ENGINEERING STUDENT AT PURDUE HONORED

◆ FRANKLIN E. CASKEY is Fellow No. 97 and became a member of Indiana Alpha at Purdue University last December. He is a top-notch chemical engineer and stands fourteenth from the top in his engineering class of about 1,000 men. Franklin hails from Princeton, Ind., and he is 20 years old and single. He has earned about half of his college expenses but wants to put full time on his graduate work next year. He is working toward a Ph.D. in his field and eventual employment in plastics industrial research. Franklin intends to major in unit operations, including heat transmission, distillation, absorption and extraction, and thermodynamics next year. He will take minors in organic technology and physical chemistry.

As an undergraduate at Purdue, this enterprising young man owns soft-drink and cigarette vending machines and delivers newspapers. He belongs to Pi Kappa Alpha and Alpha Phi Omega and has been elected to Omega Chi Epsilon, Catalyst Club, Phi Lambda Upsilon and Tau Beta Pi honor societies, and he has played in the Purdue Military Band. Franklin expects to remain at Purdue for his master's work but to go to another school for his doctor's degree.

—The Dent of Tau Beta Pi, April, 1949.

Editor's Notebook

◆ JAMES S. MARTIN, 4332 Jackson Street, Birmingham, sends the following poem from the July issue of Railway Carmen's Journal and the following comment:

"This little poem seemed to fit the occasion so well at the two chapters where I was active that I am sure that it would apply to some members in almost every chapter."

Are you an Active member,
The kind that would be missed??
Or are you just contented
Now that your name is on the list???

Do you attend the meetings
And mingle with the flock??
Or do you just stay at home
To criticize and knock???

Do you take an Active part
To help things go along???
Or are you just satisfied to be
Of the kind that "Just belongs"????

There is always some discussion
That, I'm sure, you've heard about,
And for ALL, it would be easier
If you'd come and help us out.

So come to the meetings often
To help with hand and heart,
Don't just be a "Member,"
But take an Active part.

Now think this over, Brother,
You know right from wrong,
Are YOU an Active Member?
Or do you "JUST BELONG"??

NEWELL TAKES PART IN FRENCH EXPERIMENT

◆ SAM NEWELL, JR., AI, of Jackson, Miss., a cousin of Harvey T. Newell, AI, spent eight weeks in France this summer under auspices of "Experiment in International Living."

About half of the time was with a French family studying the lives and problems of persons of that nation. A daily organized study period was planned with Sam taking his turn as being teacher and student.

The remainder of the period was to be spent in Paris. Thus he was enabled to study both rural and urban groups.

Sam has studied French for the last two years at Millsaps. He is editor of the student newspaper and is majoring in English. He also is a member of ODK, Alpha Psi Omega, (dramatics) and Kit Kat (creative writing).

Cincinnati Chosen For 1950 Convention

◆ SELECTION of Cincinnati for the 1950 National Convention and the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., for the Chapter Officers' School were among the important actions taken at the Supreme Council meeting May 14 and 15 at Hot Springs, Va.

The date will be near Labor Day weekend and the Hotel Netherland Plaza probably will be convention headquarters.

Executive Secretary Lynn and others from the national office conferred with convention officials and leading Pi Kappa Alphas of the Queen City in July making advance arrangements. In the conference were Earl Wagner and Douglas Hoge, both of Alpha-Xi. Hoge is retiring president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and has had experience with conventions of that organization.

All members of Council were present except Alumni Secretary Powell McHaney.

Council approved selection of a Memphis firm of auditors and discussed the extent of participation of the national office in collection of delinquent chapter accounts.

After hearing from five undergraduates at University of Indiana, Council agreed to endorse the local Pi Kappa in anticipation of a formal petition at a later date.

Official jewelers were authorized to standardize keys for minor chapter officers similar to SMC keys.

Chapter Officer School To Be Held In Lexington, Ky.

National Treasurer Powers gave an analysis of fraternity finances for the last seven years which showed the fraternity operating in a satisfactory condition comparatively. He urged that every care be exercised to achieve maximum operating efficiency at the lowest cost possible.

R. M. McFarland, Jr., Ralph Yeager and Guy Borkey were named to a committee to report at the 1950 convention on the District President System.

Former President John M. Packer was named chairman of the Convention Nominating Committee, J. Grant Iverson and Roy D. Hickman were named to serve on this committee.

Other national officer reports were given and discussed.

Alpha-Lambda Wins Scholarship Cup

◆ ALPHA-LAMBDA CHAPTER, at Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky., won the Scholarship Cup for 1948-49, moving the trophy from Beta-Epsilon, Western Reserve University.

A permanent trophy was awarded to Gamma-Epsilon Chapter, Utah State University, for maintaining the highest average for chapters in schools with more than 1,000 enrollment of male students.

In third place was Gamma-Tau Chapter, at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, winner of the fraternity cup on the R.P.I. campus.

National Education Advisor John A. Fincher gave the following explanation of how the final award figures were computed:

1. Number men first term multiplied by chapter average plus number men second term multiplied by chapter average divided by number men in both terms. This is chapter average for year.

2. The men's average is computed in like manner.

3. Subtract the men's average from the highest possible grade (100%, 4.00, 3.00, etc.).

4. Divide that by 100 to get a differential.

JOHN R. BARTLETT, JR.

GARFF WILSON

CHARLES E. LAWRENCE

FRED WILKINS

Administration Bldg., University of California, Berkeley 4, Calif.

No. 25—John U. Yerkovich, III, Builders Exchange Bldg., Portland 4, Ore.

District President Burton, a former national traveling secretary of the Fraternity, succeeds John U. Field, a real veteran from the point of view of IKA service. Field requested permission to retire. Burton is a graduate of the University of Kentucky with an A.B. in economics. He now is finishing a law degree, following a wartime military career as an air forces captain. He served as IMC and SMC of Omega chapter.

Prof. Edwin L. (Larry) Miller, an alumnus of Alpha-Kappa chapter at the Missouri School of Mines and now a member of the faculty at North Carolina State College, is the new president of District 6. He succeeds Martin K. Green, AA. Miller served as the head of the district, then known as 5a, during the latter part of the war. The well-known engineer gave up the post because of the press of business affairs in 1946, but since has consented to serve again.

The new District 7 chief, Fred Wilkins, attended North Georgia College, where he was initiated by Psi chapter. Later he attended the University of Georgia. He was with the Mayflower Doughnut Corp. for 15 years, and served more than three years in the Marines, enlisting as a private and reaching the rank of first lieutenant. After two years in business for himself as a contractor, Wilkins sold his interests and took over the South Carolina territory for L. G. Balfour Co.

A special assistant to the president of the University of California is directing the administration of District 23. Dr. Garff Wilson is the university's director of public ceremonies, in addition to being a member of the speech faculty. He received A.B. and M.A. degrees from California, then took his doctorate from Cornell University in drama, speech and English.

Before joining the U. of C. staff, he was director of speech and drama at Humboldt State College for five years, and served as dean of men at the same school for four years. He was assistant director of the Cornell University Theater for two years while working on his doctor's degree.

Well known as a debater during his undergraduate days at California, Doctor Wilson also served as student president of Phi Beta Kappa and house manager of IKA.

He served in the army for four years, going from the rank of private to captain.

District President Cary, who heads activity in No. 4, attended Howard College, Birmingham, Ala., from 1928-30, where he was initiated into Alpha-Pi chapter. He transferred to the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania in 1930 on a scholarship. He was awarded the B.S. degree in economics there in 1932.

Later, District President Cary took a government job, and began study on a law degree at George Washington University in his spare moments. In 1938, he was granted the LL.B. degree by G.W.U. He assisted in forming the Washington Alumnus Chapter, of which he served as president last year. Further study at Georgetown resulted in the LL.M. in 1942.

JAMES P. BROWN

Cary served with the Office of Naval Intelligence for nearly four years during the war, finally going on inactive duty in 1946 as a lieutenant-commander. He now is associate chief of the examining division of the Copyright Office, which is a part of the Library of Congress. Cary succeeds Sam McCart, retired.

The new District 9 President—L. William Graham, AH—has spent his entire life in Gainesville, Fla. He was graduated from the University of Florida in 1939 with a degree in business administration, then began the study of law. In 1941 he left his law books and entered the army (he was a major in the Air Corps), returning to the campus in 1946. He was graduated a year later with an LL.B. degree.

In addition to his position as district president, Graham is president of the Alpha-Eta House Corp. He is in law practice with Lazonby & Dell, Gainesville.

Students at Mississippi State College affectionately refer to Prof. Charles E. Lawrence, BX, who is the new District 14 president, as "Pappy" Larry. Testimony of his popularity on the campus is the fact that he serves as faculty adviser of four groups at MSC, including IKA. Others are Alpha Psi Omega (dramatics), Alpha Phi Omega (service) and Blue Key (leadership). A teacher of speech and English, Prof. Lawrence also is a member of numerous speech and education associations.

Lawrence, recently elected to the next edition of Who's Who in America, long has been a IKA faithful. He served as alumnus counselor of the Georgia Tech

Alpha-Tau at Utah Again Wins Riculfi Trophy

◆ ALPHA-TAU CHAPTER at the University of Utah again won the Riculfi Trophy for chapter participation in athletics. The trophy was given by Robert M. Riculfi, Alpha-Eta, hotel executive of West Palm Beach.

Runner-up was Gamma-Omega Chapter at University of Miami, one of the fraternity's greater chapters in athletics.

Alpha-Phi Chapter at Howard was third, Gamma Chapter at the College of William and Mary was fourth and Iota Chapter at Hampden-Sydney was fifth.

Judges were Dillon Graham, AII; Karl B. Pauley, AP, and J. V. C. T. Christensen, III, FH.

The following point system is used as the basis for awarding the Riculfi Athletic Trophy. The winning chapter retains possession of the trophy for one year. The name of the chapter will be inscribed on the trophy. Three-time winners of temporary possession will receive permanent possession.

Points will be compiled for the school year, September through May.

Intramurals

- 1 point A. For each man participating in any intramural sport. He will receive credit for each sport in which he participates.

- 8 points B. For individual Intramural championships.

- 10 points C. For a team winning a major sport Intramural championship. (Football, basketball, and baseball or softball).

- 8 points D. For all other team championships. (Specify).

Intercollegiate

Major sports—football, basketball, baseball and track.

Athletic Honors

- 4 points E. For participating all season and not receiving a letter or freshman numerals.

- 6 points F. For receiving a varsity letter or freshman numeral.

- 8 points G. Team captains. Minor sports—all other recognized sports than those named above.

- 2 points H. Same as E above.

- 4 points I. Same as F above.

- 6 points J. Same as G above.

Ohio University Chapter Repeats In Contest on Reporting Records

◆ GAMMA-OMICRON CHAPTER at Ohio University again won the Robert A. Smythe Efficiency Award for chapter reporting.

The chapter retains the trophy for another year with the amazing score of zero. This means that every report was on time in the National Office at Memphis for the entire year.

A close second was Alpha-Nu Chapter at University of Missouri. One report from that chapter was five days late, charging the chapter with five points.

Other chapters finished in this order: Gamma-Nu, University of Iowa, 10; Alpha-Zeta, University of Arkansas, 19; Gamma-Lambda, Lehigh University, 30; Upsilon, Auburn, 31; Alpha-Theta, University of West Virginia, 32; Beta Chapter, Davidson College, 36, and Beta-Iota, Beloit College, 42.

Tabulation for this trophy is kept at the National Office.

ALPHA-TAU AT UTAH

- 8 points K. For being selected on the All-IKA Team, or any other team selected as the Fraternity's best.
- 8 points L. For being selected on All-State or (1) All-Conference, or an All-Regional team.*
- 20 points M. Selected to an All-American first or second team by UP, AP, INS, NEA, Collier's, or Saturday Evening Post.*
- N. Selection on Kansas City and Madison Square Garden All-NIT or NCA Tourney basketball teams will be considered as All-American.
- O. Winners of NCAA, or ICAAAA Boxing and Wrestling Championships.
- P. National AAU Track and Swimming championships.
- Q. The USLTA tennis championships and the USGA Intercollegiate Golf championships.

NOTE: All these are considered All-American, and receive a point value of 20.

* The player will receive credit for the highest honorary team to which he is named, or to the highest championship won, but will not be eligible for credits for subordinate honors in the same sport. He will, however, receive credit for being named to the All-Fraternity team regardless of, and in addition to, whatever other honorary credits he may receive.

Each report must be certified by the SMC and the chapter athletic director. All claims for credit for Intercollegiate and Athletic Honors must be accompanied by clippings or by a reference to a magazine available to the National Office. The winning chapter must be prepared to show the Traveling Secretary the trophies or plaques won in all intramural team or individual championships.

10 Points—For each additional All-American team made.

No pledge credit except earned while a pledge.

◆ NORMAN L. KNISELY, former S.M.C. of the Delta Beta Chapter, Bowling Green State University, was recently elected president of the Bowling Green Lucas County Alumni Association. Knisely is employed at the Central Branch YMCA, Toledo, Ohio, as the assistant program secretary in charge of young adult activities.

"Plainsman Pike" of Auburn Wins Chapter Publications Cup

◆ UPSILON CHAPTER, which has for several years published The Plainsman Pike, has been awarded the Karl Pauley Trophy for chapter publications. The award was won last year by Gamma-Omega chapter at University of Miami, Florida.

While the Auburn publication appears quarterly, a point to its disadvantage, the newspaper displayed by far the best selected and best presented content. The four-column page allows a well-balanced makeup and the pictures show up well on the slick paper.

A typical issue features a "Dream Girl of the Month," a story about an alumnus and articles on the accomplishments of the active members.

Runner-up was The Eta Data, published by Eta Chapter at Tulane University. A monthly publication on slick paper, this publication is pointed more to the active chapter and written in "lingo" understood best by that group.

Alpha Kappa Kapers, Missouri School of Mines; Tau Times, University of North Carolina; The Pi Kap Review, Alpha-Lambda Chapter, Georgetown College; The Tulsa Pi Kap, Gamma-Upsilon Chapter, University of Tulsa, and The Bull Sheet, of Gamma-Phi Chapter at Wake Forest, were some of the better printed newspapers.

The BA Degree of Beta-Alpha Chapter at Penn State, and Beta Theta Data, Beta-Theta Chapter at Cornell were two of the outstanding mimeographed bulletins.

The Garnet and Gold of Gamma-Omega, University of Miami, Florida, and Jayhawk Pi-Kap of Beta-Gamma Chapter at University of Kansas were standouts in the annual division.

DISTRICT PRESIDENTS

chapter from 1933 to 1942. During that period he was teaching at Tech High School in Atlanta, after having served as superintendent of schools in Ty Ty, Chipley and Buena Vista, Ga. Since 1942 he has taught at North Georgia College, Middle Tennessee State College and Mississippi State. He is assistant professor of speech and English at Mississippi State. He is a graduate of Mercer University, and has attended Columbia, Emory and the University of Georgia.

District 13's 28-year-old prexy is James Powell Brown, AN '41. Jim received his AB at the University of Missouri in 1942, serving as ThC and house manager of his chapter from 1941 to 1942. After serving 3½ years in the Army as both an enlisted man and officer in military government in France, Luxembourg and Germany, he returned to the University to receive his LL.B in 1947. Graduating as the top man in his law class, he was a member of the board of editors of the Missouri Law Review, the Order of the Coif, and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

Jim now is in the general practice of the law in St. Louis, Mo., where he is associated with the firm of Thompson, Mitchell, Thompson & Young.

District 19 President John R. Bartlett, Jr., is an alumnus of Beta-Mu Chapter at the University of Texas, where he was graduated in business administration in 1937.

He's a certified public accountant with

Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. in Dallas, and is a member of the American Institute of Accountants and several other business societies.

Dudley Newton, BT, new leader in District 10, is a professor of engineering at Wayne University in Detroit. He took a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from the University of Michigan in 1923, then returned for his master's degree in 1936. Meantime, he had organized the department of civil engineering at Wayne after nine years experience in construction and design with professional engineers.

He is a member of numerous professional societies, including the American Society of Civil Engineers, and is a registered professional engineer and land surveyor in the State of Michigan.

District President Newton also organized Alumnus Chapter Gamma-Beta at Detroit some twenty years ago.

The new District 21 chief is treasurer of the Public Service Co. of New Mexico. Ralph E. Loken, BΔ, was graduated from the University of New Mexico in 1933 with a degree in economics and accounting. He worked with his present organization while still in school, and joined the firm full-time in the accounting department upon graduation. He became assistant secretary and assistant treasurer in 1940, moving up to treasurer last year.

He is a past president of the Albuquerque Junior Chamber of Commerce, and a past national director of the U. S. Junior Chamber.

23 Delegates Attend Troy, N.Y., District Meeting

By DON MISARE
Gamma-Tau Chapter

◆ GAMMA-TAU CHAPTER of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., became host to the joint 1st and 4th District Convention over the week-end of April 30-May 1.

Twenty-three representatives from the following chapters were present: Delta-Alpha of George Washington, Beta-Pi of the University of Pennsylvania, Gamma-Lambda of Lehigh, Beta-Theta of Cornell, Alpha-Chi of Syracuse, Gamma-Tau of Rensselaer, and Alpha-Psi of Rutgers.

During the course of the week-end, matters such as scholarship, campus activities, pledge training, and public relations were subjected to discussion. Through the efforts of Norm Hopson, recording secretary, the minutes of the convention were published and distributed to the chapters of the districts represented and to the National Fraternity office.

The presiding officers were William Widger and George Cary, presidents of the 1st and 4th Districts, respectively; David Powers, national secretary, and John Hippel, National Counsel.

Jack Ring, delegate from Syracuse, combined the week-end into a reunion and convention. He was originally pledged at Rensselaer but later transferred to Syracuse and Alpha-Chi.

Officers who will be guiding the chapter in the fall of '49 are: Dick Peters, SMC; Bill Kinney, IMC; Dick Headly, ThC; and Frank Tomlinson, SC. Appointments were also made consisting of: Tom Jolly, I.F.C. representative; Pete Viemeister, rushing chairman; Phil Meeks, social chairman; Tracy Hartford, bar chairman; Bill Kinney, pledge master; Hunt Martin, alumni secretary; Pete Murto, sports manager; Pete Dollard, publicity; Claude Hartman, corresponding secretary; George Lezan, librarian; Jack Cary, house manager; and Chuck Haggett, steward.

Gamma-Tau now has a total membership of 76, with 32 living in the house and two pledges.

Watkins Presides At 11-B Convention

◆ DISTRICT 11B Convention was held April 23 in Baton Rouge, La., and was conducted by District President Guyton Watkins.

Sam Parker, Carl Klene and John S. Carhinsas, Jr., represented Eta Chapter. Ed Stout Lemar Buffington and James R. Stewart represented Gamma-Psi. Jim Mueller, Albert Richardson, Jr., Drummond Chantler and Joseph Giglio were from Alpha-Beta. Morgan Brassell, Pete Burand and Charles Barnes were from Alpha-Gamma.

The general agenda suggested by the national office was followed and chapter representatives reported on activities of their groups.

Organized Rushing Discussed in Ohio

◆ ORGANIZED rushing by the seven chapters in Ohio was voted at the District Three meeting April 3 in Columbus where Alpha-Rho chapter was host.

Information on high school students turned in to the All-State Committee was voted to be a factor in the district outstanding chapter award.

The Finance Committee endorsed the University Audit System for keeping chapter records.

In discussions on pledge training, it was suggested that the active members write their comments on the activity and behavior of pledges at various intervals during pledgship so that objectional features, if any, be eliminated before actual voting for membership begins. The merit point system of Alpha-Rho was given favorable comment.

The convention decided to have each chapter in the district publish a directory of alumni and actives giving names, addresses, classes, occupations, and chapters.

Hodgkin, A, state superintendent of public instruction.

Religion Called Binding Influence

◆ PROBABLY no force in America has so binding an influence as religion, Dr. Walter A. Zaugg, ΔB, said in an address at District 3 Convention on April 2 at Columbus, Ohio.

"Not only must we learn to live together socially, economically and politically, but also religiously," he said. Dr. Zaugg continued:

"Religion has a tremendous power but in that regard there is one peculiarity about it and that is that it has a tendency to divide into so many sects, so many creeds, so many divisions. I am not talking for unity today. I am talking for cooperation. I am not talking for essentials or fundamentals, but I am just talking for the privilege of men and women working together of various faiths, of various denominations. I think this fraternity exemplifies that very thing, where we have different faiths, we have different creeds living together under the same roof in harmony. I am just wondering if Timothy didn't put it just about what fraternity life means religiously: 'What does the Lord require of thee but to do justice, love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God.'"

"I like to think of America as a great symphony in which everyone has a right to play his own tune provided he is in tune and provided he is willing to follow the leader. Now, whatever we think about working together, we are always looking toward some other country, some other land where we must recognize harmony and unity against rights at home. No nation's foreign policy will ever be any stronger than its local laws. We will never be any stronger in facing the world outside of America than we are in facing the problems right within our own community. I think, if we are to learn to live together, we are going to have to develop a new type of leadership. We are going to have to develop a leadership that believes in the philosophy of likeness and similarity, in the philosophy of cooperation rather than in the philosophy of difference."

Davis Takes Oath as Collector Of Internal Revenue In Alabama

◆ WILLIAM E. DAVIS, TA, appointed by President Truman as collector of internal revenue for Alabama, was sworn into office on April 1 by Federal District Judge Seybourn H. Lynne, TA.

In a ceremony before a packed courtroom, Judge Lynne recalled their friendship which has extended over many years and called the position he is assuming "one of the most important in the framework in Alabama."

Judge Lynne described the new collector as "a humane and kindly person with the ability to organize and compromise in meeting a variety of problems."

Finishing law school in 1935, he opened offices in his home town of Huntsville. Later he served a term in the state legislature. During the war, he was a major in the Judge Advocate General's Department and met in New York and married in 1944 the attractive brunette, Miss Marie Bell of Fort Deposit, Ala.

While a U. S. claims commissioner in Belgium, Major Davis mailed in his qualifying papers for another term in the legislature and when he returned home, he had a successful campaign behind him. During this term, he was chairman of the Transportation Committee and was regarded as one of the most able members of the legislature.

He was campaign manager for two terms for Senator John Sparkman, TA.

As collector, he will have 340 employees responsible to him.

SMC of Gamma-Alpha in 1935, Davis served as pledgemaster each year while at the university. His interest in fraternity affairs continued after graduation. He is a past president of the Huntsville ΠΚΑ alumni chapter and a charter member of the chapter recently organized in Montgomery.

Mell Is Director For Chicago Bank

◆ SOUND judgment and wise counsel of William E. Mell, IP, is proving a valuable asset to the directorate of the Mid-City National Bank of Chicago, according to F. A. Groenwald, president.

Because of his activity in the manufacturing field, his advice on new business is particularly important to the directors.

At Northwestern, where Mell was graduated in commerce in 1931, he was a member of Delta Sigma Pi. He worked with the Dictaphone Corp. and Curtis Publishing Company before joining the American Sales Book Company as sales representative of printed materials. From 1937 until 1942 he was sales manager of the specialties division of Federal Tool Corporation of Chicago.

After a few months as sales manager for the housewares division of Chicago Metallic Manufacturing Company, he resigned to form with Carl Hoffman the Mell-Hoffman Manufacturing Company.

Oklahoma Gives Lynn Riggs Distinguished Service Citation

◆ A DISTINGUISHED Service Citation for Achievement was presented in absentia to Lynn Riggs, BO, by the University of Oklahoma recently. The busy playwright, whose "Green Grow the Lilacs" became the Broadway smash hit "Oklahoma," remained in New York City for the opening of another of his plays, rather than appear in person to accept the honor.

Riggs was among the five famous Americans chosen by a secret committee. The awards were made on the basis of the individual's efforts in advancing a "better contemporary society" and making Oklahoma a "better known state."

The citations system is a joint project of the University of Oklahoma Association and the University Board of Regents. It recognizes no more than five persons each year. They need not be alumni of the University of Oklahoma, although Riggs is.

In presenting the award, President George Lynn Cross called Riggs "one of today's four greatest dramatists."

During World War II, Riggs served with distinction in the air forces, making training films covering nearly every phase of training and operation.

The certificate presented to Riggs read, in part:

"... in recognition of his substantial contribution to the field of creative literature, his vivid embodiment of the daring spirit of the pioneer in all his work, and his dynamic promotion of the state through the distinctive American musical, 'Oklahoma'."

A written response from Mr. Riggs was read. The great IKA's reaction to the honor was penned in these words:

"It's very difficult for me to think of myself in terms of achievement. Actually, I have done little in life except try to discover who I am and what my relation to the world I know consists of.

"In the world itself I have never really felt at home. How can anyone feel at home in a world of unparalleled stupidity and cruelty, a world aching with hunger and despair? Can one be at peace with the economic and social and political organization of a world that makes man fear living, hate his neighbor, revile the sources of his being, and boast of his allegiance to violence and destruction? I do not think so.

"And turning from the consideration of the outer world in dismay, I look at myself. And what do I find there? Weakness. Lack of discipline. Feeble attempts at understanding. Ignorance. Vanity. Waywardness and conceit.

"I find, however, five working senses. And by great good luck I am able to see that these are tools that can perhaps be made to work for good instead of evil, that if I can refine them enough—these five senses—if I can use them enough truthfully, they may relate things to me that will give me enough strength and enough hope to go on when I find myself and the world impossible. Perhaps—if I am lucky, if I make declarations strong enough through work or through living—other people, too, may find the way less hard.

"This, then, has been my exploration and my path.

"And sometimes I have been able—momentarily—to feel there is hope; sometimes I can approve a little of having been decent and helpful to others; and sometimes I have a rewarding glimpse of the possibility and the glory in mankind.

"This is the only achievement I am aware of. It's pitiable and it's puny—and it's all I know."

Cramer Gets FDIC Post In Washington

◆ DR. EDISON H. CRAMER, BT, of Boulder, Colo., has been appointed chief of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's division of research and statistics.

Dr. Cramer, a native of Michigan, did both his undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Michigan, where he received his Ph.D. degree in economics. He also holds the Standard Certificate from the American Institute of Banking.

From 1927 to 1946 Dr. Cramer was a member of the faculty of the School of Business, University of Colorado, not only as a professor of economics, but likewise as director of its Bureau of Business Research. In that capacity he taught courses in statistics, securities analysis, bank management, economic theory, and other finance subjects. In addition, he is the author of several splendid articles on banking.

Dr. Cramer is a veteran of World War I, having served overseas with the 32nd Division. For such meritorious service he was awarded the Purple Heart. During World War II he was director of the Eighth Regional Office of the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, with headquarters in Denver. Following the war he was executive vice president of the Mercantile Trust Company of Boulder, Colo., of which he has been a director since 1939.

Dr. Cramer is a member of the American Economic Association, American Statistical Association, American Finance Association, Beta Gamma Sigma, and Delta Sigma Pi.

His headquarters will be in Washington.

The three presidents of the University of Virginia are represented at the presentation of the bust of Dr. Newcomb in the Alderman Library. From left are: Colgate W. Darden, Jr., '22, third president of the University; John Lloyd Newcomb, '03, the University's second president; and Mrs. Edwin Anderson Alderman, widow of the University's first president.

Bust Of Dr. Newcomb Presented

◆ A BUST of John Lloyd Newcomb, A and F, for many years president of the University of Virginia, has been placed in the memorial hall at the entrance of Alderman Library at the university.

According to Librarian Harry Clemens, "the occasion of the placing of the bust was, in accordance with the desire of Doctor Newcomb, unannounced and quite informal. On Sunday morning, April 10, the bust was presented by Dean Ribble, chairman of the committee which acted for the members of the faculty and the other friends of Doctor Newcomb who were the donors, and was received for the university by President Darden. Mrs. Alderman was present, and this informal gathering was therefore notable in having all three presidents of the University of Virginia represented.

"The committee which arranged for the bust and for the Cabell Hall meeting in recognition of Doctor Newcomb's services, a meeting which was held towards the close of his administration, was appointed by Dean Lewis and was composed of Dean Ribble, chairman; Professor Dalton, Professor Gooch, Doctor Mulholland, and Dean Rodman. Professor Campbell cooperated with the committee in the selection of the sculptor and in the preparation of the bust and pedestal. The Alderman Library was chosen, among the several places appropriate for the location of the bust, because Doctor Newcomb had been instrumental in securing the funds for that building, the erection of which had occurred during his administration as president."

5. Divide the difference in the chapter average and the men's average by the differential.

6. The result is the per cent above or below the men's average.

Dr. Fincher said: "Deans or registrars are instructed by N.I.C. to compute on the same basis all over the nation. On all campuses the men's average is the zero point because that varies on the different campuses. As members we follow the N.I.C. plan.

"It is my opinion then that the differential puts the different grading systems on an equality and that the use of the average man as zero levels out the hard schools and the easy schools. There is one other major factor that can't be put into the calculation. It is the high or low degree of selection of good students in each institution. That factor is our major headache."

The Georgetown Chapter's average was highest on the Bluegrass campus. Almost half of the 60 members maintained an average of B or above at an institution recognized as having one of the highest academic standards in the state.

The chapter's average was 17 per cent above the all-men's. Fraternities as a whole at Georgetown rank well above the N.I.C. men's average.

Mahaffey Works On Missile Project

◆ RAY F. MAHAFFEY, TB, a research analyst with Boeing Airplane Company, is responsible for the development and operation of the missile guidance station at Alamogordo, N. M.

He is associated with the missile flight test unit of the Boeing GAPA (ground-to-air pilotless aircraft) project on the desert testing range at Holloman air force base.

Most of this work is classified and may not be divulged at present.

"Boeing makes use of both jet and bi-propellant liquid powered missiles," said Mahaffey. "The exceedingly high velocities encountered greatly multiply our design problems."

Mahaffey attended University of Nebraska from 1934 until 1937 where he studied business administration. The following year he was at Nebraska State Teachers College at Kearney.

Joining the Navy in 1939, he became interested in radio, radar, counter-measures, underwater sound detection and other electronic devices.

He attended practically all of the Navy technical schools dealing with electronics during his seven-year period of service. At Tri-State College, he received degrees of Administrative Engineering and Radio Engineering and immediately entered the employ of Boeing. At Tri-State he was elected to Tau Sigma Eta, honorary engineering society.

Continuing his studies, he now is taking correspondence courses in electronics, Spanish and Hawaiian guitar. As a hobby, he operates an amateur radio station, W9DMO, and would like to communicate with other IKA's operating such stations.

He holds a first class radio license, issued by the Federal Communications Commission which allows him to hold the position of chief engineer in a broadcast, television or FM station. He is a member of Institute of Radio Engineers, American Instrument Society and Amateur Radio Relay League.

While at Tri-State, Mahaffey and his wife, Nola, his childhood sweetheart, lost a son, Kerry. But recently a black-eyed baby girl has arrived to enlarge the family.

Harold L. Behlke, director of advertising, described the interviews as follows:

"Our development of the idea represents a departure from the customary methods of interviewing. The technique we use permits concentration on a single subject instead of discussion of several unrelated subjects such as develop in the usual press conference.

"By using a wire recorder in our conference rooms, we are able to catch the informality of conversation between the person interviewed and our entire staff of senior editors. The result is readable, informative, and thought-provoking discussion by men who are active in business, government, industry, labor, public affairs, and agriculture."

Nelson To Head Chest Campaign

◆ L. MELVIN NELSON, BE, Evanston, has been named general chairman of the 1950 campaign of the Evanston Community Chest.

Nelson's position with the Community Chest is similar to one with the Evanston Red Cross held by Harold E. Rainville, TP.

Nelson is the son of the late Louis M. Nelson, who built the North Shore and Evanston hotels. He managed the former until last fall, when he sold his interests in the hotel. He has lived in Evanston since 1919 and has been an active figure in business and civic affairs here.

The Community Chest has been one of his major interests, and he served as a member of its board of directors from 1945 to 1948.

Nelson is a past president of both the Evanston Chamber of Commerce and the Evanston Kiwanis club. Currently he is serving as vice president of the Evanston Boy Scout council, which is one of the participating agencies in the Chest; chairman of the public relations committee of the Evanston Council of Churches, and a member of the Evanston Plan commission. He attends the First Baptist church.

Nelson has been active in hotel management groups and is a director of the Evanston Residential Hotel Association and a past director of the Greater Chicago Hotel Association. He is married and has two children—Sally, a sophomore at Evanston High School, and Dick, in the eighth grade at Haven school.

C. K. Payne Asks Support Of Churches

◆ A STATEMENT by Charles K. Payne, E, on the need of support of business, professional and laboring men for our churches, was featured in a full page advertisement in the Ironton, Ohio, Daily News of May 14.

Mr. Payne was identified as being one of the three oldest living members of Pi Kappa Alpha.

His statement follows:

"So far back as I can remember, the church has always been a part of my life. I was brought up that way.

"It never seemed to me that I had the qualifications to be a teacher or to lead in activities which others could do much better than I. However, I have tried to be constant in the conviction that as a business man, it was both a privilege and a duty to support the church in every way I could support it.

"I've never felt for a moment that what I've given to the church and to Christian causes through the years deprived me of anything, rather, I've been provided with much more, I often think, than I've ever given. From boyhood the church has shared, or to use a business expression, has been given its dividend of everything I've earned. I would have been reluctant when going into business of attempting any undertaking in a city without churches.

"It has been my good fortune to have visited many of the great churches of the world, and mission outposts in remote places. I know what the church is doing. The work of the church surely deserves the support of each of us, business man, professional man and working man as well."

CLYDE B. AUSTIN, JR.

Car Wreck Fatal TO AEC Official

◆ CLYDE B. AUSTIN, JR., Z, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., was killed and his wife and son injured in an automobile wreck near Folkston, Ga., on July 9.

He was the son of a Greenville, Tenn., tobacco grower and warehouseman and a trustee of the University of Tennessee.

The 35-year-old Atomic Energy Commission official was crushed after his car struck another vehicle while attempting to pass it, the Georgia Highway Patrol reported.

A ferry command pilot during the war, Austin had been at Oak Ridge since 1946. He was chief of the Military Liaison Section of the Radiation Instrument Branch. He worked out of AEC's Washington office but lived at 102 Ontario Lane in Oak Ridge.

Austin held an electrical engineering degree and attended both Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia.

The accident occurred while the family was returning from a two-week vacation at Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Scene of the accident was just across the Florida line in Georgia.

Chandler Suggests U. S. "Baseball Day"

◆ A NATION-WIDE "Baseball Day" when organized baseball will play a series of exhibition contests with proceeds going to benefit the youth of America, was disclosed recently by Baseball Commissioner Albert B. Chandler, K and Ω, in Philadelphia.

Speaking before a group of more than 250 members and guests of the Merion Post of the American Legion at the Merion Tribune House, Chandler said that plans probably would be completed this year but that it was unlikely that the games would be played until 1950.

Each National League team would play an American League team at night.

No name has been selected for the day but it has been suggested that it be called "Babe Ruth Day" in honor of the great home run slugger and his interest in the youth of this country.

The commissioner also entertained the legionnaires and their guests with baseball anecdotes. He praised Connie Mack, who was represented by his two sons, Roy and Earl.

At the conclusion of his talk he held a forum in which he answered all questions concerning baseball and the duties of his office. "My job," said the commissioner, "is to see that baseball merits the respect it gets."

Iota Leading In Intramural Race At H-S

◆ HAVING successfully annexed last year's coveted Intramural cup, Iota of Hampden-Sydney College has a substantial lead for this year's cup. By winning the softball crown the chapter can again repeat last year's feat.

With the pledging of 19 men Iota, now stands as the largest active chapter on the campus with 56 active members and pledges. Among the pledges are Richard Misenhelter, diminutive guard and fourth highest scorer on the basketball team; Gladstone Smith and "Skip" Clary, first-stringers on the baseball team, and Gene Milener, ace distance runner on the track squad.

Iota has 18 men in the Monogram Club, the largest number of any chapter on "The Hill." Included among these are Walt Bridges, all-state honorable mention, first string guard on the football team and next year's co-captain. Bill Balas, last season's co-captain in basketball, was placed on the first team all-state and a first team selection on the Mason-Dixon conference tournament playoffs. In his four years at Hampden-Sydney, Bill has led the scoring each season and has been a first team selection for all-state honors three years, next year's co-captain in basketball is Bill McLean, who was honorable mention all-state and named to the second team, Mason-Dixon conference playoffs. Three of the first six on the Tiger's tennis team, including last year's captain, Jimmy Trinkle, wear the Garnet and Gold along with three members of the golf team.

Iota is also well represented elsewhere on the campus such as secretary and treasurer of the Student Government, next year's president of Pan-Hel council, chairman of the Student Activities Committee, this year's president of the Student Christian Association, business manager of the newspaper, president of the Barbell Club, and vice president, treasurer, business manager and next year's president of the German Club.

A cash prize and cup were presented to the chapter by the Pan-Hel council and the Monogram Club for the best homecoming decoration.

Due to lack of funds the annual Pan-Hel dance will be held for only one night. To overcome this difficulty the IKA's will join with the Kappa Sig's and hold a barn dance at a nearby lake on the night preceding the Pan-Hel dance.

West Virginia Chapter Helps Co-eds Observe Their Birthdays

By CHARLES MILLER
Alpha-Theta Chapter

◆ WITH the initiation of 18 members, Alpha-Theta chapter, University of West Virginia, has just ended one of the most successful years in its history. The chapter has gained considerably in stature and many campus honors have come to various members of the chapter. The pledge class included James Coulter, who is expected to replace the pride of Alpha-Theta, Leland Byrd, now graduated, on the crack West Virginia basketball team.

The first major social event was a hobo party, given for the girls of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Guests were picked up in a self-constructed box car pulled by a jeep. The procession across campus was quite unique in that the IKA train had its own conductor, engineer, fireman, and a real train bell mounted atop the engine. The IKA's and their dates walked up a specially constructed railroad track from the street to the house and entered via a back window. Along with other prizes, a door prize, consisting of a small door neatly trimmed with ribbon and a half moon carved in its center was presented to the girl with the best costume.

The co-eds on campus have really had cause to enjoy their birthdays during the past year—Alpha-Theta has seen to that. A typical birthday usually went something like this: on the day of the birthday a rose was delivered to the sorority house and found its way to the girl's place at the evening meal in a vase bearing the fraternity crest. After dinner the girl was called on the telephone and serenaded with the usual birthday greetings by the IKA quartet.

The pledges won the IKA-IKE cup for the second consecutive year. This is an annual affair put on by the pledges of the two organizations for actives and their dates. A show is presented by each pledge class with the winner receiving the cup.

Marilla Recreation Center was decorated in garnet and gold for the years' annual "Dream Girl Formal." A large replica of the fraternity badge with swinging doors was used for the "Dream Girl" to step through. Miss Caroline Mollahan of Charleston, W. Va., was selected as Dream Girl.

Alpha-Theta has the distinction of being the only fraternity on the campus with a mascot. "Pika", as she is known, is a six-month-old puppy given to the chapter by a local follower. She seems to be quite happy in her strange environment as she goes through her variety of tricks taught her by some of the brothers.

The only dark spot in our year was the loss of our housemother. Mrs. Ileda Goetz will not be back in the fall, but the chapter has been very fortunate in securing Mrs. M. Morgan. Mrs. Morgan is quite popular locally and will begin her new duties in the fall.

7th Annual Pi Week Observed At Bowling Green

By ROBERT E. SMITH
Delta-Beta Chapter

◆ A WEEK of activity marked Delta-Beta chapter's seventh annual Pi Week, celebrated from February 27 to March 5 at Bowling Green State University.

Beginning with a Faculty Tea at the chapter house, the Delta-Beta's spent a busy week with a traditional program of activities.

The singing quintet visited each sorority early in the week, presenting each with a cherry pie and a singing invitation to participate in the Pie Eating contest.

A serenade of the sorority houses and women's dormitories on a cold, wintry evening was next on the program.

Dr. Clyde Hissong, Ohio State Supervisor of Education and a former Delta-Beta alumni counsellor, was the principal speaker at the Founder's Day banquet, at which the Dream Girls of 1947 and 1948 were guests.

One of the highlights of the week was the annual Pie Eating contest, which is received with great enthusiasm on the Bowling Green campus. Representatives of 13 sororities and 11 fraternities battled it out in respective contests, racing through cherry pie for possession of the two rotating trophies awarded by Delta-Beta.

An unexpected situation arose, however, when no less than five of the men finished in a dead heat. So, each was given another half a pie and the winner was declared in an "overtime."

A hobo party for members and their dates proved a big success at the chapter house, with a wide array of fantastic costumes in evidence.

Climaxing the week's program was the Dream Girl dance. Miss Nedra Mason was presented as the freshman Dream Girl of IKA for 1949 by the Delta-Beta chapter. Miss Mason is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown, 2458 Auburn Ave., Toledo, Ohio.

The Delta-Beta's followed in their reputation of presenting one of the most cleverly decorated dances of the year. Done completely with lighting effects and backdrop, an arrangement was devised to make the name of the Dream Girl appear on the backdrop as she stepped forth from behind it.

This was accomplished with the use of a teaser backdrop, which hung over the top of the regular one, concealing the name pinned underneath in large silver letters.

Following the birth of Stephen to Jim Dunn, ΔB, and Shirley Wall Dunn, Delta-Gamma sorority, the Delta-Beta's fell heir to throwing a "legacy" party for members of Delta-Gamma. At the party little "Stephie" was presented with a IKA pledge pin, becoming the youngest pledge of the chapter.

The spring pledge class entertained the brothers of the chapter at the semi-annual stag party. The pledges demonstrated clever talent with a variety show at the house, concluding with a party at a local night club.

The chapter recently dedicated a memorial plaque "In grateful tribute to our brothers who gave their lives in World War II."

Two Delta-Beta pledges were elected recently to positions as president and treasurer of next year's sophomore class at Bowling Green. Vern Wright was elected prexy and John Dukes treasurer in a spirited, open campaign election.

Delta-Beta chapter ranked third among the 11 fraternities at Bowling Green in the scholarship ratings recently disclosed for the 1948 fall semester, with an average of 2.47.

The Delta-Beta "B" league basketball team walked off with the championship in the recent intramural basketball race. The "A" team finished in a tie for fourth place among the 12 teams competing in the "A" league. Bill Bishop was awarded a position on the all-star team at the conclusion of competition.

New Floor Level Added To House At North Carolina

◆ "OPERATION SALT MINE" at Tau chapter is paying off—it soon will mean a new, large room in the basement of the chapter house to be used as a chapter room and play room.

IKA's at the University of North Carolina are putting most of their spare time into the excavation which will give the chapter a new floor level. They're putting both time and money into the project, for they voted unanimously for a large assessment.

The space being used in that underneath the library, the first bedroom in the back, and the open, side porch. The room under the porch will be separated from the main room by the natural brick archways which are a part of the foundation. A ladies' powder room under the front porch will be entered through a similar archway. Although the archways may determine the decorative theme, no specific plan has been adopted.

One of the toughest jobs was trying to push the wheelbarrow uphill and through the three by four hole to the outside. The hole is six feet above floor level. As work progressed, the workers couldn't operate at the original level of the dirt, so they pushed the barrows up a two by four board placed at about a seventy degree angle. It was no easy task. As two pushers neared the hole, the man on the outside reached in with a long iron bar, hooked the front of the barrow and heaved.

In sports, Jack Gates was runner-up in the boxing competition. The chapter's three basketball teams won 14 of 17 games to cop first, second and third places in three of the six leagues.

The softball team is defending its title this term.

Guests at Delta-Beta's Hobo Party entered over the roof. No. 1 shows Dick Cook, Ed White and their dates. Sporting aprons and "Pi Ties," these sports entertained with vocal numbers at the pie eating contest during Pi Week. From left, they are Howard Wheeler, Jerry Henderson, Ray Shellhammer, Ralph Schreimpf and Ken Francis. Nedra Mason, (3) is chapter Dream Girl. SMC DeTray and Mrs. Bernice Foltz, housemother, are being served by Fritzie Wolf and Shirley VonBrock, of the Delta Gamma sorority, at the Delta-Beta faculty tea. (4) Bill Bishop and Keith Moorhead chat in the rear. SCM DeTray, center, (5) congratulates Vernon Wright, left, and John Dukes after they had been elected president and treasurer, respectively, of the sophomore class at Bowling Green. Lois Glasgow, Alpha Chi Omega, (6) is acclaimed champion in the pie eating contest. President Frank J. Prout and Mrs. Prout are welcomed at the Faculty Tea by SMC DeTray and Housemother Foltz.

When Beta-Mu members and guests gathered at the chapter house at the University of Texas for the annual Senior Day festivities, honoring graduating members, the seniors and their dates posed in front of the house. Included in this array of feminine beauty is the Sweetheart of the University. Also among the dates were the Bluebonnet Belles, eight lovely lasses chosen for the yearbook.

Texas IKA's Active In Politics, Scholarship, Athletics

◆ BETA-MU chapter at the University of Texas has just completed one of its most successful years in 29 years of existence. Members of the chapter distinguished themselves in campus political arenas, in scholarship, in intramural and varsity athletics, in social endeavors, and in general campus leadership and service. Interests of the fraternity were many and varied and were successfully pursued by the participating members.

The 1948-49 school year began with two IKA's in top student government positions. Mickey Elliott was vice-president of the Students' Association, and Pickard (Pic) Wagner was editor of the 1949 Cactus, the university yearbook. Soon after classes commenced Bobby Homeyer was selected by the student body as one of the yell leaders. In the fall general election W. Paul (Bill) Strassmann was overwhelmingly elected to the Student Assembly. Jim Coats was appointed to the chairmanship of the Committee on Fair Business Standards. At the beginning of the spring semester, when Elliott graduated, Strassmann was elected by the Assembly to serve as student vice-president. Bob Milstead was appointed as a member of the Assembly.

In the spring general election Harold I. Thomas was elected editor of the 1950 Cactus, and IKA made history at the University of Texas. This marks the first time since publication of the yearbook was begun that members of the same fraternity have held the editorship for two consecutive years.

But politics weren't the only field in which IKA achieved distinction. The fraternity competed very successfully in all intramural athletics. Kenneth Wingfield, Harold Thomas, and Jerry Jameson were selected for the All-Intramural soccer team. Beta-Mu won divisional championships in soccer, basketball, and volleyball, and finished near the top in other events. Further recognition was added when Wingfield won the 190-pound intramural wrestling championship. The high spot in the year came when the top intramural award, the Frank Evins Memorial Trophy, symbolic of outstanding sportsmanship, was awarded to Wingfield, and the fraternity was barely edged out for the team sportsmanship honor.

In varsity competition Sophomore Ray Marek was sensational in winning the javelin championship in the Texas Relays, the Border Olympics, and several challenge meets. Marek received a "T" letter. Another "T" went to John R. King, senior intramural manager. Other varsity lettermen in the local group are Thomas, Clarence Mabry, and Andy Shurr.

In providing social entertainment the IKA's gained widespread recognition. During the football season buffet dinners were given in honor of Miss Mimi Million, Sweetheart of New Mexico University, and Miss Betty Pfeffer, Sweetheart of L. S. U. Unique and highly successful were breakfast dances, picnics, and "glee-haws" arranged for the various sororities on the campus. On Senior Day, honoring graduating seniors, the Sweetheart of the University of Texas and the Bluebonnet Belles were special guests of the fraternity.

Varsity Carnival, the annual all-Greek money raising affair, brought more glory to Beta-Mu when its production of "Hamlet" in black-face, presented in a replica of the famous Globe Theatre, was chosen as the best fraternity show.

Members of Cowboys, men's honor-service organization, were Coats, Strassmann, and Wagner. Silver Spur, the other men's honor-service group, listed Elliott, Andy Shurr, Vincent Shurr, and Milstead as members. IKA in Delta Sigma Pi, professional commercial and business administration fraternity, were Clinton Baskin, Coats, Elliott, William Ferrick, Fred C. Luce, Jack Lord, Milstead, Harman Parrott, James C. Wilson, Julius A. Tracy, and Ralph Velasco. Jack Lord is the newly elected headmaster of the organization. Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, has James O'Hara, John Boren, Thomas, and Wagner as members.

Tom Bamford won the annual intramural oratory contest. Phil Kendrick was runner-up in intramural extemporaneous speech. Kendrick starred in aman, who took the lead in "School for Scandal." Lower right is Paul Yeager, extreme right, president of Beloit College Players, in "The Would-Be-Gentleman."

Beloit Chapter Active In Field of Dramatics

◆ SOME fraternities are known for their grid men, some for their tracksters, some for their cribbage players. Beta-Iota at Beloit College, however, is noted primarily for its interest and activity in the field of dramatics.

Paul Yeager is president of the Beloit College Players; Don Hill is supervisor of lighting for college plays; Dave Hanaman is permanent crew chairman, while Rodger Lyons and Jim Herbig are frequent chairman of stage crews.

IICA's furnish many stars for the stage itself, too. Yeager has played the lead in several shows and has just finished helping direct "Merchant of Venice." He is also on the staff of the local FM station; chief announcer of the college radio station, and an actor in the Beloit College Radio Players.

Dave Hanaman, a senior, is another person frequently seen on the Scoville stage. He has played important parts in several productions, is chief announcer and sportscaster for WBNB, the Beloit FM station, and is an official in the players' organization. For his outstanding contributions to campus life, he has recently been honored by membership in OΔK, national leadership fraternity.

Jim Herbig and Yeager acted in "Antigone," story of a tyrant in the days of ancient Greece, which opened the season.

Jim Polt and Elliott McCleary were cast in "Skin of Our Teeth," which was produced last fall. Elliott also had parts in "Happy Journey" and "The Importance of Being Ernest" his first semester at Beloit, and recently appeared in "The Flattering Word". He is also an actor in the Beloit College Radio Players. Recently a short story which he adapted for radio was produced over a regional FM network.

Beloit Players productions are known as "good theatre" not only because of the acting, but also because sets, "stage pictures" and dramatic lighting all combine to create the desired effect. Don Hill and Rodger Lyons behind the resistance coil and spotlights contribute their time and skill toward maintaining Scoville Hall's fine reputation in this respect. Jim Herbig assists and directs the building of the scenery.

Northwestern Wins Frolics Award

By GERALD McKENZIE
Gamma-Rho Chapter

◆ PI KAPPA ALPHA at Northwestern University won first prize in the men's competition at Freshman Frolics, annual carnival held during the spring quarter.

The sexiest males and females were scientifically uncovered with atomic-treated kiss-testing tissue, a hand-holding meter, a hug testing mannikin and an electric lap-appeal meter, all combined in the Sex La-tron.

The Kappa-Delta sorority took first place in the women's judging with their sex lottery. Gambling-minded NU males drew tickets from a barrel which entitled them to a kiss, a hug, or a slap on the face from one of a group of pretty freshmen KΔ's.

The Acacia fraternity received the distinction of selling the most tickets for its booth—691 ripe tomatoes were hurled at Claude Sowle, junior class president, Syllabus and Daily Business manager, fraternity president and wheel about campus.

has it that the two youngsters are University of Chicago students out for relaxation after receiving their Doctor's Degree.

The fighting Marine, whose job was to carry—and use—a flamethrower, was reburied with full military rites in Tulsa's Memorial park. The rites were conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the 20th Infantry Battalion of the Organized Reserves.

The posthumously top-decorated Marine's body was met at Union Station by a military color guard.

Al was killed on Okinawa May 17, 1945, and was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor posthumously in Memorial Day ceremonies in Tulsa in 1946 (see THE SHIELD AND DIAMOND for July, 1946).

Gen. A. A. Vandergrift, commandant of the Marine Corps, cited the Tulsan for the medal "for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty."

Pfc. Schwab, the citation revealed, climbed the exposed face of a ridge under an intense concentration of enemy machine-gun fire that was trained on his company, and singlehandedly destroyed two gun positions with a flamethrower before he was fatally wounded.

He was a graduate of Central high school and was employed by the Barnsdall Oil Co. before joining the Marine Corps.

Only a few days before the former Tulsa pledge's death, Ernie Pyle had written of Al's bravery as a flamethrower operator.

His parents, his widow, the former Kay Schlosser; a son, Stephen Albert, 6, and four sisters survive.

Two campaign scenes leading up to the election of Jerry Ellsworth as grand marshal at Rensselaer.

Ellsworth Elected Grand Marshal In Hard Fight At R.P.I.

♦ WITH loud speakers blaring and parades in session, the entire Rensselaer campus was alive with color and excitement. For one solid week there were optimistic predictions of winning candidates. This is just what happens every year when a Grand Marshal campaign is under way at R. P. I.

The office of Grand Marshal is the most coveted and sought after position in the student government. The possessor of this honor must have the ability to run a smooth operating governing body, and, at the same time, be the spark plug behind campus activities.

This year was no exception. The ballot was comprised of top quality leaders, with personality and executive experience proving to be the deciding factors. After the votes were counted, Jerry Ellsworth of Gamma-Tau was the new Grand Marshal.

Jerry had already built up an impressive record in campus politics by serving as class treasurer when a first term sophomore, class president when a second term sophomore, and class vice-president when a first term junior. He served very actively on the committees of two of the biggest campus dances, was a main force in the Campus Community Chest Drive, and was counselor at the Freshman Camp. In addition to this, Jerry has found time to write for the college paper as a member of the sports staff. He also serves on the Hospital Visitation Committee of the Student Fellowship, and on the Student-Faculty Relations Committee.

Within the fraternity proper, Ellsworth takes an active part in practically every function. He represents Pi Kappa Alpha in the discus and javelin, as I.F.C.

representative, and as a delegate to District and National Conventions.

The first Grand Marshal was elected from the class of 1868, forty-two years after the founding of the Institute. There has been one in office from each succeeding class except those of 1891 through 1894 inclusive. He is regarded as the leader of the entire student body. He has jurisdiction over all inter-class competitions and is a member ex-officio of all standing committees of the Rensselaer Union. His duties were formerly of the chaplain cheer-leader nature, but the constitution was amended to make him presiding officer of the Student Council. Thus his duties have assumed a more serious nature in addition to the traditional ones.

Originally the Grand Marshal was elected by a general meeting of the student body; but when the enrollment became too large to make this convenient, the present method of general election by secret ballot was adopted. The campaigning is carried on during the week preceding the actual casting of ballots.

Boren was in Psi-Chi, honorary psychology fraternity, and Alpha Epsilon Delta, honorary pre-medical fraternity. Thomas was elected to Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary BBA scholastic group. Tom Cheavens was a member of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic fraternity. Harris and Thomas were listed on the Scabbard and Blade roll. Charles Roberts, Milstead, and Wagner were Varsity Debate Lettermen. Joseph Ward was vice-president of Square and Compasses. Selected to appear as "Outstanding Students" in the 1949 Cactus were Elliott and Strassmann. "Goodfellows" chosen for the yearbook were Coats, Milstead, and Thomas. Bob Duke served as chairman of the interfraternity council committee on rush rules.

The spring semester was brought to a close with the annual Mother's Day Tea, the initiation of an outstanding pledge class, and the election of officers for the coming semester.

The Mothers' Day Tea is given in honor of mothers of Beta-Mu actives and pledges. Held on Mother's Day, it is one of the outstanding social events on the university campus. In addition to the mothers the affair attracts distinguished university, city, and social leaders each year.

The officers who will guide the fraternity through the fall semester are Bob Milstead, SMC; Ben Martin, IMC; Harman Parrott, ThC; Fred Scott, rush captain; H. A. Whittington, pledge master, and Bob Duke and Bob Turnham, interfraternity council representatives.

Alpha-Nu Alumni Return to Campus For Homecoming

By JAMES T. SAWYER
Alpha-Nu Chapter

◆ ALPHA-NU CHAPTER reversed tradition when actives held a "walkout" of their own, taking with them the active chapter of Delta Delta Delta. The party was a big success.

The University Homecoming saw swarms of alumni returning for the festivities. Among them were National Alumni Secretary Powell McHaney, Congressman Paul C. Jones, Alumni President Hal McHaney, and many others from far and near. In the homecoming parade IKA astounded the crowd by borrowing the City of Columbia street sweeper and decking it with black and gold banners and crepe paper.

Dana Sullivan has been elected president of Tiger Claws, pep squad. Sullivan is a member of the Men's Burrall Cabinet, former president of Interfraternity Pledge Council, and chairman of the all-school football rally, "Tiger Night."

The staff of the university yearbook, Savitar, includes Editor Chuck Rosenfelt, Business Manager Ted Majoros, Advertising Manager Jim Stokman, and Copy Editor Landon Smith. To top it all off nicely, George Bohn is on the Board of Student Publications.

At the Winter Formal, the main floor of the chapter house was banked with evergreen and carnations. The chapter room and the rec room downstairs were transformed into a night club complete with soft drink bar. The IKA quartet, Randall Workman, Chuck Graves, Bill Peak, and Bob Ashley, provided the intermission entertainment and closed the evening's activity with the IKA Goodnight Song.

Over 500 couples illustrated the popularity of IKA social functions.

The December issue of "Showme," the campus version of Esquire, featured past SMC George H. Bohn as the "Boy of the Month." Bohn is a member of the Board of Publications, vice president of Omicron Delta Kappa, vice president of Tau Beta Pi, Eta Kappa Nu, Pi Mu Epsilon, and the Alpha Phi Omega Group Merit Award Council.

In the January election of officers for the spring semester the following were elected: V. Randall Workman, Holland, SMC; James Scott Stokman, Brentwood, IMC; James Walker Tatum, Kennett, ThC; Don-Rice Richards, Ft. Madison, Ia., house manager, and James Copely Stover, Findlay, Ohio, SC. To second the election the pledge class gave a party in honor of the active chapter.

District President James Brown was a weekend guest of the chapter recently, along with several of the active and alumni officers of Alpha-Kappa Chapter of Missouri School of Mines.

On March 19 the traditional Monte Carlo party was held. This closed party was one of the most outstanding social functions of the year. The house was transformed into a Parisian night club with game rooms occupying part of the first floor and the basement. Each couple was given $1,500 of stage money which was used on the roulette wheel and dice tables, main attractions of the evening. Pledge Bill Self and his date, C. J. Cherry won the most money of the evening.

On April 23 and 24 the alumni returned to Alpha-Nu. The chapter was favored with a good response from alumni, and among those returning was Judge Russell E. Holloway, one of the founders of the chapter. It was a very successful week-end, and everyone left hoping the alumni weekend of 1950 would be even better.

Alumni weekend was followed by another busy weekend, for on April 30 and May 1 Alpha-Nu entertained high school rushees. An impressive representation of younger men turned up for this event, and went away favorably impressed. Prospects are good for an excellent pledge class at Missouri this fall.

May 7 and 8 was one of the most enjoyable social events of the year, for on that date Alpha-Nu feted its parents with Mother's Weekend. The house was literally overflowing with guests, and the whole house was opened for inspection. All weekend there was a high spirit of enthusiasm among both guests and hosts, and everyone agreed that this was one of the best parties of Alpha-Nu's year.

In activities, Alpha-Nu made some important achievements. The 30-man Glee Club's beautiful renditions of "IKA, Honor Thy Name" and "You'll Never Walk Alone" put them into the finals of Inter-Fraternity Sing, where they won fourth place. Dana Sullivan was elected president of Tiger Claws, Missouri's student pep organization, and Don-Rice Richards and Jim Sawyer were elected treasurer and secretary of Delta Sigma Pi, honorary business fraternity. Ted Majoros was selected for membership in Q.E.B.H., senior men's honorary. In athletics, the IKA bowling team, composed of John Folsom, Gene Cassin, George Swaim, Jim Newberry, and Gene Edstrom rolled their way to their second consecutive Intra-mural bowling championship.

On May 14 the year was brought to a stunning climax by the highly publicized Dream Girl formal. Advance publicity, such as a fashion show at a downtown restaurant with the Dream Girl candidates as models, advance announcements both on the radio and in the newspapers, displays in various shop windows downtown, made the formal the most eagerly awaited spring dance at Missouri.

Presentation of the Dream Girl and music by the orchestra of Gene Moore of Kansas City made up the 25-minute broadcast by Columbia's radio station, KFRU. This was done so that those who could not attend the dance could hear the presentation of the Dream Girl.

As she stepped through a giant replica of the IKA pin, Bettie Lu Ogan, Kappa Alpha Theta, was announced as the Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha for 1949. Miss Ogan was presented the Dream Girl cup and a bouquet of roses by the 1948 Dream Girl, Kay Duncan, Delta Delta Delta. The Dream Girl's attendants were Pat Clippard, Chi-Omega; Rosemary Leitz, Pi Beta Phi; Margaret Bomer, Delta Delta Delta; Reba Nelson, Alpha-Phi; and Ann Beaty, Alpha Gamma Delta.

◆ RATED and heralded as the most outstanding social event in Salt Lake City during the spring formal season, Alpha-Tau Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha held its gala spring formal, Friday, May 27, at the famed El Gaucho Inn, amidst the splendor of a spring theme.

And picked to reign over the affair was beautiful Dream Girl, Miss Marian Lindquist of Ogden, Utah. Highlight of the evening was Miss Lindquist's toast to the future prosperity of the fraternity, with all the girls spontaneously joining in.

Dates were presented with huge orchid corsages as they stepped through a gigantic floral diamond and shield entrance. Daintily wrapped "dinner cups" as favors were the hit of the evening. The originality and clever design of the cups was the chief topic of conversation. Especially prepared steaks were featured on the dinner menu.

corted to a series of candle-light dinners, each time with the group diminishing by mode of a secret ballot voting by the members of Gamma Eta.

Saturday night, April 9, the five finalists, who in the morning were guests of Ivan Kahn, Fred MacMurray and Maureen O'Hara at 20th Century-Fox, sat at the SMC's table with their escorts, and from there a group of impartial experts took over the deciding of the Dream Girl. The judges were Max Autry, world's foremost still-life photographer; Ivan Kahn, 20th Century-Fox talent head, and Varga, reknown Esquire Magazine artist.

Then with the judges decision and a roll of drums from the orchestra, Alice Ann Kelly, Miss Junior America of 1948 and Warner Bros. starlet took the spotlight and announced the "Dream Girl of IKA"; Miss Marilyn Lindberg of Delta Delta-Delta Sorority, a dream girl from the word beautiful was presented the trophy by Gamma Eta's Honorary Dream Girl of IKA, Elizabeth Taylor, brilliant star of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Miss Taylor was unanimously chosen as their honorary dream girl not only for her sheer beauty, but for her warm and very pleasing personality.

In addition to her honor, Miss Lindberg received scholarships totaling $1,975 from the American Television Corp. and the Patricia Stevens School of Modeling, automatic S. C. entry to the Miss Junior America Pageant which has dedicated itself in cooperation with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Each contestant was required to help raise funds and they enriched the fund by some 3,200 dimes.

Miss Lindberg also appeared on a half-hour television program and will have her portrait painted in oils by the famous artist, Varga.

Miami, Florida, IKA's Continue Pace-Setting In All Activities

By CARL FROMHAGEN, JR.

Gamma-Omega Chapter

◆ THE span from 1940 to 1949 equals nine years of Pi Kappa Alpha leadership of the University of Miami, Florida, campus. Gamma-Omega chapter was founded in 1926 as a local fraternity. Since then the chapter has been supreme on the Miami campus.

In 1949 the activities of Gamma-Omega chapter were confined to four phases, which consisted of fellowship, social activities, campus activities including athletics and scholarship.

During the first semester, rushing received the greatest attention. The first party was an informal date affair at the home of Hank Delling. Then dances followed after three Friday night football games. The main event of the rush program was a shipwreck dance which everyone attended in a costume representing shipwrecked survivors. After the dance the Pikes and their guests took their band with them to welcome the University of Miami football team and its Pi Kappa Alpha stars home from a victorious road trip. A street dance at the airport followed this greeting to the team. At the end of the rush season, one of the largest pledge classes the chapter has had, received their pledge pins, and the other fraternities turned green with envy because of the high calibre of pledges that Pi Kappa Alpha had obtained.

Almost immediately after the pledging, the University Homecoming program took place with a football battle between Maryland and Miami highlighting it. In the fraternity house decorations portion of the program, Pi Kappa Alpha took the honors and won a beautiful cup given by the University.

Grant Stockdale, alumnus of Gamma-Omega and president of the University of Miami Alumni Association, took an active part in the Homecoming proceedings. SMC Carl Fromhagen was treasurer of the program, which office he again will assume next year. Bill Kerdyk will be chairman of the Homecoming dance next year.

The chapter celebrated Homecoming with a buffet supper held for the local IKA alumni and the active chapter at the spacious home of Ed Thornton. One of the largest crowds ever seen at a IKA active-alumni function attended. The IKA Wives' Club handled the arrangements and certainly did a fine job.

Every other week after the fraternity meeting the chapter entertained one of the sororities on the campus at an informal party. Dancing, singing and games enlivened these fetes and strengthened the Pikes' friendship with the sorority.

Each week the chapter newspaper, the Pike Peeks, appeared on the campus much to the enjoyment of the student body. The other chapter publication, The Garnet and Gold, was distributed to alumni, chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha and among the students and organizations on the campus. To stimulate alumni interest a questionnaire and letter were sent to all of the chapter alumni and to the local alumni of other chapters.

For three years Pi Kappa Alpha has been intramural champion of the University. The chapter was the holder of the President's Cup for athletic supremacy and also held numerous individual and team championships. During the first semester the IKA's continued their usual show of strength in athletic events. They placed high in every event, even though the greatest competition the campus has witnessed kept the chapter from sweeping all honors. In the intramural speaking contests, Gamma-Omega won the cup for extemporaneous speaking and placed second in debate.

In scholarship the IKAs were still in a somewhat low position but by the end of the semester, they had moved up one rung on the scholarship ladder, and continued to put forth a great effort to put IKA on top in the scholarship field.

The semi-annual Best Sorority Pledge Dance given by the chapter's first semester pledges was acclaimed one of the best dances of the year. Various sororities presented five-minute skits as entertainment and at the height of the festivities Nancy Mussett of Chi-Omega was chosen best sorority pledge and Kappa-Kappa-Gamma received the honors for the best skit.

At the annual pledge-active football game, a tie between the teams ensued and after the game, pledges and actives celebrated with a mammoth stag party.

Officers for the first semester were Carl Fromhagen, SMC; Ed Vihlen, IMC;

Dick Dash, SC; Jim Dezell, ThC and Mort Guilford, pledgemaster.

The second semester found Mort Guilford as SMC; Jim Dezell, IMC; Dick Dash, SC; Frank McNellis, ThC, and Ken Spencer, pledgemaster.

In intramurals Pi Kappa Alpha continued to hold a top place, and narrowly missed the intramural championship by a slim margin. The chapter received first and second places in both leagues in several individual and team sports and captured the poetry reading event in the speaking contest. The IKA's were particularly strong in basketball, badminton, golf, track, table tennis and bowling in the President's Cup race. In the B league the Pikes captured championships in basketball, softball, swimming and track and placed second in football and table tennis. At the end of the year, the chapter remained in second place in the race for the President's Cup and won the B league trophy. Much of the credit for this fine showing is due to the intramural director, Ed Vihlen.

On the social side, the chapter continued to hold individual parties for the sororities and another outstanding Best Sorority Pledge Dance saw Lila Lee Stewart of Delta-Gamma as Best Pledge.

The Founders' Day banquet showed how interested the Pi Kappa Alpha alumni were when a large group of them attended and the efforts of the chapter to secure a new house for themselves were strengthened. The new abode for Gamma-Omega will probably be constructed this summer.

At the two pledge banquets, best pledges of the chapter were named and they were John Kavanaugh and Woody Woodmansee for the first semester and Ted Hill for the second.

The Dream Girl Dance under the chairmanship of Bill Kerdyk was a real success. Decorations were in the form of Garnet and Gold streamers covering the interior of the city auditorium and a huge lighted IKA pin was on the stage. The curtains of the stage were covered with various mementoes of the fraternity and these were referred to when the history of the chapter was given during the evening. Entertainment was provided by two local night club acts and alumnus Chuck Thorn-dike who did amusing caricatures. At the height of the evening, the new Dream Girl, Nita Martin of Delta-Zeta, broke through the pin on the stage and was introduced by SMC Mort Guilford to the assembled IKA's and guests.

At the end of the semester, a barn dance was held at the College Club and a joyous atmosphere helped dispel the gloom brought on by final examinations.

At the Honors Assemblies during the school year, Clive Shrader, Carl Fromhagen and Bob Holland were named to Who's Who and Carl Fromhagen was named to Iron Arrow, highest honorary fraternity on the campus and Lead and Ink, journalistic honorary. Dick Owen received the Snark's Award for the best one-act play of the year. Other accomplishments by Pikes were the presidency of Alpha Kappa Psi by Duff Matson, YMCA president John Hornick, Iron Arrow president Clive Shrader, Art Davies, Jack Del Bello, Joe Krull, Don Cobb and pledge Tom Flynn were all on the varsity football team. Don Cobb played varsity basketball; Tom Mullin, varsity baseball, and Bob Keller, varsity golf. Several other Pikes were on the freshmen teams and were active in campus organizations.

Officers for the fall semester of next year will be Dick Dash, SMC; Bill Kerdyk, IMC; Bob Reese, SC and Bud Thompson, ThC.

Senator Robertson Speaks at W & M Founders' Banquet

◆ At William and Mary, Gamma chapter kept IKA in the lime-light by its accomplishments in all phases of campus activities through the year 1948-1949.

The highlight of the year came appropriately enough at Founders' Day. Traditionally the biggest social event on our calendar, this year's function reached an all-time peak.

Heading the array of celebrities at the annual banquet was Senator A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.). Senator Robertson, O, was the principal speaker of the evening and gave an address on "Jefferson's Contribution to Religious Freedom." Introducing the senator, Dr. John E. Pomfret, BII, president of the college, made a few remarks on the fraternity's role in campus life. Among the other IKA guests of the chapter were Dr. George Oliver, director of the summer session, and Otto Lowe, prominent attorney and member of the Board of Visitors. Following the banquet there was a formal dance at the Williamsburg Lodge.

Doing an excellent job in guiding the affairs of the chapter were two slates of officers. For the first semester: SMC Woody Wayland, IMC Ken Scott, ThC Al Lang, and SC Chris Moe. For the second semester SMC Ken Scott, IMC Bob Day, ThC Jim Logan, and SC Phil DuLaney.

Socially, the chapter spent an active time of it, under social chairman Dick Mattox. One of the best dances of the year was the Christmas formal at the Williamsburg Lodge. As was true of all our parties, it continued well into the morning at our new lodge.

The lodge system is a recent addition to William and Mary. Ours was completed over the summer and newly furnished with the aid of many of our generous alumni, whom we again wish to thank for their contributions.

Parties at the lodge are a common occurrence every Saturday night. But to finish off the year, the chapter threw a picnic at Yorktown and held a Day Jones dance.

Lest anyone think we spend all our time socially, we can prove to the contrary by showing the other side of our fraternity life. Exhibit A—Phi Beta Kappa numbered five brothers in its ranks: Ken Scott, Al Pirkle, Harvey Chappell, Ted Uhler, and Jim Logan. But all was not academic for we possessed many men outstanding in campus activities. As proof, Exhibit B—Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's honorary society. This year it included five brothers: Ken Scott, president; Dave Saunders, Wally Heatwole, Herb Bateman, and Harvey Chappell. Next year the chapter will be represented by Harvey Chappell, president; Hugh Haynie, Wally Heatwole, and Jim Logan. Of somewhat the same nature is another organization, the President's Aides: Ken Scott, chief aide; Herb Bateman, Dave Saunders, and Dick Mattox.

And for Exhibit C we might mention extra-curricular activities. The Flat Hat, college paper, was featured by the widely acclaimed cartooning of Hugh Haynie and the work of sports editor Bill Greer. Greer also founded and edited our chapter newsletter, the Gamma Garnet and Gold. The Debate Council was led by Ken Scott, president, and Herb Bateman, vice-president. And Harvey Chappell, now in law school, became president of the Wythe Law Club and edited the William and Mary Law Review.

Exhibit D—school elections and class offices. The current year saw Dave Saunders president of the senior class, and three brothers on the Honor Council: Jim Logan, vice-president, Bill Greer, secretary, and Chris Moe. Next year Hugh Haynie will serve as vice-president of the student body and president of the Student Assembly, while Dick Mattox takes over as president of the Honor Council, with Chris Moe returning.

To turn to the athletics: this year William and Mary's Southern Conference football champions, although tying North Carolina 7-7, were unable to retain the crown. They did go on to blank Oklahoma A. & M., 20-0 in the Delta Bowl game, in which Henry Blanc closed out his college career with a brilliant performance. The second high scorer on the Indian team, Blanc also gained a berth on the All-PIKA team. Best bet to step into Blanc's shoes is the sensational freshman Ed Weber, one of the likeliest prospects on the Reservation. Another IKA on the freshman squad was guard Tom Burke, who doubled in track.

Composing the nucleus of the swimming team were Captain Jake Stevens, high-point man Vic Janega, Bill Kerr, Al FitzGerald, Pete deWitt. Tom Stevens, brother of Jake, led the freshman team in the score column.

In the spring sports, several IKA's showed the way. Harry Robison paced the baseball team with a walloping .416 average. Doug Weiland and Ward Donohue played number one and two on the golf team, with the "Dougger" setting a new home course record of 66. Bill Garrison, Bob Lawson, and Harry Taylor garnered many a point for the track team.

Ted Uhler, intramural manager, kept the fraternity on top most of the year in the intramural race, but we were finally edged out in the spring by Sigma Rho. Starting the year off well, our football team went through an undefeated season to cop the school championship, as Bill Garrison, Harry Robinson, and Ted Uhler made the all-star team. This was followed by a third in volley ball, and a close second in swimming. The relay team, anchored by Jim Logan, high point man, added a new record to the four already held by Ted Uhler.

Phil DuLaney annexed the free throw title with a record 48 out of 50. During the basketball season IKA dropped two games to finish second, but placed Vic Janega on the all-star team. In softball, a heart-breaking 1-0 defeat dropped us into second place again. Consolation, however, was the fact that our pitcher, Hank Blanc, was named most valuable player, and his battery mate Vic Janega gained an all-star berth. Despite first places by Ed Weber and Irv Rascob, IKA could do no better than second in the school track meet.

Dave Saunders showed the way in the other spring sports. Handball champion and finalist in the horseshoe tournament, he also paced the bowling team and held the high game record. The team itself tied for second place, even though they held the highest average and established a new team mark.

But even if we were unable to capture the trophy, there was a good deal of satisfaction in maintaining an unblemished record against our arch rival, SAE.

To conclude this report, we can give a little information on chapter doings.

Rush week ran our membership to 83 as we took in a fine pledge class of 27. Their officers were John Yevak, president; Pete deWitt, vice-president; John Dashiell, treasurer; and Edzu Burke, secretary. Responsibility for pledging them was Rush Chairman Buddy Galbreath; responsible for their grossness was Pledgemaster Bill Hornsby. How well he succeeded was admirably shown by the "pledge revolt."

Matrimonially-minded brothers contributed their share to the society page. Bill Greenwood, Bill Davies, Wes Hill, and Bill Garrison took their marriage vows, while brothers Hornsby, Oakley, Jolly, and Chappell are seriously considering the same step. Going through the preliminary stage of getting pinned were brothers Moe, Don DuLaney, Uhler, Lang, Pirkle, and Haynie. Veterans Yevak and Blanks heired their opinions of married life.

Winding up Gamma's program was the election of next year's officers: SMC Bob Stevens, IMC Dick Mattox, ThC Doug Weiland, SC Gil Yates, and Bob Day, rush chairman.

Pete Quynn has passed the Virginia Bar.

Costume Affair Given at Lehigh

By CHARLES A. JONES
Gamma-Lambda Chapter

◆ COSTUMED brothers and their dates struck the highest note on the current social scale Saturday night, April 23, at the chapter house at Lehigh University.

The impromptu dress affair, master-minded by Jack Griffith, was set in a comic-strip atmosphere, every brother submitting a crayon and paper facsimile of a popular "funnies" character.

Ed Gardiner, dressed as an American Indian, took first prize among the brothers. The most striking feminine costume, a Chinese kimono, was worn by Don Lewis' date. The best cartoon—a sketch of Donald Duck and one of his ducklings—was drawn by Ted Miller.

Lending a Hollywood touch to the affair was the presence of Frank Tripucka, former Notre Dame All-American quarterback. Frank was the guest of his cousin, pledge Paul Tripucka.

Approximately 20 couples attended. Chaperoning were Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Jurgensen. Mr. Jurgensen is a brother and an alumnus of the University of Iowa.

Brothers recovered sufficiently to elect a new set of officers the following week. Gaining office were Garvin L. Jones, SMC; Michael J. Murray, IMC; John M. Finan, ThC; George Ganter, steward; David Moll, alumni secretary; and Edgar Mack, historian.

Off to an excellent start, the softball team is currently leading its league with two victories and no defeats. Bob Martin pitched a three-hit shutout in an 8-0 win over the Sigma-Phi's. Also the IKA's copped the championship in volleyball, and are unbeaten in badminton and bowling.

IKA Date Wins Penn's Ivy Ball Title

By BILL SMITH
Beta-Pi Chapter

◆ BETA PI CHAPTER, at the University of Pennsylvania, brought the 1948-49 year's festivities to a gala close in May with the annual "Dream Girl Dance," and also the selection of a IKA's date as the Queen of Penn's Ivy Ball.

Miss Mary Schrandt, the date of Al Ford, was selected as the chapter's annual "Dream Girl," at a formal dance held May 13. The exclusive Hunting-ton Valley County Club in Abington was the scene of one of the most successful dances ever held by the Beta Pi Chapter.

The Dream Girl Dance, under the chairmanship of Don Schreiber, culminated the year's social activities of the Beta Pi Chapter. Favors for the dance took the form of miniature IKA beer mugs.

The 1949 "Dream Girl" is a resident of Upper Darby. She is 23 years old, brunette hair, and is 5' 7". Mary is a receptionist in the Philadelphia office of the Dow Chemical Corp. She has done fashion modeling in local stores since her graduation from high school. Her escort, Al Ford, is a journalism major at Penn and is a junior this year. He was social chairman last year and turned out some excellent entertainment at the parties. Al was further honored last spring by having several "skits" chosen for the freshman Mask and Wig show.

footballer Jim Conway was chosen as the Queen of the Ivy Ball. Rounding out the university social calendar, the dance was held Friday, May 20, at the Broadwood Hotel in downtown Philadelphia. Tex Beneke and his orchestra provided the dance music for the evening.

A spirited house election was held early in May when the new house officers were elected for the fall term. Art Cramer was elected to the SMC post succeeding Larry Hirsig; Joe Scott returned to his second IMC term, taking the place of graduating senior Ed Laquer. Leroy Hoch was selected as the new treasurer, taking over from Bob Jones, also graduating. Gordon Renninger was appointed the new secretary, Joe Hess retiring.

February and June graduations took their toll of the active brothers this past year. Receiving their diplomas in February were Harry Mills, Art Splendido, Pete Batson, and Bill Calderhead. The June graduates included Dick Shahan, Jim Conway, Bob Jones, Ed Laquer, Ed Schmid and Steve Stevens. George Glenn and Tom Carter also left school to begin their first year at Hahnemann Hospital Medical School.

Fifteen new pledges were initiated in April after a successful pledge training under pledgemaster Don Schreiber. The new brothers are: Jim Snyder, Lebanon, Pa.; Roger Schembs, Milburn, N. J.; Harry Schaub, Freeland; Ken Harding, Glenside; Pete Franck, New Hope; Terry Proch, Monesson, Pa.; Al Allen, Camden, N. J.; Dick Raymond, Buffalo, N. Y.; Tom James, Jim Welsh and Al Miller, Drexel Hill; John Dowlin, Ray Kaelin and John Denney, all of Philadelphia, and John Wettig of North Hills.

Charles Winkler and Lee Craig were pledged in ceremonies held late in April. Charley is a native Philadelphian and Lee is from Baltimore.

Several representatives of national headquarters visited Beta Pi during the year. Blan Taylor, editor of The Shield and Diamond stopped in to see the disastrous Penn-Cornell football game last fall. National Vice President L. A. McCall attended a chapter meeting this spring. Traveling Secretary Pat Clendenning also visited for several days.

Honors were bestowed upon the brothers of Beta Pi in many fields this year. Bill Calderhead was invited to join Phi Beta Kappa, Ed Laquer and Joe Scott were initiated into the Hexagon Society, an honorary engineering fraternity. Art Cramer was elected to Sphinx Society. Art also was elected to be editor-in-chief of the 1950 Record, the Penn yearbook. Gil Cella moved up to take Cramer's post as photo editor of the Daily Pennsylvanian. Larry Hirsig was named associate football manager for the 1949 season. Joe Scott continues in his capacity as a member of the editorial staff of the Pennsylvania Triangle, the engineering school publication.

Brothers and alumni were shocked to learn of the sudden illness and subsequent withdrawal from school of brother Rolf Ware. Rolf took ill early this spring and was forced to return to his home in Schnectedy, N. Y., for a year's convalescence.

Sunday afternoon, May 24, provided the brothers with a very enjoyable outing at the home of alumni counselor Charles "Doc" Allen. Brothers and their dates converged on Doc's spacious home in Cynwyd in the early afternoon. Light showers forced the halt of outdoor games. A delicious buffet supper, consisting of roast turkey and country ham was served in the early evening. National Counsel and Mrs. John Hippel, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Maxwell were also present to share in the festivities.

Saturday, May 21, found some 25 brothers journeying to Lehigh to visit the brothers of the Gamma-Lambda Chapter. Challenged by the Lehigh brothers, the men of Beta-Pi took two athletic teams along—the non-professional softballers, captained by Joe Scott, and Ed Laquer's beer drinkers.

The chapter house remained open during the summer session to accommodate some 11 men who remained for summer school. A visitor at Penn's architecture school was Gordon Galusha, a brother from the Alpha chapter at the University of Virginia.

On their return from Easter vacation, the brothers found the new television set had been installed. Since then, the set has seen active service baseball games and other athletic events, being constantly viewed by brothers and alumni.

Little Dan Cupid was kept very busy this year with a number of engagements and marriages. In keeping with tradition set several years ago by Jim Wilkes and Paul Vineyard, Jack Donovan, the carefree housemanager, startled the chapter late in May by announcing his recent marriage. The bride is the former Dorothy Olshevski, who comes from Jack's hometown, Erie, Pa., and is a graduate nurse of the University Hospital.

Larry Hirsig, the Southern "kernal" was wed to Miss Susan Baker on August 27 in Jacksonville, Fla. The newlyweds will live in Philadelphia until February graduation when they will return to Jacksonville, Larry entering his father's business.

Of interest to alumni and brothers was the mid-summer wedding of Russ Hubbard to Miss Margaret Josephine Carbine of New York City. The wedding was solemnized in the chapel of St. Anthony's Shrine, Church of St. Francis of Assisi, New York, on June 25.

Word from Altoona, Pa., announced a new edition in the Doug Durant family.

Cigars are also in order from Russ Krantz and Ray Werner

Miss Grace Rosemon, date of Jim Conway, Beta-Pi, left, is acclaimed

Ivy Ball Queen by Alvin Dorsky, chairman of the queen committee.

Gamma-Omicron Second In Bowling

By NICHOLAS C. CHRISS
Gamma-Omicron Chapter

Gamma-Omicron's bowling team lost a heartbreaker and came out in second place among the 14 fraternities on the Ohio University campus. Late in the season they played the champion sorority team, Alpha Xi Delta. They spotted the girls 114 pins a game and lost.

In the first three games of the softball season they have been undefeated and the whole chapter is looking forward to another trophy to add to our collection.

This summer 10 of the men will be living at the IKA house at 196 East State St. An invitation is extended to all brothers.

Delta Shows Way In Versatility

Delta Chapter

◆ How versatile can one fraternity chapter get?

That is the question most frequently asked on the Birmingham-Southern College campus as the amazed bystanders look over the list of Delta chapter accomplishments and wonder how one group can possess so many BMOC's.

It's hard to believe that 16 BMOC's can be in the same fraternity on the rather small "Hilltop" campus but here they are:

Bern Calderbank, president of senior class 1949, president of Kappa Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, president of Kappa Phi Kappa, president of UNESCO and writer of the College Constitution of 1949.

Delta-Delta Gives Annual Pike Follies

By RICHARD (PERRY) PEASE
Delta-Delta Chapter

◆ On March 31st and April 1st Delta-Delta chapter of Florida Southern College presented its annual Pike Follies. Each year this chapter has produced a follies that has been and is comparable to the best.

Only close brotherhood and complete cooperation by all members could accomplish such a production. Delta-Delta believes that this close integration of talent and energy is of national interest and importance. This chapter has reason to be proud of these shows. They have set a precedent on Southern's campus for unity in effort.

The Follies are produced entirely with talent found in the chapter with the exception of a few girls chosen from the various sororities on campus. This year these girls added their beauty to the "Anthology." This bit of nostalgic period music handsomely portrayed the styles and mannerisms of eras past and present.

The highlight of the show turned out to be the glamorous "girls" of the chorus line. In the opening number these "girls" were to be seen floating around executing such delicate steps, that the show was stopped before it had actually started. This number was the "Poddy Do," the latest in ballet choreography. The costumes, original and beautiful, did much in giving this number that "ballet theatre" touch.

Such a variety of talent is not often found in a small group. Delta-Delta boasts of having professionals in its ranks. There are actors, dancers and former service entertainers, who have appeared at one time or another in professional theatre in the North and West.

These men were helpful in directing the staging and seeing that everything went "on" at the right moment.

There were short skits taken from Broadway shows, comedy acts, dancers, soloists, beauty parade (here go those "girls" again) and many other fine features which combine to make this production the social event of Southern's year.

The curtain rang down on a final number by the "girls" dislocating their hips in a kick number. The antics of these dancing girls, as in the past, was truly a thing to see. They outdid themselves this season with a show-stopper.

The audience filed out with a fine feeling and a true appreciation of the efforts expanded in the production. It left them with a keener knowledge of the men in IKA and a glowing friendship that will last and will mean a lot.

Founders' Day was celebrated this

Howard Chapter Buys 12-Room Home

By MARION RICHARDSON
Alpha-Pi Chapter

◆ ALPHA-PI at Howard College once again has a place to call home.

The fraternity purchased a 12-room, two-story, white building located only two blocks from the campus, from Dr. L. E. Kirby, AII. Housewarming brought in many useful furnishings.

Alpha Pi completely monopolized the intramural department. Here is a summary of the past year of the major sports in which IKA scored 737½ points, second place team scored 370:

Basketball, IKA.
Softball, IKA.
Track, AX (we lost by ½ point).
Volleyball, IKA.
Basketball, IKA.
Track, IKA.
Football, IKA.

The team won the basketball trophy for the third consecutive year, and racked up our 30th consecutive victory. In softball, IKA possessed such a talented pitcher and excellent backing that the Garnet and Gold boys finished the season in fine style. Fireball pitcher, Millard Johnson is undefeated in three years on Howard's campus.

Pi Kappa Alpha has dealt another "twin kill"; the president of the student body is Billy Joe Ward and the editor of the school paper, The Howard Crimson, is Earl Brown.

Billy Joe, the student body president, is a senior and has applied for a degree with honors. He is a history major and plans to attend Harvard School of Law after graduation from Howard. Ward is a member of Trident and Who's Who. He was elected to the student senate the last two years by the junior and senior classes. He is president of Oaks, leadership fraternity. He is also past president of the International Relations Club, the Debate Club, Freshman Class, and Mu Alpha Chi, honorary music fraternity. At the present, he is SMC of the chapter.

Earl, the Crimson editor, has served as senator in the student senate for the last two years. Brown was sports editor for the Crimson. Some of the clubs that he belonged to are: International Relations Club, French Club, Spanish Club, Sportsman's Club, and Press Club.

Which of these IKA gentlemen is the "most versatile"? Which the "most handsome"? Well, all of the fellows above rate, and here's how (left to right): 1. Roscoe Brown, best dressed; 2. John Childers, most handsome; 3. Billy Ruddell, most versatile; 4. Bud Curtner, wittiest. The voting was done by one of IKA's youngest chapters, Delta-Theta at Arkansas State College.

The varsity Howard Sportsmen football lineup in the fall will probably read as thus: Ends, Roberts and Bowman; tackles, Calton and R. Calton; guards, Attaway and Maze; center, Prientice. All are IKA's. The starting fullback will be Howard Foote; the quarterback will be H. Hanes. Both of the backs are wearers of the Garnet and Gold.

Tommy Tucker and Julius Popwell represent IKA in the varsity basketball five.

Ben Allen, John Moore, Marion Richardson will be swinging their rackets for the varsity tennis team this spring.

Five of 13 members of the Student Senate are IKA's—that's exactly five times as many representatives than any other fraternity has.

IKA's playing varsity baseball are Eddie Kitrell and Howard Foote, pitchers; Julius Popwell, third baseman; and George Johnson, second baseman.

IKA's on the track team include Bill Prientice, Tommy Tucker, and Lee Calton. Two of the four men on the golf team are IKA's—Fred Dawson and Bill Prientice.

Cincinnati Chapter Captures Laurels

Alpha-Xi Chapter

◆ ALPHA-XI at University of Cincinnati kept truly on the upgrade this past year by starting out with 36 new pledges, getting a house mother, winning more than its share of trophies and cups, putting men in student offices and honorary fraternities on campus, and holding two big formals, the last one being the start of the famous weekend party.

With the new year came a house mother, the first for Alpha-Xi. She is Mrs. Ruth Scheratt and her outstanding accomplishment thus far has been concerned with the meals, which are now the best on campus. A native of Pittsburgh, Pa.,

After a successful rushing season, pledging 36 men, the new pledges settled down to build the "Most Humorous Float" in the annual Homecoming parade. The slogan was "Western Reserve Is In a Stew—They're Flavored to Lose." It was the third time in the last four parades that the Pikes have walked off with the coveted trophy. This made it two years in a row.

After introducing the new pledges to the U. C. socialites at the Thanksgiving Pledge Formal, the pledges played turn-about and gave a Christmas party for the actives. This was followed by the annual New Year's Eve party.

After returning to school in January, the fraternity settled down to the matter of campus elections. Bill Nester, Alpha-Xi's social chairman for the past two years, was elected president of Student Council. Ray Campbell, this fall's rush chairman, was elected vice-president of Business Administration Tribunal plus being chosen as a member of Sophos, the sophomore honor society. Tom Balke and Dewey Peal were elected to Metro, another U. C. honorary fraternity. Peal was also president of the Interfraternity Pledge Council.

Gene Box, last year's IMC, was elected president of Phi Eta Sigma and vice-president of Interfraternity Council. Bill McGrath was elected to the Business Administration Tribunal, while Doug Gordon is now a member of the Applied Arts Tribunal.

The chapter elected Bill Binder SMC, Bill Nester IMC in section 1, Dick Lukey in section 2, Harry Yepson, ThC;

George Parsons, SC, and Hal Radcliff, MC. The spring rush season also produced 13 new pledges.

After winning another trophy for the "Most Carnival Like" booth at the Sigma Sigma annual carnival, the Pikes took the biggest event of the year in full stride, the Dream Girl Weekend. Friday, May 13, was the big night at Kenwood Country Club, when Jane Moesta, XΩ, was chosen as the new Dream Girl of IKA. Sally Cortwright, last year's Dream Girl, presented the trophy, while SMC Bill Binder showered her with many gifts.

The annual alumni picnic brought to a close the regular school year on June 11 with the big stag party being held at alum Earl Wagner's farm. Many famous tales were retold and memories revived at this well attended event.

Alpha-Xi won the first prize for the "most carnival-like" booth at Sigma-Sigma carnival. The booth was a clown ring toss game.

McCall Is Speaker At Purdue Dinner

By DARRELL M. ANDERSEN
Beta-Phi Chapter

◆ BETA PHI CHAPTER of Pi Kappa Alpha at Purdue, this year observed Friday, March 4, as Founders' Day. We were exceptionally fortunate to have as our main speaker and guest, L. A. McCall, Jr., national vice-president of the fraternity. He addressed a group which included alumni, the active chapter, guests, and pledges at a banquet, held in the East Faculty Lounge of the Purdue Memorial Union Building.

A short "get acquainted" smoker began the evening at 6 o'clock in the Swedish Lounge of the Union Building, at which time the chapter met and talked with the alumni and guests who were present. A feeling of congeniality and good fellowship which began here at this informal get-together prevailed throughout the entire evening.

The banquet itself began at 6:30 with the invocation, given by Robert J. Grabowski, SMC. After a delicious dinner had been served, the entire group joined in the spirited singing of our fraternity songs, under the direction of Ralph E. Baumheckel, chapter song leader.

Bob Grabowski, acting as master of ceremonies, began the program by introducing each of the alumni present. He then introduced John R. Horton, national field secretary. Bob then called on Dr. Louis M. Sears, noted historian and Beta-Phi's faculty sponsor, who spoke briefly on applying the ideals of a fraternity man in the outside world. Next on the program was Dean F. C. Hockema, vice-president of Purdue University, who gave a short address on the role of the fraternity on the college campus.

It was then that SMC Grabowski presented L. A. McCall, Jr., the main speaker of the evening. L. A., in his own inimitable way, delivered a most stirring and meaningful Founders' Day address. It was not just a collection of words—but a message that made the meaning and ideals of Pi Kappa Alpha just a little clearer and brought them just a little closer to every Pi Kap in the room. He took us back to the dark days of strife and chaos when the six founders of our Brotherhood set up the heritage which we must uphold and carry on today. The perpetuation of these lofty ideals is a challenge for us, the IKA's of 1949, and L. A. threw this challenge forward with this question, which was the main point of his speech, "How can I—how can you, individually best honor these founders of Pi Kappa Alpha?" The answer was soon forthcoming, "... by the lives that we live. . . ."

He then met squarely and answered some of the high spots of public criticism against the fraternity system today—including the racial question and the charge that fraternities are undemocratic. They were included in the speech to "make us think." They did. In conclusion the national vice-president outlined the duty of the individual chapter to Pi Kappa Alpha as a whole, and to the individual member of the fraternity. The duty of the chapter, he said, was "to take the place of a home as far as its members were concerned."

Upon conclusion of his talk the group broke up informally, but the whole program left all that were in attendance with a greater sense of feeling for the ideals and principles our fraternity teaches. And for those of us initiated in IKA, it left us a little more determined to, as the keynote speaker put it, "strive to live more in phi phi kappa alpha for Pi Kappa Alpha."

Beta-Phi's Founders' Day banquet was held in the East Faculty Lounge of the Purdue Memorial Union Building.

Wake Forest Wins Scholarship Cup

◆ FOR THE first time in its history Gamma-Phi chapter at Wake Forest College won the annual Inter-Fraternity Scholarship Trophy for the school year 1947-48.

The over-all average for Pi Kappa Alpha during the school year was 1.421 while second place Kappa Alpha trailed by only six-thousandths of one point with a score of 1.415. The over-all fraternity average was 1.263. In 1946-47 Pi Kappa Alpha placed eighth with an average of 1.092.

The IKA football team won their first fraternity football cup and went on to become the first fraternity team to take the campus championship in football for ten years.

Under the guidance of Coach Jim Patton, erstwhile basketball star for the Deacons, the IKA's mixed a little brawn and a lot of brains to rise from sixth place last year to the top this fall.

A memorial plaque presented to the chapter by Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Lingle of Monroe dedicated to the memory of four brothers and one pledge who lost their lives in World War II was unveiled in a simple ceremony April 25.

The members' names which appear on the plaque are: Demming Ward, Durham, N. C.; William C. Bullock, Roxboro, N. C.; Ray Lingle, Monroe, N. C.; Walter C. Clark, Baltimore, Md., and Pledge William A. Roach, Lumberton, N. C.

SMC Allen Knott opened the ceremony with a brief talk on tradition of the fraternity. Dr. Thurmond Kitchen, president of the college gave the invocation which was followed by the dedicatory address delivered by Dr. Glenn Blackburn, college chaplain.

Millsaps Chapter Entertains National President

By RALPH HUTTO

Alpha-Iota Chapter

◆ IT WAS Pi Kappa Alpha weekend in Jackson, Miss.!

The date was March 18 and Alpha-Iota was host to National President Knight, two other national officers, six chapters making up District 14, numerous alumni, and the student body of Millsaps College in two of the most eventful days ever experienced by Alpha-Iota.

Things began moving on Friday afternoon with a reception in the chapter house for National President Andrew H. Knight. Also present were Mrs. Knight; James V. LeLaurin, national pledge training director, and Mrs. LeLaurin; Pat Clendinning, national field secretary; and Professor Charles E. Lawrence of Mississippi State College, president of District 14.

Friday night the District 14 Founders' Day banquet was held at the Jackson Country Club. Main speaker of the evening was President Knight, who was introduced by District President Lawrence. Following the address, members of the various chapters were recognized and a program of entertainment was presented by two lovely Millsaps College co-eds, Betty Jo Davis and Virginia Cavett.

The District Convention convened

Saturday morning in the Alpha-Iota Chapter House, presided over by Professor Lawrence. The all-morning business session was adjourned at noon.

Business finished, the social side of the weekend began Saturday afternoon with a tea dance for out-of-town members and alumni in the Silver Room of the Heidelberg Hotel. Music was furnished by the Jack Jones combo, a local musical group, with vocals by Alpha-Iota's Eddie Robinson.

Climax of the weekend was Alpha-Iota's annual Cotton Ball on Saturday night. The ball was open to the entire student body of Millsaps College in addition to all visiting members and alumni of Pi Kappa Alpha. Jim Carey and his orchestra were on the bandstand in the Heidelberg Hotel's Victory Room. Highlighting the ball was the announcement of the Cotton Queen, who was selected by Movie Actor Robert Paige from five nominees submitted by the chapter.

Paige selected Patsy Abernethy, KΔ, as Queen. The four maids were Betty Dossett, XΩ; Dorothy Myers, BΣO; Margaret Inman, ΦM; and Anne Fridge. Following the announcement, an intermission party for members and alumni took place at the chapter house. The remainder of the weekend was danced away after intermission at the Heidelberg.

The man most responsible for the success of Pi Kappa Alpha Weekend in Jackson was Lee Bonner, social chairman of Alpha-Iota, whose skillful management of events resulted in nary a bobble. Bonner's top-notch job plus distinguished guests plus cooperation of all chapters in District 14 plus assessments on the good actives of Alpha-Iota made the weekend memorable and profitable.

Alpha-Beta Jumps In Scholarship

Alpha-Beta Chapter

◆ CLIMAXING a year of numerous parties, fun-making of all kinds, and much studying, Alpha-Beta held its annual Dream Girl dance on April 23, 1949, at the exclusive Broadmoor Country Club in the suburbs of Shreveport, La.

The dance was by invitation and was written up in several local papers. The whole school was anxiously awaiting the event of the presentation of the "Pike" Dream Girl. The dance began at 9 o'clock p. m. with the orchestra of Milt Chapman lending his melodious music to complete the scheme of a Southern garden party. The chapter produced one of the biggest extravaganzas that Centenary College has seen. There were real trees, a beautiful garden complete with a fish pond containing small rare goldfish, and even a pink rabbit, owned by Drummond Chantler, on the lawn.

At intermission there was an open house for everyone attending the dance at the home of Jim Mueller, SMC. Approximately at 11:30 the Dream Girl burst through a tissue paper arch to be presented with a large bouquet of red roses and a large silver bowl engraved: "Barbara Ann Thomas, the Dream Girl of IKA, Alpha Beta, 1949." Then the Dream Girl and her escort, George D'Artois, led off the dancing to a special arrangement of the "Dream Girl" song. On hand for the occasion were Miss Lois Mueller, the Dream Girl of 1948, who was also presented with a bouquet of roses; the chaperons: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shuey, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. A. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mueller, and Mrs. Carama Pugh Chantler. After the dance the IKA's adjourned to a smart night club on the outskirts of Bossier City, La. In charge of the dance committee was J. W. Al Richardson. Others on the committee who helped make the dance a success were Brothers Thomas Drummond Chantler and James J. Hindman. Not a IKA, but one who contributed much labor to the dance was Tom Mueller, a brother of the SMC.

Alpha-Beta was very successful during the past year. Having come up from last to second place scholastically on the campus. We lacked getting first place by three tenths of a point. Several brothers have won wide recognition on the campus for outstanding achievements. There are IKA's in every large

The chapter has done much during the school year to further better relations between various factions on the campus and has won wide acclaim for its services. The chapter recently pledged three men whom every group on the campus endeavored to secure. They are: Allan Hunter, Bill Fox, and Clifton Watkins. The officers chosen to lead the chapter this semester are Jim Mueller, SMC; Nick A. De Fatta, IMC; J. W. Albert Richardson, Jr., SC; and Thomas Drummond Chantler, ThC. Illini IKA's Win Carnival Honors

By ROBERT J. WYLLIE
Beta-Eta Chapter

◆ PI KAPPA ALPHA teamed with Alpha Xi Delta to capture honors at the University of Illinois Spring Carnival. The carnival is put on every spring for the benefit of all major charities with all fraternities and sororities participating. Preceded by weeks of parades and publicizing it is the biggest event on campus.

The winning show, directed by Elliot Craine, was based on the songs "Frankie and Johnnie" and "Bill Bailey." Titled "Keystone Kapers," the play featured singing bartenders, a dancing chorus, solo dances, and last but not least, the antics of the Keystone Kops. The Daily Illini, student publication at the university, labeled the show outstanding in plot and talent.

The annual spring formal was a terrific success. Miss Peggy Lewis, Gamma Phi Beta, was selected as Beta Eta's Dream Girl by vote of the chapter. She is the pin-girl of Bill Martin. Johnny Bruce's orchestra provided the music against a garden background. A sweetheart dinner and serenade followed the dance.

◆ NOT CONTENT with winning the recent District Three annual "Best All-Around Chapter" award, Delta-Gamma chapter at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, kept right on going and copped the highly coveted Phi Beta Kappa scholarship cup given to the fraternity having the highest grade average on campus.

During the convention, held April 1-2-3 at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, it was SMC Roy Haines' honor to accept the award on behalf of the chapter at a gala banquet attended by over 150 representatives of the seven district chapters. Scholarship, successful intramural participation, representation in scholastic athletics, relationships with sororities, relationships with other fraternities, regard by general community, and effective pledge training were the award criteria, all of which were attested to and rated by the University Dean of Men.

The plaque, already won by Alpha-Xi, Alpha-Rho, and Delta-Beta, will become the permanent possession of that chapter receiving it the most times during the years 1941 to 1951.

Attending the convention were: Bill

Thanks go to Bill Frees, Don Jameson, Webb MacKenzie, Jim Whitney, and Wier Wirtz, not to mention Al himself, for some fine publicity work.

Singing a medley of By Candlelight and IKA Girl, Delta-Gamma performed in the Inter-Fraternity Sing honoring mothers during Mother's Day festivities. Pledge Frank Maglich did an excellent job of conducting, and George Zimmerman coached at rehearsals. A buffet supper was held afterwards at The Huddle for visiting mothers and guests.

On March 5, with approximately 100 persons in attendance, Delta-Gamma observed its third Founder's Day banquet. The chapter was very fortunate to have as its guest speaker, Powell B. McHaney, National Alumni secretary, who spoke on racial controversies among college fraternities and how the question applied in particular to Pi Kappa Alpha.

Alumni guests included Professor Delmas Cawthorne, AA; Judge Ziegel, AE; Professor George Thatcher, AT; Ralph Yaeger, District Three President; John Horton, Alumni Field Secretary; Richard Weimer, ΔΓ, and Howard Wedegartner, ΔΓ. Dr. Robert J. Miner, director of student affairs, Miami University,

Hearts & Flowers BB Ball Theme

◆ HEARTS and Flowers was the theme of the 1949 Dream Girl Ball of Beta-Beta Chapter held at the Olympic Hotel Bowl May 14 in Seattle as one engagement and three pin plants were announced during the evening.

Dee Carlo, KAΘ, Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha, for 1949 at the University of Washington was chosen by Neale Ordayne, prominent Pacific Northwest portrait painter at the 22nd annual Formal Dream Girl dance.

Governor of the State of Washington, Arthur B. Langlie, delegated Artist Ordayne to choose one of the five finalists selected by the members of Beta-Beta from over 50 University co-ed contestants. Mr. Ordayne, who is one of America's foremost painters of industrial leaders, has completed a portrait of Miss Dee Carlo, which was presented to Beta-Beta.

Miss Shirley Krehbeil, KKT Dream Girl for 1948, received a small gold trophy cup for her sorority, when she presented the large gold trophy to Miss Carlo. The four other finalists, Dorothy Froseth, AXΩ; Marcia Adkisson, AΓΔ; Jo Ann Kronick, ΔΔΔ; Janet Ledingham, XΩ, were each presented with a gold engraved compact with the Pi Kappa Alpha crest. Beta-Beta President Ed Milburn; Russ Holmer, Bob Williams, and Ed Olsen escorted the finalists. Bob Caldwell accompanied the Dream Girl.

The honored guests of the Dream Girl Ball were Governor and Mrs. Arthur B. Langlie and the University of Washington president, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Allen. Patrons were Mr. and Mrs. Ward Kief, Mr. and Mrs. Albert LaPierre, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Darrow, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Herndon McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Duncan. Over 200 guests attended the formal dinner dance.
