots of visiting boys and girls present and to make the occasion more successful we were fortunate to have with us quite a few brothers from Tau, Alpha Alpha, Beta and Zeta, who were here to attend the biennial convention of the Third District, which was held during the holidays. Representatives were here from all the chapters of this district. The business session was held Monday morning and a banquet was given on Monday night. There were about sixty II's present. After the banquet all went out to the dance.

Among the visitors who honored us with their presence was H. O. Covington, formerly of Alpha Epsilon but now of Beta. We are always glad to have our brothers visit us and hope that he will pay us another visit soon.

Baseball season is in full sway now. Our team this year is in fairly good shape but there is plenty of room for improvement. New York University played us on our home grounds and we were glad to find that there were three II's and one pledge on the team.

We now have thirteen active members and we feel proud of their stand in athletics and representation in every phase of college life. We have a fine foundation on which to build and success is sure if we stick to our ideals.

Alpha Epsilon sends her best wishes to all her sister chapters.

F. E. WRAY.

ALPHA ETA

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

Since the last issue of the Shield and Diamond Alpha Eta has done much. As always she has had her eyes on the promising men among the unchosen and has picked two from this number since the beginning of the semester. Brothers Walsh and Sheppard have been pledged and initiated. Walsh is a member of the Law College while Sheppard is preparing for medicine. The track team claims Sheppard as one of its best quarter-milers.

We are sorry to report that one of our pledges, Rush Miller has left school for the remainder of the year. He is planning to return next year.

Alpha Eta has long been planning a house. The past few weeks has seen these plans grow until now they seem almost complete. A new board of Trustees has been elected for the House Corporation and the matter is being turned over to them. A banquet was held at the White House on the 9th. At this meeting the ideas of the chapter were listened to by the few alumni present and we were given the advice of the older men, A system of bonding has been arranged so that the necessary funds can be raised without the alumni giving any money at all but loaning it at a return of six per cent. Brother Morgan of Arcadia has been taking a great deal of interest in the construction of this house and it is on him that we are counting for a home for Alpha Eta next year.

In case that we do not have a house of our own to stay in next year we have arranged so that we will rent a house for the time being and thus be together. This year has shown us that it is not possible to get the best out of our fraternity life when all the men are scattered over the campus and many in town.

We were fortunate in having with us this past weekend the following alumni:

B. G. Anderson, Orlando.

G. W. Allbright, Orlando.

Mack Snyder, Jacksonville.

Lamar Leahy, Jacksonville.

Norris Levis, Jacksonville.

T. D. Williams, Jacksonville.

All these men were on hand for the banquet and gave their support to the chapter in the building of a house.

We are glad to welcome in Gainesville an alumni chapter that has just been organized by the old men of Alpha Eta. They are doing all they can to keep us where all Pi Kap chapters are. It is now a race to see which one can show the most pep as those alumni sure are making us move. But just watch our dust.

This week begins the series of baseball games between the fraternities on the campus. Also tennis tournaments are being played. Spencer has been placed in charge of the ball squad while Carpenter is taking care of the "racket" boys.

ALPHA IOTA

MILLSAPS COLLEGE

Alpha Iota takes pleasure in introducing to the fraternity the following new brothers:

Robert E. Silverstein, Tylertown, Miss.

George H. Brantley, Lake Cormorant, Miss.

Lloyd Griffis, Beaumont, Miss.

Mid-term exams are now over and the reports coming in indicate that we have safely weathered the gale.

Millsaps has just finished a most successful basketball season. The team went to Atlanta to take part in the S. I. A. A. tournament and there attracted much favorable comment. The University of Tennessee was our first opponent and their team went down in defeat in a very one-sided game. However, our luck changed the next day when our team fell before the Mississippi Aggies in a hard fought game. Now we turn toward baseball. A heavy schedule has been arranged but we are hoping to make a good showing. Several of our men are out for the team and Watts is practically sure of third base while Scott is also showing up well.

A state intercollegiate track meet is being planned to be held in Jackson, in which Alpha Iota will probably be represented by Ball, Dossett and Collins. Dossett is a crack track man and won several medals in inter-brigade meets with the army of occupation in Germany.

Lansford represented us in the triangular debate, which we won over Mississippi College and A. and M.

Shipman and Smith have been elected to represent us at the district convention to be held at Baton Rouge April 15.

. Best wishes to all our sister chapters.

HENRY B. COLLINS, JR.

ALPHA KAPPA

MISSOURI SCHOOL OF MINES

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," say the poets; and from the manifestations of the past few days among the brothers it seems that the poets are right.

Those ruling days of Old Sol, those governing gleams of mellow moonlight, and the cheery call of the bluebird have all but played havoc with the students of the long winter night, and at M. S. M. we find the mining engineer issuing forth from his lair, the geologist stretching himself from superficies to superficies, and the man of letters sitting languidly in the sun dedicating line after line to the Latin goddess Venus.

All of this serves to remind one that the winter term is far spent and vacation is at hand, for school closes on April 29.

To date we have had a most profitable year. Perhaps nothing that has happened this year has affected the chapter or the school at large, since the days of first semester football, so much as the fact that the Miners landed the position of guard in the all-state team in basketball. This honor came through the personage of II K. A., signer.

MERTON IRA SIGNER
Alpha-Kappa

Signer is a suave young man of sterling character, universally liked in the school, and a basket ball star. We do not want to overestimate "Sig's" ability, but his position in the chapter is one of hero worship and we feel that we must submit his likeness in miniature to all the brothers in Pi Kappa Alpha.

Since the last chapter letter we have seen Cornwell make Sigma Gamma Epsilon, Pence and Leonard make Theta Tau, and Hosterman and Baxter cross the learned sands of Tau Beta Pi. Too, Pence and Hosterman have been invited to become charter members of the Cotillion Club, a club among fraternity men who tread the light fantastic with ease and ability.

Stewart is directing the last play of the season, and included in his cast are Philip Colbert, Homer L. Leonard and Virgil L. Whitworth. The play is said to be "Nothing but the Truth" and promises to be a real treat.

St. Patrick's Day in all her resplendency has passed for another year, and in the passing the II K. A.'s were heading the bill with one afternoon dance, two evening dances and a banquet for St. Patrick and his queen.

It was our good fortune to have with us at that time Otto Fischer and Frank Kernan, of Beta Lambda, with Fischer's better half, Miss Viola Mueller, of St. Louis. Bailey, who received his degree at Christmas time, also dropped in during the holidays to renew old acquaintances.

In closing we will submit a chapter directory for the summer. Any message sent to the following addresses will be properly cared for:

ALPHA LAMBDA

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

With this letter Alpha Lambda bids a loving and regretful farewell to her sister chapters. The trustees of Georgetown College have gone on record as opposed to fraternities, and so, with the turning in of our charter we cease to function as an active chapter and from this time on we will be associated with our brothers of the other chapters only as alumni. It is with heavy hearts that this last letter is indited, but as a "silent" chapter Alpha Lambda will always follow the progress and achievements of Pi Kappa Alpha with the same interest which we have shown as an active part of the glorious fraternity of which we are members.

Despite the fact that we have ceased to be recognized as a group by the authorities that be, and are only looked upon as individuals, still we are achieving as a fraternity and all our successes are for the glory of Pi Kappa Alpha. There are six Pi Kaps on the baseball team. They are, Bailey, Funk, Captain Pollard, Adams, Cloar and Trunnel. Bailey is admittedly the best amateur pitcher in the state and the team is depending to a large extent upon his ability to pull them through a heavy schedule.

Just after the trustees voted against fraternities we gave an informal musicale for the co-eds in front of their dormitory. Brothers Brooks, Saunders, Petry, Davis, and Saunders from Omega and Van Winkle from Kappa came over and assisted in the program. Invitations were sent to all the girls before the affair and all were unanimous in proclaiming the musicale a success. Since then "How'd You Like to be a II K. A." and "The Dream Girl of II K. A." have been popular favorites around the campus. The idea of the musicale was to create sentiment and it certainly did.

We are planning a big banquet for the close of the school year which is to be followed by a ten-day camp on the Kentucky river. Any II Kaps who chance to be in the neighborhood of "Bide a Wee" between the 7th and 17th of June are cordially invited to drop in and pay us a visit.

Since our last letter we have initiated all of our pledges and we take great pleasure in introducing to the fraternity at large the new brothers—the last to be taken into Alpha Lambda. They are:

James Gaines Huey, Erlanger, Ky.
Frank M. Shipman, Shelbyville, Ky.
W. Vinson Pierce, Cattletsburg, Ky.
Samuel B. Pollock, Pewee Valley, Ky.
James Leo Cloar, Texarkana, Texas.
George Alonzo Jacoby, Georgetown, Ky.
Thomas Jay Trunnel, Bardstown Junction, Ky.
Chester C. Sharp, Sharpsburg, Ky.
Jack Barnett Nash, Shelbyville, Ky.
Richard S. Hammack, Sturgis, Ky.
George Russell Bauer, Worthville, Ky.
Robert L. Riggs, Ironton, Mo.
John L. Collins, Lebanon, Ky.

Several of the brothers are planning on going to the University of Kentucky next year while others will attend the University of Louisville. Of the seniors several are looking forward to coaching. Adams and Pollard already have several excellent positions under consideration. Taylor and Moreland are going to Columbia to do graduate work. Most of the remainder have good positions which they will take up as soon as they have completed their school work.

Since this is our last letter the summer addresses of the members are given below:

John Davis, Owenton, Ky.
Clark Bailey, Harlan, Ky.

Charles S. Foley, 624 Sayre Ave., Lexington, Ky.

Courtland Pollard, Port Royal, Ky.

Gaines Huey, Erlanger, Ky.

C. C. Sharp, Sharpsburg, Ky.

Frank Shipman, Shelbyville, Ky.

James L. Cloar, Texarkana, Texas.

Samuel Pollock, Pewee Valley, Ky.

Robert L. Riggs, Ironton, Mo.

Vinson Pierce, Cattletsburg, Ky.

Thomas M. Funk, Brooks, Ky.

H. B. Taylor, Jr., Murray, Ky.

Jack Nash, Shelbyville, Ky.

Thomas Trunnel, Bardstown Junction, Ky.

Alonzo Jacoby, Georgetown, Ky.

Leonard Smith, Georgetown, Ky.

Charles Adams, Georgetown, Ky.

James Moreland, Georgetown, Ky.

John L. Collins, Lebanon, Ky.

So with crepe adorning the frame that once held our charter, with our house deserted except at bed time, and with that general spirit of sadness and regret that pervades the heavy hearts of the brothers, we must close this, our last letter to the fraternity at large.

May we ever remain in the hearts of our sister chapters as those who tried hard, struggled long, and died fighting—we feel that we can say that we have ever borne our shields

"Sans tache et sans reproche."

JAMES MORELAND.

ALPHA NU

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

Due to our three semester plan, Alpha Nu is ahead of her sister chapters when it comes to the opening and closing of the college year, so by the time that this issue of THE SHIELD AND DIAMOND is off the press, nearly all the brothers will be home thinking things and dreaming dreams far removed from school life. A few of the ambitious ones will remain to get in a few more good licks till June, and still another few will stay because of force of circumstances. However, the force will not be large. Perhaps a dozen or so will be with the chapter till close of spring term.

With the old football slogan "Beat Kansas" to spur them on, the student campaign committee at the University of Missouri raised the students' quota of $250,000, with the exception of a few thousand, toward a fund of half a million dollars to build a Missouri Union Memorial building, which is an almost exact reproduction, with the means at hand, of the Michigan Union. The Memorial Union is built in memory of Missouri's war heroes. Fifty-two graduates and former students of the university died in the war. The "Beat Kansas" aspect of the campaign arises from the fact that the students at the University of Kansas recently raised in the neighborhood of $200,000 for a memorial building stadium. An average of $100 a student on a delayed payment plan provides for a life membership in the union for each contributor.

The members of Alpha Nu entertained with a formal dance at the chapter house, March 25th. The lower floor was decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. The drop and side lights were covered with purple crepe paper, thus a color scheme of purple predominated. The mantel in the chapter room was covered with flowers. The second floor balcony was converted into a Japanese tea room and another upstairs room into a Japanese serving room. Smilax covered the net work which formed a drop ceiling, from which Japanese lanterns were hung. A number of out of town guests were entertained.

Alpha Nu wishes her sister chapters a most pleasant summer.

F. RICHARD WEBER.

ALPHA XI

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI.

An annual event of interest was the "at home" given at the fraternity house, 2437 Clifton Ave., by the active chapter on Washington's birthday, from 3 to 6 p. m. Those who enjoyed this function included faculty members from the University of Cincinnati, representatives from the different sororities, and parents, relatives and friends of the Cincinnati II's.

Tuesday, March 1, 1921, was an eventful day for Pi Kappa Alpha at Cincinnati, for it was then that she initiated six most promising men. It is now our privilege to announce these new brothers to our sister chapters.

Howard Herrlinger, Cincinnati, O.

Edwin Koch, Cincinnati, O.

Kirby McCord, Cincinnati, O.

Richard Saunders, Cincinnati, O.

Lawrence Schelhammer, Cincinnati, O.

Donald Smith, Chicago, Ill.

The initiation ceremony was followed by a banquet at the fraternity house at 8 p.m. Many alumni and the active chapter men gathered around our fraternal banquet table to welcome the honored guests, their new brothers. Our district princeps, Fred Lotter, served in a most pleasing manner as toastmaster, flavoring his remarks time and again with characteristic "Lotterisms."

Alpha Xi is pleased to announce the pledging of Howard Hebble, of Cincinnati, O. Pledge Hebble was honor man of the freshman class at Ohio State the first semester.

Several II's, Joe Edmonston and Bud Wydman were members of the University of Cincinnati baseball team that took a barnstorming trip through Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia, during the latter part of March. The schedule of the team included games with the University of Tennessee, Auburn and Georgia Tech, where there are located II chapters. It was the good fortune of Edmonston and Wydman to meet their brother II's at the Zeta, Upsilon and Alpha Delta chapter houses. Both Alpha Xis more than enjoyed these visits, and they will long cherish the associations thus made.

The schedules of the interfraternity basketball and bowling leagues are drawing to a close. Though Pi Kappa Alpha does not happen to be in the lead her teams have made a creditable showing, and especially the bowling quintette, which, with three remaining matches, is primed to make the final drive a most successful one.

Plans are now under way for a big stadium drive at the University of Cincinnati, either this spring or next fall. The new stadium being only partly completed, cannot adequately handle the big football crowds. The purpose of this drive will be to raise the funds necessary to complete the stadium. Already, the fraternities, acting through Pan-Hellenic, are preparing to contribute their share toward making this drive a big success.

BYRON H. WYDMAN.

ALPHA PI

HOWARD COLLEGE

Alpha Pi takes great pleasure in introducing to the fraternity the following new brothers.

Reuben Walden Webb, 306 S. 54th St., Birmingham, Ala.

George Edward Manley, Route 3, Birmingham, Ala.
William Arvel Logan, Ensley, Ala.

Webb is a member of the sophomore class, while Manley and Logan are both freshmen. It is not necessary to tell the character of these men for we can safely vouch for their being of the true Pi Kappa Alpha type.

Our second quarter exams are over and Alpha Pi passed them without a disaster to any of our men. For this reason the II's are happy and are showing it by their enthusiasm toward baseball. The old men back in their former position on the team are: Acton, Alford, King, McLane, Head and Dean. (Robert Dean has returned to school and has resumed his college course.) Two vacant positions were easily filled by two of our freshmen, Gaylord and Drake. Webb has earned a place on the pitching staff. The prospects of Howard winning some good games this season are fine, but it is our highest ambition to be victorious in the games with our ancient rival, Birmingham-Southern.

Alpha Pi plans an informal dance to be given at the Civic Association on Thursday night, April 14. McLane and Logan give assurance of an enjoyable occasion, for they have engaged one of the best orchestras of the south.

We regret the loss, during the past quarter, of four brothers: H. G. Wheeler, E. C. Blackwelder, R. H. Cohron and D. H. McCollough. Wheeler has returned to his home at Arab, Ala., on account of the death of his father. Blackwelder is now employed by the Berman Clothing Co. Cohron is employed by Blach's Clothing Co. McCollough has returned to his home in Jacksonville, Ala.

We have arranged a very interesting program for Mother's Day and are expecting to have a real enjoyable time together on that day for we have invited all the II's that can do so to be with us. We trust that several will be with us then.

During the summer the men will be found in the following various and sundry places:

- B. F. Acton, R. F. D. No. 4, Birmingham, Ala.
- L. P. McLane, Pinkard, Ala.
- M. O. King, Arifton, Ala.
- H. A. Casey, 1700 23rd St., N. Birmingham, Ala.
- R. H. Dean, Arifton, Ala.
- A. L. Head, Walnut Grove, Ala.
- R. H. Drake, Haleyville, Ala.

ALPHA-RHO BASKETBALL TEAM

Left to right, bottom row: Fesler, Pauley (Capt.), Altdoerffer. Second row: Finnie (manager and coach), McClure, Griffith, Dickson.

The three cups in the foreground were awarded the team for winning the university championship.

C. R. Bennett, Louisville, Ala.

O. T. Alford, Birmingham, Ala. Cr. East Birmingham Drug Co.

D. A. Gaylord, Birmingham, Ala., Cr. East Birmingham Drug Co.

W. A. Logan, Ensley, Ala.

R. W. Webb, 306 So. 54th St., Birmingham, Ala.

G. E. Manley, R. F. D. No. 3, Birmingham, Ala.

D. B. Richardson, Arlton, Ala.

Alpha Pi sends greetings to all II's and wishes for each one a most profitable and enjoyable vacation.

HOMER A. CASEY.

ALPHA RHO

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

In the intramural basketball season which has just closed, Alpha Rho stands as champion of the school, having an unbroken series of victories to her credit. We defeated the teams of our own league, one after another, afterward outclassing and outplaying the leading team of every other league. The contests of this year were the most successful in the history of the university, there being ninety-seven teams entered in fourteen different leagues. The results of our victories may be seen on our mantelpiece, where stand three tall cups, beside the two which were already there. The championship cup, which stands eighteen inches high and is ten inches across the top, is an annual award which must be won three successive years in order to become the permanent property of any fraternity. This is the first time that we have had our trade mark engraved on its side, and we have reasons for believing that it will not be the last one.

Of the team representing the chapter, coached and ably managed by George Finnie, Fesler and Altdoerffer played forward, with Pauley jumping at center and Dickson and McClure guarding. In one of the semi-final games, Dick McClure had the misfortune to twist his ankle rather badly, and was replaced in the lineup by Griffith for the rest of the series. Vanmeter and Cronebaugh were ready to jump in as substitutes. While all of the men played steady and consistent basketball, Pauley was picked on the all-fraternity team as well as on the first all-intramural team. Fesler was selected as forward on the second all-fraternity team.

To celebrate the successful conclusion of the season, the entire chapter got together March 21st for a smoker, at which the cigars were on George Finnie, in commemoration of his recent matrimonial venture. Baker mystified the boys with a sleight-of-hand performance. Thurston had better look to his laurels! Some of the men have vowed to blackball Baker should he ever apply for membership in the Interfraternal Association of Poker Addicts.

In the list of fraternity scholarship averages published in the beginning of the semester, the chapter came fifth in a list of twenty-nine social fraternities. This year the professional fraternities competed for a separate cup, it being recognized that from the nature of their membership they are better able to maintain a high standard of membership than the average social fraternity. At the mass meeting of all fraternities, President Thompson commented favorably and at considerable length upon the sound condition of the fraternities at this university. His sentiments were indorsed by the heads of the faculty social committee, and the faculty committee on fraternities.

The Founders' Day banquet, attended by almost every member of the chapter and many of the alumni, was held March 1st at one of the downtown hotels. After a feed which was remarkably good for a banquet, men were called on to discuss the various activities of the fraternity, each man taking his own particular angle. Speakers among the alumni did their share toward making the evening instructive as well as enjoyable.

The chapter is happy to present two new initiates:

J. Allan Altdoerffer, Poland, O.

Clarence Vanmeter, 115 S. Oakley Ave., Columbus, O.

There are also two pledges who must be properly introduced to the fraternity:

James N. Jones, Cuyahoga Falls, O.

Arnold Condon, Brink Haven, O.

Condon has served his period of apprenticeship on the freshman football squad, and should round into varsity material next fall.

Hill, who is captain of the track team, represented the university at the recent intercollegiate track meet in Chicago. He rolled up 13 out of the 54 points belonging to Ohio State. Guerney was also a winning member of the state team.

The baseball season opens here April 8, when State meets the aspirants from Miami. Captain Fenner will handle the position this year at short stop, while Fesler, who was last year's captain of the freshman team, should push somebody pretty hard for the third sack.

Schrock and Bill Clark went to Urbana, Ill., to handle Ohio State interests in the wrestling match there. Both of them are rounding into husky freight handlers who can give a good account of themselves with any comer of their own weight.

ROBT. T. POLLARD.

ALPHA SIGMA

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

The spring semester is always productive of divers events of interest to the college and to the fraternity. Especially is this true at California where our teams are displaying their prowess and superiority with amazing regularity. Linked up with the events on the athletic field are numerous other events which are tending to make this college year one of the most interesting.

Just now "Bob" Hutchison is the talk of the brothers and of the campus public in general. March 26th was the day of the track meet between the University of California and the University of Southern California. On that great day Paddock, of the southern institution, tied the world's record in the 100-yard dash in 9 3-5 seconds. Bob was clocked at 9 4-5 seconds. The 220 was the most sensational race of the day. Paddock broke the world's record, making the distance in 20 4-5 seconds, just 2-5 of a second better than the previous record. In this event four watches clocked Bob at 21 1-5 seconds, the record, until broken by Paddock, in the same race. The team as a whole looks to be one of the best that California has turned out in many a year. Our ambition is to send the team east for the intercollegiate championships.

Honors are not confined to the track alone for "Art" Eggleston was elected to captain next year's varsity basketball team. Art played a stellar game all season and it was largely through his efforts that the team won the Pacific Coast Conference championship. He was selected as running guard on the all-star team. Sharing the work of winning with Art was Tay Douthit at forward. No sooner was basketball over than Tay turned his attention to baseball, where he has won a regular berth in left field. Hap Huovinan performed a similar feat. He won his numerals playing center on the freshman team. Hap is now playing first base on the freshman baseball team. With Hap on this team is Lynn Cayot, who is one of the heaviest hitters. Lynn plays in center field. Mike Robinson is making points for the freshman track team in the weight events and in the pole vault. Buzz Powers, who won his "C" in tennis last year, is again winning his matches for the team.

Mike Raffetto and Don Gillies have had parts in nearly all of the campus dramatic productions. Both men have big parts in the production of "Kismet" this month.

The II. K. A. varsity basketball team won its first game in the interfraternity series. Last year we won a full-sized silver basketball as a permanent trophy. We hope for the same success in the present series, with a team even better than the one that represented us last year.

In a social way the annual Yamma dance was the big dance of the term. As usual, Jack Craig's decorations were the feature of the party. Jack's tastes ran to the Florentine on this occasion. The varicolored ice punch bowls added to the beauty of the decorations.

The next great event of interest is the annual banquet. Active men and alumni look forward to the occasion with the greatest of interest. The splendid oratory and the splendid feeling of brotherhood intermingle to make the annual gathering an affair of constant anticipation throughout the year. Would that all II's the country o'er could gather with us on that occasion! Surely we shall think of them all.

There are five weeks left of the college year so all the boys are assuming a dubious air of importance. The exes will determine all doubts.

Alpha Sigma extends to all sister chapters best wishes for success in all of their endeavors.

NORMAN J. RONALD.

ALPHA TAU

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Greetings, fellow II's! The spring weather makes the members of Alpha Tau wish all the world happiness and success and especially our brothers in Pi Kappa Alpha wherever they may be. Even we are getting a touch of the spring fever and associating ourselves with the common herd on the lawn and basking in the light of the sun. And with spring comes a new resolution to place Alpha Tau in a better place on the campus, to further elevate the ideals of Pi Kappa Alpha and to cultivate a truer spirit of fellowship and brotherhood.

The work of Alpha Tau both on the campus and in the chapter has progressed nicely since the last chapter letter. Our determination continues to function and we have great hopes of getting through the difficulties that have beset our path this year and make the coming school year the best in the history of Alpha Tau. Under the present regime the troubles are clearing up in a satisfactory way and in a manner that augurs well for the future.

Alpha Tau's men are active on the campus, in the school activities and club life. The debating season has just closed and one of our men made his "U" for the second season. This individual, Joseph Worthen, was the mainstay of the team that won from Montana at Salt Lake City. Utah won about half of her debates. And now spring athletics are in full sway with Prouse likely to make the baseball team and Watkins and Hurren the track team. The prospects for a championship season in both track and baseball are very promising, with a large number of men spread over the track and diamond anxious to uphold the standards of Utah.

Thorun continues to rule the destinies of the students as head of the student body, and Dinwoody is telling them all about it in his position as managing editor of the Utah Chronicle. A number of our men have been pledged to national professional and honorary fraternities. Dean Dinwoodey and Jack Cannon are chapter members of Gamma Gamma chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic fraternity. Joseph Worthen and Van Lindsay have been pledged to Phi Chi, national professional medical fraternity. Glen Watkins and Elwood Christensen are pledges of Delta Theta Phi, national law fraternity, which will be reinstalled on the campus next week.

The members of our chapter also claim membership in many of the local fraternities and clubs.

The University of Utah is fast taking its place with the best of the intermountain and Pacific schools. It is the oldest college west of the Mississippi River and is just now beginning to come into its best growth. The enrollment this quarter is the largest in the history of the institution and equals about 2,200 matriculated students. The school has just suffered a blow in the announcement that its president, John A. Widstoe, will resign from his position at the end of the school year to engage in other activities. A good deal of conjecture is floating about the place as to who will be his successor, but the regents will not decide the mooted question till later. We are looking forward to the day when our Alma Mater will become one of the great schools of the growing west.

The big event of the chapter was the March 1st banquet which was held at the Hotel Utah and attended by the active chapter and practically all of the alumni in the city. After gorging ourselves with food, song and talk we turned the affair over to business and discussed vital things in relation to the local chapter. From it all came the formation of a house corporation known as the Alpha Tau House Corporation of Utah. The articles had been prepared by Grant Bagley and with a few changes were accepted. Since then the articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state and the issuance of stock is now going on. The first move will probably be to purchase a nice location near the university on which at some future time we hope to build a palatial mansion. The amount of capital stock is $50,000, with a share worth $10. The board of directors named to take charge of the affairs of the corporation include alumni Brothers Goddard, Bagley and Parmelee, and active men Riter and Dinwoodey. They have to help them an executive committee composed of Brothers Haight, Callister and Mackay. Alpha Tau can look for things to happen from now on.

Outside of the banquet only one social function has been held and that was open house on one of the days during Prom week. Our formal is coming. It is to be held on April 22 and plans are now made for one of the largest events Alpha Tau has ever had.

Three II's have been elected to the honorary senior organization, the Beehive Club. They include Alphonso Thorum, Leland Prouse and Ralph Gray. This group includes seven members of the graduating class who have been most active in student affairs, while at the same time upholding their scholastic standing. They are picked by an impartial committee composed mostly of faculty members. Only four men were picked and we feel highly honored in having three of our chapter among those four. Ralph Gray and Jonas Fredrickson received their sheepskins at the end of the winter quarter. We hate to lose these men. Also we are pleased to announce the pledging of Harold Wood from Logan, Utah. Our eagle eyes are out for new men and we hope to have a few more in a very short while.

Thus ends the tale of Alpha Tau. May the spirit of spring reach our sister chapters and cause them to accomplish great deeds.

JACK CANNON.

Frank Leahey, M. S.

Bill Cullin, M. C.

On the night we initiated John Roscoe Turner, Dean of the Washington Square College, and a former member of the local, which is now our Beta Theta chapter. The Dean is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, a well-known economist, and author of several books.

We have pledged four men: Edward Bunn is from Boys' High, where he made a record as an all-around athlete; Charles Keenan, a Stuyvesant boy, played on the football team and is an excellent pole vaulter; John Flynn palys shortstop on the varsity baseball team; Clement Stuart is from Fordam Prep., where he was the star quarterback.

Our basketball team closed its season with a victory over C. C. N. Y. We met but one defeat and that at the hands of the University of Penn. The team elected Frank Goeller, captain. Frank led the team in scoring and was one of the best college forwards. At the same meeting Frank Leahey was elected assistant manager. Because of the great expensè and because of a conflict with the baseball team's southern trip, the team did not go to Kansas City to defend its A. A. U. title.

Baseball and track are now absorbing everyone, and after our preliminary training in the south, where we defeated Trinity and William and Mary, and were defeated by Trinity and North Carolina State, we expect to have a successful season. Alpha Upsilon is represented on the team by Manager Hauser, Captain Delaney, Goeller and Flynn. Bay, Nelson, Platt, McGourty and Hill also would have made the team if it were not for technical ineligibility. Allen, Courtois, Cullin and Leahey are working hard for berths on the varsity track team. Cullin and Keenan are also out for freshman track.

In the line of inter-house sport we are still supreme. Our basketball team waded through all our opponents and finished by defeating Psi Upsilon 24-8. Nelson, De-Napoli, Driscoll, Platt, Jewell, Mullholland, Bunn, Petersen, Weatherdon, Halligan composed our squad. Two more cups now adorn our walls. We are leading in the track games, and as there are only two more events, we will undoubtedly win two more cups. Tom Cullen, Bill Cullen, Weatherdon, Goeller, Jewell, Hill, Nelson, Allen and Leahey have scored points.

On Saturday, April 2, we played our annual baseball game with Alpha Psi, and in the evening we adjourned to the banquet hall. We did two things—reversed last year's score by winning the game 12-2, and equaled last year's banquet.

Our entertainment committee is now preparing to arrange a Flannel Hop in June. No pains will be spared to make it the best function of the college year.

We have had welcome visits from Brothers Franz, Campbell and McGann, of Beta Theta.

FRANCIS J. LEAHEY.

ALPHA PHI

IOWA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS

At the time of this writing Iowa State is about to close her doors for a week, spring vacation. Every one is mighty glad, too, because we are glad to rest for a few days. The second quarter ends at the time when our spring vacation begins.

On February 19 Alpha Phi celebrated their annual reunion for Founders' Day of Pi Kappa Alpha. This date was chosen as it was the closest possible date to March 1. For our banquet Paul Potter's father furnished a pig—many thanks to Mr. Potter. An elaborate dinner was served on Saturday night, the 19th. This was followed by a helpful business meeting. A large number of the alumni were back for the occasion, but next year we look for even more to return. In all, the banquet was a great success.

Iowa State's wrestling team has this year won for themselves a national name. Already we have won the All-Western championship and on April 1 we have great hopes of being the national champions when we compete with Pennsylvania State.

"Ames" has great success in basketball this season. We won the state championship on March 12th when we defeated the State University of Iowa, the score being 26 to 18. There was a great celebration on the campus after the game.

Baseball has started and the material is being put through the "mill" every afternoon. The material that is out is an assurance of a winning team in baseball for Iowa State. Pledge Granzow is trying for varsity pitcher. His record of last year is an assurance of his position in the varsity box this year. Alpha Phi's team is also a shining light on the campus. Every man from water boy to captain is practicing hard. Last year we were runners-up in the inter-fraternity baseball league and with Pledge George in the box there seems but little doubt but what we will have great success this year. A silver loving cup is offered each year for the winners of the league.

Track is also starting. "Ames" was proud of her track team last year and will be again this year. Walters, our quarter-miler and relay man, is training hard. We are expecting some good work again from "Deac" this year.

The chapter held her formal dance on Saturday, March 19, at the Country Club. A large number of alumni were there. "Barc" Noble was the social committee chairman. Metcalf's jazz band furnished the music.

Alpha Phi extends best wishes to all sister chapters.

FRED POWERS.

ALPHA CHI

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Seven new brothers in Pi Kappa Alpha were welcomed at the annual initiation and banquet which was held the third week of March. The ritual ceremony was held on the night of Friday, March 18, and on the following night the annual banquet at the Onondaga Hotel, with forty II's in attendance. One of the unusual features of this year's banquet was the fact that only three of the entire number present were alumni. A long toast list was headed by Ray Young, '15, who acted in the capacity of toastmaster for the occasion and ably filled the chair.

The seven men who were initiated are:

John Keffer, 6009 Belvidere Ave., Cleveland, O.

Leslie B. Hill, Manlius, New York.

Edgar S. Williams, 26 Orton Place, Buffalo, N. Y.

Donald G. Smith, 11 Blackley Court, Lockport, N. Y.

Willis L. Stone, Mexico, N. Y.

Kent H. Meyers, 1410 Addison Road, Cleveland, O.

George F. Bennett, 409 Delaware Ave., Wilmington, Del.

Interfraternity competition among the Greek letter chapters at Syracuse has proceeded into the finals of the various forms of competition. Alpha Chi was represented in the finals of the interfraternity debating by Phillips and Pledge Henry. Although defeated by a two to one decision for the biggest honors of the league, our debating team gave evidence of careful preparation and hard work for the contests and showed true II spirit in their earnestness and endeavor. In the semi-finals of the interfraternity relay league, Alpha Chi was defeated, and while we won from our competitors in the bowling league, our score was not high enough to wararnt us rating for the cup. All in all the efforts of the brothers were well placed in the interfraternity competition and every brother deserves commendation for the excellent support given the activities. We hope to make a creditable showing in the baseball league.

For the first time in five years the brothers of Alpha Chi enjoyed a formal dance. The dance was held the night of April 16 at the Sedgwick Country Club near the city in the capacious ballroom of the club, where an evening of merriment and joy-making was enjoyed by some forty brothers and their friends. The ballroom was prettily decorated for the occasion and the arrangements by the committee in charge were complete in every detail.

As one of the biggest events of the college year in the life on the hill, the annual Block S dinner, honoring the wearers of the Orange block letter, took place in the Archbold gymnasium the night of April 9. The many prominent speakers at the dinner included our own Chancellor James R. Day, Coach Moakley, the famed Cornell track mentor, Boo MacMillen, captain of the Center College football team last year, and Eddie Brown, former Syracuse athletic star. The event also honored the presence of fifty high school athletes at our university.

At the time of the Syracuse-Cornell basketball game in the Archbold gymnasium, we were pleased to welcome five brothers from Beta Theta chapter at Ithaca. Peer, Chapman, Freeman, Drunham and Thomen spent Saturday and Sunday with us.

Ten of the brothers stayed over for the Easter vacation period. During the recess, informal parties were held at the house and three successful evenings were enjoyed by the brothers who spent their vacation in Syracuse.

Plans have been made whereby Alpha Chi will have a newly painted house to greet the brothers next fall and the remaining work on completing improvements will have been finished. Looking ahead, everything points to a big year for Alpha Chi at Syracuse University, even more successful than the past one, in 1921-22. We are all working hard to make a great finish for this year, with the fraternity ideal ever in mind—that of making a place for that brotherly feeling and good fellowship which goes far in the lives of college men.

F. M. PRATT.

ALPHA PSI

RUTGERS COLLEGE

Spring is here at last and Alpha Psi has been almost too busy to catch its traditionally attendant fever. With winter, basketball also passed from our midst and now baseball season is upon us. Harold Kelly and Al Platt are our candidates for the varsity team, the former as one of the pitching staff and the latter for the job of guarding the keystone sack. Herb Brower, last year's varsity catcher, saw fit to leave college for a year to enter his father's business, which leaves us with one less on the varsity.

Jiggs Donahue and Buck Wolff are out for the track team with Dick Cundy trying for the manager's job. Kennedy is a candidate for the Lacrosse team and Steve Wolff is after the job of manager.

We take pleasure in introducing to the fraternity at large our latest initiate Walter Hyde Donahue, '24, Franklin, N. J.

The chapter officers elected for the second term are as follows:

J. S. Pettengill, S. M. C.

H. V. Main, I. M. C.

L. E. Swenson, Jr., Th. C.

J. H. Kelly, S. C.

W. D. Briwa, M. C.

C. L. Messer, Jr., M. S.

Socially speaking, the second term started off most successfully with the Junior Prom. Hubby ran our house party, and Mrs. Julius Wolff was our chaperone. This party has been unsurpassed in the history of the chapter and the gay spirits of the party were enhanced to a marked degree by the most cheerful and homelike atmosphere which pervaded the house, due in part, no doubt, to the fine new suite of leather upholstered furniture which now adorns our living room. (Our alumni brothers are helping to finance this furniture enterprise and for this we are indeed grateful.) To attempt to tell all that we did at the Junior would be too much, so we leave it to your imagination.

Among other things of note that have occurred during the past eight weeks was Doc Nafey's, '10, dinner. Saturday evening, the 12th of March, more than half the chapter gathered at Doc's house and were there served to the best "feed" experienced by any of us in many a day—everything from soup to nuts and then some. After we had finished our meal an oldtime "sing" was enjoyed and Lloyd and Briwa favored us all with some of their ever-ready Yiddish dialogue stuff.

On February 15th a unique affair was staged at Rutgers. We had a "student banquet" at which not a single member of the faculty was present and at which all the speakers were students. Our own Hubby and Pettengill gave two of the most inspiring addresses of the evening.

For the first time in the history of the chapter Alpha Psi had reason to drape its pin in mourning for a brother when Marvin Clark White of Kappa chapter passed away in the morning of February 24th. Brother White had come to New Brunswick last fall as an instructor at the Rutgers Preparatory School and had many friends both at the school and the college.

Campbell, as president of the Civil Engineering Club, has been leading his organization through a very interesting season of instructive and entertaining meetings. Hubby, as secretary of the Mechanical Engineering Club, bore a good portion of the burden attendant upon the sundry tedious and routine steps which were a necessary part to the process of the club's becoming affiliated with the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Instead of the customary rushing bee held during the state interscholastic basketball championships, the Athletic Association is planning for two big rushing bees this spring at which entertainment will be furnished by local talent and for which it is hoped that all the fraternities will invite picked men, men that will prove of real value to both the fraternity concerned and the college.

The interchapter banquet of Alpha Upsilon and Alpha Psi was held in New York at Browne's Chop House on April 2nd. The banquet was a big success and the speakers were remarkably good. The baseball game in the afternoon was not so good. After three consecutive victories Alpha Psi saw fit to give Alpha Upsilon the first leg on the new cup. In fact, Alpha Upsilon took the honor anyway, winning a 12-2 game.

CHARLES L. MESSER, JR.

ALPHA OMEGA

KANSAS STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Entering into a new season of Spring one would think that the boys as a whole would begin to get spring fever and "beat it" for the "tall and uncut", for a quiet repose, but not so of the brothers of Alpha Omega. Formal initiation of ten men, took place on February 13th. All freshmen were initiated. They were:

Ralph Adams, Norton, Kansas.

Ralph Jenkins, Perry, Kansas.

Ralph Nichols, Oskaloosa, Kansas.

Wesley Roberts, Oskaloosa, Kansas.

Robert Quinn, Anthony, Kansas.

Leo Cavanaugh, Perry, Kansas.

Preston Brown, Atchinson, Kansas.

Cloyce Simmons, Abilene, Kansas.

Emmett Graham, Manhattan, Kansas.

Norman Planter, Ellis, Kansas.

All of our brothers passed a full semester work besides obtaining a required number of "Honor Points", the latter being a system worked out by the senior brothers of Alpha Omega.

Knapp, a senior engineer, is gaining prominent recognition in college by his voice, he being the only student in a college quartett composed of talented faculty members.

Knapp and G. W. Fisher have been honored by being initiated into a lately installed Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha, in the Kansas State Agriculture College.

Otto and Bates have both been awarded places on the College Varsity Baseball team, as pitchers. This is Otto's last year as he is a senior in Agriculture, but due to Bate's ability, Alpha Omega will no doubt be represented in Varsity Baseball for the next two years.

Jenkins has been elected captain of the fraternity baseball team. This team will take part in all intermural contests staged by Pan-Hellenic. Jenkins reports an unlimited supply of good material for the team.

Kinthead has been chosen by the chapter as one of the two brothers who are representing Alpha Omega in the "Wampus Cats" a pep organization of the College. Van Vliet was Alpha Omega's sole representative in the Veterinary division on rough neck day at the college.

On the 20th of February the chapter was invited to spend the day and indulge in a big feed and a lot of outdoor sports at the home of Brother and Mrs. Sherman Bell of Perry, Kansas. Twenty-eight brothers caught the 5:15 out of Manhattan and returned the evening of the same day. Most of the men reported a slight case of acute indigestion as a result of the unlimited supply of food that they were tempted with during the day and everyone was overly enthusiastic about the hospitality shown them by the host and the hostess.

The Banquet and Dance given by Alpha Omega on the 4th of March in Commemoration of the founding of Pi Kappa Alpha and the Alumni of this chapter was without doubt the best and biggest stunt put on by this chapter for several seasons. There were nine men back for the event, also four other chapters of this district were represented.

After a three course dinner in the chapter house a series of good jokes and talks were enjoyed with Stoney Potter officiating as toastmaster. At nine o'clock the Banquet broke up and dancing was indulged in until one o'clock. We were sorry to have so many of our Alumni make their departure as soon as the dance was over, but duty and the busy Saturday seemed to call. However everyone was thoroughly satisfied with the outcome of the occasion and it was requested by many of the Alumni that the reunion be made a yearly event which no doubt it will.

Alpha Omega extends her best wishes to all her sister Chapters.

GEORGE W. FISHER.

BETA ALPHA

PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE

The Easter vacation is now a pleasant page in history. Everyone is back and the last lap has begun. The scholastic work here is harder than ever before and everyone is working to keep in the race.

Many events have happened here at Penn State. The wrestling team won the intercollegiate meet again, the fourth time in as many years. The team is making a post season trip to the middle West and returns from there show victories in both scheduled contests. The basketball season was also a big factor at Penn State. The team here ranks with the best, with victories over many of the Eastern college teams. The track team made a trip to Virginia and in two dual meets with V. P. I. and the University of Virginia were victorious in both.

Clappier has won his numerals as regular one hundred twenty-five pound class wrestler.

The spring sports are now in full blast. The baseball team just returned from a most successful invasion of the South. Six teams were met and all defeated during the trip. We are very glad to say that five II's made the baseball trip. Korb and Mearkle played in the infield, Zoller as a pitcher, Rintz as substitute outfielder and with Burns as first assistant manager.

There are many of the other II's out for spring sports. Glading and Davis are out for Varsity laCrosse. Glading was on last year's Varsity team. Brokenshire and Jami-son have reported for spring football training. Bourne, Heckel and Crowthers are training for the coming track season. Heckel is showing up very well in the broad and high jump. Stahl is working hard for first assistant football manager.

The interfraternity baseball season will soon begin. Beta Alpha has a good team to enter this season.

The upperclassmen are expecting a very pleasant week with the Junior Prom close at hand. Many of them are expecting to entertain out of town girls.

The last of April, Penn State is planning a new week end. Saturday, April 30th, has been set aside for Father's Day. Beta Alpha is planning to have open house for the fathers and hopes to make them more interested in Penn State and Pi Kappa Alpha, by doing her best to entertain them.

Beta Alpha is well represented on the campus this semester. Mearkle and Korb are again on the Student Council. Kork is on the Student Board. Glading is Circulation Manager of the Froth, and Chairman of the Senior social committee, the class day committee and the commencement invitation and program committee. Packer is president of the PreLegal Society. Keller has been elected into Sigma Tau, an honorary engineering fraternity. Marter was a member of the Varsity fruit judging team. Bourne has made the cast of the Thespians, a dramatic society.

We wish to introduce our new initiate, William Samuel Brokenshire, 421 East Patterson St., Lansford, Pa.

Several of the brothers have returned from trips and tell of very pleasant visits with her sister chapters. They wish to again express their thanks for the cordial welcome and kind hospitality they received.

Come to see us, Brother Pi's.

Wishing you all a very successful ending to this college year.

JOHN L. PACKER.

BETA BETA

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

With the start of the spring quarter, elections were held and the following men are now office-holders in Beta Beta Chapter:

George Astel, S. M. C.

Noble Mc Creddy, I. M. C.

Thomas Allen, S. C.

Alfred Harsch, Th. C.

William McDonaugh, M. S.

Carl Jacobson, M. C.

Things went off with a bang during the winter session. We told you in our last letter of winning the Inter-fraternity wrestling championship. Not being satisfied with that, Beta-Beta turned around and won the championship in Inter-fraternity boxing, Walter Millet, 135 lbs. and Roy Amundson, 125 lbs. taking the highest honors in their respective weights. Roy Amundson also represented the University in a match with the Multnomah Athletic Club, in Portland, Ore., and another match with the Tacoma Y. M. C. A. in that city. Prospects are also very bright for Inter-fraternity baseball.

Beta-Beta was ably represented by Noble McCrady in varsity wrestling. McCrady participated in every match and lost but one decision during the season. He was elected captain of the wrestling team for next year.

Perry Land, varsity catcher for two years, and Ed Liston, who pitched for the Frosh Varsity last year, are both on the baseball team this year. The University of Washington is sending the team to Japan during the summer vacation, to play a series of games with the Waseda University. Incidentally, this will be a nice trip for Perry and Ed.

The track season is going to be a big one for Washington. Members of last year's varsity and Frosh Varsity are running in great shape and considerable new material has been uncovered. The men from Beta Beta who are turning out are Walter Malone, running the mile, and William Mc Donough, sprints and broad-jump. Washington hopes to break a world's record this year through Gus Pope, Olympic star in the discus. He is throwing the discus over 145 feet this early in the season and if his development is as much as expected, he should be able to surpass the record, which is 156 feet 2 inches.

Although a great deal of time has been spent on athletics, other matters have not been neglected entirely. On March 1st, our Founder's Day Banquet was held at the Elk's Club. The size of the turnout was certainly gratifying. Several alumni from other chapters gave short addresses.

On the final day of examinations we entertained with an informal dancing party at the Chapter House, and plans are now under way for our next informal dance to be given on April 29th.

Beta Beta has lost, through graduation, Dewey Hayward. Before leaving, however, Dewey was pledged to Sigma Psi, honorary science fraternity. Also, Gary Grant, has been pledged to Pi Mu Chi, honorary pre-medic.

Douglas Cairns is with us again this quarter and so are the following new pledges:

Mont M. Mc Elwaine, '24, Seattle, Wash.

Carl Watts, '24, Berkeley, Cal.

Ben Carter, '24, Seattle, Wash.

Bartlett Rummel, '23, Tacoma, Wash.

Walter Malone, '23, Tacoma, Wash.

Charles Knight, '24, Spokane, Wash.

Willard Millett, '24, Seattle, Wash.

Beta Beta extends the best of wishes to its sister chapters.

WILLIAM MC DONAUGH.

BETA GAMMA

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Beta Gamma takes pleasure in announcing two new brothers:

Harold Dennis, Sedan, Kan.

Virgil Miller, Howard, Kan.

The University of Kansas has been granted an appropriation of $3,000,000 by the legislature in the recent session. Several new buildings are being planned, including a new library, a new power plant, a cafeteria with women's rest rooms, and also several additions to the present buildings. The same legislature also passed a bill allowing $5,000,000 for women dormitories in five of the state's larger colleges. The University is already making plans for the building of dormitories which will come under this appropriation.

On the thirteenth of March, Beta Gamma celebrated its third annual Father's Day. Fathers of thirteen of the brothers were present. At the banquet each father made a short talk. Brother Kelsey's father read us a very interesting and inspiring poem he had written for the occasion which reads:

I want my boy to always feel
It's an honor to bear my name;
I want my life to ne'er reveal
An act that will bring him shame.
I want him to know I have been true
To things that are just and right,
So he will feel that I tried to do
Nothing that will bring him blight.

Then as I trudge along life's way
Toward the end of the trail
With infirm steps and hair grown gray
I'll have no need to quail;
For my ideals and hopes live on
In the life of my sturdy boy,
Whose work and deeds when I am gone
Will still bring pride and joy.

The finest cheer to a father's heart,
Which naught can parallel,
Is the hope of leaving a counterpart
In a son who is doing well;
The sweetest comfort he e'er can know,
When he's done the best he could
Is a warmth he feels in the afterglow
Of a son who is making good.

Leroy Huron Kelsey.

Kansas lost a very close indoor track meet to Missouri at Kansas City, March 18. The relay decided the meet and Missouri passed our man on the last lap. The score was 45 to 40. We are waiting anxiously for the outdoor season to start and we expect to clean up in the Missouri Valley this spring.

Pan-Hellenic baseball will start in a few weeks. II K A expects to have a great team this year, as we have Sutton back with us again. Sutton pitched for us in 1916 when we won the championship.

Chandler and Ferguson represented Beta Gamma at the Seventh District Convention held in St. Louis, March 5 and 6.

Plans for the improvement of our new house are coming along nicely, and we expect to start work very soon. The recent fall in the price of lumber and wages is greatly in our favor.

MARION F. COLLINS.

BETA DELTA

UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

Beta Delta wishes to announce the pledging of Richard Coffman of Dayton, Ohio.

The first semester ended January 31, and after the sky had cleared over the final examinations, preparations were made for the initiation of the pledges. Accordingly, on Founder's Day the ceremonies were enacted, and the following men were made brothers in II K A:

George C. Hite, Las Vegas, N. M.

Dale H. Snyder, Albuquerque, N. M.

Wm. M. Hale, Roswell, N. M.

Lawrence E. Lovett, Albuquerque, N. M.

Lawrence Dow, Colemore, N. M.

Ralph Miller, Albuquerque, N. M.

Geo. W. Savage, Ithaca, N. Y.

The initiation was followed by the Annual Founder's Day banquet at the Alvarada Hotel. All the actives were present, and there was a large representation of the Alumni from all over the state. The banquet was characterized by toasts from various members, and short talks by some of the Alumni brothers.

The election of officers for the second semester resulted as follows:

Frank H. Neher, S. M. C.

Vernon B. Wilfley, I. M. C.

George B. Martin, Th. C.

The S. M. C. appointed the following officers:

Clair A. Fetzer, S. C.

Geo. W. White, M. S.

Walter W. Ward, M. C.

Beta Delta was again awarded the Interfraternity scholarship cup. This is the third time the cup has been won by the men of II K A, and the second consecutive time; three consecutive wins being necessary to make the cup a permanent possession. The men are working hard and expect to make the cup a permanent decoration for the mantelpiece above the fireplace.

George Martin was appointed to attend the District Convention at Dallas, Texas, April 2nd.

Interest in the University now centers on Track. Beta Delta is well represented on the Squad. Hale, Dow, and Miller are showing real form in the sprints. With White, Dow and Hayes in the jumps and Bernhardt and Wilfley in the distance events, we should do our share toward sewing up a few points for the school, when the big meets come off.

Beta Delta extends best wishes to all her sister chapters, and urges any II who may happen to pass through Albuquerque to stop over and pay her a visit.

G. W. WHITE.

BETA EPSILON

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

Now that spring vacation is over and everyone seems endowed with a genuine case of spring fever, Beta Epsilon has a rather pepleless appearance. During the vacation the house was thoroughly cleaned so that now we walk on our tip toes in order to keep the newly varnished floors as spick and span as possible.

On the fifth of April, Beta Epsilon held her annual formal party in the form of a dinner dance at the Hotel Statler. Everyone was truly surprised at the excellent way in which the social committee had handled the affair. Not only were the dinner and the music of the best, but the committee had provided many novel stunts in the way of entertainment. The ballroom was beautifully decorated in the fraternity colors and a small vase of lilies-of-the-valley was placed at each plate.

Paul Gordon made himself justly famous throughout the college a short time ago when he won the two hundred yard dash at the inter-fraternity track meet. Gordon had never done any track running before and therefore shows decided promise of being a track star of the future.

Several men from the chapter were very cordially entertained by John Ferencz at his home a few weeks ago. Everyone was in good spirits and greatly enjoyed the excellent entertainment furnished by the host.

Beta Epsilon wishes to introduce the following new brothers to the other chapters:

Thomas Mervyn Morrison, Painesville, Ohio.

Ralph Llewellyn Cox, Cleveland, Ohio.

Adrian Eugene Davis, Akron, Ohio.

Arthur Robishaw, Cleveland, Ohio.

Henry Zwolincky, Cleveland, Ohio.

Paul Stutz Gordon, Cleveland, Ohio.

Oscar Albert Kiraly, Cleveland, Ohio.

Arthur Kurtz, Nottingham, Ohio.

E. STANTON JONES.

BETA ZETA

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Beta Zeta reads with utmost approval in the last issue of the Shield and Diamond of the careful but steady progress of our fraternity. We heartily endorse the action of our Supreme Council and are willing to stand behind them in their movement. Our magazine seems to grow bigger and better with every issue and we note with approval the new advances.

We take pleasure in announcing to our sister chapters the pledging of two new men:

Paul Leavell of Dallas Texas.

W. B. Whitehead of Del Rio, Texas.

Many activities have taken place in our college since the last writing. Our basket-ball season closed without having carried off any conference titles, but we had developed a team that was strong enough to give competition to the strongest. We were represented on this team in the person of Jimmie Kitts the fastest little forward in the state, and who has been mentioned for that position by local sport writers. A very successful revival has just drawn to a close, it was conducted by our president, Dr. Boaz. Many of our wayward brothers saw the light during this week of spiritual unrest. The Glee Club has just returned from a ten day trip, having visited many towns in South and East Texas and going as far as New Orleans, where they had a two day engagement, returning by way of Shreveport, La.

Our base-ball season has opened with the brightest of prospects. We will be represented on the squad by Kitts, Grisham, Tucker and Shuttles, all of which are showing up well on the diamond. Lefty Ford is the coach for the freshmen in which group we will be represented by F. C. and W. B. Whitehead and Price Doyle. T. J. Waggoner, Jr. is the student manager of the Varsity Club this year. Sam Hilburn represents us on the Arden Club and plays the leading part in one of the plays. Hilburn has also been elected to Alpha Theta Phi, which is a local petitioning Phi Beta Kappa. Julian Thomas is our representative on the debating team which will stage a debate with the University of Southern California in the near future. Thomas is also the champion tennis player of the college.

Plans are on foot on the campus for the granting of building lots to the fraternities; we have already begun planning to build ourselves a permanent home. We would appreciate the suggestions from any of the chapters in regard to house plans and the financing of such an undertaking. A considerable amount of money has been raised in the last few days through personal donation by the active men. We expect to get a great deal of help from our Alumni in the near future.

We were entertained by our pledges out at the Automobile Country Club on March 5th in the form of a little informal evening. Other than this, our social program has been very limited, except for the fact that we have been very much in attendance at the other social affairs. Plans are on foot for making the three day house party at the end of the term a big success.

We are planning on a big time when the District Convention meets here on the 1st and 2nd of next month. It will be the first convention ever held in this district.

We have been honored lately by several visitors who took time to call on us while passing through the city. Brothers Ratcliffe and Clark of Alpha Kappa, head geologist of the Josie Oil Co. were among the visitors. Brothers Trammell and Keys of Alpha Eta and Brother Oliver of Alpha Delta visited one of our meetings last month. Campbell and Hollaway of Alpha Omicron visited us while playing basket-ball here with Southwestern.

The following officers have been elected for the remainder of the year:

R. V. Ford, S. M. C.

R. H. Shuttles, I. M. C.

J. N. Leavell, Th. C.

The appointive offices are filled by:

D. H. Hale, S. C.

T. J. Waggoner, Jr., M. S.

Harry Crawford, M. C.

Best of wishes to all the sister chapters for the remainder of the year.

T. J. WAGGONER, JR.

BETA ETA

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Beta-Eta takes pleasure in introducing to the fraternity at large the following initiates:

Philip Prooks Didham, Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Paul Carlyle Steel, Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Maurice Walter Nelson, Chicago, Illinois.

Thomas Everett Tebo, Chicago, Illinois.

Charles Otis Skinner, Clinton, Illinois.

Lawrence DeVere Smith, Milford, Illinois.

John Albert Teninga, Chicago, Illinois.

Arthur Frederick Essmueller, St. Louis, Mo.

Julien Jordan, Chicago, Illinois.

At the first regular meeting after the beginning of the new semester, the semi-annual election of officers took place, and the following officers were elected:

L. M. Nelson, S. M. C.

J. S. Kelly, I. M. C.

C. J. Bartle, Th. C.

The S. M. C. then appointed the other officers:

E. D. English, S. C.

D. E. Bean, M. C.

P. C. Calkins, M. S.

Spring has been drawing the golfers to the greens for the past two weeks. Brother Howard Sassman, Varsity Golf Coach, has issued the call for candidates, and a wealth of fine material has responded. Walter Anderson was not able to return to school this semester and in him Illinois loses a reliable Varsity golfer. However, the house will remain its prestige in gold through the presence of "Snook" Collins, twice champion of the University, and through the presence of a strong house team, which won the championship last fall.

With the fraternity bowling season completed, Beta-Eta stands third in her division, having won eleven games and lost seven. Prospects are great for a championship team next year, since five of the six bowlers will remain in college.

During the interval between the basketball and baseball seasons, indoor track has come to the fore as a conference sport. At the Illinois Relay Carnival, of March 5th which has come to be recognized as one of the great classics of the west, Illinois took major honors by capturing first in two of the relays and scoring high in other events, against some of the crack teams from all over the country. And again, in the conference meet held at Northwestern University, Illinois won the Indoor Track Championship of the Big Ten.

All signs now point to Beta-Eta's Annual Formal, to be held May 14th. The committee is working hard on it and if pep counts for anything it is sure to be a success. All the old Alumni and any I K A's who are in the vicinity of Champaign are invited to attend.

Greetings and the best of luck to our sister chapters.

DONALD E. BEAN.

BETA THETA

CORNELL UNIVERSITY

After all has been said and done in the way of mid-year exams, we have no kick to make as to the results. Those worries have been replaced by preparation for all that goes with the coming of spring.

During the late winter we had a new roof put on the chapter house, which has improved its appearance and condition considerably. It is a big relief to know this is over, as it has been hanging fire due to the high cost of materials for the past three years. At present the dinning room is being decorated, and all are anxious to see the room completed, as it is quite inconvenient to have to eat here and there about the campus.

The big thing is the coming baseball season. Last year Beta Theta captured a splendid trophy offered to the University championship team. The old team is still intact, except for two members, Bob Deming and "K" Mayer, outfielders; but there are several good players ready to take their places. Joe Porter, our star twirler, has been elected manager for the present season.

Plans are still under way for the house party. Senior Week, mid-June, has been set aside as the most suitable time, and we hope to make it a real party for all. On the day all Cornellians remember—Spring Day—we are trying to have all our Alumni back. These reunions we look forward to, and hope to make this one a big success.

Around the campus, sports are thriving as well as can be expected. The well-known "Frosh" crew of last year is still intact, and fighting it out with two other possible Varsity boats for the supremacy. There is a bright outlook for a clean sweep this year, thus upholding Cornell's fame on the water. "Shorty" Dunham, "Tex" Marshall and "Ed" Calleson are at present holding berths on the Varsity combinations. Ed captained the Frosh crew last spring. About April sixth the baseball team will leave on a southern trip. Beta Theta will be represented by "Jim" Cowan, at short stop.

Gilmour Dobie, the former navy football coach who coached the Red and White team last year, has extended his contract to cover the next five years, giving us grounds for big expectations for a brilliant future on the gridiron.

More II's in the lime-light:

"Bill" Rippe has been elected captain of the basketball team for the next season, received a state scholarship and elected to Tau Beta Pi, the honorary engineering society.

Karl Krech has been initiated into Al-Djebar, an honorary chemistry society.

"Bevo" Peck won the competition for the assistant managership of the University Orchestra, and succeeds to the managership next fall.

"Johnnie" Cowan was awarded the insignia of the Cross Country Club.

Those receiving the class numerals are E. L. Paris, '23, and G. D. Crozier, '24, in track; C. H. Capron, '24, basketball, and C. E. Cassidy, '24, football.

Beta Theta extends best wishes to all her sister chapters.

FRED T. TURNER.

BETA IOTA

BELOIT COLLEGE

Again the gods smile—spring is here—and with it the attendant joys of picnics, canoe trips, outdoor athletics, and last but not least the beginning of the third quarter.

However, Beta Iota is mourning the loss of two brothers, Norman Wood and Pliny Porter who graduated last quarter. They are now "Showing the World." Porter is a salesman for the George F. Cram Map Company of Chicago, and Wood is planning on entering the auto accessory business.

The basket-ball season closed with a victory for Beloit over Lake Forest. Winkenwerder represented the house on the team. At present baseball and track are the all absorbing topics of the day and Beta Iota can well be proud of her contribution to these activities. Of the four man relay team sent to the Relay Carnival at the University of Illinois, two were II K's., Picken and Gates. Beloit took fourth place and gained a good deal of experience which we hope will enable her to make a better showing at the Drake Relays which are to be held in Des Moines, Ia., sometime in April. However, Beloit did take first place at the Wisconsin College Relays which were held in Madison on March 5th.

Baseball practice has been under way for some time and Captain "Doc" Rice is prophesying great things. The following men from the house are out, Captain Rice, Eddie Schachet, James Wooten, Walter Winkenwerder, and Frank Schacht. The first four were members of last year's team and are practically assured of places in the regular lineup. The first game of the season is to be played at Madison on April 5th and we play Northwestern University on the 18th.

"Doc" Rice was recently voted the most popular man in college and was crowned King of the Hi Jinks Carnival, with much ceremony and great honor.

A smoker held in honor of the members of Beta Xi Chapter of the University of Wisconsin, did much to get the brothers of the two chapters better acquainted.

We hope that more of these "Get Togethers" may be staged.

Beta Iota has done her share in upholding the social traditions of Pi Kappa Alpha, giving the full quota of parties, and planning on giving several more next quarter. Our formal is to be held on the 11th of June and promises to uphold last year's "Blow out".

Word was recently received from Phil Bardell, '22 and Jesse Lawver, '22, who are indulging in a bit of globe trotting, that they were in Port Said, Egypt, waiting for the departure of a ship for Bombay.

The brothers left Beloit last April with the intention of working their way round the world. Since that time they have been in England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Palestine and Egypt. They spent several months working for the Standard Oil Company in Greece and a short time for the same company in Constantinople. They expect to be back in the States by the last of August and to enter college again in the fall.

There has been a great dearth of visitors from sister chapters this year. We miss having the brothers drop in and hope that more will remember us when they are in this part of the universe.

We wish to introduce Brenton Janvrin, initiated January 25th, to the brothers.

With best wishes to all the sister chapters.

FRANK E. APEL.

BETA KAPPA

EMORY UNIVERSITY

We, of Beta Kappa, have just recovered from the fatigue attendant upon the winter term examinations and can announce, victory. Our chapter came within three points of the Scholarship Cup last year and we are trying to win it this year. Several of our men are making the Honor Roll. O'Steen, Walker and Willingham are our leaders in the school of Liberal Arts.

This is as opportune a juncture as any to introduce our new brother, Alton T. Steen of Douglas, Ga., to the fraternity. He is an accomplished musician and this year made the trips with the Glee Club as their pianist.

The Glee Club has had two very successful trips. From several audiences to whom the Club presented its program comes the report that the entertainment is the best of its kind they have ever heard. Beta Kappa is represented on the Club by Bill and John Turner, Warner, Foster, O'Steen and Tollison.

The track season has now reached a stage where Who is Who is beginning to stand out. This week the final cut was made by Coach Smathers and our fraternity is leading the fraternities of the campus in the number of men holding prominent places. We have six men out of a total squad of thirty-eight.

The baseball season has opened with II's fighting for places on all the teams. Kilpatrick and Rochelle are letter men of last year and we expect them easily to repeat their success of former days.

The R. O. T. C. Rifle Team of the University is captained by Brother Talley. Talley and John Turner are leading the team in the scoring. Last week our team fired in a contest with the Georgia Tech team. The Tech team won the contest by nineteen points.

On March 22nd a gas explosion in the Pharmacology laboratory wrecked the laboratory and hurt a number of students. Brother Boswell was among the injured, receiving a gash on the head and painful bruises. We are glad to announce that he is better now and able to attend his classes.

We are looking forward with high anticipations to winning the State Inter-collegiate Track Meet to be held on Emory's new cinder track. Beta Kappa's able representatives on the team are among those upon whom Emory is counting to uphold her standard.

Beta Kappa felt itself highly honored this winter in having the District Convention hold its business sessions in our chapter house. It was indeed a pleasure to shake hands and swap experiences with the visiting II's. They were all up to the II standard, and when you have said that about a bunch, there is nothing left to say. Brother Willingham, district princeps, was a splendid executive officer and allowed nothing to drag. The business sessions were interesting and highly profitable.

We invite all our brothers who may be passing through Atlanta at any time to visit Beta Kappa and Emory University. A warm welcome awaits you.

E. G. HAMLET.

BETA LAMBDA

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

The month of March was an eventful one for our bunch.

The Seventh District Convention, held at the Marquette Hotel, St. Louis, on the fifth and sixth of the month, was a tremendous success—strenuous, but great while it lasted. Delegates from chapters Alpha Kappa, Alpha Nu, Alpha Omega, Beta Gamma, Beta Eta, Beta Lambda, Alumnus Alpha Delta, Alumnus Alpha Theta, and Alumnus Alpha Nu were present, and all took an active part in the convention's business. Work began at 2:30 p. m. Saturday and continued until 1:00 p. m. Sunday. Even a heavy and continual downpour of rain failed to dampen the general enthusiasm of the meeting.

District Princeps Frank R. Eversole acted as chairman.

Alumnus Alpha Nu, entertaining the convention, assisted by Beta Lambda, entertained the delegates on Saturday evening with a banquet at the Marquette and a dance at Glen Echo Country Club. Both affairs were mighty enjoyable, and everybody left, we firmly feel, fully convinced that the district convention is a great institution.

The gathering discussed many questions of fraternity policy, both district and national. One thing it did was to establish a district publication to be published monthly and which should serve to bring the chapters into more intimate relations with each other. It was a great success, not only because it accomplished great things, but also because it served to revive and strengthen the unity of the district.

The housing problem still remains unsettled. However, it is beginning to look as if the solution might be in sight. The University corporation has offered to build houses on the campus, lease them to the fraternities for an indefinite period, and allow them to purchase the homes by installments; and although no definite action has been taken, this plan will doubtless be the one ultimately adopted.

Eeta Lambda wishes to announce the pledging of the following men:

Morrill Crowe, St. Louis, Mo.

John Burdeau, St. Louis, Mo.

Edward Winer, St. Louis, Mo.

Brother Colbert, from Alpha Kappa, visited us recently.

Buchmueller is Art Editor of the Hatchet. Crowder, Shupp and Schultz are out for track, and we are expecting each of them to bring back a letter.

Brother Munter, now attending Nebraska University, visited the chapter last week.

Beta Lambda wishes all sister chapters the best of success.

BETA-MU

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

With the arrival of spring and winter term reports, comes the old pep and determination to make the rest of the year bring new and greater achievements, or atone for slips and failures in the past terms. At the latest count, Beta-Mu is still on the upper edge of the high scholastic standing required by the faculty for eligibility to initiate, and is making preparations to initiate Pledge Cochran, who has made the average necessary for spring term initiation.

Since our last letter, we have been fortunate in pledging Elliot M. "Shorty" Hubbard, a transfer to Austin from the School of Mines at El Paso who is showing the stuff that will make him a valuable addition to our interfraternity baseball team.

The chapter administration for the remainder of the year is:

H. Eascom Thomas, S. M. C.

Royal P. James, I. M. C.

W. Russell Barrow, Th. C.

Robert S. Ford, S. C.

Charles R. Williams, M. C.

Dick Lewis, M. S.

George M. Ritchie, Alumni Sec'ty.

Founders' Day was fittingly celebrated with an informal dinner in the Chapter house. Plans for an elaborate banquet were discarded when it was decided to use the banquet assessment for the purchase of curtains and draperies for the chapter rooms. We feel that all concerned, are just as well pleased with the less elaborate function in the now far more comfortable quarters. Our S. M. C. ably handled the position of toast-master for the occasion.

Baseball is, of course, the all-absorbing interest at the present time. Varsity has overwhelmingly defeated the only collegiate opponent to appear so far, Simmons College, and has shown up well in two practice games with the Chicago White Sox. No reason has appeared as yet why this should not be the eleventh straight year for Texas to win the Conference baseball pennant.

Interfraternity baseball often brings up lively debate as to the relative importance of batting practice and the appearance of the front lawn, but so far the lawn hasn't a chance with some fifteen husky fans determined on a place in the finals this season. Captain Joe Ellington is whipping the squad into shape for the first game. McCollough, Ritchie and Buchly are working hard for places in the track squad, and Luhn is out for spring football training.

Beta-Mu sends heartiest good wishes to all sister chapters.

DICK LEWIS.

BETA-NU

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Beta-Nu takes great pleasure in introducing to her sister chapters Herbert M. Zeigler, of White Salmon, Washington, who was initiated on March 6, 1921.

Easter vacation has just ended at Oregon Agricultural College, and it is with renewed energies that we are again gathered in the chapter house ready for the work of the spring term. The opening of the quarter has brought the return of one old brother, Franklin G. Chapel, whom we heartily welcome. It has, however, also brought the loss of brothers Calvin Billeter and Herbert Zeigler and Pledge Ross Norris, whose absences will be felt.

Among the big social events of last term was the dance given by the II's at the Women's Club on the eve of Washington's birthday. The hall was artistically decorated in the fraternity colors along lines in keeping with the eve of Washington's birthday. The orchestra and refreshments were of the best that could be had and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

On the evening of March 1st, a fitting celebration was held within the chapter house in commemoration of the founding of our fraternity. An interesting program in which everybody took part enlivened the early part of the evening. Following the entertainment a tasty banquet was arranged where short talks and II K A songs further contributed to the evening's pleasure.

With the basketball season over, O. A. C. is looking forward with confidence to the coming track, baseball and tennis contests. The varsity baseball team is shaping up strong and prospects for a conference championship for O. A. C. are bright. The Aggie Rook track team won the 17th annual Columbia Indoor Track and Field Meet by a good margin. This was the third consecutive time the Aggies have walked away with the Columbia trophies and the pennant.

In the intramural contests of this term, the II's are figuring on high standings. Five of our freshmen are out for the freshmen baseball team and the prospects of placing several men on the nine are almost certain.

However, we are not losing sight of our main purpose in college, namely, learning. For the first term of the college year we ranked second in scholarship among the 27 men's organizations on the campus. In the second term that has just ended some splendid work has been done by the brothers and we have good reason for hoping to find Pi Kappa Alpha leading in scholarship at this institution. Three brothers, J. M. Riddle, A. J. Brugger and Sam Doukas were recently elected to membership in Lambda Phi Lambda, a local honorary engineering fraternity. Doukas was also elected to Sigma Tau, a national honorary engineering fraternity. This honor which has been extended to these brothers has been well earned by their untiring efforts in scholarship and student activities.

New officers for the year were chosen at the first meeting in February, and are as follows:

J. R. Parker, S. M. C.

S. J. Doukas, I.M. C.

N. Schneider, Th. C.
J. M. Riddle, S. C.
E. J. Salstrom, M. S.
G. A. Duncan, M. C.

To all our sister chapters we extend our hearty good wishes for a successful and happy future.

E. J. SALSTROM.

BETA XI

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

District Princeps Herbert Miller visited the chapter on February 12 and 13 for the purpose of inspecting. While he made his headquarters with us he included an overnight stay at Beloit with the Beta-Iota chapter. He was accompanied on the trip by Brothers William Lerch and O. W. Breuer.

On invitation from the Beta-Iota chapter several of our members made a jaunt to Beloit to spend the week-end of February 26. They were royally entertained with a banquet and smoker of the old-time variety. This was one of the steps in a general plan to further inter-chapter relations in our district.

The annual Relay Carnival was held here, February 19, in which some twenty fraternity teams competed as a part of the extensive program of events. Pi Kappa Alpha's runners secured a silver cup for placing fifth. Members of the team were: R. F. Spetz, '22, C. W. Wille, '22, H. C. Dennis, '21, N. D. Scott, '23, and F. S. Newell, '23.

Running for the sororities were Spetz, captain Alpha Omicron Pi; Dennis, captain Chadbourne Hall; Wille, captain Alpha Chi Omega; Newell, Barnard Hall team; and L. W. McClure, Achoth team. Other places in the meet were made by Liskovec, '21, third in the shot put and Spetz first in the 40-yard dash.

Other recent honors in athletics were won by L. G. Barry, '22, when he was awarded a medal in the varsity competition for the selection of wrestling champions. Barry won his title in the light-heavyweight class. He is now practicing with the baseball squads and is likely material for a position in the varsity battery as catcher.

On the week-end of March 19 initiation ceremonies were held, the informal exercises beginning Wednesday evening the 16th and ending Friday evening the 18th, following which was the period of silence lasting until Sunday noon when the formal service was enacted. At this time George T. Breen, Crystal Falls, Mich.; Flavian A. Leinfelder, LaCrosse, Wisc.; Charles N. Demarest, Madison, Wisc. and Milo E. Smith, Huron, S. Dakota, were made brothers. An initiation banquet at the house followed.

The regular Easter dance was held at the house Saturday evening, March 26. It was well attended, and with novel lighting effects and decorations was considered a success. Several alumni members were present as well as two guests from the Beta-Iota chapter and the parents of three or four of the members. A dinner in honor of the latter was served on Easter Sunday.

The annual competition for the scholastic basketball title was held here on the weekend of March 26. At that time about a dozen schools in the state met to play for honors. Members of the team, and the coach of the La-Crosse quintet were invited to be our guests at this time.

At present the chapter is actively engaged in remodeling the monthly alumni letter. Formerly it has consisted of one or two stenciled sheets, but under the new plan, while still mimeographed it will be enlarged, bear a cover, title and index page and contain articles written second semester freshmen.

The names of two men have recently been added to our pledge list. They are: William J. Tannewitz, '23 and Casper M. Nash, '24, both of Madison. Other pledges are Claire Howell, Paul C. King, Edgar W. Kustermann and Harold E. Robinson, all of whom are second semester freshmen.

C. P. MACINNIS.

BETA OMICRON

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Beta Omicron held its first Founders' Day banquet at the chapter house, March 1. It was without question the most successful single evening in the history of the chapter. Wit and good fellowship flowed like wine in the days of the Romans. "Ted" Beaird, officiating as toastmaster, gave a "Toast to $\Pi K A$ ", after the completion of a sequence of speeches: "Local History of the Chapter", by Wasielewski, "What We Have Accomplished Since Installation", by Duncan, and "What we Expect to Accomplish in the Future" by Smith. Pledges, called on impromptu, gave an interesting angle on how a pledge regards his fraternity. It was suggested afterward that the banquet be repeated monthly as a "Get-Together" affair, but it was agreed that this would destroy the meaning and purpose of the event.

Our activities are increasing by leaps. "Ted" Beaird has grown publicly oratorical and will represent the University and Beta Omicron in the Missouri Valley Oratorical contest at Columbia, Missouri. He hopes to look in on Alpha Nu and Beta Gamma and carry the greetings of our chapter to them.

Joe Benton was chosen to represent the chapter at the District Convention at Dallas. Joe has special instructions to be in good voice, and has been requested to take along a copy of his newest composition, "The Heart of a $\Pi K A$ ". Jimmie Strickland will accompany him as assistant.

Dean Duncan says that he is to do a Robin Hood dance in the Junior Burlesque. We can't believe it. Humphries and Hadley made the Glee Club in the second semester try-out. This makes four men for the chapter on an organization well-known throughout the middle West.

John Pickard has been mentioned most favorably for a berth as pitcher on the Varsity nine this spring. Prospects are brilliant for as remarkable a baseball season as Oklahoma achieved in football last season in which she carried away the Missouri Valley championship.

Plans for Mothers' Day are in the hands of a committee. We hope to make this one of the most interesting happenings of the year.

Here is a copy of the song of our chapter. The words are by Riggs, the music by Benton.

THE HEART OF A II K A

There's a fireside we love and remember
There's a home that we'll cherish for aye
Though it's March or November
Or May or Devenber.
Though it's night with its stars, or the day;
It's a place that no man has discovered,
It is hid from the world far away,
For this treasure we love
More than fair skies above
Is the heart of a II K A.

Best wishes to the sister chapters.

R. LYNN RIGGS.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

We are glad to state that in the last two or three months, a large number of II's have "dropped in" to see us. On Wednesday, February 2, we had quite a crowd at Beta-Pi. This was the night of the New York University—Pennsylvania basketball game in which the University of Pennsylvania defeated their New York rivals by the score of 24-11. The following brothers from Alpha-Upsilon came over: Professor William Lynch, Arvard Nelsin, Arthur Moynchan, Henry Petergerson, Haig Sarafian, Harold Halligan, Joseph S. Keller, John Mulholland, Charles Platt, Theodore Gronquist, Frank De Napoli, Jack Jones, Edward Bunn, Edward De Laney, James Driscoll and Ralph Espach. In addition to the members of Alpha-Upsilon chapter, four other chapters visited Beta-Pi: Alpha, Brother Aggies, of Pittsburg, Beta-Alpha, Howard Marple, Beta-Delta, Lloyd Kellan and Alpha-Eta, William Brown, now affiliated with Beta-Pi.

The week previous, Beta-Pi had the pleasure of entertaining two members of the Cornell chapter, Brothers Borne and Short. Brother Short is now attending Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa.

On Friday, February 4, District Princeps Deming visited the fraternity house and commended the brothers on its remarkable progress.

Beta-Pi wishes to extend through the "SHIELD AND DIAMOND, thanks and appreciation to the chapters which so kindly sent names of freshmen for our rushing season. We realize that the time was so short that it was almost impossible for the majority of the chapters to help us.

We had a very successful rushing season and take great pleasure in announcing the initiation of the following men:

James Harold Langford, Knoxville, Tenn.

Karl Steinmetz, Norfolk, Va.

Donald McGregor Thompson, Lansdowne, Pa.

Carl Collins Tyler, Freeport, Ill.

De Haven Develin, Philadelphia, Pa.

Frederick Sherman Yeiter, Millville, N. J.

Patrick Murphy Malin, Joplin, Mo.
Leonard Karslake Ferch, Lockport, N. Y.
Eugene C. Bonniwell, Philadelphia, Pa.
John Swift Marvin, Providence, R. I.
Alfred Betz Caldwell, Philadelphia, Pa.
Charles Kenneth Miller, Millville, N. J.
Theodore H. Button, Philadelphia, Pa.
Walter E. Powell, Philadelphia, Pa.
Byron Russell Pinney, Clinton, Iowa.

Beta-Pi is represented in the various activities, and a great deal of interest is being shown. "Bill" Brown is rowing on the Junior Varsity and "Red" Pinney has won his letter in football and a Pa in baseball. "Pat" Malin has been elected to the Board of our daily publication, the Pennsylvanian. Merle Odgers was recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa. "Dave" Maxwell is a member of the Senior Cabinet. "Brels" Killhour will sing in the Mask and Wink Show, "Somebody's Lion," which will be given in Atlantic City, just before Easter, and at the Forrest Theater, Philadelphia, during Easter Week.

L. R. BEALE.

BETA RHO

COLORADO COLLEGE

February 17 we had a smoker and entertainment for the fathers of those fellows who live in Colorado Springs or nearby towns. The first stunt included a chalk talk by Freeman in which he drew cartoons of various members. Then there was a wrestling match between Leisy and Wilbur, and a boxing match between Kissinger and Wood. This smoker was such a success that we plan to give others from time to time.

The following night we held our first initiation. The following new members were initiated.

Ralph D. Maxwell, Fort Collins, Colorado.

Albert Ralph Owens, Pikeview, Colorado.

John G. Winans, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Theodore H. Winans, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Kenneth K. Kingsbury, Oswego, Kansas.

Simeon E. L. Wilbur, Denver, Colorado.

George A. Rader, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Stanley S. Sando, Versailles, Ohio.

Also we have pledged Rae N. Taylor of Doylestown, Wisconsin.

At the next meeting we elect the following officers:

Lynn B. Wallis, S. M. C.

Ralph D. Maxwell, I. M. C.

George A. Rader, Th. C.

The following were appointed by the S. M. C.

Theodore H. Winans, S. C.

Kenneth L. Gordon, M. S.

John G. Freeman, M. C.

March 3, 4, and 5 there was a basketball tournament of Southern Colorado high schools held here under the auspices of the college. Ten teams were represented in this tournament. The teams from out of town were lodged and entertained by the various fraternities. We had as our guest the Trinidad team; and we were very favorably impressed by their fighting spirit and their sportsmanship in defeat. This tournament was one of the best means by which high school students of Southern Colorado could become acquainted with Colorado College and what we are doing here.

On the night before spring vacation we played the last indoor baseball game in the inter-fraternity series. In this game the Sigma Chi's beat us by a score of 12 to 5. On the two preceding nights we had won our games; the result of these three games leaves us in second place.

Beta Rho extends its greetings to brother II's everywhere.

ALUMNUS ALPHA

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Pi Kappa Alpha Alumni in Richmond with the members of Omicron Chapter as their guests met recently at dinner at the Business Men's Club for dinner and reorganized Alumnus Alpha Chapter, which during the period of the war had withered away. After a lapse of several years without a meeting of the alumni, enthusiasm was at high pitch and the spirit of good fellowship that prevailed was contagious.

More than thirty were present at the dinner and before the meeting came to a close nearly every man had spoken briefly on some phase of Pi Kappa Alpha activity. Hon. J. Alston Cabell, distinguished alumnus of Alpha, spoke on the Alpha of the old days and urged the men to strive to uphold the best traditions of the fraternity.

Rufus Newton, of Omicron, appealed to the alumni for funds to fit up a fraternity room at the University of Richmond and the sum asked was raised by individual donations.

District Princeps R. Taylor Coleman presided at the meeting and called on every man present to get up and give his name, college and business. It was found that alumni of Davidson, Hampden-Sidney, the University of Virginia, William and Mary, University of Richmond and Washington and Lee were present. The meeting was run off in peppery fashion without a moment's drag. Oftimes jokes or personalities brought forth gales of laughter.

J. Alston Cabell was elected president of Alumnus Alpha, R. Taylor Coleman vice-president and Walter E. Durham secretary. The president was empowered to appoint an executive committee of five.

Those present at the meeting were: J. Alston Cabell, Walter E. Durham, R. L. T. Beale, William Martin, Henry Taylor, Richard Taylor, Hugh Leach, Archie Leach, Herbert Mann, Ascham J. Duval, Harry Duval, C. H. Gresham, Dr. W. A. Shepherd, Warren L. Tiller, Rev. O. E. Buchholz, M. A. Chambers, Spencer Ellis, J. W. Witherspoon, Allan Kimbrough and the men of Omicrom Chapter.

WALTER E. DURHAM, Secretary.

ALUMNUS BETA

MEMPHIS, TENN

Alumnus Beta Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha, inactive for lo these many moons, was reorganized at a rousing get-together dinner in a private dining room at the Peabody Hotel, in Memphis, Tenn., on the evening of March 1. The dinner was planned primarily to observe Founder's Day, but with 11 alumni members of old Pi sitting in at the festive board, the urge was a bit too strong and Brother W. Cleveland Johnson sensed the opinion of all present when he got busy as soon as the brothers were seated and nominated a president as the first step towards reorganizing the alumnus chapter. The unanimous vote for the reorganization and the man proposed as president showed the feeling of the members. Dudley D. Dumas was the man chosen by acclamation for the presidency. Brother Johnson thereupon added that he made it part and parcel of the election of a president that anyone chosen should serve for a year and at the end of his term should be obligated to entertain the chapter at a dinner at his own expense. This also passed unanimously, President Dumas not being allowed to enter a nay vote.

President Dumas then took matters into his own hands and Brother Joe Dean was nominated for secretary-treasurer. He was also chosen by acclamation. On motion of Brother Darrow, the office of historian was proposed in order to keep the chapter records authentic.

Brother W. Cleveland Johnson was unanimously elected to this office and the brothers then gave over the time to attending to the urge of the "inner man".

Between courses, an authentic roll of the eleven brothers present was made up. It was surprising to learn that all were formerly connected with Beta chapter at Tennessee, although two brothers were initiates of other chapters and afterwards attended U. of T. The nine brothers affiliated with Zeta were D. D. Dumas, W. C. Johnson, Morris Bond, Sidney Genette, Pearce Caldwell, Jim Williams, William Bond, Joe Dean and V. P. Newberne. Brother G. P. Apperson, who was initiated into Beta chapter at Davidson and afterwards became affiliated with Zeta and Brother H. B. Darrow, who was initiated into Chi chapter at Sewanee and afterwards went to Zeta, were the other two brothers present. Thus the charter members of the organized alumnus Beta chapter comprise these eleven men.

The discussion next turned to plans for a firmer binding together of the brothers. It was proposed that regular meetings be held monthly. It was finally decided to have these meetings take the form of a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce the first Monday in each month, the brothers to meet promptly at noon and lunch together, so that the meeting could adjourn at 1 p. m. It was also voted that these luncheons be concluded along the "Dutch treat" lines.

The next matter for discussion dealt with a proposal to lay plans for a big dance to be given next fall by the fraternity in Memphis. It was tentatively planned to arrange to hold this dance at the Colonial Country Club and a subscription list was passed around for the brothers present to sign. As a result more than $150 was pledged.

It was further decided that for the next meeting, at luncheon on April 4, each brother present pledge himself to see to it that he bring at least another brother to the luncheon. In this manner it is planned to assure the attendance of at least 22 brothers. Each man present agreed to this plan and each one named the brother he would bring so that there might be no chance for double tracking.

The balance of a most pleasant and profitable evening was spent in reminiscences and many were the bygone exploits and scropes that were retold to the loughing delight of all present. Brother Newberne had been enjoying immensely the singing of a cabaret vocalist "in the offing" until Brother Darrow, who is connected with the Loew theater interests in Memphis as publicity representative, "spilled the beans" regarding Brother Newberne's fondness for theatrical ushers while he was connected with Loew's State theater in Memphis. This seemed to draw blood from another brother present and finally the admission was forced that Brother Newberne had been aided and abetted in his onslaught by the aforementioned brother.

The dinner finally broke up shortly after 9 o'clock and it was gratifying to the brothers that The Memphis Commercial Appeal saw fit to publish the reorganization news in full, giving list of officers and chapter members present, the following morning.

ALUMNUS UPSILON

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

The regular monthly luncheon of the Alumnus Upsilon Chapter of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity was held in the private dining room at Ivey's on Saturday, April 9.

More than 25 members and guests attended the luncheon, including a delegation from Beta chapter at Davidson College.

Following the luncheon there were a number of short talks touching upon various subjects in which the fraternity is interested, especially those relating to the work being carried on by the alumnus chapters. F. M. DeVarre, of Florida; A. C. Cline, of Concord and W. B. Orr, Davidson, were among the out of town guests who spoke.

Among other important matters discussed at the meeting yesterday was the appointments of a committee to arrange plans for the holding of a dance which the local alumnus chapter will give on June 3. The committee plans to make this an unusually elaborate affair. Invitations will be extended to Pi Kappa Alpha chapters in this and nearby states.

The men of the chapter have shown a great deal of interest in all things pertaining to the fraternity and it will not be long until we have one of the best alumnus chapters in the country. Our plans at first were to have two or three luncheons a year, but upon further consideration of this matter we decided that we would have a luncheon every two months.

Among those present at the luncheon were: J. W. Brafield, W. H. Parsons, J. J. Misenheimer, R. F. Wakefield, Albert Escott, Dr. H. A. Wakefield, Archie Wakefield, C. H. Little, Dr. R. A. Lafferty, Geo. M. Ivy, L. D. Nuchols, A. J. Beall, D. H. Hill, Jr., J. L. Dodson, M. R. Davis, Henry Barringer, all of Charlotte; W. B. Carr, A. M. Baker, H. C. Williamson, E. M. Hines, E. M. McKellar, A. M. Hillhouse, C. H. Boykin, of Davidson; A. C. Cline, Concord; F. M. DeVane, Florida.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-BETA

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

Members of Pi Kappa Alpha attended March 9, a luncheon given by the business men of San Francisco to the Varsity Football Team. It was "California's Day" with the business men and alumni of the university. President Barrows and Comptroller Sproul spoke of plans for the stadium.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-GAMMA

ATLANTA, GA.

Activities in this Alumnus Chapter have been recently resumed to a degree heretofore never known.

In the early part of February the Alumni were requested to meet at a central restaurant at 7 p. m. and dine together. Some forty alumni responded and at the second of these informal dinners Brother C. B. Wilmer, of Gamma, spoke of the great necessity in the nation and in the city for the young men of the day to take hold of the leading issues, learn of them, take part in them, and push them to a successful culmination. This aroused a tremendous interest and many strong speeches were made by others present, and upon motion it was decided that the alumni of the city should meet at Alpha-Delta Chapter House on February 17 for the purpose of formally organizing the Alumnus Chapter into a forum where behind closed doors and heart to heart, these matters could be discussed.

At this meeting the following officers were elected:

President, Rev. C. B. Wilmer, D. D. Gamma.

Vice Presidents, Rev. Richard Orme Flinn, D. D. Theta, Dudley R. Cowles, Gamma, Rev. Thornwell Jacobs, D. D., Mu.

Secretary, Harry Houser, Alpha-Delta.

Treasurer, Samuel N. Hodges, Alpha-Delta.

A Committee on Activities was appointed with Theo. S. Dunn, Alpha-Kappa, as chairman. Also Committee on Publicity with C. E. Gregory, Kappa, Chairman, and Committee on Membership, with Samuel N. Hodges, Alpha-Delta, Chairman.

It was decided to hold the first regular meeting for this newly formed purpose on March 8, where we sat together at dinner, and afterward listened to a very strong address from the Rev. Dr. Wilmer, on the subject of the relationships of the races. Dr. Wilmer is Chairman of the Interracial Relations Committee on the Churches of Atlanta, and so this subject lies close to his heart. At the next regular monthly meeting, April 12, Brother Wilmer will continue this address.

The Alumnus Chapter also took a very active part in the discussion of, and work for, voting the Bonds in the city of Atlanta for civic improvements.

At each of the monthly dinners, some one of our brothers will speak on a leading topic of either National or Local importance, and as the discussion of these subjects is "behind closed doors", not to go beyond them except in the work of the members, very free and open talks can be had.

Dr. Wilmer and Dr. Flinn are leaders in all of the activities for the advancement of the civic life in Atlanta and for the improvement of true Americanism. Great benefit will be derived by all members in Atlanta from these discussions.

HARRY HOUSER, SECRETARY.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-EPSILON

NEW YORK CITY

The wave of Alumni interest revival struck New York two years ago and the "follow-up" has been strong and continuous. Alumnus Alpha-Epsilon had been permitted to become inactive, due to several combined factors. But, following the war, an interested group set things in motion once more. The results have been very gratifying as demonstrated at New Orleans in inviting the 1922 Convention to New York. Plans for the biennial gathering are proceeding nicely and the fraternity is assured of a good time in 1922.

The monthly meeting, held April 8th at the Advertising Club, was full of interesting discussion. The Nominating Committee, appointed to select the brothers best fitted to conduct the chapter's affairs throughout the coming year, reported the following names, which will be voted upon at the meeting on May 20:

For President, J. Harold Johnston, Alpha Phi.

For Vice President, Thomas H. Dugan, Beta Theta.

For Treasurer, Frederick K. Glynn, Alpha Chi.

Rec. Secretary, J. W. Bauer, Alpha Lambda.

Cor. Secretary, Clarence A. Kelting, Alpha-Upsilon.

Brother Francis, grand secretary, spoke on the recent chartering of chapters and offered valuable suggestions regarding procuring speakers for the chapter's meetings. There was considerable discussion in connection with means of making the meetings most interesting and heldful to the members. At the meeting on May 20, Dr. Wieland's paper on Social Hygiene will be read.

An exceptionally interesting talk was given by Brother William Tyndall, an alumnus of Beta-Pi, on the victory and activities of his chapter. Brief talks of a similar nature were also given by the following brothers: Wright, Alpha-Xi, Dancy, Alpha-Eta; Dugan, Beta-Theta; Hall, Upsilon; Weaver, Beta-Alpha; McCampbell, Alpha-Omega and Christie, Alpha-Chi.

A committee composed of Brothers Francis, Kapff and Carlough was appointed to investigate and report on the matter of a Ladies' Auxiliary for the New York Alumnus Chapter.

MILLARD G. LARKIN.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-ETA

CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

Acting on the suggestion of Brother Smythe in letter to Brother Elsom, a meeting of Alpha-Eta Alumnus Chapter was held on April 16th in this city. Luncheon was served to the following:

C. K. Payne, Frank C. Brown, E. H. Venable, C. H. Elsom, E. C. Cork, D. L. Cork, J. E. Staehlin,

This chapter's membership extends throughout the Southern end of this state and no attempt was made at this time to do other than arouse interest in the resident members in preparation for more elaborate meetings in the future.

Following the luncheon the chapter resolved itself into an Executive Session and discussed plans for a closer affiliation of its members and a more active chapter fraternally.

It was decided to have a general meeting of all members at a dinner to be held following the W. V. U.—W. & L. football game to be played in Charleston next fall, this being the only occasion when men from all over this state and Virginia are in the city.

We are desirous of having the names and addresses of all II's in this section of the state who will affiliate with us in Alpha-Eta Alumnus Chapter, and all those who will be here for the football game next fall.

Also we wish to extend an invitation to all who visit the city, to make themselves known to us.

The following officers were elected for the next two years:

C. K. Payne, President, Epsilon.

F. C. Brown, Vice-President, Iota.

H. E. Staehlin, Secretary and Treasurer, Iota.

Following is a list of the resident members of this chapter:

C. K. Payne, Epsilon, 1120 Kanawha St., President, Payne Shoe Co.

F. C. Brown, Iota, 502 Columbia Boulevard, Pastor Eream Memorial Church.

C. H. Elsom, Omicron, Kanawha National Bank Bldg., Officer West Virginia Engineering Company.

E. H. Venable, Alpha, 2425 Washington St., Civil Engineer.

D. L. Cork, Iota, 1124 Lee St., Attorney.

E. C. Cork, Iota, 1124 Lee St., Engineer.

I. R. Simms, Pi, 12 Dunbar St., Real Estate.

H. D. Litaker, Alpha-Alpha, Kanawha National Bank Bldg., Insurance.

Beverly Broun, Alpha, Kanawha Banking & Trust Bank Bldg., Attorney.

J. E. Staehlin, Iota, 1010 Kanawha St., Salesman.

With best regards to all II's, I am,

J. E. STAEHLIN, SECRETARY.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-NU

ST. LOUIS, MO.

This chapter had the pleasure of acting with Beta-Lambda at Washington University as joint hosts to the Seventh District Convention in St. Louis early in March. Two-thirds of our membership of thirty-two turned out for the convention dinner at the Marquette Hotel and dance at Glen Echo Country Club. Nearly as many of our men were in attendance at the business sessions.

Dallas Blakeney, Alpha-Nu, of Malden, Mo., who is traveling for a fraternity jeweler, was a visitor at the February meeting. At the March meeting Ralph I. Morse, Alpha-Chi, Syracuse University, was a guest. He is stopping at 4704 McPherson Ave., St. Louis, temporarily, while supervising the establishment of a new plant for the Columbia Mills, with which he is associated in New York.

The members went together to a vaudeville show after the March dinner. In April a different scheme of entertainment was tried and this feature of the program will be varied each month. The dinners are always held on the third Monday of the month at the Marquette Hotel.

Rosters of Alumnus Alpha-Nu have been revised and the second edition was mailed to all the national and district officers and to every chapter. Aside from their convenience to the local membership, the first practical use of the second edition was the finding of Brother Morse, whose presence here was told by R. E. Consler, Alpha-Chi, of Rochester, N. Y., after he read a copy. We note that Chicago and Atlanta alumni have also issued rosters.

RICHARD G. BAUMHOFF.

AUMNUS ALPHA-NU

Organized March 15, 1920. Roster as of February, 1921.

Alumnus Alpha-Nu wants to hear from every member, alumnus or active, who comes to St. Louis and vicinity to stay temporarily or permanently. Each officer and member is ready to direct arriving brothers. A chapter telephone is listed in the Bell directory whereby one of the officers may be reached, and Beta-Lambda (active) Chapter at Washington University has a telephone, Cabany 5543 W. Its rooms are in tower Dormitory, Section B.

Alumnus Alpha-Nu meets for dinner the third Monday in each month at 6:15 p. m., at the Marquette Hotel.

Beta Lambda meets Thursday at 8 p. m., in its rooms.

ALUMNUS ALPHA SIGMA

PORTLAND, OREGON.

Portland, Oregon, finally got on the map when the Supreme Council, on March 14th, granted a chapter to Alumnus Alpha Sigma Chapter to take care of the fast-growing family of II's who now reside in the Rose City on the Columbia.

On May 29th of last year Grand Historian Roy E. Warren, of Alpha-Sigma Chapter, came up from Berkeley, California, and District Princeps Thomas A. Dahlquist, a member of the same chapter, left his summer job in a Utah bank to conduct the initiation of Beta-Nu Chapter at Oregon Agricultural College, the successful petitioners having arranged to hold the ceremonies and accompanying celebration at the University Club in this city. That eventful day was also the start of an alumnus chapter for this city, as it was the occasion for bringing together old members who had not known of each other's presence in town and the initiation into the fraternity of men who had already completed their courses of study or who were soon to graduate from college. During the remaining part of the year the brothers became better acquainted and on January 1st, 1921, they started the new year right by holding a get-together banquet at the Multnomah Hotel in this city and petitioning for an alumnus charter. A few other brothers who could not be here at that time were located after the meeting and when the petition was forwarded to the office of the Grand Treasurer it contained twenty-four signatures representing five chapters.

Before the charter was received an informal meeting was held on March 23rd at the Oregon Grille during spring vacation week and seven members of the new chapter at Oregon Agricultural College and one of the pledges came up from Corvallis to attend a luncheon at which eleven alumni members were present. A showing of nineteen members around the board at a little impromptu gathering was a cheerful sign, and as a consequence hopes are entertained that a unanimous attendance of all IIs within a radius of two hundred miles will be present when our first meeting and election of officers is held within the very near future.

Among the charter members of Alumnus Alpha-Sigma are the following: Dr. A. A. Knowlton (Alpha-Tau), who accumulated the first of his long string of degrees in 1898 and who has been acting as administrative head of Reed College during the past year pending the election of the new president of the institution. At present he is playing his golf at the Eastmoreland links with Brother George W. Clark (Alpha Sigma), director of physical education at Reed College and who was a member of the track team at the University of California to say nothing of his ability as a baritone soloist with the glee club. That was in the class of 1918. Leander E. Andrus was a Pi Kap at the University of Kentucky (Omega), back in 1904 and makes this city his home now, having the management of the sporting goods and toy department of Olds, Wortman & King, one of the big department stores. Those three brothers are listed in the married men's section, along with Douglas I. Bates, one of the instructors at the Oregon Institute of Technology in Portland, a Beta Nu 1918 man, and William C. Christensen, Beta Beta of the same class at the University of Washington and who is now cashier of a bank at Wheeler, Oregon. One or two of the other boys have also been stepping over, but lacking definite information it would not be right to give them credit for anything to which they are not entitled. Alvin R. Christopherson was an Alpha Tau 1921 in Salt Lake City, but is now a student at North Pacific Dental College in Portland. Everett W. Fenton, Alpha Sigma, formerly a member of the 1916 class at the University of California, is a member of the firm and manager of Spohn & Fenton, merchandise brokers.

Beta Nu supplies most of the members of the new alumnus chapter. Harry Dale Howard was head of the house when the local fraternity at Corvallis was granted its charter and is now a chemist in the Milk Bureau of the City Board of Health. Brother Howard was asked to assist in another department during an epidemic and while examining diphtheria cultures contracted the disease himself and almost died a day or two later. However, the City Health Officer saw that everything possible was done for him and it is a real pleasure to report that Howard is once more back on the job, but not in the diphtheria department this time.

At the meeting at the Oregon Grills, all of the brothers present wrote a few lines to the sick man and the letter bearing nineteen signatures together with a big bouquet of flowers was the best medicine he received that day.

Eric Witt is a man who played three years of football at Oregon Agricultural College and is also in the City Milk Bureau as a dairy inspector. He keeps his schedule full by studying medicine on the side. Russell L. Harris and Walter A. Marquis, the brothers who deserve the credit for the publication of "The First Annual Directory of Pi Kappa Alpha in Oregon", have been putting in some time in the drafting room of a local shipyard recently and are also reputed to have sea-going ideas, but so far they are both on solid ground. Franklin G. Chapel is also with the same shipyard in the storekeeping department. Charles Boone Ahlson of Hillsdale, Ore., is a field agent with the Idaho Seed Grower's Association in Boise, Idaho, and Ray H. Chapler, a 1915 man at O. A. C., is connected with the forest service in the local Federal Building. Carl M. Frost of the 1916 class, has the Portland Railway, Light and Power Co. as his address in Vancouver, Washington, and Elmer Dean Hunter is now the County Horticulturist at Sedro Wooley, in the same state up near the Canadian border. Albrecht Streiff, 1918, is with the Portland Ry. L. & P. Co., in this city, Carl Stewart Johnson of the 1917 class is a chemist with the Oregon Dairymen's League, and Elmo C. Coover is another Beta Nu man of the class of 1923 who is now in Portland.

Ernest E. McKeen (Beta Beta) who graduated in electrical engineering at the University of Washington in 1916 is now a department manager of the Brice Mortgage Co., in the Yeon Building, and his brother James Albert, after completing a course in pharmacy at the same institute two years ago, is a successful appraiser with one of the big realty concerns here.

That all goes to show the value of a college education in this day of specialization.

Alfred Theodore Byars also of the 1921 class at Beta Beta is manager of the Abstract & Guarantee Title Co., of Goldendale, Washington, not far from the banks of the Columbia River and Herbert Cedric Nesbitt, a 1920 Beta Beta lives in the same town. Gail C. White is another Beta-Beta man in Portland at present, attending the North Pacific Dental College. His home is in Port Angeles, Washington.

In addition to the twenty-four charter members mentioned above, there will probably be a number of additions to the roster at the first meeting of Alumnus Alpha Sigma. Visiting brothers are most cordially invited to make their presence known to any of the boys here and the right hand of good fellowship is extended to all the members of the fraternity who will honor us with a visit or who may be located here permanently.

EVERETT W. FENTON.
Resident Alumni Secretary.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-TAU

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA

At eight-thirty o'clock on the night of March the 22nd the Pi Kappa Alpha Alumni of Gainesville and vicinity met and formally organized themselves into Alumnus Alpha Tau Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. There was a good attendance of loyal Pikes present and a good supper was enjoyed by all.

Immediately after supper the meeting was called to order by the chairman and officers for the chapter were elected as follows: D. M. Buie, President; M. F. Brown, Vice President; J. M. Powell, Jr., Recording Scribe; John C. Dial, Treasurer and C. L. Crow, Chapter Correspondent. A motion was made and carried that we have a meeting at least once every two months. A motion was also made and carried that the recording scribe should take up the matter of installing other alumnus chapters in different parts of the state. The matter of building a fraternity house was gone into thoroughly and we all feel confident that Alpha Eta will have one of the best Chapter Houses in the country by Christmas. All the brothers here are determined to "stretch a point" to buy the bonds that will be issued at an early date.

On April the eighth something like sixty Pikes attended a banquet at the White House Hotel of this city given in honor of the visiting Pikes attending the State High School Track Meet. It was a most enjoyable event all the old men having a few words of encouragement and advice to say to the fellows in the active chapter.

The following is a list of the brothers in the Alumnus Alpha Tau Chapter, their occupations and addresses:

- D. M. Buie, Lawyer, Gainesville, Fla.
- M. F. Brown, Abstract Office, Starke, Fla.
- J. M. Powell, Jr., Bank Clerk, Gainesville, Fla.
- John C. Dial, Automobile Salesman, Gainesville, Fla.
- Dr. C. L. Crow, Professor of Languages, Gainesville, Fla.
- R. M. Boring, Auto Accessories, Gainesville, Fla.
- W. B. Flewellen, Farmer, McIntosh, Fla.
- William Christion, Gen. Mdse., McIntosh, Fla.
- J. B. Simonton, Stock Farmer, Micanopy, Fla.
- A. J. Cone, Farmer, Raleigh, Fla.
- E. M. Johns, Lawyer, Starke, Fla.
- Joe Musselwhite, Farmer, Melrose, Fla.
- Adolph Vidal, Farmer, Gainesville, Fla.
- B. O. Bishop, Farmer, Gainesville, Fla.
- Lonnie Haymans, Book Keeper, Gainesville, Fla.
- R. M. Swanson, Musician, Gainesville, Fla.

JOHN C. DIAL.

ALUMNUS ALPHA-CHI

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

We were all greatly pleased when we learned from Brother Smythe that our petition had been granted by the Supreme Council as Alumnus Alpha-Chi.

By degrees or rather by the hunt, seek and find method we brought to life seven II's and after several meetings we got together at a banquet. This was held Tuesday, April fifth, at the Martin Hotel. It was a success, the signing of the petition being the main feature.

Bertram Zilmer as chairman sat at the head of the table. He is a Wisconsin man, a Phi Beta Kappa, and member of an honorary Journalistic Fraternity. At present he is State Editor of "the Milwaukee Journal". Bertram recently startled the world by giving his fraternity pin to "The Best Girl in the World".

At his right sat Oscar Dahlman, graduate of Wisconsin "U" Commercial course. At present he is advertising manager of the Koehring Machine Co.

Elmer Matzek, a Beloit College man, at present is in the hospital still suffering from the effects of his excursion across the "Pond". We hope he will soon recover.

Latane Montague, also from Beloit, now Chemist at the Newport Co., is thinking of going to Washington, D. C., but we are all wishing that he will remain with us.

George Loescher is teaching at North Division High School. Besides developing a track team, also keeps himself busy teaching at night school.

Jack Follows works nights as a reporter on "The Sentinel." He is a live wire and between Zilmer and Follows the organization gets the needed publicity.

Lester Matzek is a draftsman at the Falk Co. Matzek did most of the talking at the meeting.

We have the name of another II in Milwaukee and will surely get in touch with him, he is Brother Holt from Utah. Do you know of any more brothers in Milwaukee? If so please let us know.

At the meeting we decided to act as a committee and Zilmer will act as chairman. L. E. Matzek as acting secretary.

It was unanimously decided to offer Pi Kay as our National abbreviation.

Our aim will be to help nearby active chapters in securing men and data on men up for consideration. We will also endeavor to keep their alumni active.

Our first task will be to look over the fraternities at Marquette University to see if it would be advisable to have Pi Kay represented on the campus.

Look us up if you get in the city, we are always glad to meet and greet a Pi Kay.

LESTER MATZEK.

GARNER M. LESTER.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT

Address all communications for this department to the General Office, 328-331 Trust Co. of Ga. Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., not later than the 1st of October, December, February, April and June.

Section 45, National By-Laws, requires the M. S. of each active Chapter to write Alumni Notes as well as the Chapter letter for each issue.

COME ON BOYS

There is a joy in again becoming active in the interest of Pi Kappa Alpha, that I didn't know would be so intense, especially to a man fifteen years out of college and with a group of children around his knees for diversion. Seeing me work over the news letters and clippings at home in the evenings, the dear wife has become enthused, and more sympathetic, if could be, of the things that take my mind off of business. My son, too, has become quite interested, and told his mother the other night that he is going to be a Pi Kappa Alpha, when he goes to college. He will be several years yet on the way.

When I was talking the other day with Nuchols in Charlotte, he said, "Did you get that item about Allen Thomas, Consul in Brazil, catching the Wall Street bombers?" Nuchols didn't say, "Here, Escott, is a clipping about Allen Thomas of Alpha-Alpha." When I had read the item I didn't know Thomas was a Pi Kap, so when Nuchols reminded me, I could only write snatches of the event from memory.

Ivey was surprised I hadn't seen the item in a Charlotte paper about the marriage of Merrimon Davis, Alpha-Epsilon. He reads all the social stuff, but I don't. Neither do I read the papers from all over the country. When Ivey read about Davis he should have said to himself, "I'll clip that right now and mail it to Escott. He may not know that Davis is one of our men. Or perhaps he will not see the item."

Come on, boys, get the habit. You've done fine so far, and each issue of SHIELD AND DIAMOND contains more than 250 alumnus items. This has been a big year for the Grand old family of Pi Kappa Alpha. I'm sure we'll keep marching on.

John A. Scott, Jr., (Law Tau) was in the recent session of the Legislature of North Carolina as senator from Iredell County.

Gordon Scott is city treasurer of Statesville, N. C.

BETA'S FOUNDERS

D. F. Hunter, Beta, at the luncheon in Charlotte last March, of Alumnus Upsilon Chapter, recalled and recounted pleasant memories of the time when he, with others, re-founded Beta at Davidson College in 1894. Brother Hunter recalls other charter members as follows: D. K. Pope, whom he thinks is at Oklahoma City, Dr. C. C. Orr, Asheville, N. C.; Rev. C. H. Little of Charlotte; J. C. Story of Marion, N. C.; R. S. Eskridge and Murdock McKimon.

The Manila (P. I.) Daily Times of Feb. 13 had this item:

"Mr. and Mrs. David H. Lawson announce the engagement of their daughter, Josephine, to Lieutenant Walter A. Dumas (Beta)".

Brother Dumas, who is First Lieutenant in the 31st Infantry, writes the Shield and Diamond that he has been in Manila for nearly a year, having gone down with his regiment from Siberia, and not having "seen the States for two years". He says that his wedding is to take place about May 15. He is due to return to the United States in May, 1922.

A. O. Mooneyham is in drug business at 76 E. College St., Asheville, N. C.

ZETA

UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE, KNOXVILLE

Tom Wade, of Kenton, Tenn., was here for the Founders Day Banquet and spent several days visiting with the brothers and friends on "the Hill".

S. S. Landess reports that he is farming near Fayetteville, Tenn. He always has a good word for P. K. A.

The number of alumni at the banquet March 1st showed the interest that they have in the order. Their fine spirit was an inspiration to the members present.

A special notice from El Paso, Tex., gives an account of the recent marriage of William Van Dyke Ochs, (Zeta), who is now a captain in the U. S. Army, to Miss Alice Myles, daughter of Mr. H. C. Myles, former British Consul. The bride was educated at the University of Paris and at the University of Berne, Switzerland. She is one of the most popular members of El Paso's social set, and acknowledged to be one of the most accomplished equestriennes of the southwest. Brother Ochs and wife will make their home in St. Mary's, Kan., where the groom is an instructor in military science.

R. E. BELL.

The following item is from the Knoxville Journal and Tribune.

Washington, D. C., March 5.—Knoxville people will feel a deep interest in the career of W. Frank Gibbs, formerly of Knoxville, who has been chosen as private secretary and assistant to Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. The well known former Knoxville young man is a son of the late W. Frank Gibbs, who was prominent in republican politics in Knox County for years. Mr. Daugherty's assistant attended the public schools of Knoxville, later the high school of that city and was a student at the University of Tennessee in 1913. He is a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He left Knoxville in 1913 to attend the Georgetown Law school in this city and while attending classes at night worked during the day in Senator Harding's office as assistant secretary.

He was graduated from Georgetown Law School in 1916, and continued his work in Senator Harding's office until he entered the military service during the World War. He was admitted to practice law here in 1913. He was recommended by the president of the University of Tennessee as one of its corps to attend the Third Officer's Training camp at Camp Pike. He was commissioned and served as second lieutenant of Field Artillery during the war with eleven month's service in France.

"Old Pi Kappa Alpha has left the swaddling clothes in which I knew her in college days and has bloomed out into a great big thing. I have to rub my eyes when the SHIELD AND DIAMOND comes to hand to be sure I am not reading something strange.

"I am glad to see the enlargement. No telling where the growth will stop."

"Some time again, I hope to have the joy of attending one more convention, just to see the difference between Now and Then."

Rev. William M. Anderson, D. D., Councilor Princesps 1897-1898, has been for eleven consecutive years pastor of the First Presbyterion Church of Dallas, Texas. His son, Rev. William M. Anderson, Jr., is co-pastor. This is one of the largest Presbyterian churches in the United States.

Burton Gallup is in business with his father in Holyoke, Mass.

W. L. Daniels and a party motored over from Raleigh during the recent session of the legislature, of which Brother Daniels was a member.

Stanley Winborne, of Hertford county, was in the 1921 session of the North Carolina legislature. He was prominent in support of a bill to appropriate large sums for education in the state.

UPSILON

ALABAMA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE, AUBURN.

During the 22nd of February dances, Upsilon chapter was visited by many of our recent alumni. Roy Salter, chemist for a Swift plant in southern Florida; Jack Chambers, running a large sawmill and contracting business at Athens, Ala., and Leo Walker, who is in building business in Birmingham, were all here. It was mighty good to have them all back with us; it seemed like old times—for a day or so.

Since the dances we have been visited by John Suggs, '17, who has been pitching for the Southern League. John stayed with us a night, and it was good to hear him talk and laugh again.

The best news of all is that Brother Komp, of Hattiesburg, is back with us after being out nearly a year. He was a senior last year and on account of a seriously infected foot and blood poisoning, was forced to leave about the end of the second term. Since then he has toured the North, and among other things, taken a course at Eastman College, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Here's hoping we have more alumni visitors and news to write about next time. This keeping up with the alumni is our weakest spot and we wish they'd help us out.

Dan Cupid has caused Alpha Nu to lose two brothers this year, Willard Russell and George Davis.

Brother Russell was married to Sue Slack, a student in Stephens College. The wedding took place at the chapter house and was attended by members of the sorority of which Mrs. Russell was a member, and the brothers of Alpha Nu. Brother Russell and his wife are farming in southeast Missouri.

The marriage of Brother Davis to Gladys Tydings, a student in the university and a member of the Phi Mu sorority, came as somewhat of a surprise to their friends here.

For the men listed below we wish to know what they are doing and their addresses: Wm. O. Brice, Jr., Harold Campbell, Irvin E. Carson, P. W. Chapman, Paul H. Conlan, Newton Dale, Richard E. Durrett, Walter Landon Towner, Arthur S. Udstad, George B. Hertig, Harry D. Hynds, John Marcus McCoy, James A. G. Miller, L. H. Owen, Jr., Ono W. Risk, Troy Russell, Ashleigh P. Boles.

ALPHA XI

HERBERT F. KOCH

Herbert F. Koch, the president of the Junior Chamber of Cincinnati, O., has had a career that is so varied and so full of busy events that it is only possible to record a few of them. He was born April 12, 1894. According to his own testimony, he was not a beautiful baby, but, since most babies are unable to judge their own beauty competently, his judgment on this score must be discounted considerably. In 1916, Koch received an A. B. degree from the University of Cincinnati and the following year became student assistant in political science, at the same time that he attended the Cincinnati Law School. During 1916-17 his activities were numerous. At law school he gained the Wald Contract prize and the Legal History prize. He also accepted an offer to become the executive secretary of the City Club. When the war broke out, Koch was made executive secretary of the Mayor's War Council. On February 12, 1918, he enlisted and served with the expeditionary forces in France, not returning to this country until 1919. From February until June, 1919, he was director of the Soldiers' Auxiliary Bureau. Shortly thereafter he entered the legal department of the Morris Plan Bank, and, in January, 1920, was admitted to the Ohio bar.

Koch is a member of the Tau Kappa Alpha debating fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha and Phi Alpha Delta fraternities. He is also a member of the Cincinnati Literary Club, the Social Workers' Club and the American Legion, Bentley Post.

Much of the organization of the Junior Chamber of Commerce is due to the work of Herbert F. Koch. His tireless energy, his executive ability, and his strength and enthusiasm have aided materially in putting the Cincinnati Junior Chamber on a par with the best Junior Chambers in the United States.

ALPHA OMICRON

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, GEORGETOWN, TEX.

P. B. Baker and Victor Means, who are connected with Belton high school, attended a meeting of Southwestern alumni here, February 10. The purpose of the meeting was a discussion of plans for a "Greater Southwestern."

C. M. Edens, A. B. '20, has signed with the Philadelphia American Athletics, and reported to training camp at Lake Charles, La., the latter part of February.

T. H. McDaniel, A. B. '18, has recently returned from Seattle, Wash. He has accepted a position in Chicago, Ill.

C. M. Montgomery, A. B. '13, charter member of Alpha Omicron, and at present acting district princeps, is a member of the Texas University faculty. He was with Alpha Omicron the second week in February, assisting in making plans for the building of a new chapter house, as the local chapter house was completely destroyed by fire January 30th.

M. P. Adams, A. B. '20, who is connected with the First National Bank of Cameron, was with Alpha Omicron February 19 and 20.

C. E. Triggs, A. B. '20, is working with the Triggs Dry Goods Co., Cameron, Tex.

Ernest Wiley is assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Rosebud.

J. L. Davis, of Livingston, is pastor of the Presbyterian church, and is doing a most creditable work.

Grady Spruce is connected with boys work, and secretary of the Galveston Y. M. C. A.

J. D. Foster is chairman of farm bureau work in McLennan county, Texas, and might be called a "progressive farmer."

R. E. Brown, A. B. '20, is continuing his education in Columbia University, New York City.

RICHARD GLENMORE, JR.

ALPHA PI

HOWARD COLLEGE, BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

R. E. Duke and Mrs. Duke tell us that they have a young Pi Kap in their home at Woodlawn.

H. G. Wheeler visited the chapter during the week of March 28. He is farming at his home in Arab, Ala.

Julian I. Borriss, who was with us last year, is in Auburn now.

Wilson Harris has attended several fraternity meetings during the past month. Brother Harris is always willing to help the chapter financially when we give him the opportunity.

J. Ralph Stoghill visited the chapter recently and told us of the infant days of Alpha Pi. He is an evangelistic singer and is engaged in meetings all over the South.

E. F. Day came out one Monday night with Brother Hall (president of the alumnus chapter in Birmingham) and told some interesting history of Alpha Pi during 1914. Both brothers urged every member to attend the alumni meetings when possible.

Mercer James is a frequent visitor on the campus and a loyal member of the fraternity.

ALPHA-RHO

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY, COLUMBUS.

McKinley Davis has been appointed chief of the Portsmouth, O., office of the Ohio Inspection Bureau, and will take up his new duties about the first of June.

Wallace Arnholt, now located in Columbus, visited the chapter recently.

Calvin Buehler has been elected delegate from the local chapter of the Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemical fraternity, to the national convention at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Harry R. O'Brien, the founder of our chapter, is now associate editor of the Country Gentleman.

ALPHA-SIGMA

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Of unusual interest to the brothers was one of the most prettily appointed weddings of the season at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Berkeley on the evening of March twenty-eighth, when Frank Morgan claimed as his bride Miss Helen Starke of Berkeley. The wedding was the culmination of a courtship which extended throughout the groom's college career. Frank has a position with an oil concern in the southern part of the State.

Dr. Fletcher B. Taylor is another who recently was married to Miss Gladys Robinson. The ceremony was performed at the First Presbyterian Church of San Francisco.

The marriage of Dr. Carl Hoag to Miss Josephine Green of San Francisco took place early in March.

All three of the above men were prominent on the campus and were among the most loyal of Pi Kapp's. In this brief space we take the liberty of wishing them the greatest of success.

NORMAN J. RONALD.

ALPHA-TAU

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH, SALT LAKE CITY

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS, CHAMPAIGN

Z. Freels dropped in on us very unexpectedly the other day and entertained us for a few hours with his stories of the trials and tribulations of a prosecuting attorney in East St. Louis.

We received very welcome letters from K. Pulcipher and Vic Proctor telling us how much they missed the "spirit of the fireside" since getting out into the cruel world. Also noticed a letter from "K" in the last Shield and Diamond on the fraternity "nom de plume", and we heartily agree. "Peke" is an imitation and not at all distinctive, the trouble with "Pike" is obvious, and as K. says, "Pi" does smack of the kitchen. We vote for "Pi Kap", which is about as neat and natty a nickname as we could want.

Another visitor we were glad to see is Oscar Burgess, young underwear manufacturer from Fairfield, Illinois. Oscar recently got the boys wholesale prices on a shipment of garments from the Sexton Manufacturing Company, for which we are duly thankful.

B. Barnes drops in from time to time to keep in touch with the chapter.

Announcement of the opening of the spring season of the Grandfathers' Golf Club is hereby made by Brother Winkleman, who is president of the organization. When Wink trotted over with his bag of clubs and called for competition we knew that spring was here.

BETA-IOTA

BELOIT COLLEGE, BELOIT, WISCONSIN

A recent letter from Lester Matzek, '20, stated that the Pi Kaps were organizing an alumni association in Milwaukee, and were going to start things off right with a regular Pi Kap party.

Clarence Buck, '20, recently received an appointment as government chemist, and is now in Washington, D. C.

Ralph Webb, '20, has been transferred from the factory of the Woodstock Typewriter Company, at Woodstock, Ill., to the Export Department in Chicago. He expects to be sent to South America before very long.

At the regular meeting of the Chicago Alumni Association of Beloit, Brother Charles Lamb was elected to serve on the Executive Committee for the coming year.

The latest news from Brothers Lawyer and Bardell, Beta-Iota's globe-trotters, is that we shall address mail to them at Manila, P. I.

Hollis Bush, '18, informs us that he is still at the University at Cincinnati.

Charlton Joy, 'ex 21, is employed by the Western Electric Company in Chicago.

John Follows, 'ex 23, is employed as reporter on the Milwaukee Sentinel, in Milwaukee.

EXCHANGES

An A. T. O. and a II K A were walking on a street of saloons and pawnshops in a large city. A man lounging on a corner hailed them.

"Is that an Z. Y. Z. pin?" he asked as he regarded the black maltese cross of A. T. O.

The two fraternity men were at a loss to understand the question in such a place, but they told the names of their organizations. The stronger rolled up his sleeves. Tatooed on his arm was the emblem of X. Y. Z. fraternity.

"That's all I have of it now," he said. "I graduated from an eastern university in 1891. Bad luck came and during the last year I have had scarcely any employment."

The A. T. O. and the II K A did not treat their new acquaintance to every course in a barber shop, buy him a new outfit, feed him beefsteak and get him a $3000 job. What little they did do was an atom in the great body of Pan-Hellenism, however.

A II K A, hands in pockets, stood whistling on a street corner one morning, awaiting a car. Someone spied the shield and diamond on his vest. "Good morning, brother," said the observant one and introduced himself as a fellow II K. A., just graduated from a State university. Now he is one more member for the alumnus chapter in the town where this occurred.

Neither of these incidents is related specifically to extoll the virtues of exhibiting fraternity pins on crowded streets. Both happen to be true incidents. Both reflect the current trend of the fraternity press. Pan-Hellenism and more closely knit bodies of alumni are kindred subjects in the final analysis. Perhaps the latter of the two questions received the most attention in the Hellenic magazines issued in the earlier part of this year.

Says an editorial in The Palm of Alpha Tau Omega, ever well edited:

"The movement among the alumni to organize the thousands of graduates and other non-actives and bring them into vital touch with the living fraternity is one of the most promising events connected with the recent Omaha Congress. The chapters and the officers have been trying more or less ineffectually to do that for a long time. It is one of the standing subjects for discussion at every home-coming and every session of the Interfraternity Conference. The alumni themselves are the only folks that can put this idea across, if it can be put across. The Alumni machine must be a self-starter and must carry its armful. If enough alumni want to make this machine go, it will go, as far as they make it go, and no further.

The newly-appointed committee is making a beginning by surveying the present field of alumni associations to learn just how many there are, what their status is, which are living, which have a local habitation and a name and nothing else, which ought to be treated with lime and buried. As soon as that is done, the fresh fund of material gathered in making the new directory ready for use. The next two years will show what can be done."

But, cautions a writer in The Caduceus of Kappa Sigma, "The first thing to determine in starting to get anywhere, with anything, is an objective. Mere organization, mostly for organization's sake, is no proper objective, and the more complex it becomes the more absurd it is.

"Kappa Sigma's center is among organized college men," he goes on, "but this may not be, and should not be, the boundary of its influence. It should, however, seek to hold within its organized activity all of its members for the entire length of their lives. Right now one of the main things we have to do is to put on some adult clothing to cover our adult nakedness. The garments have been provided in the form of alumni legislation. The governmental habits of the fraternity have hitherto been chiefly the garments of youth. Fifty years have developed the necessity of clothing for adults. We shall ever preserve the snappy raiment of the young for use in the active chapters; but we must now add to them the business suits, frock coats and high hats of the more mature, and more numerous alumni."

The writer goes on to advocate the full representation of alumni at the national conclaves by elected delegates from alumnus chapters.

An earlier issue of The Caduceus said that Kappa Sigma's chapters at Michigan and Wisconsin are using a monthly mimeographed letter to keep their alumni informed. The letters are not limited to one sheet, are properly paragraphed and displayed, and include alumni notes and university affairs.

"Lost alumni," says this publication, "are a disappointment and a source of nothing but trouble. Not the kind who are 'lost by graduation', as chapter correspondents are wont to say; but the men who cannot be reached by mail and who volunteer no correspondence with their chapters. How do they get that way? Chapter records should include a home address, from which letter mail will—probably—be forwarded, for every man initiated."

Sixteen members of the University of Illinois chapter of Acadia who graduated in 1910, says the Journal, agreed to return on Homecoming Day in the autumn of 1920. Six of them returned, accompanied in several instances by their wives and children. The absentees were "fined" $10 apiece and an additional $10 was assessed against the bachelors.

The sororities, too, have their discussion of graduates and how to retain their active interest. Kappa Gamma's latest issue of The Key is the "alumnae number" and it relates the activities of a member of alumnae who are making a place for themselves in the world. It has a feature, "Our Kappa Relatives," which gives biographical paragraphs concerning men and women of national and international importance who are related to Kappas. Among these mentioned is Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, whose wife was Miss Lou Henry of Kappa's chapter at Leland Stanford University.

And now for a little consideration of Pan-Hellenism.

The members of the college fraternities resident in Washington, D. C., and who have no local chapter within the district, have organized themselves into "The Wandering Greeks." Monthly meetings are held. The following fraternities have chapters within the district: At Georgetown University, Delta Chi; At George Washington University, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Theta Delta Chi, Kappa Alpha and Sigma Nu. This information comes from The Delta of Sigma Nu.

By way of The Garnet and White of Alpha Chi Rho we learn of a suggestion in The Rainbow of Delta Tau Delta that George Banta of Menasha, Wisconsin, serves as a medium in bringing together local groups, starting out as individual fraternities, and organize them as new nationals. Remarking on this, The Caduceus says there is room and need for a larger number of national fraternities. Mr. Banta is known to the fraternity world as the publisher of Banta's Greek Exchange and of a number of fraternity organs.

An article entitled "Behind the Scenes in the Inter-fraternity Conference" is printed in The Tomahawk of Alpha Sigma Phi. We quote from it:

"Last year the word went round that fraternities were to be abolished at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California. Immediately steps were taken to ascertain the facts involved, and we soon found the report was grossly exaggerated, but we were led to believe that President Wilbur had in mind a plan for their ultimate extinction. We found that he was soon to be in New York. A dinner was arranged at which he was invited as the guest of honor and the whole matter frankly discussed with him. As a result an alumni committee was appointed by our Chairman of Stanford men on the ground and in San Francisco to study the problems and co-operate with the President. Within five weeks the differences were all ironed out, a definite plan of co-operative development devised, and President Wilbur was assured the enthusiastic co-operation of the fraternity men and sorority women in working out a scheme of building development that will cover many years and place the fraternities and sororities at Stanford in their proper relation and support of the university interests. A permanent alumni committee has been organized to supervise these developments and see that the faith is kept. Team work has won in weeks what individual effort could never hope to accomplish. Yet not a member of this Committee itself had a chance to give it personal supervision, for all of us were more than five thousand miles away."

Wayne M. Musgrave of New York City, a contributing editor of the publication, was the writer of this article.

Sigma Nu is in the midst of an intensive campaign for a national, permanent endowment fund to reach the figure of $100,000 by next December. The chief purpose of the fund will be to assist in the building of chapter houses, says The Delta, where Regent Walter Edward Myers writes, "Our fraternity has become more than an association of active college men. It is now a national fraternity of alumni as well. We now have on our rolls 14,000 alumni and 2000 active men."

The Sigma Chi Quarterly has reprinted the article by E. Davenport, "What a Man Loses in Going to College," which was first published in the Saturday Evening Post. The author's argument in this article is that college men are too prone to become centered in the narrow whirl of campus life, losing their vision of the world outside. Remedies he advocates are the requirement that students pay attention to literature, the thinkers and the problems of the world, and the more effective remedy of spending a year at work between the high school and college periods or between two of the earlier years of the college course. If a personal remark be permitted, we would say that there is nothing better than the latter "remedy."

Three suggestions as to how to succeed in study are made by President Henry Louis Smith of Washington and Lee University, writing in The Delta of Sigma Nu. These suggestions, which he amplifies, are: "Systematize your daily program of work and play, limit your outside activities and be wise enough and strong enough to cut out purposeless loafing and useless recreations, and learn to study always with white-hot concentration."

Elsewhere, The Delta quotes articles concerning Errett Rodgers of Sigma Nu's chapter at West Virginia University. Walter Camp, in Collier's, praised him as "a hard-hitting back-field man, more adept at throwing the pass than any man who has played this season." The university president wrote, "Rodgers dug persistently at the laboratory to work out some particular test in which he was interested. He proved that it is possible to be a star student and star athlete, too."

The State College at Washington has a system of exchanging pledges every Wednesday evening at dinner. "The system works wonderfully," says the local reporter for The Sigma Chi Quarterly.

Princeton University, which now has over 1800 undergraduates, has decided to limit its student body to 2000. There are no fraternities there.

The University of Cincinnati has a daily "hobby hour" from 1 to 2 p. m., says The Angelos of Kappa Delta. Student clubs and committees hold meetings and there is opportunity for recreation and even for a group studying Chinese during this hour.

Alpha Tau Omega has installed a chapter at the University of Nevada, North Reno. This is the fraternity's seventy-fourth chapter. It will never go outside the confines of the United States.

Washington and Lee University, seat of $\Pi K A$'s Π chapter, is the beneficiary of \$10,000 in the will of the late Mrs. Line B. Waller of Chicago. The gift is in memory of Mrs. Waller's husband, who was a student there from 1865 to 1870, when General Robert E. Lee was president of the institution. Mr. Waller was Comptroller of Chicago when he died in 1890.

The Rev. Joseph Myers, Jr., Kappa chapter, $\Pi K A$, Transylvania University, resigned as pastor of the Budd Park Christian Church, Kansas City, Mo., recently, for an indefinite period for the study of men. He prepared to work as a laborer in a factory in pursuit of his research. His address is 120 North Brighton Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Co-eds at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, recently obtained permission from the board of Trustees to rent and establish sorority houses, after a ten-year struggle for the privilege.

President Harding has become an honorary member of Π Delta Epsilon, a national journalistic fraternity. The membership was tendered during a convention of the organization at Ann Arbor, Michigan. The President, as is known, is proprietor of the Marion (Ohio) Star.
