"They're not closet Greeks anymore"

Greeks have stepped out of the closet into campus leadership says South Carolina Greek advisor Mike Compton. On his campus, and similarly around the nation, fraternity men are again being noticed and heard.

Juxtaposed against the anti-fraternity doom press of the early 1970's is today's positive Greek publicity. Rush is seemingly up everywhere according to the media. Of 33 national fraternities polled, 73 percent showed an increase last year in rush statistics and only 15 percent reported a decrease.

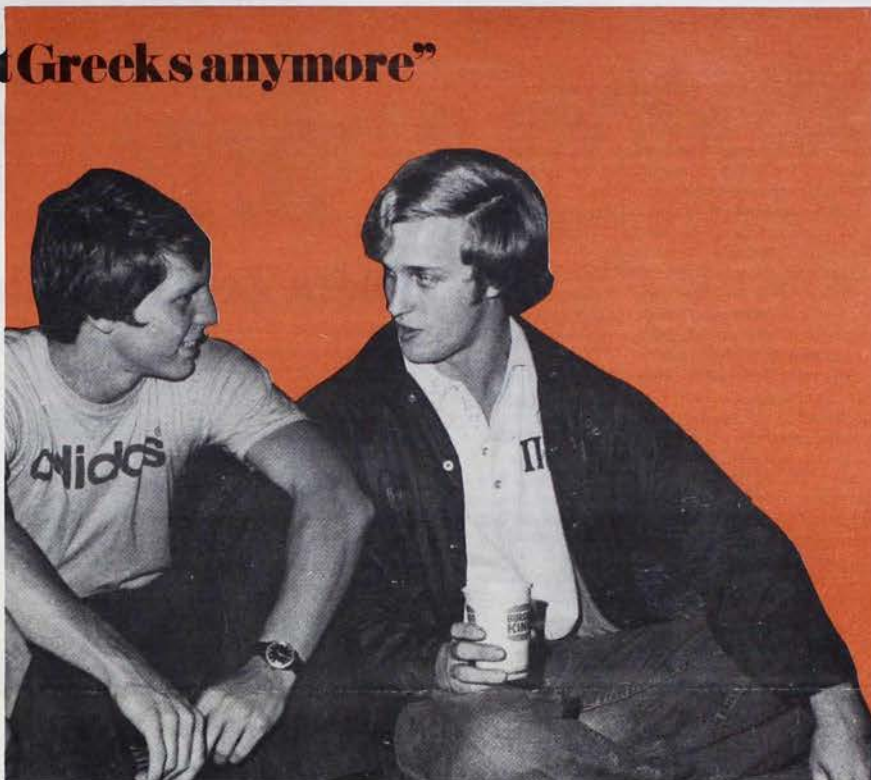

"The students of the 70's are different," exclaims California at Berkeley Greek advisor Ann Hawley. The Berkeley campus reports a 12 percent increase in pledging this fall. "Today's students are not alienated and they're not 'doing their own thing.'" Ms. Hawley says Berkeley students are seeking a sense of belonging, that they are job oriented (the largest graduating class last year was physical education) and they are looking at more conservative avenues as a way of changing society.

At the University of North Carolina, where the IFC — not the administration — sets rush rules, pledging statistics are also on the rise.

"Our IFC decided to spend the money we usually use for summer rush on a whole week of Greek activities just before the fall rush," tells Roslyn Hartmann, advisor to fraternities. The week consisted of public services activities like construction of a playground and restoration of a church — "well publicized," says Ms. Hartmann — and fun and games like athletics, doughnut eating contests and free movies.

Former IKA Executive Director Garth Jenkins, Greek advisor at Auburn, reports an increase in pledges at his Alabama campus. "We were anticipating a 10 to 15 percent increase, particularly with the good reports brought back by pre-college advisors. We showed a five percent increase, mostly because of fraternity cost."

Jenkins says the Greeks were well prepared to meet the cost argument. "We could show that with any kind of social life at all, it would be cheaper to live in a fraternity house. Perhaps that argument was part of the reason for our increase, but cost does seem to be the main reason many rushees don't affiliate. They want to get their feet on the ground academically first."

Many campuses experienced similar increases in interest, but little or no rise in numbers.

"More people signed up to go through rush, but the same number as last year pledged," explains Ed King, Greek advisor at Bradley University in Illinois. "Some were looking at fraternities with no intention of pledging right now. Maybe next semester," he adds.

After a 35 percent increase in pledgings two years ago at the University of South Carolina, statistics have held the line. "We claim we have open rush here," says Mike Compton, advisor to the Greeks, "but the guys still rely on two open houses to get names." Compton says the number of interested rushees has increased "strikingly," but he does not expect to pledge many of the newly interested. "The fraternities here use no follow-up to fall rush."

Rushees Cautious

"The rushees (at Sam Houston State) were cautious at first," recalls IKA pledge Mitch Jones (Epsilon Pi chapter). "It changed a lot as rush went on, though. We got more optimistic and our attitudes changed totally as we learned about fraternities and how great they really are."

Delta Kappa (San Diego State) pledge Steve Souza agrees. "Your image of what you came here with is subject to change. My attitude changed

"Join the '76 Club"

About 20 chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity had 76 or more members last year and a few of those had more than 100. Qualifying chapters this year will become members of the "76 Club" and the "Century Club" respectively.

As chapters reach the two plateaus, their membership will become effective and reported in the Shield & Diamond. The total will be figured by adding the number of dues-paying initiated members and the number of pledges in the chapter.

Correction

In reporting the election of the Shield & Diamond editor to president of the College Fraternity Editors Association (CFEA) we inadvertently reported there had been only two IKA CFEA presidents in the 82-year history of the organization. Actually, there were three IKA's in that position tying for the most CFEA presidents with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

K. D. Pulcifer was IKA's first president of the CFEA in 1935-36 followed by Dr. Robert D. Lynn, 1953-54, and R. John Kaegi, current.

PERSPECTIVE

As old as America

By Pat Halloran
Executive Director

The American college fraternity movement is as old as our country. Phi Beta Kappa was the forerunner to the social organization which is characteristically thought of as the college fraternity of today. There will be much done to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the college fraternity movement and, of course, Pi Kappa Alpha's contribution to that celebration will be held in conjunction with the 1976 Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, August 8-13.

Our convention will afford us the opportunity to reflect upon the impact that Pi Kappa Alpha has made over the past 108 years and look to the future to determine how we can best contribute to our society in the future.

The setting should be appropriate in that the site selected for the 1976 Convention is Memphis, the home of our Memorial Headquarters; and the emphasis will be on our alumni and the collective contribution that these alumni have made to our country. The legislative sessions will provide an opportunity for our undergraduates and alumni officers to direct our future programs. All seem to indicate a truly important gathering in the history of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Many of the great IKA's from over the past few decades will be attending this convention and our speakers will epitomize the leadership which Pi Kappa Alpha has spawned over the years.

This is an open invitation to all PiKA's to plan their summer of 1976 around the Bicentennial Celebration Convention which will have special programs and highlights for all the alumni and undergraduates alike. Plan now to attend.

Bomb blast racks ISU fraternity house

What appeared to be a homemade explosive device caused minor damage to an Iowa State University fraternity house recently.

The explosion occurred about 3 a.m. in a basement window of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity house, blowing out windows as high as the second floor of the three-story structure. Officers said none of the fraternity's 42 residents were injured.

Theta Zeta installed at Northern Iowa

By Jim Highberger
Director of Development

A beautiful Midwestern autumn weekend and a tremendous turnout of area IKA undergraduates welcomed the installation of Pi Kappa Alpha's newest chapter on October 10 and 11, 1975. National President Jerry Reel presided over ceremonies activating Theta Zeta chapter at the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, Iowa.

The new group was colonized a year ago after Bill Somers, a IKA transfer student from Alpha Phi (Iowa State), assembled several Northern Iowa undergraduates to form a new chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. During their period as a colony, the group placed first in fund raising for the campus Muscular Dystrophy project, won first place in the homecoming parade, had the highest grades of any UNI fraternity, placed well in intramurals and conducted a number of programs which earned them notoriety on campus. As a colony they had members elected president and secretary of the IFC as well as captain of the varsity football squad.

Area IKA alumni worked with the colony to acquire a house next to campus which holds 20 members comfortably.

Beyond the 27 men initiated at the installation, the new chapter has four members who are transfer students from other IKA chapters and 12 new pledges. Theta Zeta's goal is to have over 45 members in the chapter by spring.

Participating in the proceedings were initiation teams from Alpha Phi (Iowa State), Gamma Nu (Iowa) and Delta Omicron (Drake) and guests from Zeta Rho (North Dakota), Gamma Beta (Nebraska) and Delta Sigma (Bradley). An estimated 100 IKA undergraduates participated in the weekend activities.

A formal banquet and party staged Saturday evening closed the weekend with speeches of congratulations made by Region President Gary Moeller and chapter SMC's John Hirth (Drake), Dennis Clark (Iowa) and Jeff Stone (Iowa State).

Theta Zeta's President, Mike Murphy, noted that the new brothers of the chapter were not committing themselves to a house nor a crest, but rather to a lifelong concept of brotherhood. Murphy dedicated the chapter to upholding the tradition of excellence established by the other chapters in the state and in the country.

National President Reel challenged all brothers in attendance to continue to make the college fraternity a working part of the university community.

Gifts were acknowledged by the new chapter for a new laminated wood yard sign received from Iowa State and a color television set received from Iowa. Gamma Nu alumnus Rick Miller was presented the Distinguished Service Award for his outstanding contributions to the colony and the new house corporation. Bill Somers was presented a pewter cup in gratitude for his initiative in starting the new chapter.

The University of Northern Iowa was formerly the State Teachers College but now encompasses academic disciplines from business to technology to education. With a current enrollment of nearly 10,000 students, the school will be celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1976.

Texas A & M colonized

On Sunday, October 28, Pi Kappa Alpha formally colonized at Texas A & M University. The colony consists of 17 members, several of which are transfer students from other IKA chapters. The President of the colony, Chris Thomas, is a transfer from Sam Houston State.

Texas A & M is the oldest public institution of higher education in the state of Texas. In 1871 it accepted 2400 acres of land near Bryan, Texas through the Federal Land Grant Program. The school opened in 1876 and remained an all-male military school until the mid-1960's. Due to this unique aspect of its history, the fraternity system at Texas A & M is new and in the process of being developed. It is the fastest growing institution of higher education in the country with a current enrollment of 25,200 students (an increase of 7,000 in the last two years). The school has achieved distinction in a variety of academic areas including engineering, agriculture, science, economics, and has one of the 19 colleges of veterinary medicine in the United States.

With only one chartered national fraternity on campus, the colony expects to grow and improve at a rapid pace this year. Included in the immediate plans are social functions with the A & M sororities, the pledging of many of the colony's rushees and interaction with the other IKA chapters in the area.

Transfer names sought

Pi Kappa Alpha national officers have long recognized IKA transfer and graduate students as one of the Fraternity's greatest resources. Of the four chapters installed in 1975, IKA transfer students were involved with each effort enabling the Fraternity to start these new chapters. There have been many cases over the past few years where a IKA in graduate school or having transferred as an undergraduate has become involved with a chapter program and led in its improvement through his unique perspective and past experience in IKA.

The Fraternity is actively seeking the names of IKA's who have transferred or have enrolled in graduate school. In many cases the national Fraternity can provide financial assistance to a grad student who is willing to serve as an advisor for the IKA chapter on his campus.

If there is no chapter currently on campus, the IKA's can be informed of each other in order to start a group and work toward establishing a new chapter.

Any IKA who has the names (and addresses if possible) of IKA transfer or graduate students should send the information to: James A. Highberger, Director of Chapter Development, 577 University Blvd., Memphis, Tn. 38112. In particular, names of IKA's are needed at Texas A & M, TCU, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Oregon, Washington, NYU, Southern Cal and Minnesota.

Sparkman appointed gift drive chairman

U. S. Senator John J. Sparkman (Dem.-Alabama) was recently appointed chairman of the 1975-76 Pi Kappa Alpha gift campaign by President Jerry Reel.

Brother Sparkman, a charter member of Gamma Alpha (Alabama) chapter and a nominee for Vice President of the United States in 1956, is the first such chairman of a IKA fund-raising drive in modern history. It marks the beginning of Pi Kappa Alpha's Project Bicentennial recognizing the contributions made by fraternity alumni to the development of the country since the inception of the Greek system in 1776 with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa at William and Mary. Sparkman is undoubtedly one of this Fraternity's most honored statesmen as well as involved alumni.

A letter from the Senator appears on the gift request. He enumerates his confidence in the future of Pi Kappa Alpha and its ability to continue providing leaders to the country. At the same time he mentions the Fraternity's need for alumni support in order to accomplish that task.

It is hoped that a renowned alumnus will be chairman of the Fraternity's gift campaign henceforth.

Membership stats holding the line

Following last year's encouraging increase in both initiation and pledging statistics, Pi Kappa Alpha is holding close to the same totals in both categories this year.

The Fraternity recorded about 1,200 pledges at mid-October, the same as that of a year ago. About 300 fall initiations were recorded by Oct. 15, also similar to the totals of a year ago.

In other statistical news, the Fraternity hit a new low in accounts receivable from the chapters in September. The 165 chapters owed a combined $28,700 last September compared to nearly $40,000 in September, 1974. That's an average of $173.93 owed per chapter compared to $228.77 last year. This year's average is the lowest in the past 10 years since the average has been figured ($210.91 was the lowest previous average accomplished in 1968-69). The accounts receivable over the past 10 years have ranged from $28,700 of last September to a high of $108,000 in December, 1971.

Last year Pi Kappa Alpha registered 5,183 active undergraduate members, one more than the previous year. It compares to a high of 5,889 registered in 1968-69.

1976 convention dates announced

The Pi Kappa Alpha 1976 Bicentennial Celebration Convention will be held August 8-13 at the Holiday Inn Rivermont Hotel on the Memphis riverfront. Executive Director Pat Halloran called the hotel "Memphis' most luxurious Holiday Inn and the city's most popular convention facility."

Room and board rates will be announced in the next issue of the Shield & Diamond. It currently appears they will be comparable or below previous rates of IKA conventions.

Although legislative concerns are the main purpose, one convention attraction is the associated leadership academy. The convention leadership agenda is a one and one-half day concentration on a single, most important aspect of chapter decision-making. The IKA Leadership Committee recently reviewed many possible formats. It suggested the formation of model chapters complete with officers and executive councils that would set objectives, plan activities, solve problems and study cases.

Lendman schedules winter career weekends

Lendman Associates, Inc., the job placement company associated with Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, has scheduled nine career weekends for Pi Kappa Alpha graduates through the month of December, 1975.

Graduates of at least two years with some work experience or graduate work may attend the weekend seminars designed to introduce prospective employers to potential employees. Representatives of hundreds of corporations, large and small, participate in the career weekend. They provide interested grads with employment outlook and information then schedule preliminary interviews with prospective employees. The weekends have led to employment for several Pi Kappa Alpha undergraduates.

The weekends are free to participants except those from out of town who must stay in a hotel during the weekend. The upcoming weekend schedule looks like this:

Reference guide mailed to IKA's

All Pi Kappa Alpha alumni subscribers to the Shield & Diamond were on the mailing list last month for the IKA Alumni Reference Guide. The guide listed the various services and programs of the Fraternity for alumni as well as a directory of contacts for each.

Among the areas covered in the guide were publications, records, alumni association activities, special services and programs, leadership opportunities and gift programs. Additional copies of the Alumni Reference Guide may be obtained from the IKA Executive Director, 577 University Blvd., Memphis, Tenn. 38112.

Pi Phi's nab naked intruder

With considerable help from 40 sorority sisters police in Eugene, Oregon, recently arrested a naked man on a burglary charge at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house.

The sorority had been plagued by men exposing themselves. But when officers responded to complaints, the perpetrator could not be found. Shortly after midnight last September, though, the police got another call from the Pi Phi's. They had a man in custody, they said, and would an officer please take him off their hands?

When officer Dave Wilkie arrived, he saw quite a spectacle inside the sorority house. About 12 women were holding a struggling naked man on the floor, and some 30 others were guarding doors and windows.

Bicentennial Celebration

Coinciding with the U.S.A. Bicentennial is the 200th anniversary of the founding of the fraternity system (Phi Beta Kappa, Dec. 5, 1776). Chairman of the Memphis Convention Earl Triplett is working with local alumni and the Memorial Headquarters to plan a grand celebration of both anniversaries that is expected to attract national attention. "The fraternity system has helped train many of the country's most noted leaders," said Triplett. "It is fitting that the nation's Bicentennial anniversary coincides with the 200th year of Greek-letter fraternities."

Pi Kappa Alpha is the only Fraternity using its 1976 gathering for Bicentennial recognition. The IKA Memorial Foundation was recently granted membership to the National Bicentennial Service Alliance. Other IKA Bicentennial projects include the Fraternity Bicentennial Commemorative History recognizing fraternity men who were instrumental in the development of the nation and the Greek system, and chapter-sponsored Bicentennial recognition projects.

Pi Kappa Alpha biennial conventions are noted for their vigorous legislative activity, their leadership development programs and their comradery. Additional highlights will include a tour of the Pi Kappa Alpha Memorial Headquarters and the numerous nationally known leaders IKA's Bicentennial program is anticipated to attract.

32 attend July SMC Conference

Thirty-two chapter SMC's attended the third Pi Kappa Alpha Presidents' Conference held last July in Memphis. Previous conferences were held in December 1974 and April 1973, and all have been a sell-out success.

Presidents' Conferences are scheduled throughout the 1975-76 academic year with the next slated for November 28-30 following Thanksgiving. A maximum of 30 chapter SMC's are accepted for each meeting.

The conference orients chapter presidents to the administrative responsibilities of their positions and is ideally meant for recently-elected presidents. It also gives chapter SMC's an opportunity to consult the complete professional staff of the

Pat Halloran elected to Memphis Council

Pi Kappa Alpha Executive Director Pat Halloran was elected to an at-large position on the Memphis City Council recently. Results of the October 9 primary election showed Halloran with 51.1 percent of the vote, enough to elect him without a runoff.

Brother Halloran's closest competition came from retired political columnist Null Adams who pulled 40,428 voted compared to Halloran's 59,159. Two other candidates split the remaining 17,000 votes.

Halloran is a member of the Housing Rehabilitation Board for the city of Memphis, a former executive vice president with the Memphis Jaycees and emcee of a bi-monthly community interest television talk show. He has been head of the Fraternity's national office located in Memphis for over six years and served a year as a field secretary in the mid-1960's. A former SMC of Delta Chi (Nebraska at Omaha) chapter, Halloran also served as national rush director while working as assistant dean of men at the University of Miami (Fla.) before coming to Memphis in 1969.

Halloran's candidacy brought considerable publicity to Pi Kappa Alpha over the summer and fall months. He is one of two new members of the Memphis governing body.

Acapulco carnival offered Pike alumni

Over 100 Pi Kappa Alpha alumni and their families are expected to enjoy a sunbath in Acapulco, Mexico in February.

Information concerning luggage, clothing, insurance, refunds and payment is detailed in a special IKA brochure available by writing the Executive Director at 577 University Blvd., Memphis, Tenn. 38112.

Fraternity and President Jerry Reel about specific problem areas and allows them to voice their opinions and ideas in return. A ratio of 3-1 is considered to be the maximum desired between staff and participants.

On the July agenda were orientation to the "national" fraternity, its structure and organization, administrative and voluntary officers and the services of the Memorial Headquarters available to chapters. General sessions concerning leadership development, expansion and Project Bicentennial in addition to policies, membership records and alumnus advising were also held. Presidents participated in four workshops in the areas of alumni and publications, rush, executive planning and financial management.

Invitations to the November conference have been distributed. Other Presidents interested in attending may request an invitation and will be accommodated if space is available.

Computer transition completed smoothly

The Pi Kappa Alpha Memorial Headquarters has completed its summer-long transition into a new computer fulfillment and service company, Data Science in St. Louis, Missouri.

Over 30,000 records changes from elimination of double listings to new addresses were made in the transition. The total was about 20,000 more than were made in all of 1974-75 while associated with another computer company.

Data Science utilizes a fail-safe keypunching system that guarantees almost complete accuracy in recording changes. It is the most advanced and perfected system available to the Fraternity at this time replacing the optical scanning system once thought to be perfect.

The computer people will keep information far in excess of previous companies on Pike alumni

about fraternities because the stereotypes I had always thought about weren't reality."

"I want to get a good education," says pledge Ron Dado (Beta Gamma — Kansas), "and fraternities offer more unity during college which helps a lot with studies." Dado is but one of many examples of the changing reasons given now for pledging compared to those of the recent past.

"I was interested because of the brotherhood," says Mitch Jones. "Fraternities are young people who care about one another, and there aren't many of those around anymore."

Apparently the impersonalness of today's large campus is sending droves to the rush lines. At the same time, Greeks are looking for diversity.

"They're kind of pleased when they get someone a little different from the last guy, and that's different from last year," notices advisor Roslyn Hartmann.

Ed King sees today's pledge as closer to the top of his class than fraternity newcomers of recent years. At Bradley, scholarships are again being given on merit, not need. "Most of them (scholarship recipients) are pledging," says King. "I would say today's pledge is slightly above average. The best students are still not pledging, but showing more interest than before."

USC's Compton believes the pre-60's elite type will probably never again be the fraternity stereotype. "We always thought of fraternities as being elite and they probably were in the days when the student body was, itself, elite. Fraternities today are doing what they always did — mirroring campus society."

The mirror is still tarnished in the eyes of many independents say the advisors. But the image is rapidly improving.

"They're aware of the Greek comeback," says Compton, who pointed to a "Beat the Monopoly" campaign in USC's homecoming queen election. "Why, we haven't had a Greek homecoming queen in 10 years," he says.

At Bradley, the Inter-Greek Council and Inter-Dorm Council jointly sponsored a "block party" this fall. "We never had that kind of cooperation before," boasts Ed King. "The independents are discovering the Greeks don't have the superiority attitude like the dormies thought they had."

"They're finding out fraternities are not full of snobs and rich boys," says pledge Mitch Jones. "There are still a lot of GDI's who don't like fraternities, but their attitudes are changing fast."

Outlook

The three-year outlook is outstanding say the advisors. On many campuses, requests for new chapters are piling up. All see growth in number of pledges and some in number of chapters.

At Berkeley, six new chapters were chartered recently and another is in the colonization stage. Pi Kappa Alpha's chapter pledged three last year and 12 this year. At Northwestern, another "liberal" school, Gamma Rho chapter showed a 400 percent increase in pledgings. This fraternity's rush statistics have been increasing for several years and are showing signs of a slight increase by year's end again in 1975-76 (see related article).

"We want to expand," says Mike Compton about USC. "Our people are confident and are beginning to flex their collective muscle. All those things fraternities do best, they're getting a chance to do again. They're not having to be closet Greeks anymore."

and undergraduates. Information such as alumnus' employer, employer's address, telephone number, birthdate, significant awards won, chapter and alumni offices held and interest in further involvement in the Fraternity can be recorded. Much of the information will be gathered during the compilation next year of the Fraternity's massive alumni directory (see associated article).

Chapters and alumni associations may obtain computerized listings of their members and/or mailing labels from the company by writing Administrative Assistant Donna Visconti at the Memorial Headquarters. It is hoped that lists of alumni by occupation, skills, former positions in IKA and interest in further involvement may be obtained in the near future.

CHAPTER NOTES

Alpha Alpha (Duke — Box 4775 — Duke Station, Durham, N.C. 27706) has for the second year in a row been cited for overall chapter excellence by the Memorial Headquarters. The Duke IKA's are upholding their record for leading the Jim's Party Store contest for what amounts to being the best partying "living" group on the Duke campus, and the chapter recently sponsored the first annual Duke Bike-a-thon and Brew-athon for Muscular Dystrophy which was a huge success, raising $1,600 for MDA.

Alpha Rho (Ohio State — 99 East 13th St., Columbus, Ohio 43201) has more than doubled its size this fall with a strong effort on behalf of the chapter and Resident Counselor Jim Chinnici, former chapter consultant for the Fraternity. A Homecoming reception and dinner were held at the chapter house following the clash with Wisconsin, and several alumni were in attendance. The annual alumni/active football game followed On Saturday, Oct. 19.

Alpha Phi (Iowa State — 2112 Lincoln Way, Ames, Iowa 50010) held a successful rush to mark the beginning of the school year with 25 men accepting bids. There are 85 IKA's residing in the house this fall and the chapter appears well on its way to capturing all-fraternity intramural football titles with three teams contending in Class A. The Dream Girl Calendar again proved to be a successful (and enjoyable) project with copies available on request. On October 10-11, the brothers assisted in the installation of a new IKA chapter at the University of Northern Iowa. Super Homecoming was held November 1, with over 100 Alpha Phi alumni in attendance.

Gamma Iota (Mississippi — Box 4475, University, Ms. 38677) is once again on the upswing with a pledge class of 40 members, the best group on campus. Various activities are in the planning stage for this year. The chapter is trying to establish a unique alumni program and would appreciate alumni updating their addresses with them.

Gamma Nu (Iowa — 1032 North Dubuque, Iowa City, Iowa 52240) plans many house improvements, including new carpeting, for this academic year. The house is operating at full occupancy after a successful fall rush netting 14 new pledges. The chapter is increasing its leadership on campus with at least one IKA running for every IFC office. Over 60 alumni are expected to return to the house at Homecoming including Leo Hoegh and several other charter members. The brothers at Gamma Nu enjoyed the opportunity to help install a new IKA chapter at the University of Northern Iowa on October 10-11 with approximately 30 brothers participating.

Gamma Rho (Northwestern — 566 Lincoln St., Evanston, Ill. 60201) pledged 16 new members this fall (above the campus norm) through a series of unique rush parties including jam sessions and mixed media presentations using slides and movies. The chapter is planning on continuing its Sunday brunches to further open up communications between the chapter and the campus. Prior to rush, the dining room was re-carpeted and kitchen windows remodeled. A directory of Gamma Rho alumni is being prepared this year as one of the chapter's goals is for increased alumni involvement.

Gamma Chi (Oklahoma State — 221 South Lincoln, Stillwater, Okla. 74074) members are readying the second annual Joe C. Scott Memorial Alumni Award to be given during Homecoming. Three alumni entered OSU med school — Ed Brown, Paul Choate and David Folks. One 1975 alumnus, Arlyn Omtvedt, entered the OSU veterinarian school. Work week house renovations included painting and carpeting the halls, retiling the bathroom, acquiring new dining room chairs, and the Mom's Club upholstered the living room furniture.

Delta Theta (Arkansas State — Drawer Z, State University, Ark. 72467) recently hosted the Arkansas State Little Olympics, a program of competitive activities for ASU sororities. Girls from the eight sororities on campus vied for titles in egg-tossing, pillow-fighting and tug-of-war, among others, with Alpha Gamma Delta the victor. For their efforts the girls were awarded the IKA revolving trophy and $100 was contributed to the charity of their choice. After the festivities, the chapter hosted an all-campus street dance. Rush at Delta Theta has been especially successful, with 31 men pledged so far this fall. Homecoming activities featured Executive Director Pat Halloran as guest speaker.

Delta Xi (Indiana — 1012 East 3rd St., Bloomington, Ind. 47401) completed its most successful summer rush program to date, pledging 16 men and filling the house with more than 50 men this fall. Resident Executive Director Pat Halloran presented $75,000 IKA check to Jerry Lewis for Muscular Dystrophy Association last Labor Day.

Counselor Larry Lunsford (former IKA chapter consultant) has been instrumental in the chapter renaissance, providing the guidance in pledge programming, chapter finance and fall rush, so the group at IU is actively involved in upgrading the entire fraternity experience. A Parents' Work Day was held in early October, with Indianapolis parents and members of the house pitching in together for house improvements — cleanup, painting and repairs. The chapter boasts its fourth consecutive Secretary of the IFC, various members of the prestigious Student Foundation, and the Greek representative to the Student Senate.

Delta Omicron (Drake — Box 1186, University Station, Des Moines, Iowa 50311) is continuing its rebuilding project this year and is currently engaged in rush with three new members already pledged. The chapter sent a delegation of brothers to the University of Northern Iowa on October 10-11 to help initiate the new IKA chapter there. Intramurals are in full swing at Drake with the Pikes giving everybody a close game. Chapter membership will be well over 30 this year, so housing will be a major project.

Delta Chi (Nebraska at Omaha — 5009 Lafayette St., Omaha, Neb. 68132) brothers have completed another successful rush pledging 26 new members. Campus involvement and athletics are receiving emphasis this fall with two brothers on the varsity football squad and another serving as Student Body President. Other chapter projects for this year include assisting the national Fraternity in starting a new chapter at Creighton University and beginning preparations with the alumni for the chapter's 25th anniversary in 1977 (Feb. 23).

Epsilon Kappa (Lamar University — P.O. Box 10080, Lamar Univ., Beaumont, Tx. 77710) Pikes are staying fairly busy this fall. The brothers help in cleaning up Lamar's football stadium, distribute the school paper and serve as waiters and waitresses (with the little sisters) at prestigious dinner banquets on campus. The chapter also has two active and two associate members serving in the Student Government Association. They are active Bill Hicks and Mike Delgado, and associate members Mitch Toups and Robert Wade.

Epsilon Nu (Georgia State — 33 Gilmer St., S.W., Atlanta, Ga. 30303) recently completed a most successful formal rush, netting 30 new pledges. In intramural sports, the Pikes have won the IFC all-sports trophy for the last three years and this past year retired it. They also won the brand new all-university intramural sports trophy. Brother Mike Sauer broke the world record on September 20 for bench pressing in the 114-pound class in the AAU power lifting championships.

Zeta Eta (Arkansas at Little Rock — 5701 W. 29th, Little Rock, Ark. 72204) held a 10th anniversary celebration last May with a stag party for all alumni and actives. A banquet the following night featured a slide presentation of the chapter's history and was followed by a dance. The chapter recently purchased a 1943 Dodge firetruck and also captured second place in the campus Greek Olympics. The chapter boasts eight brothers in the student senate, one brother on the president's cabinet and two on the seven-member UALR Honors Court, one being Chief Justice. With the upsurge in all areas, the alumni interest has shown a marked improvement, including a "rejuvenation" of the Zeta Eta Housing Corporation by the addition of several enthusiastic alumni. The chapter is planning complete house renovation and expansion and is utilizing fund-raising activities such as pinball and foosball machines, beer machine, TGIF bars and parties each Friday, and publishing a IKA calendar and monthly newsletters. Chapter membership has doubled in the past year and is expected to double again by 1976.

Pikes raise $75,000 against Dystrophy

Pike chapters from across the country came through again in 1975 for the fight against muscular dystrophy by participating in the Pike Bike Race project.

Chapters made the project a part of their community service programs in a variety of unique, innovative ways. At Epsilon Psi (Western Michigan) the brothers staged a dance marathon; Alpha Alpha (Duke) sponsored a Bike-a-thon and beer blast; and at Sigma (Vanderbilt) it was a hamburger-eating contest. These are just a few of the ways that Pikes have given of their time and talents to come up with the very "grand" total of $75,000 which was presented by Pi Kappa Alpha Executive Director Pat Halloran to Jerry Lewis on the Labor Day Telethon in Las Vegas (pictured above). This year's telethon was viewed by more than 82 million Americans.

The Pike Bike Race project which was adopted at the Pi Kappa Alpha International Convention in Miami in 1972 has since netted over $300,000 for the fight against muscular dystrophy and related neuro-muscular diseases.

in sports and a truckload of trophies. This year's activities began with a successful freshman rush part and an exceptional Halloween party. Recent awards won include: Greek Week Champions, President's Trophy, All-Sports Trophy, intramural softball trophy, and Greek champions in softball, basketball and football.

Zeta Tau (Eastern Kentucky — Box 351, Coates Admin. Bldg., Richmond, Ky. 40475) has pledged 16 men so far this semester and the brothers are planning a trip to the Memorial Headquarters in the near future. Scholastically, the Pikes were rated second last year and will be trying hard for first place this year. With a 3-0 record in football, the chapter is definitely on its way to winning the All-Sports trophy for the fourth consecutive year.

Zeta Phi (Missouri at St. Louis — 1077 Baden St., St. Louis, Mo. 63031) pledged an all-time semester high of 26 men this fall, making it the largest student organization at UMSL and the first group to reach a membership of 75. Two booths at the St. Louis Strassenfest this August and a book inventory for B. Dalton Bookstore netted the chapter over $1,000 and another project is in the planning stage, expected to gross more than $300. In September, the brothers held a toll road to collect money for Spina Bifida, a spinal disease, and plans are currently under way for the annual Thanksgiving Day pumpkin pie eating contest. Proceeds from the event will go to needy families in St. Louis. The chapter's leadership at UMSL is now unquestioned, with the student body president, vice president and secretary. Inter-Greek Council treasurer and one-fifth of the student senators all wearing the letters of IKA.

Zeta Chi (Southwest Missouri State — 800 South National, Springfield, Mo. 65804) pledged 23 men this fall and everything is off to a good start. The Pikes made over $200 on their annual sorority pledge class slave sale. A fantastic Homecoming is planned and the chapter is building a float with the assistance of the ladies of Sigma Kappa. Festivities include an open house before the game against Northwest Missouri State and a dance held at the Riverside Inn on the Finley River. Pikes are remaining involved on campus with positions on the Standard staff, Secretary of the IFC, President of the Pre-Law Club, and a member selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Zeta Omega (Southwest Louisiana — 1322 Johnson St., Lafayette, La. 70501) Pikes won the national Miller Reclamation Contest last spring. This past October, they were presented with their prize, a color television. The chapter recently donated blood to replace that used by Michael Lyle, father of Mindy Lyle (a IKA little sister), during heart surgery.

Eta Mu (Armstrong State — P.O. Box 13082, Savannah, Ga. 31406), after one of its most productive years, is again having a great fall. On a campus of 3,000 students, Pike is the largest fraternity and has remained the most selective. After pledging 16 men last year, they have already pledged 12 this year. The new affiliates bring total membership to 46, the largest membership ever experienced at Eta Mu. After receiving first place trophies in intramural football, basketball, track, softball, soccer and weightlifting last year, Pike began this year with a 2-0 record in both the Intramural League and the County League. The chapter also leads all others in campus involvement sporting three brothers on the senate, one on the honor council and two little sisters on the senate. In varsity athletics, Pike has three brothers and one pledge on the basketball team. In community service the brothers annually give a party for the boys of Bethesda Boys' Home, supports the retarded children's olympics and participates in local blood drives. In the immediate future, the chapter plans to sponsor the introduction of Armstrong's nationally-ranked Pirates to the basketball community.

Eta Tau (Austin Peay State — Box 4777, APSU, Clarksville, Tenn. 37040) pledged 22 strong, energetic men this fall. The pledge class was in charge of the IKA Homecoming decorations, depicting the theme of "Happy Birthday U.S.A." The float was a huge Liberty Bell with the slogan, "Crack 'em G.O.V.s." The chapter has again this year taken the lead on the APSU campus in the social activities department, sponsoring campus-wide dances with top name rock bands and plenty of fun, music and beer. The annual Halloween party of Eta Tau flourished again this fall. If Tex Fletcher is still alive, please call Eta Tau!!

Eta Chi (Valencia — 411 East Robinson, Orlando, Fla. 32803) participated in Downcraft I, a simulated airplane crash at the Orlando Jetport. Many of the brothers and little sisters were among the simulated injured during the authentic project. Much of the equipment was impressive and many dignitaries were in attendance. Following the crash, three brothers went to a curfew at the Johnny Unitas Sheraton Inn where they discussed ideas with the county commissioners and various aviation people.

Eta Psi (Texas Wesleyan — P.O. Box 3277, TWC, Fort Worth, Tx. 76105) has been busy with Greek Week. The Pikes, as in the past, have been on top intramurally as exhibited by their winning football, basketball, baseball and track competition last year. During this fall's Greek Week, the Pikes won two out of three first place trophies. Much effort was also put forth in the aluminum can drive, with a total of 260 pounds being collected, another first place honor. Brother Roger Gilley, past chapter SMC, took one of the biggest awards by being elected by the IFC to the Order of Omega. The Pikes have to be the busiest organization on campus with members Larry Cure, David Floyd, Jerry Honeycutt, Aubrey Allred and Brad Hollins participating in a play in the drama department. Several weeks ago three brothers, Bill Porter, Dan Vandell and Henry Franklin, rode their bicycles over 500 miles for the Heart Fund. This effort won a keg party for the Pikes at a local refinery.

Theta Beta (Montevallo — P.O. Drawer R, Univ. of Montevallo, Montevallo, Ala. 35115) held a successful rush this fall and gained five new pledges. An Alumni Weekend is scheduled for November 22, consisting of a cocktail party, golf match, initiation of alumni, and a dance to wrap up the weekend. After winning the intramural trophy for the seventh year in a row, the chapter is hard at work for number eight.

A night, a day, and an army, 1775.

The night, April 18, 1775. Paul Revere makes his legendary ride to Lexington. The day, April 19, 1775. A small group of Minutemen intercept a British force on its way to Concord. Seven Minutemen fall, the first American casualties of "the shot heard round the world." The army. The ragged irregulars, the farmers, the millers, the smiths, united by General George Washington to gain the freedom we have held so dear for nearly 200 years.

Honoring these men and their deeds,
the Congress of the United States has authorized the official 1975
Bicentennial Medal and Stamp Commemorative.

50,000 brothers to be in directory

An estimated 50,000 alumni of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity are expected to be included in the comprehensive directory to be published next academic year.

An agreement to publish the directory by the Bernard C. Harris Publishing Company in New York was recently signed. The book, expected to be about 1200 pages thick and available in either hard or soft bound editions, should be ready for distribution in about 14 months.

Listing all living alumni with mailable addresses, the directory will also contain the individual's chapter, business and position, company address and telephone number and residence telephone number. Alumni will be listed both alphabetically and by chapter.

A brief form to gather such data will be mailed shortly to all IKA alumni. It is extremely important that each alumnus completes and returns the form in order to ensure his listing in the directory.

The Harris Company has extensive experience and success in the alumni directory field. Pi Kappa Alpha is the first fraternity the company has accepted as a client for publication of a national directory. The agreement came after several months of investigation by the company into the potential for accuracy and sale of directories to Pi Kappa Alpha alumni.

The Fraternity asks your cooperation in compiling this potentially valuable and useful publication.
