Efficiency Trophy

◆ THE Supreme Council announces that the Robert A. Smythe Efficiency Award will again be offered to the chapter which maintains the best record in submitting the required reports to the National Office. For a number of years this award was made but during the war it was discontinued.

A suitable plaque will be presented for permanent possession to the chapter which has the best record based on a point system. A certificate will be presented to the second and third place chapters. A record will be kept in the National Office based on the dates on which the various reports are mailed. It will be a mechanical record which does not involve the quality of any report, but the time at which the report is submitted.

A point system will be set up and the chapter with the lowest number of points will be the winner. The reports involved and the time by which each must be mailed are as follows:

1. S. C. 1 Report within five days of initiation.
2. S. C. 2 Report within five days of affiliation.
3. S. C. 3 Report within five days of election.
4. S. C. 4 Report by Oct. 10.
5. S. C. 5 Report by Oct. 10.
6. S. C. 7 Report by June 1.
7. S. C. 8 Report by June 1.
8. Historical Sketch by June 15.
9. ThC 2 Report and fees within five days of initiation.

10. Monthly financial report by the 15th of the following month. A report is due by the chapter for any month in which there is any financial transaction.

In cases where an auditing or book-keeping service is used, individual arrangements for dates of the reports should be made.

The date of the postmark will be used. One point will be charged against each chapter for each day the report is delinquent. For example, if an October financial report is mailed Nov. 18, the chapter will be charged three points.

A report as to the leaders will be made to the chapters from time to time during the year. This contest will begin officially Oct. 1, 1947, and will close June 30, 1948.

This award is named for our illustrious Pi Kappa Alpha leader, Robert A. Smythe, who served the Fraternity as its Grand Treasurer for more than four decades.

Alpha-Beta Chapter At Centenary To Be Revived

◆ ALPHA-BETA chapter, of Centenary College, Shreveport, La., will be reactivated and rechartered Sept. 16 through the absorption of Nu Kappa, outstanding local fraternal group, the Supreme Council has announced. Alpha-Beta was founded in 1902, but became inactive three years later when the college was temporarily disbanded.

Accomplished Dr. Joe J. Mickle, president of Centenary College, became a member of IKA at Southern Methodist University.

SMC-to-be is slender, individualistic J. D. "Pete" Theus, 23-year-old Air Force veteran of 2½ years in China. Theus, in his freshman year, edited the college yearbook, became vice-president of the IFC and IFC delegate to the Student Senate, served on the student publications board, and was president of the vet's dorm, in addition to becoming No. 1 of Nu-Kappa. His home is in Florida.

Other members of Nu-Kappa to be initiated are: Guy Bigham, Carl Dehn, Dan Griffith, James Johnson, A. C. Lawton, Jr., James "Jake" Long, John Luffey, J. B. McCullough, William May, Thomas Moses, L. H. Pitman, Don D. Whitaker, James T. Henry and Eugene Black.

Towering, genial Dr. George L. Sixbey, professor of literature, English, and journalism, who received his Ph.D. at Yale University, is faculty sponsor of Nu-Kappa.

The composite Sept. 16 ceremony will include initiation of Nu-Kappa actives into IKA, formal reactivation of Alpha-Beta, and a banquet. Many outstanding members of IKA, as well as original founders of Alpha-Beta, are expected to attend. Chapters participating in these ceremonies will be: Eta, Alpha-Gamma, and Gamma-Psi. Shreveport alumni are supporting the new group.

The Greater Centenary College Program, now in progress, will bring many modern structures and a fuller academic program to the campus. Total expenditures in this program will be between 5 and 10 million dollars. The enrollment at Centenary has more than doubled the pre-war total.

National fraternities having chapters at Centenary are: Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, and Lambda Chi Alpha. Sororities: Alpha Xi Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Chi Omega, and Zeta Tau Alpha. The college has invited other national groups to establish themselves on the campus.

W. T. Reveley Is Named Dean At Southwestern

◆ NEWLY-APPOINTED chaplain of Southwestern University, Memphis, Tenn., is W. T. Reveley, I.

The reception of welcome for Chaplain Reveley was held in the Pi Kappa Alpha house, and a large group of students and several faculty members were present to meet him.

Chaplain Reveley's college days were spent at Hampden-Sydney, where he was on the football, basketball and baseball teams.

From Hampden-Sydney, he went to Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Va. After pastorates at Loch Willow and Union Presbyterian churches at Churchville, Va., Chaplain Reveley entered the Army in 1944, and was assigned to the 144th Infantry Regiment. He served overseas both in the Philippines and Japan.

Lewis is working with his father, who has been in the insurance business here for several years. Lewis was a member of the faculty of the Tabor City High School last year.

IKA Joe J. Mickle Directing Centenary Building Program

By J. D. THEUS

◆ AMBITIOUS Joe J. Mickle, A.B., M.A., LL.D., assumed the presidency of Centenary College, Shreveport, La., in May, 1945. He is directing Centenary's building program.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University, where he became a member of IKA, he took his master's degree at Columbia University and also studied at the Columbia School of Business Administration. His LL.D. was awarded at Georgetown University.

He holds a Certified Public Accountant's certificate in Texas, his native state.

He has been prominent in educational work for over 20 years. From 1921 to 1941, Dr. Mickle lived in Japan. He was professor of accounting and foreign trade and also business manager of the American sponsored Kwansei Gakuin University in Kobe, Honshu, Japan.

From 1941 until April, 1945, Dr. Mickle was executive secretary of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, with headquarters in New York City.

A compelling speaker, he has been a member of the speakers group of the United Nations Association. He is a member of both the Foreign Policy Association and the Institute of Pacific Relations.

Chattanooga Is 84th Active Chapter

◆ ALPHA LAMBDA TAU local at the University of Chattanooga, Tenn., became Delta-Epsilon chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha on June 8, 1947.

The move to charter the chapter started Mar. 15 with the Founders' Day banquet of Chattanooga alumni. Dan Pullen and Gus Chamberlain, both Gamma-Eta, John U. Field, District President, and Roy D. Hickman, past president, initiated the move. They met with J. Herman Barnett and R. E. Biggers, ALT alumni, at the Read House to discuss the eligible chapter at the University of Chattanooga, namely, our local chapter. The ALT actives and alumni held a joint meeting a week later to discuss the pending move. The active chapter voted unanimously to ask for the right to petition IKA for membership.

Our request was received at the National Office, and arrangements were made for an inspection. This meeting from the National Office that we had been passed on and that we were granted permission to petition for the privilege of becoming an active chapter of turned out to be a very enjoyable evening under Col. William VanDyke Och's laudable speech which was spiced with many a good laugh. A fraternal spirit was developed between all present. The inspecting teams from Zeta, Sigma, Kappa, Omega, and Alpha-Lambda proved to us that the IKA's were the greatest set of guys living and deepened our desire to become IKA actives.

Tense days of anxious waiting followed this meeting. Word came through IKA. We wanted to install our chapter immediately after the spring semester, and so to work we went. Many an old dusty scrapbook and minute book was thumbed for past history in our frantic effort to work up the petition. We made our deadline and submitted the finished petition Apr. 17.

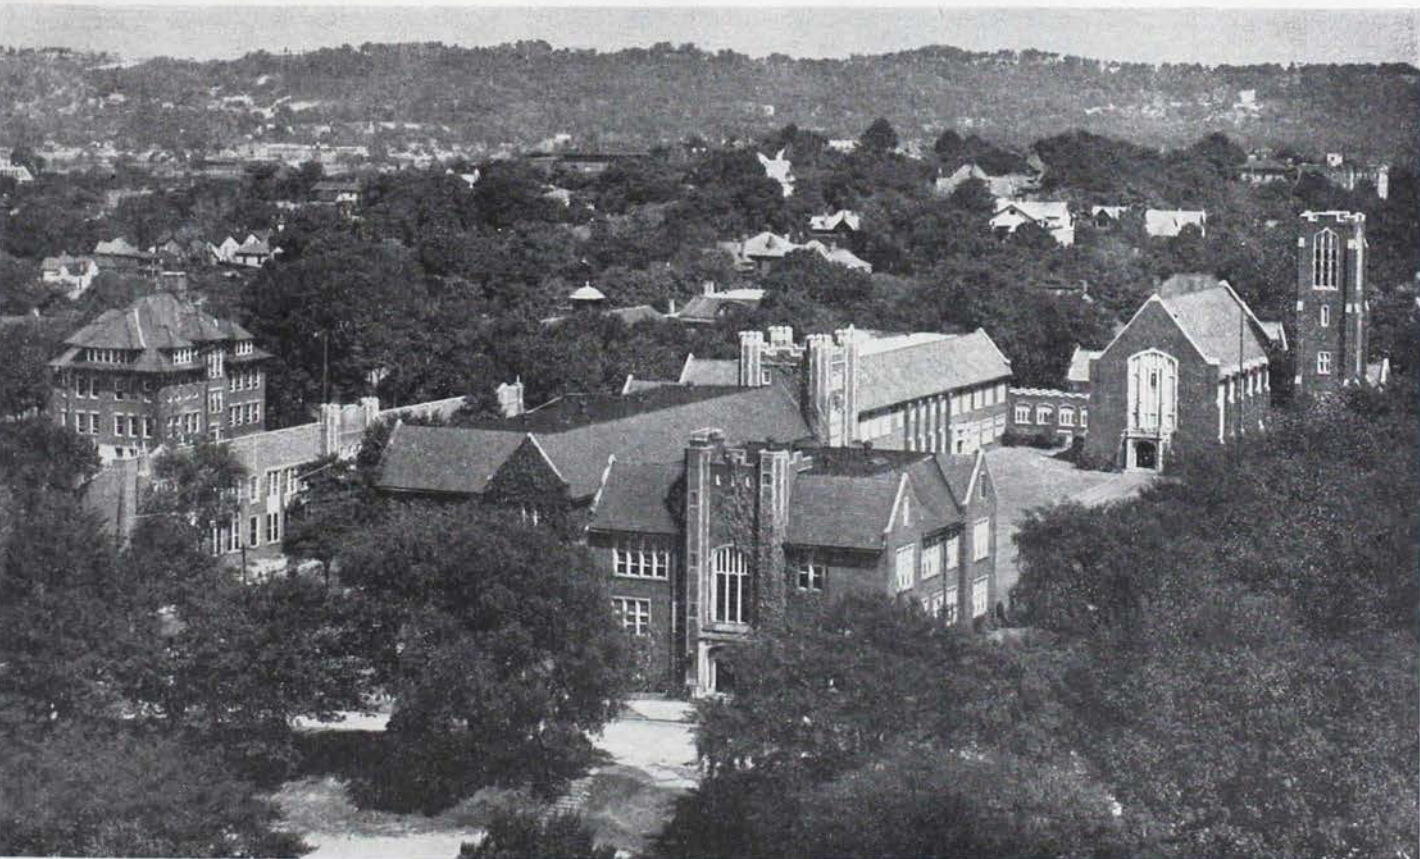

Here is an air view of part of the University of Chattanooga campus where Delta-Epsilon, Pi Kappa Alpha's 84th active chapter, was installed in June.

Sincere and anxious waiting, wondering and hoping followed this move. Would the Supreme Council, after our 21-day wait, notify us that the voting chapters had decided to accept us or would they not want us? We had built our castles in the air, and every day the fraternity house buzzed with IKA talk. It was May 27 when the letter from National Executive Secretary Robert D. Lynn reached our president, John Cullom. The word of approval left the 40 actives joyous, jubilant and happy to the core.

The date for initiation and installation was set for June 6 and 7. Our chapter would be Delta-Epsilon. Three initiation teams arrived June 6, two from Sigma and one from Zeta, to initiate the actives that day and install the officers and chapter the next day.

The initiation of all actives and alumni was completed on Friday through the splendid work of these three initiation teams. The installation of officers and chapter was completed on Saturday afternoon. Officers are John Cullom, speaker of the evening, in his most interesting and well-delivered talk, said American college fraternity spirit of brotherhood is a primary example of one of the differences between democracy and dictatorship. He praised the American college fraternity system, declaring that Hitler ridiculed the youth of America as soft, but that the young men of this nation became members of military forces which proved themselves invincible in the air, on the land and sea. Pleasant talks were made by all the speakers and each, in his turn, wished Delta-Epsilon much success in the future and congratulated us on becoming IKA.

The new Delta-Epsilon chapter presented their Dream Girl, lovely Miss Rose Andres. While Harry Au sang "Dream Girl of IKA," Miss Andrews came into the room and was greeted by a kiss from SMC Cullom.

Many other interesting events crowded the two hours, but Uncle Billy Brisco, Z, a tradition in IKA, silently awed us as we were instilled with the mighty, poignant, and lasting spirit of IKA fraternityship. He was as young and active in spirit as he was when he attended college as a boy, but his fraternal instincts had matured and become paternalistic—a thing to marvel at. The banquet came to a conclusion as SMC Cullom accepted from Hickman his personal gift of an engraved gavel. Yes, the banquet was concluded but it will always be remembered.

SMC; George Mahoney, IMC; John Bonney, ThC, and DeForrest Brooke, SC. Andrew H. Knight, National Vice-President, presided over the chapter installation ritual—the old ALT local became Delta-Epsilon chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. Our dreams were realized!

A banquet, at which 100 were present, was the final and climaxing event. The food was good and the program better. Many prominent men were seated at the speakers' table—among them were Vice-President Knight, John U. Field, Lexington, Ky., district president; Kenneth H. Tuggle, lieutenant governor of Kentucky and IKA alumnus of Barbourville, Ky.; Roy D. Hickman, Birmingham, past national president; Executive Secretary Lynn, J. F. McElwee, president of Chattanooga alumni chapter, and John Cullom, SMC.

The remainder of the evening was spent in meeting the brothers from other chapters and learning IKA songs. Many a room in the Read House was the scene of good fellowship as songs, stories, and friendships were exchanged. Brothers from Zeta, toward the end of the memorable evening, talked about relinquishing their title as the greatest party mak-

Two weeks later on Sunday afternoon a social was enjoyed by over 200 actives, alumni, pledges and their dates at the home of John Crisman, an active. It was very successful and everyone present was proud and glad to say: I'm a IKA.

Nearly Complete NIC Arrangements

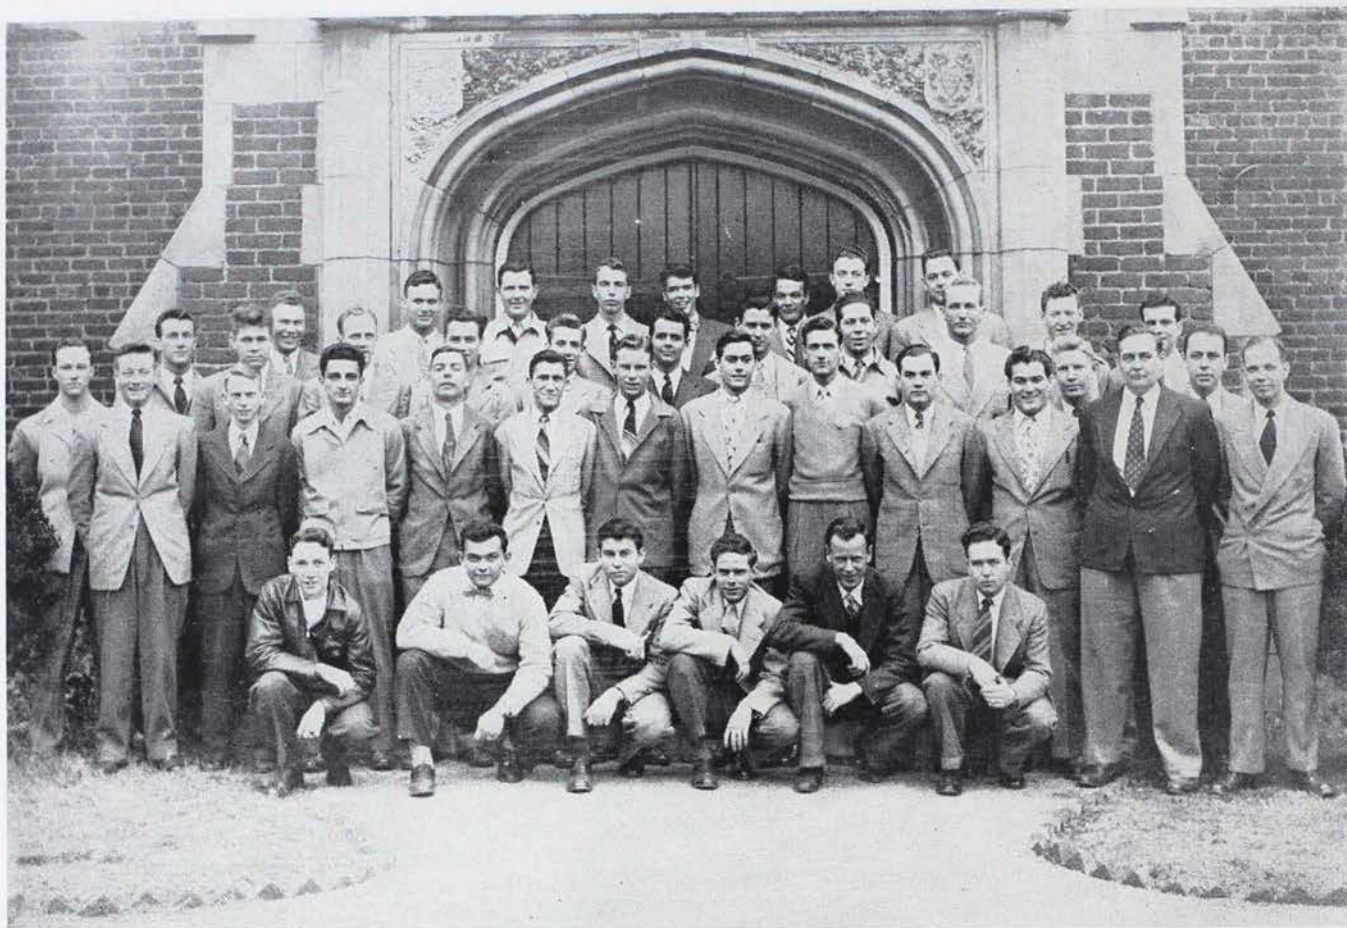

◆ PI KAPPA ALPHA will move on New York this Thanksgiving in greater numbers to attend the National Interfraternity Conference and to renew friendships in a congenial get-together.

While final details have not yet been completed, this much is definite:

1. Pi Kappa Alpha headquarters for the NIC, which will be held Nov. 28 and 29, will be at Commodore Hotel.

2. Donald Haylish, BΣ, of the H. H. Robertson Co., Chanin Building, has been asked to be chairman of a committee to arrange a IKA get-together. Albert E. Paxton, BH, Engineering News Record, 330 West 42d street, has been asked to serve on the committee, and these two to select a third member of the committee.

President Packer and Paxton, a member of the NIC executive committee, will be two of the three delegates. Another delegate and two alternates will be named. Executive Secretary Lynn and National Editor Taylor will attend.

Dr. Fincher Is Named Educational Advisor

(Editor's Note: Dr. John A. Fincher, of Howard College, Birmingham, who has recently been named National Educational Advisor, gives the following thought on what scholarship is and how one might approach it.)

By DR. JOHN A. FINCHER
National Educational Advisor

♦ ONE of the fundamentals of our Fraternity is sound scholarship. The plaques and the cup that are awarded to high ranking chapters are evidences of the Fraternity's earnestness in trying to reach that ideal. A plaque or the cup should be coveted by each chapter because all should wish to be successful students. The prize, however, should be a secondary stimulus.

A student is one who studies, but he is not necessarily a scholar. One who attains a high average according to the usual yardstick of college achievement may not be considered a scholar. Devotion to study and a desire for knowledge are fundamental in making the student a scholar. If there is any virtue in education, there is both virtue and praise in the possession of an enthusiastic and persistent passion for knowledge and understanding. One who is characterized by that possession might be classed as a scholar.

The question of how a scholarly atmosphere may be created is a difficult one to answer. The social quality of fraternity life is frequently given pre-eminence, but social life is not the chief purpose of the college or the university. It is desirable that each promote good scholarship by encouraging good study habits and frowning at poor ones.

Just studying by a schedule is not enough. The man who suggested that the best recipe for longevity is to select several generations of long-lived ancestors may have supplied a clue to the solution of the problem. Those chapters that have excelled in scholarship have in many cases had a tradition to follow, a challenge to achieve for the sake of intellectual growth and expansion. Perhaps each chapter can select pledges with good grades and intellectual curiosity and, if necessary, follow their example. The men of our Fraternity who have distinguished themselves have not done so by limiting themselves by assignments, but they have set a standard of excellence in thought and achievement and have worked earnestly toward it.

Let each of us then further justify our position on the college or university campus by cultivating a spirit of scholarship that will reflect credit upon ourselves and our Fraternity.

DR. JOHN A. FINCHER

Beta-Beta Chooses A Dream Girl

◆ WHEN Beta-Beta chooses a Dream Girl, the entire West Coast, including the movie capital of the world, knows about it!

Bing Crosby chose the winner from 79 contestants. In addition to the honor, the winner was given a trip to Hollywood where she was met by members of Gamma-Eta chapter, spent a week in the Crosby home and was honored by Tom Brenneman's Breakfast in Hollywood program.

When it was announced at Founders' Day banquet that Crosby would choose a Dream Girl and that co-eds at University of Washington would be eligible, Seattle and West Coast newspapers gave wide publicity to the contest.

Because there were so many entries and the task of choosing a winner so difficult, Crosby eliminated all but five contestants a week before the Dream Girl formal at exclusive Sand Point Country Club on May 17.

Pictures of the five girls were carried in Seattle newspapers and their names broadcast from Seattle radio stations. Their pictures were featured by their individual photographers.

On the day of the dance, the five finalists were guests at cocktails and dinner and received orchids and compacts from Brenneman. The famous caricaturist Fritz Zillig made drawings of the five during dinner and these sketches were hung in the ballroom for the dance.

The girls were interviewed on the Philco broadcast from KJR and during the broadcast a telegram arrived announcing Miss Margaret McCurdy, of Wapato, Wash., as winner. She was given a sweetheart pin, a radio and the plane tickets to Hollywood.

Margaret is 21, a member of Sigma Kappa, and is a junior majoring in general studies in the college of arts and sciences.

With her sister as companion, Margaret left on June 18 over United Airlines for Hollywood. She received a royal sendoff from Beta-Beta, her Sigma-Kappa chapter, as well as from Glen Nygreen, departmental head of the Office of Student Affairs at the university, and Ivar Hagland, publicity director for the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, who gave her a selection of choice Puget Sound delicacies, including a 37-pound red king salmon, to present to Bing.

Jean Albi, BB, at left, announces the winner of the Dream Girl contest. Ed Milburn (that man, again) is ready to pin the Sweetheart Badge to Margaret, who holds a radio she received as a gift.

Her picture appeared in all three Seattle papers.

Also there to see her off were representatives of Gamma-Eta chapter at the University of Southern California, and of Gamma-Xi chapter at the Washington State College.

She was greeted in Hollywood by Crosby and a large portion of the Gamma-Eta chapter.

While there, she visited with many noteworthy stars, among whom were Claudette Colbert, Irene Dunn, Wallace Beery, Joel McCrea, Betty Hutton and Tom Brenneman.

She dined at Slapsie Maxie's, the Turf Club, Earl Carroll's, Tom Brenneman's, and lunched with Wally Westmore on the set of a new picture.

She saw the races at Englewood with the Crosbys. She also saw the stage play, "Blackout," and others.

She returned on the 28th of June, tired but happy.

Since the reorganization after the termination of hostilities, Beta-Beta has grown from five to 22 actives and has 20 pledges in its present class.

Men initiated recently include Jean Albi, Bill Astel, Ron Carden, Ed Freeborg, Bill Kenworthy, Bill Luke, Joe McGuinn, Enar Magnuson, Ed Milburn, Stan Olsen, Hal Oswald, Orland Pederson, Bob Smith, Jack Stickles, Hillis Tilger and Dave Woodbridge.

The first large party showed that the chapter has the right spirit, for everyone pitched in and helped with the decorations and other party necessities and made it a real success. The chapter rented the Forrest Park country clubhouse, and the theme of the IKA Town and Country club was carried out to perfection. Decorations included a putting green, golf clubs, rules and regulations (followed religiously) and of course the ever-present refreshment bar.

The following officers served last semester: SMC Dean Bigby, IMC Bob Smith, ThC Joe McGuinn, MC Ed Freeborg and SC Ron Carden.

20 Years' Time Proves Value Of Fraternity Life

(Dr. William Clayton Bower, K, of Lexington, Ky., gave the following address at the Founders' Day dinner at Lexington. Because so many requests have been received for copies of the address, the inspiring message is being printed in full.)

◆ I WAS glad to accept the invitation to address you tonight for two reasons. The first is that it affords me an opportunity to express my personal debt to Pi Kappa Alpha, as a member of Kappa chapter in this city more than 20 years ago.

The second is that 20 years away from the fraternity affords one a perspective in which to assess fraternity experience. At this distance and in that perspective I think of fraternity life as an adventure in friendship. Whatever other advantages accrue to one in his college days and his after-college experience, this is the one that through the long vista of the years seems to me to be most enduring and significant.

One of the greatest assets of college education, too frequently overlooked by both educators and students, is one's association with fellow-students. Education is more than the cultivation of the mind. It is the education of the whole self—the intellect, the emotions, and the will, together with those appreciations and values that give meaning to one's life, a rational and consistent worldview, and an organizing center of one's many-sided and often unrelated experiences. Similarly, a college or university is more than a collection of buildings on a campus, laboratories, library, formal classroom instruction, or a distinguished faculty. As the president emeritus of this university has reminded us in his notable volume, The University Is a Place—a Spirit. In its ideal aspect, the university is a fellowship of mature and immature scholars. It is a community of learning in which faculty and students share their quest for knowledge, their enthusiasm, and their ideals.

As the social psychologists have reminded us, the self is a social product.

It does not develop in isolation. It is only in interaction with the objects of the external world, and especially with other persons and social groups, that one becomes a person. Personality in its fullest dimensions is the result of participation in social relationships. One's personal growth is measured by the number of these relationships which he consciously discerns and intelligently fulfills.

It is for this reason that one's association with his fellow-students is an incalculable asset in college and university education. The value of such association with vital and dynamic teachers has long been understood. But it is doubtful whether one during his university experience is aware of the educative value of his association with fellow-students in the university community. And yet in retrospect this association is often and best long remembered as the most valuable phase of college experience.

The reasons for this are not far to Margaret and her sister, Virginia, are surrounded by IKA's, Chamber of Commerce officials, representatives of the University of Washington and well-wishers as she prepares to board the plane for the trip to Hollywood.

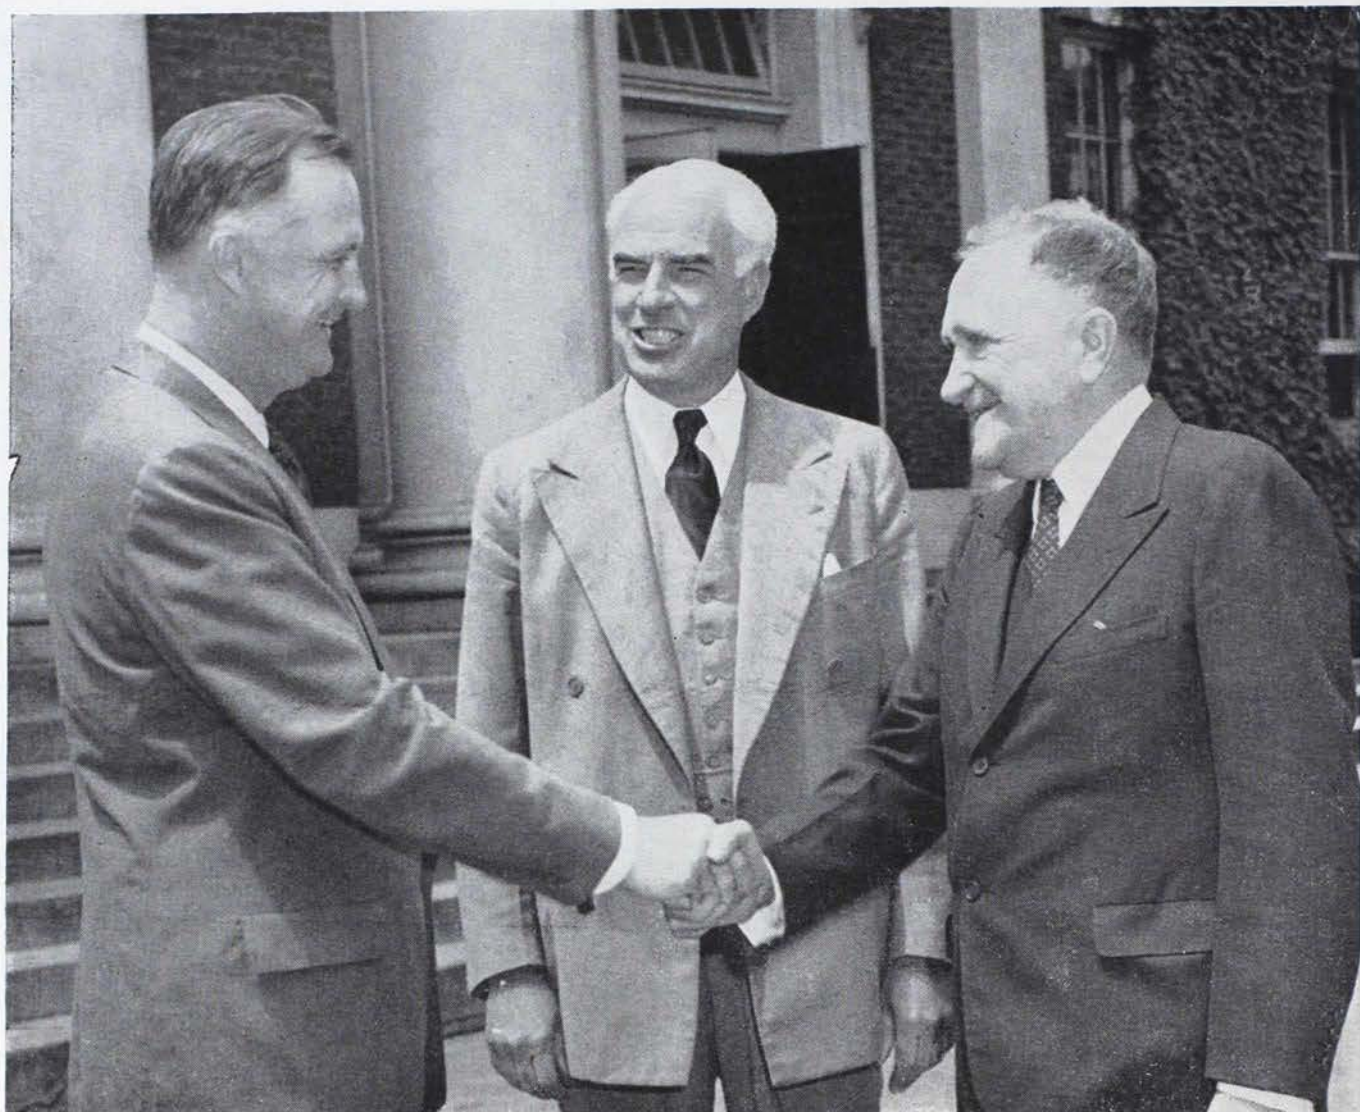

seek. In the college community one has the opportunity of associating with a large number of persons of widely differing experience. These persons come from different cultural backgrounds. This is especially true in a cosmopolitan university community which draws students from different sections of our own country with their diverse cultural inheritances and ways of life. The student is especially fortunate if he is able to have association with students from other races and cultures than his own. Among his fellow-students one finds persons with many different interests, both personal and vocational, from his own. Not least important, he comes into contact with many divergent intellectual, economic, political, and religious points of view. These all make for the deepening of insights, the widening of perspectives, and sympathetic understanding that is more than tolerance. If, as we are coming to see, differences are assets and not liabilities, these differences are means for examining the too-often-unexamined ideas and values which one in his provincialism uncritically holds. Herein is one of the ways by which one is liberated from his prejudices and becomes a cosmopolitan—both fundamental characteristics of the liberally educated man. Moreover, it is exciting to realize that sitting next to you may be an Einstein, a Whitehead, a Robert Frost, or an Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Now the genius of the fraternity, as I see it, is to take this casual association of the campus and organize it consciously and intentionally as a venture in friendship, so that what otherwise might be only incidental may become highly productive in the education of the student. This the fraternity does in a number of ways of which I shall indicate only a few.

The fraternity provides an intimate, face-to-face association in a small sustained and sustaining social group. In a large group the individual tends to get lost in the multitude of general and ♦ JOHN R. HORTON, B and AP, has assumed duties in the national office at Atlanta as Alumni Field Secretary and War Memorial Campaign Director.

Born July 14, 1917, in Albemarle, N. C., he was graduated from the high school there and spent one year there as post-graduate student and assistant to the principal.

He was initiated into Beta chapter Feb. 14, 1935, and served as IMC and rush captain for two years. He received a B. S. in business administration at Davidson in 1938.

For the following three years he was with General Motors Acceptance Corp. in offices at Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Knoxville. The following three years were spent in the Army Air Forces as administrative NCO. One of these years was in the Philippines.

In the fall of 1946, Horton entered

Chapter Eternal

DR. WALDO E. GRIMES

◆ A CEREBRAL hemorrhage brought death to one of the fraternity's most outstanding educators May 23, 1947, when Dr. Waldo E. Grimes, 55, head of the department of economics and sociology at Kansas State College, passed away.

Just a year earlier, President Milton S. Eisenhower of Kansas State had organized and presented an anniversary dinner in honor of Doctor Grimes, who gave the college 25 years of outstanding service. He was head of the department of agricultural economics from 1941 until his death, and also directed the economics and sociology program for the last ten years of his life.

Doctor Grimes also served as acting dean of agriculture and acting director of the Kansas Agricultural Experimental Station in 1934-35, and as a visiting professor at the University of Chicago during the spring quarter of 1939.

Doctor Grimes was outstanding as an administrator and a research director, in addition to his role as teacher. He also was active in religious and civic projects.

The author of two books and nearly 50 articles, Doctor Grimes' loss was a severe blow to the college. Said President Eisenhower: "I cannot possibly express my own sense of personal loss. He was an intimate friend and a valued counselor. Generations of students have benefited from his great mind and heart."

Doctor Grimes' life was exemplified by his motto: "There is no limit to the amount of good a man can do if he does not care who gets the credit."

He was initiated in to IKA by Alpha Omega chapter in 1919, when a young instructor at Kansas State, and had since been active as an advisor to the active chapter and as a member of the alumni group. Since 1927, he had been secretary-treasurer of the Pi Kappa Alpha House association at Kansas State.

He belonged to many honorary and professional organizations, holding office in several.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ethel Grimes, a son, Theodore, who is president of the pledge class at Kansas State, and two daughters, Miss Sarah Grimes and Mrs. Rosethel Elder, of Fort Collins, Colo. A second son, Waldo Eugene Grimes, was killed in a flying accident last fall.

JAMES T. HUMPHREY

◆ JAMES THOMAS HUMPHREY, II, a student at the T. C. Williams Law School of the University of Richmond, was killed June 25 in an automobile accident in Surry County, Virginia, when on his way from his home in Rushmere to attend classes. He was a graduate of Washington and Lee.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Pegram W. Humphrey, and two sons.

— IKA —

JUSTICE GEORGE L. BROWNING

◆ JUSTICE George Landon Browning, A, an associate justice of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals since 1930, died Aug. 26 in a Richmond, Va., hospital where he had been a patient for several weeks.

A member of a distinguished Virginia family, Justice Browning was born Apr. 3, 1867, and was the son of John Armistead Browning, of Rappahannock County, and Mary Lewis Willis. His mother was a direct descendant of Betty Washington, sister of General George Washington.

He married Feb. 28, 1906, Mrs. Evelyn Byrd Hill Ransom, who died in 1940 in the home at Orange. A communicant of the Episcopal Church, he was senior warden emeritus of St. Thomas Church, Orange. A member of the House of Delegates of Virginia from 1912 to 1916, he also served on the Board of Visitors of Virginia Military Institute. He was a thirty-second degree Mason.

CHARLES A. PHIPPS

◆ CHARLES A. PHIPPS, AΔ, an engineer with the long lines department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. for 20 years, died March 24, 1947, at his home at Hartsdale, N. Y., following an operation. He was 44 years of age.

He was born in Newcastle, Pa., and was graduated from the George School of Technology in 1924. He was a member of the honorary engineering fraternity Tau Beta Pi in addition to IKA.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Carolyn Magill Phipps; a daughter, Miss Sarah Louise Phipps, and a son, Charles A. Phipps, Jr.

CHARLES FORBES DODD

◆ CHARLES FORBES DODD, 18, a freshman at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and a pledge of Delta-Gamma chapter, died by drowning May 18, 1947.

Dodd pledged to IKA just two weeks before his death. A fine student in the college of arts and sciences, he served as a freshman reporter on the university publication, The Student.

University memorial services in his honor were held in the Memorial Presbyterian Church on May 25, in Oxford. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dodd, of Parma, Ohio.

Keen Competition Expected For Riculfi Trophy

◆ COMPETITION is expected to be keen this year for the Riculfi award which will be presented to the chapter having the best athletic record.

The cup was awarded last year to Gamma-Omega at the University of Miami, Fla., and Alpha-Epsilon at North Carolina State.

Gamma-Omega, one of the younger chapters, has always been well-represented in athletics there, both varsity and intramurals. At Raleigh, J. F. Miller, director of athletics, said "I started a regularly organized program of intramurals in 1924. We have 14 fraternities participating. The Sigma-Nus won the year's trophy the first year and the Pikas have dominated the thing ever since."

"The Pikas are entitled to this success until other frats put as much into it," Miller continued. "Intramurals has become a tradition with the Pikas. Woe be to the group that lets that year's cup slip. The alumni follow their progress just as intently as they are following that 'championship basketball team' we have this year."

Every chapter should designate one person to collect all athletic data and have it ready to send when called for by bulletin from the national office.

Dillon Graham, who has followed IKA athletics for many years as a sports writer, will be chairman of the committee to select the Riculfi cup winner. He also will head a committee to name the All-IKA football team. The same person who keeps athletic data for the Riculfi trophy should also keep facts on the football players. This information, too, will be asked for by bulletin.

The Riculfi cup will be awarded next month on intramural athletic participation for the school year 1946-47. The All-IKA football team will be chosen from performance during the 1947 season.

Assistance of district presidents, alumni, sports writers and football enthusiasts are invited to send football information and newspaper clippings to THE SHIELD AND DIAMOND during the present season. Clippings about IKA's playing professional football also are invited. Names of coaches and their records are needed, too.

The form in this page may be used in sending information to THE SHIELD AND DIAMOND for the football record. Anyone is eligible to contribute this information.

Alpha-Zeta Points Way In Athletics

By JAMES M. GARDNER
Alpha-Zeta Chapter

♦ IT IS SELDOM that a fraternity chapter contributes so much to varsity athletics as did Alpha-Zeta on the University of Arkansas campus last year.

It is only right to first mention the all-time great end of football, Alton Baldwin of Hot Springs, Ark., who not only was All-American on the Associated Press second football team and All-Southwest Conference first team, but was voted outstanding Razorback for the year 1946-1947. This honor came only after showing that degree of skill necessary to win the respect and praise of teammates, coaches and football fans. Alton's teammates who were IKA's included: Team Captain Joyce Pipkin, Bud Canada, Dale Counce, James Hager, and Charles "Chuck" Lively, who was honorable mention on the Associated Press football team. With this lineup and a little aid from the remainder of the team, the IKA's won the co-championship of the Southwest Conference and battled LSU to a scoreless tie in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's day, 1947.

Being outstanding in football did not overshadow the Pike stars in basketball. Six-foot 10-inch George Kok of Grand Rapids, Mich., was second high scorer in the Southwest Conference with a total of 192 points in ten games. George was named on the Transradio All-Southwest Conference basketball team and was placed on second team of the Southwest Conference. Brother Kok, a junior this year, will be the sparkplug for next year for the U. of A. cagers. Other IKA's on the team to help put the Razorbacks in second place in the Southwest Conference were John Campbell and Tony Byles.

Third on the list of sports at the U. of A. is track, which found the position of mile runner held down by Harold Measel. Harold set a new record for the mile at the university and made his contribution to set Arkansas in third place at the conference track meet. Mitchel Young did his bit as well as a miler.

For the first time in many years, Arkansas boasted one of the finest baseball teams in this part of the country. And no greater player was found than "Chuck" Lively. Resting up from the gridiron of last fall, Chuck's batting helped place the team on the win list in many of the games.

Not only did the chapter have a full house of lettermen on the various varsity teams, but the coaching staff likewise felt the impact of IKA influence. Football line coach was Hobart Hooser, who came to Arkansas with head football coach John Barnhill from Tennessee. At the head of the junior basketball team was A. B. Bradley who coached his team to the championship of the Arkansas Independent Tournament and a season of only two defeats. The business manager of the Arkansas Athletic Department was Glenn Rose, who had coached basketball previously at Arkansas and produced some of the greatest teams of all times.

While the varsity teams marked up victories, the remaining IKA's were doing likewise in intramurals. Finishing first in one of two football leagues, the boys of IKA advanced to the playoff and came out fourth. In basketball, only the combined force of independents from Veteran Village forced the cagers of IKA to third place. Coming up strong in softball, nothing on the campus could hold back the wave and first place was captured by the team wearing the colors of Garnet and Gold. With contestants in boxing, wrestling, tennis, golf, and ping-pong doing their share, IKA captured third place in intramurals for the second year. Track star Harold Measel was intramural manager and sports manager for the Pi Kappa Alpha teams.

No list of contributions to athletics would be complete without mentioning the boys on the sideline, forever supporting their teams and shouting them on to victory. The Arkansas Booster Club, official booster organization for the Razorbacks, had among their membership no less than 21 ΠΚΑ's with Virgil Perkins as treasurer and James Fraser as pledge master. As one of the cheerleaders, Buddy Teague played no small share in organizing the student body in backing the university teams right down the line to victory. In passing, the boys in the Razorback band should come in for their share of the praise. It was often the inspiring music that spirited up the boys to the pitch needed to fight and win. Dale Dunn, John Sandford, and Marvin Johnson contributed their share to the fighting Razorbacks from the Ozarks by playing in the band and excelling in performance.

The foregoing article has only touched one phase in which Alpha-Zeta of Pi Kappa Alpha is contributing to the University of Arkansas. In every field ΠΚΑ's are found doing their best, bringing more honor and fame to their school, their fraternity and their fellowmen.

Tau Student Experiences Both Jap and German War Measures

By DIXIE DAVIS

♦ WHEN Kenneth Merritt, T, University of North Carolina student from Fort Pierce, Fla., was only 11, he was chased out of China by the Japs. Just prior to his 14th birthday, German air raids caused him to leave Bristol, England. In fact, during the last nine years, he has traveled approximately 30,000 miles, most of which were at sea and under none too safe circumstances.

Today Ken is following in the footsteps of an older brother who studied here many years ago. He is majoring in journalism and plans to take additional courses in international relations. The reason for this is quite difficult to understand. It seems that he still wants to travel.

Ken was born on Aug. 26, 1926, in Weihaiwei, China, a small seaport on the Yellow Sea. His father was an American employed as a Far Eastern director of the British-American Tobacco Company. His mother was the daughter of an English missionary. Shortly after the arrival of this new addition, this family, which included two older sons, moved to Hankow in Central China. In 1937, when the Japanese attack on China became imminent, Ken and his mother were transported to the international settlement in Shanghai.

It was here in August of the same year that all the excitement first entered this boy's life. During the latter part of that month, Japanese naval forces began shelling the Chinese section of the city.

"I remember it all quite well," Ken says, "for I celebrated my 11th birthday in the midst of it. Thousands of Chinese had crowded into the city for safety. The entire place was nothing less than a madhouse. From our window in the Park Hotel, we could see truckloads of wounded soldiers and civilians being evacuated. After a few days, the Japs and Chinese declared a truce so that all neutrals could get out of the city. Naturally, most were women and children. We boarded the tender which carried us out to the steamship President Coolidge. The sea was so choppy the Coolidge wouldn't lower any kind of stationary ladder. All of us had to crawl aboard by means of rope ladders. Incidentally the ship was anchored near the naval vessels which were shelling the city. We were close enough to see Japs scurrying about on deck."

The Coolidge took Ken and his mother to the Philippines. "Just in time to get caught in the earthquake they had that year," Ken says. "It wasn't too serious though," he continued. "I remember one big, fat woman in a green dress. During the 'quake, she scrambled under a bench. All I could see was a huge, green posterior."

After only a few months in the Philippines, the itinerant Merritts went to Hong Kong, where they were reunited with Mr. Merritt. The reunion was short-lived, however, for Ken soon went to England where he entered Clifton College, a prep school in Bristol. Although he was American, his family had very little connection with the United States. His father had been away from America most of his life; but Mrs. Merritt had many friends and relatives in the United Kingdom. For this reason, Ken was sent there for schooling.

In 1940, when the Germans began bombing the British Isles, Ken packed his bags and departed. After flying to Genoa, he boarded an Italian ship, the Conte Verde, which took him to Hong Kong. Displaying an English accent that six years in the United States have not been able to erase, Ken says, "You must remember that Italy was not at war with the Allies when we reached that country. The Conte Verde carried us through the Suez Canal past India—we stopped at Bombay—on to Singapore and then to Hong Kong."

Ken managed to remain there for roughly a year. In mid-1941, when it became obvious that Hong Kong would soon be in trouble, he and his mother, along with several thousand other American and British refugees, boarded the liner Empress of Asia which was bound for the United States. "It was not easy," says Ken, "to leave my father and older brother behind. They eventually landed in Stanley prison camp, one of the most Pi Kappa Alpha's No. 1 basketball player last season was All-American John Hargis, of the University of Texas. Here he's demonstrating his flashy dribbling form. He hopes to make a name in professional basketball.

Jumping Johnny, Texan Longhorn, Makes All-America Basketball Team

By HAROLD I. THOMAS
Alpha-Iota and Beta-Mu Chapters

◆ ON THE University of Texas campus IKA is going strong, and Beta-Mu's John Hargis added to the laurels of the fraternity with his achievements on the varsity cage squad.

"Jumping Johnny," the slender, high-scoring Longhorn forward, is another in a line of T.U. "accidental" athletic heroes. Having come to the university to play baseball, the basketball was purely accidental. But last year, he made All-American on the teams of the Humes Athletic Association and True Magazine.

Johnny got a headstart on this honor with his outstanding work in the Steers' pre-conference tour of New York and Chicago and followed it up by being voted as the outstanding man in the Oklahoma City All-College tournament. One of the best games of the season pitted Jumping Johnny against another IKA, George Kok, when the Steers took one and defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Hargis began his basketball in typical Texas style, on an outdoor court, at the age of 13, in his native Nacogdoches, Texas. After being graduated from high school he came to the University of Texas in 1940 to play baseball, but he caught attention in frosh basketball by outscoring better known high school stars.

In 1943 he averaged about 18 points per game, specializing in quick, sharp one-handed shots from within the free throw circle. His leaping one-handers always appear to lack sufficient arch, but unerring accuracy makes arching the shot unnecessary. He was an All-Southwest Conference choice in '43 before he left for the service, and led the Steers to a share of the league title and to the National Collegiate playoffs. The Steers lost here to the eventual champions, Wyoming, but not before Hargis had set a two-game scoring record of 59 points.

In 1943 John entered the Marine Corps and went overseas as an infantry officer. He married a Texas co-ed in 1944 and is the father of a young son. Hargis, who has just graduated, has hopes of playing pro basketball and has long-range plans for building and operating a boys' summer camp.

Jim Rausch Wins Athletic Honor At George Washington University

By JOHN G. BURKE
Delta-Alpha Chapter

◆ BY FAR the most outstanding athlete at George Washington University this year is Delta-Alpha's own Jim Rausch.

Jim, who at present is captain of the Colonial basketball team, has won more honors this past season than most basketballers earn in the full course of their four years in college.

A senior who has returned to the university this year after serving three years in the Marine Corps, he is known to Washington sports fans as "one of the hardest playing, most aggressive ball players ever to perform on local courts." He has one of the finest set shots on the team, and is one of the best defensive players ever to wear the Buff and Blue.

He recently received the trophy as the outstanding basketball player on the GWU team, was elected to the Gate and Key Honor Society, and was selected to the All-Southern basketball team. In 1942, before entering the service, he was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges.

Rausch was born in Evansville, Ind., 24 years ago—and has been active in sports for at least 16 of those years. And while athletics were originally his big notorious of Japanese concentration camps. They stayed there for nine months before they were repatriated on the Gripsholm. Dad lost 30 pounds and had a severe case of malnutrition when he arrived in the States."

When the Empress reached Vancouver, Ken was not happy; but he did feel lucky. He says, "I realize we got here just in time. Only a few days after we reached America, the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor and the entire Pacific was placed in a state of war. But, after all, Hong Kong was my home and it's quite difficult to feel any happiness when forced to leave home under these circumstances."

This 20-year-old junior entered the university in June, 1945. He is fond of this small village, but says, with sincerity in his voice, "Strangely enough, nothing that has happened in the past makes me want to settle down in one spot. Some day I hope to be in foreign service for the State Department, because I still want to travel. You know, I'd love to go back to Hong Kong. That's the most beautiful place I've ever seen."

gest hobby, he now intends to make them his profession.

Now 5 feet 11 inches tall, with 180 pounds of pure muscle, Jim has acquired a speed and accuracy which frequently baffles his opponents.

He is majoring in physical education and aside from his school work he is now teaching that subject in one of Washington's elementary schools. As early as 1940 he was physical education instructor at another local school, and two years later became baseball coach at a private institution.

Although an officer in the Amphibious Marines, a branch of the service reputed to be among the toughest, Rausch was not wounded while on duty in the Pacific—until after hostilities had ceased.

It seems that not long after the Japanese surrendered, his unit was out on beach maneuvers. A tidal wave came up and overturned a number of the "attacking" vehicles on shore. The tractor which Jim commanded was one of these, and when a count was taken it was discovered that the incident had left him with a fractured arm.

However, this unhappy turn of events turned out not to be so unhappy after all, for because of his injury Jim was soon flying back to the States.

Since 1942, at which time Jim was initiated into the Delta-Alpha chapter, he has been as active within the fraternity as on the campus. In interfraternity softball, he more than did his share in winning for the chapter the GWU championship in 1942. Since his return seven months ago, he has striven constantly to maintain for Delta-Alpha the highest possible athletic ratings. But aside from sports he has contributed much to the welfare of the fraternity in general. He has held the office of IMC and was recently elected to the position of SMC. He has also been vice-president of the Interfraternity Council, and a representative of the Student Council.

Modest in every sense of the word, Jim is very reluctant to describe in detail his adventures on the courts and it is only by sheer persistence and a few newspaper clippings on the side that one is able to discover what has transpired in past years to make him the hard player and the leader he is today. His experience and his training have been extensive, to be sure, but most contributive of all to his success is his fighting spirit, his unflinching will, and his strong sense of fair play.

Alpha-Theta Sheds War-Time Doldrums

◆ ALPHA-THETA chapter is definitely back after the wartime doldrums, and things are humming at the 20-room chapter house at Campus Drive and McLane Avenue.

Last semester, Alpha-Theta had 45 actives and 13 pledges, and financially was in the best shape ever, due to the help of Alumnus Counselor Robert I. Burchinal, who has assisted in handling financial matters.

The chapter's new house mother is Mrs. Nellie B. Evans, of Republic, Pa. Mother Evans was introduced at a reception for other fraternities and sororities at West Virginia University.

The varsity basketball team captured fourth place in the nation at the New York national tourney, losing only to Utah and North Carolina State. Alpha-Theta had five men on the varsity cage squad. Leland Byrd, named by Sport magazine as one of the eight leading

50 Live In House At Missouri Mines

◆ THE Missouri School of Mines enrollment is at an all-time high of over 2,000, and Alpha-Kappa now numbers 53 actives and 12 pledges. Fifty of these men are living in the house.

The final dance of the spring semester was held in early June, and was a week-end affair. Saturday afternoon the chapter went to Montauk State Park. That night everyone was back at the chapter house dancing to the music of Charlie Faulkner's orchestra. Another successful social event was the get-acquainted smoker Feb. 6.

New pledges of Alpha-Kappa include Edward Kyburz, William Elting, Leslie Smith, John Riley, Robert Bender, William Horst, Charles Jeckel, William Morisseau, Melvin Ottensmeyer, Melvin McKinney and Avery Drake.

New officers include Wayne Gollub, SMC; Robert Kreutzer, IMC; Arthur Bush, ThC; Richard Gibson, SC; Richard Sartorius, house manager; Bob Rutledge, MC; Ted Wolfarth, pledge master; Jim Billiard, MS, and Stan Johnsen, historian.

In intramural sports, IKA won first in boxing and second in wrestling. In basketball, the chapter finished fourth, and in track, sixth.

players in the nation, led the team. Pledge Clyde Green, Jimmy Walthall, Pledge Bill Chaff and Pledge Buck Thompson also were on the Mountaineer squad. Walthall, William Brown and Pledge Alva Richmond are being counted on to spark this fall's grid team.

New initiates include Don and Bill Gorby, Bob Scott, Norris Garman, Gerald Titus, Lowell Newsome, Tom Thompson, Dick Bates, Norwood Belcher, Dick Bawly, Gene Crookshank, Okey Harper, Arnold Jeffers, Charles Kirsh, Wendell Patter, Alva Richmond, George Neill, Gerald Robinson, Bob Williams, Bill Spangler and Scotty Tarr.

Chapter officers include J. Lyle Taterson, SMC; Woody Bare, IMC; Dick Jones, ThC, and Jim Scott, SC.

Biggest social event of the year was April 25—the annual spring formal at the Morgantown Recreation Center.

Winter Formal Tops Alpha-Tau Events

◆ HOLIDAY activities at the Alpha-Tau house in Salt Lake City were highlighted by the annual Winter Formal held on the roof of the famous Hotel Utah. Crested bracelets were given as favors and a New Year's theme was uniquely carried out. Dean Buehler, social chairman, was in charge of the affair.

A Christmas party given at the house on Dec. 13 was also a huge success. The new initiate class sponsored the affair which was highlighted by the entrance of Santa Claus down the chimney with gifts for all, and a turkey raffle, which by the way, paid all expenses for the party besides providing a suitable gift from the initiate class to their senior actives. Initiate president Frank Matheson, Eldon Holbrook and John Larson directed the affair. A huge tree and red and green decorations throughout the house set the atmosphere for the function.

The campus humor magazine, The Unique, came out just prior to Christmas. The magazine, a huge success, was almost entirely a Pi Kappa Alpha publication. The editor, Huck Gregory, was former Alpha-Tau SMC and the remainder of the male staff was predominantly IKA's.

Marriages and pin hangings have been most numerous during the past months. SMC Don Noorda hung his pin on Tri Delt Nathalie Hubbard and Gordy Walton fastened the clasp over Pi Phi Carol Jex's heart, among many others. Among those making the fatal step were Joe Hughes who repeated vows with Alpha Chi Jeanne Matheson, Jay Jex who slipped the gold band around Tri Delt Natelle Nichols' dainty third finger, and Don Sansom who carried Alpha Phi Barbara Sims over the threshold.

Alpha-Tau chapter has taken more than their share of the good boys on the campus with a pledge class of approximately 20 now doing duties. The recent initiate class was some 16 strong.

Alpha-Lambda Entertains 500 At Party For Secretary Lynn

By ROSS GUGEL
Alpha-Lambda Chapter

◆ APPROXIMATELY 500 guests were entertained at Alpha-Lambda chapter's open house in honor of Robert D. Lynn, executive secretary of Pi Kappa Alpha, April 11 at Georgetown College.

Following a tour of the house the guests were served refreshments by Mrs. Frances Reed, housemother, and Mrs. Romie Judd, wife of Dr. Judd, AA, chapter advisor. The entertainment theme was "Music Familiar to Everyone."

Following the regular open house the chapter held a private reception in honor of Mr. Lynn and John U. Field, eighth district president, in the chapter room.

On April 12, Alpha-Lambda held its annual spring formal at the Lafayette Hotel's Gold Room in Lexington, Ky. Dinner music was provided by Vilem Sokol, noted concert violinist, and Viola Kiviniemi, pianist. Other entertainment was provided by Lois Kelly, soprano; Doris Jean Russell, pianist; Robert Anderson, tenor; and the Alpha-Lambda Quartet, composed of Robert Anderson, Lester Barker, Joe Jennings and Samuel Hill, Jr., accompanied by Joe Lovelace.

Speakers on the program, in addition to the national executive secretary, were Mr. Field, Charles Burton, national field secretary; Dr. Romie Judd, Alpha-Lambda advisor; and C. W. Terrill, Jr., Alpha-Lambda's '46-'47 SMC.

Following the regular program Alpha-Lambda's Dream Girl, Miss Dorothy Keeton, was presented a jeweled IKA pin by SMC Terrill. Several other awards also were made by Terrill, including "Best Athlete of the Year," Raymond Martin; "Most Outstanding Pledge," Ken Fendley; "Scholarship Citation," also to Ken Fendley. Martin and Fendley received medals for their achievements, with Fendley also receiving a cup for the scholarship award. Medals were presented to Alpha-Lambda officers for '46-'47, too.

The girls were presented silver miniature sabers bearing the IKA crest and the boys received miniature paddles for the occasion.

Alpha-Lambda chapter recently elected the following officers to serve for the 1947-48 term: Kenneth Fendley, SMC; Creighton Newton, IMC; Ross Gugel, SC; Horace Hambrick, ThC; Asa Jones, house manager; Dennis Penn, historian; Bill Howard, corresponding secretary, and William Taylor, pledge master.

Alpha-Zeta Chapter House Given "Face-Lifting"

◆ OFFICERS for fall 1947 at Alpha-Zeta are Sam Stuckey, Jr., SMC; Bill Stovall, IMC; J. M. Gardner, ThC and house manager; Jim Griffin, assistant ThC; Jim Reese, SC; Allen Mallioux and Bud Huguen, rush captains; Ed Staten, song leader.

The chapter house at Alpha-Zeta has undergone a complete redecoration with new furniture for the living room and a face lifting for the other rooms of the house.

Glenn Smith, AZ, former basketball star of the University of Arkansas teams, has been appointed head basketball coach at Arkansas State Teachers College at Conway for 1947-48. ASTC has been a strong contender for the championship in Arkansas for several years and with "Strut" Smith at the head, the chapter predicts that his team will be on top of the conference.

Joyce Pipkin has been named outstanding cadet at the summer camp for ROTC cadets at Randolph Field, Texas. Joyce is a star football player on the Razorback team and was captain of the team last year when his team became co-champs of the Southwest Conference. Joyce was initiated in IKA in 1944.

The magazine Fraternities at Arkansas, published this summer, carries a fine article by Wilkes Bond on pledge training in the university. Bond, who is one of Pi Kappa Alpha's representatives on the Interfraternity Council, laid down the basic foundations for pledge training and carried many helpful hints for all fraternities to benefit by.

Visitors at the chapter this summer have included: Robert Wiseman, AZ '30, Tommy Furlow, AZ '39, and Aulton B. Dougan, AZ '28.

Alpha-Zeta held its third initiation for the school year in June and six men were initiated. They were Charles Christensen, Little Rock; Thomas Dodd, Rector; Robert Laser, Forrest City; Albert McCreary, Crawfordsville; Ralph Stegall, Monticello, and Norman Butler, Monticello. This made a total of 39 men initiated within the period October, 1946, and June, 1947.

Alpha-Zeta held its annual senior banquet at the chapter house in June, in honor of the brothers who graduated. W. S. Gregson, YMCA secretary on the university campus, was principal speaker and SMC Stuckey presented to each senior the sincere appreciation of the chapter for the work done by the various men leaving. Those graduating were: Joe Matlock, Irvin Rothrock, J. B. Sims, Harold Measel, Marshall Measel, Jim Hager, T. P. Fleming, Walter Lipscomb, Jack Holt and James Boroughs. At the end of the program, SMC Stuckey presented the SMC Key to outgoing president Virgil F. Perkins. Perkins served as SMC for nine months and held other offices on the U. of A. campus, making a very good record for himself and furthering IKA.

Pi Kappa Alpha finished first in softball last spring. Due to the efforts of the manager of the team, Jack Whitmore, there was no doubt as to the ability of the team. In the intramurals for the year, IKA finished third in a field of 18 contestants.

SMC Stuckey has been elected secretary of the Interfraternity Council for the summer session of school. J. M. Gardner was elected to represent the first-year law students on the School of Law Honor Council. Gene Cloninger was chosen as a member of the Commerce Guild representing the senior class for the coming year.

Upsilon Men Busy On Auburn Campus

By JAMES P. FORRESTER
Upsilon Chapter

♦ AS USUAL, Upsilon men are active in all phases of campus activities. C. Ray Martin was kept busy during the last two quarters attending national conventions. He represented Omega Circle of ODK at the national convention held in Washington, D. C. Later he attended the National Student Assembly in Chicago as national executive representative of the Regional Student Conference. He acted as regional representative of Georgia and Alabama colleges and universities.

Homer D. Reid was elected president of ODK, and Bill Anderson, Jack Lee and Billy Ball were tapped by ODK. Hal Breedlove succeeded Harry Riddle as vice-president of Alpha Phi Omega. Breedlove also acted as business manager of the Rat Bible, handbook for freshmen. Billy Ball, varsity halfback, was elected president of the "A" Club.

Pledge Harold Lannon was elected captain of the football team. Barnard Blake and Don Jackson were tapped by Eta Kappa Nu, national honorary society for electrical engineers. Walter Roark was elected president of Eta Kappa Nu, and Don Jackson was elected secretary.

Don Clay was tapped by Phi Lambda Upsilon, national honorary society for chemists and chemical engineers. Ed Barrett was tapped by Chi Epsilon, national honorary society for civil engineers. Pledge Thomas Floyd appeared as the pianist with the API Symphony Orchestra.

Ralph Jennings was tapped by Spades, the highest honor that can come to an Auburn man. Jack Brush was elected captain of Scabbard and Blade. Dave Myrick was initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, international fraternity for students of business administration. Homer Russell played the role of Marquis in "La Traviata," Auburn's initial student opera.

Scholastically, Upsilon has kept the reputation of Pi Kappa Alpha high. Of the 18 social fraternities on the Auburn campus, Pi Kappa Alpha stood third in scholastic averages for the past four quarters with an average of 2.320.

Pi Kappa Alpha has been unusually well represented on the staff of the student publication, The Plainsman. C. Ray Martin is the business manager, Ralph Jennings is managing editor, Bill Anderson is advertising manager, Ralph Jennings and Jim Forrester are featured Alabama's Gov. James E. Folsom is made an honorary member of Omicron Delta Kappa by Homer Davis Reid, T, president of the ODK chapter at Auburn.

Honors Piled Up At Missouri U.

♦ IN ADDITION to capturing fourth place among the 22 fraternities on the University of Missouri campus, Alpha-Nu chapter has moved into a commanding position in extra-curricular activities.

President of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, is Tony Rizzo. Tony is also a member of Blue Key, honorary leadership group. Also in Sigma Delta Chi is Ted Weegar, columnists, and Len Hensel is a feature writer.

On Saturday, Aug. 16, Pi Kappa Alpha closed the summer social season with a highly successful party. Saturday afternoon a tea-dance was held at the house with music furnished by the Bob Hill Quartet, a popular local combo. Following the dance, everyone adjourned to the Midway, a favorite night spot, for dinner. During dinner many fraternity songs were sung, and an impromptu floor show was provided by Brothers Guy Nevins, Don Marrett and Ben Risher. After dinner, a marshmallow toast and house dance was held back at the house.

who is editor of "Showme," campus humor magazine.

Bill Gray is secretary and Bob Woltering is vice-president of Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional advertising fraternity.

Vice-president of Delta Sigma Pi, business fraternity, is Jim Ford. Parliamentarian of the organization is Jim Owens, while Bill Stewart acts as historian, public relations chairman, and chairman of the Business School council.

On the staff of the "Missouri Student," top campus publication along with "Showme," are George Denton as news editor and John Uhrmann as exchange editor. Denton is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman scholastic society, the Delian League, and cadet Colonel of the ROTC.

Topping his many other duties about the campus is Bob Woltering's office of chief justice of the Pan-Hel court. Bob served as secretary of the group last year. Charles Lindley is Alpha Nu's representative on the Pan-Hel council.

Al Brock is national president of Kappa Alpha Mu, professional photographer's society.

Alpha-Sigma Founders Guests At Reunion

◆ THE luxurious Borgia room of San Francisco's St. Francis Hotel was the scene of the 1947 Charter Day banquet of Alpha-Sigma chapter.

Some 50 active members and an equal number of alumni gathered to commemorate the seventy-ninth anniversary of ΠΚΑ and the thirty-fifth anniversary of Alpha-Sigma chapter.

For the majority of the alumni, it was the first real reunion since the beginning of the war, and for the active members it was the first close association with the alumni chapter.

The program was kept moving by Master of Ceremonies Hap Huovinen, Oakland attorney and former president of the Oakland Bar Association.

Speakers included Curtis Bersford, district president of ΠΚΑ; Ken Futterer, president of the active chapter of Alpha-Sigma; Garth Wilson, assistant to the president of the University of California and an alumnus of the class of 1931, and Mars Blois, vice-president of the Bank of America and member of the class of 1914.

Some of the guests were members of the first and founding class, such as Ernest Cleary ('09), Marion Read ('12), Bob Shields ('13), Emmerson Herrick ('17) and many others.

Homecoming Banquet Given At Alpha-Psi

◆ WHEN Alpha-Psi at Rutgers was reactivated, the chapter found itself with only 10 brothers.

Since that time, though handicapped by lack of living quarters, seven pledges have been added, bringing the total to 17 active participants. Regular meetings are being held weekly on Thursday nights at the former ΚΞ house.

Officers elected include John Dargin, SMC; Harris Morrison, IMC; Donald Van Nest, ThC; Joseph Quade, SC, and Stan Beran, pledge master.

The Homecoming banquet was a big success, with Brother Irving Owen, of the class of 1908, as guest speaker.

Scoring a touchdown in the waning seconds of the game, the Beta footballers knocked the Pikes out of the intramural championships. Though losing out in their league competition by virtue of this heartbreaking loss, the fighting six did gain the satisfaction of playing a 6-6 deadlock with the Dekes who later went on to capture the university championship.

Though Stan Beran, Jim Bailey and Gene Gonzalez each piled up individual victories the Pika natators weren't able to garner enough show and place points and so were eliminated by the Phi-Epps, 28-20.

Pre-War Traditions Back At Beta-Pi

◆ LAST semester showed a swing-back to old pre-war tradition at Beta-Pi chapter.

The new SMC, Paul Vineyard, supported by Jim Wilkes, IMC, and Chuck Gillis, ThC, laid down new and improved policies. The near future is, in a way, a critical time for ΠΚΑ at the University of Pennsylvania. The loss of such men as Ed Hoffman, Bill Breeden, Bill Killhour, and Frank Bowden due to their recent graduation has left the chapter without as much university representation as it enjoyed in the past.

Among those who have, and still are, representing ΠΚΑ in important activities are Hank Stoeckert, business manager of the Daily Pennsylvanian, and member of the board of governors of The Franklin Society; Chuck Gillis and Doug Durant, in the Mask and Wig production of last semester ("Chris Crosses"); Jack Mulcahey in many campus activities (including Friars Senior Honorary Society and editorship of the university yearbook); Bob Shoemaker, photographic editor of the yearbook; Paul Cannizzaro, manager of the University of Pennsylvania Band; Harry Mills, chairman of the university rushing committee; Paul Vineyard, Christian Association cabinet member; Ed Laquer, sophomore council; and Jim Conway, varsity football.

The Penn-Virginia football game was the occasion of a party given for Alpha chapter by Beta-Pi. Increased social activity during the football season was also added to by the re-establishment of "coffee hours" after every home game. Saturday afternoons and evenings were busy times since the house was always visited by alumni as well as brothers from other chapters.

A party given by the pledges for the brothers was one which will be long remembered. It found the house decorated entirely in garnet and gold. Miss Mary Levin (date of Art Cramer) was chosen as the pledges' Dream Girl.

The first party of the new semester was built on a Valentine theme. The brothers were put to shame when they were out-danced by Alumnus Frans Vosenberg in a balloon dance. House Manager Stoeckert nearly had apoplexy, but no furniture was broken in the course of that dance.

Brother Don Tillery, Ψ, has been a welcome visitor on several occasions. He is in the process of teaching us some new ΠΚΑ songs.

Beta Prints Paper Listing All Members

◆ BETA chapter at Davidson College has just published an issue of The Altar and Skull in which the entire chapter roll is printed, with news notes concerning each living member whose whereabouts is known.

The issue was dedicated to the grand old man of IKA, Dr. George Summey, national honorary Grand Chaplain and the fraternity's oldest living member.

Doctor Summey was 93 last summer, but was one of the leading figures at the 1946 National Convention. He is pastor emeritus of the Third Presbyterian Church of New Orleans, professor emeritus of systematic theology at Austin Seminary, and former chancellor of Southwestern University.

The chapter house has taken on a new appearance. The chapter dug up the yard, planted new grass, took out the overgrown shrubbery, and planted a row of boxwoods along the walk. The interior also was renovated.

Rev. William S. Patterson is serving as alumnus counselor.

Recent Beta chapter initiates include John A. Fanjoy, Liston O. Mills, Owen Reese, Jr., William B. Huffaker, Jr., David B. McElroy, Edward E. Denison, J. Grover Lee, Jr., James P. Sifford, Jr., William A. Collins and William B. Boyd.

The John Scott Award for the most outstanding pledge was awarded to William B. Boyd.

Beta chapter now has 32 actives and 7 pledges, with the following officers elected at the last meeting: Robert W. Stroup, SMC; J. Eade Anderson, IMC; Rosser L. Clark, ThC; C. Harley Dickson, SC; J. Page Jackson, MS; H. M. Raynal, MC, and A. M. Hart, historian.

◆ A MEMORIAL to Lt. Edgar E. Scott, B, has been established at Beta chapter, Davidson College, by John A. Scott, B, '11.

A check was sent to the chapter by Mr. Scott in memory of Edgar, who was killed in action March 24, 1945, at Meiktila, Burma, while serving with the 18th Airborne Battalion.

In his senior year, Ed was SMC. The memorial is given "with the idea of trying to encourage higher scholarship and leadership."

At the annual Pi Kappa Alpha Ball held last May at the Red Fez Club in Charlotte, N. C., Miss Winifred Jordan of Gastonia, N. C., was elected the "Dream Girl" of Beta chapter. This occasion marked the revival of an old Davidson custom, and plans have been made to continue the Dream Girl Ball in future years. Miss Jordan was selected from among IKA dates as being "the girl I would like most to be pinned to" by a group of judges consisting of SMC Bob Stroup, IMC Jack Shelton, Page Jackson and Guest Bob Masten. Miss Jordan was escorted by "Chick" Neill.

New Mexico IKA's Honor Hopewell

◆ IKA's at the University of New Mexico held their annual spring formal at the Albuquerque Country Club April 16.

Highlight of the year's big social event was the presentation of an engraved desk set to Robert W. Hopewell who for the past 17 years has been alumnus counselor to the active chapter and president of the alumni chapter. The presentation was made by SMC George Walters.

Hopewell has been prominent in alumni circles, devoting considerable time and money to both the active and alumni groups. He has just retired as alumni president.

At the spring elections, Thomas J. Plunkett was elected to serve as SMC during the coming term. James Ryan will serve as IMC. Both have returned to the university after an absence of several years during which they served in the Army Air Forces, Plunkett in India and China and Ryan in Africa and Europe.

Gamma-Omega Wins 7 of 11 Cups Offered

◆ PI KAPPA ALPHA—100 members strong—was the outstanding fraternity on the University of Miami (Fla.) campus again in 1946-47, winning 7 out of 11 cups awarded fraternities.

The seven cups were received for varied chapter achievements. PIKA won intramural championships in basketball (fourth straight year), M-Day track-and-field meet (second straight year), and softball (third straight year).

For winning three out of the four intramural sports played during the year, the chapter was awarded the Interfraternity Council intramural championship trophy for the second straight year.

Two cups were received for collecting the most money in the campus-wide charities drive (second straight year) and in the WSSF drive. The other cup was won for having the best decorated booth in the annual campus carnival.

In addition, Gamma-Omega tied with Alpha-Epsilon at North Carolina State for the Riculfi athletic trophy for 1945-46. This national trophy is awarded annually to the PIKA chapter which is the most outstanding in intramural and varsity athletics.

Gamma-Omega was also tops at Miami in varsity sports. Co-Captains Bill "Bulldog" Frantz and pledge Harry Ghaul led the Hurricane football team through a brilliant season, and 14 other Pikes and pledges were on the team. Bob McDougal, one of the finest fullbacks in the nation, was named the most outstanding Miami back at the close of the season. Bustin' Bob will play pro ball with the Green Bay Packers next fall. Hal Schuler was a star on the 'Cane basketball team, and three Pi Kaps—Bill Eisnor, Al DeFoor and pledge Don Gerrits—were standouts on the boxing team which was ranked No. 2 in the United States.

Charlie Franklin served as president of the student body during 1946-47, and five other Pi Kaps held class offices. Hal Schuler and Franklin joined Frank Coury in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Franklin was also tapped for Iron Arrow, the highest honor for men on campus. Bill Eisnor, Don Fink and Schuler are already Iron Arrow members.

Social highlight of the year was PIKA's annual Dream Girl dance and Founders' Day banquet, which was held in March in the beautiful Flamingo Hotel on Miami Beach. Pretty Betty Butler, ZTA, was presented as Dream Girl of PIKA for 1947 to the crowd of 1,000 who attended the enjoyable formal.

The two prize Pi Kap pledge classes gave a dance each semester in honor of all campus sorority pledges. Betty Bowers, ΔΔΠ, was selected as the university "Pledge Queen" by the first semester pledges, and Shirley Bramlett, another ΔΔΠ, received the honor for the second semester. Sterling silver loving cups were presented to the sorority and to the queens. This is a semi-annual event for the PIKA pledge classes.

Dream Girl Chosen By Gamma-Epsilon

◆ MISS LOIS FRYER, of Deweyville, Utah, was honored as the Dream Girl of Gamma-Epsilon chapter at Utah State Agricultural College May 10.

At the annual banquet and dance Miss Fryer was pinned with the official IKA pin. Chosen by popular vote of the fraternity from the co-eds at school, she is studying in the school of education. Miss Fryer succeeds Mrs. Fred Tingey, formerly Miss Mary Bauman of Driggs, Idaho.

At the banquet a beautiful IKA compact was given to each lady present. Dr. Frank H. Jones, AT, assistant professor of political science at USAC, was guest speaker.

After the banquet at the attractive Bluebird in downtown Logan, dancing was held at the college Latter Day Saint Institute.

Decorations included a large lighted Shield and Diamond at the entrance, and a garden theme was followed inside. A spouting fountain and wishing well were the central attractions, a fence entwined with flowers and arrangements of evergreens, tulips, lilacs and various other flowers added the authentic atmosphere of a formal garden party.

During intermission, an organ recital was played by Grant Anderson of East Garland, after which the Dream Girl of Gamma-Epsilon, Miss Fryer, was serenaded.

Incidentally, the chapter won the scholarship trophy once again this year, and also the bridge trophy. Gamma-Epsilon has dominated the scholarship trophy awards ever since they have been given at Utah State.

Beta-Eta Pledge Sees Action For Illinois In Rose Bowl

◆ A PLEDGE of Beta-Eta chapter was a member of the University of Illinois grid team which was victorious in the Rose Bowl. He was Lou Bonoho, of Salem, Ill., second-string center on the Illini.

He spent three years and four months in the Marines and saw action at Guam and Iwo Jima, where he was wounded. Before enrolling at Illinois, Lou played football for two years at St. Louis University.

The chapter's pledge dance recently was a big success, but the social highlight of the year was the traditional Hobo Brawl, which was held for the first time in four long years.

All the doors of the house were locked when the couples arrived. Down the coal chute and through various and sundry other obstacles went the bewildered girls followed by their Pi Kap dates. Covered basement stairs made the final climb to the first floor a little difficult for the bigger boys.

Straw was strewn over the entire living room. Chickens squawked in one corner. In the other was a familiar little shack with the crescent moon on the door.

Wandering among the debris was a three-piece hillbilly band. The music was slightly out of this world. Each played in a different key at the same time.

All in all, the affair was just like it has always been—full of surprises, and very successful.

Alpha-Iota Captures Scholarship Trophy

◆ ALPHA-IOTA chapter enjoyed one of its most successful years in 1946-47 to take undisputed lead in every field of activity on the Millsaps campus.

In scholarship the chapter's quality index average was high enough to cop first place among the fraternities while IKA's Robert Yarborough won one of the ten national graduate scholarships offered to outstanding prospective college instructors by the University of Chicago. George Maddox was the winner of the Bourgeois Medal awarded annually to the undergraduate student with the highest average grade for the semester year.

IKA's weren't inactive in school sports either. George Maddox and Stuart Carruth saw first string football duty. Mike McLaurin and Carruth were on the varsity net squad, and Ci Allen and John Gaddis were members of the tennis team. With the exception of one man the entire infield on the baseball team was composed of Alpha-Iota members. Mike McLaurin in left field, Glen Teasley, star hurler, and Charles Wiggers, utility infielder, added to the combination. IKA infielders were Wallace Russell at first, M. L. McCormick on second and Lowery Collins at shortstop.

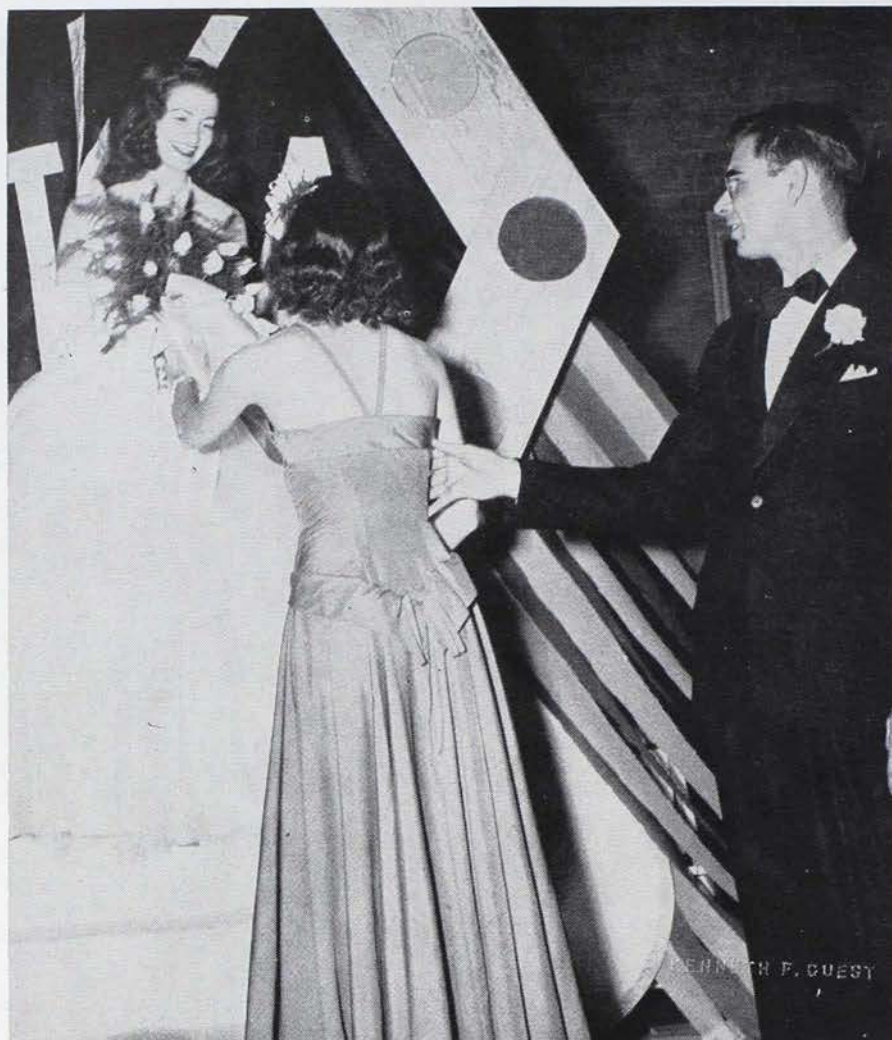

The varsity teams, however, did not by any means bleed the chapter dry of athletes. Alpha-Iota won the distinction of being the first campus group to win all six intramural trophies in addition to the intramural champion trophy. The victories were in speedball, volleyball, ping-pong, basketball, golf, and softball.

Campus positions were won during the year by Brother Bob Hollingsworth, president of the senior class; George Maddox, president of the Christian Council; Mike McLaurin, master major, the most popular male student; Wallace Russell, president of the student body for the year '47-'48, and Carl Guernsey and Sutton Marks, editor and business manager, respectively, of the Purple and White, school publication.

Of the seven Millsaps men tapped into Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary leadership fraternity, three, McLaurin, Hollingsworth and Craig Castle, were IKA's.

Alpha-Iota members also were active in debating and dramatic activities. Craig Castle was president of both Pi Kappa Delta, forensic honorary, and Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity.

From a financial side the chapter has done well, too. Beginning the year with a $2,000 debt on the house, we have, with the aid of our alumni, paid off the note.

The chapter has been active socially this year, too. The annual Christmas dinner-dance at the Edwards Hotel was held on the night of Dec. 14. Another dinner-dance with the theme "Musical Ball" was held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel on March 15. Several informal parties also were held during the year.

Another social highlight of the season was the annual Mother's Day week-end party given for Alpha-Iota mothers. Mothers were lodged in the house for the week-end and were entertained royally by their sons. The social affair ended Sunday morning when members and their mothers attended church in a body with mothers wearing garnet and gold corsages.

Under the leadership of SMC Stuart Carruth, IMC Billy Wright, and ThC Bill Lampton the chapter looks forward to another successful year.

Alpha-Mu Riding Road to Success

By DICK PIPES
Alpha-Mu Chapter

◆ BEFORE the ink had dried on last year's spring issue of the THE SHIELD AND DIAMOND, Alpha-Mu chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha had hit the golden road to success. Today the University of Georgia chapter is still riding along that same road.

In sports, Alpha-Mu put out a strong volleyball team and placed second in the fraternity league. Horace Sasser represented us on the varsity swimming team and won diving events in several meets. Barry Phillips and Pledge Ed Fendig were members of the varsity football squad. Phillips was a guard and Fendig a halfback. Alpha-Mu won the water polo meet and was sparked by Wallace Wilkins. Jim Griffith was outstanding as center on the varsity basketball team. Roger Simmons and Dick Pipes covered the Sugar Bowl football game for the university paper, The Red and Black.

James Griffith and Baxter Webb were very active in the University Theatre, both playing outstanding roles in several plays.

Claude Davidson, Jr., was appointed head of the Journalism School at the Savannah Branch of the University of Georgia.

McKie Trotter won a $1,500 fellowship for his painting, "The Refugees," which took first place in the Pepsi-Cola contest.

Miss Carol Thomas, XΩ, was chosen Alpha-Mu sponsor.

Jim Williams and Trotter, currently inactive, were appointed to the university faculty.

On Jan. 31, Alpha-Mu presented its Dream Girl, Miss Anne Elliot, ΦM, at a formal dance. The affair was very successful. Miss Elliott was presented a bouquet of mixed flowers by the 1946 Dream Girl, Miss Carol McDaniel, ΔΔΔ. The new chapter sweetheart came through a large replica of the ΠKA badge, which was built by Walter Angel and his committee.

Ralph Connor was chosen president of Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional commerce society, and Roger Simmons was elected to "X" Club, secret honor society. Brother Simmons is also vice-president of Phi Kappa literary society; historian of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity; editorial assistant on the staff of the Georgia Cracker, monthly magazine on the campus; member of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity; former sports editor of The Red and Black, student newspaper; and former corresponding secretary for Alpha-Mu of Pi Kappa Alpha.

John Cox, SMC, also is treasurer of the Georgia Inter-Fraternity Council.

Dick Pipes is sports editor of The Red and Black, campus paper, and has been elected to Pi Gamma Kappa, radio fraternity. Other ΠKAs on the staff of the publication are Spede J. Bryan, assistant sports editor; George McArthur, assistant news editor; Roger Simmons, Bob Argo, and Tom Campbell, staff writers.

Pledge Bill Leach, Atlanta, has been one of the most promising prospects on the varsity baseball team. He is expected to bolster Georgia's hopes of a Conference pennant considerably.

Chapter sponsor for ΠKA at the University of Georgia last year was Miss Carol Thomas, XΩ, above.

Miss Thomas, an Atlanta girl, was past Beauty Queen at Georgia, too.

Gamma-Omicron Wins Cup For Scholarship

◆ GAMMA-OMICRON chapter at Ohio University last semester was awarded the all-university scholastic trophy offered annually by the Dean's Office.

The trophy was presented at a campus-wide convocation, and was a real boost for the chapter, which became active only last fall.

The chapter house was given some extensive repairs during the summer months, along with a new coat of white paint. Eleven men are living in the house and 14 more members are on campus now.

The chapter has teams in both intramural softball and volleyball.

The chapter celebrated its annual Mother's Week End May 10-11. With over 20 mothers present for the occasion, the chapter house was gaily decorated inside and out, and over the front door there was an electrically-lighted sign bearing the welcome, "Hi - Mom."

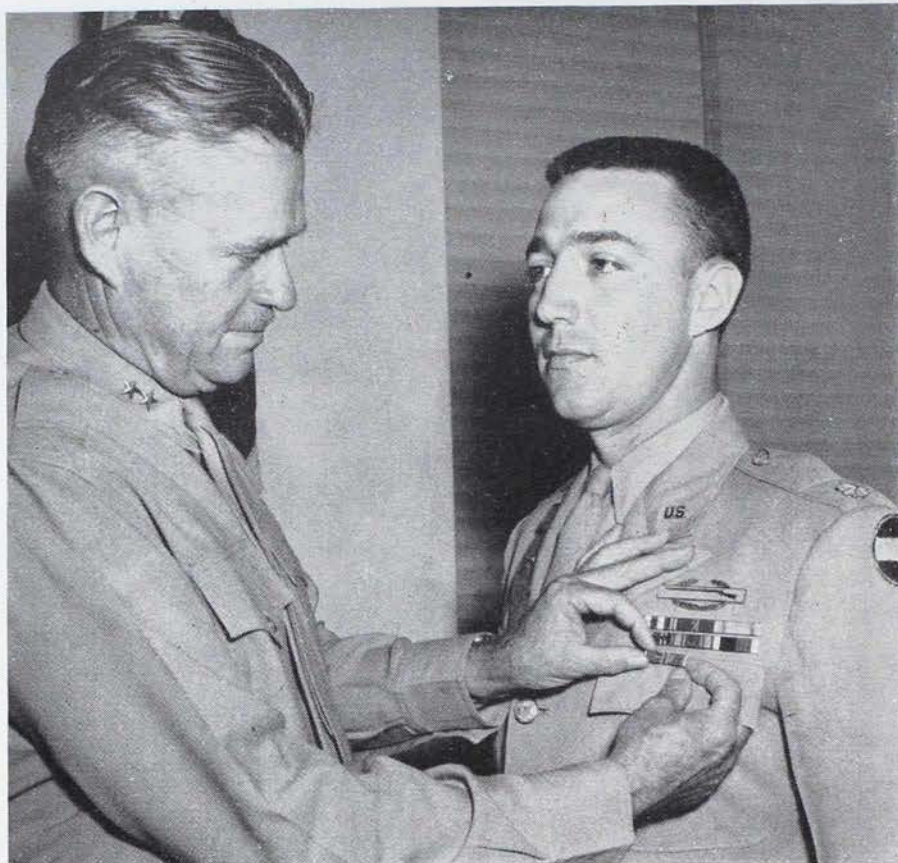

Inside, on the first evening of the affair, the downstairs was decorated like a night club, and an open-house party was given for mothers, dates, and chapter members. The hit of the evening was a 20-minute floor show put on by the members.

More than 60 persons enjoyed dinner at the chapter house May 11. After the dinner, the mothers gathered in the front room for a "Sweetheart Serenade."

Another high spot for the mothers was the announcement that the chapter had taken campus scholastic honors during the fall semester with an overall average of 2.742. One week later, at the annual Honors Day Convocation, SMC Bob Sayre was presented with a gold trophy in recognition of this honor.

Gamma-Omicron now has more than 60 actives and pledges in the organization. This is quite a different story from last Homecoming Day, which saw 15 actives and three pledges entertain the alumni in two rented rooms uptown. Already plans for next year's activities are being made, and Pi Kappa Alpha should be right at the top on the Ohio U. campus.

The chapter held its first post-war serenade when Tony Baraga, Cleveland, planted his pin on Miss Sylvia Linhart, Cleveland, the first week in May. Two weeks later, the chapter was out in force again to honor Alpha Xi Delta Rosemary Bishop, Glen Farris, W. Va., who wears House Manager Bob Horan's badge. Roses and the traditional songs

Major Harry M. Smith, Ω, was presented with the Oak Leaf Cluster to the Bronze Star Medal by Maj. Gen. David G. Barr, assistant chief of staff, G-1, Headquarters, Army Ground Forces, in ceremonies June 27 at the Pentagon building, Washington. Major Smith was cited for heroic achievement in combat against the enemy near Metz, France, while serving as executive officer, Second Battalion, 11th Infantry Regiment, Fifth Infantry Division. He and Mrs. Smith, the former Aida M. Urrutia of San Juan, Puerto Rico, reside at Arlington, Va.

brought many compliments to the house.

On May 25, the active-pledge softball game initiated the use of post-war competition for "The Little Gold Jug." Played in a heavy downpour, the game produced a lot of laughs and muddy clothes. Pitchers for both teams wore glasses, and after the rains came, neither man was sure of the location of home plate. Even the elements were against the actives as they went down fighting, 15-1. Kenny Barkhauer, active pitcher, scored the only active run in the first inning.

New initiates include Don Conlin, Paul Gapp, Oscar Tisher, Ed Walters, George Davis, Paul Hoff, Hollis Haughey, Kenneth Wennik, Charles Fields, Rex Mullenix, John Puskas, Jack Singerman, Keith Ayers, Dan Kelch, William DeVoss, Carl Thiele, Allan Cooley and Richard Finkle.

When Gamma-Omicron reactivated last fall, the old chapter house was occupied by other persons. However, the returning members went ahead with reorganization plans without its own quarters. After five houseless months, the old 18 North College street residence was finally regained, largely through the efforts and counsel of alumni-brother Erle Bridgewater, '38, now an Athens attorney.

On Feb. 21, active members and chapter guests were entertained by the annual pledge party and dance in the Rufus Putnam gymnasium. A night club setting provided the setting and Bill McCutcheon's Combo Five furnished the music.

Penn State Chapter Again Takes First Prize For Lawn Display

By LEW MARKLE
Beta-Alpha Chapter

♦ FOR THE second consecutive year IKA at Penn State took first prize in the traditional lawn display contest over Fall Houseparty week end.

Thanks to the artistic genius of Fred Huehnergath and Henry Meyers the prize-winning display was constructed of wood and paint to depict the Nittany Lion of Penn State at the controls of a steam shovel in which the Michigan State Tartan was being ingloriously dumped. The award, a very nice trophy, now stands beside its predecessor in the trophy room of Beta-Alpha.

IKA was well represented in intramural sports last year. Teams and individuals entered all contests with success. The basketball team went to a three-way tie in the finals. Several wrestlers made the finals in their respective classes, and Bob Heckel emerged all-college champion in the 175-pound class. Ed Hanford lost a very close decision in the finals of the 165-pound class boxing competition.

Just before the Easter vacation the house held an alumni dinner with special honors going to our recently retired chapter advisor, Rip Roseberry. A fine meal with a talent show made up of men from the house preceded the presentation of a leather brief case to Rip as a small token of the appreciation a great many Beta-Alpha's feel toward him. His successor, Bob Fitz, is now doing an equally fine job as Beta-Alpha chapter advisor. The entire evening proved a great success with a great many of the local alumni attending.

The results of the election of officers for the spring semester were as follows: Russ Cline, SMC; George Royce, IMC; Richard Owen, ThC, and Jack Neilson, SC.

Gamma-Nu Acquires $130,000 House

♦ GAMMA-NU acquired one of the finest houses of any of the Iowa University fraternities when the chapter returned to the campus in February.

Located at 1032 North Dubuque street, the house commands a view of the campus from its hilltop location. The house is on the extreme north end of Fraternity Row in Bella Vista, one of Iowa City's best residential districts. The Iowa River flows past the house on the west and private estates border the house on other sides. Across the river is a large park. The spacious IKA grounds are beautifully landscaped with spruce and hardwoods.

The new house is a three-story building, of stone and brick on a steel framework, erected in 1926 at a cost of $130,000. All floors are terrazzo, making the house as nearly fireproof as possible. The architecture is modernistic.

To the right of the first floor reception hall is the dining room, which has a large brick fireplace on the east end, a long group of windows on the south end, and doors leading to the chapel and chapter room on the west end.

On the second floor a huge living room with beamed ceilings occupies the south half. Another large fireplace dominates the east wall. French doors on the west side open onto a tile roof-terrace over the chapel. There is a sun

Beta-Lambda Chapter Chooses Its First "Dream Girl"

◆ THE first IKA Dream Girl ever selected by Beta-Lambda chapter was presented at a formal dance in her honor Feb. 22 at the Melbourne Hotel in St. Louis.

The event was one of the social highlights of the year at Washington University, and gave the chapter, which was inactive throughout the war, a big boost in prestige.

Each sorority on the Washington campus submitted one candidate for the Dream Girl selection. The candidates were presented to the active chapter at a tea dance just a week before the Dream Girl dance. Then the chapter chose five girls from these contestants for the court of honor.

At the dance, Beta-Lambdas selected Ricky Waters, ΓΦΒ, from the court as their "Dream Girl of 1947."

Corsages in the shape of the fraternity bade were given to all IKA dates, wives and sweethearts. The Dream Girl was presented with traditional roses and a beautiful compact with the IKA crest upon it, and members of the court of honor were given charm bracelets, with IKA crests.

As a build-up for the event, Bing Crosby's recording of "Dream Girl of IKA" was played several times over a St. Louis radio station, and all candidates were interviewed on several radio programs. The dance also was well publicized in St. Louis newspapers, and in campus publications.

Another event which was extremely successful was the Founders' Day banquet in the Colonial Room of the Hotel Melbourne. R. B. Bowders of Washington was the principal speaker.

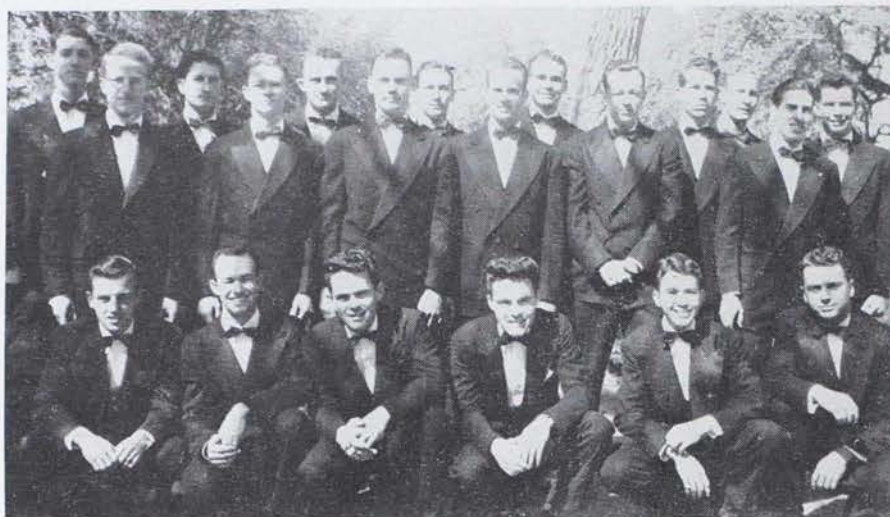

Several rush parties have been given, and more are planned. Tea dances have been popular, and future plans include a "Hobo Hop."

New chapter officers include James Pence, SMC; Carl Herman, IMC, and Jack Hornecker, Th C. Recent initiates are Pete Bennett, John Close, Ed May, Robert McDorman, Harry Hier and Mahlon Hunt. Among the most recent pledges are Alex Logan, Warren Partidge, Lester Herb, Jack Kinnaw, Russell Ott, Ted Curtiss, Joe Hayes, Bill Jones and Frank Gilk.

Eleven men are living in the chapter house now, and the others at home. Noon meals are served daily at the house, and these bring the group together at least once a day.

Last spring saw Beta-Mu initiate the largest class in its history. In this group of 21 men were two sets of brothers, and this was also a "first time" in history at Texas. The men initiated were Earl Grunlund Wise, Jr., Wolfgang Paul Strassmann, Donald Van Otting, Emmett Anthony Lawless, John Earle Lawless, William Leroy Jordan, Jr., James Edward Jordan,

Alpha-Rho Pair Gets Scholarship Keys

◆ IN A CEREMONY which will become an Alpha-Rho tradition, the Wives and Mothers Club presented the Scholarship Key for the highest active grades to Charles Orr and Willard Roberts. Eight pledges had their names added to the chapter's Freshman Honor Roll.

Alpha-Rho of Pi Kappa Alpha won the first prize trophy for the outstanding contribution to the success of Greek Week observed on the Ohio State campus last semester. The cup was presented to the chapter in recognition of the poster drawn by Pledge Raymond Denczak of Canton, Ohio.

Recently elected officers of Alpha-Rho are Robert Pranke, SMC; Harold Jones, IMC; William Toomey, ThC; William Farber Gandert, MS, and Thomas Heiskell, SC. All five officers are war veterans. Brother Pranke served in the Army as a typist with G-2 Intelligence Division at Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces in London, Versailles and Frankfurt, and later with the Military Government in Berlin. Brothers Jones, Toomey and Heiskell served with the Army in the Southwest Pacific, and Brother Gandert with the Naval Hospital Corps.

Alpha-Rho added another intramural trophy to its handsome shelf array when it recently won the league bowling championship. The team was coached by Nick Radosevich, physical education major.

Warren Foster, Jr., is a manager of the Ohio State varsity national champion swimming team.

Melvin Sanford is serving as treasurer of the men's glee club of which SMC Robert Pranke is also a member.

Pledge George Parlette was runner-up in the 121-pound class in the intramural wrestling tournament.

Fred Williams was recently elected to Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman society.

James Kerber has been accepted as a member of Strollers, campus dramatic organization. Harry Greene has been named to the Fraternity Affairs Council. James Forbes, recently initiated, has served as vice-president of the Interfraternity Pledge Council.

William Toomey, ThC, has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Fraternity Managers Association. This organization has charge of the buying for all fraternities on campus.

John S. Stevens, social chairman of the chapter, directed the activities at the Spring Formal, held at the Chittenden Hotel, Columbus. Ziggy Coyle and his orchestra furnished the music and each date received as a favor, a gold compact bearing the fraternity name.

Coach Wesley E. Fesler was introduced to the student body at a "Meet Your Coach" dance held at the men's gymnasium. The Alpha-Rho chapter presented him with a horseshoe floral wreath of good luck.

Beta-Nu Chapter Roll 110; 36 Are Pledges

◆ WITH a chapter strength of 110—including 36 pledges—Beta-Mu chapter at the University of Texas is larger than ever before.

But remembering that quantity alone doesn't necessarily make a chapter a good one, Beta-Mu is represented in the majority of honorary, social and athletic organizations on the campus.

Bob Vaden is in Beta Alpha Psi, honorary accounting fraternity; Bill Aufricht, in Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering; Charlie Frank Butler, in Phi Sigma, honorary biological; Bill Lawrence, Charlie Butler and Bill Gardner are in Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity; Robert A. Dube and John Kingsberry are in Delta Sigma Pi, honorary business; Rod Frazier is president of the El Paso Club, and Bill Jones heads the West Texas Club.

On the interfraternity council are Allen Humphrey, secretary and treasurer, and Charlie Frank Butler, rush captain.

In athletics are All-American John Hargis, basketball; Vincent Shurr, basketball; Clarence Mabry, captain of varsity tennis; Kenneth Wingfield, football; Andy Shurr, track, John Brown, track, and Bill Mobley, Harold Thomas and John King, athletics managers.

A mothers' club recently was organized in Austin with over 30 members. Mrs. Osburne Abbott is president.

◆ LT. COL. WALTER E. DOBBINS, AD, has recently received an appointment as colonel in the Officers' Reserve Corps. He is presently serving as Commanding Officer of the 4th Signal Service Group in the Philippines-Ryukyus Command.

Graduating from Georgia Tech in 1922, Colonel Dobbins was employed by the Southern Broadcasting Station in Atlanta as radio engineer. He joined the army in 1935.

He is also very active in tennis, swimming, and does a good deal of stunt flying in his spare time.

Dream Girl Crowned At Delta-Alpha Dance

◆ DELTA-ALPHA has found its Dream Girl!

She's blonde Anne Diffenderfer, a Kappa Kappa Gamma at George Washington University, elected to the chapter's highest honor for the opposite sex at the Dream Girl Dance April 9 in Washington's Statler Hotel.

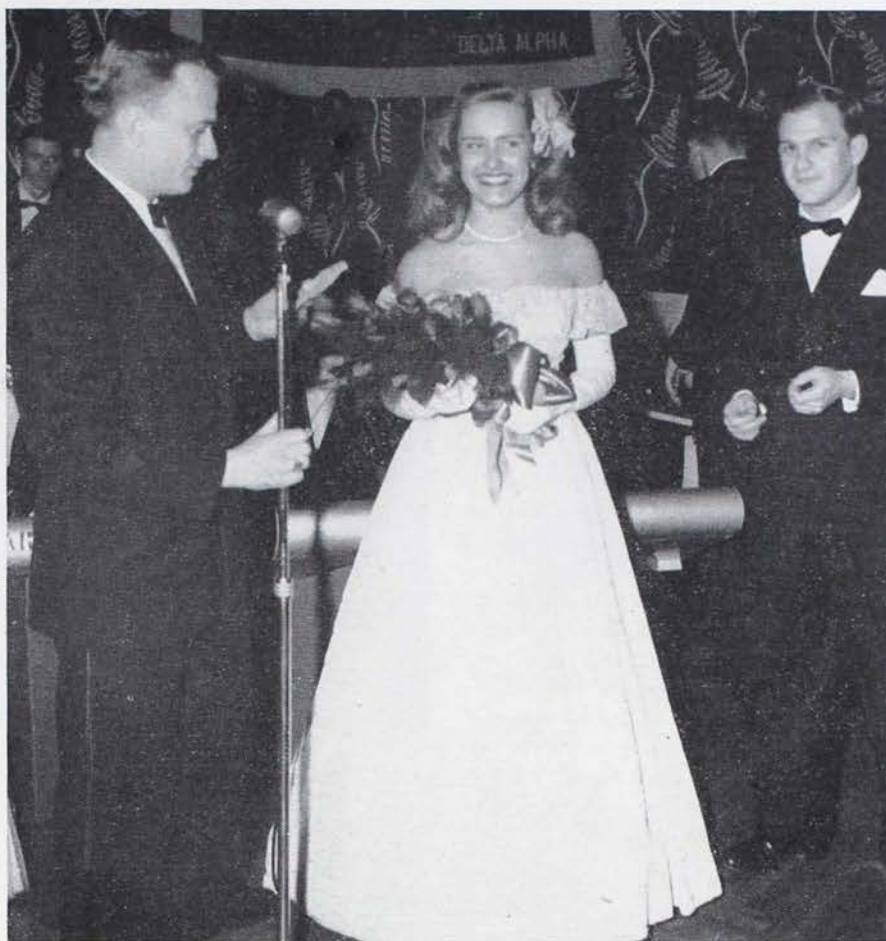

Always a gala affair, this event is second only to the Shipwreck Ball each year among the social highlights on the chapter's calendar, and this year was no exception.

In an alluring setting of subdued lights, amber roses, a smooth floor, and soft music supplied by the chapter's own Bill Harwood and his orchestra, 76 couples, including actives, alumni, pledges, and a representative from each of the other campus fraternities, enjoyed the event.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Dream Girl of Delta-Alpha for the coming year. Miss Diffenderfer, looking radiantly beautiful in a flowing white chiffon gown, long white silk gloves, and two lavender orchids in her hair, created nothing short of a sensation as she went forward for the coronation.

The Dream Girls of the past three years, Margery Brown Campbell, Barbara Hanby and Malissa Wilson, were presented at that time and they took their places beside the new queen.

Dick Johnson, social chairman of Delta-Alpha, was master of ceremonies,

Iota Chapter Launches $8,000 Drive For New House

◆ IOTA chapter at Hampden-Sydney College has launched a campaign to raise $8,000 to aid in the financing of a new chapter house, according to SMC Lewis E. H. Brandon.

Letters have been sent to all alumni stating the need for the new house, and the letters are being followed up by personal contacts.

At present, the chapter is living in a house acquired last September from Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

The chapter won the intramural football trophy with an undefeated season. Also in athletics, the chapter had two men—Leslie Pugh and Bill Balas—on the varsity basketball team. As a freshman, Balas led the state in scoring and was nineteenth in the nation with 340 points in 25 games. He gained all-state honors.

New officers of the chapter are Lewis E. H. Brandon, SMC; George Cooper, IMC; Claiborne Craddock, ThC; Arthur Anderson, SC; Les Pugh, house manager; Bill Balas, MC; Wallace Rowe,

MS; John Irvine, historian, and Glenn Campbell, publicity representative.

New pledges include Robert Dirom, Jimmy Trinkle, Buddy Hughes, Jimmy Combellick, John Howard, Bob Henderson, Bill Atkinson, Sam May, Dick Hudson, Ennett Wilson, Ned Sprately, and Bill Groseclose.

Initiates include Arthur Anderson, Guy Bosserman, John Irvine, Thomas Sharp, Buck Lawrence, Bryan Wood and John Turner.

More emphasis was placed on pledge training last semester, and Pledgemasters Craddock and Campbell did a fine job.

The chapter invited all alumni in the vicinity of Farmville to the first meeting in April. The response was so good that one night every two months in the future has been set aside for a get together of alumni and actives.

Big Year Expected By Gamma-Eta Chapter

◆ GAMMA-ETA at the University of Southern California started off the spring semester in a fashion which indicates that 1947-48 will be a highly successful year for the chapter.

The most important event of the semester was the Initiation Formal held in conjunction with the traditional Founders' Day Banquet. One of the largest and finest beach clubs along the Southern California coast, the Bel-Air Bay Club, was obtained for the dinner-dance. The setting of the club was beautiful. In addition to the large dance floor, which for the night featured one of the finest of S.C.'s student orchestras, there was a spacious dining room, and a beautifully prepared and wonderfully served buffet supper of baked ham and roast turkey plus trimmings. Other features were an outdoor patio, and a balcony just off the dance floor, overlooking the rolling Pacific.

Gamma-Eta's social chairmen, Chuck Baldwin and Rex Perry, were given a hearty thanks by the chapter for their work planning the dance.

The chapter also was highly honored by the presence at the dance of two distinguished visiting brothers, Herbert F. Koch, a trustee of THE SHIELD AND DIA-on a tour of the chapter house, and was honor guest at luncheon. She showed her gratitude by dedicating a song to ΠΚΑ on her nationwide broadcast. Pledge Dicus, a personal friend of the radio and movie star, arranged the visit.

A highlight of the annual Initiation Dance at Gamma-Eta chapter was the presentation of a jeweled pin to Paul Reiter (right) for having the highest scholastic honors in the pledge class. Bill Winn, SMC (left), makes the presentation while new initiates Gil Smith and Walt Anderson applaud in the background.

MOND Fund, and Curtis R. Beresford, president of District 17.

In keeping with Gamma-Eta tradition, three awards were made at the dance. A cup was awarded to Bill Winn, SMC, for having been selected as the outstanding active member of the house. Two jeweled pins were awarded to new initiates. The first one was given to John Cadenhead, who was voted outstanding among last year's pledges by the active chapter, and the other pin was awarded to Paul Reiter, who compiled a grade-point average of 2.8, for having the highest scholastic standing of all the pledges.

Rushing and pledging proceeded splendidly, with 21 men pledged, one of the finest pledge classes of recent years.

New initiates include Walt Anderson, Dave Barr, John Cadenhead, Norman Caldwell, Tom Harmon, Jim Kelly, Jim McCormick, Ed Michael, Paul Reiter, Gil Smith and Pete Vagnino.

2 RUSH PARTIES GIVEN IN JAX

◆ Two rush parties for Jacksonville, Fla., high school graduates were given during the summer. The first was a beach party at Fernandina Beach where the highlights of the day were a beach softball game and a chicken dinner.

The second party was at the Fort George Island home of Dr. Lucien Y. Dyrenforth, AH. Wives of alumni served a buffet supper. Charles Boyd was chairman of rushing.

Frank Hannum is president; Howard McClain, vice-president, and Dan Labry, secretary-treasurer.

Salute Party Given For Pi's Advancements

By R. C. HAYDON
Pi Chapter

◆ MARKING the end of Pi chapter's first year of post-war operation and its fifty-fifth year of fraternal existence, Pi's 63 active members paused during their mid-March "Anniversary Song" house party to pay tribute to the past and look to greater heights in the future.

The two-day celebration was featured by a Saturday afternoon cocktail party in the Washington and Lee chapter's

"Pika Room" and a nine-to-twelve formal dance.

Thomas R. Watkins, IMC, and Miss Peggy Hamilton, both of Newport News, Va., were "King and Queen for a Day" and reigned graciously over some 150 brothers, alumni, and guests. Miss Hamilton, petit and brunette, looked every inch a queen as she and her escort led dancing to the swing wing of Washington and Lee's Southern Collegians.

The attractive couple were crowned Saturday night by SMC James C. Moorehead during an impressive coronation ceremony. Maids-of-honor were Misses Barbara Ellis of New York City, Nancy Parrish of Manassas, Va., Lou Ann Hoover of El Paso, Texas, Virginia Moody of Madison College, Carolyn Bason of Washington, D. C., and Miquelin "Mickey" Poulet, Air France hostess from Paris.

Completing the court were escorts "Scotty" Haislip, Dick Haydon, John McRee, Bill Bryan, Jim Harman and Bob Coulling.

The party was a salute especially to Pi's achievements during the past 12 months, which have seen the chapter rise from a nucleus of 10 returning actives to its present strength.

In this period Pi chapter has initiated 34 men; has conducted its Washington and Lee's most successful rush week, pledging 36 men; has had two men (James W. Harman and Leo Signaigo) tapped by Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership society; and has had one man (James W. Harman) named to Phi Beta Kappa.

The chapter has regained its position as a power in intramural athletics.

Miss Janet Barber, Fremont, Ohio, was chosen Delta-Beta Sweetheart and was presented at the annual Sweetheart Formal on March 1st at Bowling Green State University.

Two of the honored guests at Gamma-Eta's annual Initiation Dance at the University of Southern California were Curtis R. Beresford (left), ΔΣ, president of District 17, and Herbert F. Koch (right), ΔΣ, a trustee of The Shield and Diamond Endowment Fund. Between the guests is SMC Bill Winn.

Complete renovation of its house, used by the Army during the war, has been completed and despite present day costs much of its pre-war charm and comfort have been restored.

James C. Moorehead of Portsmouth, Va., was named SMC in recent elections, succeeding Jim Harman whose yeoman work in the reactivating of the chapter will not soon be forgotten. Other officers elected were Thomas R. Watkins, IMC; Dashiell Rouse, ThC and house manager. Dick Haydon was appointed as SC.

Since his election Moorehead had instituted a sweeping reorganization in the house's internal affairs. A new committee system has been set up and is designed to provide work for every member of the chapter.

Pi's most difficult problem during its reorganization year has been that of maintaining financial stability. A large amount of money was spent to repair and redecorate its house and this and other costs put the house manager through some bad months.

Under a program of rigid economy the chapter is now recovering and hopes to report a clean financial bill of health by the close of the current semester.

Pi's social reputation, however, has not been abandoned at the expense of economy and its parties are still regarded as the best on Washington and Lee's campus.

Two Literary Awards Nabbed By Delta-Beta

Yoakam, a sophomore English student from Findlay, Ohio, took first place in poetry with his free verse, "Silence," and third place with "Bitter Sweets," also in free verse.

Newkirk, a senior from Bettsville, Ohio, also is an English major. He took first place in the closet drama division with "Someday."

Officers now serving Delta-Beta chapter are Jack Wilhelm, SMC; Howard Bevington, IMC; William E. Yoakam, SC; Dale McOmber, ThC, and Lee Miesle, pledge master.

Recent initiates include Edwin Bergman, Norman DeTray, Gerald Harms, Evelyn Kibler, AXΩ president, presents the Homecoming House Decorations Cup to SMC Bert Flietz as members of the Gamma Phi Beta Trio look on, at halftime of the Bowling Green-Oberlin football game. Darrell Heaston, William Limpach, Warren Ludwig, Leonard McCullough, David Merrill, James E. Miller, Frederick Moon, George Pugh, Donald Raudo-bough and Paul Seiving.

The newly initiated brothers sponsored a closed informal dance at Kohl Hall.

Delta-Beta won the Homecoming house decoration contest, sponsored by the Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The house, at 130 South Prospect street, Bowling Green, followed the theme, "Smash Oberlin." A wrecked automobile was placed on the lawn, complete with yard lines and goal posts. A Bowling Green "Falcon" was depicted giving Oberlin College team, represented by the auto, a "stiff arm." The contest will be an annual event on Homecoming week end. A rotating cup has been purchased. It is resting on Delta-Beta's mantel now.

The chapter also won the Christmas House Decorations trophy. The cup was presented by the Student Christian Fellowship organization for the best decorated house with a Christmas spirit theme. Don Miller was in charge of decorations, assisted by William E. Yoakam and Vernon Graham.

Pie Eating Contest At Purdue Ends In Tie

◆ THE latest in the traditional series of yearly pie-eating contests at Purdue University between I I K A and I I K Φ has ended in a tie, so the dispute as to which group of pledges consumes pies in the speediest fashion will have to rest a while.

The two fraternities, the only ones on the Purdue campus whose names start with the Greek letter II, have been competing for pie-eating honors for 11 years. During this time I I K A has won three encounters, I I K Φ four, and last Oct. 18 the two houses tied for honors for the second time. The contest was dropped in 1943 and 1944 but was resumed in 1945, while 1946 proved the event was back with greater enthusiasm than ever before.

Briefly, the rules of the contest provide that the contestants—six from each fraternity—start from the corner of the block in front of the Student Union, sprint to the blueberry pies, and stagger back to the starting point. Since the customary utensils for eating (including the hands) are outlawed, the only eligible utensils are the mouth and face.

Judges are composed of 12 co-eds representing the sororities on campus.

Gamma-Psi Formal Sets New Records

By GUY T. ASHWORTH
Gamma-Psi Chapter

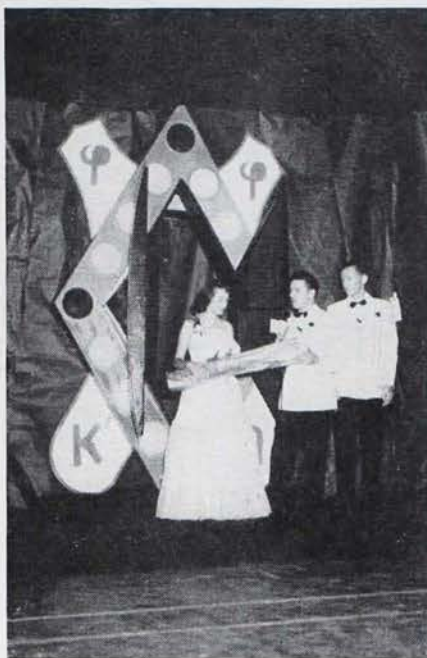

◆ THE fear that they cannot surpass themselves next year sheds the only dark light on the annual black and white formal given by members of Gamma-Psi chapter at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute.

Mrs. H. E. Ruff, of Ruston, was presented as the fraternity mother for the coming year. The highlight of the dance was the presentation of Miss Paul Hogan, as Dream Girl, from double doors in the center of a ten-foot, lighted replica of the IKA pin.

The walls and ceilings were covered solid and sprinkled with cutouts of stars, dancing couples, and top hats. A ten-foot, three-dimension crest was placed at the opposite end from the pin and bands.

The intermission party decorations followed the general theme of the dance. Gifts were presented to the faculty sponsor and advisor, Dr. H. E. Ruff, and Coach Eddie McClain. After refreshments of diamond shaped IKA cakes and punch, each man presented his date with a sterling identification bracelet before returning to the dance.

At the end of the school term, as is the custom each year, 25 Gamma-Psi men and their dates went on a four-day house party to Petit Jean State Park in the Arkansas Ozarks. Professor and Mrs. J. Huett, IΨ, accompanied the group. Swimming, fishing, boating, dancing, and exploring in Bear Cave were enjoyed with the scenic beauty.

IKA's at Louisiana Tech are captain of the football team, president of the senior class, president of the Student Union, president of the Student Senate, Little All-American guard, president of the Engineers Association, president of the Chemical Engineers, vice president of ΔAP (honorary engineering fraternity), president of the Interfraternity Council, vice president of the Engineers Association, vice president of Mechanical Engineers, treasurer of the Student Union, treasurer of the Amvets, secretary of the Engineers Association, cheer leader, treasurer of Chemical Engineers, treasurer of Electrical Engineers, king of Engineers Ball, three of four knights for Engineers Ball, and four men listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

room on the south end of the living room.

Rooms for 46 men, baths, and telephone booths are located on the north half of the first floor and on the third floor. Two men live in each room. The rooms have single beds, chests of drawers, clothes closets, and individual desks.

Plans call for a housemother's apartment on the west side of the second floor. It will consist of living room, bedroom, dressing and bathroom. Also being completed during the summer vacation is the redecoration and refurnishing of the living room, redecoration of the bedrooms, and the conversion of the chapel into a recreation room and library.

The house has been unoccupied by a fraternity since the middle 1930's and served as a naval officers' club during the war. In February it was purchased by Hilltop House, Inc., an alumni organization. The chapter rents the house from them.

The house corporation board includes L. L. Hickerson, Iowa City, president; Leo Hoegh, Chariton, and Russell Lundy, Des Moines, vice presidents; Adrian C. Crawford, Iowa City, secretary; and William H. Bartley, Iowa City, treasurer. All are Gamma-Nu alumni.

Beta-Xi Staging Come-Back At University Of Wisconsin

◆ BETA XI is staging a come-back at the University of Wisconsin, although temporarily handicapped by lack of a chapter house. The chapter was inactivated in 1942 when everyone in the group entered the service.

Transfers from other schools and the return of several of the 1942 members have set the fraternity back on the right road again, however.

Recently elected officers of the chapter include Kermit Neitzel, SMC; Galen Winter, IMC; Ray Weeks, ThC, and Dean Waldo, SC.

Beta-Xi chapter joined with the Milwaukee group of alumni of Pi Kappa Alpha in a banquet observing the founding of the fraternity. The banquet was held at the Milwaukee Athletic Club in Milwaukee.

Members of Beta-Xi have distinguished themselves on the campus of the University of Wisconsin in many ways. Ray Weeks has been elected to membership in Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, and Phi Kappa Phi, all-university honor society. He is president of the local chapter of Eta Kappa Nu, honorary electrical engineering society, and has received the John Morse fellowship in electrical engineering. Ray was a delegate to the national convention of the Institute of Radio Engineers held recently in New York City, and a candidate for president of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Galen Winter was a chairman of the all-campus humor show, "Humorology, '47," and a candidate for vice-president of the Interfraternity Board.

Myron "Mick" Miller, who was the National Collegiate Association boxing champion of 1943 in the 165-pound class, boxed this season in the 175-pound class on the university boxing team. In the 1947 NCAA boxing tournament held here recently Mick was defeated in the semi-finals on a very close decision.

Don Johnson, journalism student, and Charles Fisher, photographer, have aided in publicizing chapter activities.

Dean Waldo has returned to the chapter from Army service as a holder of the Order of the Purple Heart medal and two Silver Stars.

Beta-Xi has been under the handicap of not having a chapter house, but a program to raise funds for the purchase of a new house has been started and is moving along nicely. There are only a few suitable houses available at the present time, but they are now being appraised to find the best possible future home for Beta-Xi.

The chapter owes a debt of gratitude to "Spike" Carlson, alumnus counselor, for his invaluable aid to the chapter in launching the house acquirement program and providing interim space for chapter meetings and parties.

CASKEY DISTRIBUTES RUSH INFORMATION

◆ WILSON R. CASKEY, National Rushing Director, has mailed all chapters a seven-page directory for rushing.

"I am presenting some thoughts on rushing that are intended to serve as a guide or check list to assist you in the important job of rushing," Caskey said.

One of the highlights of the directory is the 11-point program to offer the rushee.

Beta-Omicron Takes Full Share Of Honors

◆ ALTHOUGH Beta-Omicron chapter was inactive during the war years 1943-45, as were all fraternities on the University of Oklahoma campus, it has returned once more into the full swing of things since its reorganization a year ago.

Back from the wars and active once more in chapter affairs are 25 "old" members, whose number has been increased to 41 with the initiation of 16 new brothers in 1946. Also participating in the reactivating process are 32 pledges, most of whom will be eligible for membership this spring.

Beta-Omicron is already well along the way to a highly successful 1946-47 school year, grabbing its full share of honors and taking part energetically in campus activities.

The chapter captured first place in district intramural football competition and ranked high among golf and horse-shoe participants. Coached by Athletic Director Jim McFerron, the Pika basketball squad already has registered two wins in loop play.

The organization's biggest social function each year, its black and white formal dance, was held last Nov. 15 and the same gala spirit of pre-war black and whites was not missing. Earlier in the month the pledge class displayed its entertainment wares by staging a full-blown farm party for members, dates and other guests.

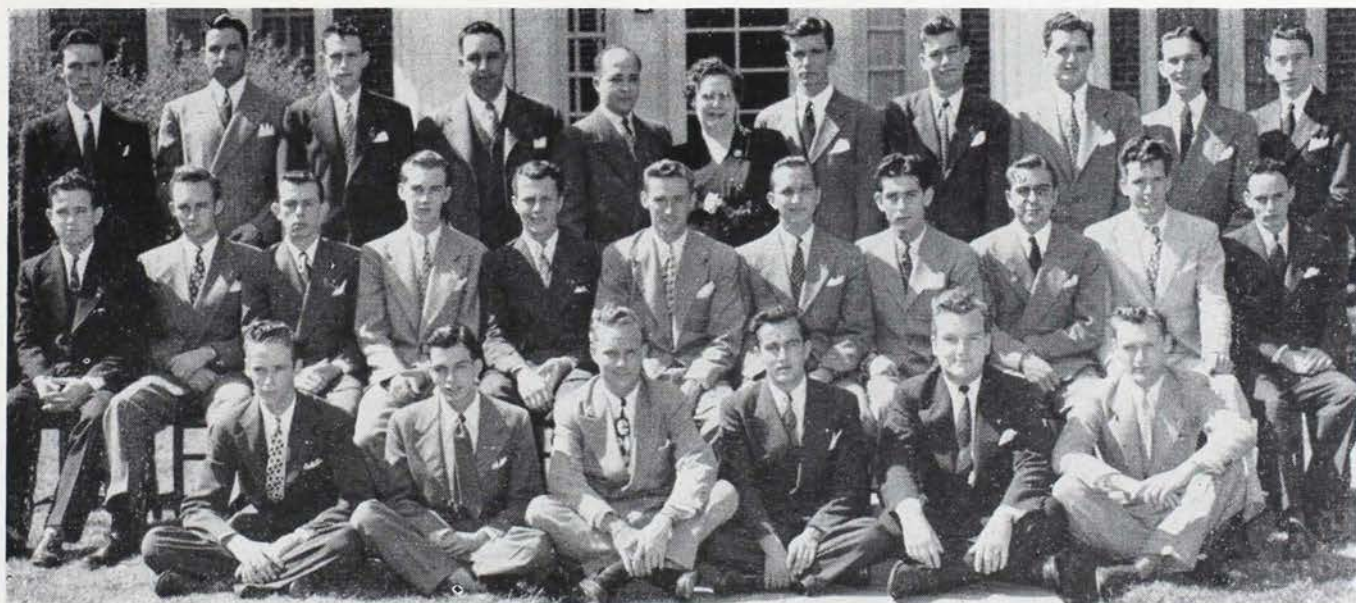

Chapter officers for the 1946-47 terms include: First semester—president, George Jennings; vice-president, Ralph Reiger; treasurer, Deward Harrall; secretary, Bill Maltby; IFC representative, Larry Varvel; social chairman, Jack Harris, and rush chairman, Howard Moyer.

Relaxing in Beta-Omicron's chapter house prior to attending its annual spring formal March 8 are these IJKAs and their dates. Left to right, Bob Reddin; Anna Barnett, ΔΔΠ, and date, Don Gilchrist; Betty Lynn, ΑΤΔ, and date, Bob Casteel; and Jane Donovan, ΔΔΠ, with date, Lenton Roller.

Second semester—president, George Barzellone; vice-president, Harry Moreland; secretary, Kit Ross; treasurer, Deward Harrell; IFC representative, Lewis Bond; rush chairman, Dick Foster, and social chairman, Ralph Reiger.

Pledge class leaders are Jack Gravitt, president; Joe Schaff, vice-president, and John Hager, secretary-treasurer.

somewhat vague relationships. Some of the large universities have recognized this need of close association and, like Harvard and Yale, have organized the university into relatively small residential units which are communities within the larger university community in which personal relationships are made obvious and meaningful. The fraternity further reduces this community to a small, homogeneous group where the relationships are still more intimate and personal. Like the home, the emphasis is upon persons as persons and where the relations of community are brought to the vivid consciousness of its participants. In such an intimate association one has in the highest degree the sense of belonging to a significant social group. Success or failure in the discernment and fulfillment of these personal relationships are more open to observation and cultivation or correction than they could possibly be in a large, heterogeneous, and impersonal group.

The fraternity provides a disciplined association. Membership involves the acceptance of obligations and the commitment to ideals. Long experience has demonstrated that there are fruitful ways of living together in such a group and out of this experience the fraternity has evolved a structure of organization, rules of procedure, and measures of discipline. Through friendly and constructive criticism by his intimate associates, the fraternity man is made conscious of his shortcomings and is stimulated to overcome them. Group approval and disapproval are among the most effective incentives in the molding of attitudes and behavior.

Closely related to the disciplinary influence of the fraternity is the fact that in the fraternity one is assigned or accepts a role. At its best, the national fraternity stands for an ideal which it seeks to embody in its local chapters. It is a symbol of a type of thinking, of attitudes, and of social graces. As has been pointed out by the social scientists, the acceptance of a role is a chief determinant in the shaping of character. In accepting membership in a fraternity one voluntarily accepts the role for which the fraternity stands, nationally and locally. In his imagination the true fraternity man holds before him the picture of the sort of person he would like to become. He lives his life within a tradition of ideals. This tradition he accepts for himself and seeks to live up to its standards. This fact obviously lays a great responsibility upon the national and local fraternity for cultivating and communicating the highest ideals of the American college and university and of the liberally educated gentleman.

The fraternity affords an inclusive association in a widely extended national body. This serves as a corrective of the narrow localism and provincialism that too often characterize independent fraternal organizations. In Pi Kappa Alpha one is conscious of belonging not only to a significant local group, but to a nationwide and supervised movement embracing some 84 local chapters and some 35,000 members. This lifts the local chapter from a purely local and provincial level to a cosmopolitan level. It gives the individual member a sense of belonging to a significant, widely extended contemporary movement.

Finally, the fraternity gives one a sense of belonging, not only to a widely extended contemporary movement, but to a long and honorable tradition with a rich and growing history. All who have visited the room on the Quadrangle of the University of Virginia, founded by the illustrious Thomas Jefferson, where Pi Kappa Alpha had its beginning in 1868, have felt the inspiring impact of its long and notable history. He feels himself not only one with the six founders whose friendship and affection for each other prompted them to found the first chapter which has grown into a national historic movement, but with the thousands of like-minded college men whose ideals and achievements have been built into the movement through more than three-quarters of a century. He feels himself to be the legatee of that rich heritage which he is under obligation to preserve and to expand. Most inspiring of all, he and his living fellows are the growing edge of that noble historical movement in whom its ideals and purposes find contemporary expression in the American college and university and in whom they are reinterpreted and enriched by their own life and achievements. Thus Pi Kappa Alpha lives on in us and grows toward a still greater future in the mid-twentieth century.

I can think of no nobler expression of the concept of the fraternity as an adventure in friendship than the words of the Preamble of Pi Kappa Alpha, adopted on Sunday evening of March 1, 1868, at the University of Virginia:

For the establishment of friendship on a firmer and more lasting basis; for the promotion of brotherly love and kind feeling; for the mutual benefit and advancement of those with whom we sympathize and deem worthy of our regard; we have resolved to form a Fraternity, believing that, thus can we most successfully accomplish our object.
