GUEST EDITORIAL—

THE SOCIAL FRATERNITY

By GEORGE LALANNE Administrative Assistant

The word social in connection with a fraternity is often taken to mean no more than the fact that the fraternity encourages parties. Parties are certainly social, but the word social is not limited to parties; it is much more. When used as an adjective in a broad sense, the word describes any interaction between one person and any given number of others whether that number be one or infinite.

Pi Kappa Alpha is a social fraternity because it encourages the interaction of people. It does so on the premise that contact with others will in the long run produce a better individual, an individual more suited to the responsibilities of citizenship, of career, of profession, and of vocation.

Success in any line of endeavor is directly related to other people. How could anyone be successful unless there were someone else available to use as a comparison in order to measure the degrees of success? The successful man is the one who knows how to get the most co-operation out of his fellowman. The social fraternity provides experience to the college man in this all important area by providing an atmosphere wherein many different personalities come together, each one providing a new experience in social contact.

The keeping of the social graces is another important aspect of the social fraternity. These too are all important to the man who wishes to be successful and there is no better place to practice the social graces than in the fraternity where one is among friends. Good manners are no more than a set of customs that make it easier for people to live with one another. Since college men will supposedly be associating with people later in life who are generally more successful than the non-college group, it is imperative that these men learn and practice good manners to fit all occasions, for as a general rule, the higher one climbs on the ladder of success, the more necessary his adherence to good manners becomes.

We live in a world of people, the more we know of them, the better off we are for it. Your fraternity provides an opportunity for you to know people better by living, working and playing together. This is why it is called a social fraternity. To confine the word social only to the activities which go with parties is to miss the true meaning and principle of the Social Fraternity.

ALPHA-SIGMA INSTALLED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Alpha-Sigma of Pi Kappa Alpha was installed on April 16th at Techau Tavern in San Francisco by P. Tulane Atkinson, Grand Secretary.

Owing to the fact that there were no alumni members of Pi Kappa Alpha to assist Brother Atkinson in installing the chapter, he initiated in the morning the following five men: B. P. Davis, F. G. Linde, R. P. Shields, Jr., W. D. Horner, and W. H. Snyder. These men assisted Brother Atkinson in administering the ritual to the remaining twenty-six initiates of the chapter.

The ceremonies of the evening were concluded by a banquet at which Brother Atkinson instructed the members as to the policies of the fraternity and ideals which Alpha-Sigma should uphold.

Three of the active members and petitioners from the Calimedico Club were unable, on account of sickness and absence from town, to be present at initiation; but will be initiated within the coming week. They are Harold Lynd Jensen, Graham Blair Moody, and Walter Penn Taylor.

THE FOUNDING OF ALPHA SIGMA

by Richard N. Miles

Calimedico, a local premedical fraternity on the University of California, sometime in the school year 1911-1912 started searching for a national fraternity with which to affiliate. This was only three years after the famed New Orleans Convention of 1909 had voted for the geographical extension of Pi Kappa Alpha beyond the South.

1909 was significant too from the standpoint of Calimedico for that year marked the beginning of the long, wondrous affiliation of Mrs. H. H. "Mother" Camper with the group that was to become Alpha-Sigma of Pi Kappa Alpha. It was in that year that "Mother" Camper first chaperoned a party for the future Pi Kappa Alpha's. This mutually affectionate association was accorded national recognition when she was honored by the fraternity at the 1938 convention in Los Angeles.

In 1912, after rejecting applications from several other local groups at the University of California, one was received at national headquarters from the Calimedico Club. Pi Kappa Alpha had been selected by the U. C. local after thorough checking of the various Greek fraternities which did not have chapters at the University. In April of that year P. Tulane Atkinson, Grand Secretary of PiKA, went West to investigate the Berkeley applicants.

Calimedico had its doubts that anything would come of the request because the fraternity had not expanded to the "Wild West". Brother Atkinson was given authority to charter virtually "on the spot" if in his opinion the local group met the standards and requirements of Pi Kappa Alpha. This truly was a unique responsibility and a tribute to the capabilities of this remarkable man.

He made his investigation and wired national headquarters with his recommendations. While the men of Calimedico anxiously waited, Marsden Blois, "Mugs" Clement and Bob Shields took him on a tour of San Francisco, seeing all of the highlight of that beautiful city across the bay from Berkeley. Brother Shields recalls that everyone was in such a dither awaiting the outcome of the acceptance by Pi Kappa Alpha that most of the other memories of the time were all but eclipsed. Finally on April 15, 1912 the welcome news came back—Calimedico was granted a charter as Alpha-Sigma of Pi Kappa Alpha! The following day the charter members were initiated with Brother Atkinson initiating the first five on the roll:

1. Brython "Parry" Davis (First SMC)
2. Frederick George Linde
3. Robert Patterson Shields
4. Warren Douglas Horner
5. William Harrison Snyder

These five then constituted a team for the purpose of initiating the remainder of the 28 charter members and four alumni of the Calimedico Club. According to Brother Shields the quintet was exhausted, having taken the better part of a day and all night to run so many through the ritual.

These charter members started Alpha-Sigma on its fine, fifty uninterrupted years of existence. Operating on the solid foundations provided by these men, the chapter has survived two wars and a depression without once ever having to close its doors. And, now, after fifty years, Alpha-Sigma of Pi Kappa Alpha looks forward to its celebration honoring these "Golden-Men". Our one regret on this 50th Anniversary is that Mother Camper did not quite live to see it, for this wonderful, and devoted member of our fraternity passed away last summer. Her loss, keenly felt by all, came just short of two milestones—her 100th birthday and Alpha-Sigma's 50th.

ALPHA RHO INSTALLED AT THE
OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Alpha-Rho Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha was installed at the Ohio State University on Saturday, March 30th, by John U. Field, chief of District No. 6 assisted by Bros. T. H. Burruss, James O'Rear, Carl C. Croft, L. E. Browder and William Collins from Omega Chapter, and Bros. Herbert Shaffer, Fred Lothar, H. L. Webster, M. B. Shepard, and W. L. Sylvester from Alpha-Xi Chapter. These men arrived in Columbus at 3 p.m. and proceeded at once to the chapter house of the local Delta Kappa Fraternity at 116 W. Ninth Avenue, where the members of the local were initiated and installed as a chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. In addition to the fourteen men who petitioned for the charter, four new pledges and five alumni were also initiated, making twenty-three in all. After the initiation a banquet was held at the Hartman Hotel. Brother Elton M. Kile acted as toastmaster, and toasts were responded to by Bros. Field, Burruss, Shaffer, King, and Hutsinpillar.

The Delta Kappa Fraternity was organized as a local at Ohio State University in February, 1908, and was granted a charter by the State of Ohio in April of the same year. There were thirteen charter members of this new organization and since organization thirty others have been initiated. All of these men, with the exception of one or two, who have not already been initiated into Pi Kappa Alpha, expect to be whenever they can get back to Columbus.

Since organizing, Delta Kappa has occupied two different houses. The one which now becomes the chapter house of Alpha-Rho is a modern brick house, situated two squares from the university. There are accommodations at the house for ten fellows, that number being there now. The boys own all of their own furniture, the house having been furnished for them at the beginning of this school year by their alumni.

HOW ALPHA RHO CAME TO BE

by Harry R. O'Brien

Come March 30, 1962, the 50th anniversary of the chartering of Alpha-Rho chapter will be celebrated. It is an historical fact that my name is No. 1 on the chapter roll, though as a matter of fact, I was the last one initiated that famous night and, in fact, my initiation was an anti-climax or afterthought.

But shucks—to the handful of us who were there in the beginning, we don't attach too much importance to the actual date of when we were chartered as Alpha-Rho. By now we are all old and as is the usual case, our minds go back to the four years which had come first. This was the period during which we established the old Delta Kappa local and slowly created a small niche in the fraternity world at Ohio State University. We came from Delta-Kappa to Pi Kappa Alpha as an already established, going concern.

So my story actually begins on Friday evening, February 21, 1908. Neil Hutsinpillar and I had attended a meeting of a campus literary society to which we belonged. As we walked across the campus afterward, we went by the Armory, where the Junior Prom was in progress. Neil and I went inside and up to the balcony, where we watched the dancers for awhile.

Down below us, the men in formal attire and the girls in their party gowns were swirling around. We knew a good many of them. It was evident that the big majority of the fellows were fraternity members and their girls were sorority members. We commented on it. We had never been invited to join a fraternity.

"Let's found our own fraternity", I said. "Fine, we'll do it", replied Neil. So we went over to his room, sat there until one in the morning and planned the whole thing. We made out a list of men to contact who might be possible members. A number of them were men in our literary society. That next Sunday afternoon, we started out to call on the men on our list and ask them to join us in organizing a new local fraternity.

ONLY 50 YEARS AGO

The first two who said they would go in, soon withdrew and can be forgotten. The next one, who thus became the third real member was Charlie Garvin, the late Charles R. Garvin. I believe that the fourth one was Elton M. Kile, who still lives over at Kileville, as he has all his born days.

The first meeting we had was on March 3 in Hutsinpillar's room. At the same place on March 14, we adopted the name Delta-Kappa for our new group and decided on a pin. Somebody scratched the design for that pin on the closet door and for all I know, it is there to this day.

I don't remember all these details, but I kept a diary for more than 50 years. Those early days are all embalmed in the pages of that diary.

It was a long and hard job to get going. Getting more members sometimes seemed like an impossible job. Then again, it was more easy. One Saturday afternoon in January, 1910, I watched an indoor track meet and became interested in a chap doing the high jump. He was also a member of the varsity basketball team. So I suggested him as a possible member.

He was quite agreeable to join us. And that is how we secured our first varsity athlete. This was Charles F. Ross, known to all of us in those days as Chuck. Since those days, in Alpha-Rho, we have had many a famous athlete among our members, such as Wesley Fesler and Gomer Jones, both of whom were All-American football players, and Ray Fesler, Wes's brother, who was a baseball player of great repute.

Our major trouble in those four years as a local was that hardly any of us had any money. In the beginning we couldn't afford to rent a house and operate it. This was one major handicap too in getting in new members. In the fall of 1909, we rented all the rooms available in a house near the campus. With this, we had the use of a large room on the first floor, for a social room, where we put in some furniture and a piano. The woman from whom we rented the rooms provided meals for us on the usual boarding house basis. We were here two years and it was during this period that we began to make headway.

The next step came in June, 1911, when we had a chance to rent an entire house on Ninth Avenue. There was just one thing to hinder. We would have to pay the rent on that house during the summer months—and no income from the rents of members.

Don't ever tell a soul, but I took over that house myself and I rented out the rooms to anyone I could get. By then I was a graduate student and was to spend the summer on the campus. In return for my summer's room rent, I looked after that house. Believe it or not, I made the beds, did the sweeping and dusting and whatnot. Come fall we had the house with no debts for back rent. The members moved in. We began our own dining room and kitchen. This was an important step for us.

My memory is that it was along in the fall of 1909, that John U. Field of Lexington, Ky., and someone else, came along and paid us a visit. He discussed with us the possibility of our petitioning for a chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha.

At that time we had been in communication with another national fraternity and we thought that we had better wait to see what developed there. Probably more important, we were not sure that we were ready to take on the responsibilities of a chapter of a national.

In January, 1912, we decided that the time had come for us to grow up and that Pi Kappa Alpha was the fraternity to which we ought to belong. Meanwhile, the Chapter at Cincinnati had been established.

I was put in charge as chairman of a committee to contact Pi Kappa Alpha once again. I wrote to John Field, told him what we had in mind and asked for instructions as to how to proceed. At his suggestion, I drew up a petition, asking for membership. With this, we included all the essential data about ourselves as a local and about each member.

That petition almost came to ruin. John Field's brother Bill went to town in a horse and buggy for the mail. On the way home, he lost the mail. He did remember that there was a large envelope from Columbus, Ohio. John knew what that was, so he wrote back, asking if I had a carbon. I did, so I made a new draft of it and sent it to him. That carbon is still in an old trunk in our attic.

The national officers of Pi Kappa Alpha looked kindly on us. So it came to pass that on March 30, John Field, some others from Kentucky and several members of the Cincinnati chapter came up, installed our Alpha-Rho chapter and duly initiated all of the Delta-Kappa members who were available.

I was so busy looking after things I didn't get initiated. We had a dinner downtown, as I remember. Afterward, it dawned on me that I hadn't been initiated. I raised a row. So as a last event of the day, about midnight, I was hastily taken through the ritual. We were off and away.

KEYS NATIONALLY KNOWN PHYSIOLOGIST

FEATURED ON "TIME" MAGAZINE'S
JANUARY COVER

Perhaps you were a GI during World War II and ate K rations in the field. Or, perhaps you have been overweight—until your wife showed you a story in Time magazine about a physiologist who believes that overweight leads to cholesterol deposits in the arteries, which may cause coronary disease. Or you may have read the best-seller, Eat Well and Stay Well.

What do all these things have in common? Ancel Keys, class of 1926 at the University of California, and now a professor of physiology at the University of Minnesota developed K rations (named after him), formulated the theory of the relation of cholesterol level, and wrote the book. He was featured on Time's cover last January. While at the University, Keys became a member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

His academic career has been a long and varied one. Keys majored in chemistry his freshman year, switched to economics, and graduated in two years. He then went to work for Woolworth's but quit in boredom. Returning to the University, he entered the school of zoology, and although he had never taken a col-

ALPHA-SIGMA . . .

Mother Camper Dies

By J. Marion Read

For almost half a century, the name "Mother Camper" has been on the tongues of the PiKaps of Alpha-Sigma Chapter. The period stretches to over half a century, for she was "Mother Camper" to the members of our precursory organization, the Calimedico Club.

It was in 1909 that we started our long love affair with Mother Camper. It happened that in the fall of that year we initiated two boys from Chico, "Bud" Horner and "Bryth" Davis. They had known Mrs. Camper while attending high school there, perhaps through her son, Ernest. We needed a chaperone for one of our dances, and Mrs. Camper accepted our invitation. She proved to be such a lively little person and so interested in our group that she was asked to chaperone several subsequent dances. Well, that did it! We took out informal adoption papers—or maybe she did. Anyway, it matters not. From then on she was "Mother Camper", and remained so to her dying day, of which we were all grieved to learn recently.

In addition to chaperoning our parties, Mother Camper worked with the Mother's Club and assisted the chapter in many other ways. But that was not all. She was counselor and "mother confessor" to any of us who needed her good and kindly advice, and sought it. In a similar capacity Mother Camper served our many members who were in the military services during World Wars I and II. She corresponded with each one who wrote to her and during those two wars wrote literally thousands of letters to our boys scattered over the face of the globe, and kept the chapter informed of where their brothers were and what they were doing. I believe that she kept the letters which she received. If so, it would be well to gather them together and preserve them as one of Alpha-Sigma's treasures.

After 29 years of such warm-hearted mothering of Alpha-Sigma Chapter, it was fitting that national recognition should be taken of Mother Camper's long devotion to us. This was accorded at the 70th Anniversary Convention of Pi Kappa Alpha held at the Los Angeles Ambassador. There, at the Convention Banquet on the night of August 29, 1938, when the annual Presentation of Awards was made, Mother Camper stood up and received a token of appreciation from our fraternity while the hundreds present applauded. This event appears on the official program only as "Formal Presentation to Mrs. H. H. (Mother) Camper" but that moment marked the pinnacle of her association with our fraternity and made it all official.

It was my good fortune to be present as a representative of our local Alumnus Chapter and to witness the pride and pleasure displayed by Mother Camper upon receiving the well-merited award. Naturally, I was proud to be her escort at the Dinner-Dance the following evening at the Coconut Grove.

I am certain that there are few fraternity chapters anywhere which can proudly point to a longer and more loving devotion than Mother Camper gave to Alpha-Sigma. The queen is dead; long live her memory in the hearts of our members and the annals of our fraternity.

lege biology course, Keys finished in six months.

Keys then took his master's and Ph.D. at Cal, and went to Cambridge University in England, where he was awarded a doctor of philosophy degree. He then embarked on a career as a teacher and has taught at the National Research Council, Copenhagen, Denmark; Cambridge; Harvard; and the Mayo Clinic. He then went to Minnesota, where he became a professor in the school of public health.

Keys has been a Fulbright scholar at Oxford. He is a member of the Minnesota Academy of Science, the American Health Association, the American Society of Biological Chemists, the International Society of Cardiologists, and Sigma-Xi, national scientific honorary. Keys is also a fellow of the American Public Health Association and a director of the American Society for the Study of Arteriosclerosis.

One important experiment which Keys has conducted was his study of Minnesota businessmen to see if the onset of general sickness could be accurately foretold by measuring weight, blood pressure, electrocardiogram and cholesterol count. His 286 subjects were aged 45 to 54 when the experiment began in 1946. Since then, 27 of the men have suffered heart attacks, 16 of them fatal. In 18 of the cases, Keys and his associates found high cholesterol counts. Keys says that the electrocardiogram is a poor predictor of cardiac ailments.

Keys also studied the eating habits and coronary death rates of middle-aged Japanese in Japan, Hawaii, and California. He found that native Japanese who eat a low-fat diet, only 13 per cent of their calories come from fat, have one heart attack for every four of the Hawaiian Japanese, and one for every ten of the California men studied.

"Fatty diets and the elevated blood cholesterol levels they induce are not the whole story," Keys says, "but there is much reason to believe that the majority of heart attacks in middle age in the United States may be attributable to this factor."

Keys and Margaret have three children—Carrie, Henry, and Martha. The family may be reached at Stadium Gate 27, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, 25.

The Epsilon Sigma Chapter of Kappa Alpha was installed on the campus of the University of Tennessee at Martin on December 9, 1961. Initiation was held in the First Baptist Church under the supervision of Earl Watkins, Executive Director. An installation banquet and dance was held at the Strata Club Saturday, December 10. There were thirty-nine brothers initiated in an impressive ceremony presided over by Brother Tom Wade, Sr., National Secretary.

Other outstanding alumni present were: Peter Pelham (Delta-Mu), President of District Seven; Tom Wade, (Zeta); Jeff Stone (Sigma); Gene Odum, Administrative Assistant; Hardy Moore Graham (Gamma Iota).

Initiation teams were present from the Epsilon Iota Chapter at Southeast Missouri State College at Cape Girardeau, Missouri and Epsilon Lambda Chapter at at Murray State, Murray, Kentucky. Brothers from Delta Zeta Chapter at Memphis State also attended the initiation and banquet. Guest speaker at the installation banquet was Robert D. Lynn, editor of the Shield and Diamond. Brother Hardy Moore Graham served as master of ceremonies. Other speakers were Peter Pelham and Dean Paul Meek of the University of Tennessee at Martin. Brother Watkins presented SMC Kent Reasons with a ballot box from the Supreme Council and a gavel from David C. Powers, National President.

The University of Tennessee at Martin is located in northwest Tennessee near the center of the area known as the Jackson Purchase. Within a radius of fifty miles are three great rivers: the Mississippi, the Ohio, and the Tennessee; also earthquake-formed Reelfoot Lake and the largest of the TVA lakes; an area of unexcelled national attractions for boating, fishing, picnicking, and other wholesome recreation; an area which witnessed the renowned exploits of the Chickasaw Indian, the Tennessee pioneers and of Davy Crockett and Andrew Jackson.

The University of Tennessee, Martin, grants degrees in Education, Business Education, Agriculture, Home Economics and Liberal Arts. In addition to the degree programs, the university offers curricula in Business Administration and Engineering. The campus of the university is one of the most beautiful in the state, consisting of seventy acres shaded by large oaks and other native trees with well-kept lawns and shrubbery.

Martin, a city of 5,000, is known for its long interest in higher education and religious development. The city is served by excellent highways, two railroads, and two bus lines.

Epsilon-Sigma Chapter began on the University of Tennessee, Martin campus in the winter of 1960 under the name of Pi Kappa Local Fraternity. Brother Tom Wade's influence and help at this time proved invaluable to the new local. The local fraternity took part in such activities as donating food baskets to needy families at Thanksgiving and erecting concrete benches at various spots on the campus, keeping uppermost in mind a dream of becoming an active chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha.

The brothers of Epsilon-Sigma Chapter sincerely thank each chapter personally for the telegrams we received during our installation and express our appreciation to the initiation teams and to the alumni present.

Now, as our dream has been achieved, the brothers of Epsilon-Sigma Chapter hope to make our chapter a leading chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. The brothers of this chapter are looking forward to working and cooperating with the brothers of other chapters in the bonds of Pi Kappa Alpha.

LANCE ALWORTH, a triple-threat University of Arkansas halfback and one of the nation's most elusive runners, was Pi Kappa Alpha's greatest gridder of 1961.

Few players in football's long history have authored a three-year record so brilliantly. It was climaxed with his selection to All-America squads chosen by The Associated Press, United Press International and Look Magazine.

Another Pike also was named to the AP and UPI All-America squads. He was Larry Vignali of the University of Pittsburgh, regarded for two seasons as one of the finest guards in the East.

Alworth and Vignali head an excellent cast of performers chosen for the Pi Kappa Alpha All-America team of 1961. The team:

Ends—Ron Vaughn, University of California, and Wayne Holley, Howard College of Alabama.

Tackles—Pete Case, University of Georgia, and William (Bucky) Wegener, University of Missouri.

Guards—Jeff Jonas, University of Utah, and Larry Vignali, University of Pittsburgh.

Center—Mike Lucci, University of Tennessee.

Backs—Randy Gold, University of California; Jim Costen, University of South Carolina; Lance Alworth, University of Arkansas; and Al Taylor, North Carolina State College.

All are seniors except Holley, Gold and Vaughn. The Midwest, Pacific Coast, Southwest, East, Rocky Mountain area and the South are represented. Case and Alworth are repeaters from the 1960 team.

For Alworth, this is the third time he has been honored with selection to the fraternity's All-Star team. Only 11 other players have been chosen each of their varsity years during the 35 years that a fraternity All-Star team has been picked.

He also had the unusual experience of playing in post-season major bowl games each year—in the Gator Bowl as a sophomore, in the Cotton Bowl as a junior and against Alabama in the Sugar Bowl last New Year's Day. He also was chosen as the outstanding player in the Hula Bowl at Honolulu early last January.

Alworth, who is married and has a son, is president of his senior class. He has a better than B average in his pre-law studies and was chosen on the All-Southwest Conference academic team. He plans to play professional football next season with the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

The 21-year-old six-footer, who weighs 177 pounds, had a total offense yardage last season of 1,570. He carried 110 times for 516 yards, completed two of seven passes for 63 yards, caught 18 passes for 320 yards, punted 32 times for a 35.2 average, returned one interception for 35 yards, returned 28 punts for 336 yards, returned 13 kickoffs for 300 yards and scored five touchdowns. For the last two seasons he has led the nation in punt returning.

"Magnificent Lance Alworth led Arkansas to a 21-7 victory over Southern Methodist University," an AP sportswriter wrote in starting his story of that game. That's the feeling the fans had for him in the Southwest.

1961 ALL PiKA FOOTBALL TEAM

Besides the quartet chosen for the backfield posts on the fraternity team, Billy Gambrell of South Carolina, Lewis Everette of Hampden-Sydney and Joe Rockhold of San Diego State also turned in fine performances.

Jim Costen was No. 1 among an all-Pike quarterbacking group at South Carolina that included 140-pound Tommy Pilcher and pledge Dave Sowell. Although Gambrell was selected on the sportswriters' All-Atlantic Conference team, Costen was named to the PiKA team because he had a major hand in directing the Gamecocks to a number of spectacular triumphs and because he also was an excellent runner and passer.

In the Gamecocks' surprise win over Maryland, Costen fired the go-ahead touchdown pass to Gambrell and also passed for the final TD. In between, he made a 49-yard run on another march that ended with Gambrell scoring. Costen scored two of the three touchdowns in the triumph over Clemson, Carolina's arch rival. One of these came after scooping up a teammate's fumble. He scored twice in the win over Vanderbilt and shook loose for a 69-yard run against Wake Forest.

Al Taylor, who led North Carolina State in rushing in 1960, had another good year last season. He lugged the ball 48 times and averaged better than three yards a carry. He also caught 17 passes for 96 yards and one touchdown.

Randy Gold, tabbed last year as the fraternity's finest football pledge, was California's biggest offensive threat. His passing—including four completions in one 78-yard touchdown drive—helped bring California a 14-14 tie with favored Missouri, with Gold scoring. (Al Nelson's 77-yard run set up another TD. He had a 70-yard run against UCLA.)

On a keeper play, Gold scored California's only touchdown against Stanford and passed for the Golden Bears' only tally against Kansas. He topped the "Big Five" league in completions, was third in yardage. He is tied for third in all time California passing with 106 completions in 204 attempts. Like Alworth, he is a good student, winning selection on the "All Big Five Academic Team."

Mike Lucci—216, 6-foot-2 and fast—was named All-Southeastern Conference center by the AP, and later played in the Blue-Gray post-season game. His teammates elected him permanent 1961 captain of the Tennessee Volunteers and voted him the top lineman.

One Knoxville sportswriter had this to say of Lucci:

"On offense, Mike is the second most valuable cog in the Tennessee offense, rating just behind the tailback. Lucci is even better on defense. His speed makes him tough on pass defense. He tackles well, diagnoses plays competently and often comes up with the game's big play."

Vignali, chosen for the last two years on the AP's All-East selection at guard, was one of the standouts of a Pitt team that tackled some of the best clubs in the country.

Named at the other guard post is Jeff Jonas, who had a fine three-year record at Utah. Jonas is the first son to be named to the All-Star team whose father made the select group, being named on the fraternity team three times. His father, Marvin Jonas, a center, was chosen on the fraternity teams of 1928-29-30 and also was named a few years ago to the All-Time Pi Kappa Alpha All-America squad. Actually, so far as this writer can recall, Jeff is the first son of any previous selectee to be chosen.

Both Jonas and Vignali—along with Lucci and Alworth—were named on the San Francisco Examiner's All-America selection. Jonas was chosen on an All-America squad selected by Football News. He also was named on the Skyline Conference All-Academic football team. Besides his other chores, Jonas did the punting for the Utes. His coach, Ray Nagel, had this to say:

"Jeff has been one of our most outstanding players for the past three years. He was our starting left guard in both his junior and senior years and was considered one of the best linebackers in the conference."

Pete Case was the strong rock of the Georgia line. He had to carry an even larger burden this year than last because the Athens Bulldogs were not as strong.

In mid-November, Auburn's assistant coach, Joe Conally, had this to say about Case, Georgia's captain: "He's the best tackle Auburn has met."

Bucky Wegener gets the "Comebacker-of-the-Year" nod. One of Missouri's tri-captains last year, he injured his foot in a lawn mower accident and was unable to play. But after a year's layoff, he returned and soon won back his starting assignment at tackle.

After Missouri's 10-0 win over Nebraska, an Omaha sportswriter wrote: "Wegener was the big man in the winner's line, clearing the way on Russell's touchdown burst, and earning credit for 10 tackles."

The 225-pound tackle deflected an Oklahoma State pass into the hands of a Missouri player who raced for the game's only touchdown.

Two juniors—Wayne Holley of Howard and Ron Vaughn of California—got the call at the wings.

Holley's coach, Bobby Bowden, says: "I can sum up the type of ball player he is with one word and that is 'tough'."

Bowden, himself chosen on the PiKA All-America a decade ago, noted that Holley, a 6-footer who weighs 190 pounds, caught 6 passes for 77 yards. He was co-captain.

Dillon Graham, AH,
Washington Associated Press
Correspondent.

"He has been our most valuable lineman. He has a tremendous amount of desire and is 'hard-nose.' Where he really excelled for us was on defense. He put in more playing time than any other player."

Vaughn's coach, Marv Levy, described him as "a very tough, eager and intelligent player."

A 210-pounder, who stands 6-foot-3, Vaughn caught 8 passes for 81 yards. His teammates voted him the most improved lineman on the team.

There were seven other linemen whose play last season was so good that they might well have been named to the All-

America team. They were Bob Butler of Kentucky, Staley Faulkner of Texas, and Jerry Mazzanti of Arkansas; Guards Bill Haas of Auburn and Doug Graham of California, and Centers Bill McCartney of Missouri and Stan Parkinson of California.

Mazzanti, Lucci and Vignali, were named to the fraternity's All-America squad last year when a squad rather than an 11-man team was chosen. Also named then was Joe Rockhold, an end at San Diego State. He shifted to fullback last season and performed well.

Pikes numbered 10 players on the California squad and 13 on the Hampden-Sydney aggregation. Among the Californians was Stan Parkinson at center who won his third letter and was named by California's co-eds as King Football. That brought him a kiss from California's Football Queen. Doug Graham also lettered for three years at guard.

A number of Pikes were drafted by one or both of the professional football leagues. These included Alworth, who signed with San Diego; Lucci, who signed with the Cleveland Browns; Jim Costen, Washington; Larry Vignali, Pittsburgh; Bucky Wegener, St. Louis Cardinals; Pete Case, Houston and Philadelphia; Bob Butler, Philadelphia and Jerry Mazzanti, Philadelphia.

Rip Engle, whose Penn State team won 7 out of 10 and beat Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl last New Year's Day, is our choice for Pi Kappa Alpha Coach of the Year.

Alworth, becoming the 12th player in 35 years to be chosen on the fraternity team for three straight years, joins these others in that select group:

Wesley Fesler, Ohio State end; George Stears, Purdue tackle; Cal Shawley, Penn State tackle; and Marvin Jonas, Utah center, 1928-29-30. Mike Mikulak, Oregon back, 1931-32-33. Mario Pacetti, Wisconsin guard, and Duane Purvis, Purdue back, 1932-33-34. Jimmy Nelson, Alabama back, 1939-40-41; Glenn Dobbs, Tulsa back, 1940-41-42, and Ed Rutsch, George Washington tackle, and Alex Hawkins, South Carolina back, 1956-57-58.

Honorable mention for the 1961 season goes to these players:

Ends: Jay Rasmussen, Utah; Don Montgomery and Les Young, North Carolina State; Fred Cook, Presbyterian; Jerry Thompson, Stephen F. Austin State College; Dan Sebastian, (P), Miami of Ohio; Jim Gilbert (P) and Don Heldt (P), Toledo; Joey Viars and Ken Reverly, Hampden-Sydney; Loren Hawley, California; Al McBeth, San Diego State; and Ed Leiness, Wake Forest.

Tackles: Tom Dowling, Georgetown; Bill Siekierski (P), Missouri; Bob Butler, Kentucky; Staley Faulkner, Texas; Don Barber, Stephen F. Austin State; Wally Thiel, Drake; Russ Hoogenhorn, co-captain and Pete Benedict (P), Toledo; Bob Tooke, Missouri Mines; Tom Wood, George Perkins, Ken Pritchard and Tim Butler, all of Hampden-Sydney; and Jerry Mazzanti, Arkansas.

Guards: Joe Martin, Georgia; Dave Bogart, Georgetown; Mick Schmidt, New Mexico University; Tom Smith, Missouri; Bill Haas, Auburn; David Harrill, Presbyterian; Bonwell Royāl (P), Howard; Steve Horning (P), Miami of Ohio; Roger Novak, Kansas State; Tom McCartney, co-captain, Harry Keller and Chule Weaver, all of Toledo; Jim Teske, Missouri Mines; Otis Bradley and Tom Little, Hampden-Sydney; Doug Graham, Sam Stassi and John Stassi, all of California; Tom Ramey, East Tennessee State captain; Walt Cubley, San Diego, and Leland Stack (P), Oklahoma State.

Centers: Bill McCartney, Missouri; Stan Parkinson, California; George Fenstermacher, Utah; Eddie Stokes, New Mexico University; Joe Craven, North Carolina; Carl Shepard (P), Howard; Lynn Wiggins, Carl Rogers and Don Bell, all of Stephen F. Austin State; Bill Griffith (P), Miami of Ohio; William Ware, Louisiana Tech; Bill Steed, Hampden-Sydney; Bill Carlisle, Wake Forest; and Ron Dardurand (P), Toledo.

Backs: Billy Gambrell, Tommy Pilcher and Dave Sowell (P), all of South Carolina; Charles Gauspohl (P), Georgetown; George Kennedy, New Mexico University; John Flournoy and Roger Smith, North Carolina; Joe Nixon, Bill Tyson and Richard Alderman, Presbyterian; Ronnie Redd, Stephen F. Austin State; David McGaughy, Lamar Tech; Patrick Shows, Louisiana Tech; Lou Gatta, Drake; Lewis Everette, Freddie Mitchell, Stuart Shelton, and Tom Treadway, all of Hampden-Sydney; Al Nelson, Jack Trumbo, Jon Epps, Jess Pittore and Bill Newsom, all of California; Dick Kern, William and Mary; Larry Berrong, East Tennessee State; Joe Rockhold and Jim Stauber, San Diego State; and James Williams, Wake Forest.

J. Willard Owens, associate professor of English at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blackburg, Virginia, won the first place award for columnists on Virginia weekly newspapers for the year 1961. The competition is sponsored by the Virginia Press Association.

Brother Owen, who also conducts a weekly radio news program over WBCR, Christianburg, Virginia, writes his award-winning column for the MONTGOMERY NEWS MESSENGER, the county newspaper in Christianburg.

A member of the Gamma Chapter, William and Mary, Owen received his Masters Degree in English from Columbia University. He joined the Virginia Tech faculty in 1937.

CANNED FOODS FOR DEFENSE

Canned foods are essential to Civil Defense, it was stated by Milan D. Smith, Alpha-Tau (Utah), Executive Vice President of the National Canners Association, in an address before members of the National Meat Canners Association, meeting in their 42nd Annual Convention.

The Civil Defense authorities have acknowledged this fact in their literature recommending what emergency food supplies the public should use, ever since 1955 when the canning industry exposed 25,000 samples of more than 60 commonly used canned items to the rigors of a nuclear explosion on the Atomic Energy Commission's proving grounds at Yucca Flat, he stated.

Mr. Smith gave particulars of a recent program worked out by his Association with the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company to provision an industrial shelter. It supplies a 2,000 to 2,200 calorie per-man-per-day intake, for a two-week period, he said. Out of 50 food items, exclusive of gum and lozenges, 33 are canned, he explained, and these include nine fruits or fruit juices, seven vegetables, eight entree items (including ham, corned beef, spaghetti and meat balls, chicken, bacon, tuna, shrimp), four soups, three bread or cake and two beverages.

"The most unique feature of the project is the fact that the emergency foods need not wait in dead storage against the fatal day of attack. If a firm has an in-plant feeding operation, the shelter supplies can be budgeted through that account—the foods rotated at intervals in and out of the shelter into the company cafeteria program. Thus, the emergency stock is fluid, is moving, and will be consumed whether we have a nuclear attack or not," he stated.

In this plan food storage and handling space are not in excess of 900 cubic feet. To guard against possible loss of water supply a food selection has been made that will provide all primary liquid needs within the foods themselves. And the provisioning has been worked out at a low cost—$1.21 per man per day as compared with an average of $3.50 for previous similar operations. Approximately 68 percent of this total is spent for canned foods, he explained.

"All of a sudden the apathy towards fallout shelters and emergency food supplies has given way to newspaper headlines, magazine articles, new products and survival kits at retail sale," said Mr. Smith. "We are proud that canned foods are ready, have been tested and found resistant to blast and fallout damage, and are being recommended by the authorities for use not only in industrial shelters, but by private householders as well.

"Down through the years canned foods have met the emergency demands of three depressions, crises like floods and droughts, two wars and mobilization periods," he stated. "They are ready and established for effective utilization in any over-all emergency that might confront the nation in these threatening times," he asserted.

Fifty-Nine Years In Pi Kappa Alpha

Commodore William W. Hargrave, 104 Fable Avenue, Portsmouth, Virginia, has completed fifty-nine years of happy membership in Pi Kappa Alpha since his initiation by Pi Chapter at Washington and Lee University in 1903. He subsequently attended the Medical College of Virginia where he earned his M.D. degree.

He then entered the U. S. Navy Medical Corps and served through the various grades until his retirement in 1949 after thirty-six years of service. He specialized in internal medicine and cardiology.

Who's Who lists him as having served as chief of the Diagnostic Clinic of the U. S. Naval School, Washington, D. C., as Atlantic Fleet medical officer, as commander of several hospitals in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii during World War II among other assignments. He received the Legion of Merit for his work in Pearl Harbor.

After retirement from the Navy, he served for ten years with the Virginia State Department of Health. He and his wife, the former Harriet Whaley of Charleston, South Carolina, have four children and eleven grandchildren. He holds the permanent rank of Commodore.

DEBATE BAIT*

By Stewart S. Howe

SOMETHING must be done, right away, to wise-up local Undergraduate Interfraternity Council leaders, and the officers of individual fraternity and sorority chapters, to not accommodate a device which is currently being more frequently and widely used by the fraternity system's enemies at universities and colleges across the country. The device: fraternity and sorority undergraduates are being persuaded to debate on such loaded topics as: "Should Greek Letter Societies Be Allowed to Practice Discrimination?" and "Has the Fraternity System a Right to Survive?" Advocates of the negative proposition are busily pointing out the audience interest in such a debate feature to campus community radio and TV station program managers and finding opportunities to suggest a variation of the idea to the program chairman of campus organizations. Even when the undergraduate fraternity participants are effective debaters, and may be as well supplied with material to be prepared for such public appearances as are their usually verbally-glib opponents, the mere act of cooperating to provide the fraternity system's detractors with platforms and opportunities to widely publicize and universalize their arguments is extremely unwise, of course. Why this is so must be explained to inexperienced undergraduates who, too often, naively welcome such challenges on the proposition that it is "good publicity" for them, personally, or for the Greekletter societies, or they are deluded by the idealistic idea that such debate is "fair play" to better acquaint the public with the points of both sides of the decidedly negative proposition.

Kentucky Rolls Out Blue Grass Carpet

*PiKA 94th Anniversary Convention
August 26-29, 1962*

KENTUCKY, the fabulous land of tradition and romance, will host the Ninety-fourth Anniversary Convention of Pi Kappa Alpha August 26-29, 1962. Louisville, the state's largest city, will be the site with the Sheraton Hotel serving as headquarters.

Ever since Daniel Boone hacked his way across the mountains and returned with glowing stories of the opportunities in the region, it has been called "The Land of Tomorrow". Over the years its very name came to be associated with charm, with graciousness, with tradition—the fabled land of Bluegrass, of "My Old Kentucky Home", the Kentucky Derby and thoroughbred horses.

Host chapters will be historic Kappa at Transylvania College, Omega at the University of Kentucky, and Alpha-Lambda at Georgetown College. Lexington, the site of the Leadership School, August 23-26, was the convention city in 1913.

General Chairman Joe Guess of Louisville will be assisted by committee chairmen Arthur I. Miller, Ralph D. Brockmeier, N. T. Armstrong, Robert L. Butler, Robert J. Gibson, Michael J. Ryan, Randall L. Fox, and Lloyd G. Schleicher.

The complete program will be presented in the June issue of THE SHIELD AND DIAMOND magazine. Outstanding events include the National Dream Girl Ball on Tuesday evening, August 28th. Chairman Randall Fox and his committee are arranging for five hundred beautiful Kentucky belles as dates. Trips to famous horse farms and historic sites will be part of the program.

Courtly Kentucky Colonels will literally roll out the Blue Grass Carpet for Pi Kappa Alpha in August. This land of southern hospitality beckons each of you.

Replica of the log cabin in which Lincoln was born. The original is housed within the pink granite and marble memorial building in the Lincoln Memorial Historical Park near Hodgenville, Kentucky. Lincoln was born on this farm in 1809.

OUR COUNTRY

By The Reverend John Barclay, K.
The National Chaplain

DURING 1962 I had unusual opportunities to see our country from different points of view and I had several opportunities to compare and contrast it with other countries. All of these experiences have brought to me a new and deeper appreciation of this—OUR LAND OF THE FREE.

I was invited to be the Protestant minister to give one of the prayers at the inauguration of President Kennedy and Vice-President Johnson on last January 20th. It was my third inauguration but the first one in which I was ever on the speaking side of the microphone. It was a great thrill to me to sit there in the midst of the great of our land. I was within fifteen feet of the outgoing President and Vice-President, of ex-President and Mrs. Truman, the new President and Vice-President and their wives, of the nine justices of the Supreme Court, the incoming Cabinet, and many other of the leading personalities of our land. I was tremendously impressed by their cordiality and this thorough-going human side of great men. I felt that here is our American democracy in practice. On many social occasions as the luncheon following the inauguration, the inaugural balls, and viewing the parade from the President's stand, I was continuously impressed by the total impact of the ideal that democracy deposits across their growing years in the lives of these outstanding American leaders. I could not help but feel that the great ideal of democracy as it was most profoundly portrayed by Thomas Jefferson in the early days has come to full fruition in our time.

I have known the Vice-President for two decades but it was the first time I had met President Kennedy or Secretary of State Rusk. These are the first three men in the administration. Two of them rose to their present states of eminence through the hard way of the pursuit of higher education and giving of themselves to their country's service without being adequately financed. The President, of course, never had to consider this problem of money. But where greatness touched the three in the same way was this—they each knew that money was not the important thing, either to help or to hinder. If men get an education, there is just one procedure; that is, to study, to work, to give oneself to the task with great concentration. These three men all came out on this high level of greatness through study and work and sacrificial devotion to the ideals which they accepted in their youth.

Then in February I began to have an opportunity to think about our country from contrasting situations in our world. I went to Jamaica on a three weeks' preaching mission. Jamaica, as you know, is a British possession made up 97½% of people of African descent, who have developed a race whom they call Jamaicans. They speak with a British accent. All of their educational and political outlook and manners are oriented toward the British. They are a poor people. Their average income is less than one-tenth of our own. And yet, the Jamaicans have a passion for education and are getting it. They have a fine attitude of respect toward the courts and all people in authority. They are a reflection in every sense of the British ideal of life, both individually and as a new nation. I was happy in Jamaica at their attitude toward our country. They had respect for the United States but they did not mean to be in any way subservient to us. They are worthy of their independence. They have regular political elections and they strive to follow democratic ideals. I have a profound respect for Jamaica.

Then in October, I went to Spain on a preaching mission to the air force bases. I had been in Spain before but here in four preaching missions in four parts of the country, I had a new and wider opportunity to see Spain in contrast to our own country.

Spain is under a dictator of the right. Franco is a Falangist, which is a type of fascism. He has been a dictator in his country now for 25 years and has never permitted the people to vote on him. In 1944 in the midst of the second world war, someone proposed to Mr. Roosevelt that the election of a president should be put off until the war was over. It is reported that Mr. Roosevelt laughed out loud because he felt the very idea was so ridiculous. We believe in constitutional government and strive to follow it to the best of our ability. This is one of the deep meanings of our country. But in Spain there are many signs of the fears that come to the minds of dictators. This very act of not permitting the people to speak their approval through an election is enough to make a man wonder if they really want him. So, everywhere in Spain you see Franco's soldiers. You go through a village or a town and always as you enter and as you leave, you find two soldiers, uniformed in green, with rifles. They go always in twos. Yes, they have had peace in Spain for 25 years, but it is a peace based on fear and force. In Spain the Boy Scout organization is not permitted to function. In Spain the Masonic Lodge is outlawed. Here rules a dictator of the right.

When I left Spain I went on a personal tour of Yugoslavia where for a shorter time I lived under the dictator of the left—Tito. Since he came to supreme power in Yugoslavia following the second world war, he has not permitted the people of Yugoslavia to vote on him. However, Yugoslavia is far better than any other Communist country because they do not try to completely brainwash their people. You can buy on the newsstands in the cities of Yugoslavia, American, German, French, and English newspapers, and magazines from many countries. You can buy books in the open book stores in many languages and on most any subject.

The University of Texas had two exchange professors in the University of Belgrade. And they have a mixed economy encouraging free enterprise of small industries and businesses. Nevertheless it is a form of dictatorship.

When one has lived six weeks under dictatorships of the right and the left, he comes to a new appreciation and a deeper love for his own country and the whole free world. There are some great phrases that I appreciate now more than ever before, such as: majority rule, the consent of the governed, free elections, the duty of law observance, and the privilege of paying taxes to support such a government.

May every year of all our lives make this kind of a contribution to our thinking about our own beloved country.

Dale J. Bellamah

BELLAMAH HONORED

By STEVE CAINE, BA

Dale J. Bellamah, BA (New Mexico) 47, president of Dale Bellamah Homes of Albuquerque, N. M., was one of 12 businessmen in the United States selected to receive an American Success Story Award.

The Southwestern builder received the award as an example of success possible under the American democratic system.

Bellamah began his business life with a borrowed $250. He began building homes in 1947, when he constructed three. In a few short years he was one of the world's largest home builders.

He builds about 1,000 homes a year in nine Southwestern cities. His corporations deal in home building, land development, rental housing, shopping centers, and other enterprises operating in four western states. They gross more than $50 million annually.

Bellamah is the son of Lebanese immigrants and he worked at 13 to support them. He is a veteran of World War II and a graduate of the University of New Mexico. He worked his way through high school and college.

The awards are sponsored by the Free Enterprise Awards Association Inc. It is a non-profit corporation chartered in the state of New York to promote incentive and champion the cause of the American democratic system.

The awards were presented at a banquet at the Savoy Hilton Hotel in New York City.

Hall Heads Dade County Schools

Dr. Joe C. Hall, AH (Florida), is currently serving as superintendent of Dade County schools. This is the top rung of the ladder which he began climbing at age six when he entered an Alabama grammar school. He has successively been a student, champion college athlete, physical education teacher, coach, principal, state school supervisor, and associate superintendent. His present school system is the seventh largest in the nation.

Education has been his entire life. Brother Hall recently stated: "The vocation of the teacher is the most important one in man's long quest for civilization, progress and enlightenment." He has always insisted on more than just mediocrity and regularly warns parents: "We owe it to our students and to our democratic society to accept only the best from children even though enforcement of this standard may be difficult and trying."

Dr. Hall attended Martha Berry Schools, Rome, Georgia and received his AB degree from the University of Florida. He earned a Master's degree from New York University and his doctorate from Florida State. He and his wife, the former Ella Faye Price, live with their five children in Coral Gables, Florida where he recently was elected president of the Kiwanis Club.

Bill Crosby

BILL CROSBY NEW ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

William J. Crosby, AI (Millsaps), has been appointed Administrative Assistant according to announcement by Executive Director Earl Watkins. He joins Bunky Joye and George Lalanne as "traveling servicemen" for the fraternity.

Brother Crosby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Crosby of Indianola, Mississippi. While at Millsaps College he served as pledgemaster and SMC of the chapter. He lettered in football for three years and was vice president of both the sophomore and the senior classes. After majoring in sociology, he received his degree in June, 1961.

He received an appointment as Resident Counselor and enrolled in the graduate school at the University of Iowa. His leadership and counsel assisted the chapter greatly in the fall of 1961.

Bill says he enjoys bowling, reading, swimming and skiing. He is a member of the Methodist Church.

Colorado College Housemother in 90th Year

We recently learned that Mrs. Charles Nedrow, former housemother for Beta-Rho Chapter at Colorado College, is now living at 401 S. Seneca, Wichita, Kansas. Mother Nedrow is in her ninetieth year. She served as housemother for about three years near 1940. She would be very pleased to hear from some of the alumni who were in Beta-Rho Chapter during the time she served as housemother.

Introducing — Pi Kappa Alpha Colony Eastern Illinois University

Greetings! We would like to take this opportunity to acquaint you with the Pi Kappa Alpha Colony at Eastern Illinois University. The brothers of the newest Pi K A colony wish to express their greetings to the men of Pi Kappa Alpha, and sincerely thank you for all the interest you have shown and for the work you have done in enabling us to become a colony of Pi K A.

Eastern Illinois University is a school of approximately 3,440, located in Charleston in east central Illinois. Predominantly a teacher education school, Eastern ranks high among similar schools throughout the nation. Seven national Fraternities and four national Sororities are located on campus and their activities set the pace for all of Eastern's student social life.

Our chapter has long been active on campus, having existed as a local Fraternity for several years until 1948. The group began to plan for the day when it could "Go Pike." The group selected Pi Kappa Alpha because it represented all the ideals that the members desired in and expected from a Fraternity. After nearly four years of negotiation, the opportunity which we had worked for finally arrived, and we were inducted as a Pi Kappa Alpha Colony by Charles Freeman, former National Treasurer, and the men of the Beta-Eta Chapter (Illinois) just before the Christmas, 1961, holidays.

With such a long and varied history, it was natural that our chapter should be very active in campus life. We take a very active part in Homecoming and in the Greek Week Festivities. The brothers devote quite a bit of time during the year to the sponsoring of two of the most popular events on campus, the Sadie Hawkins Dance and the All-Greek Stunt Night. A balanced program of coke hours, parties, and picnics continues throughout the year, and each May our social season is climaxed with our Orchid Ball. Social life fits well with athletic and scholastic achievement in our chapter. Our intramural teams continue to turn in high point totals and for the last four years we have ranked either first or second in the Fraternity scholastic ratings. The officers who are instrumental in making our chapter tick are Don McMorris, president; "Chip" Winnett, Vice-president; Mike Merry, Secretary; and Jim Hall, treasurer. The smooth operation of our colony rests with these men who are best qualified to help us uphold the ideals of Pi K A.

No story of our chapter would be complete without a word about our Alumnus Counselor, Dr. Leonard Durham. A Pi Kappa Alpha alumnus of Alpha-Alpha (Duke) and Beta-Eta (Illinois) Chapters, Dr. Durham's work has been instrumental in accomplishing our present relationship with Pike. We salute Dr. Durham as a fine individual and a fine Pi K A.

We hope that this brief background will be informative and helpful in getting to know us a little better. We hope that you will always feel free to stop at our colony house so that we may get to know you too. We again want to thank you for accepting us as a colony. We eagerly look forward to a great future as a chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha.

John Dorsel Ordained at Louvain, Belgium

By Jack Gunderman

The Roman Catholic Priesthood recently gained the devoted service of a Pi Kappa Alpha alumnus when John Frederick Dorsel was ordained at the University of Louvain, Louvain, Belgium.

Brother Dorsel was pledged to Alpha-Xi Chapter of the Fraternity at the University of Cincinnati in 1949. He was an active member and officer throughout the five years of his College of Business Administrative course. He served as secretary, social chairman, and public relations chairman.

Brother Dorsel's mother was an active member and president of the Alpha-Xi Chapter Mothers' Club. She did much to enact a successful program of remodeling the chapter house interior.

Following his graduation from the University of Cincinnati in 1954, Brother Dorsel entered St. Mary's Seminary, St. Marys, Kentucky, to begin preparation for the priesthood. After three years of study there, he was selected by the Bishop of Covington, Kentucky, diocese to continue his studies at American College, University of Louvain, Louvain, Belgium.

In vacation periods during his four years at the American College, John toured the Vatican, Egypt, and the Holy Land, plus fifteen European countries. He also met the well-known American Catholic leader, Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, who had obtained a graduate degree from American College.

Father Dorsel was ordained at Louvain on June 25, 1961. Following the ordination ceremony, he and his parents traveled through several European countries, including Germany, where they visited with Joseph Schodemeier and his family. Herr Schodemeier had been a guest of Alpha-Xi Chapter for a year, about ten years previously, while he was an exchange student at the University of Cincinnati. One of Herr Schodemeier's prized possessions was a neatly-arranged photo album depicting his year spent with the Pikes at Cincinnati. He now lives with his wife, Gisela, and his son, Martin, near Cologne, Germany.

After returning to the United States, Father Dorsel went to his home in Park Hills, Kentucky, for the first time since his departure for Belgium four years previously. He then said his First Solemn High Mass at St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption, in Covington, Kentucky, on July 30, 1961.

Following the First Solemn High Mass,

John Dorsel, AΣ

a reception was held at the Frank V. Benton, Jr. residence in Park Hills for Father Dorsel's many Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity brothers, his relatives, and other friends. Frank V. Benton, Jr. also shares a great interest in Pi Kappa Alpha as an alumnus of Alpha-Rho Chapter at Ohio State University.

Father Dorsel has been assigned as a parish priest at St. Peter's Church, 153 Barr Street, Lexington, Ky. When first notified of his assignment to Lexington, he recalled that his first major Pi Kappa Alpha assignment, twelve years previously, was to obtain the autograph of the S.M.C. at Omega Chapter at the University of Kentucky in Lexington.

Father Dorsel has always held high regard for his membership in Pi Kappa Alpha and for the many fine members of the Fraternity whom he has met. He now intends to renew his close association with the Fraternity through Omega Chapter, as well as Alpha-Xi Chapter, and has expressed a desire to hear from his many Pi Kap friends located throughout the World.

Morrison Selected For Honor Society

James Kent Morrison, A (Virginia), of Cocoa, Florida, has been selected for membership into Phi Pi Theta, the Jefferson Society at the University of Virginia. Phi Pi Theta was founded at the University of Virginia in 1825 as the second oldest Greek-letter society in the United States. Since then it has numbered among its members many outstanding individuals of national note, among whom are Marquis LaFayette, James Madison, James Monroe, Edgar Allen Poe, Oscar Underwood, Woodrow Wilson and many others.

The society annually invites into membership upperclassmen and faculty who have proven themselves outstanding as members of the university community. These individuals must have demonstrated unusual capacity for leadership and personal integrity in either university or national affairs.

Morrison, who will receive his Bachelor of Arts degree in foreign affairs in June, 1962, was chosen for membership due to his truly outstanding career as a student at the university.

He is currently serving as SMC of Alpha Chapter, and is chairman of the governing board of the Interfraternity Council. He is a company commander in the university's NROTC unit, and is a member of the Trident Society, the NROTC's honorary society. Morrison will receive his commission in the United States Navy in June upon graduation. He is on the advisory board of the University Union and serves as vice president of the International Affairs Association. He has been active in the Newman Club, and was recently elected treasurer of the university chapter of the Young Republicans Club. Morrison received the singular honor this year of residing in the room in which the fraternity was founded and which was occupied by Woodrow Wilson.

NEW DISTRICT PRESIDENTS ANNOUNCED

DISTRICT 2

Pennsylvania

JOHN C. McMEKIN, Beta-Alfa (Penn State), 1619 Cloverly Lane, Abington, Pennsylvania, was a dedicated undergraduate officer of the fraternity. After completing a tour of military duty, he became an Administrative Assistant in the National Office for a period of eighteen months. In 1960 he accepted a position with the Penn State Continuing Education Department and is currently a Regional Director.

DISTRICT 3

Pennsylvania, D.C., Delaware, Maryland

JOHN A. STOELTING, Alpha-Xi (Cincinnati), 4420 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington 8, D. C. has served as an officer of his undergraduate chapter, of the Cincinnati, Ohio Alumni Association, and as Alumnus Counselor of our chapter at the University of Maryland. He is Regional Sales Manager, Group and Pension Division, of the Ohio National Life Insurance Company.

DISTRICT 5

West Virginia

ROBERT A. ANDERSON, Delta-Iota (Marshall), Winfield, West Virginia, attended Duke University and received his degree from Marshall College where he earned three letters in football, was a member of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, was on the Dean's list and served on the Student Council. He is currently Guidance Counselor at Stonewall Jackson High School, Charleston, West Virginia. He and his wife, a former Delta-Iota Dream Girl, have two sons and a daughter. Brother Anderson states that his years as an undergraduate and as Alumnus Counselor for Delta-Iota Chapter have been the happiest of his life.

DISTRICT 6

North Carolina

ROY A. PORTER, JR., Alpha-Eta (Florida), Box 3039, Raleigh, North Carolina, not only held the position of SMC of Alpha-Eta Chapter but also served as president of the University of Florida Student Senate and vice president of the student body. He was captain of the tennis team and a member of the golf team. He now represents Royal Globe Insurance Company. He says that one of his most satisfying fraternity experiences was the opportunity to serve as Alumnus Counselor to Epsilon-Nu Chapter when it was newly chartered at Georgia State College in Atlanta. He is married to the former Marjorie Klettner.

DISTRICT 8

Georgia

JOHN C. McFARLAND, Alpha-Delta (Georgia Tech), 1499 Emory Road, N.E., Atlanta,

Georgia, is a third generation Pi Kappa Alpha member. His maternal grandfather was the Reverend Dr. John Caldwell, Iota (Hampden-Sydney). His father and mother, Robert M. McFarland, Jr. and Mary Palmer, have a host of friends throughout the nation. Bob served as Assistant Executive Secretary with Robert A. Smythe for many years and then was Executive Secretary from 1934 until he was called to active military duty in World War II. District President Jack McFarland held many undergraduate offices including that of SMC while at Georgia Tech. He has served as president of the Atlanta Alumni Association and secretary-treasurer of the Alpha-Delta House Corporation. Presently he is a life insurance underwriter in Atlanta. He states that one of his most outstanding fraternity experiences was the privilege of participating in the initiation of his brother, Bob, at Beta Chapter, Davidson College.

DISTRICT 10

Alabama

WILLIAM B. BOWLING, II, Upsilon (Auburn), Lafayette, Alabama, is a former SMC of Upsilon and is a druggist by profession. Bill states that his most interesting fraternity experience was "my trip to Mexico to the National Convention in 1956. I enjoyed the beautiful and unusual sights of Mexico but enjoyed the association of brothers in other chapters and national officers even more."

DISTRICT 12

Tennessee

BOBBY T. WILLIAMS, Delta-Zeta (Memphis State), Vanderbilt Law School, Nashville, Tennessee was a prominent man on campus and a dynamic leader of his chapter both as SMC and in other capacities. He states: "The most worthwhile experience I've had with my fraternity occurred in February, 1956 when I returned to Memphis State from the service. Feeling too old for such activities, I had about decided not to resume active status. Now I can see such would have been a very serious mistake."

DISTRICT 14

Kentucky

JOSEPH C. LEWIS, Kappa (Transylvania) & Omega (Kentucky), 1245 Summit Drive, Lexington, Kentucky, is an attorney by profession and a poet by avocation. He makes his home in Lexington in the heart of the Blue Grass region.

DISTRICT 15

Ohio

DWIGHT B. MILLER, Beta-Upsilon (Colorado), 3480 Jeffery Drive, Franklin, Ohio, served as historian and pledge trainer of his chapter and as editor of the University of Colorado paper. He is a public relations consultant with Armco Steel Corporation in Middletown, Ohio. Johnnie is the nickname for his wife, Johnnieve.

DISTRICT 16

Ohio, Michigan

EDWARD J. (TED) GROFER, Alpha-Xi (Cincinnati), 14254 Lauder Avenue, Detroit 27, Michigan, has made a tremendous contribution to our fraternity through his services not only as an undergraduate officer but as resident counselor for Gamma-Nu Chapter at the University of Iowa and as alumnus counselor for Alpha-Xi Chapter at Cincinnati. While at the University, he was named one of the twelve outstanding seniors. He has had training and experience as a public relations specialist and is currently film director for Jim Handy Enterprises in Detroit.

DISTRICT 19

Iowa and Nebraska

F. DANA POWERS, Alpha-Eta (Florida), 227 North Riverside Drive, Iowa City, Iowa, was social chairman and SMC of his chapter and received the University of Florida student government award. He is representative for the L. G. Balfour Company. In 1956 his pin mate was one of the three finalists in the National Dream Girl Contest in Mexico City. He and his wife, Patti, have one child.

DISTRICT 21

Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas

CLARK B. WYSONG, JR., Beta-Omicron (Oklahoma), 2241 Northwest 40th, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, served as chapter pledge trainer and SMC. He also is former treasurer and former rush chairman of the Oklahoma Statewide Pi Kappa Alpha Alumni Association. He owns and operates Wysong Bookkeeping Service. He and his wife, Gayle, have one child.

DISTRICT 22

Louisiana

FRANK M. GRACE, Zeta (Tennessee), 105 N. Monroe Street, Minden, Louisiana, was the "energetic idea man" while a member of Zeta Chapter. He originated and successfully produced the first Zeta Chapter-Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl Calendar. After serving as IMC and SMC of the chapter and receiving his degree, he reported for duty at Southern Bell Telephone Company headquarters in Atlanta, and on the first day had this fascinating experience: "I was grouped with three other boys from colleges throughout the southeast. Since we were each hired to work in public relations department, we were referred to the training supervisor who would guide and coordinate our training in accord with public relations needs. During a lull in the conversation we each inadvertently put his left hand on the conference table and discovered to our amazement that not only was the training supervisor a member of Pi Kappa Alpha but we three were also."

Texas

DR. WALLACE E. LOWRY, Alpha-Omicron (Southwestern) & Beta-Mu (Texas), Sam Houston State College, Huntsville, Texas held numerous campus offices at both Southwestern University, Georgetown, Texas and at the University of Texas. He holds a bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, master of arts, and doctor of education degrees. He rose rapidly in his chosen profession and for the past ten years has served as Dean of the College at Sam Houston State. He served in the Air Force during World War II holding the rank of major upon release from the service. He and his wife, Julia, have two sons.

DISTRICT 24

New Mexico, Arizona

DAVID A. ZIMMERMAN, Gamma-Lambda (Lehigh), 1137 East Camelback Road, Phoenix, Arizona, is a veteran house manager having served in his capacity for three years at Gamma-Lambda Chapter. He has maintained his interest in Pi Kappa Alpha throughout years of work experience as a real estate broker in Illinois and Arizona. He served as president of the Chamber of Commerce, Arlington Heights, Illinois and is currently a member of the Phoenix Real Estate Board of the Phoenix Home Builders Association. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have three children.

DISTRICT 26

Utah and Idaho

Theron S. Parmelee, Alpha-Tau (Utah), 1360 Princeton Avenue, Salt Lake City 5, Utah, held numerous chapter and university offices while a student. A lifelong worker for Pi Kappa Alpha, he has served as president of the Salt Lake City Alumni Association. This is his second time around as District President since he served as "District Princeps" 1930-33. After serving as a member of the varsity debate team and track team and as editor of the school newspaper, he served as secretary to the president of the University from 1919 to 1933 and then as general manager of student activities. He and his wife have one child.

DISTRICT 27

DR. GEORGE T. WATKINS, III, Gamma-Phi (Wake Forest) & Beta-Eta (Illinois), is professor of English at Washington State College, Pullman, Washington. After initiation as a charter member of our Wake Forest chapter, he served as a chapter officer and subsequently as Alumnus Counselor of our University of Illinois chapter and our Washington State College chapter. He is chairman of the Board of Deacons of the Congregational Church. He and his wife, Jennie, have three children.

Milo J. Warner, charter member of AP (Ohio State) and former National Commander of the American Legion, greets Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr, Jr. (center) and General George H. Decker, U. S. Army Chief of Staff. Brother Warner is Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army for Ohio.

Wm. C. Moldenshardt Joins Chapter Eternal

William C. Moldenshardt, long-time treasurer of the Alpha Sigma House Corporation and financial advisor to the active chapter died in Berkeley September 23.

Brother Moldenshardt was initiated in 1956 as recognition for his years of service to the fraternity. At the time of his death he was manager of the University branch of the Bank of America. He had been active in civic affairs, serving as a director of the Berkeley YMCA, past president of the Sather Gate Merchants Association, and a past director of the Chamber of Commerce. He was also a member of the City Commons Club, UC Faculty Club, and the Elks.

Brother Moldenshardt is survived by his wife, Muriel; a son, William B. Moldenshardt; and a daughter, Ann Moldenshardt. The family home is at 657 Cragmont Ave., Berkeley.

— II K A —

P. S. Jenison, Beta-Lambda (Washington University), was recently elected a vice president and director of the Kansas City Transit, Inc.

— II K A —

Carnie Smith, Beta-Gamma (Kansas), is currently coach of the Pittsburgh State, Kansas football team which won the National Intercollegiate football championship this year, an association of small colleges. Brother Smith, an outstanding player for the University of Kansas in 1929, received the sports page award at the third annual dinner of the Byline Club of greater Kansas City January 21st.

— II K A —

Martin Lasersohn, MD, Beta-Lambda (Washington University), recently retired as Executive Vice President of Winthrop Laboratories after 32 years of service. He actively participated in the affairs of the drug industry and for many years served as chairman of the Research and Award Committee of the American Pharmaceutical Manufacturers' Association.

Henry A. Weiss, Z, is Vice President of the Long Island Railroad.

EARLY RUSH FOR EARLY ADMISSIONS*

By Stewart S. Howe

The damaging effect on fraternity rushing results, despite sharp increased Freshman enrollments, of the "early admissions" programs adopted by most of the state universities throughout the nation, will persuade fraternities at most such institutions that they must rush and pledge high school Seniors, who hold admission certificates, during the spring before the Freshman becomes enrolled. This will be the only constructive means for the fraternities to accommodate incoming students who need assurance, before the school term starts, that they can count upon residence in a fraternity house and need not sign dormitory or rooming house contracts during the spring to get such assurance. Incidentally, this may be very healthy development for the fraternities because it can be the means of being sure of a full chapter house before the fall term gets under way.

*THE FRATERNITY MONTH/October, 1961

SMC corner

The following article is reprinted from the fall, 1961 issue of EB Etchings, publication of Epsilon-Beta Chapter, Valparaiso University.

By Kent Machina, SMC

AT THE RISK of becoming sentimental, I would like to comment, brothers and friends in Pi Kappa Alpha, on some of my personal thoughts about the past and future of Epsilon-Beta Chapter.

It is my conviction that some of these ideas also apply to the greater context of our national fraternity and to the idea of fraternalism in America.

PROBLEMS

Currently, we find ourselves besieged by "enemy" forces on many sides. There is a growing anti-fraternity attitude among American parents and educators. We must exercise extreme caution that the local administrators do not become "caught up" in this movement.

With the advent of federal educational loans it is no longer possible for this fraternity to offer better living quarters than those available in the new university dorms. Now the independents on campus are talking seriously of organizing themselves into a loose confederation for the promotion of social life and for campus political purposes. Whether or not such an organization ever is consummated, the mere fact that the idea has gained such force is evidence of a new outlook toward the fraternity system on the part of the newer classes on campus.

Because of the tremendous changes in attitude toward academic achievement that are taking place already on the high school level, the entering freshmen are becoming increasingly hard to rush, for they are convinced that fraternity life will ruin their academic lives. The sad truth is that in many cases in the past, this fear would have been justified.

This change makes it difficult for the alumni to give effective leadership and counseling to the chapter, for the current battles which the chapter is fighting are somewhat different than those of the past.

PLAUDITS

It is in view of all these factors that I look with extreme pride on the accomplishments, the attitude, the enthusiasm, and the self-confidence of the members of Epsilon-Beta. We are convinced that the fraternity is not an unnecessary "frill." We firmly believe that "fraternity" can fit in with the new outlook on campus.

Epsilon-Beta will not be pushed into a corner of grumbling and dejection. We responded to the challenges of this new age as challenges and not as overwhelming forces. There is no doubt in our minds that we have a vital role to play in tomorrow's educational system. And we will stay where we are now—in the top slice of campus opinion and respect.

WHY SO?

How can we say this, in view of all those things which strike out at us? I believe there are many reasons for our confidence. Some of these are very tangible, such as the new cloak room currently under construction next to the recreation room.

The foundation, however, lies in the fact that it is basically incorrect to think of a fraternity merely as a partying group. Rather, we feel a fraternity is a learning opportunity that will supplement any man's college career.

ADVANTAGES

We feel that a properly-oriented fraternity can provide its members with so very many extras in (1) leadership training, (2) in fellowship, (3) in scholastic cooperation, (4) in personality development, (5) in training in well-mannered conduct, (6) in development of social polish, and (7) in enjoyment of social life—that the intrinsic worth of a fraternity to society will grow to be commonly recognized. In fact, the worth of a fraternity will then be so outstandingly clear that voices of opposition will cease their murmuring.

JOHN HARRINGTON SMITH

Dr. John Harrington Smith, professor of English at the University of California at Los Angeles, died December 26, 1961 of a coronary attack. He was a charter member of Beta-Lambda Chapter, Washington University.

Brother Smith received his BA degree from Washington University in 1923 and his MA and PhD degrees from Harvard University. From 1923 to 1950 he taught at Washington University. He then joined the faculty at the University of California where he received his full professorship. An authority on English poetry and Elizabethan drama, he was the author of The Gay Couple in Restoration Comedy.

He is survived by his wife, son, and four Pi Kappa Alpha brothers, Robert Sydney, Richard Edward, Carl Wellington, and Harvey Sydney, all of whom are members of Beta-Lambda Chapter.

ROBERT McALLISTER

Robert McAllister, Upsilon (Auburn), died November 18, 1961 of cancer in Birmingham, Alabama. He is survived by his wife, Ann Brooks, a son, Britt, 4, and a daughter, Leslie, 18 months.

E. RAYMOND MOSS

E. Raymond (Pinky) Moss, AH (Florida), died December 15, 1961, at his home in Miami Shores, Florida. He was 67. Initiated in 1913 he held most of the chapter offices. As a student member of Alpha-Eta, he organized and served as first president of the Alpha-Eta House Corporation. In 1916 he was instrumental in purchasing for $1400.00 the lot on which was constructed the first fraternity house at the University of Florida. This property was sold in 1954 for $135,000.00 making possible the fine new Alpha-Eta house. He subsequently served several terms as District President in the Texas-Oklahoma area. His devotion to Pi

Kappa Alpha was rewarded in 1928 by his election to the Supreme Council as Grand Secretary.

A highly successful land developer in Ohio and Florida, he was perhaps best known for reassembling the Ancient Spanish Monastery as a tourist attraction in North Miami Beach after it was purchased from the estate of William Randolph Hearst. His wife, Dorothy James Moss, survives.

ARTHUR E. COOK

Arthur E. Cook, Beta-Tau (Michigan), retired faculty member of the Lakewood High School, died recently in Bay View, Michigan at the age of 72. He was one of the "five oaks of the Lakewood faculty," a group of five teachers with a combined teaching experience of 195 years. He had been a faculty member 38 years.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Brother Cook served in World War I as a member of the ambulance corps. After the war he joined the staff of Lakewood and taught in the business education department until his retirement in 1957.

Don Paine, Beta-Epsilon, charter member and fellow teacher at Lakewood High School, gave a memorial gift in his memory which made Brother Cook a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Memorial Foundation. His wife and daughter survive.

RICHMOND CROM BEATTY

Dr. Richmond Croom Beatty, Delta (Birmingham-Southern), noted scholar of American literature, died October 9, 1961 at his home in Nashville, Tennessee. At the time of his death he was serving as book page editor for the Nashville Tennessean newspaper. Dr. Beatty was a former professor of English at Vanderbilt University, Memphis State College, and the University of Alabama. He was a distinguished biographer and critical anthologist, and frequent contributor to scholarly reviews such as the Yale Review, Sewanee Review, South Atlantic Quarterly, Forum and others. His biographies include WILLIAM BYRD OF WESTOVER, BAYARD TAYLOR, LORD MACAULEY, and JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL.

DAVID B. CASEY

David B. Casey, Gammi-Pi (Oregon), died November 25, 1961 in Holladay Park Hospital after a long illness. He was 39. Born in Colville, Washington, he received his BA degree from the University of Oregon in 1948. He served as a lieutenant in the Naval Air Force during World War II and survived three major air crashes in the Pacific theater. He was a member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church. Survivors are his wife and two daughters.

JAMES H. RICHARDSON

James H. Richardson, Gamma-Zeta (Wittenberg), died October 13, 1961 in the Coral Gables, Florida Veterans Hospital at the age of 43. He had resided in Naples, Florida since 1951 where he was auditor for the Beach Club Hotel.

A Navy veteran of World War II, he attained the rank of lieutenant commander. He was a member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church.

JAMES P. GILL

James P. Gill, Alpha-Kappa (Missouri Mines), nationally known steel executive, died suddenly on October 30, 1961, at his home in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. He was chairman of the board and president of Vanadium-Alloys Steel Company. He was also chairman of the board of Vanadium-Alloys Steel Canada Ltd.

Brother Gill was a past national president of the American Society for Metals and a trustee of ASM for several years. He was a director of the Council of Profit sharing Industries, vice president of the Trade Relations Council, a past member of the Advisory Committee on Metals and Minerals of the National Academy of Sciences and National Research Council. At the end of World War II, he served as a member of the Foreign Economics Administration Committee to investigate the German Steel industry.

Born in Montgomery City, Missouri in 1896, he obtained his BS and MS degrees in metallurgy at the University of Missouri School of Mines. He did further graduate study at Columbia University School of Mines in 1918-20. The University of Missouri's School of Mines honored him with a Ph.D. in 1946. Dr. Gill patented many special steel compositions and delivered some 250 lectures throughout the United States.

RUDY SULLIVAN

Rudy Sullivan, SMC of Beta-Delta Chapter during the fall of 1947, died at his home in Albuquerque, New Mexico this past summer. Brother Sullivan was one of the directors of Pioneer Wear in Albuquerque at the time of his death.

CHARLES ALSTON COOK, JR.

Charles A. Cook, Jr., Sigma (Vanderbilt), pharmacist and member of Pi Kappa Alpha for fifty-nine years, died at his home in Houston, Texas, October 5, 1961 at the age of 80.

Brother Cook was born in Warrenton, North Carolina and attended Vanderbilt University where he was initiated by Sigma Chapter in October, 1902. A veteran of World War I he served with distinction in the Medical Corps. He was a member of the First Methodist Church in Houston and served on the Board of Stewards for a number of years.

Known for his devotion to Pi Kappa Alpha, he proudly wore his pin daily until the time of his death. He is survived by his wife, Annie Mary Dollard Cook, a daughter, two brothers, and a sister.

Lasber refutes prejudiced article on Fraternities

ESQUIRE TWISTS the Facts

By George Starr Lasber

Well, "Brother" Brower, if the cover page title of your article in October's Esquire is an honest choice, you are dealing with the livest corpse in the history of social institutions. You dug up the relics of eight chapters since 1948; in the meantime, college fraternities have been having their greatest increase of undergraduate chapters in their history, their total now approaching 4,000. True to your tribe, you have tried to generalize from a few specific instances and by twisting statements out of their context have attempted to give substance to support your shabby reporting.

Doesn't it, however, sound silly to say "it (the fraternity system) reeled under the impact of a rebellion of collegiate chapters" and then cite a total loss of eight out of nearly 4,000 chapters. And in the meantime, in one year alone, 1959-1960, more than 48 chapters were added. There were a few other chapters you overlooked, that for one reason or another are no longer units in national fraternities, but the losses are insignificant. In no case has there been serious loss on any one campus—in other words, there has been no real rebellion, as you report, nor much "popping" here and there.

Not only have national fraternities grown steadily by the installation of new chapters on campuses which have welcomed Greeks for years, but at least 88 educational institutions opened their doors to national fraternities and sororities in 1955-1959. Still others have followed their example, and a number are planning to do so within the next few years. The reason for this is because administrators, among the most conservative individuals, have been convinced by fellow administrators of schools where fraternities function that Greek organizations make highly valuable contributions: raising standards in dress, social manners, general conduct, campus citizenship, school loyalty, and institutional prestige; recruiting of desirable students; building alumni support and leadership; improving campus activities; helping in disciplinary matters both with individuals and groups; cooperating in the improvement of scholarship; arousing interest in the school and its problems; encouraging students to continue their attendance until graduation; and helping to develop and maintain in school spirit and pride.

Your assumption, "Brother Brower", that there is conflict between "the national" and the undergraduate chapters shows a lack of knowledge of fraternity organizations. The national fraternity is simply the sum total of its undergraduate chapters that send delegates to a national convention to debate and vote on legislation and to elect national officers to carry out the will of the convention. In some fraternities, the undergraduates are the only voters; in some they share the voting with alumni delegates, but in no cases are they dominated by "moguls". If a chapter violates any fraternity regulation, it is defying the legislation which has been passed in democratic fashion at a national convention. There are always provisions for rescinding laws or making constitutional changes.

The National Interfraternity Conference is what the name implies; an organization of member fraternities to discuss mutual problems. It is advisory in character and has no power to legislate.

Since the beginning of Hell Week atrocities, practically every fraternity has legislated and worked against vicious practices, but occasionally some undergraduate chapter under adolescent leadership, in attempting to carry out what the students argue is tradition, has brought discredit on themselves and the entire fraternity system. Thus the tragedy in California two years ago to which you refer damaged all of the 4,000 chapters which were not involved. The national fraternity acted immediately, withdrawing the charter even before the University administration took any disciplinary action.

It is strange, "Brother Brower", that the only testimony you present against fraternities is that of a generally discredited university teacher, Earl Jerome Ellison, who in his wild-eyed attempt to picture university campuses as playgrounds, damned fraternities and sororities without offering the slightest testimony, evidence, or logical reasoning. Against such puerility is available the recorded endorsement of hundreds of educators, statesmen, judges, business, industrial and professional leaders, and, highly important, that of parents who testify that their sons have gained much of value from fraternity life.

And don't overlook the personnel men who visit campuses annually to select workers for their various organizations. Why do they like to sign up fraternity members? Because they know that such men have had a chance to develop leadership and they have learned to cooperate, to work and plan together, and in the give and take of fraternity life, they have gained experiences that will make them more effective workers, husbands, parents, community leaders and citizens.

Fraternities have changed through the years and will continue to change because they are organizations of youth, and youths are bound to change, but there is no indication that they will die. They are the oldest adjuncts to colleges and universities, the largest, the most enduring, and the most steadily growing. The fraternity will not die because it is the good in a social institution that causes it to persist.

Georgia Wins Homecoming Display

Alpha-Mu Chapter at the University of Georgia received the acclaim of the campus when it won for the second consecutive year the trophy for the best homecoming display. The winners were announced during the half time ceremonies of the Georgia-Kentucky game, October 29, 1961.

Anita Bryant, Miss America runner-up for 1960, presented the homecoming trophy to Pi Kappa Alpha at the homecoming dance following the game.

Alpha-Mu's Dream Girl, June Whitehead, Chi Omega, was sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha in the homecoming beauty court contest and was elected, thus rounding out a perfect weekend for the Pikes at Georgia.

AM, Univ. of Georgia

June Whitehead is Dream Girl of Alpha-Mu Chapter, University of Georgia.

Delaware Receives Stereo

After weeks of cigarette pack scrounging and smoking cartons of Marlboro, our efforts have paid off. Delta-Eta has found itself the proud winner of a Decca Stereo, first prize in our campus Philip Morris Company pack saving contest. Engaging the smoking talents of many of our campus coeds, we bested eight other fraternities and seventeen dorms, capturing the fall honors.

Under the inspired influence of Brother Tuck, the "Delta Eta Spectator" has been revitalized. Receiving an encouraging response after our first issue, we will publish the Spectator on a quarterly basis and increase our circulation.

Delta Eta is looking forward to a fine crop of pledges during formal rush. Fall semester Delta Eta pledged five men this fall: Charles Pie, III, Wilmington, Delaware, secretary of Sussex Dorm; Don Melson, Bridgeville, Delaware; Robert McCaffery, Wilmington, Delaware, president of Sharp Dorm; John Felten, Haddenfield, New Jersey; and Russell C. Weigel, Jr., Wilmington, Delaware, President of the Delaware student chapter of the American Chemical Society. As we anticipate expansion beyond our present facilities, a reactivated alumni organization is hard at work in efforts to procure a bigger and better chapter house.

With the purchase of fraternity jackets, the men of Delta-Eta are now the best dressed on campus. This prejudiced view is supported by attractive jackets of garnet with gold sleeves and Greek letters of gold.

Brother Hudson, one of the many fine bowlers in Delta-Eta, has virtually walked off with all of the individual honors in the interfraternity bowling league. Roger took trophies for the most 600 series, the most 200 games, high game (246), high series (646), and high individual average. Off campus, several of our brothers and pledges have formed a team and participate in a local men's league. Brother King now leads that league in high average and is second in the race for high series (592). Our Pike-laden team has recently finished second.

Brother Talley has recently appeared in our E-52, the Delaware student dramatic group, production of "Abe Lincoln in Illinois"; and Brother Burdette has appeared in the same group's production of "The Mad Woman of Chalon". Brother Lackman, the student casting director for E-52, has had roles in both productions.

Our Christmas season was highlighted by a yuletide party featuring Professor Anthony Loudis, chairman of the Music Department. After rendering a merry collection of holiday melodies, Professor Loudis accompanied the brothers and their guests as they sang Christmas carols.

With March coming on, we are looking forward to the annual Founders' Day banquet. Dining at the famous Eastern Shore steak house, the Swiss Inn, we extend an invitation to those in the area to drop us a line and join us for this gala affair March 2nd.

Transylvania Honors John Gentry

The brothers of Kappa would like to salute the man we feel is dearest to the Chapter and Pi Kappa Alpha, Brother John T. Gentry, Alumnus Counselor. His devotion to the fraternity is truly a goal for all fraternity men to follow. Whether expressing a valued opinion at a meeting or leading fraternity songs on the piano in his home, he is a true projection of the meaning of Pi Kappa Alpha. We salute you, John T.

Under the able leadership of SMC Jim Oliver, IMC Al Barber, SC Jerry Francis, and ThC Bob Watts, Kappa Chapter has been very busy these past months.

Rush Captain Bill Zanowitz directed the pledging of 13 fine men.

As part of our "extra-curricular" activities we spent our first few weekends loading John T. Gentry's barns with approximately 3,000 bales of hay. Aside from the occasional bale which ended up on a brother, everything rolled on smoothly and we gained a reputation as the fastest hay loaders in Lexington.

On the sports level, Kappa has enjoyed its best quarter in the past few years. On the varsity level, the newly formed soccer team was coached by Brother Chris Nielsen, Port Washington, N.Y., who played overseas while attending school in Africa. He also played at a forward position on the college team. He was supported by Brothers Ken Kaufman, Don Peterson, Jerry Francis, Curran Clem, and pledges John Dashna, Bob Bennington, Charles Everest, and Richard Marcus.

Our football team, picked for last place, lost its first game 32-24, then rolled over everyone else to reach the top of the league. We were nosed out for the championship by half a game after completing a 6-1-0 record. Led by quarterback Don Peterson, ends Al Barber and Curran Clem, lineman Barth Scranton, and coach Bill Zanowitz, the boys deserve congratulations for their fine effort. The season was completed with the annual pledge-active game, won by the actives, 21-0.

The all school cross country race was won by Paul Le Roux, Zurich, Switzerland, for the third straight year.

Brothers holding offices of distinction on campus are: Chris Nielsen, president of the IFC; Dick Michaels, leader of the pep band at collegiate ball games and member of the board of publications; and SMC Jim Oliver, chairman of the board of publications.

Valparaiso Men Are Elected

The Pikes at Valparaiso have had quite a successful start in the 1961-1962 school year. They have demonstrated their versatility in the areas of campus leadership, intramurals, and social life.

The leadership ability of the men of Epsilon-Beta was acknowledged by the campus early in the year. Clever posters and campaign buttons made by the brothers helped Mike Householder and his political machine win the Junior Class Presidency. More recognition came to EB as Ron Gnau took over the position of vice president of the interfraternity council. Four juniors from the PiKA House were selected for the sixteen member Junior Honor Guard—the honor society for juniors who have demonstrated leadership ability and scholarship. The four students are Jay Lieske, Kent Machina, Doyle Vogt, and Stu Walesh. Kent Machina, president of the chapter, was further honored by being selected as one of the four student members of the Faculty-Student council, a disciplinary advisory board. The Appian society, the Engineering honor organization, tapped Stu Walesh to join their ranks. In departmental clubs, Bill Blount was elected president of Psi Chi Eta, the club for psychology majors, and Burt Noll was elected vice-president of the chemistry club.

The two major intramural sports so far this year have seen strong PiKA entries. Football this year was quite encouraging. The Pikes compiled a 5-1-2 record with the sole loss coming at the hands of the eventual school champion, Theta Chi. Since the previous season saw the men of Epsilon-Beta fail to win a game—indeed, fail to score a point—the '61 season represented quite an improvement.

In basketball, the team presently has a 4-1 record which places them in second place in the league. Bob Woolley, a member of last year's all-star team, is high man for the team with a 14 point average per game.

However, the PiKAs have not permitted scholarship and athletics to interfere with their social life. Just recently, the Rush committee programmed a joint-rush party with one of the local sororities on campus. Over two hundred persons jammed into the fraternity house with the number about equally divided between Greeks and rushees.

The party was a huge success with entertainment, food, and a lot of "twisting" in the spacious recreation room of the house.

Hampden-Sydney Earns Athletic Recognition

Several of the brothers of Iota chapter at Hampden-Sydney College have been selected the recipients of state-wide, as well as campus, athletic awards. Junior half-back Lewis Everette, triple-letterman, was elected to Virginia's honorary All Little-Eight football team. Sophomore tackle Ken Pritchett received honorable mention to that group. Leading his team to a hard-fought victory over arch-rival Randolph-Macon in Richmond's annual Shrine Bowl gridiron contest, junior quarterback Fred Mitchell was voted the Most Outstanding Player Award by the sportswriters covering the game. In addition, at the annual football banquet held at the end of the season, brother Tom Tredway was given the Best Sportsmanship Trophy, while brother Ken Pritchett was given the Best Defensive Player Award. Earlier in the year, SMC Tim Butler, senior tackle was voted Virginia's Lineman of the Week.

As the basketball season goes into full swing, seven of the twelve men on Hampden-Sydney's varsity squad are Pikes, including Captain Norwood Davis. Bill Hardin, 6' 3" junior center from Huntington, West Virginia, scored his 1000th point early in January, and has maintained a torrid scoring pace to stay among the state's leading scorers with an average higher than 25 points per game.

Several brothers have been honored by the college for outstanding contributions to campus leadership. Senior Tom Tredway was recently elected president of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary leadership fraternity. Wade Saunders and Earl Guthrow were also honored by being tapped into that organization.

Pledge day at Hampden-Sydney saw Iota chapter welcome thirteen fine young men as future brothers. A special party was given for these pledges by the brothers on February third.

Texas Wins Singing Honors

The tradition of singing at Beta-Mu is a deep-seated one and one that has a long history. When the idea of an all-Greek sing song was conceived, Beta-Mu stood behind the idea and was instrumental in seeing that the idea was carried out to perfection. Since that time Annual Greek Sing Song has come to be a highlight of the Greek year. Pi Kappa Alpha at the University of Texas has maintained a brilliant record of victories in the last five years, receiving 1st place in 1957, 2nd place in 1958, 3rd place in 1959, and 2nd place in 1960. In 1961, under the able direction of Raymond Scarborough Jr., PiKA managed another 1st place victory. Pikes dressed in 15th Century monks robes sang Handel's "O Magnum Mysterium." Almost the entire chapter participated in some way in this successful effort; those who did not sing assisted in direction, lighting, recording, or other efforts which made the victory possible.

Betu-Mu was well rewarded in its entry in the Aggie Sign Contest which precedes the annual Texas vs. Texas A. & M. football game. The cleverly devised sign, the product of hard work by Chuck Linsey and the pledge class, was awarded "Most Unique" over some thirty other entries.

Miss Missy Beall, a member of Zeta Tau Alpha at the University of Texas, was recently chosen Dream Girl of Beta-Mu Chapter. Miss Beall is a junior from Nacodoches, Texas, and is pinned to Paul Wilson. She was presented with a trophy and a dozen red roses by S.M.C. Dick Chote at the annual Dream Girl Formal held on October 27.

Newly elected officers for the spring semester of 1962 at Beta-Mu include the following: Robert Forrester, S.M.C.; Raymond Scarborough Jr., I.M.C.; Bobby Cotter, ThC.; Tim Coffee, Rush Captain; Rabun Wilson, Assistant Rush Captain; Chuck Parsons, Pledge Trainer. The chapter has confidence that these men will continue the excellent work of others that has placed Pi Kappa Alpha among the top fraternities at the University of Texas.

Miami at Ohio Football Champions

Continuing to dominate intramural athletics, Delta-Gamma Chapter led by Jon Wildermuth won the touch football championship for the second consecutive year. In eight games the Pikes scored 174 points while allowing the opposition only six. The final win was over the Interfraternity All-Stars by a 6-0 verdict.

At the time of this writing the basketball team was undefeated and working towards improving last season's second place finish. Also adding points toward the coveted All-Sports trophy was the free throw tournament which Delta-Gamma won by converting 410 out of 500 tosses.

Brother Wildermuth led the Pikes to great heights in his three years of intramural play prior to his graduation in January. For three years he quarterbacked the football team, which, in that time, lost only one game. He led the basketball team to one championship and to one second place finish. In addition to his outstanding intramural play, Jon won a varsity letter as a pole vaulter on Miami's track team.

Rush is in full swing and under the leadership of Bob Howard, Delta-Gamma has been working hard to gain an outstanding spring pledge class. Brothers Jim Stetham and Steve Hackett are presently serving the chapter as SMC and IMC, respectively.

Pikes and Tri Delts Entertain Cuban Children

The 'GO' chapter at the University of Miami has continued to be acclaimed as number one fraternity on campus. Taking advantage of the southern sun and our swimming pool we have had numerous pool-side and boat parties to uphold our reputation.

The year 1961 was climaxed by teaming up with Delta Delta Delta sorority and giving toys to refugee Cuban children. The following evening at a formal party thrown by the pledges Miss Susan Coppinger, Kappa Kappa Gamma, was crowned as pledge sweetheart. For the ensuing semester the chapter elected Robert DeVan SMC.

The brothers of Gamma-Omega wish to thank everyone who had been kind enough to write us in response to our wanting a fire truck. We plan to purchase one in the near future.

Tulane Chapter Emphasizes Brotherhood

When a visiting Pike comes to Eta Chapter, he sees an old house built in the early 1900's and he notices that the chapter's membership is low.

But, he is looking at the chapter from the outside. Eta, being one of the oldest chapters still in existence, differs from many others because of its location in New Orleans. It is in the heart of a city that is steeped in tradition, in a way of living, in a way of feeling.

Since its founding in 1878, Eta has never had a membership over fifty-five. Brotherhood means more than an organization for intellectual and social activities. Eta believes in brotherhood ideals, and puts them into practice. Eta members believe true brotherhood is jeopardized when a chapter exceeds a membership of sixty. Every Eta member knows well everyone of his brothers, and gives him pride, respect, and love — qualities that come not from mere friendship, but from a true brotherhood.

Eta still does its share of visiting and being visited. At Sugar Bowl time this year Eta had approximately thirty persons staying in the house; the visitors came from Arkansas, from Montana, and even from France. Mardi Gras is a popular visiting time too.

Eta has many obstacles to surmount, yet the picture looks bright for the new year. On March 3, the Dream Girl Formal will be held; the new fire engine (a 1924 American La France) will be in a number of Mardi Gras parades; the Alumnus Chapter is beginning to play an important role in the chapter's functions; the chapter house is in the process of being painted; and above all the Spirit of Brotherhood is stronger than ever.

As for the problems, Eta is in very good shape to tackle them because of its new leaders and because of its loyal friends and alumni. Dave Rodrigue, Alumnus Counselor, comes by the house regularly to help the treasurer and other officers and just to visit. W. Hardy Davis, who is a frequent visitor, is one of our fine alumni. Frank Grace, District President, is also a very familiar and very helpful visitor to Eta Chapter.

No chapter can long survive without a good Housemother, and Eta, undoubtedly, has a warm, and efficient housemother in Mrs. Miriam Seal. There are many others that are helpful, in the constant progress that Eta is now experiencing.

Eta through the concentrated efforts of its members, its officers, its alumni, and its friends will surmount its difficulties. Through Brotherhood and the Bonds it shall emerge as the shining beacon in the South for the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Stetson Chapter Membership Increases

Delta-Upsilon at Stetson University reached the highest membership in its history by picking up twenty-one pledges during fall rush. PiKA is now the largest fraternity on campus.

Our chapter has received recognition in many fields of campus activity. Brother Haskell is president of the senior class and of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity. Brother Denman is president of the Liberal Arts College, Brother Townsend is secretary of the Men's Council, and Brother McMillin is secretary of the IFC.

Pledge Doug Smith won the traditional chariot race during Greek Week this year. Pikes had several representatives on the varsity soccer team this fall, with three of them receiving varsity letters.

Chapter officers have been elected for next semester, and Bob Cauthen is our new SMC, Dan Thomas IMC, and Jerry Bartholow was re-elected as ThC. Under the leadership of its new officers, the chapter is planning extensive programs for improvement in all areas, particularly in its scholastic standing and its alumni relations. The brothers are eagerly awaiting the completion of our new fraternity house, which should be ready for occupation by next fall. The house is one of five on a new fraternity row, and will hold twenty-eight men.

Pikes and Sig Eps Hold Dance

One of the outstanding social events on the K-State campus during the year is the annual Pi Kappa Alpha-Sigma Phi Epsilon Duad. A full weekend of merry making begins with the Duad on Friday night. This is a formal dance held in conjunction with the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. During intermission the queen is announced and she receives her crown and a bouquet of roses. Each fraternity serenades her with its dream girl song. The queen candidates are chosen by each fraternity and the winner is picked by a committee prior to the dance.

Saturday afternoon the fun continues with sorority skits presented in the Union Little Theater. This gives the sororities a chance to display their talents in depicting the carefree life of ancient Greece and Rome. Each sorority that enters is allowed seven minutes to give its production. The theater is filled with laughter. The em-cee adds to the merriment with his remarks between productions. Trophies are awarded to the winning sororities each year.

Saturday evening the Sig Eps, Pikes, and their dates changed into their togas and journeyed to their final blast. The spaciousness of a school gymnasium created a perfect setting for this gala affair. The centerpiece was a golden bath tub laden with exotic fruits. For those who wanted to depart from history for a time, a juke box for dancing was available. Skits presented by each pledge class added to the hilarity and satire of the event while onlookers lounged on mattresses.

Austin State First In Homecoming

Pikes at Stephen F. Austin State are on the move this school year. We took first place in the Homecoming Parade by constructing the gigantic scene of the story book tale of "The Wizard of Oz". House Manager Thurman Rodgers ramrodded its construction. Intramural football and basketball championships were taken in fraternity competition under the able guidance of intramural chairman Tommy Hariston. Epsilon-Omicron also won a stereo record player in the annual contest sponsored by the Phillip Morris Tobacco Co. We'll soon have a collection of stereos since we won this contest last year. Our fall semester was climaxed with our annual Christmas Dinner-Dance.

Many honors and recognitions have been bestowed upon various brothers of the chapter. Larry Bailey, Robert Minton, and Maury Darst were elected to Who's Who. PiKA swept the "Campus Favorites Election" by winning seven out of a possible twelve honors. These included: Lynn Wiggins, Most Popular; Eddie Bays, Most Typical; Don Barber, Friendliest; Bill Worsham, Cutest Boy; John Parten, Most Handsome; Tommy Warner, Wittiest; Dean Bob Shelton, Favorite Teacher. Ronnie Redd was elected president of the "T" Association. Eddie Bays was elected vice president of the IFC. Robert Simmons was selected to receive the Texas Power & Light scholarship. Maury Darst and Larry Bailey represented Stephen F. Austin at the annual Student Conference on National Affairs.

We have enjoyed successful social functions planned by social chairman Tommy Warner and his committee. During the month of January the Pikes exchanged parties with the Sigma Kappa Sorority.

The talk of the campus at SFA is a 1939 La Salle hearse, mascot of the chapter. After a thorough waxing by the pledge class, the "Black Maria" is being used by the brothers in rush, transportation to District Convention, trips around campus, and other satisfying experiences. The newly elected officers are SMC Ronnie Christopher, IMC Don Scroggins, ThC Tommy Hariston, and Historian Robert Simmons.

Kentucky Chapters Prepare for Convention

Preparation for the National Leadership School to be held in Lexington and the National Convention to be held in Louisville are well underway. Omega and the other Kentucky chapters hope to host the best convention ever held. The brothers have been rushing hard this semester, and we hope to have close to thirty new actives working toward a smooth leadership school and convention.

November was a big month for Omega. We held an indoor swimming party at a local hotel, followed by dinner at the house and block seats at a Ray Charles concert. On Saturday afternoon the brothers moved out and their dates moved in. Dinner was followed by a house party.

In intramural football we finished in third place. We hold second place in intramural basketball.

Alumni relations have been improved this year by inviting one or two alumni and their wives to dinner each week. Among the distinguished alumni we have entertained are Joe Lewis, district president, and Harry Lee Waterfield, former lieutenant governor of Kentucky. This plan is creating a closer relationship between alumni and the active chapter.

Officers elected for this year are Benny Pember, SMC; Glenn Adams, IMC; Don Fagaley, ThC; Tom Beckman, SC.

Florida State's Sharpe Edits Newspaper

Delta-Lambda Chapter has men in varsity sports, campus politics, and military societies. Editor of the university newspaper, The Flambeau, is Ben Sharpe. We have made considerable improvements in our extracurricular activities. We placed first in the 1961-62 homecoming float and in house decorations as well. We published an alumni newsletter to our alumni throughout the state.

Our formal Rush this past year yielded 17 boys and we have gained several more during the semester. Presently we are making plans to have a formal Rush second semester.

With elections this past month for Chapter officers, Bill Davis is SMC, Chet Adair IMC, and Richard Finlaw ThC. We are looking forward to the leadership of these fine men during the coming semester.

High Point Has Second Semester Rush

Displaying brotherhood at its best, ΔΩ won with ease a campus contest sponsored by a leading cigarette company—the prize was a beautiful Decca Stereophonic Record player.

This is the first year of second semester rush at High Point College. The situation looks very favorable for a large group of pledges.

The local alumni chapter is in the process of revamping its organization. They held a meeting with the active chapter on January 22. The project on hand at the moment is to locate, find and purchase a fire truck. Both organizations are very enthusiastic over the project.

Tau Tarheels Outstanding

Pi Kappa Alpha held three top posts on the University of North Carolina football team this season. Starring with the U. N. C. Tarheels were Joe Craver of Shelby, North Carolina, Roger Smith, Albemarle, North Carolina, and John Flournoy of Columbus, Georgia.

Joe Craver, also the treasurer of the Interfraternity Council, was the indispensable cog on this year's tough defensive team. Playing at center, acting as right line backer, Joe also called defensive signals. He spends more than eight hours a week, more than most linemen, preparing for a game. The tremendous vitality and spirit imparted to the team by Joe was recognized by his election as co-captain of the team for the '62 season. He also holds important student government positions. He is on a Morehead Scholarship and is an Honor Student with an excellent chance for Phi Beta Kappa his senior year.

Roger Smith, halfback from Albemarle, North Carolina, is also spark to the Tarheel backfield. Having played in every game, Roger caught 9 passes out of 9 attempts for a total gain of 200 yards. In 4 games Roger started as wingback on the wing-T formation and intercepted 3 passes. Roger also is a Morehead scholar and has served in important student posts including the presidency of his class.

U. N. C. quarterback John Flournoy played extremely well in the first three games of the season, intercepting 6 passes and running one back for a touchdown. However, in the fourth game of the year, his leg was broken, prohibiting his participation for the remainder of the season. John's exceptional spirit and talented play have earned him the respect of all his teammates.

These three PiKA players extend the tradition of a unified, well-rounded brotherhood at Tau Chapter.

Southeast Missouri Pledges Twenty-four

The Pikes of Southeast Missouri State College have just completed a very successful fall semester of rush, with twenty-four fine men being pledged.

Jim Portell was recently honored by being elected chairman of the Interfraternity Council. Jim has always been a leader on campus, and has served in his new capacity very well.

The fire engine which we purchased last year has really been given a thorough going over. During the summer work was done on the engine, and when we returned to school the members sanded the old red monster down in preparation for a new coat of paint. New ladders were purchased along with new tires to dress it up. We managed to get a siren and talked the local fire department out of some fire extinguishers to add to our equipment. Jim Rhodes, an alumnus, has donated time and talent to lettering the truck. The truck has been put to a very fine use during the rush season and has also become a symbol of school spirit. The cheerleaders ride into the stadium on it at our Indians' football games. It was used also in the Homecoming parade.

During the fall semester Epsilon-Iota had the honor of serving as one of the initiating teams for the fine new chapter at Martin, Tennessee. The members at Martin, in the true spirit of Brotherhood, entertained us royally.

Since the college prevents fraternity housing on our campus we have as individuals rented a brand new house for the second semester. It will hold twenty-four men, and anyone passing through Cape Girardeau is invited to stop by at 701 North Sprigg and visit with us. The house and the plan for obtaining it were set up by Alumnus Counselor Wendell Black to whom we are all very thankful.

Mississippi State Holds Open House

The highlight of the social season at Gamma-Theta Chapter was the annual Christmas Open House. This event is looked forward to by faculty members, prominent citizens of Starkville and the surrounding area, and alumni. Present for the occasion was Executive Director Earl Watkins.

Mother Claiborne, our housemother, as usual displayed her fine taste of delicate and delicious foods for the event. The menu included shrimp, baked ham, whole roast pig, and chocolate covered grasshoppers. A huge, lighted Christmas tree welcomed guests on the exterior. The fire places were gaily decorated in keeping with the Christmas spirit. At the conclusion of the open house, gifts were presented to Mother Claiborne from the chapter.

Newly elected officers for the spring semester are: Jimmy Ormon, SMC; Dennis Westin, IMC; Mike Lee, ThC; and Charles Roberts, SC.

*Billy Porter
IΘ, Miss. State Univ.*

Utah State Pledge Class President

The brothers of Gamma-Epsilon chapter campaigned for freshman class officers and succeeded in getting Pledge Jay Stuart elected as president. The combined efforts of all the pledges and active brothers was very successful in visiting every student housing building and making personal contacts with individual students. The newly acquired fire engine was one of the biggest assets for the election. On election day, the fire engine ran from the dorms to the Union Building, carrying students to the polls and back and resulted in a larger percentage of student vote and a wider margin of victory for our candidate.

Pledgemaster Ken Hill has organized the pledge class, and they have done a very excellent job in keeping the house clean by doing daily house duties as well as week-end work parties.

Active in athletics are Alan Parrish, Gary Schiffman, Wayne Estes and Dave Olson who are playing on the freshman basketball team. Reid Goldsberry is on the varsity team.

The annual Bowery Ball was held at the end of fall quarter. This party is traditionally held at Crystal Springs, twenty miles from Logan. The uniqueness of the party comes from the gay nineties costumes and the beards which the brothers grow during the month preceeding the party. Co-Chairmen were Ken Hall and Mike Sweet. Wendell Rassumssen and Monty Neville designed the programs for the event and the half-time activities were put on by the pledge class directed by pledge Bob Allen. Prizes for beards and costumes also added to the evening.

In intramurals, the "A" basketball team, under the coaching of Lewis Westover, came through with the championship, despite a loss early in the tournament. Wrestling was also successful as we finished second from a field of eight fraternity teams. Pi Kappa Alpha entered a man in every weight, and Rex Cates won the 137 pound class. Ron Clark and Gary Matheson were runners-up in the 157 and 187 pound classes.

The big brother program is being used to its fullest extent. Films of football games as well as activity nights in the gym have been effective as well as fun for all of the brothers.

Major events for this quarter are Winter Carnival, the Winter Formal and a very outstanding and unique party, the Playboy party.

Alumni Support Beloit Chapter

One of the most pleasing highlights of the last semester at Beta-Iota has been the renewed interest and support of the chapter by alumni. An unusually large number were present for homecoming. More important, however, was the assistance the active chapter received from them in getting the college administration to pay for painting the house. Quite a few alumni wrote the college about the poor condition of the outside of the house, and their letters brought a quick and satisfactory paint job.

Many Pikes are moving into leadership position on the Beloit campus. Dave Blair, past SMC and a record-breaking cross country runner, is a former vice president of B Club, an organization of lettermen, and is heading Greek Week this spring. Pike are also president of the intramural council, band council, and three religious groups.

In early December almost half the chapter attended the District Convention at Bradley. This was good enough to bring Beta-Iota a plaque for best representation. The convention was quite a success, and many of its suggestions are being put into effect by the chapter. A lion's share of the credit for the convention goes to the recently-resigned President of District 17, George "Buddy" Beacham. We deeply regret his resignation which was due to the large amount of clerical work required by his position and for which there were no expense funds available from the National Fraternity.

Georgia State Pikes Visit Children's Hospital

On Wednesday, December 20th, the Georgia State Pikes journeyed to the Scottish Rite Hospital for crippled children in Decatur, Georgia to bring Christmas to nineteen boys and girls who are bed ridden with various crippling diseases. The brothers, pledges, and dates brought an abundance of gifts which were distributed by Santa Claus, Charlie Dickerson. Cartoons and Christmas films were shown to the children and refreshments were served.

We came in second in I.F.C. intramural football after putting up a good fight in a championship playoff game. In I.F.C. bowling over the Christmas holidays, we placed third, missing first place by only ten pins in some rough competition. S.M.C. Mike McCrorey was in charge of the I.F.C. bowling and performed with his usual thoroughness and success.

Leon Brock and John Parrish were initiated on November 4, and the fall pledges are scheduled for initiation on February 4, 1962. We have begun winter rush with enthusiasm to obtain more new men for our chapter.

The Georgia State Pikes competed with the other fraternities on campus in The Atlanta Jaycee's annual Empty Stocking Fund Campaign for needy children. Although unofficial, we not only collected more than any other organization, we also had the "high-man".

John Parrish

North Carolina Pledges Talented Men

Again roaring down the line leading the pack, Tau Chapter at the University of North Carolina began the big year with thirty-seven pledges. The largest pledge class on campus, it includes scholars, athletes, musicians, and other talented individuals who hail from several states. Not hindered by their varied and diverse backgrounds, the new Tau pledge class, quickly unified, sprang into the PiKA tradition. Ted Roberson, president, and Tippy Kirven, vice president have successfully led the 37 through several sorority socials, and an expanding pledge activity and projects program. Moreover, the scholastic potential appears very optimistic. Pledge masters John Flounoy, Fred Croom, Bob Richardson, and Dave Heilig have conducted an outstanding program which promises great success.

On the gridiron this season, Pikes held three major positions: Joe Craver, first string center, defensive quarterback, and right linebacker, was elected co-captain of the Tar Heels for the '62 season.

The annual PiKA "Beat-Dook" Parade was a smashing success as usual. Immediately preceding the University of North Carolina-Duke University game, a parade, consisting of 30 floats, Naval and Air Force R.O.T.C. units, and marching bands, is sponsored by Tau Chapter. The parade was preceded by a beauty contest from which a queen was chosen to reign at the parade. This year, Miss Jean Spears of Chattanooga, Tenn., was the "Beat-Dook" Queen.

Elections for second semester resulted in the re-election of S.M.C. Jackie Lohr and the election of I.M.C. Fred Croom. An expanded alumni program will be the emphasis for the upcoming season.

Tau Chapter is represented in all aspects of University life. Bob Richardson and Dave Edwards are on the wrestling team, and Bill Bevis is a second year varsity la crosse player. Student government offices are held by Allen Cronenberg, the attorney general of the student body; Al Pollard, chairman of the Orientation Committee for Freshmen; and Tam Lefler, president of the Y.M.C.A. Also, Sophomore Fuller Honeycutt is serving as vice president of his class.

McCollum Assists In Ohio U. Initiation

Early Sunday morning, January 14, 1962, Gamma-Omicron Chapter witnessed the initiation of one of the finest pledge classes in recent years. Brother James McCollum administered the Alumnus Charge after traveling from Cleveland to witness his son's activation. The new brothers are: Leonard John Rezabek, Gary Andrew Doeringer, Thomas Gary Scherer, Neil Paul Wicai, Lemoyne Earl Harris, Spence Lee Wise, Roy Jackson Lynch, David Charles McCollum, Charles Michael Spear, and Paul Kenneth Krueger.

New officers were elected January 8, 1962. Installation ceremonies were conducted for Harry Miler, SMC; Bruce Dudley, IMC; Gary Doeringer, ThC. A standing ovation was given outgoing SMC Pat Heaney for the outstanding job he has done reorganizing the chapter and initiating some much needed long range planning.

The house and grounds improvement started last fall has almost reached completion. New furniture and curtains were purchased for the living room and card room. During Christmas vacation a new fire place was installed in the living room, and two weeks later one wall was cherry paneled. Completion of the outside projects will be completed in time for spring parties.

Picnic tables and a barbecue are being built for our new "200 truck load" yard. Thanks to the generous donation of shrubbery by our new SMC, we will have one of the finest "frolic spots" in Athens.

West Virginia Holds Social Exchanges

Visiting Alpha-Theta in mid-December was George L. Lalanne, Administrative Assistant. Through his meetings with our chapter officers and members, Brother Lalanne presented valuable information of his own undergraduate fraternity experience at Beta-Upsilon at the University of Colorado and also ideas from other chapters in our area which he had visited.

Socially Alpha-Theta has again been tops this year. We have had as our exchange dinner guests members of Alpha-Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, and Alpha Xi Delta. These gatherings are concluded with a social hour.

In the annual Christmas Serenade for the sorority and dormitory women, the 80 men of Alpha-Theta raised their voices in song to five sorority and two dormitory groups. Also in the spirit of the season, we entertained with a Christmas dinner, followed by a party for 100 children with E. Thomas Wetzel serving as Santa Claus and Roger Galloway as narrator of a skit. Closing out our pre-Christmas funfests, our annual Christmas party with its exchange of gag-type gifts by brothers and dates was well attended.

Upon returning to campus after Christmas, our chapter was the guest of the Kappa Alpha Order for an annual stag party. Closing out the activities for the semester, the annual Pledge Hop was held at Mont Chateau Lodge, overlooking beautiful Cheat Lake.

Alpha-Theta is presently in the process of an intensified study program in an attempt to climb two rungs of the ladder of scholastic achievement among the fraternities. Our third place rank of last semester was difficult to attain, yet we have concentrated all efforts at improving this rank.

Officers of Alpha-Theta are: John Lynch, SMC; Terry Broadwater, IMC; James Laughlin, ThC; Hobart Pyles, SC; and William Jones, Pledgemaster.

In mid-October Alpha-Theta was presented a small, flop-eared pup by our university swimming and soccer coach. Mascot "Pike" is a brown and white German shepherd-collie.

Washington and Lee Elects Officers Annually

In recent elections, the members of Pi Chapter elected Bo Dubose president and Dave Bevans vice president. They will hold office until the first week in April, when further elections will be held and new officers installed on a yearly basis. Up to this time officers of Pi have been elected on a semi-annual basis. It is hoped that this longer term will enable new officers to become more familiar with their duties and afford them a more extensive opportunity in carrying out long-range programs.

This year Pi Chapter, in accordance with recent IFC proposals and popular opinion within the house, has converted the traditional "Hell Week" to a "Help Week," the purpose of which is to initiate constructive projects for house improvement. The organization of this program will be co-ordinated between the house manager, the treasurer, and the pledgemaster (the man directly responsible for the week's activities) to insure maximum utilization of manpower and available funds.

PiKA Eliot Maynard, outstanding breast-stroker and captain of W&L's swimming team, has led the varsity squad to an undefeated season thus far. Sophomore PiKA Bruce Houghton is number one diver on the team. Pledges Jerry Kowalski and Scott Verner have teamed up in a terrific scoring combination on the freshman basketball team. Led by Verner, 6' 4" Kowalski came through with 22 big points in W&L's final game. Another freshman, Tracy Harrington, has been writing an excellent column in the university's newspaper, the Ring Tum Phi. Based on personal interviews with various professors, his subjects range from Science to Communism.

All the brothers at Pi are looking forward to the respite from academics provided by Fancy Dress Dances. The fraternity has a full schedule planned for the big weekend which promises to be an exciting one.

Mrs. Mathews Is Ga. Tech Housemother

Alpha-Delta is beginning this school year with a new housemother, Mrs. Ruth B. Mathews. Mother Mathews, formerly of North Carolina, is a long time resident of Atlanta. This college atmosphere is not new to her since she was formerly a housemother at Barrett Dormitory for girls at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia.

Alpha-Delta's plans for a new house may finally materialize, due to the fine work of our chapter's devoted alumni. We have raised most of the capital and need only the final approval from the National Office.

Rush week of 1961 yielded thirty-four fine men. They have the spirit to lead Alpha-Delta in the future. Under our new pledge and scholarship programs, we hope to initiate a large percentage of them. This pledge class was the second largest pledge class on campus this past fall.

To anyone of our friends who come to Atlanta we extend a cordial invitation to visit us at 828 Techwood Drive, N.E.

Fla. Southern Takes Class Presidencies

Leadership in campus affairs has always been one of Delta-Delta's strongest points. The chapter has done exceptionally well in student elections this spring. In the general elections Tim Scobie took the post of president of the senior class with John Clockadale as vice president. Frank Ivey was elected to head the Junior class; Steve Cochran as Junior Senator, and Bill Rountree and Ray Nathurst as Junior Senators at Large. Fred Larson was elected by a large majority to serve as president of the sophomore class, and Scott Honefenger as vice president. Sonny Overton was elected vice president of Student Government, and Jim Stahl as treasurer. Bill Rountree was appointed Court Justice of Men's Student Government, and Jake Ax as representative. Jim Stahl is head of the campus political union. In Omicron Delta Kappa, we have Bill Rountree, Sonny Overton, and Dwain Cox.

Delta-Delta is proud to announce the selection of Sonny Overton, vice president of SUGA, Southern Universities Student Government Association, as keynote speaker of the organization's ninth annual conference on April 26, Clemson College, Clemson, S.C.

This semester the fraternity received a scholarship trophy from the interfraternity council for the chapter showing the most improvement in academic standings. The chapter came up from seventh to third place.

The house has been completely repainted on the inside. New shrubs have been planted around the house and in the yard.

Howard Plans New House

The big news from Alpha-Pi this spring is plans that call for the building of a new chapter house. After several semesters of fund raising by brothers and alumni, our dream is rapidly becoming a reality. Ground breaking is planned for early spring.

This past fall, Alpha-Pi pledged twenty-six men. Homecoming week-end at Howard College was October 21 and Alpha-Pi Chapter celebrated by holding its 50th anniversary banquet at the Gold Nugget Supper Club. Featured speaker for the occasion was Dr. I. F. Simmons of the Howard faculty. Dr. Simmons was a member of Alpha-Pi at the time it received its charter in 1911. Brother Simmons told of the early days of Alpha-Pi on Howard's campus.

In the fall Alpha-Pi won the intramural football trophy and the volleyball championship. Alpha-Pi's intramural teams are making a strong bid to capture the All-Campus Intramural Trophy for the second consecutive year.

Miss Anne Boynton, AAII, was chosen Dream Girl of Alpha-Pi Chapter at the formal dance, December 8-9.

Guest speaker for the banquet was Bobby Bowden, head football coach at Howard. Coach Bowden is a past SMC of Alpha-Pi chapter.

The week before Christmas vacation, the Pikes gave their annual Christmas party for the children at the Crippled Children Clinic. Tom Rountree played Santa Claus.

The week after Christmas the first Pike calendar on Howard's campus came from the press through the efforts of Bob Warick, Jerry Albano, and Cy Swatek.

Iowa Holds Secession Week

In recognition of the one hundredth anniversary of the great War between the States, the men of Gamma-Nu Chapter proclaimed December 3rd through the 9th as "Secession Week". The Stars and Bars flew in all of its glory from our patio, while brothers of the Rebel Fraternity displayed their sympathies on campus by wearing "Johnny Reb" caps all week to their classes. During the week a contingent of Confederate troops traveled throughout Iowa City to present invitations to those "Southern Belles" chosen as dates.

To culminate the week's activities, a Secession Celebration and Formal Plantation Ball was held at the "Stronghold of the Confederacy in the North".

The great success of this our First Annual Secession Week makes it almost a necessity to continue it for many years to come.

For Founders' Day this year Gamma-Nu is invited to Delta-Omicron Chapter at Drake. All the chapters of District Nineteen will be in attendance.

Oklahoma Holds Garnet and Gold Formal

During the middle of November, Beta-Omicron pledges planned and held the annual PiKA Roman Toga Party. The chapter house was decorated in Roman motif with arches in the front, catacombs downstairs, and the dancing area arranged like a Roman arena. During the week preceding the party, the pledges delivered invitations to sorority houses accompanied by a live lion which appeared at the party to add an atmosphere of authenticity. Members, pledges and their dates came in costumes varying from senators to slaves and danced to music furnished by the "Shadows" from Dallas.

Our social calendar was highlighted with the Garnet and Gold Christmas Formal held just before the holidays.

Pennsylvania Pledges Twenty Men

After having had a membership of less than ten for several years, Beta-Pi proudly announces a pledge class of twenty men. Under the guidance of rush chairman Jim Reynolds, several rushing smokers were held during the first semester of Pennsylvanias academic year. With the fresh crew of pledges in the house, Beta-Pi is looking forward to a successful spring semester, both in completing the renovation of the house and in social activities. The officers for spring, 1962, are SMC Lynden Miller, IMC Jim Reynolds, THC J. Gross Bosley, and SC David T. Jones.

During the course of the spring semester of 1961, many improvements were made in the chapter's physical plant. The chapter room and dining room were repainted, the television room revarnished, and the house generally made more presentable. These improvements plus a great emphasis on rushing produced very satisfying results.

In an effort to re-establish itself on the Penn campus, Beta-Pi has become more active in social and campus activities. The house has a seat on the Sophomore Council of the Interfraternity Council, and is active in campus politics. Several brothers and pledges are members of the University Band.

Alan E. Friedman,
BII, Univ. of Penn.

Georgetown Has Sports Leaders

Alpha-Lambda, well on its way to another great year, can thus far be proud of its campus leaders, particularly in sports. In addition to supplying two of the three co-captains on the Georgetown football team, PiKA also furnishes the Tigers' basketball team (ranked fifth in the nation among small colleges) with her starting forward-center. The only Greek to be so honored is Tom Westerfield.

The Pikes are well on their way to another intramural sports trophy. We have tied for second in football, have first places in cross-country and volleyball, and expect to emerge at the top of the list in basketball in the current campaign. Prospects are good that Alpha-Lambda will cop this coveted trophy for the third year in a row.

The 1962 Dream Girl of Alpha-Lambda chapter is Miss Judy Allen, an elementary education major pledged to Sigma Kappa sorority. She was presented at our annual Christmas party to succeed Miss Vicki Ritter.

This year, as in past years, we have managed a sizable redecorating project. Through the work and good management of all concerned, we completely wallpapered the downstairs area of the chapter house and purchased new drapes for the windows.

Southwestern Enjoying New House

Steve Raben, recently elected S.M.C. of Alpha-Omicron, received the gavel of authority from David Lemons on January 15, 1962. Other chapter officers include: Jim Winn, I.M.C.; James Draeger, Th. C.; Bill Fair, S.C.; Gerald Kurio, Pledge Master; Jerry Abel, House Manager; and Sam Birkenner, Rush Captain. The newly elected officers have assumed their duties and are planning the chapter's attendance at the first annual District 23 convention. Epsilon-Eta at the University of Houston will host the event at Ellington Air Force Base, February 2-4.

Well settled in their new house on the campus of Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas, Alpha-Omicron has had an extremely good first semester. The new house has already had its share of parties including the Mexican, Roaring '20's, and Red Sweater parties, plus the Christmas formal.

We were very pleased to have Brick Lowry, AO, Dean of Sam Houston State and president of District 23, as principal speaker for our house dedication. The faculty, members of other fraternities, and guests attended the open house occasioned by the dedication.

Football yielded IKA second place in intramural competition. A starting basketball unit averaging 6'3" and an extremely strong bench boasting two full teams promises success for the Pikes fast breaking offense.

Chapter members have had the leads in the two Mask & Wig productions, and are holding two more on tap. Since last issue AO has pledged three additional men. Holding a B average or better, approximately 80% of the fall pledge class will be eligible for initiation.

C. H. Bailey,
AO, Southwestern

"Boppa" Blankenship Housemother at Ark.

Alpha-Zeta chapter has a new housemother - Mrs. Martha Blankenship. When Mrs. Walter (PoPo) Sorrells retired last year, the chapter was very concerned about finding another so devoted and loving.

New initiates at the University of Pennsylvania.

It didn't take Mrs. Blankenship long to prove herself to us. Since the beginning of this school year "Boppa" has become more than we could ever hope for. She is mother, father, doctor, advisor, and friend to every member and pledge of Pi Kappa Alpha on the University of Arkansas campus. Mrs. Blankenship was born in Warren, Arkansas and was married to the late Voy Blankenship. We are very proud of "Boppa" and she deserves much of the credit for helping us stay tops on campus.

This year Alpha-Zeta pledged twenty-eight men in fall rush. We have just initiated eight men into the bonds of the fraternity.

The Pi Kappa Alpha basketball team added another trophy to our case by winning four consecutive games and taking first place in the Northwest Arkansas Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Mothers' Club Sponsors L.S.U. Banquet

Alpha-Gamma Chapter at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge elected its new officers at the first meeting of the new year. Those chosen are: SMC Cary Owen, IMC Trent James, ThC Patrick Dugan, SC John Devereaux, and MC Daniel Uter.

In addition to the weekly guest meals, there have been several events of special significance. Before leaving for the Christmas holidays, the Mothers' Club sponsored a banquet and dance for the brothers and their dates. There was an exchange of gifts, and all thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. The customary banquet was held to celebrate our chapter's Founders' Day, and it was an occasion of inspiration for all.

Two Alpha-Gamma brothers have been selected for membership in Who's Who. They are Trent L. James, IMC and past SMC, and Kenneth D. McCoy, past IMC and ThC.

Early in December, Alpha-Gamma scored a 6-2 football victory over the Pikes from Eta Chapter at Tulane in New Orleans. Coach for the LSU team was Brother Buddy Woodward. Following the game, a dance was held at the chapter house for everyone and their dates.

*John Devereaux

Press Covers E. Tenn. Event

Epsilon-Zeta successfully produced its first annual "Calendar Girl Dance" on the 12th of December. The addition of the dance to the usual distribution of the calendars was the work of director Tom Stiner. He and his committee designed the dance to meet a four-fold purpose—It served as an excellent rush function. It served to augment normal calendar sales. It attracted the local press to the extent that the Johnson City "Press Chronical" gave two and one-half pages to pictures of the girls and the dance. The calendar may have been a first in "Pike Calendars" throughout the country because it was entirely in color.

Don Wright was elected "Mr. East Tennessee State College" and Dream Girl Marthanne Bullock was elected as "Miss East Tennessee State College". John Mac Fadden, Don Wright, and Tom Stiner were initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, national business fraternity; Pledge Farrill Mathis took first place honors in the annual Kappa Delta "Barnwarming" talent contest. John Mac Fadden and his fiancé were selected as "King and Queen" of that event. The brothers took the 1961 school spirit trophy for the "best stunt" at athletic events. This award is presented annually by the College Alumni.

The chapter has acquired a new alumnus counselor. Hal Littleford. We are quite fortunate to have such a fine gentleman and look forward to continued success under his leadership. We are indebted to Zeta Chapter alumnus Hugh Broom. Brother Broom, an instructor in the School of Mathematics, has devoted many hours of his time to the Fraternity.

San Diego State Wins Honors

Delta-Kappa at San Diego State ran away with all honors in the November homecoming events. Not only did the float win the sweepstakes trophy over twenty other entries but our homecoming queen candidate, Marilyn Hanson, Chi Omega, reigned over the ceremonies. To complete the day, SDS beat Santa Barbara in the homecoming game. Needless to say, celebrations with Alpha-Phi sorority, with whom the float was built, ensued that night.

In a pledge class of 35, five are on the basketball team, three are grid men, four are trackmen, and six hold offices in the student government. Two pledges had to drop out of school due to an affliction popularly considered a badge of success — ulcers. Our sympathy is extended to Bob Andre and Dave Flanders.

The new fraternity officers for the spring semester are Robert Harms, SMC; Mike Lembeck, IMC; John Harris, SC; and Robert Owens Harvey, Th. C.

Student elections for the 1961-62 school year netted offices for many IIKAs. Boyd Malloy is president of the student body; Mike Spurgeon, sophomore class representative; Jim Street, lower division representative; and Mike Lembeck, upper division representative.

Delta-Kappa had a full social calendar in the fall semester. Some of the parties enjoyed were a record hop, a Christmas orgy, an all-school IKA-sponsored Thanksgiving dance, a farmers hoedown, and a New Year's trip to the San Bernadino Mountains. For the latter, the fraternity rented two ski lodges, imported a band, and provided bus transportation and meals. It was the first time skiing for most, and for some it was the first time they had ever seen snow.

Oregon Has Forty Men

Gamma-Pi Chapter at the University of Oregon has successfully regained its standing among the top fraternities on campus, following thirty years of sporadic performance climaxed with a fire in the house.

Even though the chapter disbanded in 1959, the spirit of PiKA remained in the hearts of three determined brothers. The chapter re-organized in the winter of last year with three men, and grew to the strong chapter it now is, numbering forty.

With this tremendous growth in number, the men of Gamma-Pi have exemplified the high ideals of PiKA. A successful homecoming banquet was given for PiKA alumni; active participation in school activities has been shown; social events have taken place.

The pledges have just celebrated their coming initiation by sharing a dinner-dance with the pledge class of Delta Delta Delta Sorority. The couples were treated to a steak dinner, served by the actives.

We are now awaiting the visit of Herb Miller, National Chapter House Commissioner. It is a hope from his visit that the present housing problem can be solved with the construction of a much needed house. Whether we get the house or not, we of Gamma-Pi know that PiKA will always remain on our campus as an example of unity and brotherhood.

Wash. State Wins League Championship

Gamma-Xi's intramural football team won its league hands down and came in third in the all University championship playoff. The big athletic news from Gamma-Xi was Jerry Campbell winning the J. F. Bohler Inspirational Award on the varsity football team. Jerry was the mainstay of the defensive backfield. Jerry was also named captain of the varsity wrestling team.

Other brothers and pledges competing on varsity teams are Dick van Hersett and pledges John Turner and Mickey Rhodes, gymnastics; and pledge Jerry Stewart, wrestling.

Gamma-Xi elected these officers for the coming semester; Hank Heim, SMC; Rick Mattson, IMC; Dick van Hersett, MC; and Hank Schmidt, ThC. Outgoing SMC Larry Drury is to be commended on the fine job he did as SMC. His job was made more difficult by the fact that he was editor of the Evergreen, school newspaper.

The second semester social calendar will be filled with functions leading up to our Dream Girl contest and dance. Les Hair, chairman of the Dream Girl contest, has planned many fine activities for the contest.

Bradley Host To District Convention

December 1-3, Delta-Sigma was host to the 1961 District 17 Convention. The District is composed of the chapters from Beloit College, Bradley University, University of Illinois, Northwestern University, Purdue University, Valparaiso University, and the University of Wisconsin. The purpose of the convention was to discuss and attempt to solve some of the problems of the chapters on a district level. Motions were also proposed at this time to be submitted to the National Convention of Pi Kappa Alpha to be held this summer in Louisville, Kentucky.

Friday night was devoted to registration at the fraternity house. Five pinmates of the brothers served as hostesses during the registration. After the brothers registered at the house, they were escorted to the Jefferson Hotel where arrangements had been made for them to stay for the weekend.

At 7:00 a.m. Saturday the brothers at the hotel were awakened by the desk clerk. Breakfast was held at the fraternity house. The brothers then proceeded to Bradley Hall Auditorium for the opening business session. A welcoming address was given by Dr. Van Arsdale, president of Bradley University. The presidents of the different chapters introduced themselves and their respective chapters. Introductory remarks were given by "Bud" Beacham, District President, and Frank Klosik, Chairman of the convention. At approximately ten o'clock the main meeting dispersed into separate committee meetings. These meetings covered pledge training, scholarship, finance, chapter administration, national relations, publicity and public relations, rushing, and alumni relations. Each chapter was represented on these committees with the Alumnus Counselors of the different chapters serving as advisors.

At ten o'clock Sunday morning, an interdenominational religious service was conducted by Dr. Harold Lentz, president of Carthage College and a Pi Kappa Alpha alumnus. After the service the remaining committee reports were given.

The main banquet of the convention was held at one o'clock in the Bradley Student Center ballroom. Guest speaker for this event was Dean Carl Knox, Dean of Men of the University of Illinois.

Ohio State Pledges Scholars

Winter quarter provided the men of Alpha-Rho an excellent opportunity to rush men of proven ability. And we did. During the first two weeks of the quarter four men were pledged having an average point hour ratio of 3.0, a B average. It is hoped that several other men will be pledged shortly, bringing our pledge class to a desired total of thirty men.

To broaden our cultural outlook and to increase our knowledge of the world, after dinner speeches are given prior to meetings by eminent college professors. These talks also serve to better faculty-fraternity relations and permit many of the brothers to become informally acquainted with their instructors.

Socially, we enjoyed a half dozen parties during fall quarter highlighted by a homecoming dinner dance at Nationwide Inn which many alumni attended.

Hopes are high this quarter too of acquiring some sports trophies. In basketball alone we have four teams entered, so chances are good. Our strengthened bowling team, league champions last quarter, should go all the way this quarter in tournament competition.

Bowling Green Wins Championship

For the third consecutive undefeated year Delta-Beta Chapter has won the All-Campus intramural football championship at Bowling Green. Also the fraternity intramural football championship crown was our laurels. We came out victors for the third consecutive year over Phi Delta Theta by a score of 63-37. Three of the brothers William Murphy, Jack Wellington, and Thomas Baldassaire made first team on the All-Star intramural football team which consists of six players.

We have a 2-0 record in basketball. In addition, Delta-Beta took second place in intramural wrestling with Thomas Flanagan and Robert Cunningham placing first place respectively in 120 and 165 pound class. Richard Leathers won the intramural co-ed tennis championship with his partner Dodd Limius, Chi Omega Sorority.

On our social calendar this past semester we had a Christmas Party for the Crippled Children of Wood County, Ohio, sponsored by Delta-Beta and the sisters of Alpha Xi Sorority. Our Winter Formal was held at Liberty Center Country Club in Liberty Center, Ohio. Our exchange parties with other sororities proved to be very rewarding. This semester there will be a "Twist Party" with the sisters of Delta Gamma Sorority.

With the retirement of Dr. Russell Decker our close friend and former alumni advisor, Michel Clancy has become our new Alumnus Counselor. This man has brought much warmth and joy to our house. His youth and understanding of the chapter will be an asset to us in the coming semester.

The new officers for the coming semester are Richard Bibel, president; Robert Bell, vice-president; Al Ksiak, treasurer; and James Courtad, secretary.

Penn State Receives Two Prizes

Beta-Alpha Chapter had a fine homecoming weekend this past fall. Competing against some forty fraternities, PiKA made an excellent showing, winning prizes in the two major events before the eyes of many thousands of Penn State alumni. We took second place honors in a campus-wide homecoming display contest for the California football game. Our giant display, forty feet high, won the admiration of the whole campus as well as the prize from the judges. The co-operation and hard work of the whole chapter made this colorful and popular display possible. To add to our pride, our entrant in the Homecoming Queen contest, Miss Raven Fennell, Kappa Alpha Theta, was selected from the poised and lovely contestants to preside over the weekend festivities.

Extensive renovations will be made on our chapter house this summer; our kitchen, heating system, and parts of our living quarters are to be completely redone. We are also to receive some new furniture for our dining and living rooms. Recently elected officers of Beta-Alpha include: SMC Jack Snyder, IMC Steve Lenhardt, ThC Peter Hoffman and SC Bruce Slifer.

This year we have obtained one of the best and most spirited pledge classes that we have seen in a number of years—nineteen future Pikes entered our doors this fall. Thus we look forward to continued growth and success at Beta-Alpha.

California Plans Gala Celebration

With 1962 marking the 50th year of the founding of Alpha-Sigma Chapter at the University of California, actives and alumni alike are looking forward to the activities planned for this year's Founder's Day. However, the brightness of the "Golden Anniversary" has been saddened and dimmed by the death last summer of Mrs. H. H. "Mother" Camper. Her years of service and devotion went beyond Alpha-Sigma of Pi Kappa Alpha for she began her association with us by chaperoning parties in 1909 for then local premedical fraternity, The Calimedico Club. Her loss has been keenly felt by Alpha-Sigma men.

Founder's Day activities are under the direction of Dr. J. Marion Read '12, a charter member and prominent physician. Among the more extensive plans for this year's celebration on Saturday, March 10, are an open house at the chapter with actives serving as hosts, conducting tours, meeting trains and planes. The Mother's Club will sponsor a luncheon at the open house. An afternoon cocktail party at the beautiful Berkeley home of Jack Fischer will be followed by the banquet at Spenger's Fish Grotto in Berkeley, the renowned eating and meeting place known to all Alpha-Sigma alums. The highlight of the evening will be an address by National President David Powers and presentation of fifty year scrolls to the charter members still living.

Certainly the return of the charter members who fifty years ago founded Alpha-Sigma on such sound foundations is eagerly anticipated by everyone. And on this day of celebration we all will renew acquaintances and meet the "alums," especially the honored fifty year men.

Alpha-Sigma suffered another loss of one of its sincere and dedicated members with the death in September of Brother William Moldenshardt, financial advisor to the chapter since 1956. We were fortunate to secure the services of Brother Tom Holmes '55 as successor to Brother Moldenshardt.

Alpha-Sigma led all fraternities with the number of men on the varsity football team. Golden Bear fans will recognize most of these: Randy Gold, quarterback; Alan Nelson, back; Jess Pittore, back; Stan Parkinson, center; Ron Vaughn, end; Loren Hawley, end; John Epps, quarterback; Jack Trumbo, back; John Stassi, guard; Sam Stassi, guard; Doug Graham, guard; Gregg Avilla, end, and Bill Newsome, fullback. Doug Duff, pledge, was a center on the undefeated freshman team and Jim Green '59 was an assistant coach for the frosh.

SMC Ed Donahue represents the house in basketball and track. Ed, incidentally, was sidelined recently in a bout with pneumonia, but bounced back within a few weeks to regain his starting forward position on the Bear varsity.

Brian Herman will don the flannels of a Cal baseballer and the very fine rugby team has its share of Pikas too with footballers Graham, Pittore, and Hawley being excellent performers and on the starting 15. Other sports in which PiKA was represented: Crew—Steve Brandt, and swimming, Duane Duff.

That the brothers are not only fine performers but leaders as is illustrated by members who have served on or are serving as officers of this important club. Past officers of the Big C Athletic Award Society are: Ed O'Dea and Stan Parkinson, secretary. Those currently serving are Steve Brandt, vice-president, and Dick Carlsen, secretary.

Last year's football awards banquet saw center Dick Carlsen walk off with almost all the 'jewelry,' being selected Most Improved Lineman, Most Valuable Lineman, and finally Most Valuable Player. This year Ron Vaughn, junior end, was chosen as the Most Improved Lineman despite injuries which sidelined him for a portion of the season.

Socially Pi Kappa Alpha has placed Jon Papini, Walt Arnold, Sam Stassi, Dave Whitneck, Paul Prudler, Ed Donahue, Brian Herman, Jim Sally and Ed O'Dea in Skull and Keys, the Junior-Senior Men's Honor Society, and Beta Beta Senior Men's Society includes Papini, Arnold, Prudler, Herman, O'Dea and Parkinson. Winged Helmet Junior-Men's has 15 Pikas and the Sophomore Club has 10 men of Alpha-Sigma as members.

In a school with ever rising scholastic standards such as California we are happy to report that with a 2.4 grade point average Alpha-Sigma placed 22nd on campus, our highest ranking in years. Randy Gold was selected to the scholastic Big Five football team.

House officers for the fall were SMC Ed Donahue, IMC Jess Pittore, and ThC Duane Duff; the spring officers were SMC Stan Parkinson, IMC Brian Herman, and ThC Jon Steward.

Kansas Has New Housemother

Mrs. Rene Wallace, originally from Westchester county, New York, has joined Beta-Gamma Chapter at Pi Kappa Alpha as housemother, following the retirement of Mrs. Leona "Laddie" Ladehoff. Mrs. Wallace lived with her parents in Mexico City, and she attended the University of Mexico City and Columbia University. Her husband, the late H. Clay Wallace, was a prominent East Coast oil man, a petroleum engineer and a geophysicist. Her daughter, Suzanne Stauffer, is the wife of Topeka newspaper publisher, Stanley Stauffer.

Mrs. Wallace's career at the University of Kansas began two years ago, when she opened Lewis Hall, dormitory for upperclass women, as resident manager.

During the summer she indulges in her hobbies—the arts, travel, and golf. She is also most interested in preparing dogs and horses for competition showing. During the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Wallace basked in the suns of Jamaica at Montego Bay, and this summer she plans to spend in Greece.

Eighteen Men Pledged at Linfield

Under the outstanding leadership of SMC Larry Boles the two weeks of open rush brought 18 pledges into the house. Social functions of the year included the pledge house dance with a theme of "Las Vegas". Delta-Rho won first place in the homecoming lawn display.

The Linfield College football team played in the Camellia Bowl, sixth annual NAIA championship game. Delta-Rho pledge Pat Thurston's booming punt brought the final score to Pittsburg State Gorillas 12—Linfield 7. Patrick is also the spark on Delta-Rho's intramural basketball team. Steve Doerfel took first place and pledge Dan VanScoy second in the speech tournament.

Drake Implements Scholarship Program

Believing that rush and initiation are our primary objectives for our new beginning, a top notch scholarship program has been put into effect. The members also have taken over the house and designed several new improvements in order to place Delta-Omicron in the competitive housing roster. Through many long hours the pledges and actives have completely repainted the house from dormitory to basement. The walls have been papered in several rooms, and additions of several new pieces of furniture purchased by several actives complete the finished picture. Not only has the inside reached an all time great, but the outside has also been repainted, and a California crushed rock patio graces our entrance. Several spotlights illuminate the exterior and a green spot floods the patio throughout each evening. We replaced 12 feet of our roof, and replaced the porch ceiling.

We have added to our honors a 1961 Homecoming Trophy for decorations. There are two varsity football players, one varsity basketball member, the vice president of Herriott Hall, largest of the men's dormitories, one member of the Judiciary Board of I.F.C., and one member of the Constitutional Revisions Committee.

On November 16, four men were initiated: David Harold Hook, Louis A. Gatta, Walter M. Thiel, and Charles A. Hempfling.

PiKA's of Delta Omicron are playing host to District 23 for the ninety fourth anniversary of Founders day on Thursday, March 1st.

We have just finished a very successful semester of rush. The chapter house was also completely redecorated and furnished.

The PiKA winter formal, "The Snow Ball", attended by the whole chapter, was deemed a success and a gala affair.

At the end of this year's football season, Delta-Omicron won a homecoming trophy for a very elaborate and colorful decoration.

On January 15, Delta-Omicron had its active chapter elections. They are James Callahan SMC, David Hook IMC, Walter Laine ThC, and James Curtain SC.

Denver Initiates Ten Men

Gamma-Gamma at the University of Denver culminated a fine fall pledge period with the initiation of ten new brothers into the bonds early in January: Gary Aldinger, Gary Athey, Dave Hagerman, Gary Holtane, Dave Miller, Trent Nichols, Mace Poppenberg, Will Simms, Dave Wahlstrom, and Chuck Wendt. Four fine men were installed as new officers—SMC Chuck Cortese, IMC Paul Mauro, ThC Bob Kimmerling, and Historian Denton Hushaw.

Spirit in the chapter was overflowing, and after formal winter rush many new additional men were pledged. All the men in the chapter were kept busy as Gamma-Gamma played host to all Colorado chapters for Founders' Day ceremonies.

The social calendar was full of events, highlighted with dinner exchanges with sororities on campus and a beautiful pledge formal.

In intramurals, we boast the league championship in football and a good prospect for doing the same in basketball.

Birmingham-Southern Honors Surgeon General

Delta chapter at Birmingham-Southern College celebrated the Ninetieth anniversary of its chartering with a brunch honoring a distinguished alumnus, Dr. Luther L. Terry, Surgeon General of the United States.

After concluding the 90th year, which yielded a pledge class with the highest pledge scholastic average of any fraternity on campus, Delta entered its ninety-first year with brothers participating in many honorary and service organizations. With 73% of the brothers as donors, Delta won the first award for participation in the campus Red Cross blood drive.

Newly elected chapter officers include: John Outland, SMC; Donald Peterson, IMC; James Trucks, ThC, and Victor Thompson, SC.

The Delta chapter social season was a great success highlighted by the annual Halloween Party and Christmas Dance as well as joint parties with other Pike chapters in the state. The climax of the social season was the Dream Girl Ball at which Miss Suzy Fullerton, ZTA, was crowned Dream Girl for 1962.

New Mexico Wins Homecoming Trophy

Since the opening of the recent school year, Beta-Delta Pikes at the University of New Mexico have scored many impressive first places in intramural sports and a first place trophy for homecoming decorations.

Beta-Delta started the year with a win in the huge campus track meet. With first places recorded in the 500-yard relay, three-legged race, football and baseball throws, and seconds in almost all other events, Beta-Delta's Pikes walked off with first place honors and many outstanding individual honors. The track meet was the beginning of our sports surge and Beta-Delta has continued a domination of intramural sports throughout the year.

Next came the swim meet and PiKA walked away with another first place. The Pikes recorded 320 points to its nearest opponent's 142. After the swim meet, Beta-Delta won the intramural cross-country for the second year in a row. Billy Raymer led the Pikes to victory as Beta-Delta numbered 39 contestants to 28 for the rest of the teams combined. The cross-country added over 1,500 points to PiKA's growing intramural point total.

Having won the coveted Riculfi trophy last year for outstanding intramural sports, Beta-Delta Pikes are again on the road to another successful year of intramural competition.

Topping the growing list of first places for the Pikes this year was our first place in the men's fraternity division for homecoming house decorations.

Beta Delta constructed a huge rocket on the front lawn simulating a Redstone rocket. Tied to the three-story missile was a Redskin representing the University of Utah, our homecoming opponent. Next to the huge rocket was the New Mexico Lobo with a two-foot match ready to light the Redskin into orbit when they played the New Mexico Lobos. Credit for the homecoming first place goes to all our brothers and pledges.

The Pike theme of putting the Redskins in orbit must have meant something to the footballers as New Mexico upset mighty Utah 21-16.

Pittsburg Cops Football Honors

The interfraternity football season ended with IKA having seven wins against no defeats. Under the field generalship of John Cioffi and All-Star play of Rege Welsh our team crushed all opponents throughout the season. Others who used their talents to bring the first place trophy home were Bill Snyder, Russ Havlak, Carl Pepine, Jim Mill, Al Bracalilly, Don Hovevar, Jack Davis, and "Fierce" Frank Fusaro.

Brother Fusaro served as homecoming week chairman. In close co-operation with the members of Chi Omega we were able to win second place with "Popeye Trounces Trojan" the house competition.

The Dream Girl formal was held at the Webster Hall Hotel on December 9th, with Don Hovevar as chairman. Elected Dream Girl was Miss Judy Gebhard of Kappa Alpha Theta. This lovely lady will always be a gracious compliment to our brotherhood.

Many honors have been earned by our brothers since the last issue of The Shield and Diamond. Bob Bryan was vice president of Druids, sophomore honorary. Regis Welsh was elected I.F. Athletic Chairman. R. Dale Hardner and Allan Seijas were initiated into Druids. In the athletic vein John Cioffi was elected co-captain of the Panther baseball squad for the coming season. Varsity pole vaulter Dave Garwood has already set an outstanding pace in the first few indoor meets of the season. IMC Jack Davis has been chosen Civil Engineer chairman for Engineer's Week in March.

Gamma-Sigma played host to the regional conference held at the Penn-Sheraton Hotel December 15-16-17. National officers

David C. Powers, Earl Watkins, and Jack McMeekin were in attendance as well as chapter representatives from many schools. Delegates from the Pitt chapter were Carl Pepine and Regis Welsh.

Chairman Tom McClain has a well-planned rushing program. Founders' Day arrangements are being made for the Park Schenley restaurant on March 3. We hope all  $\Gamma\S$ ,  $B\S$ , and other local alumni will make it a point to attend. The Dave Guard Quartet is scheduled for Greek Week which is just around the corner.

The newly elected officers are Carl Pepine SMC, Jack Davis IMC, Bob Bryan ThC, and Jay Pisula SC.

Arizona State Continues Growth

The men of Delta-Tau are proud to report that they have a growing chapter. Since Brothers Boyd Garner and Bill Ross transferred from Arkansas State to Arizona State two years ago to recolonize Delta-Tau, much has happened. Delta-Tau now has an active chapter of 20 men and a pledge class of 22. Although our pledge class isn't the largest in number on campus, it tops all others in enthusiasm. Pledge Bruce Phillips is the elected secretary of the Interfraternity Pledge Council.

Our 1962 goal is a 50 man pledge class. The only adverse thing affecting our growth is the "Old marriage bug" the actives have caught. We have lost five men already and there is no telling when the "urge" will strike again.

One of the most important traditions at Arizona State is the A.S.U. and University of Arizona football game. Arizona State did not win this year, but the following Sunday afternoon the men of Delta-Tau trounced the boys from Gamma-Delta in our own football game.

Larry Rundle, Gamma-Delta, is our new Alumnus Counselor, replacing Skipper Wall, Beta-Omicron. We deeply appreciate the services of both of these fine brothers.

Montana State Contributes $1,000

Jerry Young is a busy man at Gamma-Kappa Chapter, Montana State College. During the absence of S.M.C. John Bodner, he is serving as S.M.C. In addition he is chairman of Pi Week which is one of the most outstanding events of the school year. The Pikes sponsor the sale of pies and peanuts and the money earned is donated to the March of Dimes. $1,000 was contributed to the March of Dimes last year.

The ballroom of one of the local hotels was the scene of an enjoyable fall party. The pledges organized the affair and used the Blue Hawaii theme.

Ole Miss Braggs On Housemother

Gamma-Iota Chapter again salutes our housemother, Mrs. Hazell Jane Brain. We are very fortunate to have Mother "B", as she is affectionately called. She is a definite asset to our chapter at Ole Miss.

Gamma-Iota would like to mention Howard E. Boone for his outstanding work in the chapter and on campus. He is past president of the chapter and is now serving as president of the Associated Student Body.

The new officers for the winter semester are: John Frame, president; John Gunter, vice president; Joseph Montgomery, treasurer; and Johnny Miller, secretary.

To the alumni of Gamma-Iota Chapter we went to extend our invitation to attend Founders' Day on March 4, but a special invitation goes out to the "class of 1927" as they will be guests of honor this year. At the banquet a plaque will be dedicated which will bear through the years the names of all the chapter presidents.

Northwestern Wins Five Out of Eight

Gamma-Rho received its fifth first place in homecoming decorations in the past eight years. A gigantic purple Willie the Wildcat branding a 25 foot white bull (Indiana Hoosier) entitled "The Favorite Brand of the Fans in the Stands" was easy winner for the second straight year. Actives and pledges spent an entire night erecting the immense structure which attracted unusual attention from engrossed alumni and students.

On the social scene Northwestern Pikes enjoyed the Splash Party, a combination of swimming and dancing at Chicago's famous Sheridan hotel and the annual Purple Passion party.

Northwestern's wrestling team took fourth place honors in the All-School championships. Both the swimming and football teams showed improvement as we look forward to a successful basketball season.

Disappointment came, however, with the resignation of George (Bud) Beacham, District President. Gamma-Rho expresses deepest regret in losing Bud who expended tireless energy in strengthening alumni and student relations.

Miss. Southern First In House Decorations

Delta-Mu Chapter has recently released the first fraternity calendar on the campus of Mississippi Southern College. Twelve of the loveliest coeds attending the institution posed for the camera. The endeavor of the chapter was sufficiently rewarded with the prestige it acquired. Another is planned for next year!

Homecoming honors came our way as we captured the first place award with our house decoration and placed second in the float originality contest. The two trophies are now in the case with numerous others.

Charlotte Elam, fraternity Dream Girl and a Kappa Delta, was chosen as one of the top twenty beauties on the MSC campus. Miss Elam will be presented at the annual beauty ball during the spring quarter. She will also represent the chapter in the annual Winter Carnival as a queen contestant.

The pledge class elected Barbara Montgomery of Delta Delta Delta as their pledge class sweetheart. Miss Montgomery will represent her sorority in the Winter Carnival.

Richard Wilson of Dunedin, Fla., and Stanford Gwin of Knoxville, Tenn., were selected by the faculty as members of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Wilson is an accounting major and Gwin attends the graduate school and serves on the speech faculty.

Delta-Mu chapter placed first in the fraternity grade average on campus. The chapter set the pace of the seven-member fraternity circuit—another first for Pi Kappa Alpha.

The chapter has replaced the 80-plus foot ladder fire truck with a completely re-modeled '27 engine. The truck was completely restored by a local automobile firm. It proved very valuable during the fall rush program.

Washington Is Host To District Convention

The District 27 Convention was held February 9 and 10 in Seattle with Beta-Beta serving as host. Over 130 members and pledges from five chapters converged on the World's Fair City for the event.

On Saturday the general meeting and panel discussion groups met in the Student Union Building on the University of Washington campus. The group discussions included establishment of District By-Laws and sharing of ideas on pledge training, rushing techniques and publicity. The highlight of the convention was a District Dream Girl Dance which was held on Saturday evening.

The inspirational highlight at Beta-Beta this past quarter was the initiation of 12 Brothers on Sunday January 14. We are extremely proud to have them in the chapter and will be expecting great things from them. They are: Richard Ballinger Jr., Russell Beahm, Bruce Ellingson, Dave Hansen, Cal Hart, Doug "Worm" Holmen, John Lackstrom, Bruce Meyer, Jim Moore, Doug Passey, Steve Smith and Clay Teske.

John Cahill

Richards Freshman President at Utah

Alpha-Tau has always had an outstanding record at the University of Utah in its campus political activities and we continued the tradition in the freshman elections this fall. Jim Richards was elected freshman president and Kent Michie freshman vice president.

The chapter was also proud of its representation in athletics. Jeff Jonas was selected all conference in football. He is the son of Brother Marwin Jonas, Utah center, who was honored in the December, 1961 issue of The Shield and Diamond for being selected to the Pi Kap honor team three years in a row.

The highlight of our fall quarter social calendar was the annual fall formal held at the elegant Willow Creek Country Club. The club is situated at the mouth of Little Cottonwood Canyon, entry to Alta, Utah's famous ski resort. The chapter's lovely Dream Girl, Barbara Nelson, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was the center of attraction. Barbara has a special claim to glory inasmuch as her brother, Bob, is in charge of the chapter's very successful intramural program. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Call Nelson, father and mother of Barbara and Bob, acted as chaperones. Brother Nelson is an active alumnus and, during his college days served as SMC of Beta-Eta Chapter, University of Illinois.

Last quarter AT was successful in pledging the largest group of outstanding freshmen on the campus and we are looking forward to welcoming them into the chapter as brothers this quarter.

Brooke Taylor

Illinois Entertains Bradley Chapter

The men of Beta-Eta Chapter recently played host to the brothers of Delta-Sigma, Bradley University, for the traditional yearly football duel. This year, Delta-Sigma overtook the U. of I. chapter and retained the victor's trophy by a score of 6 to 2.

On December 19, 1961, Beta-Eta and the IKA brothers of five other chapters in District 17 took an active part in the inspection and organization of Chi Nu colony of Pi Kappa Alpha at Eastern Illinois University. The chapter feels that this colony will prosper, and that it will be a fine link in the bonds of the fraternity.

Beta-Eta has been excelling in campus activities. Doug Winger and Gordon Bagby were elected president and vice president respectively of Star and Scroll, a sophomore fraternity men's honorary. Past SMC's of the chapter have continued their leadership qualities as shown by Tom McKnight's being elected treasurer of the Illinois Society of Construction Engineers and Dick Blatt's election as secretary of Phi Alpha Mu, fraternity scholastic honorary, and vice president of Libertal Arts and Sciences Council.

Other PiKa's at Illinois active in campus positions are: Jim Mansfield, business manager of Night Lights, a campus entertainment group; Don Spurling, newly initiated into Scabbard and Blade Military Fraternity; Cliff Steward, Student Senator and announcer on his own radio show over WPGU Radio; Jerry Leech, pledge class president and recipient of the Outstanding Pledge Award of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional commerce fraternity; and Bill Flood, varsity gymnast and trampoline expert.

La. Tech Wins Intramural Football

Of the 31 Louisiana Tech students picked recently for Who's Who, seven of them were members of Gamma-Psi chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. This number represented better than 20% of those chosen for the honor. Nominated by the chapter and other organizations on the campus, the Techster's final selection rested with a committee composed of students and faculty. Those "Pikes" were: Don Brown, Roderick Duchesne, Jr., Robert Duncan, William Rainach, Jr., Billy Shaw, Robert Upchurch, Scott Weathersby, Jr.

This semester the Gama-Psi football team won the overall intramural football championship. It was led by William Mack Hunt, a senior in chemical engineering. The chapter also won the intramural cross country championship and volleyball championship. Recently our basketball team won the fraternity league championship.

Gamma-Psi was awarded a trophy for each of these championships. An additional trophy came our way for selling the most tickets at the Campus Carnival. The money from the tickets was donated to the Student Union which sponsored the affair.

Miller Outstanding Pledge at Arizona

This year Gamma-Delta Pikes combined their two annual formals and held the Christmas-Dream Girl Formal. At the formal it was announced that Lowell Miller had been elected outstanding pledge. Later in the evening Jo Ann Branham, KKG, was crowned as Dream Girl succeeding Barbara Knox, ΓΦΒ.

Gamma-Delta has had a full social calendar this semester including after-the-game dances, a Halloween party, a Christmas party, and a pledge-active football game. After the game the actives and pledges enjoyed the refreshments purchased by the pledges as a consequence of their defeat.

The actives and dates "walked in" on the pledges, and by occupying all of the places at the dinner table caused the pledges to go without supper. The pledges retaliated by "loaning" three active chairs to three sororities. The ΧΩ's and the ΚΑΘ's returned two of the chairs in a few days. However, in order to redeem the third chair it was necessary for the actives to serenade the ΔΦ sorority.

Gamma-Delta Chapter played Delta-Tau in a inter-chapter football game. We hope to make this an annual tradition.

Pikes active on the campus this semester are Jon Kyl, Gordon Blount, Pat Maitrejean, and Mike Mulchay which comprise one third of the University of Arizona's debate team. Brother Kyl was also appointed to the Judiciary Council.

Our new officers are Gordon Blount, SMC, Albert Liddicot, IMC, Bill Suhonen ThC, and Steve Crawford SC. With the help of Jim Melsa, ΔΦ, our new alumnus counselor Gamma Delta's officers expect a great year for IKA at the University of Arizona.

Les Hunter

Lamar Tech Wins Intramural Football

A well planned summer rush and a highly successful rush resulted in the Lamar Tech Pikes getting the largest pledge class on campus. The pledge class, which numbered 26, was the second largest pledge class in our short history.

Mickey Trainer, an outstanding member of the chapter, was recently elected to the presidency of Lamar Tech's Interfraternity Council. Carey Cox is also gaining recognition as the judicial chairman of the same organization.

The Lamar Tech football season was brought to a thrilling close at the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida. The Cardinals won over Middle Tennessee 21 to 14. The chapter was proud of the fine performance of David McGaughy, a junior letterman and participant in the Tangerine Bowl. The chapter was also represented by Terrell Buckley and Mike Say in the Cardinal Band.

We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Martin Davis, a local certified public accountant and alumnus of Pi Kappa Alpha, for his service to the chapter in the form of reconditioning our antique fire truck. This was a tremendous boost to fall rush and the reputation of Pi Kappa Alpha on the campus.

The new officers of Epsilon Kappa are: president, Charles Griffin; vice president, Robert Pope; treasurer, John Guillery; and pledge trainer, Richard Griffin.

EK, Lamar Tech

Colorado Mines Acquires Larger House

Delta-Phi at last has acquired a house that has enough room for a fast expanding chapter. We are planning to move into the house by September 1962.

Our new officers are: President, Elliot Harap; Vice President, John Riess; Secretary, Pete Richen; Treasurer, John Macfadyen; and Historian, Gary Patton.

So far this year we have been placing fourth in intramurals. Now with big John Riess heading the athletic activities, we are looking forward to a better second semester.

We have had many social events this semester including the Pledge Formal. Steve Novack received the Best Pledge Award.

Marshall Trio Gains Prominence

A folk music trio from Delta-Iota are in the chips these days. They first sang together last fall when they won an all campus talent show. The following fall they resumed their favorite pastime, singing and playing together and gradually developed it into a flourishing, part time career. They were spotted while playing at a stage show given by a local radio station by scouts from several record companies. They received offers from Mercury, Liberty, ABC Paramount, Warner Brothers, and a local record firm. As yet they are undecided about which road to take but they will certainly have a record out within the next couple of months.

The boys are really busy keeping all their business in hand. Tony Smith doubles on the bass fiddle and the tenor banjo and also handles the business affairs. Fred Theirel handles bookings and plays the tenor guitar and plectrum banjo. Jim Kessinger handles the music end and plays Spanish guitar, five string banjo and bass. All three boys sing.

Syracuse Successful

The Pikes of Alpha-Chi at Syracuse are having a successful year. The new house is showing the results of hard work and planning. In intramurals we competed successfully in football, basketball, and bowling. On campus, SMC Bruce Ducat is a member of Junior Executive Council; Tom Dixon heads WAER, the university FM station and Paul Romer is treasurer of AIIE, the association of industrial engineers. Pike sportsmen compete in crew, basketball, and soccer.

This spirit and activity helped us take a top pledge class of nineteen men, and gave us reason to hope for the Chancellor's Cup, a reward for overall excellence.

*Don Seckler
AX, Syracuse University*

Iowa State Entertains President

Alpha-Phi's annual Christmas dinner was the highlight of the Christmas season. Honored guests were several Iowa State staff members and alumni. The guest list included President and Mrs. James H. Hilton; Millard R. Kratochvil, Director of Student Affairs; Mrs. Vida Benson, Assistant Director of Student Affairs, and her husband; Ted Robinson, Advisor to Fraternities, and his wife; James S. Rising, Head of Engineering Graphics; and Raymond A. Veline, Engineering Classification. Among the alumni present were Herb Miller, first initiate of Alpha-Phi; Don Newbrough, Alumni Advisor, and his wife; Roger Volker, Roger Glann, Major Robert Soden and their wives.

Filling out the guest list were Mrs. Larry Baldus, president of the Mothers' Club, and her husband; and pin mates.

For dinner the guests and brothers enjoyed roasted pig and all the trimmings.

The theme of the fall party this year was "The Roaring Twenties". The annual Hawaiian Party was held shortly after the beginning of the new year. Many alumni and brothers from other chapters were present for the event.

Plans are being formulated for a combined 50th anniversary of Alpha-Phi and Founders' Day banquet and dance in 1963. We are anticipating the return of many alumni and brothers.

The officers for the coming term are Gary Woods, SMC; Bill Kellstrom, IMC; Gary Wicklund, ThC; and Tom Whitson, SC.

*Tim Downing
AF, Iowa State*

Sixteen Men Pledged at Virginia

After a vigorous and sustained fall rush program, Alpha Chapter pledged sixteen men, ten of whom were freshmen. Predominantly hailing from Virginia, these men will provide the solid nucleus for a new and revitalized Mother Chapter. Grateful appreciation is also due to Beta and Epsilon Mu Chapters, who gave the actives at Alpha very positive help in securing these men.

Several of Alphas actives have been recognized for their leadership in university affairs by assuming various positions of responsibility and receiving numerous honors. Doug Hubbard is currently serving as president of the Virginia Debaters and vice president of the Jefferson Society. Kent Morrison, who is residing in the Founders West Range Room, was appointed a Company Commander in the NROTC unit, while "Speedy" Morrison was elected city editor of the Cavalier Daily. Mitz Martin was elected to membership in the Raven Society, the most significant honor society on the grounds, including in its limited membership the present Governor of Virginia.

Social activities have certainly not been neglected, as before Christmas a gay time was had at the annual Christmas Party, with "Father" Flannagan playing Santa Claus. After exams, much steam was let out at the annual Midwinter's blast.

*Robert L. Morrison,
A, Univ. of Virginia*

Millsaps Elects Davis President

Alpha-Iota Chapter continues to maintain a position of leadership on the Millsaps campus. Millsaps College, located in Jackson, Miss., has long entrusted to Pi Kappa Alpha brothers positions of influence. Woody Davis has served as president of the student body. The president of Circle K and Eta Sigma honorary fraternities are also brothers. Tink Coulet, Harmon Lewis, and Woody Davis were elected school favorites. Four Pikes were also selected for Who's Who this year including our current SMC, Don Fortenberry.

The first semester started successfully with the pledging of 28 outstanding men. Through able leadership and conscientious study, many of these men will wear the badge before many more weeks.

*Doug Averitt
AI, Millsaps College*

South Carolina Host For Founders' Day

A fine group of officers led by B. B. "Bubba" Meng, III will lead Xi Chapter at the University of South Carolina during the spring semester. We were very pleased that our candidate, Miss Barbara King, was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1961.

On Founders Day we will again play host to Mu Chapter (Presbyterian) and Nu Chapter (Wofford), and anticipate a fine experience.

Outstanding football varsity star James Costen has been drafted by the Washington Redskins.

*Keith Elliott,
Z, Univ. of South Carolina*

Chattanooga Wins Football Championship

Delta-Epsilon Chapter, under the coaching leadership of Dick Messina, rolled on to win the 1961 intramural football championship. Willie Leonardi was chosen the Year's Most Valuable Player and Pledges Max Hill and Jimmy Brown were selected for the All Star Team.

During open rush the Pikes pledged Roland Enloe, Dave Glenn, Lance Grayson, and David Sicko. This brings our pledge class number to forty-five.

In recent contests Sam McWilliams was elected best dancer in the school, SMC Charles Martin, most popular, and Lamar Hardin and Andy Greene were tied for most athletic.

MORAL VALUES have been the consideration of churchmen to a much greater extent than the laymen in the years of past mid-century. Laymen have accepted "realism" in all of its sordid facets as a matter of course. Self-control, moderation, self-discipline are forgotten—as old-fashioned and therefore distasteful—words.

The colleges and universities accept teen-agers as freshmen, expect them to enter new environments, new situations, new freedoms, as mature individuals. They have been screened, academically, and are potentially good students, if they have not applied themselves in secondary school to prove it. Discrimination is applied to them, based on standards of the institution. On some campuses, they are subjected to time-honored traditions. These are the small colleges where sentiment is still alive and the loyalties of alumni valued and their success credited by the college to its prowess.

Loyalty, that faithfulness to friend, institution, to duty, that constancy in trust, used to be encouraged in college education. It was one of the ingredients in learning responsibility. And, as one broadened one's associations from family and friends to a loyalty toward country, international concern, one became "better educated."

It is paradoxical for a college or university to tell students, through any campus agency, that loyalty is unimportant; that students should disregard regulations of institutions with which they have voluntarily associated themselves if those regulations seem contrary to the "moral values of today's society." And yet that is what administrators and student governments are doing when they insist that members of fraternities change regulations or else.

Every institution, be it a family, a nation, a church, yes, a university, is governed and guided by laws and regulations. The university itself is bound within an institution of universities by laws regulating membership therein. This membership is voluntary. X University is not required to belong to the Western College Assn., for instance. There are advantages in belonging to such an association rather than going it alone. But to belong, conditions have to be met and maintained. X University may work with all of its representatives' vim and vigor to change these conditions, but if the majority of universities and colleges are satisfied with them, X must conform or withdraw—and lose the privileges of membership.

We wonder whether X University would attempt to subvert the conditions of membership; to get around them. And we wonder what would happen if a group of state legislators were to propose such subversion, lowering of standards required for membership. We don't have to conjecture; we read the newspapers. The administrators of X University protest, fight the cut, arouse the public, appeal to loyalties of alumni, and advertise the advantages of membership.

What then of those universities which ask students to subvert, circumvent, petition for waivers of institutional regulations or responsibilities of membership in international organizations? What of the moral values of integrity, of loyalty, of responsibility for the welfare of the local member who will experience rejection later? Is this education toward maturity or an appeal for expediency in relationships?

To quote a National President who wrote to a college president where the question of local autonomy was being discussed: "If the members of a local chapter do not wish to obey the rules of the organization, they may work to change those rules or accept them if unsuccessful or resign. However, to force or encourage a local chapter to act in defiance of these rules is comparable to forcing or encouraging a young driver to defy speed laws because you and he don't think they make sense and you both find them objectionable. Such an attitude is not good for developing good citizens. We should not encourage members to defy rules of their organizations any more than student government should be encouraged to violate personal and group privacy in regard to membership selection in private social voluntary associations. Instead, universities and colleges must teach respect for these freedoms under law or they will be permitting the seeds of coercion to be sown on the campus. These will bear fruit as tyranny in the adult world when these students become leaders in their communities across our nation."

The teaching that life in the United States is based on law cannot be valid . . . in college or secondary school, if the teachers choose and pick the laws to be observed. In a democracy the will of the majority can change the law, but again, in a democracy, the individual accepts the law as the majority wills it. In a voluntary society, the choice of one's close associates is the individual's right. If he chooses them within the concept of the fraternity rather than in the boarding house or the dormitory, he must be expected to practice loyalty to that concept. Learning this responsibility is valuable. Moral values should be the consideration of administrators and teachers as well as of ministers.—W. S. L.
