HOW DID YOU GET INTO EDITING?

My older brother worked on film productions. While I was in high school, he'd invite me along to help. Film making quickly became a passion and when I realized I could get paid to do it, I was all in.

I did a little of everything while studying film at Chapman. From directing to camera work, what I liked most was how the story came together in the cutting room. Although film sets are very chaotic, for most of the crew it's a lot of sitting around. When I'm in the cutting room editing, there's always work to be done. I'm always tweaking sound, music, effects; trying to make a clean final product. I quickly realized that this form of storytelling perfectly aligns with my artistic ability.

HOW HAS YOUR WORK EVOLVED?

I've been in editing for 28 years. The storytelling has remained the same, but the technology we use to tell the stories is constantly changing. I've had to evolve with the times and learn new equipment. I've watched those who resisted change along the way stop getting work.

WHAT HAS MADE YOU SUCCESSFUL?

Hard work, dedication to my craft, and going the extra mile. I've been able to learn a lot about the different aspects of film making – which has helped get return-hires with directors. In this business, everyone knows you by what you did last. In the early years, a lot of the work I was able to get was because I was willing to work hard.

TELL ME ABOUT YOUR PIKE EXPERIENCE.

No one from my high school went to Chapman; I quickly figured out I was on my own and had to make my own way. Brian Woody '85 was in the film program with me and invited me to start hanging out with the guys. I quickly made friends and figured out they were a group of guys I could depend on.

The one thing that PIKE added to my college life was service. We were very involved in our community - soup kitchens, raising money for local shelters, working with kids. These experiences ended up being a great part of my time at Chapman.

BEYOND FILM AND TV, WHAT ARE YOU PASSIONATE ABOUT?

Cigars, Angels baseball, and music. My passion for the piano has led me to write a few scores that have been included in projects I've worked on.

ADVICE TO STUDENTS WANTING TO GET INTO ENTERTAINMENT:

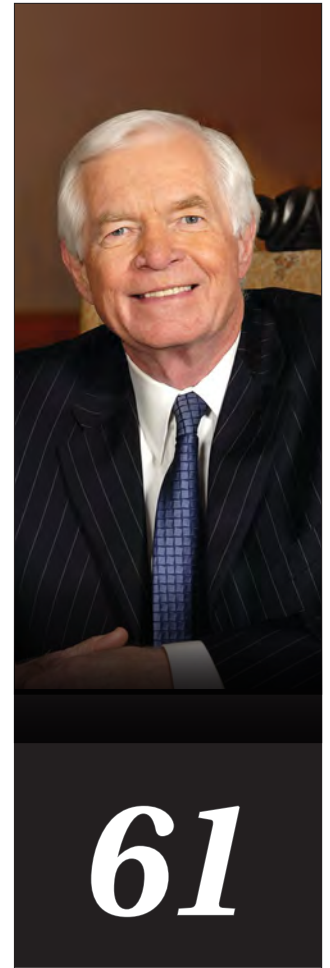

If you want to be in the film industry, you must work really hard and don't give up. If people know you're a team player and that you'll put in the hours, eventually someone will recognize you.

You must also create a goal of where you want to end up. Along the way, you'll have jobs that don't align with your end goal, but if you keep the long-term focus that you want to write, do camera work, or post production; your winding path will eventually straighten out.

In my case, I knew that I liked to tell stories, and editing would eventually allow me to do that.

FAVORITE QUOTE:

"Writing, of course, is writing, acting comes from the theater, and cinematography comes from photography. Editing is unique to film. You can see something from different points of view almost simultaneously, and it creates a new experience."
– Stanley Kubrick

PIKE professional staff changes

Executive Vice President Justin A. Buck (South-east Missouri State, Epsilon Iota '96) announces the following changes to the Pi Kappa Alpha International Fraternity staff:

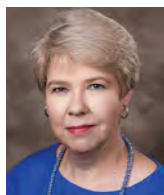

Daniel L. Ryan

(Missouri S&T, Alpha Kappa '06) has been promoted to chief learning officer of the Fraternity. Ryan has served in numerous roles with the Fraternity including consultant, director of resources, and education officer. "His work with PIKE University has been superb. He has helped broaden the reach of PIKE University while consistently improving upon its programming and overall quality, turning it into a first-rate educational experience for PIKE members. More recently, he has led the implementation of the True PIKE Experience," remarked EVP Buck. Future developments will integrate gamification and a learning management system into the program. The Fraternity is fortunate to benefit from his continued service.

Reuben R. Rodriguez

(Bowling Green, Delta Beta, '07) has been appointed senior director of real estate, reflecting his outstanding work over several years' time. Chief Real Estate Officer Daniel W. Corah (Colorado State, Epsilon Theta '83) said, "Reuben has been a leader and mentor among the Headquarters' team. After serving as a consultant for one year, he was promoted to director of real estate in 2011 and has had a tremendously positive impact on the Fraternity's mission of achieving and retaining competitive housing, and the equity growth of over $160 million worth of real estate nationwide." Rodriguez is the chief advisor and educator for chapters and house corporations on housing matters, and oversees the management of White Horse Holding Corporation properties.

Gena R. Straub

has been promoted to real estate coordinator. Chief Real Estate Officer Corah remarked, "From managing house corporation support services to overseeing the housing awards program to maintaining the International Fraternity's real estate database, Gena has been invaluable to the real estate operations since joining the team in 2008. And, if you're involved with your chapter's International Work Day project, one of Pi Kappa Alpha's most popular annual events, then you know Gena. She runs every aspect of that program, which has been a consistent success year after year. Gena's tenure and positive influence is tremendously appreciated."

Alicia D. Harrison

recently joined the finance and accounting staff as bookkeeper. Alicia received her bachelor's degree in accounting at University of West Alabama and provides more than a decade of bookkeeping experience in the private and public sectors. She recently moved to Memphis from York, Alabama. Chief Financial Officer J.R. Parsons (Wyoming, Iota Alpha '01) remarked, "I am thrilled to have Alicia join our team. In the short time she's been here, she's already shown incredible drive, talent, and innovation. I'm excited to see the efficiencies and growth we will experience as a result of Alicia's work."

Nakell L. Baker

As operations coordinator, Baker worked closely with the development operations officer to provide administrative support to fellow Foundation team members, respond to donor requests, manage the $\phi\kappa\alpha$ Club undergraduate giving society, and maintain other key organizational functions. THE ACADEMY 2019

Educating for Growth & Success

On August 1, 2019, a warm Memphis summer day, men from all over North America arrived at the Peabody Hotel to take part in an eventful weekend. The 2019 Academy began smoothly – Pikes shuffled through the registration lines, meeting new people and catching up with brothers they had met at previous conferences. Their aim for the weekend was not only to learn information for their chapters to ensure continued growth and success, but to grow themselves as leaders for the future.

This year's Academy featured 17 options for trending topics, 16 sessions of benchmarks that built upon each other in increments of four, and four general sessions. In one heartfelt session, mothers presented on the tragedy that befell their sons through hazing.

With a program-filled schedule, the opportunity for learning was easily and readily available to all who attended.

The Academy is one of the premier PIKE leadership-learning events. Three full days of learning new skills and networking with brothers provided the perfect opportunity for focusing on personal and professional success. Interpersonal skills, day-to-day chapter operations, and a wealth of knowledge from alumni and undergraduates make The Academy an educational success.

TRENDING TOPICS

Trending Topics are blocks in which the undergraduate attendees have an opportunity to hone in on specific Fraternity skills and add to the strong base they have already learned. Topics include Fraternity programming such as recruitment, alumni relations, housing, and business development. Brothers learn from the presenters about various topics based on both personal experience and situational examples. These workshops are designed to be hands-on and effective in giving attendees the skills necessary to use what they've learned in a variety of situations. PIKE University ensures that the quality of education matches the needs of our undergraduates. They can then go back to their chapters to lead efficiently and effectively.

This year's Trending Topics and presenters included:

Conquer this Conference

Danny L. Ryan (Missouri S&T, Alpha Kappa '06), Chief Learning Officer

A conference is an opportunity to build relationships with extraordinary people who could have significant impact on your chapter, professional, and/or personal success. The focus of this session was networking and how to navigate the programming effectively. At a conference, it's not only what you know, but who you get to know.

Presented by Chase G. Dannenbaum (Auburn, Upsilon '14), Director of Alumni Engagement:

Effective Alumni Relations

This session focused on the roles of the chapter alumni relations program and the alumni association in engaging alumni. In order to be effective, these groups should work in tandem to provide the right opportunities for alumni engagement. The four principles of alumni relations – Identification, Communication, Cultivation, and Solicitation – were covered in depth.

What Can My Advisors Do for Me?

The best of the best in Pi Kappa Alpha have great volunteer support. Topics included what chapters should expect of their alumnus volunteers and why they need alumni advisory boards; how to recruit and organize an alumni advisory board; and how chapters should work with their boards. Alumnus volunteers in attendance gave inside perspective on how they could be effective for their represented chapters.

Presented by Reuben R. Rodriguez (Bowling Green State, Delta Beta '07), Senior Director of Real Estate:

Finding Our Chapter House

These sessions delivered a comprehensive view on what defines Pi Kappa Alpha housing, and how each chapter can plan today for its future chapter house. Attendees referenced true case studies of how chapters have taken an idea and worked toward establishing a chapter house.

Presented by Kimberly D. Novak, Director of Health & Safety

Social Event Management: Back to Basics

This session was designed to provide participants with the basics not only for complying with the Fraternity Standards regarding hosting events with alcohol, but also how to plan for the risks created when alcohol is part of chapter activities or events. Content integrated strategies for successfully adopting new standards regarding hosting events with alcohol and focused on five key areas of event management.

Health and Safety Unplugged

This non-judgmental, open forum for undergraduate men provided an opportunity to ask questions, share concerns, and develop ideas for advancing PIKE health & safety within their chapters. This has become a very popular session at PIKE U events as Kim Novak led the conversation in a direct and authentic way with nothing off limits.

Creating an Upstander Environment in Your Chapter

"If someone had just said something..." is often the afterthought of leadership when an incident redefines the future of a chapter. Doing the right thing necessitates engaging the general membership of a chapter in the reduction of high-risk behaviors and creating an environment where members, not just leadership, will be upstanders and act or speak up.

Membership Development: What Do You Want from Your Program?

Chapter leaders must set up brothers for success after their undergraduate membership with Pi Kappa Alpha. This session detailed the value of having continuous member development and gave attendees the chance to discuss how to maximize their Fraternity experience. This session was the first of a four-part curriculum focused on developing your members throughout their time in the chapter.

Membership Development: Structure Your Program

An effective membership development program comprises many different pieces. By having a framework to enact change and the right men to lead the charge, chapters can set themselves up for success. This session gave attendees the chance to enhance their membership development by outlining a structure for identifying ideal members to serve on the membership development cabinet.

Membership Development: Set the Calendar and Train the Trainer

After establishing an implementation strategy, it's time to set the dates and begin planning sessions. In order to take advantage of each session and successfully educate their members, the member development cabinet must be able to present information and engage in productive discussion. In this session, attendees built a strategy for scheduling and learned how to onboard the member development team.

Membership Development: Your Way Forward

It is important that attendees not only understand the concepts of member development but are also able to take these concepts and implement them at the chapter level. This session motivates and empowers attendees to take the concepts they have learned back to their respective chapters by outlining the changes necessary and providing an opportunity to hear from chapters that have had success with implementation. This session is the last of a four-part curriculum focused on developing your members throughout their time in the chapter.

Creating Your Ideal Fraternity III

By the end of this session, attendees had a roadmap for their chapter to successfully reach its goals. They learned how to take information back to their chapter, put it to use, and address challenges moving forward. Finally, attendees were provided with information about the different resources available to aid the chapter in accomplishing its goals.

Chris E. Peterson, International Vice President

The final benchmark session revealed PIKE's professional recruitment strategy, including best practices for cold/warm calls and the interview process.

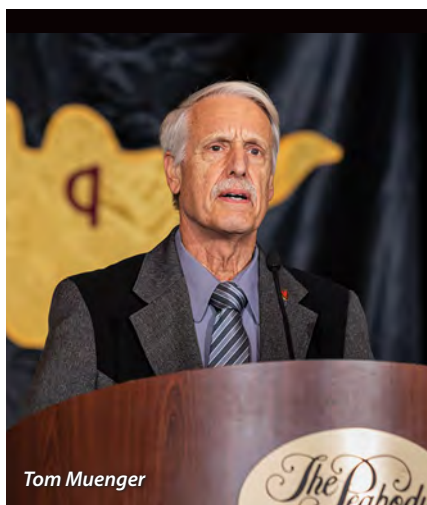

GENERAL SESSIONS

General sessions provided opportunities for attendees to gather and learn from expert facilitators. The values preached in these sessions were some of the most vital, and they are attended by the entire conference. This year's sessions included recruitment, the deadly and horrific dangers of hazing, and a leadership lecture presentation by an esteemed PIKE alumnus.

LEADERSHIP LECTURE

The Academy welcomed Distinguished Achievement Award recipient Stephen C. Reynolds (Arkansas State, Delta Theta '67) to speak to the assembly. His speech captivated the audience with stories of his life ranging from his start as a child with a passion for hard work, and how important family life was to him. Brother Reynolds noted his time in Delta Theta Chapter as some of the most informative of his life. He referred to one of his chapter brothers and eventual advisor as someone he looked up to and who showed caring for everyone and led by example. Reynolds asked a question of the whole Academy, "What is your story, where did you come from?", and in his words, "My family is my story." Hard work does not just come from nowhere, it must be conjured up from the bottom of one's heart and drive. Reynolds left the audience with "20 Leadership Takeaways and Expectations". He mentioned that throughout his life, he was constantly challenged by the world around him, and that we do not walk alone in life. It is important for us, as friends, sons, and brothers, always to have someone behind you ready and willing to help. ❖

Tom Muenger

Thomas R. Muenger (Toledo, Epsilon Epsilon '66), president of the Foundation for the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter at the University of Toledo, made a special presentation on behalf of alumni from the Epsilon Epsilon Foundation and gave an extremely generous gift of $100,000 to the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter Endowment Fund to support their PIKE University attendance. Epsilon Epsilon alumni have made it a goal to fully sponsor 42 brothers per year to attend PIKE University events (30 to the Chicago Leadership Summit, four to the Chapter Executives Conference, and eight to the Academy or Convention). To reach full endowment, the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter Endowment Fund will need $270,000. This gift brings the current balance to $156,000, well over half of the goal. Epsilon Epsilon Chapter hopes to raise the remaining amount by the 2020 Convention.

Stephen C. Reynolds receives 2019 Distinguished Achievement Award

Stephen C. Reynolds (Arkansas State, Delta Theta '67) was awarded the Judge Elbert P. Tuttle Distinguished Achievement Award. Established in 1936, the Distinguished Achievement Award is presented annually to the alumnus member who has achieved the most distinguished resume in his vocation, profession or field of public service. It is named after Elbert P. Tuttle (Cornell, Beta Theta 1917), a veteran who served in both World Wars, then as Chief Justice of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals from 1961-68, and as a Senior Justice until his death in 1996. Under Tuttle's leadership, the Fifth Circuit became recognized as a leader in the fight against segregation.

Reynolds is president emeritus of Baptist Memorial Health Care, one of the largest not-for-profit health care systems in the United States, following his retirement as president and CEO in May 2014.

When he arrived at Baptist Memorial Health Care as an administrative resident in 1971, the organization had two facilities: a hospital in downtown Memphis and a rehabilitation facility. At his retirement 43 years later, the organization had 14 affiliate hospitals and dozens of other entities.

Reynolds played a key role in the growth of the health care system. As the system grew, he rose in the ranks of the organization, becoming Baptist's fourth president and CEO in 1994.

Among his notable milestones as president and CEO, three new hospitals opened, new bed towers were added at three other hospitals, and significant investments were made in other facilities bringing high-level facilities and services to underserved communities.

In addition to continued growth, community service marked Reynolds' tenure as president and CEO.

Under his leadership, Baptist made the largest gift in the University of Tennessee's history and facilitated the creation of the UT-Baptist Research Park with the donation of the Baptist Medical Center building and land to the university and the Memphis Bioworks Foundation.

Baptist also established itself as Memphis' largest homeless health care provider with the addition of its signature community outreach program, the Baptist Operation Outreach health care van, and donated millions of dollars to dozens of schools, area nonprofits, and other organizations.

Reynolds has received local, regional, and national accolades for his accomplishments including recognition from the American College of Health Care Executives, Rotary International, Boy Scouts of America, the Tennessee Hospital Association, B'nai B'rith, Arkansas State University, and Washington University School of Medicine.

Reynolds received his bachelor of science in business administration from Arkansas State University, his master's degree from Washington University, and an honorary doctorate degree from Union University.

The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity is proud to honor Stephen C. Reynolds with the 2019 Judge Elbert P. Tuttle Distinguished Achievement Award. ❖

Gamma Upsilon Chapter Initiate recognized as 2019 Robertson Most Outstanding Undergraduate

Matthew B. Wells (Tulsa, Gamma Upsilon '15) is the 2019 recipient of the Robertson Most Outstanding Undergraduate Award. Brother Wells is a 2015 initiate of Gamma Upsilon Chapter at University of Tulsa. He graduated summa cum laude in May 2019 with a bachelor of science degree in international engineering.

Wells was recognized as a TU Presidential Scholar, the most prestigious academic merit award given by the University. He earned numerous awards for his outstanding academic performance including the Sidney Born Award in Mechanical Engineering and the Steven J. Bellovich Collegiate Honor Medal. Wells was chosen by the Center for Space Nuclear Research (CSNR) to serve as an Undergraduate Research Fellow where he conducted cutting-edge nuclear research at the Department of Energy's Idaho National Laboratory. He was invited to join numerous honorary societies including Mortar Board Honor Society, Phi Eta Sigma, Tau Beta Pi and Order of Omega Greek Honor Society, where he served as president from 2017-18. He was named to the President's Honor Roll seven times, was honored as the 2017-2018 Outstanding Greek Scholar of the College of Engineering & Natural Sciences and served as a TU university ambassador.

Fraternally, Wells served Gamma Upsilon Chapter in numerous leadership positions including recruitment chairman, internal vice president and alumni relations chairman. In 2018, his chapter brothers voted him Pike of the Year and in 2019 he received the Michael J. Fitzgerald Lifetime Achievement Award honoring the senior that has contributed the most to the chapter over the course of four years of membership. Wells served on the Interfraternity Council and was named Order of Omega Greek Man of the Year in 2018.

Brother Wells has contributed countless hours of community service supporting a variety of causes including the St. Phillip Neri Catholic Newman Center, Foodbank of Eastern Oklahoma, Up with Trees, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, American Cancer Society and Crosstown Education Center. In 2018, he was honored by the TU community as a Jess Choteau Outstanding Senior, an award that recognizes seniors who demonstrate exceptional achievement in both academic and service endeavors.

Additionally, Wells founded the University of Tulsa Club Golf Team following the elimination of the men's varsity team. Tulsa was the only rookie team represented at the 2016 National Collegiate Club Golf Association National Championship.

Wells was unable to attend The Academy to accept his award in person due to his wedding to Eliza Michaud, which was scheduled for the same day. Instead, he addressed Academy attendees via video at the International Awards Luncheon. Much of Wells' speech paid tribute to long-time Gamma Upsilon Chapter Advisor Bill Vogle '66 – "Ironically, it was not until I began to try to emulate Bill's service to others and his Fraternity that I experienced the most growth, both as a leader and a person. I began to see my responsibilities and the tasks on my to-do list as opportunities to serve others and finally understood what it meant to 'be part of something bigger than myself'."

Wells is the son of Christine and Blake Wells of Wichita, Kansas. He is currently living in Philadelphia while completing an internship with Boeing Aerospace Company. He and Eliza are moving to Spain in August to study abroad for one year.

The Worst Call

In 2017, Rae Ann Gruver and Evelyn Piazza received similar phone calls only a few months apart. Now, they're sharing their sons' stories to make sure no other mom receives the same kind of call.

When Steve and Rae Ann Gruver dropped off their oldest son, Max, at college, on August 5, 2017, they told him they loved him, they would miss him, they were proud of him, and encouraged him to "go shine his light on the world".

Max was excited about the next chapter of his life. He wanted to join a fraternity to meet people, to get involved, and to take on a leadership role. Just 29 days after his parents dropped him off, the next chapter was cut short.

Max died as a result of alcohol-related hazing after new members were summoned to their chapter house for "Bible Study". Over the course of less than two hours, he was forced to take 10-12 "pulls" of 190-proof alcohol, bringing his blood alcohol content to 0.495 – over six times the legal limit.

He was showing obvious signs of distress, and members were monitoring his pulse and breathing, but no one called 911. Instead, he was left alone on a couch overnight.

One month later, Tim attended his first new member event, "The Gauntlet". After being forced to consume an excessive amount of alcohol, 18 drinks in 82 minutes, he fell down a flight of stairs into the basement of his fraternity house. After his fall, fraternity members failed to seek help until it was too late. Nearly 12 hours later, someone finally called 911. Tim died as a result of his injuries on February 4, 2017.

Since 1961, there has been at least one hazing death a year. Last summer, several families, including the Gruvers and the Piazzas, joined together to form an anti-hazing coalition to spread their message, expanding awareness about the impacts of hazing, and working to stop hazing once and for all.

During the 2019 Academy, the 528 attendees had the unique opportunity to hear Rae Ann and Evelyn speak about Max and Tim, the impacts of hazing, and how to stop hazing. As each mother spoke, an audible silence filled the room, and the audience was moved to tears.

Before addressing the role listeners could play in the prevention of hazing, Mrs. Piazza took the opportunity to remind them that their lives are important to those around them.

"You are very loved. You may not hear it very often but know that you are very loved. Your absence from people's lives would be devastating to them. Now remember, the person next to you is just as loved by their family and friends. Please listen to us, and don't haze."

Hazing is any activity expected of someone joining or participating in a group that humiliates, degrades, abuses, or endangers them regardless of the person's willingness to participate. Hazing does not promote loyalty or offer a sense of accomplishment. In fact, studies show that the opposite holds true and 75% say hazing drove them apart within their new member class and more so in the chapter. Hazing is illegal in nearly every state.

To report incidents of hazing, please call 1-888-668-4293 to make an anonymous report. For more information on how to bring Mrs. Gruver or Mrs. Piazza to your campus or for more ways to get involved, please contact Director of Health & Safety Kim Novak at KNovak@Pikes.org. ❖

PIKE Lifeline

Fraternity establishes partnership with JED Foundation

Discussions about mental health are some of the most crucial conversations happening on college campuses across North America. According to new research published by the American Psychological Association, over one-third of college students are impacted by mental health challenges, and 75% of mental health conditions develop by age 24. Additionally, men are 3.5 times more likely to die by suicide than women.

With over 14,000 undergraduate students, the Fraternity realizes these statistics aren't just numbers – these are our members and their peers. We serve a unique space and have the opportunity to help our members by working to combat the growing mental health crisis.

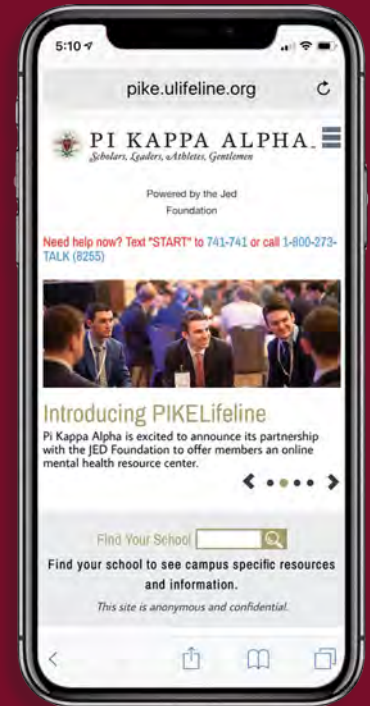

In an effort to reduce the stigma around mental health problems and to provide members with the tools and resources necessary to help someone in need, Pi Kappa Alpha is proud to announce a partnership with The Jed Foundation (JED), a leading nonprofit that exists to protect emotional health and prevent suicide for teens and young adults. Together with JED, the Fraternity launched the PIKE Lifeline, an online mental health resource center that provides students with information about emotional health issues and the specific resources available on their campus. It also offers a confidential mental health self-screening tool.

PIKE Lifeline was made possible by generous donors to the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation's Blake Nicholas Caummisar Memorial Fund which provides funding for programs and initiatives to promote wellness and a healthy lifestyle for all Pikes.

"This resource is the direct result of the great love and dedication of many people wanting to memorialize our son. Through this service, our tragic loss will be turned into a tangible resource for others who are suffering and don't know where to turn," said Beth and Stan Caummisar, parents of Blake Caummisar (Mississippi, Gamma Iota '12).

In addition, for the first time ever at a PIKE University event, attendees at the 2019 Academy had the opportunity to attend a general session about mental health where they heard from Director of Health & Safety Kim Novak and firsthand accounts from members of Mu Epsilon Chapter (California State-Fullerton) and Zeta Chi Chapter (Missouri State).

If you or a loved one is struggling with suicidal thoughts, text: START to 741-741 or call 1-800-273-TALK (8255). Learn more about the specific resources available on your campus by visiting <http://pike.ulifeline.org/>. Donations may be made to the Blake Nicholas Caummisar Memorial Fund at <https://pikefoundation.webconnex.com/Caummisar>. ❖

So what can you do?

- Be a leader.
- Follow your values.
- Speak up if something doesn't look or feel right.
- Report hazing if it occurs.
- Don't haze someone just because it happened to you.
- Don't be a bystander.
- Promote safe recruitment and membership development.
- Empower yourself to talk about hazing.
- If you see someone in distress, call 911.

2019 INTERNATIONAL WORK DAY

Each year, Pi Kappa Alpha chapters and house corporations organize one day for students, alumni, parents, and guests to complete renovation and house improvement projects. Every chapter that participated in 2019 Work Day received a recognition plaque and a banner. Each award winner received a plaque and a $100 gift certificate to a local hardware store. The Overall Work Day winner took home a trophy as well as a $500 grant for additional improvements to their facility.

Since Work Day was founded, over 76,000 Pikes and friends have completed 8,650 improvement projects and nearly $5 million worth of renovations. A considerable amount of valuable work has been completed for the betterment of PIKE houses everywhere, and a number of volunteer house corporation boards have also been created and/or enhanced in conjunction with the Work Day endeavors.

REGIONAL RECRUITMENT WORKSHOPS

The Ultimate Recruitment Experience

by Director of Membership Growth Caleb Vander Lugt (Adrian, Zeta Lambda '14)

Are you looking to improve your chapter's recruitment program? The International Fraternity offers several recruitment resources to all chapters and colonies, including recruitment-specific handbooks, scripts for interviews and presentations, chapter self-assessments, recruitment visits, and regional recruitment workshops.

Additionally, the director of membership growth oversees 100 recruitment visits annually to assist chapters with their recruitment programs.

WHAT ARE REGIONAL RECRUITMENT WORKSHOPS?

Three regional recruitment workshops are hosted each year across North America. The goal of a regional workshop is to provide chapters the opportunity to create a chapter-specific recruitment program.

These day-long recruitment workshops consist of a chapter assessment, discussing PIKE's basic recruitment concepts, creating unique selling points, combatting "no" factors, and role-playing various scenarios. The content is similar to what an undergraduate member would learn at a PIKE University event without having to travel as far.

One chapter serves as the host chapter, and hosts the workshop on its campus. This chapter is very important to the success of a workshop, working closely with the director of membership growth to organize a meeting space. Attending chapters from the surrounding area travel to the host university for the afternoon.

Regional recruitment workshops provide opportunities to create a detailed, chapter-specific recruitment plan that will bring your chapter's recruitment program to the next level and provide an opportunity to practice strategies and skills taught through roleplaying and various other exercises. Be on the lookout for this opportunity, and take advantage of it whenever it is offered.

Whether it is attending PIKE University, requesting a recruitment visit, or attending a regional recruitment workshop, improving your chapter's recruitment program is vital to the long-term success of our beloved Fraternity.

If your chapter is interested in hosting a workshop, contact the director of membership growth at cvanderlugt@pikes.org to discuss the opportunity. Otherwise, be on the lookout for a workshop coming to a university near you. ❖

During 2018-19 the International Fraternity hosted three regional workshops in Fullerton, California; Jacksonville, Florida; and Stillwater, Oklahoma. Attendees from the Jacksonville and Stillwater workshops shared some thoughts:

"One of the biggest takeaways was having the opportunity to create a recruitment schedule. We had everything planned out in advance. In addition, we obtained new ideas from the facilitators and attending chapters for generating names. They gave us advice based on their own personal experiences.

I would 100% tell invited chapters to attend and bring as many guys as possible. At a recruitment workshop you're going to get the most relevant, and specific advice. Attending can help bring a chapter to the next level."

- Tyler Stitt
(Oklahoma, Beta Omicron '19)

"Hosting the workshop was an amazing experience. We were put right in the center of the event. Most of the work is handled by the director of membership growth, and he made the planning process very smooth and simple."

- Christian Huber
(Jacksonville, Mu Mu '16)

"One of the biggest takeaways for my chapter was the concept of post-game rush.

We met our goal by utilizing this strategy."

- Dakota Ellmore
(Central Oklahoma, Lambda Iota '17)

Chapters and Colonies

Every day, countless chapters, undergraduate leaders, and alumni take great pride in fulfilling our mission. The data you see and the stories you read in these pages are proof we are developing men of integrity, intellect, and high moral character.

The annual Fraternity and membership statistics remain impressive. Together, Pi Kappa Alpha chapters comprised the following in 2018-19:

- 216 chapters and colonies consisting of 14,304 undergraduate members, initiating 5,677 men, and maintaining an average chapter size of 64
- Seven new chapters receiving their charters
- Brothers raising $3,245,389 for philanthropy and committing over 297,000 hours of community service
- 3,186 members participating in valuable PIKE University programming and 109 chapters completing an official PIKE Work Day project

Pi Kappa Alpha witnessed countless alumni continue to foster a truly lifelong fraternal experience with:

- 180 alumni advisory boards consisting of 1,421 volunteers
- 157 alumni associations with over 832 association leaders
- 160 house corporations composed of 793 volunteers

Pi Kappa Alpha sprinted into its 151st year on a high note, having recently concluded its sesquicentennial celebration and inched ever closer to initiating its 300,000th member. While our Fraternity remains unquestionably one of the best fraternities in North America, there remain numerous opportunities for improvement.

The statistics shared above, specifically in terms of number of chapters and colonies, total undergraduate membership, and initiations, fell to their lowest levels in nine years. These are troubling developments, especially in an era when we are seeing more men joining fraternities than ever before.

Two of the drivers for these developments: complacency and self-inflicted wounds.

Complacency – While certainly not all, or even a majority, far too many Pikes are waiting for others to step up instead of taking the initiative themselves. Fraternities were not meant to succeed in a what's in it for me environment. Next time, when that call comes – take charge and step up! Set the tone of accountability within your chapter; continue to recruit the most, best men; and provide the alumni guidance our young brothers need to thrive. Don't wait for someone else to do it. Success in the fraternity world is about will, and PKAs have never lacked the will to succeed.

Self-inflicted wounds continue to deprive our current members and those desirous of joining our ranks from having a true PIKE experience. Record numbers of chapters have fallen silent in recent years, leaving a residual impact for years to come – be it brothers lacking the support and friendship from which so many of us have benefitted, or leaving alumni without a place to call home.

In an era when fraternities are being challenged in countless ways, including challenges to our single-sex status by high profile universities (including Harvard and Yale), local zoning restrictions, overly punitive and antiquated judicial processes, deferred recruitment, university-imposed Greek taxes, restrictive joining practices, and declining male enrollment, among others – we cannot afford to stand in the way of our own progress.

There is no shortage of issues Pi Kappa Alpha deals with on a daily basis. Some are out of our control, but self-inflicted wounds such as hazing, alcohol abuse, and assault can be addressed by each and every one of us.

As I watch our outstanding young brothers wrestle with and propose solutions to new member education and ongoing development; the elimination of hard alcohol at chapter houses; increased accountability measures; and the demand for additional education through the True PIKE Experience and PIKE University – I am reassured about how bright of a future there is for Pi Kappa Alpha.

Like many of you, when I see those letters ΠKA, I am reminded:

- There is no other experience that develops men, both young and old, as well as we do.
- Of all the great times spent at the chapter house with brothers, winning intramural championships, excelling in the classroom, being leaders on campus, and treating others with respect.
- Of having life altering one-on-one conversations with brothers when they are going through difficult times, and positively impacting that person for the rest of their life and yours.

We should all be continually inspired by chapters such as:

- Delta Nu Chapter at Wayne State, which since 2012, has hosted a memorial 5k in honor of a brother who passed away from brain cancer. Held each May, the race has resulted in a total of $51,000 being raised for the American Brain Tumor Association.
- Gamma Rho Chapter at Northwestern, which hosted its inaugural charity concert benefiting the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), the nation's largest grassroots mental health organization. The men raised $6,700 during this one day event.
- Our Alpha Alpha Chapter at Duke, which hosted its annual Shave for Schreiber, Buzz for Bobby philanthropy event in memory of Brother Bobby Menges. To date, the chapter has raised over $230,000 for the Menges family's "I'm Not Done Yet Foundation".

On a recent flight, I was sitting next to a gentleman whose brother was a Pike at Western Michigan University, home to our Epsilon Psi Chapter. He shared with me that his brother had passed away from cancer recently, leaving behind a beautiful wife and two outstanding daughters. Not only did he say that the group of men with whom his brother was associated had gone on to tremendous personal and professional success, but that following the funeral, these brothers led by Dan Watkins '93 and Dave Merritt '92 pledged to his widow that their daughters would never pay a dime for college. In the five years since his passing, they have raised over $90,000 toward that goal.

I know that this and so much more is what Pi Kappa Alpha is all about.

As our wise brother from Presbyterian College once said, Yesterday is gone forever; tomorrow is yet to be; but the destiny of Pi Kappa Alpha rests today with each and every one of us.

PI KAPPA ALPHA FOUNDATION

Raising Funds to Educate and Empower Principled Leaders

FRIENDS OF PI KAPPA ALPHA MAKE LEADERSHIP GIFT IN SUPPORT OF MENTAL WELLNESS

Dorrie and Robert Simms of Memphis, Tennessee were gravely impacted by the sudden and tragic loss of Blake N. Caummisar (Mississippi, Gamma Iota '12). When they learned their good friends, Beth and Stan Caummisar, Blake's parents, were working with the PIKE Foundation to bring much needed attention to the crisis related to mental health, they stepped forward to help.

Believing there is a negative stigma around discussing emotional health issues and an even greater problem with young adults seeking treatment, the Simms were inspired to learn the Fraternity has made it a priority to provide its members with a safe community and the resources needed to address a host of concerns. Specifically, Pi Kappa Alpha recently partnered with the JED Foundation to provide a 24/7 online forum to confidentially discuss issues with trained professionals. The program also provides individual personal assessments and educational resources on topics such as anxiety disorders, depression, stress, suicidal behavior, alcohol, and drugs. The program is called PIKE ULifeline – pike.ulifeline.org (See more on page 16).

Thanks to a lead donation from the Simms Family, and an endowment fund established by Beth and Stan Caummisar, the PIKE Foundation is able to fund 100% of the cost for this program indefinitely.

If you are interested in learning more about this program or other PIKE health and safety priorities, please contact PikeFoundation@pikes.org or call (901) 748-1948.

DOUBLE
Your Impact

Matching donations up to $400,000 through December 31st!

These days we have a subscription for everything – music, books, movies, razors. Why not set up a recurring subscription for your charitable giving? Statistics show that 90% of a typical charity's income comes from one-time donations – making it difficult to predict revenue and plan for the future.

With consistent monthly support from investors, the PIKE Foundation can create concrete strategies for responding to the most critical needs of the Fraternity.

Setting up a recurring subscription is fast, easy, and fits into your monthly budget. In 2019 your gift to the Pi Kappa Alpha will be doubled! Through the generosity of Ross & Mary Edwards, the Foundation Board of Trustees has elected to match all donations up to $400,000 to benefit the Fraternity's Endowment Fund.

JOIN THE $\Phi\Phi\kappa\alpha$ CLUB TODAY!

$\Phi\Phi\kappa\alpha$ Club is a donor giving society for undergraduate Pikes. These donations directly benefit their chapter endowment fund. Annual recognition for this giving society begins July 1 and ends June 30.

How to join:

Visit this link: <https://pikefoundation.webconnex.com/ppka100> or call Development Operations Officer Muffin Dixon at 901-333-2762.

Individual student members can join by annually donating $25 to the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation.

Chapters can become a 100% $\Phi\Phi\kappa\alpha$ Chapter by each initiated member making an annual donation of \$20 per member to the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation.

Perks of membership:

- Official Pi Kappa Alpha recognition certificate
- Lapel pin
- Embossed wrist band
- Recognition in the Shield & Diamond
- Recognition on the Fraternity's website
- Nametag ribbons to wear at PIKE University events

100% $\Phi\Phi\kappa\alpha$ Club chapters will also receive special recognition at PIKE University events and International Convention or Academy!

How does this create scholarships?

These donations are restricted to the donor's Chapter Endowment Fund. Once the chapter's fund is endowed at $10,000, the endowment will begin providing grants to the chapter's PIKE University Scholarship fund to assist chapter members with registration fees for PIKE University events.

The PIKE Foundation transfers awards from the Chapter Endowment Fund to the chapter's PIKE University Scholarship Fund annually on July 1. Available PIKE University funds can be viewed at: <https://www.pikes.org/pike-u/pike-u-scholarships/pike-u-available-funds>

In 2018-19 more than 4,000 student donors raised over \$87,000 for their Chapter Endowment Funds. These endowments provide grants to PIKE University scholarship funds. Congratulations to the following 48 chapters and two colonies that joined as 100% $\Phi\Phi\kappa\alpha$ Club chapters and 31 individuals who are proud PIKE Foundation donors.

DONATE YOUR VEHICLE

We accept cars, truck, boats and more! The process is easy, the pick-up is free, and your donation is tax-deductible.

Call 855-500-RIDE (855-500-7433) and mention Pi Kappa Alpha or visit https://careasy.org/nonprofit/pi-kappa-alpha-foundation

PIKE Foundation

Did You Know We Accept Vehicle Donations?

Have a vehicle you no longer need? The PIKE Foundation accepts vehicle donations!

Your favorite nonprofit needs community support and collaboration to continue crucial programs. Did you know that the PIKE Foundation also accepts vehicles as donations?

What does the Pike Foundation do with donated vehicles?

Most vehicles are sold through local auctions, and the PIKE Foundation uses the proceeds from the sale of your vehicle to continue its support of PIKE University, the Memorial Headquarters, and our undergraduate brothers.

As a vehicle donation, your extra car, truck, boat, RV, or other piece of heavy equipment has the potential to drive more funds than a single cash donation, which means more support for Pi Kappa Alpha.

Here's how it works:

- ✓ Call 855-500-RIDE (855-500-7433) and mention Pi Kappa Alpha or submit the secure online form at <https://careasy.org/nonprofit/pi-kappa-alpha-foundation>.
- ✓ Schedule Your Free Pick-up: Within 48 hours, one of our Donor Support Representatives will contact you to complete the donation and confirm pick-up information. In most cases, we can schedule the vehicle pick-up on the initial call once the donation record has been completed.
- ✓ Receive a donation receipt. Vehicle donations are tax-deductible, and we work to get the highest return per vehicle for you and for us. According to the IRS Guidelines, you may claim fair market value for your donation up to the actual sale value. If your vehicle is sold for more than $500, the maximum amount of your deduction will be the sales price of the vehicle.

We strive to accept every donated vehicle; however, it must be in one piece and towable, tow truck accessible, and you need a clear title.

Donating a Vehicle is Easy

1. Simply call or complete our online donation form.

2. Schedule your free & convenient pick-up.

3. Receive a donation receipt. That's it!

Drive more of your support for PIKE when you donate a vehicle to the PIKE Foundation.

Learn more at <https://careasy.org/nonprofit/pi-kappa-alpha-foundation> or call 855-500-RIDE (855-500-7433) and mention Pi Kappa Alpha to get started.

GIFTS IN TRIBUTE

SERVICE LEARNING

David Peterson found his vocation through volunteering with Habitat for Humanity projects at home and at Indiana State.

When casual observers look at a Habitat for Humanity house, they may see just a house.

That's exactly what Indiana State senior David Peterson (Indiana State, Theta Omicron '16) saw. That is, until the Zionsville native became a volunteer with the organization during high school.

"My parents have always been about giving back to the community. They're both very handy and they do a lot of home projects, so I guess that's where I got my hands-on skills for doing home improvements," said Peterson, a construction management major and president of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity at Indiana State. "The first interaction I had with Habitat for Humanity was through my church, which sponsored a house. I was too young to volunteer, but I remember my dad telling me he was going to volunteer. He also told me what Habitat for Humanity was all about."

After graduating from high school, Peterson enrolled at St. John Fisher College in Rochester, New York where he majored in general business. He played lacrosse and was awarded the service scholarship, which required completion of 130 hours of community service his freshman year.

"They required me to pick one nonprofit organization to work with and that's when I picked Habitat for Humanity, because I thought it would be a fun experience and good life skills to learn — working with tools and doing home improvements," he said.

After his first semester, though, he still didn't know what he wanted to do after college. "I knew from taking general business classes that I didn't want to sit behind a desk all day and be stuck in an office. I also knew after doing over 100 hours of community service with Habitat for Humanity, I enjoyed the experience a lot," he said. "I liked building and working on the job sites. My dad and I talked a little bit about construction management and about how there would be a lot of jobs where I wouldn't be stuck behind a desk."

Peterson began looking to transfer to an in-state construction management program when his father, who is an Indiana State alumnus, suggested his alma mater. It was the perfect fit.

David Peterson (Indiana State, Theta Omicron '16) graduated in May 2019. During his undergraduate time in the chapter, he served Theta Omicron as community service chairman, vice president of service, and president.

"Through the construction management program at ISU, I had the opportunity that fall to go to the Associated Schools of Construction Region III competition in Chicago as part of the design-build team," he said. "Just starting out at ISU, this competition gave me real-life experience working with a team and learning from them through a project that we presented. It was also a great opportunity because there was a career fair there, where got my first interview and internship with Lithko Contracting, a concrete subcontractor based out of Indianapolis."

Since becoming a Sycamore, Peterson joined the Construction Management Club and Sigma Lambda Chi, the honorary construction society. This fall, he turned his summer internship with Weddle Bros., a general contractor in Bloomington, Ind., into a job.

He also connected his service for the Habitat for Humanity in Boone County to the Wabash Valley Habitat for Humanity. Peterson pitched in on two houses south of campus and joined the Wabash Valley board in May 2017 as the Indiana State representative and voting member.

"I have had some experience volunteering on-site since I came to college, but serving as a member of their board is a new experience, seeing the behind-the-scenes of a nonprofit," he said. "I already know what they produce, but being on the board I get to see how they get there, get the money and select families."

Peterson also helps the Habitat staff work with Indiana State to get volunteers and work with professors on projects, whether it's building a playset or sheds or other small projects.

"When I started with Habitat for Humanity, I was a volunteer working on building a house for a family. You just think about what you're doing to help that one family, but Habitat for Humanity, especially Wabash Valley Habitat for Humanity, does more than just building homes for families," he said. "They're helping develop neighborhoods and communities, especially in the Ryves Neighborhood. They're restoring and doing one-day projects for houses that can really impact families and to build a sense of community that will raise people's spirits." ❖

Fire and Fortitude: The US Army in the Pacific War, 1941-1943

by John C. McManus (Missouri, Alpha Nu '84)

The exploits of the U.S. Marines in the Pacific during World War II are legendary, and deservedly so. Yet the achievements and heroism of the U.S. Army, which actually did most of the fighting and dying there, are almost entirely overlooked, according to John C. McManus, an acclaimed historian of World War II. Now, McManus corrects the oversight with Fire and Fortitude: The US Army in the Pacific War, 1941-1943, which was published by Dutton Caliber in July, 2019 as the first of two volumes.

McManus's gripping and wide-ranging account of the crucial first two years of the Pacific War carries readers from the shock of Pearl Harbor through the Bataan Death March in the Philippines, the massive build-up of American troops in Australia, the savage battles to take back island outposts occupied by the Japanese, and finally the turnabout at Makin in the Gilbert Islands, with the U.S. Army in the Pacific about to reach its peak fighting capacity.

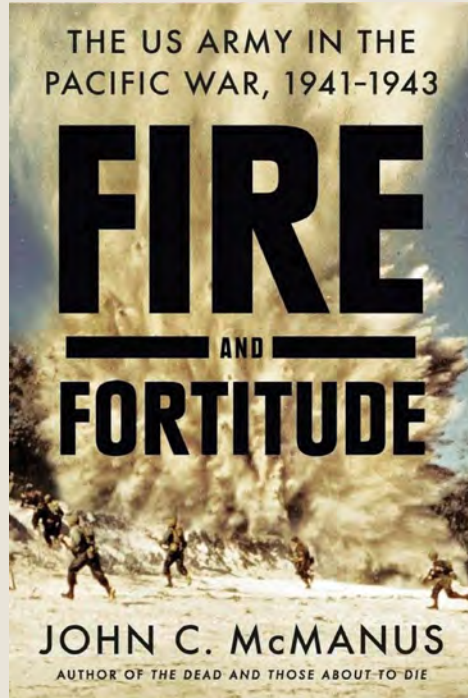

McManus's engrossing narrative includes celebrated commanders like Douglas MacArthur as well as many rank-and-file heroes. He does full justice to the war's scope and complexity, which goes far beyond military strategy and tactics to include economics, nationalism, colonialism, racism, and morality. In the Pacific, the Army glimpsed many of its future challenges and trends, and the United States made a fundamental geopolitical pivot from Europe to Asia, with profound consequences that endure today.

John C. McManus, Ph.D., is the award-winning author of thirteen previous critically praised books about World War II, including The Dead and Those About to Die and September Hope. He is Curators' Distinguished Professor of U.S. military history at Missouri University of Science and Technology and is currently in residence at the U.S. Naval Academy as the Leo A. Shifrin Chair of Naval and Military History.

McManus earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of Tennessee in 1996. He earned a master of arts degree in history in 1991 and a bachelor of journalism degree in 1987, both from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

He received the 2012 Missouri Governor's Award for Excellence in Teaching and was named the 2012 Research Fellow by the First Division Museum at Cantigny Park. In 2007, he was named to History News Network's list of Top Young Historians in 2007 and in 2008 he received the Missouri Conference on History Book Award for Alamo in the Ardennes: The Untold Story of the American Soldiers Who Made the Defense of Bastogne Possible. ❖

Distinguished Senator Thad Cochran enters Chapter Eternal

Seven-term Senator and faithful Brother leaves a legacy of service

William Thad Cochran entered Chapter Eternal on May 30, 2019. Born in Pontotoc, Mississippi on December 7, 1937, into a family of educators, his parents modeled for him lives dedicated to public service. Growing up mostly in the small town of Byram, Mississippi, Cochran was an Eagle Scout, member of the 4-H, high school valedictorian, and student-athlete. Upon arrival at the University of Mississippi, Brother Cochran was initiated into the Gamma Iota Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha on February 10, 1956. During his tenure, Cochran served the chapter as president and treasurer, was elected vice president of the student body, served as company commander in the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps, and was selected as Ole Miss' head cheerleader. Following graduation in 1959, Brother Cochran joined the United States Navy before returning to the University of Mississippi to study law. After practicing for several years in Jackson, Mississippi, Cochran was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1972. He served three terms in the House representing Jackson and portions of southwest Mississippi. Cochran was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1978, becoming the first Republican to represent Mississippi in the Senate in nearly 100 years. Brother Cochran served seven terms in the Senate and was the 10th-longest-serving senator in U.S. history. Cochran most recently served as chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, a position he held from 2005-07 and again from 2015-18. He also chaired the Senate Agriculture Committee from 2003-05. In April 2006, he was selected by Time magazine as one of America's 10 Best Senators.

Thad Cochran
(Mississippi, Gamma Iota '56)

Thad Cochran was a champion for Pi Kappa Alpha throughout his life. Brother Cochran generously invested and served as honorary chairman for the Seizing the Opportunity - Campaign for Pi Kappa Alpha, which culminated in the construction of Pi Kappa Alpha Memorial Headquarters at 8347 West Range Cove in Memphis, Tennessee in 1988. He was a trustee of the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation from 1979-80 and was a guest speaker at numerous international workshops and conventions.

Cochran is often referred to as a statesman, exhibiting the virtues of patience, integrity, and compassion while at the same time employing both his wealth of accumulated knowledge and his native rationality to lead his decisions. A devoted father, husband, music lover, tennis player, friend, and PIKE, he leaves a legacy of public service to all whose lives he's touched.

"With Senator Thad Cochran's passing, Mississippi and the nation lost a giant public servant, and Pi Kappa Alpha lost a terrific brother. Without question, Pi Kappa Alpha helped shape Thad Cochran as a man and a leader. His undergraduate experience as treasurer and president at Gamma Iota Chapter taught him valuable lessons that he carried into public service later in life. He understood fraternity and brotherhood as highest ideals, and he championed them throughout his life. During my service as his chief of staff, we often discussed the Fraternity, its mission, and our various experiences. He loved Pi Kappa Alpha and genuinely valued his membership. Throughout his five decades on Capitol Hill as both a House and Senate member, he was always very generous in making time to host, address, and attend alumni and chapter events, especially Congressional Founders Day in Washington, D.C. And he welcomed the opportunity to greet PIKE undergraduates and alumni alike when they would visit Capitol Hill. I will always cherish his support and encouragement of my service as Pi Kappa Alpha national president - that happened to coincide with the time I served on his staff. Thad Cochran was, indeed, a very special brother in Pi Kappa Alpha. He is truly one of our legends," stated Past International President William N. LaForge (Delta State, Zeta Beta '96).

Cochran is survived by his wife, the former Kay Bowen Webber; one brother, Nielsen Harris Cochran; two children, Thaddeus Clayton Cochran and Katherine Holmes Cochran, and three grandchildren.

PAT BOWLEN
(Oklahoma, Beta Omicron '63)

Pat Bowlen, legendary owner of the Denver Broncos, and Pi Kappa Alpha Distinguished Achievement Award recipient, entered Chapter Eternal on June 13, 2019.

Bowlen's passing came less than two months before he was inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 3. During Bowlen's tenure, the Denver Broncos, one of the NFL's most successful franchises, won 333 regular season games, third in the league behind New England (346) and Pittsburgh (334) and recorded a .598 winning percentage, fifth-best in American pro sports. The team won 13 AFC West titles, posted 21 winning seasons and reached the playoffs 18 times, and won three Super Bowls, 32, 33, and 50, under Bowlen's leadership.

Bowlen was a passionate hands-on owner who was beloved by his players and employees. He donated more than $30 million to Denver area charities. He stepped away from running day-to-day operations of the club in 2014 due to Alzheimer's disease.

"Pat Bowlen had a competitive spirit with a great sense of humor," the Bowlen family said in a statement. "We will forever remember his kindness and humility."

In 1999, Bowlen was interviewed for the Shield & Diamond. Thinking back on his days at Beta Omicron Chapter, he said, "The things I learned as a member of the Fraternity, with all those different guys with all those different agendas, help me to this day. Looking back on the business career I've had, a lot relates to the experiences I had as a college student and a member of Pi Kappa Alpha. What I learned is that you've got to have an agenda. You've got to decide what you want to do with your life and stick with that." His father, Paul D. Bowlen, was initiated into Pi Kappa Alpha at Beta Omicron Chapter in 1935.

In 1988, Bowlen was inducted into the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation's Order of West Range, and in 2000, he received the Fraternity's Distinguished Achievement Award.

Bowlen is survived by his wife, Annabel, and their five children, Patrick Dennis III, John Michael, Brittany Alexandra, Christianna Elizabeth, and Annabel Victoria; his first wife, Sally Parker, and their two children, Amie Klemmer and Beth Bowlen Wallace; his brothers Bill Bowlen and John Bowlen; and sister Mary Beth Jagger.

Association, College Media Advisors of the Associated Collegiate Press Association and Public Relations Society of America.

During his years as chair, the department grew from 45 majors to more than 400 and received accreditation from the ACEJMC. The department provided 16 percent of all seniors selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities at Murray State.

McGaughey received several recognitions and awards for his work at Murray State. In 1984 he was named Max Carmen Outstanding Teacher of the Year by the Student Government Association. He was named Distinguished Professor of the Year by the Murray State Alumni Association in 1990. He served on Epsilon Lambda's alumni advisory board and house corporation, and the International Fraternity awarded him the Volunteer of the Year Award for 2015-16.

He was selected 8 times to attend the International Radio and Television Society (IRTS) faculty-industry seminar in New York City. In 1987, he was named the Frank Stanton Fellow of the IRTS as the distinguished broadcast educator in the U.S.

Active as an advisor to student organizations and media organizations, he received several recognitions from groups such as Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, including the Pi Kappa Alpha Distinguished Alumnus in 1977, Omicron Delta Kappa Advisor of the Year; and the Kentucky Press Association Distinguished Service Award in 1989. He served for 10 years as executive director of the West Kentucky Press Association, and two terms as education representative on the KPA board of directors. In 2012, he was inducted into the Kentucky Journalism Hall of Fame.

He was named the Boss of the Year by the Murray Chapter of Professional Secretaries International in 1989. He retired as chair in 1997, but continued to teach, write and speak, often with his long-time associate professor Robert Valentine. Together they were known as "The Communicators" or, to their fans, "Dr. Trey and Dr. Vee."

He was co-head of MSU's Elizabeth Residential College from 2000 to 2002 but continued to serve on the faculty of Elizabeth College and presented his last program there in March 2019.

Honorary pallbearers representing Pi Kappa Alpha were Epsilon Lambda Chapter brothers Eddie Hunt '62, Jerry Penner '79, and Tab Brockman '79; the Romeo Club, and G.G.G. Golf Group.

He is survived by cousins, Virginia Buchanan, Don Adair, Claudia Ricci, Rosalee Anderson, and Ed Owens; and good friends, Don and Mary Moore, Phil and Sarah Bryan and family, and Bob and Vicki Jo Valentine.

“My challenge remains to the men of Gamma Beta – fulfill your academic goals, invest in your university and community, and always strive to carry a gentlemanly attitude.”

At the 20th anniversary of the rechartering of Gamma Beta Chapter at the University of Nebraska this past spring, I shared with the chapter members that I would be stepping down as Gamma Beta chapter advisor.

What started as a journey 21 years ago as a founding father of the Colony at the University of Nebraska has turned into building lifelong relationships with Pikes from across the country, spanning multiple decades. As I look back on the time I have spent serving as a volunteer to Gamma Beta Chapter and the Pi Kappa Alpha International Fraternity, I see how initially helping to establish the Gamma Beta Alumni Association led me to volunteer roles of housing corporation president and, for the past 13 years, Gamma Beta's chapter advisor.

Recently, I have enjoyed working alongside the vice president of membership development and his cabinet to help implement the True PIKE Experience within the chapter. I was able to lead an exercise on the importance of communication, which led to valuable conversations within the membership. As the chapter and I work together to transition to our next chapter advisor, my challenge still remains to the men of Gamma Beta – fulfill your academic goals, invest in your university and community, and always strive to carry a gentlemanly attitude.

It has been a pleasure to foster a relationship with various leaders of the University of Nebraska, including the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life, Nebraska Alumni Association, and Chancellor's Office. Through these relationships, I have been a part of discussions on campus regarding the university's 25-year strategic plan with the goal of ensuring that the Greek system will thrive for years to come.

I am proud to say that during my time as Gamma Beta chapter advisor, I have been able to watch the colony that I joined grow into a Smythe-winning chapter. I have encouraged the chapter leadership to keep pushing during challenging times and cheered them on during the good times.

I believe my dedication and service to the undergraduate men has, in turn, shown the members what it looks like to be a mentor. The qualities of accessibility and being a knowledgeable resource will take them a long way as they look to do the same in their alumnus years.

I am confident in the hands into which I am placing the keys as I depart from my role, and I am excited to see what the future brings to Gamma Beta Chapter.

For information on how to join an advisory team near you, contact Director of Alumni Engagement Chase Dannenbaum at 901-748-1868 ext. 1112 or cdannenbaum@pikes.org.
