Chaplain's Corner

September, 1951.

Dear Freshmen:

Many of you are stepping out into a strange new world this September. The first days on the campus find you timid and confused. Back in high school you were a "big wheel" and everybody knew your name. Now you are a small fish in a big pond.

Nobody will be impressed by your opinions or by what you say or think. The first weeks at college can really make a man humble.

Here are a few suggestions which you can take or leave:

(1) Listen and give good heed to your dean, your faculty advisor, your college pastor. See to it that you know them and that they know you.

(2) Choose your friends deliberately—"Pass up" the fraternity that rushes you off your feet, that tries to make up your mind for you in a hurry. Wait and think it over.

(3) Do your work honestly and well. Set apart the needed time every day to get up your assignments in room or library.

(4) By all means take part actively in athletics. Play on a team. The program of intramurals on your campus gives everybody a chance. Here you will find a good health and body builder, and a wonderful help to playing well the game of life later on.

(5) Don't neglect your social life. You can always date the right kind of girls—and there are the other kind.

(6) Cultivate reverence as a habit and attitude of life. No man's life has any significance or achieves any lasting happiness or satisfaction without being related to something bigger than himself, and that something is God and faith in Him.

Finally, all the above is worthless unless you have brought with you something besides your trunk and your fees. In short, if you have come to college without character it is better to go back to your home and your church and get that character which these alone provide. College cannot make something out of nothing. "You cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear." Neither can you grow character under glass. College is not a hothouse or a prison. It is just another phase of life where you are perfectly free, free to choose between good and evil. Only thus can a stable, dependable character be developed. It's all up to you, the choice, not another's decision, but your choice that determines the road you travel.

Your Chaplain,
 Dr. U. S. "Preacher" Gordon.

Infiltration of Labor Is Number One Communist Goal for 1951

Editor's note: The editor feels that our readers will be interested in the operating techniques of Communists throughout the country today. An informed public will be much less susceptible to the insidious influences of Communism.

By VICTOR RIESEL

◆ ONCE upon a time a giant-sized friend of mine, whose early FBI training did not include silent Indian style stalking through heavy underbrush, was discovered by Communist leaders, spying on one of their earliest secret Red conventions. The comrades, hoping that no one would see their intrigues for the forest, were holding their August, 1922, sessions in a dense Michigan woods. My husky friend was forced to make some arrests.

Not since then have the Communists been so cagey in guarding one of their conventions as they were during the last week end in December at their 15th national parley. They had good reason. Not that they feared arrest this time. They would have welcomed becoming martyrs again.

What they feared was exposure of their plans to demoralize these United States as we throw up military roadblocks on the Soviets' road to aggression. But their complex counter-espionage maneuvers were futile. This is what they decided, step by step, and these decisions are disclosed at the very moment when every Communist Party member is being briefed back home on the new "Operation Demoralization."

The hopped-up, semi-hysterical atmosphere was sponged through the grim little lower East Side hall by the Swedish dynamite expert, and insensately tough party boss, Gus Hall. In what seemed like a replica of a Moscow inner-Kremlin briefing of commissars in some special section, Comrade Hall hollered that "atomaniacs" were in our Government's driver's seat; that Henry Wallace was "a blood brother of the warmongers" and former Party Chief Earl Browder was a "tool of Wall Street."

He then said that there were now two world camps—one led by the United States, the other led by the U.S.S.R.,—and Russia must win. The next day they trundled in the aging, nominal party boss, William Z. Foster, whom they charitably permit to parade in a cloak of power which no longer is his. But the speech they wrote for him—which was read by that veteran of the Spanish wars, Johnny Gates—put the finishing touches to the meaning of the convention.

The 200 Commie leaders were told that they needn't worry. This war would end capitalism. The United States is no match for the "forces of Socialism"—meaning Russia's world Sovietized troops. Therefore, their tasks were to go out and weaken our will to fight.

That night, the Party's labor chief, John Williamson, revealed the basic techniques to be used. Communists were to be peeled off the Party and sent into the AFL, CIO and other outfits as "non-Commies," to seize and disrupt.

Here then is the most significant decision of all. It differs from the old hack trick of infiltrating and screaming. It is the maneuver which won the sympathy of 10,000,000 people back in the 1930s for organizations (against war, Fascism, and unemployment) all subtly, but with a ruthless iron hand, controlled by the Communist Party.

The plan is to send tens of thousands of the 50,000 disciplined, fanatical Party members into all sorts of organizations—labor, youth, clerical, racial, religious and such outfits as the new volunteer civil defense corps.

Every one of them will be almost scientifically assigned to the organization into which he can best blend. Gentle looking housewives will be assigned to fretting about the neighborhoods over the lack of bomb shelters—"so-why-should-we-irritate-the-Soviets-now?" sort of stuff. Negro mothers will be agitated into telling their sons not to fight a "white man's war." Young men will be urged not to fight some "futile war" in a far-off Oriental swamp. The draft will be fought with literature in the colleges.

Workers in the coal mines, railroads, the conservative AFL unions, as well as the steel, auto and electrical industries will suddenly find men alongside them saying: "Why should we speed up military production—what do we get out of it?" Party agents will be sent in, not to fight for broad issues, or push the line, but to fight for "immediate" things. Such a fight will create resentments and stir trouble between management and labor.

And at the same time, with all the skill, money (in the millions), energy and Soviet direction available to the Party machine, they will organize "popular fronts" from the bottom up. Committees, committees, committees and more committees, around each of these irritants and anxieties.

Who wouldn't join an innocent committee for better bomb shelters, or higher pay, or peace in our time? But watch out. Check on who is secretary. Look a gift horse in the mouth. He may be Trojan. Double check on the good-natured guy willing to give time. He's probably loyal. But he may be one of the fanatical 50,000.

If you're going to pack up your troubles in an old kit bag in this war, make certain you don't check it with a Soviet agent.

A Bit of Fun

Henry Ford brought out a book of jokes told on the early Ford cars and made a good thing out of it. Possibly a book of jokes about college fraternities would go well—and those who know him would promptly name Cecil J. "Scoop" Wilkinson, Phi Gamma Delta executive secretary, as the logical compiler, editor and explainer. Here is one of his favorite stories:

Professor: "What do you consider the greatest Greek tragedy?"

Greek: "Oh, we never speak ill of the rival fraternities."

MAIN BUILDING

Wofford College, Home of Nu Chapter

The Main Building, Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, has been in continuous use since the college opened August 1, 1854. Wofford is a liberal arts, church-related college (Methodist) with a male enrollment of approximately 700 students.

The college has a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa and is outstanding in athletics. It is reputed to have produced more outstanding church and civic leaders in South Carolina than any other college in the state. Nu Chapter has had its share of South Carolina leaders including a Governor and a college president. This salutary atmosphere bodes well for the future of our chapter.

Nu Chapter Reactivated On Wofford Campus

By HARRY GALL

◆ NU SLEEPS no more. It has arisen once more to take its place among the other chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha after a silence of nearly half a century. Installed in 1891, Nu held for fifteen years a respected and highly esteemed place upon the campus of Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina. In 1906, Greek-letter, social fraternities were banned from South Carolina institutions of higher learning by state law. Nu, with nostalgic reluctance, was forced to close its doors until a future date and more propitious hour. Forty-five years later, Pi Kappa Alpha returned to the Wofford campus to revive old traditions and remembrances of a bygone day.

Thanks to the untiring efforts and inspirations of men and brothers who are, by their actions, true upholders of the ideals of Pi Kappa Alpha, Nu Chapter was reborn. Outstanding among those to whom Pi Kappa Alpha will ever owe its gratitude in this endeavor are: L. A. McCall, Jr., M (Presbyterian College), National Vice President; Fred Wilkins, Ψ (North Georgia Agricultural College), District President; Vernon Harwell, Ξ (University of South Carolina); Professor A. L. V. Ingram, Θ (Southwestern-at-Memphis); and David Abernethy, ΓA (University of Alabama), Field Secretary.

Early in January, 1951, the ground work for reactivation was laid by the formation of a Pi Kappa Alpha local known as Beta Nu, under the guidance of Professor A. L. V. Ingram. Its original complement of ten men included transfer members Vernon Harwell (South Carolina), Joe O. Price, Jr. (Vanderbilt), and

C. F. Hollobaugh, Jr. (Vanderbilt), and was gradually increased during the following months. At last the day arrived when the untiring labors of over a dozen men reached fruition. On Friday evening, April 13, 1951, eleven men were initiated into Nu Chapter. On the following Saturday afternoon the official re-installation ceremonies were held, Brother McCall, National Vice President, presiding. The following officers were installed: Robert T. Barham, SMC; W. Harvey Floyd, IMC; Allen Henley, Jr., Th.C, and Harold L. Chavis, SC. Twins Dale and Gale Fields were elected co-

The Beta-Upsilon (Colorado) House Manager yells, "Keep your hands on your wallet, men, Bunny Clark's here again!"

◆ BURR, PATTERSON & AULD COMPANY, Roosevelt Park, Detroit, Mich., is one of the outstanding national leaders in the fraternity jewelry field. Pi Kappa Alpha is pleased to have it as one of the three official fraternity jewelers. Burr-Pat in turn is proud of the four Pi Kappa Alpha members of its sales force.

The two veteran IKA-Burr-Pat salesmen are Gene and Herbert Michaelis. Members of the various chapters throughout the Midwest and South during the past two decades know both of these boys well.

Bob McKay and Bunny Clark of Salt Lake City joined the Burr-Pat staff and have served the Western area since 1946.

Gene Michaelis, BK (Emory), who hails from Lavonia, Ga., was initiated just in time to be eligible to attend the 1926 National Convention held in Atlanta, Ga. Since that date, he has attended every National Convention except two.

Gene is the senior member of IKA on the Burr-Pat staff. Brother Robert A. Smythe, our outstanding Grand Treasurer and Fraternity leader for decades, recommended Gene to the Burr, Patterson & Auld Jewelry Company, and he has served as their Southern representative since 1931.

Gene says, "I have personally visited 55 of our IKA chapters and at most of our Deep South chapters I have shown the IKA pins over a hundred times in the past 20 years." Brother Robert M. McFarland, while Executive Secretary during the 1930s, referred to Gene and Herb Michaelis as IKA traveling secretaries "without portfolio". In their visits to various campuses these two brothers had an opportunity to observe the operations of our chapters during this period. Gene has had many years of experience in the fraternity field, and expresses himself as being proud of Pi Kappa Alpha and its standing.

Herb Michaelis was initiated into Beta-Kappa Chapter at Emory University in 1929. After graduation in 1930, he worked for Sears, Roebuck and Company and Dunn and Bradstreet in Atlanta, Ga. In 1933 he joined the Burr-Pat sales force and served in the Mid-south area. One year later he transferred to the area from Missouri south through Texas. Herb married Eleanor Moses (Alpha Chi Omega from Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga.) in 1940. They have four children. In 1942 Herb established a Burr, Patterson & Auld jewelry store at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind. Mrs. Michaelis serves as manager of the store while Herb travels Indiana, Illinois, and Kentucky.

OFFICIAL Burr STAFFED

Uncle Sam interrupted his sales work from 1943 to 1946. Brother Michaelis served with Patton's Third Army and was wounded twice.

Bob McKay, AT (Utah), was one of the outstanding leaders on the University of Utah campus during his college career. He pledged IKA in 1937 and served in various offices culminating in the presidency of the chapter in 1941. He also held many University offices, including the presidency of the Associated Men Students.

From 1941 to '44 Bob served as a missionary for the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) in Argentina. From 1944-1946 he served in the Army and had service in Okinawa and Korea.

Gene Michaelis displays his wares.

JEWELER Burr-Pat BY TTKAs

In 1946 Brother McKay accepted a sales position with Burr-Pat, serving several Western states. He has recently opened his own jewelry store in Salt Lake City, which serves as an outlet for Burr-Pat jewelry in that area.

Mrs. McKay, a Chi Omega, is a former Engineering Queen and "Days of '47" attendant to the Queen. They have two children—a girl, 4, and a boy, 2.

"Keep Your Hands On Your Wallet Men, Bunny Clark's Here Again"—this is the usual greeting when the Burr, Patterson and Auld salesman for the Western states enters one of the chapter houses in his territory. Bunny says little did he realize when he joined Alpha-Tau Chapter (Utah), that a few years later he would be traveling several thousand miles and wearing out an automobile each year to service fraternities in the Western states, including 14 Pi Kappa Alpha chapters. Bunny says that invariably when he gets his jewelry displayed and is all ready for business, the housemanager comes down and passes out the house bills for the month to any person who looks as though he is ready to buy something.

Herb Michaelis smiles a welcome in his Purdue Jewelry Store.

Bob McKay seems to be concentrating on the sororities. He appears with the University of Utah Kappa Kappa Gamma chorus featured on his radio program.

He usually forgives the housemanager though when lunch time arrives and he is able to dine with the boys. It is always a welcome relief to eat at a fraternity house after dining in restaurants day after day. Bunny enjoys telling the story about the time he and Bob McKay had just gone to work for Burr-Patt and were traveling together. One week they were working particularly hard, eating when they could find the time and then usually only a hamburger. Sunday they decided to take time out and enjoy a quiet, full meal. They picked the finest restaurant in town and ordered sliced turkey and a full course dinner. Just as Bob was ready to eat his last bite of dressing, Bunny noticed a beautifully preserved baked cockroach. He said, "I pointed the little animal out to my partner and I have never seen a man lose his tan so quickly."

Traveling from campus to campus out West sometimes presents a real problem. Distances are measured in hundreds of miles. It is often necessary to drive all night to fulfill an engagement. Night driving involves dodging cattle, horses and deer which Bunny says he frequently suspects his jewelry competitor as having placed on the road in front of him. These and other road hazards add rather unwelcomed excitement to his job.

But let's let Bunny recount a story or two for us: "The amount of traveling necessary to reach all of the campuses in my territory compares with the miles covered by the traveling secretaries of the Fraternity. This last year I have missed seeing Brother John Horton by one day at each of the campuses at Arizona State, San Diego State, University of Southern California, and the University of Washington. We finally met at Oregon State College. After a toss of the coin to see who'd buy the meal, I finally took John to dinner. This is the first time that I can remember that I have saved the Fraternity any money. However, it was good to see John to talk over old times.

"There are times in our lives when we feel the real meaning of brotherhood in Pi Kappa Alpha. One such time was when I left the University of California to travel to Oregon State College. I left the campus at California about 8:00 p. m., and decided to drive for awhile before I ate dinner. I drove across the Oakland Bay Bridge to San Francisco and paid the toll. But as I prepared to pay the toll to go across the Golden Gate Bridge, I found that I had cashed too many checks at my last call and had no money. I argued with the attendant for about a half an hour before he finally let me across, but even getting across didn't solve my problem. I hadn't eaten and had no money for a motel. So I drove until about 2:00 a. m., and

Duke Earns Top Fraternity Awards

By RICHARD C. SHULTZ

◆ ALPHA-ALPHA Chapter at Duke University has emerged as the winner of the Robert A. Smythe Chapter Efficiency Award for the school year 1950-51. Out of a possible perfect score of 1,000, the men from Durham, North Carolina, garnered 684 points to clinch the award for this school year. Close on the heels of the winners is Beta-Alpha Chapter at Penn State with a total point score of 682.

This award, one of the most coveted in the Fraternity, is made to the chapter which scores highest in all-around chapter efficiency. The race for the top position this year was touch-and-go all the way, as indicated by the small spread between the first and tenth place chapters. This spread was only 74 points.

The top chapter, Alpha-Alpha, will be awarded a beautiful bronze plaque bearing the likeness of one of Pi Kappa Alpha's Junior Founders, Robert A. Smythe. Each of the top ten chapters will be awarded a suitable certificate in recognition of their very excellent all-around operation for the year. Since these certificates are an innovation this year, the top ten chapters from last year will also receive them. The plaque itself is a traveling award which was won last year by Delta-Beta Chapter at Bowling Green State University.

Several criteria are used to arrive at the winner of this annual award. There are five phases of chapter operation which are analyzed and rated. Perfect score for each of the five phases is 200 points with a total possible score of 1,000.

The five yardsticks that are used are as follows: Scholarship, reporting, percentage of pledges initiated, financial soundness, alumni relations and chapter alumni publications. It is felt that each of these categories is very vital to the efficient operation of our chapters.

With 10 per cent below the campus all-men's average as absolute zero, the chapters were rated scholastically. Delta-Nu Chapter at Wayne University headed the list in this section with a total point score of 196 out of a possible 200.

No chapter was given any credit if its total days late for reports to the National Office was in excess of 200 days. Thus, by inversion, if a particular chapter were only 10 days late for the entire year, its point score was 200 minus 10 or 190. In this phase there were three perfect chapters, Alpha-Kappa at Missouri School of Mines, Gamma-Zeta at Wittenberg College, and Gamma-Iota at the University of Mississippi.

To compute the scores for the percentage of pledges initiated, the total number of pledges reported and eligible for initiation was divided into the total number of those same men who were initiated. This percentage was then multiplied by two in order to achieve a maximum of 200 points.

All the chapters were graded on three major items in the financial soundness phase. These were amount of accounts receivable, amount of accounts payable, and cash position at year's end.

The last phase, alumni relations and alumni publications, was graded from the Chapter Alumni Secretary's Report and from the Chapter Publications which were sent to the National Office. This phase did not attempt to grade the quality of each publication but simply to give credit to all chapters which put out a newsletter or paper. If a chapter did publish such a newsletter at least twice during the school year, it secured for itself 100 points. One publication per year earned 50 points. It was impossible, unfortunately, to give any credit for a newsletter or paper unless a copy had been sent to the National Office.

The remaining 100 points in this section were awarded on the basis of the chapter's Alumni Program as outlined on the two reports required of the Chapter Alumni Secretary. Such things as Homecoming Celebrations, Alumni Picnics, percentage of addresses unknown, and complete acknowledgment of all alumni Rushing recommendations were paramount in this particular section.

Listed below are the top ten chapters in the order in which they finished the race for the coveted award:

1. Alpha-Alpha (Duke)	684
2. Beta-Alpha (Penn State)	682
3. Beta-Iota (Beloit)	671
4. Delta-Nu (Wayne)	670
5. Gamma-Zeta (Wittenberg)	669
6. Beta-Gamma (Kansas)	649
7. Beta-Theta (Cornell)	634
8. Alpha-Kappa (Missouri Mines)	615
9. Delta-Beta (Bowling Green)	611
10. Beta-Phi (Purdue)	610

And so the tabulations have been made, the winner and the runners-up have been announced for this year. Where does your chapter stand? If it is not in the top ten, the time to correct that situation is now. A new school year is beginning and with it a chance to improve each chapter's operation.

Three Chapters Have Perfect Record

◆ IT'S IMPOSSIBLE to do better than perfect and few achieve that mark. Alpha-Kappa at Missouri School of Mines, Gamma-Zeta at Wittenberg College and Gamma-Iota at the University of Mississippi belong to that select group. Although there are a multitude of necessary reports which must be submitted by various chapter officers throughout the year, three chapters maintained a perfect record for punctual reporting to the National Office during the 1950-51 school year.

A careful record is maintained in the National Office on the dates various reports were mailed from each chapter. A record of "points days late" indicates the points charged for tardiness. For example, if one report is mailed three days late, three points are charged against the chapter or if one report were two days late and another report was one day late, you again have a charge of three so the points charged may represent one or two reports that were very late or many reports that were a few days late each.

There were many chapters which had excellent reporting records even though they did not quite make the perfect score. Congratulations are due them for being "nearly perfect," and we trust that next year they too will be in the perfect circle. Penn State had a perfect record except for the Historical Sketch, and the same was true of Davidson. The Iowa Chapter had only two points against it plus the Historical Sketch. Presbyterian College had only four points plus a late Historical Sketch. Purdue University had only three points charged for the entire year, Florida seven points, and Kansas State eight points. The following chapters had late Historical Sketches plus the following points charged: University of Kansas, 6; Oregon State College, 8; Millsaps College, 10, and Beloit College 12. The University of Virginia had 12 points charged plus a late SC No. 8 report. The University of Miami had 10 points charged plus a late Historical Sketch.

High commendation is hereby extended to all these chapters and those chapter officers who diligently handled their reporting assignments throughout the year. We are pleased that there are three winners of the Lynn Award for chapter reporting this year. A permanent award will be presented each chapter, and the traveling trophy will circulate among the three. More power to you and to the other chapter officers!

Miami At Oxford Named Winner

◆ DELTA-GAMMA Chapter at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, will receive the National Award for the Best Historical Sketch for 1950-51 according to the announcement just made by National Historian Freeman H. Hart. Dr. Hart praised the quality of the sketch from the standpoint of content and presentation.

The University of Florida, the University of Alabama, and Arizona State (newly chartered Delta-Tau Chapter) received honorable mention. In addition the University of North Carolina, University of Cincinnati, and Ohio State chapters were commended.

A plaque is presented each year to the chapter submitting the Best Historical Sketch to the National Historian for the permanent records of the Fraternity.

Kansas Wins Publication Award

◆ THE University of Kansas chapter (Beta-Gamma) earned top honors among chapter publications for its Jayhawk Pi-Kap, but the honors must be shared with the University of Missouri Pike, Beta-Phi Candlelight, and the Kansas State The Smart Weed. The Karl B. Pauly trophy is a gift to the national fraternity from the Ohio State Chapter honoring its outstanding journalist alumnus. It is awarded annually to the chapter which issues the best chapter publication based on the following considerations: (1) news interest to alumni; (2) news interest to student members; (3) good journalism; (4) frequency of publication; (5) appearance.

The Jayhawk Pi-Kap editors were Dick Harper for the fall term and Emlin "Pete" North, Jr., for the spring term. It is a four-page, three-column printed publication issued each fall and spring with a page size approximately the same as The Shield and Diamond magazine. The fall issue presented a feature picture of the fine pledge class with data about individual members. Another fea-

Delta-Phi Chapter Installed At Colorado School of Mines

By LAWRENCE V. HOWENSTINE

◆ SATURDAY afternoon, April 28, was the occasion for the installation of Pi Kappa local as Delta-Phi Chapter at the Colorado School of Mines, in Golden, Colorado. This installation marked the advent of the first new national fraternity on the campus in 22 years and increased the number of Pi Kappa Alpha chapters in Colorado to three, the other active chapters being Beta-Upsilon at the University of Colorado and Gamma-Gamma at University of Denver.

National fraternities now represented at Mines include, besides Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Theta Chi.

The installation ceremony was the culmination of over a year's effort by members of the local fraternity. In the early fall of 1949, Pat Glendinning, former Field Secretary, visited Dean M. I. Signer, AK (Missouri Mines), on the Colorado School of Mines campus, and at this meeting it was decided to encourage the organization and growth of a local group of strong non-fraternity men, which would be the first step in getting a chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha on the Mines campus.

Significantly, yet coincidentally, on March 1, 1950, Jeff Jeffreys and Frank Vaughn, two juniors, met and, with the cooperation of Dean Signer and Professor Carl G. Nordquist, IT, decided to organize such a group. Larry Howenstine, AT, a sophomore transfer student, was contacted, and these three men soon organized a small group as a nucleus upon which to build. The Greek letters Pi Kappa, which, they felt, would indicate the group's intention, were chosen as a name for the local. The first draft of the Constitution and By-Laws was drawn up on March 25 and formally adopted April 3, 1950. From this time on, the group, initially composed of 17 actives, began to prosper and expand rapidly.

The Associated Students of the Colorado School of Mines amended their Constitution so that Pi Kappa could be represented on the Student Council. The Interfraternity Council also accepted the local as a fully qualified member.

Parties were scheduled regularly for the rest of the semester and included both stag and mixed affairs. In the fall, the local sponsored an All-School Opening Dance which met with huge success. Rushing was carried out smoothly and effectively, and seven new men were accepted as members by the end of the fall semester. At mid-term of the second semester the local had a pledge class of ten men.

Twice during the year, Field Secretary John Horton visited the Mines campus, and he was largely instrumental in preparing the group for its future initiation. April 28 was agreed upon as the date of the installation, and the necessary steps were immediately undertaken to realize this goal. Invaluable assistance and advice in this respect was rendered the group by both the active chapters in the state.

On Friday night, April 27, twenty-eight "Miners" were initiated into Pi Kappa Alpha at the Gamma-Gamma Chapter House. The initiation was conducted by two teams, one from Beta-Upsilon, headed by SMC Bruce Conway, and the other from Gamma-Gamma, under the direction of SMC Otis Windham. Present at the initiation were Field Secretary Horton, District President Ellison Ketchum, Dean Signer, and many other local alumni of the Fraternity.

Those initiated were Geoffrey Jeffreys, Frank W. Vaughn, Paul A. Johnson, Joseph H. Sullivan, Ermon A. Duvall, Edmund R. Blakeman, Jack C. McFarlin, Jacques S. Heyrman, Wesley H. Parker, John R. Ross, Ivan B. Robinson, Charles M. Mallette, Edward N. Bennett, James A. Uhrlaub, William R. Matthews, Ben B. Chomiak, David R. Cella, Robert M. Mousel, George S. Miles, Roger W. Sherbourne, Robert B. Lange, Frederick M. Fox, Jr., Robert E. Warren, Donald L. Brehm, Robert S. Sohon, Edward J. Slebir, Frank J. Jamnick, and Jack R. Troy.

Newly installed officers were Lawrence V. Howenstine, SMC; Paul A. Johnson, IMC; Frank W. Vaughn, Th.C; Geoffrey Jeffreys, SC, and Edward N. Bennett, MC.

The next day brought the long-awaited arrival of National President Powell B. McHaney. That afternoon, in Guggenheim Hall on the School of Mines campus, the initiation was completed, and Delta-Phi Chapter was formally installed. President McHaney presided over the installation ceremony and was assisted by Brothers Horton, Ketchum, Signer, and Nordquist. An impressive turn-out was present at the installation, including local alumni, members of Beta-Upsilon and Gamma-Gamma Chapters, and a large delegation from Gamma-Kappa Chapter at Montana State College, headed by SMC Stanley Lund. These men traveled the entire distance (over 1,500 miles round trip) from Bozeman, Montana, merely to witness the event.

Following the installation ceremony, a banquet was held in the Cathedral Room of Denver's Albany Hotel. Nearly two hundred people, including new members, guests, and their wives and dates attended this banquet. Ellison Ketchum admirably served as master of ceremonies, and speeches were presented by President McHaney, Mines President John W. Vanderwilt, and Dean Signer. President McHaney's speech was exceptionally well received and was the subject of comment for weeks on the campus by representatives of the other fraternities and school organizations who were in attendance.

The Mines Interfraternity Council held its annual Spring Formal in the Albany Hotel that same evening, and all the guests present at the Installation Banquet were invited to attend.

The new brothers of Delta-Phi wish to express their sincere appreciation to those who did so much to make the installation the success that it was. Particularly do they wish to thank President McHaney for his splendid message to us, Brother Horton for his untiring assistance, and Brother Lynn and his office force for their generous cooperation.

Delta-Phi Chapter pledges to do its utmost to continue on from the fine start given us in our efforts to make the chapter a true credit to Pi Kappa Alpha.

The Lafayette Journal and Courier recently carried a good neighbor story concerning 350 Purdue fraternity pledges. Mr. James A. Marks of Lafayette, Indiana, sent the clipping to Jack Berch, New York City, for possible use on his radio show, "The Whistlin' Man." It seems that the pledges donned old clothes and joined in "Operation Clean-Up" at Columbian Park in Lafayette. The students raked, trimmed, painted and scrubbed for one whole day. Besides performing a constructive service for the community, the students hoped to foster better fraternity relations for themselves and their school, and to instill a spirit of civic responsibility in future fraternity members. Jack Berch thought his listeners would enjoy hearing this story, and read it on his broadcast of June 25 over the N.B.C. network.

Chapter Scholarship Standings Announced

By DR. JOHN L. FINCHER, National Educational Adviser

◆ THE TIME HAS COME again to honor the winners in scholarship. Delayed reports for the 1949-50 year have caused the delay in this bulletin, but it is always an honor for our Fraternity to recognize and reward merit in the field of scholarship. It is in that field that the chapters maintain the esteem of the university faculties.

The National Scholarship Cups will be awarded to the Alpha-Alpha Chapter at Duke University and to Beta-Epsilon Chapter at Western Reserve University. They led all chapters in the categories of colleges with male enrollment above and below 2,000 respectively. Congratulations to the new Scholastic leaders! The Delta-Nu Chapter average did not include pledges, and Delta-Omicron Chapter did not exist for the entire year. Neither had comparable reports, but both deserve our hearty commendation.

Seven chapters will receive citations for earning the highest averages among fraternities on their respective campuses. They are: Alpha-Iota, Alpha-Kappa, Gamma-Epsilon, Delta-Beta, Delta-Delta, Delta-Mu, and Delta-Omicron Chapters. The men of those chapters have distinguished themselves and reflected credit upon the entire Fraternity, so congratulations are extended to them also. Recognition is also due to Beta-Epsilon Chapter for showing the greatest scholastic improvement during that year.

Some other scholarship facts for three years are compared for use by the chapters:

Supreme Council Appoints Three District Presidents

◆ THE Supreme Council announces the appointment of Dr. Lloyd D. Jones, AΦ (Iowa State), as President of District 16 (Iowa) to succeed Robert Hahnen who has been appointed National Pledge Training Director. Three highly qualified and interested men were nominated for the post—Delbert Nelson, John Speck, and Dr. Lloyd Jones—any one of whom is well qualified. After careful deliberation by the Supreme Council and the chapters Brother Jones was chosen to step into Bob Hahnen's shoes.

Lloyd is an alumnus of Alpha-Phi Chapter at Iowa State College from which he graduated in 1931 with a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree. He has had a wide variety of experience in his profession which includes large animal practice, small animal practice, commercial research, laboratory, and approximately five years in World War II. He is a chip off the old block since his father was also a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

Professor Jones's present position is Assistant Professor, Veterinary Pathology, Iowa Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory, Iowa State College. Lloyd has a brother, H. Neal Jones, who is an alumnus of Gamma-Beta at Nebraska and Beta-Eta at the University of Illinois. He and his wife have two fine sons who are excellent prospects for future Pi Kappa Alphas.

◆ LEONARD C. SMITH, AA (Georgetown) has been appointed President of District 11a (Kentucky and southern West Virginia) to succeed Charles R. Burton.

Brother Smith was active in Fraternity and school work at Georgetown. He served as Assistant Cashier of Farmers Bank and Trust Company, Georgetown, Kentucky, 1925-1936, at which time he was appointed State Deputy Bank Commissioner. He later served as Bank Commissioner until his resignation in May 1944 to become a Vice President of the Liberty Bank and Trust Company, Louisville, Kentucky. He continued in this position until his resignation in the spring of 1951 to accept his present position of Chancellor of Georgetown College. He is one of the original sponsors of the school of banking held at Lexington annually by the University of Kentucky and the state banking department.

He has continued as an active member of the Fraternity throughout his career and holds the esteem of students and alumni throughout his area. We welcome him into the official family.

Charles R. Burton resigned as District President to accept a permanent commission in the regular Air Force. Charlie has served the Fraternity faithfully and well, both as a Field Secretary and as District President. His present address is: Captain Charles R. Burton, Wing Legal, 47th Bomb Wing (L), Langley AFB, Virginia.

◆ GAYLE A. SMITH, H (Tulane), was appointed in June, 1951, to succeed Ralph Loken as President of District 21 (Arizona and New Mexico). Our only comfort in the loss of a fine District President such as Ralph Loken, who has served so ably for several years, is the good fortune to locate a worthy successor such as Brother Smith. Gayle has been an energetic member since he was initiated by the Tulane chapter. He was active in fraternity and collegiate affairs. He was assistant manager of the football team in 1925-26, served on the Hullabaloo staff (Tulane's weekly paper) and the Jambalaya staff (college manual) of which he was editor in 1927. He was elected to Phi Phi National Honorary Senior Fraternity.

Gayle was president of the New Orleans alumnus chapter from 1931 through 1936. He served as vice chairman of the 1936 National Convention committee in New Orleans and as chairman of the reception committee. He was recently instrumental in reactivating the Phoenix alumnus chapter, and he played a prominent part in the preliminary work which led to the chartering and installation of Delta-Tau Chapter at Arizona State College in the spring of 1951.

Brother Smith has been in the life insurance business since 1934. In 1937 he moved to Phoenix, Arizona, and has been active in fraternal and civic affairs there. He served on the Community Chest, the Red Cross, and Y.M.C.A. drives, and is a member of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, B.P.O. Elks, Moose, Arizona

Duke Celebrates Dream Girl Dance

◆ AS A CLIMAX to the year's activities, Alpha-Alpha celebrated its most successful Dream Girl Dance in years. Miss Barbara Trim, escorted by Brother McMillan, was crowned the Dream Girl by SMC Ken Taylor. Miss Laura Duncan, escorted by Brother Harris, and Miss Julia McCutcheon, escorted by Brother Weaver, were presented with Loving Cups. The band selected to supply the music was the Cavaliers, one of the best bands on Duke campus. Held in the lovely Virginia Dare Ballroom of the Sir Walter Hotel at Raleigh, N. C., every brother enjoyed one of the better dances of the school year.

On Sunday following the dance, a cabin party was held at Crabtree Park. Brothers and dates enjoyed swimming, card playing, and group singing together. Refreshments of fried chicken and furnishings were served in the late afternoon as the final touch to a wonderful Dream Girl Weekend.

Recently at a North Carolina statewide IKA Party at Gresham's Lake, Alpha-Alpha's softball team captured the trophy for its victories over the other softball teams from neighboring chapters. Over 200 IKAs and their dates attended this statewide party which turned out to be an excellent get-together for all the chapters.

At the close of the 1950-51 school session and the annual Senior Banquet, the brothers of Alpha-Alpha bade farewell to the graduating members and wished them all good luck in the coming years. Some of the farewell talks given by the brothers conveyed excellent advice worthy of being remembered by the remaining brothers. Indeed, throughout the ensuing year all the brothers will play important roles in developing Alpha-Alpha's position on Duke campus.

Kansas State Holds Dixie Ball

By JACK HUME

◆ ON APRIL 6, amid garnet and gold decorations, the members of Alpha-Omega Chapter at Kansas State College entertained their dates and guests for the highlight of the social season, the annual Dixie Ball. The climax of the evening was reached with the presentation of the 1951 Dream Girl, lovely Joyce Harper, XΩ. Joyce is a sophomore from Wichita. She was presented with a spray of roses, the traditional Sweetheart pin, and a loving cup, which was presented by the pledge class.

Before the dance the members entertained their dates with a banquet in the Flame Room of the Wareham Hotel. Alumnus Fred "Fritz" Huey was the speaker.

Standing in the reception line were: Mrs. Robert Murphy, Housemother; Lt. Col. and Mrs. Itz, Miss Sue Ann Long, and SMC Bob Snyder.

Howard College Has Beach Party

◆ THE year of 1950-51 was another good scholastic year for Alpha-Pi Chapter. Although not coming up to our past championship athletic standards, we entered teams in intramural football, basketball, volleyball, and softball, placing third in basketball.

One of the highlights of the year was the Dream Girl Party given in honor of our Dream Girl, Peggy Parker, at the Roebuck Country Club. Many alumni returned to the scene of their collegiate days at Homecoming.

The climax of the entire year was the annual houseparty held at Panama City Beach, Fla. Forty-five were in attendance, and the festivities lasted three days.

During the past year a great deal has been accomplished toward completing payment on the chapter house. Redecoration of the house was made possible through the generosity of several alumni, the actives, and Dan Nunnelley, Alumnus Counselor.

Washington State Chooses Dream Girl

By BUD HALLOWELL

◆ IN THE traditional IKA manner, Gamma-Xi Chapter was outstanding in nearly every activity on the Washington State College campus during the 1950-51 term. Pi Kap names appeared everywhere, and the high rating of the chapter was made even more secure.

Of course, the highlight of the year was the Dream Girl dance, which was preceded by a series of interesting and highly successful functions arranged by Brothers Jim Bell and Roy Wyatt to acquaint the brothers with the candidates. The five contestants who were chosen as finalists were honored at a beautiful candlelight dinner. On the night of the dance, a buffet dinner was held at the chapter house followed by a dance at the modern Wheland Grange Hall. Everyone was very pleased to see Donna Christensen, AΦ, step through the large IKA badge as Dream Girl of Gamma-Xi Chapter.

Washington State College had one of its most spirited student body elections this year, and thanks to the energetic direction of Brother John Chambers, the Greeks made their best showing in many years. Also active in the election was Brother Bud Boytz, who was Greek candidate for student body vice president.

Gamma-Xi was very proud of Brothers Herb Kinder and John Chambers, who received Outstanding Senior awards. Brother Kinder was extremely valuable to the college as chairman of the "Cub" Promotion Committee. The "Cub" is the elaborate new student union build-from Richmond in Millebeck, Virginia. There was plenty of fun, swimming, and food for the approximately 35 who attended the outing.

This house party climaxed a highly successful social season for Omicron. Numerous parties, including an alumni affair in May, were enjoyed by the chapter. Founders' Day, held on March 9th at the exclusive John Marshall Hotel in downtown Richmond, was one of the most outstanding events of the year.

On campus, IKA participated in all fraternity activities. Besides playing intramural football and basketball in the fall and winter months, we fielded a softball team this spring. In April, IKA copped a third place in the intramural track meet.

ing being constructed on campus. He also acted as social chairman of Arnold Air Society. Brother Chambers, in addition to being the Greek party campaign manager, was admitted to Crimson Circle, the men's scholarship and activity honorary, and served as president of the Interfraternity Council.

Gamma-Xi can be justly proud of its members who were tapped for honoraries this spring. Among these were Brothers Boytz, Cheseman, Garred, Muzzal, Nettleship, Chambers, Edfast, and Clark.

Springtime At Washington

By STEVE McNAIR and GEORGE ASTEL, JR.

◆ FOR Washington's Beta-Beta of IKA the year has been packed, as usual, with parties. Under the careful supervision of George Astel, Jr., social chairman, activities continued at a high peak.

With the flowering of spring in the Pacific Northwest, the Beta-Beta South Sea Island party came off as the party of the year with its usual bacchanalian enthusiasm. Clad in typical South Sea regalia—sarongs, colorful shorts and shirts, and beachcomber outfits—the Pikes entertained at Steel Lake, south of Seattle, the afternoon and evening of April 14th. Obliging, the Washington weather cleared for the day, and, with ample facilities for boating and swimming, everyone was in or on the lake during the afternoon. At intermittent pauses between swims, Pikes and dates decorated the hall for the evening dance.

In the late afternoon, Ted Golding and Gene Buzard's well planned South Sea feast was heartily welcomed by the group. In typical pagan style (no forks, knives, or spoons) steamed clams, baked ham, hardtack, and an abundance of fruit were served around the fire. (Two trips to Whidbey Island in Puget Sound, the first unsuccessful due to miscalculation of tides, had yielded the main course of butter clams.)

With appetites satisfied and darkness closing in on the revelers, the pagan spirit broke forth in song and laughter. After working over the song list, the feasters massed to the dance, and the festivities continued.

Reigning over the dance was a solemn pagan idol surrounded by tropical crepe-paper flowers hung from a maze of fishing nets which were strung from the rafters of the dance hall. The dance continued on to the customary hour and came to a close with tired, but happy Pikes and dates all in agreement that it had been the best party of the year.

After the lighthearted revelry of the South Seas Party the men of Beta-Beta turned serious thought to the annual Dream Girl Contest. Under the competent supervision of Contest Chairman Ted Golding the proceedings were carefully planned and directed. Following the reception and the selection of five finalists, the formal dinner-dance was held on May 19th at the Olympic Hotel in Seattle. Climaxing the annual contest and the evening's entertainment was the announcement that Jo Holmes, XΩ, had been chosen as BB's new Dream Girl. Miss Holmes was chosen from the five finalists by Manuel Rosenthal, Seattle Symphony Conductor.

Denton Elected Vice President of U. S. Casualty

◆ DONALD H. DENTON, BA (Penn. State), has been elected a Vice President of the United States Casualty Company at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees according to an announcement by Walter D. Owens, President of the United States Casualty Company.

It is interesting to note how the paths of ΠΚΑs cross. President Owens was a member of Psi Chapter at North Georgia College, Dahlonega, Ga., before moving up the ladder of success in the insurance field.

Brother Denton pledged Pi Kappa Alpha immediately upon entering Penn State College in the fall of 1929 and was initiated in February, 1930. He was active in fraternity and student affairs during his college career. Upon graduation he worked with Montgomery, Scott and Company, stock brokers in Philadelphia. He entered the insurance business in 1934 with the New Amsterdam Casualty Company, first serving in the renewal department and shortly thereafter in the burglary and liability underwriting department. In 1936, he became special agent serving the Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware territories which position he held until February, 1941, when he became Manager of the United States Casualty Company's Philadelphia office. During World War II he served in the United States Navy. He returned to his insurance work, and in September, 1949, he was called to the home office as Assistant Secretary and Executive Assistant in the Casualty Department. As Vice President, he will supervise underwriting in the Eastern Department as well as handle duties involving the general affairs of the company.

A truly "active alumnus," Brother Denton was one of the live wires in the Philadelphia Alumnus Chapter. He served as Toastmaster for the 1949 Founders' Day Banquet and was elected President of the Alumnus Chapter at that time.

A native of Philadelphia, he was quite active in civic and professional organizations. At the time of his departure from Philadelphia he was President of the Casualty Manager's Association of Philadelphia, President Aronimink School Canteen, member of the Aronimink Golf Club, Downtown Club, Insurance Society of Philadelphia and other organizations. Since his transfer to New York, he has served on several rating committees, is a member of the Lawyers Club of New York, Insurance Federation of New York and other professional societies.

He and his wife, Mrs. Isabel Crawford Denton, have three fine children, Donald, Jr., 14, Bruce 11, and Susanne 8. Their residence is at 930 Mountainview Circle, Westfield, N. J.

Dworshak Serves Chamber of Commerce

◆ GEORGE DWORSHAK, charter member of Beta-Chi Chapter at the University of Minnesota, is now serving as Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of St. Albans, Vt. An editorial in the St. Albans Messenger broke one of its own rules and named Mr. Dworshak as the outstanding person responsible for the success of the recent Maple Syrup Festival. St. Albans claims to be the maple sugar capital of the world.

Brother Dworshak was a sparkplug in college and has continued to be one throughout his adult life. He was one of the leaders in securing a charter for Beta-Chi Chapter at the University of Minnesota. He was quite active in campus affairs and served as editor of the University of Minnesota daily newspaper. He began his career in the newspaper field in Buffalo in 1924 and followed that profession until a few years ago when he was persuaded by the City of St. Albans, Vt., to become Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Since that time things have been humming, and St. Albans is proud of its Secretary and the achievements which he has brought about. George continues to love and work for his Fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Trail is Blazed In "Western Sky"

◆ THE IJKAs at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, are proud that Lynn Riggs, prominent playwright and outstanding alumnus of the University of Oklahoma Chapter, was commissioned by the University to write a play for presentation during the 125th Anniversary celebration. Riggs, author of "Green Grow the Lilacs" from which the musical hit "Oklahoma" was taken, was chosen for the task of memorializing Western Reserve because of his identity with the folklore and traditions of the Midwest no less than for his stature in the world of American drama. Riggs is author of the play "Toward the Western Sky", and Nathan Kroll is composer. These two men became interested in the project through friendship for Barclay Leathem, head of Western Reserve University's drama department.

At a press luncheon at Hotel Statler honoring Riggs, he stated: "For years I have wanted to do something using all the devices and resources of the modern theater. I didn't want to write a noble, dull pageant, but something on a big scale. The material on Western Reserve territory was new to me, and the university gave me carte blanche."

"In the play, I tied up the fate of a child with the fate of the university. I wanted to make it a thing of the spirit, with the accent on respect for humans and human institutions."

A cast of 80 men and women appear in the musical folk drama, which was presented in the Cain Park Theater, Cleveland, Ohio, during the summer.

Northwestern Holds Alumni Rally

BY HARRY REASOR

◆ ON MAY 6 the alumni of Gamma-Rho Chapter (Northwestern) entertained 125 alumni and actives from the Chicago area at the chapter house in Evanston, Ill.

Gamma-Rho Chapter, originally a local fraternity known as Phi Nu Beta, initiated four of the local fraternity alumni. Those initiated were Dr. Charles Meyer, prominent physician of Chicago and Oak Park; Don Carter, District Superintendent for S. S. Kresge Company; Kenneth Hempstead, head of the Research Department of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois; and Al Seehafer, owner of an electrical appliance business in Chicago.

Following the initiation a sound picture "One Brick Higher" was shown. It is a feature film about Purdue University. Of course, the Purdue chapter alumni present were quite pleased with this "promotional work at Northwestern." Another sound film "Exit 1950" showed the news highlights for the previous year.

Some unusual excitement was added to the event. Friday, May 4, while the members were setting up the screen and sound equipment, a Navy jet plane crashed into Lake Michigan a few hundred yards from the house, and the pilot was drowned. Sunday, while the meeting was in progress a small Navy vessel, attempting to recover the pilots' body, capsized, drowning four Navy men, including the diver who was at the bottom of the lake when the mishap occurred.

There was 100 per cent attendance of Chicago Alumnus Chapter officers: Douglas Campbell, President; John McKinsey, Vice President; Verne Wilson, Secretary; Pat Kilpatrick, Treasurer, and Quentin Brown.

The hosts were pleased to have alumni from Illinois, Iowa, and Kansas State also present.

"Take Care of My Little Girl"

♦ A STATEMENT made by Mrs. E. Granville Crabtree, Kappa Kappa Gamma N.P.C. delegate:

"A movie entitled 'Take Care of My Little Girl' will be released sometime soon by the Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation. This movie is based on a book by the same name written by a young woman who resigned from her own fraternity, and deals in part with chapter house life in a fictional women's fraternity.

"Officials of the Twentieth Century-Fox Corporation have insisted that the movie is not intended to be anti-fraternity, but has been filmed for its entertainment value only. At best, however, it presents a distorted picture of actual chapter life in a women's fraternity, and its portrayal of college women makes them look silly, petty and immature. In advance notices various movie gossip columnists have described it as a movie which will arouse angry feelings in fraternity members.

"With an eye on the box office, the advance publicity is trying to whip up controversy with provocative statements. It is my best judgment that we should not be a party to that effort at either the national or local community levels. My counsel is that we should hold steady and go our way with dignity. For a hundred and seventy-five years the fraternity system has served the college community, and has built up a substantial reputation that cannot be seriously harmed by a passing movie production seeking box office appeal."

(When word that this movie was in the making first came to their attention, the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council and the National Panhellenic Congress officers wrote letters to officials of the Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation in an effort to get assurances that the movie would not be unfair to facts about the fraternity system, but they soon discovered that portions of their letters were being released for publicity purposes.)

Bowles Appointed Field Secretary

♦ THOMAS A. BOWLES, AΣ (University of California), has been selected by the Supreme Council as Field Secretary for the coming year. He succeeds John Horton who has been granted a year's leave of absence to do graduate work at the University of North Carolina.

Brother Bowles served several years with the Marine Corps during World War II, and returned to the University of California to complete his college education. He was initiated by Alpha-Sigma Chapter and immediately became active in fraternity affairs. He served in numerous capacities including House Manager, Treasurer, Pledge Master, member of the Executive Committee, and IMC. He was also active in university affairs.

Tom has participated in the installation of several chapters in the western area including Arizona State even though it involved over 1,000 miles of travel at his own expense. He has recently been employed by the Les Vogel Chevrolet Company in San Francisco, and brings to his work experience and love for fraternity affairs.

Brother Bowles is twenty-five years of age, single, and a member of the Episcopal Church.

District Convention Held At Cornell

By DONALD O'NEAL

◆ On Saturday, April 7, Beta-Theta played host to a small army of Pi Kaps, who were delegates to a joint convention of Districts 1 and 4 held in Ithaca. In the talks which ensued, each attending chapter presented a single aspect of the overall theme "The College Fraternity in a Period of National Mobilization."

Following introductory remarks by Ernest C. Sofis, Beta-Theta's SMC, Dr. T. P. Wright, Acting President of Cornell, Dr. William O. Penrose, and Dr. William K. Widger, Presidents of Districts 4 and 1 respectively, presented their ideas on planning for mobilization.

National Counsel John Hippel, Beta-Pi, speaking in behalf of National, urged the chapters to maintain close relations with the traveling secretaries and the National Office. He further advised keeping good records in case a chapter's activities should be interrupted by an all-out war.

Don Grady, Alpha Tau Omega, President of Cornell's Interfraternity Council, recommended a gradual re-education of fraternity men as a step towards removing restrictive clauses. Once they realize these policies are harmful to fraternities, removing them will have some meaning.

Another convention guest, Ted Richards of Tau Kappa Epsilon, defined public relations as "doing good and receiving credit for it." As a means of gaining favorable publicity he suggested offering the members' services to welfare agencies in the community.

Beta-Theta's Charles Juran spoke on the Cornell Fraternity Disaster Plan, a mutual aid pact by which the members of a disaster stricken fraternity may be temporarily absorbed by other nearby houses.

The Gamma-Lambda delegates suggested some ways of safeguarding chapter property, equipment, and records in the event of having to vacate a house temporarily. Their plan included taking an inventory of all property and equipment and crating such items as trophies and ritual equipment before storing them.

In a discussion of alumni relations, Delta-Alpha delegates stressed the need for keeping alumni records up-to-date. It was also pointed out that alumni can aid the rushing program by sending in the names of entering freshmen from their home towns.

Following an informal banquet, Dr. Garff B. Wilson, Alpha-Sigma, President of District 23, made a few remarks about the old days and introduced Frank C. Baldwin, Phi Kappa Psi, Cornell's Dean of Men. Dean Baldwin brought out that men now in college will be better trained to serve their country by finishing school and graduating now, rather than quitting school and enlisting.

Sunday morning the convention resumed with an open discussion of rushing and pledge training. Some recommendations regarding rushing were to make summer contacts at home and to publish a small booklet about the house can take advantage of bargains and discounts.

David C. Powers, Zeta (Tennessee), Chairman and Treasurer of the Shield and Diamond Endowment Fund, enlightened the delegates on matters of financing the magazine, the Chapter House Fund and the Memorial Fund. He further urged the use of discretion in investing large sums as might be encountered when a chapter sells its house.

In closing, Mr. Powers reminded all present to keep in mind the purposes and ideals of our Fraternity. The convention adjourned at twelve noon.

and its members for circulation to the freshmen.

The Alpha-Chi delegates explained the expansion plan which Beta-Theta and other chapters in New York are using with some success. The plan consists of obtaining statistics on all the local fraternities at the better colleges in the state and surrounding areas. Then those locals which desire to go national are investigated, and if acceptable, are approached on the idea of affiliating with Pi Kappa Alpha. Presently, through the efforts of Executive Secretary Robert D. Lynn, Dr. Widger, and Field Secretary Dick Shultz, a Clarkson College local, Sigma Delta, is considering affiliation. Beta-Theta will send a delegation to Clarkson on an inspection trip May 19.

In regard to financial affairs the delegates from Beta-Pi recommended prompt payment of bills as a sure means of maintaining good credit relations with local merchants. It was pointed out that with its credit established a chapter

Bob Roemer, Charleston, (W. Va.) Gazette sportswriter recently devoted a feature article to Joe Sawyers to whom he referred as the "Quadruple-Threat Man" who is now producing "giant killers." Roemer lets Art Rezzonico, Sawyers' former coach, who is now principal of Chamberlain Junior High School of Charleston, tell the story:

"Joe attended high school in Ronceverte before he moved to Oak Hill. I remember the last game of basketball he played in Ronceverte. It was against us. We beat them, 29 to 27, if I remember correctly—and Joe Sawyers made 26 of their points.

"The next week, he was playing for us.

"I seriously have never seen a better high school basketball player than Joe was. He was great at following up shots. He never failed, even on his own shots, to follow up whether they went in or not.

"His athletic ability wasn't confined to basketball alone. He was high point man in the 1930 state high school track meet. Joe could handle any track

Richmond Appoints Merrick Head Coach

♦ ED MERRICK, an All-Southern Conference center for the University of Richmond football team in 1939 and a member of Omicron Chapter, has returned to his alma mater as head football coach. Appointment of Merrick, highly successful coach at Fork Union Military Academy for the past five seasons, was announced by Dr. James T. Tucker, chairman of the University of Richmond Athletic Council.

Brother Merrick was one of the greatest players in Richmond history. Twice an All-Stater, he captained the 1939 team which won seven, lost one and tied two and was undefeated until it met William and Mary on Thanksgiving Day. He was the first Virginia player to be invited to appear in the Chicago All-Star game.

He spent four years in the Army, entering the service as a private. He was discharged as a major with the Soldiers' Medal for heroism in the Battle of the Bulge. He married Miss Elaine Gentil of Richmond in 1942, and they now have a four-year-old son, Ed, Jr.

Nashville Holds Annual Picnic

By DR. CARL T. KIRCHMAIER

♦ NASHVILLE ALUMNI were glad to welcome Clifford Beverly Briley, Judge of Davidson County, Tenn., to membership, following his initiation on June 6. Judge Briley was a pledge of I I K A at Sigma Chapter in 1931, but was obliged to transfer to Cumberland University at which we had no chapter. After special dispensation from the National Office, he was initiated by the chapter at ceremonies conducted for him and two other pledges at the close of the school year. We are sure that all Pikes who were in school at the time Judge Briley was at Vanderbilt will be glad to know that he has now been initiated.

The alumni held their annual spring picnic at the home of Dr. C. T. Kirchmaier, President, on July 6. This marked the final meeting of the 1950-51 school year for the alumni, and was attended by a representative group of local alumni.

We are still meeting each week for luncheon in the Maxwell House Hotel at 12:15 p. m. on Thursday, and will gladly welcome any out-of-town Pikes who find it possible to attend. We are looking forward to a better year with an even greater general attendance at alumni functions for 1951-52.

event, but he excelled in the dashes and pole vault.

"John Zontim at that time was considered the fastest man in the state. Joe beat him in a 220 race.

"And there was no better football player than Joe. If there ever was such a thing as a 'quadruple threat man,' Joe was it. He weighed in at about 158 pounds—probably about the same as he weighs now. He passed, ran, punted, place-kicked, received passes, blocked, and tackled all with equally brilliant success.

"But it was his leadership that made him stand out above all others. He was an exceptionally good student, a gentleman at all times. Everybody liked him. He was the sparkplug for every team he was on, an ideal boy to coach.

"Yet, he was reserved. Just like he is today, you couldn't get him to talk about himself."

Joe Sawyers attended Washington and Lee University with the aid of a scholarship and there earned four letters each in football, basketball and track despite his light weight. In 1932 he scored a touchdown which enabled W. & L. to beat Princeton 6-0. In 1933 his 85-yard touchdown run against Virginia scored another 6-0 victory for the Generals.

Joe served as Freshman Coach at Washington and Lee in the fall of 1934 before going to Sissonville, W. Va., as its athletic director. Here he has devoted his life to instilling the finest things in sports in the lives of all of those who come in contact with him—a true example of "unselfish success."

Bateman Sets New Pole Vaulting Record

By JACK ARMOUR

◆ BETA-SIGMA CHAPTER at Carnegie Tech is proud to present a record of achievement by Chuck Bateman, Junior pole vault star, who did much to lead the Tech track team to its first undefeated season in history.

Chuck has entered and placed in many meets—twenty-five in all—but in two of these meets he showed outstanding performances by setting new records. The first record was set during the contest between Tech and Westminster with Tech winning, 75 to 57. At this time Chuck reset his own school record as well as an all-time school record for Carnegie by passing the crossbar at 12 feet 6¾ inches. The same week when Tech entered the Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia Tri-State meet, Chuck put another feather in his cap by setting the all-time Tri-State meet record at 12 feet 6¼ inches.

Other than his competition in the pole vault, Chuck also throws the javelin and the discus. In the Tri-State meet he took a fourth place in the javelin throw as well as his first place in the pole vault.

Bateman, a native of California, is 20 years old and a graduate of San Diego High School, San Diego, where he first began to pole vault. He came to Tech a year ago, and has been an active member of Pi Kappa Alpha ever since.

Football Hall of Fame Selects Suffridge

◆ WHEN the football Hall of Fame is completed on the campus of Rutgers University, where the first game of collegiate football was played, Pi Kappa Alpha and the Tennessee Volunteers will have a representative in the first group of football immortals to be honored by placement therein.

Bob Suffridge, an All-American guard at Tennessee in 1938-39-40, has been named as the greatest of all-time at his position in a nationwide poll recently conducted by the Associated Press. Suffridge was teamed at the guard position on the honor selection with Pudge Hefelfinger, the legendary Yale luminary of the 1800's.

This honor came on the heels of another accorded Bob when he was picked last fall by Collier's Magazine on the 25-Year All-American team.

Gen. Bob Neyland, head coach at Tennessee, described Brother Suffridge as "a player without a weakness." The General continued, "Bob had the quickest and most powerful defensive charge I ever saw. He literally exploded at the line of scrimmage."

Suffridge continued his outstanding play in the pro league. In his first year with the Philadelphia Eagles, he was named to the league All-Star team.

Bob was initiated by Zeta Chapter on January 15, 1939. His senior year at Tennessee he married a Tennessee co-ed, Elizabeth McEwen of Nashville. They reside in Knoxville at the present with their three daughters and son.

Elmo won the 120-yard high hurdles, second in the 220-yard low hurdles, first in the high jump and first in the pole vault. D. R. Branch was first in the 220-yard low hurdles, second to his brother in the 120-yard high hurdles and ran one lap of the winning mile relay team. Both boys played on the Mississippi State basketball team, also.

Alabama Excels In Athletics

By HOBART GROOMS

◆ THE past two years have been very fruitful for Gamma-Alfa at the University of Alabama where the name Pi Kappa Alpha is synonymous with the best in all phases of campus life. 'Bama Pikes find it hard to admit that they are second to anyone, and spend most of their time making sure they will not have to.

In athletics IKA has firmly asserted itself as the number one fraternity on the campus. The coveted All-Sports Trophy, representing athletic supremacy during the 1949-50 school year, now rests in the chapter house living room, flanked by an impressive collection of trophies and cups telling of laurels won in football, basketball, softball and volleyball. A compilation of the records of the past two years shows IKA with an unbelievable 68 victories against but eight defeats in major sports for a neat .895 average.

After a winning season in football in 1949, the men of Gamma-Alfa turned their sites on the basketball championship. Their desires were realized when Coach Buck Newman's squad came from behind in the playoffs to win the interfraternity championship, whipping previously unbeaten Pi Kappa Phi twice to cement the title.

Softball was next in line, and with Ed Thomas on the mound for the Pikes there was never any doubt of the outcome. Thomas, the greatest softball pitcher in campus history, gave up six runs, only three of which were earned, during the entire season, including the playoffs and a game with Auburn's champ, Theta Chi. No-hitters, perfect games and shutouts were Thomas' specialties. He once struck out 29 batters over a two-game period—a record that will not be equalled for some time to come.

The Pikes went straight through eight opponents to annex the volleyball championship. David May, the campus' Outstanding Intramural Athlete, provided the needed punch as spike man, teaming up with his brother Raymond, Bob Collins, G. B. Wilder, Bill Floyd and Bob Coats to give the Pikes a smooth-running unit that was the talk of the University's 26 fraternities.

After an upset 2-6 loss to Kappa Nu in the football opener, Coach Walter May, a former star of Alabama's football team, whipped his men into shape and guided the Pikes to the league championship. They were not scored on again until they dropped a 0-7 thriller in the contest to determine campus champion. It is interesting to note that Coach May's line held the winner's offense to a minus 20 yards net during the second half, due to fine play of Bob Coats, Wes Day, Chuck Tyndal and Bob Turner.

It was the 1949-50 season all over again when basketball time came around. The May brothers, Raymond and Dave, Buck Newman, Hugh Bostick, Bill Floyd and Nat Perkins made up the nucleus of a team which was to win 14 while losing two. High points of the season were: 90-18 defeat of Alpha Sigma Phi which set a campus scoring record, 50-33 victory over Kappa Alpha, avenging an earlier 54-56 overtime loss, and two straight wins over Pi Kappa Phi that clinched the championship. It was a carbon copy of the way things went just a year before.

Pikes have not been lax in the field of student activities. Brother Clyde Roddam was awarded the 1950 Outstanding Freshman Award, giving IKA's three active members who possess the highly-prized trophy. Jerry Stapp was presented the award in 1947 and Harold Wall won it again in 1949. In all, four of the nine recipients have been members of Gamma-Alfa.

George Howell, Jim Brice and Bob Collins were tapped for ODK in a recent ceremony, while Don Jones was chosen for Phi Beta Kappa.

Gamma-Alfa is also proud to report that IKA won the Interfraternity Step-Singing contest, under the capable direction of Brother James Hatcher. The main feature of the Pikes' selections was a beautiful rendition of "Honeymoon."

Dick Miller takes his choice—of several fine job opportunities.

◆ BEHIND the scenes of every successful organization, there are always men who are quietly but effectively directing the operations of their organizations. So it is also with our chapters which are businesses in themselves. Representative of the fine type of student leaders we have in Pi Kappa Alpha is Richard L. Miller who has proved himself to be classified as an outstanding senior by his continued services to Beta-Eta Chapter (University of Illinois) for three full years. He served two years as Th.C and one full year as SMC of his chapter. Dick is a quiet, reserved, conscientious young man who through his experience in his different offices was more successful by being a soft spoken but clearly understood individual. The sound condition of his chapter and the fine record it has maintained in recent years is due in large part to Dick's guidance and his ability to enlist the cooperation and energies of other leaders and members.

Dick's home is in Collingswood, New Jersey. After spending a year in the School of Engineering at the University of Pennsylvania he transferred to the University of Illinois School of Commerce. Due to his outstanding record, he had several job opportunities. Immediately after receiving his degree in June he accepted a position on the staff of the Glidden Paint Company, Cleveland, Ohio, as a traveling internal auditor.

Along with his activities in the chapter Dick also managed to be active in organizations around the campus at the University of Illinois. His college history is as follows: Membership in Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman scholarship honorary; Alpha Kappa Psi, national commerce professional; Treasurer, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Illinois Accounting Club; Sophomore Manager of Star Course; and Committee Chairman of the Y.M.C.A. He also maintained a scholastic average for three years well above the all university men's average.

Certainly, the thing which can give a man the title of an outstanding senior is his personal record. Dick Miller's record at the University of Illinois is one that can be envied. Pi Kappa Alpha is proud of Dick Miller and all the other chapter leaders throughout the Fraternity whom Dick Miller represents as typical. It is through these student leaders that Pi Kappa Alpha achieves and maintains high standards in the fraternity world.

Delta Achieves At Birmingham-Southern

◆ AS DELTA Chapter closes another year and takes account of itself, a number of things are revealed. One very obvious fact is in regard to size. After initiating ten men in February and pledging four in March, Pi Kappa Alpha remains the largest fraternity on the campus of Birmingham-Southern College. Due to the efforts of four pledges, and also to the gravity of the world situation, it was decided to initiate them in June rather than wait until the following October as is customary. So at the end of the school year 1950-1951, Delta Chapter finished with 38 active men, by far the largest of seven national fraternities represented on the campus.

At the time of the intramural swimming meet, the Pike team was said to have proved some phases of Darwin's theory, by setting a new record—57 points, with 12 as its nearest rival. Nor was swimming the limit of their athletic abilities. Softball was the sport of the spring quarter with the Pikes bringing through the winning team, undefeated in a league of nine.

Spring was also the time of the annual campus elections. In the men's division four PKAs won posts. Jack Real and David Upton are on the executive council, and Swift Williams and Jack Real were chosen for the Honor Council.

The individual achievements of a fraternity's members serve as a very good measure of its standing on the campus. Bob Archibald was Vice-President of the student body, and a member of Omicron Delta Kappa. Charles Cox was elected Mr. Hilltopper and president of Omicron Delta Kappa. Joe Crump, SMC, was the representative of the men's upper division of the executive council and a member of Omicron Delta Kappa. SMC Chris Hauer was also elected to Omicron Delta Kappa.

The highlight of the spring social season was the Pi Kappa Alpha house party held at Double Oak State Park. More than 50 brothers and their dates participated in the three-day affair.

N.I.C. Urges Re-examination Of Deferred Rushing

◆ A. RAY WARNOCK, Chairman of NIC, in a report to members of the National Interfraternity Conference Committee on Emergencies, recommended that university administrations re-examine rushing, pledging, and initiation regulations in light of the present mobilization of manpower for the armed services. His report states:

"The mobilization of manpower and material begins to point to the altered operation and effectiveness of fraternities and their chapter programs. It seems highly desirable that this impact be deferred as late as possible in the mobilization program, and that these adjustments be cushioned where such a result can be effected without injury to the mobilization program.

Many of our colleges and universities have regulations prohibiting the initiating of undergraduates into fraternities until comparatively late in their academic careers. At some universities where initiation is permitted during the first year, there are deferments until late in the second semester. These regulations may perform a useful function in the normal college year, which might prove a handicap under today's or tomorrow's conditions.

During World War II, it was found that early initiation of sound fraternity candidates worked to advantage of three areas:

1. To the undergraduate, it made possible the cementing of deep friendships through a fraternity relationship.

2. To the fraternity and its chapters, it stabilized membership and permitted the fraternity to maintain and extend its friendly and helpful influence to the greatest extent.

3. To the college or university, the continuance of fraternities assisted in the solutions of many university problems arising from the emergency and, in many instances, it created the magnate which aided in drawing a fraternity man who had been discharged from military service, back to the completion of his college education.

Believing that these advantages are equally necessary during this critical period, it is our belief and recommendation that the following resolution should be approved as an expression of policy by the National Interfraternity Conference:

'Resolved that the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference recommend to colleges and universities where a deferred system of fraternity pledging or initiating of undergraduates is in effect, that such policies be re-examined in the light of present conditions and that, insofar as may be possible, such policies be relaxed and earlier initiation be permitted for the period of the emergency.'

It is further recommended that we urge college administration officers to confer on this problem with Undergraduate and Alumni Interfraternity Councils. In such a letter to the college administrative officials, it is recommended that we inquire from them their normal initiation policies.

We also urge that a program of thorough and immediate indoctrination of initiates be followed, so that we not merely increase numbers of fraternity men, but increase the spirit of fraternities and maintain the full sincerity and depth of purpose among all fraternity men. Let us close our chapters rather than yield at these points.

The foregoing report and resolution were adopted by action of the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference at its regular meeting held on March 14, 1951.

College administrative officials should note the suggestion that copies of their normal rushing, pledging and initiation regulations should be sent to Lloyd S. Cochran, 5 Davidson Drive, Lockport, N. Y., Chairman, Committee on Emergency Services."

The Fraternity Secretaries Association, composed of Executive and Field Secretaries from fraternities belonging to NIC, after a careful study of the matter over a period of years passed a resolution in 1950 emphasizing the consensus of opinion that deferred rushing does not in practice result in the benefits theoretically claimed for it. The resolution states: "Be it resolved by the College Fraternity Secretaries Association that deferred rushing and pledging fails to achieve the advantages claimed for it, and this Association recommends that it be not advocated."

Headmaster Wright —

A Pika Pedagogue

◆ FILLED with Pi Kappa Alpha fraternal enthusiasm immediately after his initiation in the spring of 1915, brash freshman "Pipe" Wright boldly stole the date of the president of another fraternity and whisked her off to the IKA dance at William and Mary. His enthusiasm for and loyalty to the Garnet and Gold has never wavered since then.

Outstanding in the field of education in the Southeast has been the record of Dr. Ernest Linwood Wright, Gamma Chapter (William and Mary). "Pipe" as he was better known to his college and fraternity mates, has been Headmaster of Darlington School, Rome, Ga., since 1920. During his headmastership the prestige of Darlington has increased greatly. Darlington's progressive influence in secondary education in the South is a tribute to "Pipe's" leadership.

Dr. Wright's outstanding contribution to education was recognized by Davidson College in awarding him the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy in 1945. He has been a member of the Georgia State Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools since 1947, and Secretary-Treasurer of the Southern Association of Independent Schools since 1949.

In addition to his work as teacher and administrator at Darlington and his significant contribution to educational associations, Dr. Wright has found time for authorship. One of the earliest to recognize the importance of reading ability in all academic achievement, his "Reading for Comprehension," published in 1941, was one of the first texts to provide a practical method by which the class room teacher could assist students in improving their abilities to read and comprehend rapidly. The publication in 1947 of "Read Awhile," Book I and II, continued the development of the reading improvement program. The texts have enjoyed wide usage.

Dr. Wright is a native of Virginia, claiming Tappahannock in Essex County as his birthplace. He was married in 1930 to Elizabeth Pope Ramey. They have two lovely young daughters—Alice Campbell, age 18, and Betty Dandridge, age 12. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Gamma Mu, International Mark Twain Society, Virginia Historical Society, Kiwanis Club, and the American Legion, having served as First Lieutenant, U. S. Marines, in World War I. During his years at William and Mary, he was active in athletics, debating, glee club, and journalism. In his spare moments he found, and still finds, time for verse-making.

The catholicity of his interests and achievements has enabled him better to understand and direct the development of the boys entrusted to his supervision at Darlington and to make, thereby, a splendid contribution to education in his Southland.

IKA's STAFF BURR-PAT

slept in the car under the giant redwoods of Northern California. In the morning I ate an orange that I found rolling around on the floor of the car. With the aid of a Standard Oil credit card I was able to reach Oregon State College by 7:30 p. m. I walked into the IKA house hungry, tired, and unshaven. When the brothers found out I hadn't eaten for 31 hours and didn't have any money, they fed me and found me a place to sleep. The next day a check came, and I was able to go to Founders' Day banquet in Portland, Ore. It makes me feel happy that I still remember the grip of the Fraternity.

"If any of you Southerners or Easterners ever get out West, plan to make a tour of the chapters out this way. You'll enjoy seeing what a beautiful job our new chapters are doing at the Colorado School of Mines, Arizona State College, San Diego State, San Jose State College and Linfield College. You'll be able to witness the real feeling of brotherhood that exists at Denver University, Arizona University, Washington University, Oregon University and Oregon State College. Needless to say, don't miss the great chapters we have at Colorado University, Utah State College, University of Southern California, and the University of California. As a must, have the brothers at the University of New Mexico tell you of their history and show you through the famous Estufa (chapter meeting place). And if you ever get to Salt Lake City, drop in at the University of Utah chapter house and visit my old alma mater. If you see these chapters, you'll see why Pi Kappa Alpha is such a great Fraternity and why we in Pi Kappa Alpha have a 'certain something' of which we are justly proud."

Bunny was initiated into Alpha-Tau (Utah), in 1941. He was an outstanding guard on both the Utah and Colorado College championship teams. He and Mrs. Clark and their three children make their home at 1962 East 21st South, Salt Lake City, Utah.

How Can I Become A Successful Chapter President?

◆ THE ADMINISTRATIVE and executive ability and the careful attention to the multitude of details of chapter operation for two successive terms made Frank H. Grubbs an outstanding chapter president. He served as SMC of Beta-Delta Chapter at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, N. M., for both sessions of the 1949-50 school year.

Frank inherited the usual problems of the chapter president, but he did something more than usual in his handling of these problems. He immediately analyzed the chapter and together with his fellow officers charted a program of action which was presented to and endorsed by the chapter.

At the conclusion of his term of office he made both an oral and a written report on his period of trusteeship as president of the chapter. The written report is 16 typewritten pages (plus an audit report) permanently bound. Copies were furnished for the chapter files and for the National Office files. This final report contains (1) typewritten executed receipts for all chapter property (itemized) transferred to and signed by his successors in office; (2) audited financial reports covering his term of office; (3) copy of letter to the members of the active chapter, and (4) copy of his address to the chapter on "The State of the Fraternity" summarizing the operations of the chapter for the previous year and making recommendations for continued improvement.

We believe that an analysis of his address to his chapter reveals why he was successful and will help all of our SMCs who carefully study his report. We therefore summarize his report for our readers:

A. Finances

1. Tightened bookkeeping system and enforced house rules during the year.
2. Profit and Loss Statement and Balance Sheet posted monthly on bulletin board.
3. Impartial, insistent collection of accounts receivable (in one case a civil suit action was instituted and judgment secured).
4. Old accounts payable ($1,400) paid and current bills paid promptly.
5. Net profit for the year of 7.5 per cent of income ($1,766).

B. House Operation

Report covered house repairs, repainting, lawn sodding, rent payments and delineation of responsibilities of the active chapter and the House Corporation.

C. Kitchen Operation

Tighter controls and reduced wastage enabled kitchen to show a 17 per cent profit for the year and more than absorb the 5 per cent loss on general house operations.

D. Tribute to Housemother

E. Work of the Mothers' Club

F. Alumni Relations and chapter news-sheet

Frank H. Grubbs, outstanding President of the University of New Mexico.

G. Chapter Administration

1. Chapter esprit de corps based on elimination of schisms.
2. Elimination of hell week must become permanent to improve pledge training.
3. Codified Chapter by-laws.
4. Need trained members for office responsibilities.
5. Locked office for all chapter records must be used.
6. All members should know their fraternity by familiarizing themselves with records and material, including the ritual.

H. Closing Prayer.

Brother Grubbs graduated from the University of New Mexico in June, 1950, receiving his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting. He is now chief cost accountant with Sandia Corporation which operates the atomic energy installation at Sandia base near Albuquerque, N. M. He is also state signal officer on the Adjutant General staff with the New Mexico National Guard.

Frank is a loyal son and a true leader in Pi Kappa Alpha.

Missouri Mines Takes Scholarship Trophy

By CHARLES C. POE

◆ ALPHA-KAPPA Chapter is proud to boast that we have won the scholarship trophy for the third consecutive semester, thus gaining its permanent possession. The trophy is presented by the Interfraternity Council to the organization having the highest scholastic average on the Missouri School of Mines campus. This trophy is the most distinguished award which any fraternity on the campus might achieve, and under the leadership of Alpha-Kappa's officers, the chapter will strive to maintain this high scholastic rating.

The 1951 graduation again has reduced the ranks of Alpha-Kappa with a large graduating class. An extensive rushing program was planned before the end of the semester to cover St. Louis and St. Louis area, Chicago, Springfield, Illinois, and other summer homes of the Pikes. Rush parties were held and are being held with prospective pledges being contacted personally and brought to the meetings. A great deal of hard work on the part of the active chapter and pledges in summer rushing promises to fill the Pikes' "House by the Highway."

May, the closing month of school on the School of Mines campus, was the busiest month of the spring semester. The two big events of May—Mothers' Day and the annual Spring Dance and outing—rounded out our social season with a bang. Mothers' Day proved to be a big day with wonderful weather. A large crowd of parents turned out to inspect the "home away from home" of their boys and have dinner at the chapter house. Just as successful and perhaps even more entertaining was the annual Spring Dance. It was held May 4th and 5th with the highlights of the week end being a mock gambling party Friday evening; a picnic Saturday afternoon featuring a Graduate-vs.-Undergraduate softball game, and the dance Saturday night to top off the week end. A large number of alumni returned, many of whom entertained the active chapter with their stories and anecdotes of the "old crew."

Lynwood Beder Writes New IKA Song

By GEORGE McCORMICK

◆ DELTA-DELTA is proud to announce that Lynwood Beder, who is a songwriter in his spare time, has written a very beautiful number which is to appear in the new edition of the Pi Kappa Alpha song book.

The song, entitled "You're the Dream of IKA," has somewhat of a story behind it. Lyn has been urged off and on by the brothers to write a fraternity song. On the night of May 5th, Delta-Delta held its annual Dream Girl dance. Miss Shirley Cantwell was elected to reign as Dream Girl of 1951.

Several days later, Lyn sat down at the piano, and within a matter of hours, his efforts were rewarded. He dedicated his song to the newly elected Dream Girl.

"You're the Dream of IKA" was an instant success with the brothers. They decided to keep it under cover until the Dream Girl serenade where it received such a tremendous ovation that it was repeated on the all-campus serenade.

A recording was made by Lynwood Beder, Dick Beder, Bud Allison, and Bob Mallender and sent to the National Office. From there it went before the song book committee. Within the next few weeks, Lyn received word that his song had been accepted by the committee, and would appear in the new song book.

Some of his other songs, which may someday become hit tunes, are: "New York City," "Blue Eyes," "You're Not the Only Girl," and "The Picture I Hang in My Heart," to mention a few. "New York City" was played by the New York State Shriners' band at their annual state convention, which was held last summer in Rochester, N. Y.

We of Delta-Delta would like to wish Lyn much future success in the song-writing world.

The Pikes at Florida Southern gave a good account of themselves in sports last season. They finished fifth in the final intramural standings, and had the distinction of claiming both the team and individual ping-pong champions. Bud Allison was the individual winner. They also took a number of seconds and thirds in other sports.

Dick Beder won the individual All-Sports Trophy, awarded each year to the outstanding athlete in intramural sports. Chuck Seymour finished among the leaders, receiving a medal for his efforts.

Pike also boasts the intramural singles tennis championship two years in a row.

Chuck Seymour won the title last year, and Dick Beder was this year's winner.

Delta-Delta had a good representation in varsity and junior varsity sports. Charles Selph received a varsity letter in baseball, and Chuck Seymour and Dick Beder won varsity letters in tennis.

Buddy Penn and Gary Farrar were junior varsity letter-winners in basketball and crew respectively.

Cincy Has a Dream Called Mary Lee

By J. G. PECSOK

◆ ON FRIDAY evening, May 10, Miss Mary Lee Fielman, Theta Phi Alpha, stepped through a large replica of the Pi Kappa Alpha pin and was crowned 1951-52 Dream Girl of Alpha-Xi Chapter. The coronation took place at the Dream Girl Formal held at the Summit Hills Country Club, and was the first of a series of events planned for the annual week-end party.

Mary Lee and the other eight candidates were introduced by Miss Peggy Benjamin, former Dream Girl. The votes were cast, and at midnight SMC Ray Campbell crowned Mary Lee.

Although the official Dream Girl was not chosen until May 10, we elected an honorary Dream Girl the week end preceding the Formal. She is Miss Doty Mack, star of WCPO television show.

In honor of Mary Lee's coronation, the Theta Phi Alpha Sorority entertained the IKAs with an open house.

The Cincy Pikes' successful school year was climaxed with the presentation of the Metro Trophy to them which is awarded to the fraternity that has participated most actively in campus affairs.

He was quite active as a student leader and was elected to the highest office in the Fraternity only a few years after graduating from college. His sons, Thomas T. and Randolph, Jr., were members of Beta Chapter at Davidson College in North Carolina and became prominent physicians in that state. Randolph, Jr., has since died. His youngest son, John, was a charter member of Gamma-Delta at the University of Arizona. Dr. Thomas T. Jones now resides at 2701 Augusta Drive, Durham, N. C., and John Blackwood Jones lives at 1758 Pershing Ave., San Bernardino, Calif.

Born near Petersburg, Va., May 3, 1873, Brother Jones entered Hampden-Sydney College at the age of 16 and received his M.A. degree at the age of 20. After teaching school and working for the U.S. Customs Service for several years, he became Superintendent of Schools at Newport News, Va. In 1914 he moved to El Paso, Texas, and served in various administrative capacities with the public schools until his retirement in 1943.

Lynn B. Davis, former Principal of El Paso High School said "He was beloved for the work he did among the students. I only hope when I get up in years I'll find I will be as well respected as he was for his work here. He was a wonderful teacher. He was as near an example as any man can be who works with boys and girls."

It has been reported that 262 students of Brother Jones' have become sufficiently successful to be listed in Who's Who In America.

Upon his retirement from teaching in 1943, he moved to San Bernardino, Calif. Even though he has been away from El Paso for eight years his death was front page news in that city which paid tribute to their beloved educator.

An early leader and a noble son of Pi Kappa Alpha has joined our Chapter Eternal.

JAMES MORELAND

◆ PROF. JAMES MORELAND, 53, AA (Georgetown College), succumbed to an acute heart attack May 27, 1951, in Oswego, N. Y., while serving as Professor of English at Oswego State Teachers College.

In paying tribute to Professor Moreland, Dr. Rice, President of the college, stated, "Since the death of Edward Austin Shelton, no one associated with the college has had the wide and loving friendship of as many students as Jimmy Moreland. He will live in the hearts of thousands forever." As further evidence of the love and esteem with which he was held by the students and faculty members, a James Moreland Student Memorial Fund was immediately established to honor him.

A native of Illinois, he spent most of his early life in Georgetown, Ky., and was graduated from Georgetown College in 1921. Immediately after graduation he became Registrar of the college and served until 1930. The Board of Trustees of the college passed a resolution prohibiting fraternities at Georgetown in April, 1921. Therefore, Alpha-Lambda Chapter became inactive. The trustees subsequently reversed their action, and the chapter was revived on March 11, 1926. Primary credit for the re-establishment of the chapter is due Prof. James Moreland and a few of his close friends and alumni of Alpha-Lambda Chapter.

Brother Moreland did graduate work at the University of Maine and the University of Pennsylvania. He accepted a position in the English Department at Oswego State Teachers College in 1936 and has been active in college and civic affairs since that time. He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Lillian Holmes, and a brother, Milton Moreland of St. Louis, Mo.

(Below) Charles M. Crump transfers the Memorial Foundation records to J. Harold Trinner (r.), new Trustee and Secretary.

LeLaurin and Trinner Elected Memorial Foundation Trustees

◆ THE annual meeting of members of the Pi Kappa Alpha Memorial Foundation was held in Memphis, Tennessee, Friday, April 13, 1951. The chief items of business were the financial progress report and the election of trustees.

Executive Secretary Lynn reported to the members the program adopted by the Fraternity at its 1950 National Convention earmarking for the Foundation approximately $20,000 per year of assured income. Net income for the year ending June 30, 1951, was $31,829.88 and total assets of the Foundation at that date were $71,823.64. The Foundation voted an official expression of appreciation to the Fraternity for its generous policy of financial assistance and for granting credit for "life alumni dues" to any member contributing $100 or more to the Foundation. These contributors are classified as members of the DIAMOND LIFE CHAPTER.

A. E. Paxton, Vice President of McGraw-Hill Publishing Company was re-elected to a three-year term. Harvey T. Newell, Jr., was nominated, but declined to stand for re-election and nominated James V. LeLaurin, Meridian, Mississippi, insurance underwriter, who has served most capably as General Campaign Director for the Foundation during recent months, and he was unanimously elected. After having served capably as attorney and secretary to the Board of Trustees, Charles M. Crump insisted upon resigning in order to place in nomination J. Harold Trinner who was then elected to complete Brother Crump's term.

James V. LeLaurin, H (Tulane), was initiated into Pi Kappa Alpha in the fall of 1937. He served as president of his pledge class and shortly after initiation was made SC of the active chapter. He served as SMC for four terms beginning in the spring of 1939. Brother LeLaurin was a member of numerous honorary fraternities at Tulane University, and was recognized as an outstanding student leader.

In November 1941 he was appointed District President for Louisiana and served until inducted into the Army in February, 1942. He entered the Army as a private, and was discharged as a major in April, 1946, having served most of his tour in Newfoundland.

Upon his discharge he returned to work for Aetna Life Insurance Company in New Orleans. In November, 1948, he was promoted to district manager for Aetna and moved to Meridian, Mississippi, as he says, THE HEART OF THE NEW SOUTH!

Jimmie is a fine example of continued efficient and loyal service to Pi Kappa Alpha. He served as undergraduate delegate to the Los Angeles and Chicago conventions and was New Orleans alumni chapter delegate to the Mackinac Island convention in 1946. In 1947-48 he was elected President of the New Orleans Alumni Association and of the Eta Chapter House Corporation. The Supreme Council appointed him National Pledge Training Director which position he filled from September, 1946, till the fall of 1950 when he was appointed chairman of the Memorial Foundation Special Gifts campaign which is still in progress. His election as trustee of the Memorial Foundation in the spring of 1951 is the latest recognition of his abilities and service.

Brother LeLaurin married Dorothy Hayward, Chi Omega from Newcomb College, Tulane University, in 1944. They have three children, Kathryn, 5, Stephen, 3, and Suzanne, 6 months.

J. Harold Trinner, Θ (Southwestern at Memphis), was initiated in 1926. He served his chapter in several offices including that of Th.C. In 1932 he received his law degree and since that date has been a practicing attorney in Memphis, Tennessee, except for his war service from February 1941 through March 1946. He entered service as a Private and held the rank of Captain upon his discharge. His overseas service was in the Philippines area.

Brother Trinner was District President from 1936 to 1940. During this period he, Robert H. Wright and R. E. Palmer, Jr., of Memphis were primarily instrumental in securing the successful construction of the Theta Chapter Lodge. This beautiful stone structure has a present day value of approximately $15,000.

Harold's mother, Mrs. Joe Trinner, was National President of the IKA Mothers' Club at one time. Theta Chapter Mothers' Club of which she is still an active member contributes at least $100 annually to the Pi Kappa Alpha Memorial Foundation.

Harold's many friends throughout the Fraternity welcome him to this position of trust in Pi Kappa Alpha.

— Π Κ Α —

Field Secretary John R. Horton, Box 142, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, is attending graduate school at the University of North Carolina. The Supreme Council has granted him a year's leave of absence. John is "on leave," but he can't forget Pi Kappa Alpha. He says he will welcome both personal and mail visits from many of you.

KANSAS WINS PUBLICATION AWARD

ture was a sports story on the outstanding accomplishments of an alumnus who won a world's championship in sailboat racing. The new Housemother was introduced to students and alumni. A full page of alumni news carried items of information and personal data. The SMC's report and a sports article completed the story.

The spring issue carried a picture of Homecoming decorations and articles on spring initiation, world situation affecting school enrollment, Founders' Day celebration, parents day at Beta-Gamma, Mothers' Club activities, and the SMC's regular report.

The University of Missouri's annual publication Pike is the most elaborate and eye-catching of all the chapter publications. It features a complete pictorial report of all phases of chapter activity throughout the year and is used primarily as a rush publication rather than as a medium of continued contact with alumni throughout the year. Editor Jim Sawyer, Associate Editor Herb Knapp, Copy Editor Steve Strom, and Photo Editor Bill Sweeney and the entire staff are due high praise for this outstanding pictorial presentation.

Beta-Phi Candlelight of Purdue University, winner of the Pauly trophy last year, has continued its high standards in its three-a-year printed chapter publication. Alpha-Omega Chapter at Kansas State College did a fine job with its printed news sheet The Smart Weed.

Almost every chapter now realizes the value, particularly in alumni relations, in having a chapter news letter. The position of chapter alumni secretary has continued to grow into one of major importance. Printed or mimeographed news letters serve as a continuing bond of contact between the students and their own chapter alumni. Cornell, Delaware, Indiana, Penn State, Presbyterian College, Wayne, Memphis State, Beloit, Wisconsin, Ole Miss, Illinois, Oklahoma A. & M., Alabama, Arkansas, and many others have taken advantage during the past year of this means of continuing good public relations and alumni relations.

Cancer Victim Aided By Emory Chapter

By VIRGIL LANHAM

◆ PLUCKY, 15-year-old Alfred Dutton of Rome, Georgia, will go home with the assurance that a new pair of crutches will be his.

He also is confident that the Emory IIKAs are working to get him scholarships that will give him an opportunity to study for the ministry, his greatest ambition.

This youngster is the same lad who three years ago lost his left leg to cancer. Last year he touched the heart of a nation when he dug into his pocket and pulled out a dollar for the cancer drive. With the dollar, he sent a letter: "I want to give this dollar. . . . Cancer has cost me my leg. I had hoped to study for the ministry, but now I don't know. Anyway, this dollar may help save someone else."

On a trip to Atlanta recently, Alfred was a guest of the Emory IIKAs. The chapter, noticing the condition of his crutches, voted to purchase a new pair of aluminum crutches for him. With a dauntless fortitude such as Alfred has, he can't help but succeed.

Arkansas Has Many Activities

By JACK R. GARDNER and DAVID R. JONES

◆ ALPHA-ZETA Chapter won the intramural boxing and wrestling trophies this last semester. We had five entries, each winning all of his matches. We also won the intramural bowling trophy, nosing out Kappa Sigma four games to two. During the annual Gaebale Spring Carnival, Alpha-Zeta won the soapbox derby with the most original entry—a 16-foot racer with the head and tail of a Dachshund.

The Dream Girl Formal was the biggest dance of the year on the campus of the University of Arkansas again this year. The dance, broadcast over a statewide hookup, was put on at a cost of $1,200. Charla Lou Oman, ZTA, was chosen Dream Girl of Alpha-Zeta.

The chapter has ordered all new modern furniture for the new $160,000 chapter house, and it will be delivered in time for rush this fall.

In May we had a vice-versa costume party with the boys dressed as girls and the girls as boys. It consisted of a dance with music furnished by Brother Gil Stacy and his combo, followed by a floor show put on by the members. While the combo was playing the last dance, our faithful old piano collapsed and is now undergoing extensive repairs.

Arkansas is on the ball—bowling, that is! (l. to r.) Jim Gardner, Jr., Bruce Holtoff, Jack Lineback, Bill Kirk, and Bob Harris.

Co-Captain Leo Johnson, ΓΔ, received honorable mention from COLLIERS, U.P., and SPORTS NEWS All-America basketball team.

Also in May we of Alpha-Zeta devoted a week end to our mothers. The mothers arrived Friday, and we had a banquet Sunday in their honor. During the week end, they toured the new million dollar Fine Arts Center and other attractions here on the campus.

◆ NAME the big trophies awarded each year at West Virginia University, and it will be found that Alpha-Theta has placed in three of the "big four." First to catch the eye upon entering the chapter house is the three-foot Mother's Day Sing traveling trophy and the little companion Sing trophy.

Hopes were high as Alpha-Theta marched upon the stage of the Fieldhouse singing "How'd You Like to Be a ΠΚΑ." The negro spiritual "Ride the Chariot" went over big with the audience, but it was for the judges to decide. We scored 144 points of a possible 180 to take home the trophy. By winning, ΠΚΑ broke the stranglehold which Phi Kappa Psi held on the trophy for the last four years. Following the Sing our song leader, Dave Leighty, was swept from his feet and thrown in nearby Cheat Lake for his reward.

Next is the tall Interfraternity Debate trophy which was won by Brothers Phil Koonce and Bob Holroyd. This one didn't come as easy as the other, for every debate except the final was contested, but ΠΚΑ was awarded the decision in each case and went on to defeat the Tekes in the finals.

In addition to these two firsts, the ΠΚAs were awarded second place in the Homecoming house decorations for an 11-foot replica of the school newspaper.

Our pledges also added to our gallery of trophies by winning the fifth annual Pi Kappa Alpha-Phi Kappa Sigma pledge show with a variety act. It was the fourth time in a row that our pledges had won, and the Pikes received permanent possession of the cup.

Some of our brothers have also added fame to ΠΚΑ in different fields. In athletics, Brother Jack Shockey served as co-captain of the University's powerful basketball squad, and Brother Bill Dudderar was captain of the University's tennis team; in leadership, Brother John Leeson has been elected president of the Junior Class for next year; and our president, Bob Galvin, has been elected chairman of the council of interfraternity presidents for the fall semester.

To top off this successful year our annual Dream Girl formal was held April 14 at a local hotel ballroom. Mrs. Evelyn Smith, who is permanently pinned to Brother Ted Smith, was chosen Alpha-Theta's Dream Girl of 1951 and given a loving cup and flowers. Miss Ann Cottle of Morgantown, W. Va., and Miss Elizabeth Daniell of Spencer, W. Va., served as attendants to the Dream Girl.

Georgetown Wins Intramural Trophy

◆ ALPHA-LAMBDA Chapter at Georgetown College, Kentucky, shows, by the following History of the Year, that it well deserved the honors it received last summer at the 82nd National Convention. The chapter received second place among 100 chapters for the Robert A. Smythe Proficiency Award and placed third for the Riculfi Athletic Trophy.

At the beginning of the 1950-1951 school year Alpha-Lambda men headed twelve campus organizations, besides many other offices. These twelve and their organizations were Bob Porter, Junior Class and Pan-Hellenic Council; Allan Parrent, Phi Alpha Theta History Fraternity and Editor of the school paper; Bob Voskuhl, baseball and basketball teams; Lloyd Birch, Volunteer Mission Band; Roger Duncan, College Choir; Logan English, Maskrafters Dramatic Club; Jim Rankin, Alpha Beta Pi Business Fraternity; Howard Ravenscraft, Beta Beta Beta Biology Fraternity; and Charles Smith, Gamma Sigma Epsilon Chemistry Fraternity.

In the intramural sports department the boys of Alpha-Lambda lost only one game the entire season. The lone defeat came during the softball season after the intramural cup was cinched. This year marked the third straight for an undefeated volleyball team for Alpha-Lambda. In basketball both the "A" and "B" teams won their divisions with Leland Hill, Bob Lindsay, Ed Pate, and Sox Benson being chosen on the all-intramural squad. To top off the intramural program Alpha-Lambda played host to the first annual district 11A basketball tournament and won the cup by downing Marshall College chapter in the finals.

In the dramatics field two Alpha-Lambda men were outstanding during the year—Logan English and Bob Brown. Bob played Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, Logan was presented in the title role of Shakespeare's Hamlet, and both boys had the two leading male roles in One Foot in Heaven.

Alpha-Lambda men were also the outstanding ones in college athletics. Big Bob Voskuhl, one of the greatest athletes ever to play for Georgetown, became the first athlete in college history to win twelve athletic letters—four each in football, baseball, and basketball. He played 470 minutes out of a possible 480 during the year's eight-game grid card. Later Bob became the first college athlete to be drafted by the professional football ranks! The Cleveland Browns gave him a bid soon after the end of the season. He was captain of both the basketball and baseball teams. On the hardwood Alpha-Lambda's Charlie Pennington gained national prominence with his 22-points-per-game average. He also set a new Kentucky state collegiate scoring record by scorching the hoops with 44 points in the Chase College game. Charlie and Bob both played on the Kentucky Collegiate All-Star team in an exhibition game.

Many other college honors were garnered by members of Alpha-Lambda. Bob Voskuhl and Charles Smith were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Three of the four superlative honors at Georgetown for which boys were eligible were taken by Roger Duncan, Bob Voskuhl, and Charles Smith. Jim Rankin received the Wall Street Journal Achievement Award, and Charles Smith was given an honorary student membership in the Southern Association of Science and Industry.

In scholarship the chapter was also outstanding, having nearly a 1.8 average. Two members, Charles Smith and Jim Rankin, had perfect 3.0 standings.

At the annual Founders' Day Banquet of Kappa, Omega, and Alpha-Lambda chapters, the chapter received a silver loving cup for presenting the best entertainment program.

Every member of Beta-Kappa Chapter (Emory) responded to the Atlanta Red Cross plea recently for blood donations to be sent to Korea.

Jack Stone — Best in Basketball

By JACK HUME

◆ ON THE Kansas State College campus where basketball was the outstanding sport last year one of the big men on the campus was Alpha-Omega member, Jack Stone.

Jack, who has been a starter at Kansas State for three years, without a doubt had his greatest season this year. He was second high Wildcat scorer with 239 points for the regular season, was elected to many All-Big Seven teams, named to the all-tourney team for the Big Seven pre-season tournament, was put on the Western NCAA all-tournament team, and was awarded honorable mention on the United Press All-American.

Although he played forward this year, Jack was one of the best post men in the conference, despite the fact his 6 feet 3 inches leaves him one-half foot shorter than most of the conference centers. To quote the Kansas City Star, "his play direction and defensive work are in many ways the nucleus of the team." Jack's all-around ability is one of the chief reasons the Wildcats finished first in the Big Seven and the Western NCAA tournament, and second in the National NCAA.

Jack, who graduated in physical education, has finished his last season of collegiate basketball, and finished it in a very reputable manner. In his last game on the Manhattan court against Illinois, the Big Ten champions, Jack broke the Kansas State scoring record for an individual game by hitting 29 points.

A marvelous physical specimen, Jack's athletic ability is not confined to basketball. Last year he won the shot-put in the intramural track meet. This spring he was the sparkplug of Alpha-Omega's volleyball team, and broke a record in the intramural swimming meet.

Although Jack, with his wife and two daughters, Connie, 4, and Carol, 3, will be leaving Manhattan, he will not be leaving the game of basketball. He hopes to spend some time playing either AAU or professional ball and later to enter the coaching field.

Florida Leads In Many Fields

By JOHN LAYTON

◆ PERHAPS one of the biggest school years was witnessed by Alpha-Eta Chapter, University of Florida, during 1950-1951. We got off to a good start with 54 new pledges. The first big social event was the pledge dance given by the brothers at which time dates were presented with miniature IKA paddles.

Homecoming was a great affair for Alpha-Eta this year. Alumni came from all parts of the South, and many old acquaintances were renewed. The homecoming game, Florida Gators vs. Auburn Tigers, was a great game with a win for the 'Gators, 28-7.

Fall Frolics, one of the outstanding social events on campus each year, was held early in December. Gene Krupa and Art Mooney were on campus for the occasion, and all of the fraternity houses on campus were celebrating in high spirits. A Hawaiian Costume Dance was held at the house the night preceding the big dance in the gym, and people swayed to the south sea island music.

Alpha-Eta is host each year to the underprivileged children of Gainesville at a Christmas party held at the house. The children were very grateful for the hospitality shown by the brothers and very appreciative of the gifts given to them. In the Christmas parade, sponsored by the Merchants Association of Gainesville, Alpha-Eta's snow-white float took first place.

The new year got off to a good start with 22 pledges being initiated into the bonds of Pi Kappa Alpha, an increase of 14 for the first semester of 1950.

Mrs. H. H. Johnson of Lake Harris, Fla., was welcomed as the new house-mother. A reception in her honor was held early in March which was attended by more than 400 alumni and guests.

The annual "clean-up" project, sponsored by the Exchange Club of Gainesville, was won by Alpha-Eta. All of the fraternity and sorority houses on campus participated in this clean-up project, and the judges decided that the ivy-covered Pike house outlooked all of the other fraternity and sorority houses on campus.

The King Ugly Contest, an annual drive for the Red Cross each year on campus, was a great success, not only because the school surpassed its goal, but Brother Pete Goodling of Jacksonville, Fla., was crowned King Ugly of the University of Florida for 1951.

The 45 annual Founder's Day Banquet was held March 30 in the new million dollar service center on campus. Three founders of the chapter were present for the affair with approximately 50 alumni from all parts of the state. Brother William M. Rowlett of Tampa, Fla., acted as toastmaster and Brothers Walter M. Hackney, Lake City, Fla., and Arthur M. Henry, Atlanta, Ga., gave individual speeches.

Dream Girl Weekend was held on March 9-10. A Tahitian Nights Costume Dance, swimming party and outing, and the formal dinner-dance selecting Alpha-Eta's 1951 Dream Girl, was the agenda for the week-end. Miss Constance Thomas, a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, was chosen 1951 Dream Girl.

Spring Frolics was perhaps the biggest week-end of the school year. We danced to Xavier Cugat, the rhumba king's orchestra, and then the party moved to the Shamrock Inn, St. Augustine Beach, for the remainder of the week-end. Over 250 actives, pledges, alumni, and rushees, attended the houseparty.

The 35th Mother's Day Reception, the oldest unbroken social tradition on campus, was held May 11. Over 500 mothers and guests attended the affair and were received by SMC William Hayes and IMC Joe Parker. Brother Jack Mixson acted as master of ceremonies, and Brother Frank Akerman was the principal speaker.

The last social event of the chapter this year was the banquet given in honor of the graduating brothers. Each brother who was graduating was challenged to be the best alumnus of Alpha-Eta. Brother John Heinimister, secretary-treasurer of the house corporation, and Brother William Graham, president of the house corporation, were presented individual gifts.

Perhaps the biggest surprise of the year came several weeks before the end of the semester when Alpha-Eta was awarded the annual intramural department Nash Higgins Sportsmanship Trophy. The award is presented to the team with the best sportsmanship by rating in the fraternity leagues. It is based on ratings given by referees and officials and by the spirit displayed throughout the season. Probably Alpha-Eta's most dazzling display of spirit came during the basketball season, when Alpha-Eta's 'Gator Band played during the games and presented marching half-time shows.

June McClenny Chosen Dream Girl at Kansas

By TED BARBERA and
LELAND TATUM

◆ HIGHLIGHTING the Beta-Gamma spring social activities was the annual Dream Girl formal held at the Lawrence Country Club on May 11. The ballroom of the country club was decorated with garlands of spirea and red roses with spouting fountains flanking the entrance. In one corner of the room a large heart was built under which the Dream Girl was presented.

During the intermission, Miss June McClenny, AΔΠ, was presented as the 1951 Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha. She was crowned by the 1950 Dream Girl, Miss Phyllis Gray. Miss McClenny is a sophomore in Fine Arts and hails from Topeka, Kansas.

The two attendants to the Dream Girl were Miss Dorothy Becker, ΔΔΔ, and Miss Lois Cramer, ΑΦ. Miss Becker, who is a junior in the College, is the daughter of R. L. Becker, a prominent Beta-Gamma alumnus from Coffeyville, Kansas. Miss Cramer is a sophomore in the College and also hails from Coffeyville.

The Dream Girl was presented with a large traveling trophy given each year to the Dream Girl by Beta-Gamma, and a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. All three of the girls received corsages.

The ceremony was closed with the chapter serenading the Dream Girl and her attendants with the sweetheart song, "Dream Girl of ΠΚΑ."

Everyone agreed that the beautiful Dream Girl Dance was the most successful social function of the year and are looking forward to an even more beautiful one next year.

Beta-Gamma was represented in virtually all of the campus organizations. Brother Roger Tuttle is president of the Scabbard and Blade, and served on the executive council of Pachamac, the Greek political party. Brother C. Dixon "Jack" Kennedy was president of the campus Young Republicans club. Brother Richard Tatum was treasurer of Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity. Brother James Sharpnack served as vice-president of the newly organized Interfraternity Pledge Council.

In varsity athletics, Beta-Gamma was represented by Roland "Rollie" Cain and Walter Hicks. Brother Cain, a top-notch performer on the Varsity track squad, was a member of the distance medley relay team which took first place at the annual Kansas Relays this spring. Brother Hicks proved to be one of the University's most valuable athletes on the baseball diamond. His performance in the outfield and in the batter's box merited high praise from the bleachers and the press box.

The chapter has embarked on an ambitious house improvement campaign which has not yet been completed, but has already resulted in many fine improvements. At present, the improvements include a completely remodeled chapter room, a newly constructed recreation room, and extensive landscaping of the grounds. Probably the most popular of these changes is the recreation room. The room was constructed wholly by the chapter members with funds supplied by the house corporation. Its pine-paneled walls and fireplace provide a pleasant atmosphere for card playing, television viewing or just plain relaxing.

North Carolina Names Dream Girl

By BILL CRAFT

◆ ON Saturday, April 21, 1951, the annual Dream Girl Ball of Tau Chapter was held in the Ballroom of the Carolina Inn. At that time the 1951 Dream Girl, Miss Sissy Rhodes of Charlotte, a student at Queens College, was presented. Miss Rhodes was pinned on behalf of the brothers of Tau Chapter by SMC Guy W. Rawls, Jr., and received a bouquet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley from last year's Dream Girl, the former Jean Anne Lambeth, who was recently married to Bill Sutton, last year's SMC. Also presented were the following girls escorted by officers of the fraternity: Miss Frances Stephenson of Greensboro, with Ryland Duke; Miss Sandra Riach of Laguna Beach, Calif., with Nic J. Miller; Miss Mary Sutton of Wilmington with Guy W. Rawls, Jr., and Miss Barbara Dixon of Crewe, Va., with Gene B. Hardin. The dates were presented with bouquets of Orange Delight roses, and the entire group was honored by a no-break dance. Other festivities of the week-end included a cabin party on Friday night at Hogan's Lake, a party on Saturday afternoon at the Seville Club, and a breakfast following the dance at the chapter house.

Missouri Honors President McHaney

◆ NATIONAL President Powell B. McHaney was highly honored by his own chapter at the University of Missouri in one of the outstanding events of the Fraternity during the past year. Brother McHaney and his family were invited to Alpha-Nu Chapter for the first week end in May, but were unaware of the outstanding festivities in store for them.

President of the University of Missouri Frederick A. Middlebush; Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Lawrence Hyde (Alpha-Nu); Dean of Students Jack Matthews; Head Football Coach Don Faurot; and Dean of Men Robert Zumwinkle joined several national officers, alumni, and the men of Alpha-Nu at the chapter house to honor our beloved and distinguished National President.

At the banquet President Middlebush and Brother Frank Vesser, Vice President of the General American Life Insurance Company, paid tribute to Brother McHaney's leadership in fraternity, school, and business affairs. SMC Bill Popkess presented Brother McHaney with a Fraternity badge. Glancing at Mrs. McHaney he explained that to present Brother McHaney with a pin was deemed most appropriate since he had "lost" his while in college.

This occasion served as a token of appreciation to Powell B. McHaney and his family for their unselfish services to Pi Kappa Alpha.

Phil Barker, BB (Washington), won a Fulbright Scholarship recently to the University of Calcutta where he plans to study linguistics. Phil is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Missouri Mines and Bowling Green Lead

According to recent announcements by administrative offices at Missouri School of Mines, Rolla, Mo., and Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio, Pi Kappa Alpha leads all fraternities on these two campuses in scholarship.

Alpha-Kappa Chapter at Missouri Mines topped the list for the third consecutive time, and thereby won permanent possession of the Interfraternity Council Scholarship Trophy. Scholarship is only one part of a well rounded program of activities on the part of these boys.

Delta-Beta at Bowling Green continues its fine record of scholarship and leadership. It is the largest fraternity on campus and maintains almost a "B" average.

Congratulations to these boys for a job well done.

Paul Holbrook, M. D. — Man of Distinction

by PERRY LAND

◆ I LIKE to think of my associations with Paul Holbrook as being typical of IKA friendship. For some 34 years we have matched swords (and steins) here, yonder and about. My last word from him (March, 1951) came from Tokyo, Japan, where he was on a special mission with the U. S. Army Air Forces. Our first big jamboree together was on a troop train on November 11, 1918—out of Seattle for Camp McArthur, Waco, Texas. That was the night he lost his shirt (literally) in Kansas City, Missouri. And thereby hangs an old Army tale.

Ever since that first Armistice Day celebration, I have always thought that Paul has more personality than anyone I have known. He has an ebullience, a verve and a strength of character which one seldom finds in an individual. On top of this he has had a definite objective in life since the beginning of college days in 1917. This is the practice of medicine, and he has gone far in the profession. In 1924 he married his college sweetheart, Margaret Bressler, and the romance was blessed with three children, Jack, Bruce and Elizabeth, all of whom are now grown and married. Jack is following in his dad's footsteps and is presently studying medicine in Boston. There are two grandchildren and at Elizabeth's wedding last October, Paul remarked that he soon expected to become a "Grandfather Unlimited." During the years our paths have crossed in many places—Portland, Oregon; San Francisco, Detroit, Tucson (present residence), New York City, Canada and Mexico. And in each locale we rehashed Ye Olde College Daze and IKA.

Paul received his Bachelor's Degree in Chemistry at the University of Washington, Seattle, in 1920 and his M.D. at the University of Oregon in 1924. He really put out for the latter, and I recall one time, he was holding three different jobs while taking a full-time medical course. After graduation he had 2½ years post-graduate work at Letterman General Hospital and the University of California. Then followed six months of cardiology study under Sir Thomas Lewis in London, six months of medicine under Professor Frederick von Mueller in Munich and the same period on medicine under Dr. George Fahr at the Minneapolis General Hospital. His specialties are internal medicine and cardiology.

I spent 27 years in 10 different hospitals and obtained a fair, cross-section view of the medical profession. Each time I talked with Paul during those days, I was always impressed with his interest in, and knowledge of current medicine, and the fact that he constantly kept up with its progress. I feel that he is, and will always be a keen student of his profession. In my humble way of thinking, therein lies the difference between being mediocre and top-flight in any of the professions. The majority of us do not seem to have that perpetual thirst for learning coupled with the will and energy to keep at it.

Back in the early thirties, I recall that Paul was studying the treatment of arthritis and rheumatism at several European clinics, and I believe this project has become a major part of his life work. These diseases have long stumped the medical profession, and it is within the realm of possibility that he may solve these ancient problems sometime. I attended a meeting once of a group of Paul's colleagues at his clinic in Tucson and heard an illuminating discussion on the diagnosis and treatment of these diseases. From this I gathered a slight idea of the tremendous task involved in a job of this nature. It reminded me of a detective running down a series of important clues in a murder case. He cannot afford to ignore any of them, but at times he has so many tangled leads, that the chase seems futile. It is the old story in both instances—hard work, long hours and dogged determination. Paul has what it takes, and may the Supreme Architect guide him in this splendid endeavor.

Paul is a member of a dozen or more medical societies including American College of Physicians (Fellow), American Heart Association, American Rheumatism Association, Diplomate, American Board of Internal Medicine, American Council on Rheumatic Fever, et al. He has served as President of the Arizona State Medical Association and the American Rheumatism Association. From the latter position, he became interested in and was one of the founders of the National Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation. He was elected its first President in May, 1948. This Foundation is similar to other national ones and is partially endowed by the United States Government.

He served in World Wars I and II. In the second one he was Chief of Professional Services for the U. S. Army Air Forces and was responsible for the quality of their medical care. His rank was that of Colonel. He served in the United States, European Theater Operations, and the Mediterranean Theater. He was awarded the Legion of Merit and the Army Commendation Medal. From the list before me I could go on and on, with such appointments as Senior Consultant in Medicine at St. Mary's Hospital and the Tucson Medical Center; Medical Consultant to the Surgeon General, U. S. Army Air Forces; Consultant in Medicine, Veterans Administration; Chairman, Macy Foundation Conference on Connective Tissue Diseases, New York City; Member, National Advisory Council, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C., etc.

His list of publications is impressive, and I remember that he began writing for the medical journals about the time he graduated in 1924. I counted some 50 recently. His latest (1950) is Manual of Rheumatic Diseases, a handbook for the general practitioner in connection with this phase of medicine.

In college his honoraries were Alpha Omega Alpha and Sigma Xi; his medical fraternity, Nu Sigma Nu; clubs—Old Pueblo and Golf and Country of Tucson and Army-Navy in Washington, D. C.; Masonically—Scottish Rite, Shrine and Royal Order of Jesters.

And that is a rough resumé of some of the accomplishments of "Curley," or "Soup Bowl," as Bert Slack once dubbed him. He is an inspiring, interesting person, and as I think back over some three decades I can't match him any place in my book—and I have traveled some and have known a lot of people.

Pikes Prominent At Penn

By PAUL D. WILLIAMS, JR.

◆ BETA-PI Chapter at University of Pennsylvania became known as one of THE fraternities on campus this past school year. It started last fall with a very successful party season following each football game, with members of Alpha Chapter coming up from Virginia. Following the muddy Cornell game, some brave rain-soaked members of Beta-Theta Chapter came to the house for a party and stayed far into the night.

SMC David Dickerson organized a group to buy a new baby grand piano for the chapter room, and Paul Spade, BA, an interior decorator in Philadelphia, gave us some help in buying new living room furniture. The new room looked beautiful, and we were at last ready for rushing. IMC Robert McKersie planned an excellent rushing season in November and we pledged 34 men, the highest number of men taken into a house on Penn's campus!

Last fall also marked another event in the history of Beta-Pi. Delta Chapter decided to burden us with one H. Linwood Underwood, who soon became known as "you all". Linn helped immeasurably during rushing and became one of the "regulars" throughout the year in helping whenever work had to be done. Pledgemaster William Griest instructed his brood in the ways of ΠΚΑ, and the pledges elected Warren Youngblood as their president. Harry Seyler, pledge social chairman, worked with house Social Chairman Paul Williams to put on a successful Christmas party complete with Jim "Santa Claus" Dahlhausen handing out gifts to all the girls.

Midway in January, there was a big-brother party, at which time Ralph Richardson found out that Pledge Ralph "Bull" Young was much stronger than a ukulele.

The pledge project of building an enclosure for the bar and laying an asphalt tile floor in the game room enhanced the appearance of the room no end.

Friday, March 2, was Founders' Day. A banquet followed a party at the Barclay Hotel in Philadelphia. SMC McKersie received the Alpha-Mu Alumni Chapter award as the senior who has done the most for Pi Kappa Alpha and Beta-Pi Chapter. Initiate Sterline Richter was presented with the Best Pledge award of the undergraduate chapter for devotion and displaying the best fraternity spirit in the pledge class.

I-F Week was inaugurated on the campus, and Pi Kappa Alpha had its name right at the top. We held a contest for the best male and female freshman pledge of any house on campus. The big dance was held at the Broadwood Hotel with the music of Elliot Lawrence. During intermission, SMC McKersie and IMC Raymond presented the best pledge awards. Saturday night, the Intensely Vigorous Jazz Band, a group of Princeton seniors, played Dixieland music at the house after all the furniture had been taken out of the living room. Many alumni and guests from other houses on campus were there, and the publicity we received after the party was very good. It was surely one of the best parties seen on Penn's campus in several years.

Friday, April 13, was not an unlucky day. We had our Dream Girl dance at the exclusive Manufacturer's Country Club in Chestnut Hill. Chairman Ken Harding did an excellent job and had everything well planned. The next night, the jazz band played a return engagement to an even larger crowd than before. It was a week-end that will be long remembered.

Several men went to the District Convention at Cornell in April, and in May we had a baseball game with our chapter at Lehigh. May 12 was Crew Day, something like Derby Day at Yale. ΠΚΑ had a booth right at the water's edge, and this year there were no mishaps. In June we all hated to leave Beta-Pi for the summer after such an enjoyable year. We only hope that we can come close to being as successful next year as we were during the past nine months.

History Repeats Itself

In 1920 Vic Wasielewski (later changed to Wasleski) had a major part in the organization and establishment of a local fraternity at the University of Oklahoma which successfully petitioned Pi Kappa Alpha and received a charter as Beta-Omicron Chapter. Thirty-one years later Ed Wasielewski, the son of Vic's first cousin, played a similar role in the local fraternity at Arizona State College, Tempe, Ariz., which successfully petitioned for a charter and was installed as Delta-Tau Chapter in the spring of 1951. Ed's picture, along with Bob Flood's, appeared on the cover of the June, 1951, Shield and Diamond magazine.

Vic Wasleski, Beta-Omicron charter member and number one on its chapter roll is now President of the Kansas City Builders Supply Co., Inc., in Kansas City, Mo. His son, Vic, Jr., is an alumnus of Alpha-Zeta Chapter at the University of Arkansas; his brother-in-law, Louis Murray, is an alumnus of Eta Chapter at Tulane. Vic's youngest son, Dan, will enter college this fall, possibly the University of Missouri or the University of Kansas, and Pi Kappa Alpha is keeping an eye on him, too.

Southern Methodist Presents Dream Girl

By JOHN ENGLAND

◆ DURING the last school year Beta-Zeta Chapter at S. M. U. honored each sorority on campus with an open house and made these open houses serve a double purpose. We met new girls, became better acquainted with the ones we knew, and had a pleasant time; and we believe the girls enjoyed it, too. Our second purpose was served when, after meeting all the members of a sorority, the chapter felt themselves better qualified to pick the dream girl nominee from that sorority. This choice was made, the chapter serenaded the sorority, the dream girl nominee was announced, and some member, normally our Lothario SMC, delegated to give her a token kiss and present a corsage.

When Beta-Zeta had chosen a nominee from each sorority, the dream girl vote was by secret ballot, the result being a secret from all except the SMC. The newly remodeled Jefferson Hotel was the setting as pledges, active members, and alumni, and their dates met for a delicious Founders' Day Banquet, followed by the annual Dream Girl Dance, which was well attended and heartily enjoyed by all Greeks at S.M.U. At the height of the evening's entertainment SMC Tom Rippey stepped forward, with a spray of roses and a loving cup, and presented our Dream Girl, Miss Sharon Smith, Kappa Kappa Gamma. A glance through the annual, the Rotunda, shows that Sharon is a Rotunda beauty nominee, one of the Rotunda favorites, Secretary of the Students' Association, President of Delta Psi Kappa, a girls' sports organization; and a member of Mortar Board, service honorary, together with many other honors.

Successful though it was, the Dream Girl Dance did not encourage BZ to rest on its laurels, but spurred the chapter on to more achievement. IKA's participation in intramural sports, notably bowling, in which we won first place, and golf second place, has been enthusiastic; scholastic standing has been climbing rapidly and will continue to do so; nor has social life been neglected. On the last Saturday before "dead week" the chapter turned out en masse with dates at Wiley's Dude Ranch which had been engaged by Social Chairman Paul Willis for swimming, riding, horseshoes, volleyball, and dancing. A ruling of the Interfraternity Council prevented the chapter from remaining active during the summer, but the chapter voted to leave the house open for the benefit of those Pikes who were attending summer school. Beta-Zeta returns to school this fall expecting another successful year under the leadership of SMC Don Reilly.

Dream Girl Dance Held at Wisconsin

◆ ON MAY 25, Beta-Xi held its annual Dream Girl Formal at Madison's picturesque Edgewater Hotel. At intermission Miss Marilyn A. Smith, Kappa Alpha Theta, was introduced as our 1951 Dream Girl. Marilyn has been pinned to Brother Charles Armitage for over a year, and the chapter is proud to have her as its Dream Girl. Her Court of Honor included Miss Dolores Peserik, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Miss Carol Feathers, and Miss Fran Slikas. The formal itself was a tremendous success, and thanks are in order for Social Chairman Armitage.

In the field of outside activities Beta-Xi has been outstanding during the past several weeks. Jack Pelisek was recently elected President of the Wisconsin Interfraternity Council. Jack has been with the council for over a year, and served on the I. F. Appointments Committee. The brothers wish Jack all the luck in the world and are sure he will do a fine job. Brother Ray Borgeson recently served as a co-chairman of the All-University Parents Weekend. Ray has also served on many other campus committees. Our housefellow, Bill Sims, recently finished his term as President of the Resident Counselors' Association.

The bill introduced into the Michigan Legislature by Representative Graves to require secret societies in state supported colleges and universities to file copies of their constitutions with college administrations and the state superintendent of education died in committee.

President Ruthven of the University of Michigan vetoed the Student Affairs Committee action ordering fraternities to clear their constitutions of discriminatory clauses by October, 1956, or face loss of recognition by the university.

President Ruthven gave as his reasons: (1) it is a long established rule of law that no individual has an inherent right to membership in any particular organization; and (2) that property rights of any organization affected by the ruling would be jeopardized, if not destroyed, were the group to lose university recognition through the regulation.

Illinois Plans For Coming Year

♦ WITH the end of the academic school year at the University of Illinois, Beta-Eta has the gears already in operation for the coming year. Having gained more success in all campus activities the past year than has been experienced on this campus since pre-war days, the chapter has plans for a large scale rushing program and intentions for greater laurels for IKA and Beta-Eta.

The school and fraternity year of 1950-51 for Beta-Eta was one which we will remember for a long while. The men of the house were more than enthusiastic in everything which they undertook. The intramural activities were one of the outstanding achievements of the year. Under the guidance of Bill Rusch, the water polo team developed into the dark horse entry of the event, and lost only their first match by one point to finish strong in the league. Another surprise to everyone was the hidden muscle strength in our house as our five-man wrestling team won second place in the wrestling meet. Volleyball, football, and basketball proved valuable for gaining intramural points and league championships. More surprises and trophies were added to our honor when another dark horse entry from our house walked away with the all university swimming championship. Finishing up the season strong the Pikes placed second in the all university track meet, with a first place in the major relay race. We are proud of the men who participated and upheld the highest traditions of Pi Kappa Alpha. Whether winning or losing they displayed the best in sportsmanship.

During the past year we also enjoyed a varied social program, planned by Gene Frazier. Exchanges with sororities, record dances, picnics, hayrides and sweetheart dinners were all included during the year which was climaxed by the traditional Dream Girl Formal held in the chapter house. This dance was a complete success with the atmosphere of a spring garden highlighted by white picket fences, trellises interwoven with flowers, a pond with goldfish, and a May pole stretching its streamers out above the dance floor. Miss Jean Lungstrum, ZTA, was crowned Dream Girl. She is pinned to Brother Steve Ross.

At the end of every year we hate to lose our seniors who have contributed so much to the chapter, but we are happy that they have finally reached the climax of their college education. Therefore, we say "so long" to our new alumni: Dick Miller, John Palandech, Bill Livingston, Don MacCleary, Harold Baker, Don Wiesman and Guy Packard.

New Mexico Remodels Chapter House

By D. E. CORNELL, III

♦ THE fraternities at the University of New Mexico lost from 30 per cent to 50 per cent of their memberships as a result of the draft or graduation. The general reaction has been to either sell the fraternity houses or rent part or all of them to independents.

Beta-Delta Chapter decided to exhibit optimism and confidence, and plans have been drawn and approved to convert our 30-man dormitory-style house to a 32-man house. A kitchen, dining room, apartment for housemother, and maid's quarters will be added.

The chapter has almost completed a lodge in the Manzano mountains to be used for picnics and outings. The lodge is a large cement block building with an eight-foot fireplace and large windows overlooking Cedro canyon. The floor is composed of red machine finished cement. Five acres of land were donated by an active member for this project, and all of the construction is being done by the chapter members.

♦ DID you ever wonder how the University of Florida football team acquired the nickname "Gator"? It stems from the yell "Bo Gator" which fans used whenever they recognized or demanded the talents of the captain of the team, Neal Summer Storter back in 1911.

Born in 1890 in Everglades, Fla., typical 'gator country, Brother Storter was initiated by Alpha-Eta Chapter. He acquired the nickname of "Bo Gator" soon after his arrival on the campus, and now the popular fanatical cheer "Go Gator" still remains. Since his present address is unknown, please contact the National Office and Alpha-Eta Chapter if you have any information.

Utah Chapter National Champions

By TED CAPENER

◆ FIRST in many fields, Pi Kappa Alpha again led all other national fraternities in the field of athletics, as Alpha-Tau Chapter from Utah became the first winner of the National Interfraternity Basketball Championship held at Bradley University March 28, 29, and 30, Peoria, Ill.

Intramural winners from every competing school in this tournament, which was designed mainly as a basketball "fix" avoider, were invited to participate in the National Interfraternity Tournament. After receiving this wonderful invitation, the champions from Utah began raising funds to take them to the tournament. Bradley school officials paid $100 of the expenses, and the remaining $100 was donated to the active members by various alumni of Alpha-Tau.

Six men made the trip to Peoria. They were: Jack Hansen, SMC; Pres Merrill, Brent Eager, Allan Brown, Bob Pierson, Captain, and Chick Thomas.

All of the hometown folks in Salt Lake City were listening to their radio when half-time came. The local radio announcer, who went to Peoria with the Utah team, introduced Bob Pierson, captain of the winning fraternity team from Utah. The fraternity house on the Utah campus was still and calm, perhaps the quietest in years, when our boy Piercy came over the air. The interview was heard over 21 stations throughout the intermountain West.

The Pikes went straight through the tournament to victory, winning over both of their opponents. Rho Chi from Duquesne was the first to fall before the Utah men, while Lambda Chi Alpha met the boys in the finals. Two of the six Pi Kaps fouled out in the final game, and that left the champs in bad shape, for they had to play the last minute and a half with only four men. But with stellar playing by Pres Merrill and Bob Pierson, a splurge by the Lambda Chis was stopped and Utah won, 48-47.

According to the boys who made the trip, Bradley's newly installed chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha, Delta-Sigma, is really a chapter to be proud of. The IIKAs at Bradley definitely know how to make you feel at home, commented the team after they came home.

Many letters have been received by the team congratulating them on their famous victory. And "good going boys" has really been the by-word on the Utah campus for the first National Interfraternity Champions.

"All we can hope for is to be invited once again to represent Pi Kappa Alpha" concluded the national champions.

Alpha-Tau's trophy case is going to need enlarging right away. The trophy brought back from Bradley was truly a beauty, and each member of the National Championship team received medals for their brilliant display of basketball and sportsmanship.

All Sports Award Taken at Cornell

By JOHN M. PATTON

◆ FAR above Cayuga's waters at Cornell University, the intramural honors went to Beta-Theta Chapter for the second time in two years. Each year the All-Sports Award is presented to that fraternity which has the best all-round intramural sports program. This year the unequaled spirit of the Cornell Pi Kaps was the deciding factor in bringing the coveted award home to 17 South Avenue.

Beta-Theta teams got off to a fast start by winning the intramural touch football championship and ended up with a bang by copping the softball championship. In the middle of the year the Beta-Theta men commandeered the league title in volleyball and second place in the badminton playoffs. These events were enough to garner the omni-important All-Sports Award.

After bringing home the same three trophies for two years in a row, Beta-Theta is happy but a little hard pressed for trophy cabinets.

Cornell proudly displays their All-Sports Trophy (center) flanked on the left by the football championship and on the right by the baseball championship trophies.

Emory Wins Dooley's Frolics

By VIRGIL LANHAM

◆ BETA-KAPPA's high-masted Spanish Galleons sailed right into first place in this year's Dooley's Frolics lawn decoration contest held Friday, May 4, 1951, on Emory University's Fraternity Row.

The theme for this year's Frolics was "Historical Events." The Pikes grasped the opportunity to present an accurate and detailed reproduction of the discovery of Florida and the "Fountain of Youth" by Don Juan Ponce de Leon. Beta-Kappa was awarded a beautiful sterling loving cup for their display, and won second place in the costume contest.

After weeks of planning and work, the IKA house and lawn was transformed into a tropical jungle with a beach and lagoon surrounding it. Two large ships with 65-foot masts towered over the waters; Indian huts appeared in the jungle background, and real orange and palm trees shaded the famous Fountain of Youth. A copious amount of the actual water from the fountain had been flown in by an Eastern Airlines chartered plane. Truly a portion of Florida had migrated north to the city of Atlanta.

A well developed publicity plan was carried out during the several weeks prior to the annual spring celebration. The Atlanta Journal, Constitution, and other papers as far as Key West carried articles about the IKA plans.

Containers of the "youth-restoring" water were presented to General Hodges, Commander of the Third Army, Mayor William B. Hartsfield of Atlanta and Governor Talmadge. Goodrich White, President of Emory, and Col. Blake R. Van Leer, President of Georgia Tech, took part in similar ceremonies.

The Pikes owe much to Senator Walter B. Fraser who helped with their plans and advised in the development of the ideas.

With the winning of two of the top honors and a swell series of dances to the music of Tony Pastor, the Beta-Kappa Pikes had a spring frolic that will not easily be forgotten.

Wm. & Mary Entry Tops Favorites

By DOUG RYDER

◆ Two weeks previous to the May Day Festival at the College of William and Mary, fraternities and sororities were asked to build booths similar to those found at carnivals and fairs. A first prize of $25, a second prize of $15, and a third prize of $10 was offered for the three best booths.

Realizing that an absurd mind and a strong back were the most important qualities in a booth committee chairman, the Chapter elected Doug Ryder and John Kirk co-chairmen since no one single brother seemed to have the necessary amount of both. A perfect booth was found by one of the brothers behind the college and auditorium. It had formerly been used as a jail in one of the college plays, but had since been discarded. Within a week an idea was conceived, accepted by the chapter, and a booth committee was appointed. Last minute touches were made a few minutes before the crowning of the May Queen in the college gymnasium, and booth operation was to begin.

The outside of the booth was covered with strips of red, yellow, white, and blue crepe paper. The booth itself was made to look like a typical dormitory room, complete with pin-up pictures and no-parking signs. Brothers Ryder and Gibson, dressed as circus barkers, paced up and down in front of the booth yelling "Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Step right up! Three balls for a quarter . . . knock over the pile of beer cans and get the slumbering student up for his eight o'clock class!" A bucket of water was suspended over a bed, and every time someone was able to knock over all the beer cans, pajama-clad Brothers Duff, Pirkle, Thurston, or Rittenhouse were doused with a bucket of water and made to get up for class.

Three hours later, standing ankle deep in water, the committee cheered the announcement that IKA had taken first place among the fraternities for the second consecutive year. Among the brothers congratulating the committee on their fine job was Th.C. Vic Janega who was very pleased that the elaborate looking booth had been built for the paltry sum of $3.50.

Mu Seniors Cop Graduation Awards

By DAVID A. COLLINS

◆ MU has added another 14 HKAs to the alumni roll. This year the loss will be especially hard to take since the brothers of this class have proved to be most valuable to Mu. They have made one of the best classes of Mu men ever, being largely responsible for the good condition the chapter is in today. Although the loss is heavy, the chapter still has a good stock of junior, sophomore, and freshmen members to lean on, and, though they will have big shoes to fill, there is no doubt they can do it.

The Pikers did well during the Commencement exercises, taking eight out of about 15 awards. Harry Dent received the Founder's Medal for being the Ideal Senior; Harry Dent, Walter Gooch, and David Neville received Gold P's for extracurricular activities other than athletics; Walter Gooch received the Pi Kappa Phi's cup for the best athlete; Neville received honors for the best R.O.T.C. Company Commander—a sword given by Colonel Wysor; Travis Stevenson received the General Scholarship Medal for finishing valedictorian of the class; and Pledge Vernon Lake of Orangeburg received the Freshman Bible Award given by Professor T. Layton Fraser of the Bible Department.

Mu has added five 2nd lieutenants to the Army Reserve: Robert Nelson, Dave Neville, Al Watson, Hollis Cate, and Harry Dent. We wish these boys the best of luck.

We have eight lettermen returning to the varsity football team: Bo Atkinson, guard; John Harper, end; Kirby Jackson, halfback; Joe Kirven, end; Ted Sasser, halfback; Thomas Sheriff, tackle, and Frog Weldon, quarterback. Also on the sports side of the news Mu Chapter had a successful year in many ways. Its top achievement probably came in winning the SCA intramural cup given each year at the close of the year for accumulating the most points in all intramural sports and activities. HKA won the cup in a walk, taking the football, swimming, and track titles. Mu also tied for the basketball leadership and finished second in the annual SCA songfest and skit program. Much credit here is due to Bill Fowler who led the Mu Men in the sports program as intramural chairman for the fraternity.

Kirby Jackson, Sumter junior and three-sport letterman, is the new chapter SMC. Jackson served as vice president for the past year. He was also recently elected vice president of the Student Body and was tapped into Blue Key.

Just A Skunk At Heart

◆ AN OLD, yet not too beloved, member of Alpha-Chi Chapter at Syracuse suddenly left his Brothers of Pi Kappa Alpha in February, 1951. It wasn't the draft that called him, but the opportunity to be of public service with a volunteer fire department. His name was Air-Wick.

Air-Wick came to the chapter in November of 1950 from the northern clime of Wisconsin. He was welcomed by the Brothers with open arms, and showed his appreciation of his new home by immediately attempting to eat the fingers of the hand that fed him. Air-Wick was a skunk. A deodorized skunk, mind you, but a rather emotionally unstable one. Air-Wick's great trouble was that he was unable to adjust himself to fraternity life.

The mere presence of Air-Wick had far-reaching effects. Not only did he lead a somewhat disordered life, but he made its effects known on others. It was necessary to create a new chapter office, that of Keeper-of-the-Skunk, alternately filled by Pete Vonderhorst and Doug Wallace. Air-Wick's biggest problem, he soon discovered, was the competition presented by Smokey, Alpha-Chi's dalmatian, as chapter mascot. It was a professional rivalry between the two. Being the less principled member of the pair, Air-Wick resorted to some very unethical practices in his attempt to have the dalmatian ousted.

The "stinker" succeeded to the point of giving Smokey a complete nervous breakdown. She became violently ill, refused to eat, sulked in corners, and eventually reached the state of requiring psychiatric assistance. It became a question of who must leave, Smokey or Air-Wick. Smokey had seniority in the chapter roll book, but her illness had become extremely expensive.

And then, to the eminent relief of all parties concerned, Air-Wick suddenly announced his resignation. The "Hinsdale Skunks" needed a mascot. And off he trotted to join the New York State champion women's bucket brigade auxiliary of the Hinsdale Fire Department.

Alpha-Chi has had a busy and successful year. Our two most important events were the Founders' Day banquet and Dream Girl Ball. Dr. Garff Wilson, President of District 23, was the guest speaker at Founders' Day. Miss Dee Moriarity reigned over the Dream Girl Ball. Dee is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority at Syracuse, and her home is at 154 Park Avenue, Williamsport, Pa. She was presented with a trophy and sweetheart pin by Alpha-Chi's president, Frederick Warner.
